I get the word that Gary Owen is a proud father again. I don't know what the little fellow's name is, which reminds me of the tale from "the lady next door".

I hear you have a new baby brother," asked the lady to a little boy.

"Yes I do," he replied.

"What's his name, she inquired?"

"We don't know. He hasn't stopped crying long enough to tell us!"

If you see Gary and he looks as if he hasn't slept in about a month of Sundays, then you'll know that his little tyke is the same type as the above.

Local Chamber manager Gene Allen told me earlier this year that the emphasis would be on better programs for the Chamber luncheons. This, it was believed, would help improve the sagging attendance at the monthly retes.

Monday, those that attended, heard one of the best programs that has been brought before any group in this area in a long time. Douglas Lee, a United States born Chinese, and who has degrees in East Asian History spoke on what he felt the effects the recent trip President Nixon made to China had. He discussed the history of China and its economic growth as well as the economic effects that the President's trip might have on our Nation's economy.

All I can say is if they expect to top this program next month, then they'll have to look mighty hard for a speaker.

We hear it quite often about how much many people think of Burkburnett and what a fine town it is in which to live. A letter sent recently to Bill Vincent at Texas Electric noted this fact better than what possibly has ever been said.

The letter, from J. A. and M. L. Burri, formerly of 1205 Bishop Road who have since moved to California, was a directive to terminate electric service at their Burkburnett address. The first of the letter contained information on the cutoff date, etc. but the last paragraph is what is really worth mentioning. It said, "Your service was faultless, and we would like to mention that Burkburnett is a wonderful community. Very few places will treat a serviceman and his family like human beings or welcome them in the community. Burkburnett made us feel we belonged and we were at home with you."

I feel that reasons like those listed above by former citizens of Burkburnett enable Burkburnett to experience its remarkable growth in the recent years. The letter stated "Very few places . . ." and if you will recall in the last census very few places showed growth like that of Burkburnett. I think there is a common denominator between these two facts.

I gave some thought about the INFORMER/STAR adopting the work regulations that I mentioned last week. Since then, however, I have run across something that if each of us would remember it might improve relations--"If you are a self-starter, then your boss won't have to be a crank."

"The next week, thanks for reading the Informer/Star."

JACK MILDREN SPEAKER

Sports Banquet Friday Night

The main attraction for all the sports enthusiasts attending the annual Bulldog Booster Club's All Sports Banquet Friday night will be the appearance of Oklahoma University's prized quarterback, Jack Mildren of Adilene.

Mildren is the man who has been credited with making the "zone" wishbone-T offense go. "He certainly has to be one of the finest option quarterbacks in the country," according to Coach Barry Switzer, Sooners' assistant head coach who directs the offense. "He is extremely intelligent. Jack has always been a good passer. He throws the long one real well."

Mildren is durable; he has never missed action because of an injury. In OU's wishbone attack, the quarterback took severe punishment with defensive people keying on him.

Classed as only a mediocre passer, Mildren has proved better than that by completing 31 of 64 passes for 878 yards in the past season.

Mildren's statistics grew toward the end of the season when enemy defenses concentrated on OU's wide attack and on Greg Pruitt. This left Mildren with more opportunity to run and pass.

Mildren will be leaving OU this spring but will leave behind him records that won't be broken overnight. In total offense for a season, his record is 2018 yards and for his career, 4818 yards. His best day as a rusher came in 1971 against Kansas State when he ran 11 times for 156 yards, a 14.2 average. He scored twice during the game, once on a 42-yard run with a 65-yard TD run called back.

Mildren's vital football statistics boast 193 rushing attempts with a 5.9 yard average per carry, 17 touchdowns, and two PATs.

The college football star will be introduced to the banquet audience by booster club vice president, Mickey Cornelius.

Chamber Hears Excellent Talk

"President Nixon's trip to China opened a new chapter in human relations with the most important facet of the trip being that it DID occur," stated Douglas Lee to the forty members and guests present for the monthly Burkburnett Chamber of Commerce luncheon Monday.

Lee, a part-time history professor at Midwestern University, has a BA and MA degree from the University of Michigan specializing in East Asian history. He is stationed at Sheppard Air Force and is connected to the School of Health Care Science.

Lee told the group that no longer are things black or white, but rather today there exists various shades of gray. Economic development is important to us all, stated Lee, to the people of China, the United States and even to the citizens of Burkburnett. We all live on one planet and we must learn how to share the ecology, preserve our natural resources, etc. Foreign trade has both a direct and an indirect effect on our community, stated Lee.

He reported the economic development of China is state controlled and is of course dominated by the Communist Party. Since over 1/2 the world is neither white nor western, China is a model for the Economic Development for over 1/2 the world. "These people are looking for a way to enter the 20th century Economic World," stated Lee.

He further said that China has a planned economy like that of Russia, which is set up on 5 year and 10 year plans and longer.

In the period of years from 1949-60 China put much emphasis on trade imports on heavy equipment. In the period of 1949-55 the Chinese had built up a great deficit to Russia. During the two years

One Contested Race For School Board Places

Only one person threw his hat into the ring to oppose the incumbents in the Burkburnett School Board Election. Ira Schroeder of 805 Easy Street filed last week for Place 5 on the ballot, the position filed for earlier by incumbent Floyd Marten. Incumbent John Gill, who holds Place 4 is unopposed in the race. Deadline for filing was last Wednesday, March 1.

Schroeder, who has lived in Burkburnett for the past nine years, owns and operates a convenience food store in Wichita Falls on the old Iowa Park Road. He and his wife Donna have three sons, Ricci, a freshman student; Kevin, who is in the 6th grade; and Les who is in the 3rd grade. They also have one daughter, Kelli, 4 years of age.

Schroeder is active in the Burkburnett Little League Baseball program and managed the championship baseball team last year. He is an elder and a Sunday School teacher in the Grace Lutheran Church.

In a statement to the INFORMER/STAR, Schroeder said, "I am very interested in the youth of our community and I would like to see them have the best that we can give them. If elected I'll be a full time Board Member. Incumbent Floyd Marten will be seeking his fourth term on the local Board. Marten was elected to the Board in 1961 to fill the unexpired term of Howard Preston. He has been re-elected for the three consecutive three-year terms since that time.

Marten and his wife Rhee have two children and reside at 705 Sunset. He is a 30-year employee of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. where he serves as Service Foreman. Born and raised in Burkburnett, Marten is a graduate of Burkburnett High School.

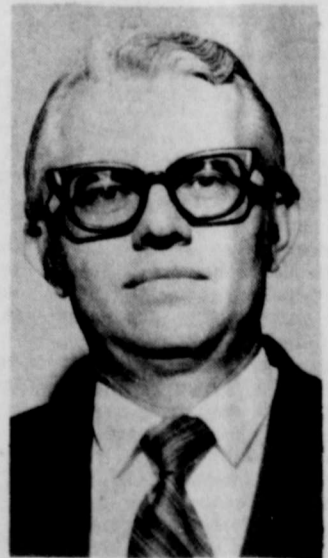

"I'm interested in our total school program, our youth, and our community as a whole," stated Marten, "and for those three important reasons I'm filing for re-election to the School Board."

John Gill, who is the incumbent for Place 4, is unopposed in the election. Gill will be seeking re-election to his second term on the Board.

John and his wife Joyce own and operate a local food store here. They have two children, Robert, age 16, and Patti, age 13.

The track program and the entire athletic programs at the Burkburnett School received a big boost Monday night with the local school board giving the nod to build an all weather track for next year's activities.

Members of the school board in their regular meeting, heard the report from the Track Committee on what would best suit the needs of the local athletic program. "An all weather track, and we recommend a Reslite Track, would best suit our purposes," stated Bill Froman, local athletic director. Froman and Bill Darland, high school principal, recently completed a visit to several schools that had good track programs in order to seek as much information about the best type of track to construct.

The board okayed the bid of $37,425 to Vibra World of Panhandle, Texas to construct a Reslite Track. Marvin Sparks, a representative of that firm, met with the school board and related to them how the track substance is made and answered questions concerning his firm, which he stated has been making athletic equipment for over 20 years.

Sparks told the group that Reslite is actually ground up rubber mixed with a special substance similar to asbestos. Rubber, asphalt and sand, in addition to the substance, are Early last week it appeared as if the election for the four places for the Burkburnett City Council would only have the incumbents seeking their old posts. By the 5:00 filing deadline Friday afternoon that changed greatly, however.

A. E. (Earl) Brown, Charles (Chuck) Lindborn, Marvin Henderson, and Donald Pate filed last week against the four incumbents which are T. M. Cornelius, Albert Dillard, J.L. Caffee and Billy J. Smith.

These eight men will not run for special places nor against certain individuals, but rather the four candidates with the largest number of votes will be the ones elected to the four council posts.

A. E. (Earl) Brown is the former principal at Sheppard-Burk elementary school, a post from which he retired last year. He retired from the United States Air Force in Sept. of 1964 as a Lt. Col.

He attended schools in Texas and Oklahoma and holds degrees from the University of Oklahoma, Norman, Okla. He has served as president of four different county teachers associations in Texas and Oklahoma. He began his teaching career in 1924.

Brown is active in the local Rotary Club as well as other organizations. He and his wife reside at 514 S. Hilltop.

"I am entering my name as a candidate for member of the City Council," stated Brown, "because I believe it is the duty of good citizens to assume civic responsibility. I am not dissatisfied with the work of the present city council members, but several have served for a long time. If the position is somewhat of a burden, all of us should help bear it; if it is an honor which I believe it to be, then others should be allowed to share it."

Brown continued, "I consulted with no one before I filed for the office. I represent no group or block, nor do I wish to be supported by such. I want to represent the best interests of all the people of Burkburnett. I believe my education, background, and experience make me capable of doing so in an efficient manner. I seek the

The lines on the track are permanent and the track itself requires a very minimum of upkeep, according to other schools that have the same type structures.

In other action the board accepted the resignations of Willis Bartley, Jane McCoy, Alicia Nemecek, Betty Powell, Mrs. Jimmie Slack and David Yearly. The retirement of Eudora Lindsey was also accepted. The board approved the employment of Anne Gillespie for High School English and Linda Phillips for Jr. High PE.

TEEN TALK

By Laura Allison

Another six weeks is finally over, and it seemed longer than all the other ones put together. I guess that's because the closer the end of school comes, the slower the time goes. But this is especially true for us seniors who only have a couple of months left. We are all wondering why we didn't go ahead and graduate at mid-term like we were going to. No, we figured that the second semester would be a breeze, but we know different now after "Return of the Native" and our term papers. It almost seems like our teachers are trying to work us so hard that we want to get out, but I guess they just want to cram it all into our thick heads before they lose their chance. But one thing for sure, our two days of vacation last week really helped get us rested to start our school work all over again.

The main thing that helps pass the time is all the school activities that are planned. The ABWA carnival begins Thursday, March 9, and lasts for nine days. It opens every day at 9:00 p.m. and closes at 10:00 p.m., with the exception of Sunday when it is open from 1:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m. The seniors will have the dunking machine, so come on out and see if you can dump our senior girls into the water.

Friday afternoon the Bulldog baseball team plays its first game. They go up against Rider here at Hays Field. That night after the game, Jack Mildren of the University of Oklahoma will speak at the All Sports Banquet. Saturday morning the junior high and high school bands will participate in UIL Solo and Ensemble Contest at Midwestern University. That same day, the high school track team will have a meet at Graham. It certainly looks like we're in for a busy spring!

Sr. Citizens Hold Regular Thurs. Meet

The Senior Citizens met in their regular meeting for February at the Community Center.

Mrs. W. C. Trevena, president, presided over a short business session after the luncheon.

The results of a survey on what the club prefers to have during their meetings showed that the majority favored games, socials, and trips.

The program for the day was a short skit by a group from the First Baptist Church concerning senior citizens.

The next meeting will be held today.

To Celebrate Anniversary

The American Legion's 53rd Anniversary and the Auxiliary's 52nd anniversary will be celebrated with a dinner starting at 6:00 p.m. March 18, at the Frye-Vaughn Post #264 Building.

of 1956 and 1957, China paid back this deficit and had built up a surplus. Thus, from 1958-60 China traded mostly with Russia, but from 1960 until today, more and more of its' trade has been going to the west and non-communist countries.

"If America is to make inroads into China, then it must understand its interfeelings," stated Lee.

Population and food are the two main problems of the Chinese. China currently has 830 million people with 15 more million added to that number each year. "In other words," reported Lee, "you could line up the Chinese 10 abreast and march them across a line and you would never run out of Chinese to march across the line".

"I feel that misplacing concern in East Asia is not our main problem," stated Lee, "but rather we must realize that we are a Pacific power and that we must correct situations where we have misunderstood and misjudged".

"We can help China help itself".

I believe that trade might serve as an effective tool for relations with China and that is what the President's trip was all about," reported Lee.

President of the Chamber, Reid McCandless, issued the names of the chairmen for the special committees for the coming year and asked that they attend the directors luncheon, which will be held today.

Committees and their heads included:

Agri-Business, J.B. Riley, Jr.; Boomtown Rodeo; Boomtown Oil Park, Loretta Hunt; Community Development, Vernon Duncan; Government Affairs, T. M. Cornelius; Highway Progress, Clark Gresham; Industrial Development, Jack Aaron; Military Affairs, Jack Mathis; Special Affairs, Jim Frye; Tourist Promotion, Walt Doerre; and Trade Promotion, Pat Lip-pard.

Rep. Stewart To Bring Sub-Committee Here

A 22 member committee has recently been selected to study alternate methods to finance the Texas Public Schools. This action was brought about due to the three man Federal Court in San Antonio declaring the present method of financing Texas Public Schools unconstitutional.

Rep. Vernon Stewart announced late Tuesday evening that he has arranged for a sub-committee of the larger group to be in Burkburnett April 7 to receive suggestions from the local people on what they think would be the best way for the schools to be financed. The meeting will be held in the new Burkburnett Community Center and will begin at 9 a.m.

"The sub-committee would prefer that statements brought before them be in writing where they can be retained as a part of their records," stated Stewart. "If you have a suggestion though, just let me know." Stewart continued, "and I'll assure you a chance to speak to the committee."

The Texas Legislature has until the end of the next session to come up with an alternate plan to finance public schools.

"I hope that whatever they (the committee) suggest to the legislature they will leave as much local control as possible to the local schools," stated Stewart.

$5,616.66 in delinquent taxes. Zell Schmidt, president of the local TSTA and Clarence Porter, president-elect of that group, appeared before the board asking them to grant teachers an extra three days non-accumulative sick leave that a teacher may use for personal sickness or sickness in their immediate family. They also asked for two additional days that a teacher might use for personal or professional business.

Currently the school gives five days accumulative sick leave for teachers only.

The board tabled action on this proposal to the June meeting which is the normal time the board amends school policies.

The School Calendar for 1972-73 was set with August 14-18 being the dates for enrollment. Other special dates included the first day of school on August 29; New, 22-27, Thanksgiving Holiday; Dec. 21-Jan. 2, Christmas Holiday; April 18-24, Easter Holiday; and final report cards being handed out May 31.

The employment of a cafeteria supervisor was tabled to next Monday night when the board will have a special meeting for the purpose of hiring teachers.

Riding Club Play Day Here Sunday

The Burkburnett Riding Club had its monthly meeting Thursday night.

The meeting was called to order by President Elmer Klunkerman and new members for the month, the Bill Hoover family and Willie Crowder family were welcomed. Jack Spanble presented the by-laws and requested four major changes which were voted on and approved.

A report on the district playdays which are held in Electra was given with details of each being discussed at length.

Frank Smith, district president, reported that the National Finals Playday will be held in Waco the fourth week of July this year.

Burk's Play day which will be held Sunday was discussed. It was decided that Windell Goins, Tom Lowery, Frank Smith, and Elmer Klunkerman would work on the arena and have it in top-notch shape before Sunday.

Cook the automatic way!

Choose AMERICA'S FAVORITE the Electric Range

There's nothing nicer for the kitchen than a new flameless electric range with an automatic oven and automatic surface unit.

Just pop the meal into the automatic oven. Set the time and temperature controls. Then do something else while the oven sees to the cooking.

The automatic surface unit keeps the food in the pan at the right cooking temperature. No scorching. No boil-overs. No reason for pot watching.

If you include an oven that's self-cleaning, all you have to do is let it clean itself automatically!

Nice? Very nice. It's easy to see why electric ranges are the Number One seller in the country.

There are many other good reasons for choosing America's favorite. See your appliance dealer soon about a new electric range.

Congressman Price Says People Are Against Busing

Congressman Bob Price testified Tuesday before a subcommittee of the House Judiciary Committee which is holding hearings on proposed amendments to the Constitution which would have the effect of making the forced busing of students unconstitutional.

Excerpts of Price's testimony are as follows: "From the outset, I would like to clarify exactly what I am referring to as well as what I am not referring to when I talk about 'busing.' I am not referring to the busing of school children that has been taking place for many years in rural areas like so much of my West Texas district, nor am I referring to the normal kind of busing that takes place in the city. I am not referring to busing to busing in these forms, nor do I oppose busing in these forms, because this type of busing is in nearly every case merely a means of getting school children transported from their homes to the public school nearest them in the safest, quickest way possible and because--above all else--this type of busing is a voluntary act on the part of the school children and their taxpaying parents.

"What I am referring to when I talk about busing is forced, compulsory, involuntary busing solely for the purpose of achieving some sort of racial balance in school population.

"Despite loud outcries to the contrary, I want it understood unequivocally that this issue of busing is not an issue of race. Opposition to busing in order to achieve racial balance in public schools does not constitute an attempt to perpetuate segregation in those areas where it may still exist. Busing is not a method at once embraced by blacks and rejected by whites--on the contrary, it is, in my Congressional district at least, uniformly shunned by blacks and white alike. I have received much mail on this matter of busing, as have all my colleagues, and the will of the people is clearly ascertainable on the issue.

"Let me articulate, if I may be permitted to attempt to do so, why so many are so upset and concerned about this one issue which would effect actually only a small percentage of the total number of students throughout the country. I believe that the two major reasons form the bedrock on which the outcry of opposition to busing is based. FIRST, the people simply do not accept the underlying prin-

Janlee Youths Attend Retreat

Twenty-nine young people and 5 sponsors returned last Saturday afternoon from the Artuckle Mountains in Oklahoma where the Falls Creek Baptist Assembly is located from a youth retreat. They left last Thursday morning for two and one-half days of fun and refreshment in the hills.

During the time they were away they spent time in Bible study also. I Corinthians was the primary book of study with emphasis on race relations, alcoholic beverages, dancing, and other problems that Christian young people face.

Each evening they gathered around a camp fire and enjoyed the relaxed atmosphere of being away from a hurried city life. Most of the young people attending came home with a renewed spirit.

Sponsors attending the retreat were Dee Sykes, Weldon Hall, Mrs. Penny Creekmore, Rev. and Mrs. Wayne S. Glazener.

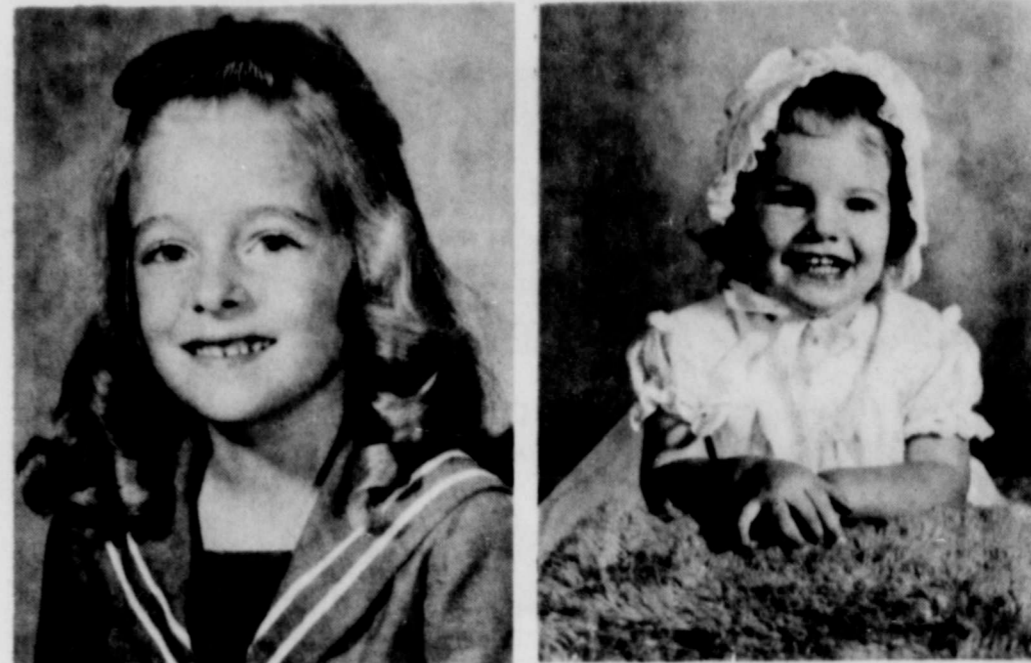

ciple that a mathematically precise distribution of students is necessary for quality education, which is what federal courts are trying to tell us. And, SECOND, the people reject the mandatory aspect of this Court-directed homogenization of human beings.

"What the courts are trying to do--and what the people do not want to have done--is to take some more of the freedom of the people away from them.

"The people want neighborhood schools, the people want local control of their schools through their own locally-elected school boards. And when I say 'the people' I mean all of them, black and white. As a matter of fact, I have received from my own district more signatures on petitions and letters from blacks than I have from whites opposing forced busing.

"Forced busing is, in my opinion, damaging to students and adding inconvenience to parents. It involves much more than safety and economy, although those factors are important. It involves removing school children from familiar neighborhood groupings and busing them long distances solely to juggle percentages of races in schools. It is my contention that this results in a loss of neighborhood and community identity, a loss of control over the schools by the parents, and a likelihood that parents will not participate in their children's school activities to as great a degree due to the increased difficulty of doing so.

"In summation, let me say that the vast majority of people do not want it; they are determined not to have it; and, if the people are to be served, we, as the Representatives, must work to conform the policy of this government and the law of this land to the will of the people."

Red Cross Appealing For Funds To Sustain Flood Relief Operations

From Washington, D.C., the American Red Cross has sent out a nationwide appeal for funds to sustain its disaster relief operations now under way in three eastern states in the wake of severe flooding.

"The needs have been discussed with United Fund Officials of Wichita Falls," reported Jon Ayres, R.C. director, "and they recognize the need for extra funds for the support of these tragic disasters. We're asking the people of Wichita County area to help support this disaster relief. Cash donations (checks) in any amounts are badly needed and may be made to the American Red Cross, Disaster Relief to be forwarded on to help the families that have lost so many and so much. Monies may be brought or sent in to the ARC at 1809 Fifth in Wichita Falls.

being fed and sheltered by the Red Cross.

In Maine and Massachusetts, 3800 families have been affected by floods over the George Washington birthday weekend, which damaged nearly 800 homes. Red Cross chapters have fed over 2000 victims and emergency workers and provided assistance thus far to 500 families. Flooding centered in the area of York County, Maine and Rever, Mass. Rever alone had more than 786 homes destroyed or damaged and 1359 families affected.

Red Cross President, George M. Elsey, said the "extensive relief operation mounted in West Virginia, Mass. and Maine which may cost the organization a total of $2 million and occurs at a time when the National Disaster Budget is depleted."

"We hope," said Ayres, "that the generous people of our North Central Area will not let the Red Cross down in their efforts to help the people of other states."

Life In AF Community Offers Many Benefits

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS--"What you always wanted to know about the Air Force but were afraid to ask."

Bestselling book title? . . . Or maybe the question that faces many young married Air Force wives.

Living in the Air Force community as a young married is not the same as living in the civilian world, but the benefits are plentiful if one knows they exist and where to find them.

A panel of experienced Air Force wives answered questions at a round-table discussion concerning the life of an Air Force wife. The answers and suggestions for young married military wives resulted in the following article.

Family Services can lend many items that young marrieds or a transient couple can use.

Items for the house such as pots, pans, and dishes are available for the asking. An individual on Permanent Change of Station (PCS) orders can borrow items for up to a month with one extension permitted.

Baby furniture is also available and cots and appliances can be provided for an unexpected house guest.

The service has files on ALL Air Force bases, state-side and overseas. Looking over this information before moving your family could save you time and money.

A file listing babysitters is also available.

When emergencies arise, Family Services can provide help. Sometimes, if they can't supply the right material, help is just a word away.

If they can't help, they know who can.

An in-coming young married couple, armen or officer, should definitely make the orientation meeting of the Personal Affairs office. Many questions can be answered by experienced men and women.

The Personal Affairs Office meetings are conducted semi-annually. Speakers are from base housing, hospital, base exchange, commissary and the legal office. They will provide many helpful hints to benefit the Air Force wife.

Free nursery care is provided by certain organizations when sponsoring meetings. Chapels will provide care for your child during services and meetings.

The base nursery is open seven days a week; Monday, Wednesday and Sunday till 11 p.m. and Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday till 1 a.m. This is not a free service and appointments should be made.

Free medical care is available for all Air Force families. Appointments can be made by calling the appointment desk at 851-2953 or 851-2956.

Emergency room care is available without appointments, but it is not for treatment of minor cuts or normal colds and other common illnesses.

Many prescriptions that have been given by civilian doctors can be refilled at the hospital.

The Red Cross and the Air Force Aid Society can assist if an emergency comes up.

The Red Cross is involved in the conformation of emergency leave orders. Money can be borrowed if an unforeseen emergency occurs. It is NOT a loan agency to bail one out who over-obligates himself.

The Air Force Aid Society functions along similar lines as the Red Cross. Assistance is available when an emergency comes up beyond the reasonable control of the individual.

An important part of being an Air Force wife is getting involved. Understanding the husband's position and job in the Air Force is important.

It will build confidence for the woman to speak about it when she is with friends or husband.

How many times has the question come up "what does your husband do?" Explaining he is an instructor pilot or works for some letter group balled CBPO doesn't show an understanding for the job.

Do terms such as TDY, ETS, OJT, AFSC sound confusing?

Confidence and a feeling of belonging comes with being able to speak the Air Force lingo.

Understanding them takes time. The Air Force functions on these terms. Taking the time to understand the lingo of the Air Force and her husband's job gives the wife the confidence she needs to accept Air Force way of life.

Driving on a new base is like driving in a mass maze of confusion. It may seem impossible to find any important building. A tour of the base and the various facilities needed in the event of an emergency would prove interesting and useful.

Maps of the base can be obtained in the base guide, and at the main gate.

Discussion of questions concerning the problems encountered may help someone else in the same position and together the problem can be solved.

Submitting questions to the available facilities on base produces results by contacting the right people in the right way. The Chaplains, Red Cross plus many other agencies are available. These people can be called when questions or emergencies arise.

Becoming concerned about the Air Force community and taking part in activities provided is an important step in obtaining a positive attitude during the husband's enlistment.

If the wife becomes part of the community, her stay in the Air Force can be interesting and profitable. Conversely if she refuses to join the society of which she has become a member, the wife will probably be a most miserable person.

That way she won't be of much value to anyone, the highest honor which can be accorded," said Col. Anderson W. Atkinson, acting center commander.

"This is certainly a tribute to our commander, Maj. Gen. Jerry D. Page, for providing the leadership and showing the way," he continued. "Equally, it is a tribute to all Sheppard personnel, military and civilian, who have proved their dedication to professional excellence."

General Page, who was STTC commander during the past year, has recently requested retirement.

Criteria includes mission accomplishment, management of resources, management improvements and functional area award competition.

"There is no substitute for being the best, and being recognized as such is indeed the

Sheppard Personnel Earn Awards For Suggestions

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS--Seventeen Sheppardites earned awards totaling $1,360 and saving the Air Force more than $13,100 for ideas submitted to the Suggestion Program at Sheppard.

Twelve of the suggestors earned cash awards, the top one of $420 going to Rufus C. Gilbow Jr. of the 3750th Maintenance and Supply Group. His suggestion brought savings of nearly $7,400.

A $220 award went to Eugene S. Szczepinski, also of Maintenance and Supply Group. His suggestion saved the Air Force $3,400.

Capt. Charles A. Harsanyi of Sheppard's U.S. Air Force Regional Hospital received $170 for his suggestion which saved more than $2,300.

Two awards of $150 went to TSgt. Walter G. Haffet of the U.S. Air Force School of Health Care Sciences and TSgt. Edison G. Darrow of 3750th Technical School. Both of these awards were based on intangible benefits.

Awards of $50 were presented to Col. William H. Behrens of the School of Health Care Sciences and Sgt. Samuel Gardner of the Maintenance and Supply Group. Sgt. Stuart N. Jennings of the Technical School earned $45, and Joyce H. Martin of 3750th Air Base Group earned $30.

Three awards of $25 went to Noah L. Scrimsher of Air Base Group and George J. Maxwell and SSgt. Jose F. Herrera of Maintenance and Supply Group.

Curry Receives Service Medal

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS--Chief Warrant Officer Lewis J. Curry was awarded the Meritorious Service Medal Tuesday along with his certificate of retirement to end more than 30 years of military service.

The awards were presented to Mr. Curry by Col. Anderson W. Atkinson, commander of Sheppard Technical Training Center during formal retreat ceremonies.

He received the Meritorious Service Medal for the performance of outstanding service to the United States while assigned to the Department of Field Training of the 3750th Technical School at Sheppard from July 10, 1966, to Feb. 29, 1972.

"During this period," according to the citation, "the outstanding professional skill, leadership and ceaseless efforts of Chief Warrant Officer Curry resulted in major contributions to the effectiveness and success of Air Force Field Training programs." Mr. Curry retired from his position as chief of Resources Control with the Field Training Detachment. He plans to remain in Wichita Falls.

SHEPPARD AIR FORCE BASE

STTC Announced As First ATC Outstanding Center

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS--Sheppard Technical Training Center at Sheppard AFB has been selected as the first recipient of the Air Training Command Outstanding Center Award according to an announcement by Lt. Gen. George B. Simler, ATC commander.

The new award honors the command's training center achieving the highest effectiveness in overall operations. The trophy is slated to be presented during the ATC Commander's Conference in April.

Criteria includes mission accomplishment, management of resources, management improvements and functional area award competition.

"There is no substitute for being the best, and being recognized as such is indeed the highest honor which can be accorded," said Col. Anderson W. Atkinson, acting center commander.

"This is certainly a tribute to our commander, Maj. Gen. Jerry D. Page, for providing the leadership and showing the way," he continued. "Equally, it is a tribute to all Sheppard personnel, military and civilian, who have proved their dedication to professional excellence."

General Page, who was STTC commander during the past year, has recently requested retirement.

In determining winners, a headquarters selection committee examines training production, U. S. Air Force and ATC inspector general reports, resources conservation programs, junior officer and airman retention programs, On - the Job - Training programs, logistics effectiveness and efficiency, information activities and Air Force and ATC functional area awards won during the period of competition.

"Now that we're out in front," said Colonel Atkinson, "let's widen the gap in 1972."

"Let's widen the gap in 1972."

Groundbreaking Held On Base

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS--Ground was broken Thursday morning for an addition to the Airman's Open Mess at Sheppard AFB. Present at the official ceremony was Col. S. D. Berman, commander of Sheppard AFB, MSgt. Walter R. Kitson, Open Mess Secretary-Custodian, and members of the Airman's Club Advisory Council.

The addition will consist of a new ballroom with capacity for 600 airman, a private party room for special functions such as weddings and private parties, a private TV room, a barber shop specializing in hair stylings, and an extended game room.

Of particular interest is the new ballroom. It will be separated from the present ballroom by an electrically operated partition enabling either two shows to be held in two separate ballrooms or one big show to be staged in one combined room.

The present club building, erected in 1970, was designed with the idea that an addition would one day be completed. The present club has a capacity for 1,500 people while the membership of the club is more than 5,000. It is hoped that the addition will enable the club to provide more and better service to the members at Sheppard.

NOW CELEBRATING 60th ANNIVERSARY

What Is A Girl Scout?

Arnold Oliver Promoted To Sr. Engineer Position

Robert H. Scheider, Jr., District Engineer of District 3, has announced the promotion of Arnold W. Oliver to Senior Resident Engineer at Graham, Texas. Mr. Oliver will assume duties of the Graham Residency on March 1, 1972.

Mr. Thomas H. Sutherland preceded Mr. Oliver in the position for nineteen years until his untimely death on February 22, 1972.

Mr. Oliver is a graduate of the Burkburnett High School and attended Midwestern University in Wichita Falls and Howard Payne College in Brownwood before receiving his Bachelor of Science degree in Civil Engineering at the University of Texas in 1960. He joined the Texas Highway Department in 1960 as an engineering assistant, and has progressed through the ranks to his new position.

He is a Registered Professional Engineer, and was named the "Outstanding Young Engineer" for the year 1968, by the North Central Texas Chapter of the Texas Society of Professional Engineers. Mr. Oliver is a past State Director of the Texas Society of Professional Engineers, and is a past president of the local chapter.

Mr. Oliver is a member of the First Baptist Church of Burkburnett, and serves as a deacon. He is former chairman of the Board of Deacons, and serves as the Church Training Director. He is a former member of the Lion's Club and the Chamber of Commerce in Burkburnett. He is a member of S. F. E. S. G. S. A. (Barber Shop Quartet), and is active with this organization in appearances and other activities. He is currently a director of the Texas Highway Department Employees Credit Union.

Mr. Oliver served with the U.S. Army from 1957 to 1959.

He is married to the former Marilyn Sue Cunningham of Graham, Texas and they have two children; Cheryl, 7, and Jeff, 11. Mr. Oliver and his family now live in Burkburnett, and will be moving to Graham shortly after the end of the current school year.

Sixty years ago March 12, Juliette Gordon Low, recently returned from England, called a friend and told her, "I've got something for the girls of Savannah and all America and all the world, and we're going to start it tonight!" That night "Daisy" Low and her friend organized the first Girl Guides in America, later renamed Girl Scouts. That beginning with 18 members has now reached nearly three million girls and 600,000 adult volunteers in the United States alone.

Juliette Low had learned about scouting from the founder of Boy Scouts and Girl Guides in England, Lord Baden Powell, his Olive and sister, Agnes. Lord Baden Powell had originated the idea of scouting when he was stationed in India with the British Army. He discovered his men knew nothing about living out-of-doors. The techniques he used to teach his men were also valuable to boys at home in England, so the scouting movement was begun.

The very first Girl Scouts did not wear the familiar green uniforms but were dressed in a dark blue middie and shirt with a light blue tie, but in 1913, the uniform was changed to a khaki blouse and skirt with a black kerchief and felt campaign hat for both girls and their leaders.

Only three years later the first local council charter was issued to National Girl Scouts to Toledo, Ohio and the same year, the first troop for physically handicapped girls in the United States was organized at the School for Crippled Children in New York City. Girl Scouts were honored for their concern for their nation when the United States Treasury Department struck in bronze a Girl Scout Liberty Loan Medal in 1918 in recognition of bond sales by Girl Scout during the First World War.

In 1927, the first United States Girl Scout troops were registered in foreign countries: three years later the first all-Indian Girl Scout troop was founded at the Indian Boarding School in Pawnee, Okla.

Girl Scouts have been selling cookies nationally since 1936. The following year, membership in the National organization reached 400,000. In 1937, three age levels were established, Brownie program for ages 7 to 9, Intermediate program for ages 10 to 13, and the senior program for ages 14 to 17. Now the program is divided into four levels, Brownie, 7 and 8; Junior, 9-11; Cadette, 12-14; and senior, 14-17.

The first Girl Scout troops from institutions for the mentally and socially handicapped were registered in 1940. In 1965, the Brownie Girl Scout Handbook was published in Japanese and the Senior Girl Scout Handbook was published in Spanish. The first Campus Girl Scouts, a special new group of adult volunteers, made up of young women college students, was officially recognized. Last year, the 30th million member of the Girl Scout organization was registered.

Ever since that first meeting in Georgia in 1912, the Girl Scout movement has been dedicated to the purpose in inspiring girls with the highest ideals of character, conduct, patriotism, and service so that they may become happy and resourceful citizens. The by work has been action-social action, interaction, ecological action, and community service action.

Lots of people still think Girl Scouts only go camping and sell cookies and though these are important aspects of being a Girl Scout, as in the past, they are concerned about what is happening in their community, nation, and world. And what's happening is drug abuse, pollution, prejudice. They don't pretend to solve everything, but at least they get involved in doing something positive instead of dropping out. They collect paper and bottles and cans for recycling and volunteer for hundred of hours of their time to be spent assisting those people in this world who need their help. They care about themselves and others. It can all be summed up in one phrase, "awareness-action". For sixty years, Girl Scouts have been helping themselves to realize their best potential their community to thrive and their nation endure.

Girl Scouting needs the support of its community both in adult leadership and in financing. Please help perpetuate this movement for personal and community betterment.

Mrs Baird baked her bread the old-fashioned yeast-rising way for wonderful flavor and soft texture.

Today her family still uses that baking method... because they still care about quality.

THE INFORMED CONSUMER

BY CRAWFORD C. MARTIN
Attorney General of Texas

Are you unwittingly participating in an illegal lottery scheme? Every day Texas consumers are solicited by promoters to operate lotteries in order to market their merchandise. Merchandise sold in this manner takes such varied form as children's toys and electric clocks.

These lottery schemes sometimes operate by the use of punchboard devices. The consumer is induced to buy the promoter's merchandise "without one cent of cost". The unwary consumer buys one of the promoter's products and gets one "free" along with a punchboard device. The consumer is then instructed to use this punchboard device by selling "chances" to his friends and neighbors for amounts of one cent to 29 cents per chance.

After all these "chances" are sold, the consumer will make a sufficient return to cover his original investment. The "lucky" winner on the punchboard receives the original "free" product from the consumer as his "lucky prize". Sounds like a good idea, doesn't it? The only catch is, the whole scheme is illegal in Texas!

The criminal law prohibits the POSSESSION as well as the use of a lottery type punchboard. By utilizing this scheme, an innocent Texas consumer engages in a criminal act. Needless to say, the promoters fail to point this out in explaining how you can get his product "without one cent of cost".

There are other types of illegal lotteries that do not utilize punchboard devices that you should be cautious about. All types of lotteries are illegal.

A lottery consists of three essential elements:

1. There must be an awarding of a prize which can be in the form of money, merchandise, or something else of value.
2. The prize must be awarded on the basis of chance. This can be in the form of a drawing or some other means of selection done in a manner so that chance, rather than skill or judgment, is the predominant element.
3. There must be consideration for the chance to win the prize.

Where these three elements are involved, the scheme is a lottery. As an informed consumer you should avoid participation in plans such as this.

Save Money, Frustration: Organize Now For Next Year's Income Tax

Having trouble with your income tax? Save yourself a lot of frustration and money, too, by getting organized now for this time next year.

Mrs. Doris Myers, home management specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, suggested keeping a few simple tax records of tax-deductible items.

"Sometimes a notebook serves a better purpose and is easier to keep than a printed record book," the specialist said. "Simply divide the book into categories of spending or money outlay for those items that are tax-deductible when expenses are itemized.

"You never know at the beginning of the year just how much some of these expenses will be."

Mrs. Myers said the medical expenses aren't certain until you get sick.

"Then it may be too late to be able to record all of them. Start the year off by keeping up with all of them by setting aside a portion of your book to record them. Separate medicines and drugs from other medical expenses. Since these expenses are handled separately on the tax form, it saves time to keep them separate from the beginning."

At the end of the year, the columns may be added quickly to determine if medicines and drugs total more than one percent of a person's adjusted gross income.

One-half of premiums on health insurance, up to a limit of $150, may be deducted, even though medical expenses don't exceed three per cent of income and can't be claimed, the specialist said.

"Cost of travel to get medical or dental care may be counted as a medical expense, subject to the three per cent limitation," Mrs. Myers said. "If you use your car, you may claim either out-of-pocket expenses or six cents a mile. If you claim mileage, it's a good idea to keep a speedometer reading as proof of travel."

Another portion of a record book may be set up to record contributions to religious and charitable organizations. As these contributions are made throughout the year, record the date, the organization and the amount. Save receipts and canceled checks to further substantiate deductions.

"Costs of travel as a volunteer for church or charity are deductible," she said. "Using your car, you may claim either out-of-pocket expenses or six cents a mile. Again, speedometer readings would be advisable to have in your records.

Interest paid on home mortgage, charge accounts, installment contracts and loans for personal and household use are deductible items that should be recorded. Early in 1971 the Internal Revenue Service ruled that all finance charges in credit cards and charge accounts are deductible as interest when deductions are itemized. Receipts showing amounts of interest paid should be kept for proof of payment.

When deductions are itemized, taxes on personal property, sales taxes and gasoline taxes are deductible.

"By keeping a simple record it's very easy to total these deductions and determine where you stand," Mrs. Myers said.

Cotton Totals From Altus

The USDA Cotton Classing Office at Altus recorded a season total of 174,769 samples classed through March 3, 1972, and the Memphis sub-office, which closed February 15, classed 144,396 for the season. Last year the final totals were 193,737 for Altus and 96,378 for Memphis.

Total classed this year at Altus from North Texas counties stood at 26,470 samples, compared with 25,892 last year, and 31,108 two years ago.

Grades on north Texas cotton classed this season were eight per cent White, 74 per cent Light Spotted, and 18 per cent Spotted. Twenty-eight per cent was reduced in grade because of bark or grass. The Grade Index was 85.9, with the predominant grades being 42 and 52. Last year the Grade Index was 91.4, with the predominant grades being 41, 32, and 42. Staples ranged mostly 30, 31, and 32, with the average being 31.4. This compares very closely with last year, when the predominant staples were in the same range and the average was 30.9.

Micronaire readings were in the 3.5 to 4.9 range on 82 per cent of the samples, with fourteen per cent falling in the low mike ranges. Last year there was also 82 per cent in the 3.5 to 4.9 range, but sixteen per cent was in the high mike range. Pressley readings showed fiber strength averaging 80,000 pounds per square inch this year, compared with 87,000 for the previous year.

The Consumer and Marketing Service reported market activity almost at a standstill. There is very little demand for qualities currently available. The lower grades, including Below Grades, were reported selling for 18.00 to 20.00 cents per pound. Contracting on next year's crop has declined. February combined estimates from Cotton Division offices showed about eleven per cent of next year's Texas crop was under some kind of sales agreement, and in Oklahoma about two per cent.

When deductions are itemized, taxes on personal property, sales taxes and gasoline taxes are deductible.

Chinese elm is a good tree for most sites in Texas for it is somewhat drought resistant. Cottonwood is a fast grower which may reach 60 to 80 feet in height. Osage Orange and Catalpa are medium-sized trees which do well on the more critical sites. The mulberry produces fruit which is eaten by birds and may be objectionable if planted close to houses.

Windbreak tree seedlings may not be used or resold for ornamental purposes. Order forms can be obtained from County Agricultural Agents, Soil Conservation District offices, the Texas Forest Service, Agronomy Department, Texas Tech University, Lubbock, Texas 79410 and from the Texas Forest, College Station, Texas 77843.

Cotton Is Planted Nonstop Across The State Of Texas

AUSTIN--As harvesting of the 1971 cotton crop is ending in North West Texas planting of the 1972 crop in the Rio Grande Valley is beginning.

Noting this continuous process in Texas' most valuable crop, Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White reminds cotton growers that the fight to control the destructive pink bollworm should be equally unabating.

Commissioner White sets planting and plow-up dates for cotton six zones of Texas, covering 100 counties, as authorized under the State's Pink Bollworm Control Act. He urges all cotton farmers in those zones to observe the planting dates so that the pink bollworm can be more effectively controlled.

Some cotton has already been planted in the Rio Grande Valley where planting dates

Foundation Proposed By Rep. Graham Purcell

WASHINGTON. U. S. Representative Graham Purcell (D-Tex.) introduced legislation to establish a Wheat and Wheat Foods Foundation today.

The veteran lawmaker was joined by more than a dozen cosponsors, both Democrat and Republican, in a bipartisan effort to increase the market for U.S. wheat.

Purcell, as Chairman of the Subcommittee on Livestock and Grains urged attention to rapid increases in the yields per acre of wheat over the last six years, while national consumption of wheat products declined over 45% during the same period.

"For the ten years I have been in Congress, I have devoted a large part of my efforts toward getting the wheat producer, and the wheat processor, to work on sound programs together. They must realize that they have the same interests—a better market for wheat; better sales, and more money to rural America.

"Today, I am proud to introduce legislation that I have been working toward for several years. It establishes a Wheat and Wheat Foods Foundation through a check-off program. The proceeds of the check-off—which is similar to that in the cotton program, will be used for research, education, and promotion of wheat and wheat products.

"To the wheat producer, the bill means more demand for his product, the public will be educated in the nutritional benefits of wheat products, and made to realize how essential are wheat foods in human diets as a deterrent to heart diseases and other illnesses.

"For our economy in North-west Texas, this bill means more money coming in, and for the taxpayer in the cities, it means a better diet through sound research and promotion which does not cost one cent of tax money.

"As Chairman of the Subcommittee on Livestock and Grains, I will do everything I can to push the passage of the bill this Congress."

Programs Planned For Small Grain Farmers

Rolling Plains farmers have two chances this month to learn much of what is being recommended in the production of small grains.

Small Grains Give Forage

Cattle by the tens of thousands have been foraging this winter on small grains in our Texas rolling plains—reason enough for two upcoming symposiums related to the maximum production of small grains.

First symposium is March 15 in Farmers National Bank at Seymour, and the second, March 16 in Wilbarger Auditorium at Vernon. Both programs are sponsored by the Texas Wheat Producers Board and the R-P-E-F Task Force for small grains.

Starting time both days is 1:30 p.m., when specialists of the Board and of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service will discuss those practices now recommended in selecting the varieties best adapted to our area, in fertilizing and grazing, in controlling insects and diseases, in storing and marketing, and in evaluating various farm programs.

And your County Agricultural Agent is a good man to see for additional information concerning these symposiums.

Scheduled March 15 in Farmers National Bank at Seymour is the 1972 Small Grain Symposium.

The same program and speakers will be presented the very next day in Wilbarger Auditorium at Vernon.

Starting time in both cities is 1:30 p.m.

On the program are discussions of current recommendations in selecting varieties of small grains, in fertilizing and grazing, in controlling insects and diseases, in storing and marketing, and in evaluating various farm programs.

Among speakers will be Bill Nelson, executive vice president of the Texas Wheat Producers Association, and the following specialists of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service:

Agronomist Dale A. Lovelace, economist Norman W. Brints and entomologist Emory P. Boring III, all of Vernon, and plant pathologist Robert W. Berry of Lubbock.

Sponsors are the Texas Wheat Producers Board and the Small Grains Task Force of the Rolling Plains Economic Program, the program begun four years ago to increase farm cash income in the 29 counties of the area.

Small grains are the basis of the forage that is supporting tens of thousands of stocker calves this winter in the Rolling Plains.

and putting in gardens. However, before taking that initial step, consider a control program for soil pests that may attack plants.

Soil insects can give home gardeners a lot of trouble, points out the county agent. Most common are wireworms, white grubs, rootworms, cutworms, mole crickets, and stalk borers.

Applying an insecticide two to three weeks before planting your garden will eliminate most soil insect problems. Recommended insecticides include chlordane and diazinon. Chlordane should be applied at three to six pounds of actual material per acre while diazinon should be applied at two to two-and-a-half pounds of actual material per acre (broadcast). Diazinon may also be banded at one pound per acre.

Both insecticides are available in either the spray or granular form and should be incorporated into the top three to five inches of soil.

Home gardeners complain each year about root knot nematodes in their tomatoes, okra, beans and other vegetable crops. These microscopic worms may be the reason for sickly plants that do not respond to fertilizer or water. Nematode presence can be recognized by galls or knots on plant roots.

If nematodes have been a problem in the past, treat your garden this spring before planting. The most widely used chemical for nematode control contains dibromochloropropane (DBCP). It is available at nurseries and farm supply stores.

Late winter or early spring after danger of a freeze is past is the best time to remove thatch from your lawn. Thatch is a tightly intermingled layer of living and dead stems, leaves and roots of grasses which develops between the layer of green vegetation and the soil surface.

A power machine (rake, vertical mower) designed to remove thatch is the best way to alleviate the problem. A rotary mower set at a low angle as possible can also be used to scalp the lawn. Be sure the soil is moist when removing thatch so as to prevent mechanical injury to grass.

Sixty 4-H Club members from Texas will be participating in a Texas 4-H Citizenship Short Course, July 5-18. The short course will be conducted in Washington, D.C. at the new National 4-H Center, while the heritage tour will include visits to historical points en route to and returning from Washington, D.C. 4-H'ers who will be juniors or seniors in high school this September are eligible to apply at the county agent's office.

With spring drawing near, many homeowners will be testing their "green thumbs"

Now Is The Time To Plant Trees

Tree planters have but two weeks left in which to order tree seedlings for windbreak construction.

According to Mason Cloud, head of the Forest Environment Department, Texas Forest Service, only five kinds of tree seedlings are still available -- Catalpa, Chinese Elm, Cottonwood, Mulberry, and Osage Orange.

"All remaining trees will be sold on a first-come-first-served basis until March 10, 1972. After that date," Cloud says, "no orders will be accepted.

Windbreak seedlings sell for $2.50 per 100 seedlings, plus the 4 percent state sales tax. Seedlings are shipped postpaid. Orders must be for 100 or more seedlings and in multiples of 50.

Chinese elm is a good tree for most sites in Texas for it is somewhat drought resistant. Cottonwood is a fast grower which may reach 60 to 80 feet in height. Osage Orange and Catalpa are medium-sized trees which do well on the more critical sites. The mulberry produces fruit which is eaten by birds and may be objectionable if planted close to houses.

Windbreak tree seedlings may not be used or resold for ornamental purposes.

HOPE

"And now abideth faith, HOPE, charity." 1 Cor. 13:3
When you receive Christ as your personal Saviour, you open doors to many treasures. The scripture states that there are "things that accompany salvation".

HOPE is a neglected treasure. It is not as popular as faith and love, yet HOPE is necessary to a Christian life. 1 Cor. 13:7 tells us "Love HOPETH all things". Hebrews 11:1 states, "Faith is the substance of things HOPEd for".

HOPE is expectation of good! Many good things are in store for the Christian after Jesus comes again. According to Titus 2:13, this is the "Blessed HOPE".

But what about now? HOPE is for now! "Now abideth faith, HOPE, charity." We will have no need for hope after Jesus comes for the church. Don't be afraid to expect something good to happen to you today. This is the day that the Lord hath made.
