RAYMOND GREENWOOD

How much influence major daily newspapers have on voters when they come out and publicly endorse political candidates, I don't know. If it is a tremendous influence, then President Nixon is sure to win in November.

I'm basing my opinion on an Associated Press story that pointed out that President Nixon has been endorsed for re-election by 688 daily newspapers, while Sen. George McGovern, the Democratic candidate, has received the announced backing of 39, according to a survey conducted by a weekly news media trade magazine.

"Editor and Publisher" said it surveyed the nation's 1,764 daily newspapers by postcard. Papers responding that preferred Nixon had a combined circulation of 17,532,456, while those backing McGovern had a circulation total of 1,468,223. The 169 as yet unannounced newspapers responding had a circulation totalling 3,388,728. I know the major daily in the woods where I was raised (the so called Big Country), The Abilene Reporter-News came out last week endorsing President Nixon. This was the first time in 92 years that the newspaper had endorsed a Republican candidate for the office of the President of the United States.

What effect this will have on the election, I have no idea. I do know, however, that the actual production, or "manufacture" of newspapers has become so massive that it ranks among the largest in industrial activity on the Federal Reserve Board's index of Industrial Production. The newspaper business is also the 5th largest employer in the nation and the 10th largest when measured by value of shipments.

Guess we'll know the outcome on Nov. 7 when the last totals are in.

While I am talking about politics, a good friend of mine and a man whose opinion I value, Bob Craig, owner of the Hamlin Herald, had this to say about the special session of the Legislature now in progress.

"We are still trying to figure out why Gov. Preston Smith called this special session of the Legislature. There seems to be little hope of them coming up with an answer to the problem of automobile insurance, if indeed there is a problem.

That little session down there is just costing us taxpayers $33,000 a day and it is doubtful if we are going to get much for our money.

We cannot help but wonder if all of this business about insurance rates is not just another political football.

Like everyone else, we think our car insurance is too high when it comes time to pay for it but wonder if this isn't just like everything else we have to pay for. Our food bill is too high, our clothes bill is too high, our auto expenses are too high, but we doubt that the Texas Legislature can do much about it. Our taxes are too high too, but about all they have done for them in the past is to raise them some more.

As for insurance, especially auto insurance, all available figures indicate that Texans pay below the national average and probably own more cars and drive more miles than anyone else.

Bodily injury liability insurance in Texas is 39.1 per cent below the national average, or $34.43 as compared to $56.57. Property damage liability is 14.8 percent less, or $32.62 compared with $38.27. Combined they are 29.3 per cent less or $61.63 as compared to $86.92.

Over 150 Guess At Winners

The INFORMER/STAR football contest is still growing strong as almost 175 entries are being sent in each week. The contest has grown from barely three dozen the first week to what seems to be one of the best special features ever run in this newspaper.

Warren Cobble of 610 Magnolia took the $15 first prize money this week with his correct guess of 16 games and his prediction of a closetie-breaker score.

Warren tied with Charles D. Reagan of Midwestern Parkway in Wichita Falls as well as with several other persons who also had 16 correct predictions. Based on their predictions of the score on the tie-breaker game, Warren was awarded first place and Charles awarded the $10 second prize.

Incidentally, Warren predicted the final score of the tie-breaker as Burk Burnett 27, Graham, 13. The actual score of the game was Burk, 28, Graham, 12.

Warren's son, Warren Cobble, Jr. was the second place winner in the contest last week with 17 correct predictions while local coach Ben Martin took the winning money with a prediction of 18 correct games.

The contest is open to all, but contestants are urged to limit their entries to one per person. All entries must be in the INFORMER/STAR office at 417 Avenue C by 5:00 p.m. Friday, or if mailed they should show a Friday postmark. Several entries arrive each week that show a Saturday postmark therefore they are ineligible for the contest. Persons are urged to be sure their entry will be postmarked in the proper length of time.

TERRI TAYLOR
1972 Homecoming Queen

Terri Taylor Crowned Homecoming Queen; Freshman Float Wins

Terri Taylor was crowned Homecoming Queen Friday night during half-time ceremonies at Bulldog Stadium. Terri, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Finnis Taylor, was chosen by the BHS student body from among three other contestants. Karen Greer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Greer; Becky Eastman, daughter of Mrs.

Vinita Eastman; and Cindy McPhee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack McPhee were also nominated as Homecoming Queen candidates.

The Freshman captured first place in float competition with an orange and black 'Dog Patch' exhibit sponsored by Gill's Grocery and Lippard Furniture. Second place was taken by the Senior red, white and black 'Las Vegas' float sponsored by Burk Bank and First National Bank.

The 'Civil War' float sponsored by Preston Dairy done in red, white and blue by the Junior class won third place while the Sophomore green, yellow, and blue float using Hawaii as its theme placed fourth.

The Sophomore float was sponsored by Western Auto, Lippard Insurance and Famous Department Store.

The Homecoming Parade received comments ranging from "good" to "the best I've ever seen." Special thanks goes to Mathis and Wolfe Ford who furnished at much expense all the cars driven in the parade. Also Mascot Temple clowns brought joy to Burk youngsters with tricks and candy.

The Rotary Club reports a great turnout for their annual chili and stew supper before the game. They would like to thank all who came as the money goes to the Rotary's scholarship fund.

A spaghetti supper and entertainment following the game highlighted a Homecoming Fellowship sponsored by the First Baptist Church. The fellowship was a success with the Heritage See HOMECOMING, Pg. 2

Allen To Take Post With Dalhart C of C

The most important topic of a meeting is often referred to as the highlight of the event. It seemed to the directors of the Burk Burnett Chamber of Commerce in their Thursday noon meeting that the main item on the agenda was a long way from the "highlight" of the meeting.

Gene C. Allen, manager of the local Chamber of Commerce for the past five years, presented the directors with his letter of resignation whereby he could accept a similar position with the Dalhart, Texas Chamber of Commerce.

In the letter of resignation Allen stated, "I wish that I could say that I handed this to you without much regret, but I can't. I have strong feelings and have become very attached to Burk Burnett."

He went on to say, "There is not another Chamber of Commerce in Texas with a group of more aggressive people than Burk Burnett. This can be proved by the success you have compared to the size of your budget."

"My relationship with the people of Burk Burnett and the Chamber of Commerce has been wonderful, and I will be leaving behind many treasured friends. I wish for the Chamber, the people of Burk Burnett and my successor the best in every undertaking that they might consider."

Chamber directors voted with reluctance to accept the resignation and added it was with sincere regrets. Reid McCandless, president of the Chamber stated, "We certainly hate to lose Gene, he will be a hard man to replace.

We are happy for him, however, that he is getting this promotion and we wish him the best."

Bulldogs To Take On District Leader Friday

The Burk Burnett Bulldogs may be coming off an impressive win over the Graham Steers by a score of 28-12, but local Bill Froman says the Bulldogs will certainly be the underdogs as they take the field Friday night in Weatherford.

"Everybody has been talking about how powerful the teams in Vernon, Iowa Park, Brownwood and Hirschi are, yet most have completely overlooked what could well be the strongest team in the district--Weatherford," states Froman. The Weatherford Kangaroos were listed as the 9th team in the state in AAA rankings last week. As far as total points scored and holding their opponents scoring the Kangaroos lead the district. They are also the only undefeated team in this district. They have defeated several strong AAAA and AAA schools such as Burleson, Mineral Wells, Azle and district opponent Stephenville last week 31-13 in what is always a hard fought rivalry game.

The Kangaroos boast of 23 returning lettermen, seven of which are returning offensive starters. Brad Stroud, their quarterback, is listed as one of the best in the district with his good moves and great speed. He holds the honor as the district champion in the 100 yard dash with a 9.8 mark. Another teammate, Mark Hicks, playing tailback is also reported to be a top flight player.

They are reported to run out of the information a great deal, utilizing their fine tailback and quarterback. "In many respects their offense resembles ours a great deal," stated Froman.

The Bulldogs will travel to Weatherford with the hopes of upsetting the Kangaroos homecoming and handling a defeat to the only undefeated team in district 4-AAA.

Froman reported that the Bulldogs came out of last Friday night's game with no injuries and should be ready to go full speed. In speaking of the game, Froman stated that he felt that the Bulldogs showed good offensive effort, but that the team as a whole made several errors that they couldn't afford to make this week.

In other games over the district, Iowa Park who squeaked by the tough Vernon Lions last week 7-3, will play host to the Brownwood Lions. Brownwood was behind by 21-7 going into the fourth quarter in their game against Hirschi Friday night, but came back to win the game by a score of 29-21.

Vernon will be trying to come back from their 7-3 defeat from Iowa Park last week to win their first district contest as they host the Stephenville Yellowjackets. Stephenville lost to Weatherford last week 31-13.

Hirschi, suffering from their 29-21 loss to Brownwood, will travel to Graham to try to come up with their first district win. Graham lost to the Burk Burnett Bulldogs last week by a score of 28-12.

Burk Burnett fans are urged to travel to Weatherford for the 7:30 clash.

Halloween Parade Told By Burk Merchants

Although Halloween is still a few days off, the Burk Burnett Chamber of Commerce is making plans to sponsor something special for all the local children.

Under the direction of the Retail Trades Promotion Committee, Lester Yates chairman, a big Halloween Costume parade for all area spooks and goblins from walking age up to and including high school seniors will be held. The parade will start forming at 4:20, Halloween day, Oct. 31, on the corner of Ave. E and 3rd Street (in the area of the Lutheran Church and the old ice plant).

Prizes will be awarded to first, second and third places in the costume contest. All children are also urged to bring along their own trick or treat bag as Halloween goodies will be available courtesy of the Burk Burnett merchants.

Two other special events for the day are a poster contest and a window decorating contest. The window decorating contest for home room students grades five through eight, with prizes awarded to the home room for first, second and third places. These windows must be decorated by 6:00 p.m. Monday, Oct. 30.

The poster contest for individual students, grades one through four, with three winners picked from each of the Burk Burnett grade schools (Southside, Hardin and Shepard-Burk). First, second and third place prizes will be awarded in this event.

The posters must be in the hands of the Chamber of Commerce committee for public display by Wednesday, Oct. 25 at 5:00 p.m. Winning posters then will be placed on display in the windows of local merchants for a period of one week. These posters are to be dated and signed by the student and the home room teacher.

It is hoped that a great number of kids will dress up and enter the Halloween Costume Parade, which will wind its way through the downtown area.

The local merchants haven't left the parents of the "little spooks" out of the fun either. Yates reports that a great number of merchants are already labeling merchandise for a Spook Sidewalk Sale with all types of wild merchandise on See PARADE, Pg. 2

Woods & Waters

By Mike Gaines

Of interest to sportsmen and land owners all over the state are the bills presently before the state Senate and House. They have been introduced by Rep. Neil Caldwell and Sen. Tom Creighton and call for an increase in the present cost of hunting and fishing licenses. The bills would also establish the state's first combination hunting and fishing license. If passed, it would mark the first time since 1957 that hunting and fishing license costs have been increased.

The Wildlife Commission and sportsmen organizations such as Sportsman's Clubs of Texas and the Texas Association of Bass Clubs strongly support the bill.

If passed, the cost of a license would increase to $5.25 for resident hunting and non-resident hunting licenses would increase from $25.00 to $30.25, exempting only persons over 65 years of age.

While hunting and fishing licenses have remained the same since 1957, the amount of public waters have risen drastically. In 1957, there were 740,000 surface acres of public waters as compared to 1,500,000 acres today. Also there are 460,000 surface acres of private waters today which the state stocks with game fish.

These private stock tanks, lakes and ponds stocked by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, are done so with absolutely no cost to the individual land owner. This is paid for entirely by license sales, so you can see with the increase of waters and fish hatcheries, a increase in license cost is only fair if we wish to maintain quality in our program.

Oilers Top Warriors, 26-0

Last week's game between the American Oilers and the Warriors was decided on the first play from scrimmage when Tommy Darland ran 37 yards for a touchdown. The extra point was a pass from Jeff Baber to Tommy Darland.

The second score was on a quarterback keeper of 14 yards by Jeff Baber.

The third score of the game was on a 1-yard plunge by Eddie Gant. The final score was a 14 yard run by Jeff Baber. The half ended on a 25-yard run by Tommy Darland. The second half was scoreless as the Oilers second team offensive unit saw most of the action.

Throughout the game the defensive unit of the Oilers stopped the Warriors before they could really get going. Rufus Norris and Pat New both were aggressive in their play and both recovered Warrior fumbles.

The second team offense really came alive on the last play of the game with a 40 yard pass by Eddie Gant to Rick Wallace. The final score of the game was American Oilers, 26, Warriors 0.

Total yardage for the Oilers was 217 yards.

The next game for the American Oilers will be against the Rockets. This game will probably decide which team in the Eastern Conference Century Division will go to the division playoff, and of course the winner here will go to the Toybowl.

The Oilers and Rockets are now tied for the lead in the Century Division. The next game will be Tuesday at 6:00 p.m. at Hayes Field. This will be the Oilers last home game for this year.

Burk Takes District Opener; To Face Undefeated Weatherford There In Homecoming Battle Friday

SNARES PASS--Alex Kaulovatos snares a Sam Hancock pass to stop the clock in early game action Friday night.

by Sedelta Verble
The Burk Burnett Bulldogs offense knifed through Graham 28-12 Friday night before a capacity Homecoming crowd, in the first district game of the season.

The Steers really never had a chance as the 'Dogs rushed for over 400 yards and took to the air for another 71 yards.

Zac Henderson, the games leading rusher, outran Steer defenders to open scoring early in the second quarter. The mighty Bulldog defense held the Steers to a 7-0 half-time lead. But Burk got the fever, were hot and couldn't be stopped, and scored 14 points in a third quarter sweep.

Taking advantage of a Steer fumble, quarterback Sam Hancock guided the 'Dogs 21 yards and scored from the 3 making the score 14-0.

Graham took a new lease on life and sparked Obie Loving to chalk up the first Steer TD, bringing the tally to 14-6.

But all of Graham's offensive plans were for naught as the Bulldogs marched 63 yards in 8 plays to rally a 21-6 lead. Hancock unleashed the pigskin as receiver Alex Kaulovatos, as receiver Alex Kaulovatos, took over with a scoring strike.

Graham, again hoping for a little luck, ran the ball over the goal line, but as fate would have it, the TD was called back for a procedure penalty.

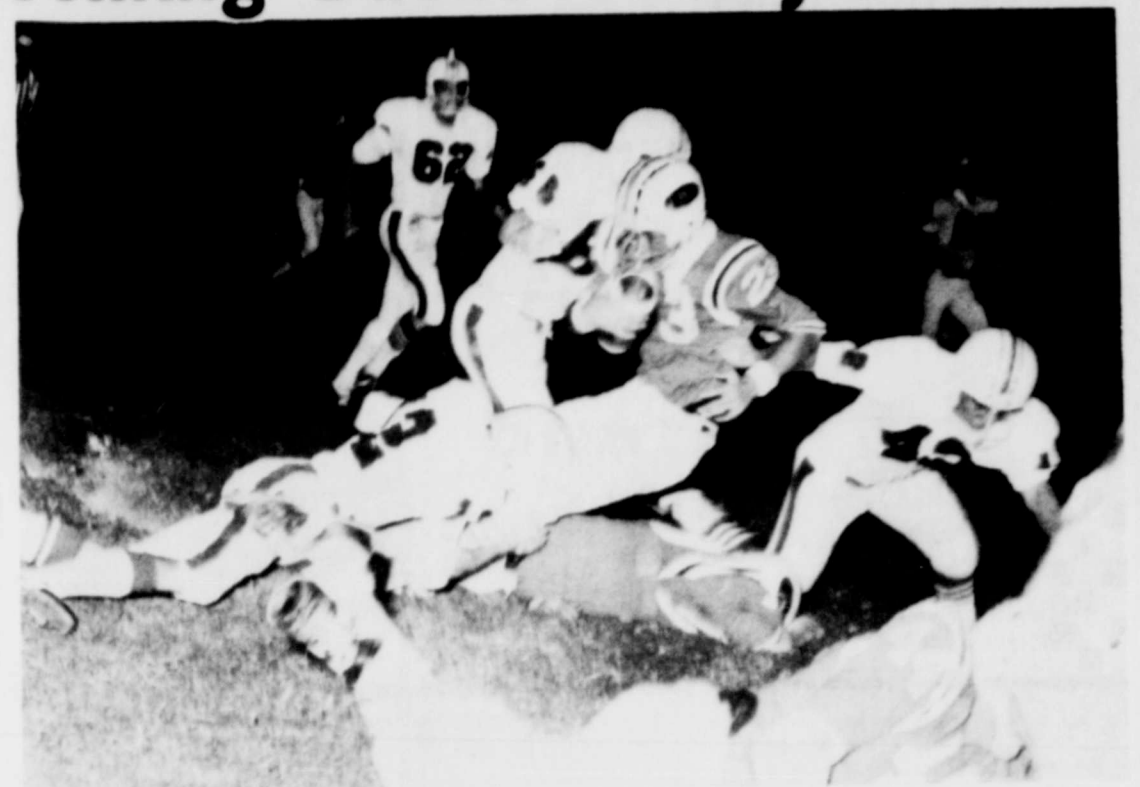

It was Rick Bradley's turn to plunge into the end zone on the final Bulldog TD with 5 minutes remaining.

But the Steers still had hopes as Loving ran 52 yards for 6 points on a 76 yard march. As the whistle blew, the Bulldogs left for the 'Dog House, victors of their Homecoming game 28-12.

Outstanding performances by several Bulldogs made the final score possible but special recognition goes to Zac Henderson, Rick Bradley, Sam Hancock, Alex Kaulovatos, and Mark Bulla. Henderson leads the list with 150 yards rushing. Bradley racked up 100 yards, Bulla contributed 83 yards and field marshal Hancock rushed 73 yards.

HAULED DOWN--It took a whole herd of Steers to haul down Bulldog back Zac Henderson on this play Friday night.

Frosh Outdone By Rustlers 20-6

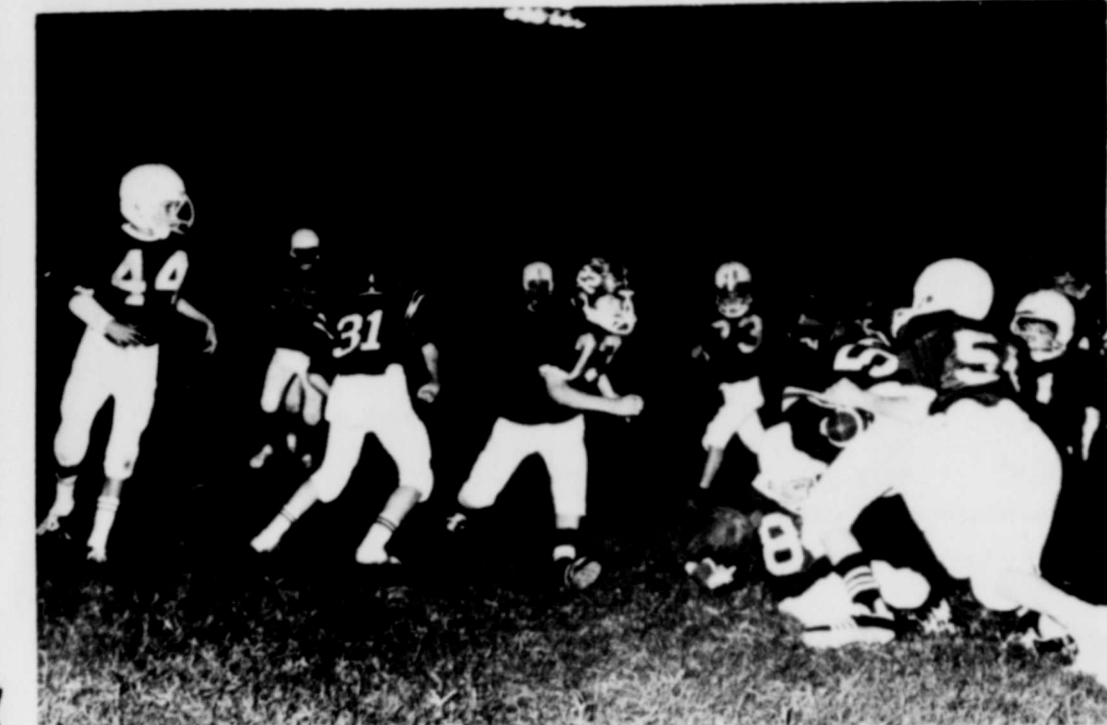

by Sedelta Verble
The Burk Burnett Bulldog Freshmen were outdone last Thursday by the Rider Rustlers 20-6. Despite the loss, the 'Dogs exhibited good defense especially Russell Clamplitt, Kevin Tory, and Randy Burk. Roy Cheney captured an interception and ran it 40 yards just before the half, but the clock ran out before they could score.

The Bulldog TD was tallied by David Brown on a 4-yard run, in the third quarter. The 'Dogs now stand 2-2-1 as they take on Hirschi at 3:45 in Wichita Falls Thursday.

HEADACHES!--The Burk Burnett Bulldogs seemed to give Graham Steers headaches all night as the 'Dogs romped to a 28-12 victory. Steer Coach Bill Anderson was caught momentarily by the camera seconds after a Bulldog defender grabbed off a Graham pass and ended a chance to make a comeback for Graham.

ACTION GETS HEAVY IN MIDGET FOOTBALL--Come out and see for yourself the thrills and spills--from the little footballers of Burk Burnett.

Midget Team Decides on Princesses

The Burk Burnett Midget Football League Board met in the Reddy Room for their regular business meeting.

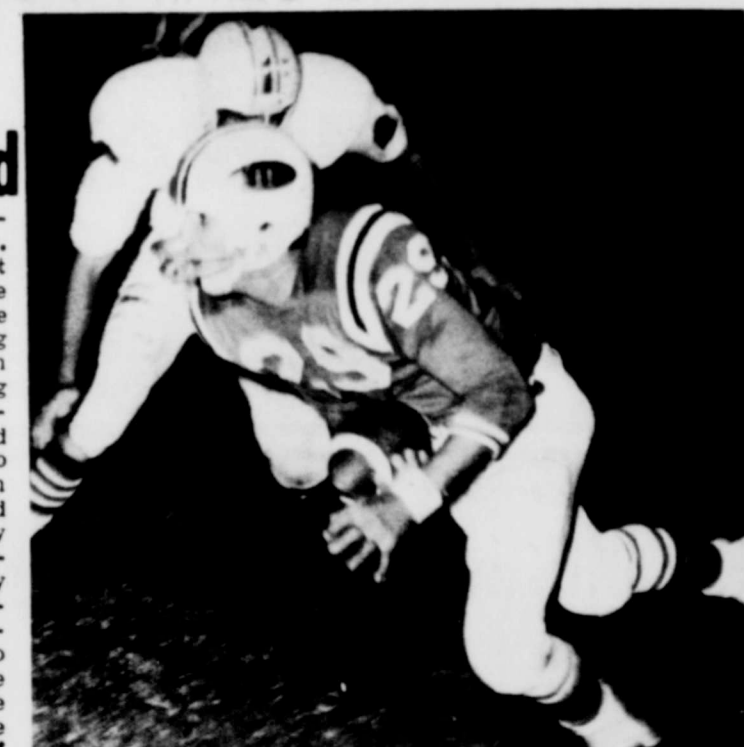

League president, Bob Gant conducted the meeting. Glen Drake and Hubert Smith, representatives of the Boy's Club, announced that Oct. 14th will be Annual Field Day and group pictures will be taken at the Boy's Club.

The League also voted instead of a contest to select a Queen, and each team will select a princess to be presented at the annual Bowl game.

Park's chairman Bill Pittard announced that help is needed on Saturdays to keep the football field in shape. The next meeting of the Board will be October 26th.

Boys Club Football Draws Crowd

In the weekly Boy's Club football game Wednesday night, Oct. 4, two high flying teams met at SAFB in what turned out to be a very hard fought defensive football game. The Underdog National League Eagles from Burk Burnett took the opening kick-off from the SAFB Missiles and immediately showed everyone that they were not to be denied. Mark Brookman scampered around the right end for 15 yards on the first play from scrimmage. This, coupled with the bruising blocks by the Eagles line and hard hitting runs by Brookman and full-back Tony Thompson drove to the 10 yd. line with relative ease. At this point the Missile defense stiffened and set the pattern for the remainder of the game. The Eagles drew first blood with 4 seconds remaining in the first half. The drive was set up on a punt return by Brookman to the Missiles 35 yd. line. After two ineffective runs, the Eagles took to the air with Rodney Horn hitting Ray Enderlight at the 15. Horn again rolled out and threw a perfect strike to Charles Smith who was heavily guarded in the end zone but managed to pull the ball down. Johnathan Schnitker added the 2-point conversion. The Missiles' score came in the 3rd period but the conversion failed when Horn dropped the quarterback short of the goal line. The Eagles staved off two Missile drives in the 4th quarter inside the 10 yd. line to preserve the victory. The entire Eagle team is to be congratulated on a very good team effort against a very strong team in a hard fought, clean game in which sportsmanship prevailed throughout.

Sgt. Edert Building One Seater Teenie II Plane

The first ones were made with sweat and ingenuity out of paper, wood and a sparse amount of metal. When aloft--assuming you could get them aloft--they were held together by spit and a prayer.

Flying, in those days of the first aircraft, was a pretty tricky business--but then, that was part of the fun.

Names like the Wright brothers, Curtis' Jenny, Martin T.T., the Sopwith Camel, Nieuport, Spad and the Bristol conjure up visions of unbridled adventure--building your own aircraft, then soaring into the heavens to be alone with the wind.

The desire for this ultimate freedom, though assaulted by the advancement of aviation technology, has not died. Many still seek the thrill of piloting a solo craft of their own construction.

One of these men is Master Sergeant Delmar Ebert, an instructor in the Department of Aircraft Maintenance Training, School of Applied Aerospace Sciences at Sheppard AFB.

1970, I began flying again at the Sheppard Aero Club and earned both my private and commercial pilot's license."

The noncommissioned officer is building his aircraft in the backyard of his home in Burkburnett, Texas. According to him, the plane is about half finished.

"I hope to fly it in late spring of next year," he continued. "Right now, I'm not sure exactly where to take it up the first time. I've been thinking about the Lake Wichita Airport."

Things have changed since the Wright brothers though, and now the Federal Aviation Agency controls the flight of all airborne vehicles.

"The FAA says that for the first 75 hours of flying time, these small aircraft must be flown within a 25-mile area," said the sergeant. "In addition, they must take off and land at the same airport."

According to Sergeant Ebert, when completed, his aircraft will cruise at 100 miles-per-hour and fly as high as 10,000 feet. Top speed for the craft is 120 mph.

"I should be able to fly for three hours on the capacity of the tank, which is nine gallons."

Even while constructing the "Teenie II", Sergeant Ebert is dreaming of his next project.

"I'd really enjoy building a BD-4, a four-seater, someday," he said. "Probably when I get this one up and the bugs worked out, I will."

Sergeant Ebert is currently the president of the Wichita Falls Chapter of the Experimental Aircraft Association, a national organization dedicated to the proposition that building and flying airplanes is fun.

Today, when trips to the moon are becoming commonplace, it's refreshing to see men willing to take the time and effort to renew a spirit of adventure and sport in aviation.

Volunteers From 3776th Assist In Camp Clean up

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS--Pulling weeds, clearing ground, chopping wood, and generally cleaning up the area of land sounds like something every red-blooded American man tries to get out of doing on the weekend--unless the men come from the 3776th Student Squadron, School of Applied Aerospace Sciences.

Saturday Major Robert F. Walton, commander of the squadron, and an all volunteer force of about 100 men journeyed to the Young Men's Christian Association day camp in Wichita Falls, to assist the city in cleaning, improving and rebuilding the 30 acre camp.

Members of the 76th spent their free time to begin the year-long project to spray and kill weeds, remove underbrush and trees, clear roads, install lights, erect a fence, and eventually build a lake for the young campers to use for boating, swimming and fishing.

"Several local business men have volunteered their time and equipment to help sustain the project," said Major Walton. "We are more than happy to be of assistance--as exemplified by the enthusiastic response of our students."

"This is just another example of how the Air Force is helping civilian communities throughout the world, and shows the special relationship maintained between Sheppard and Wichita Falls."

Sgt. Roddy McKenzie Outstanding Supply Man

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS--Sergeant Roddy E. McKenzie, an inventory management specialist with the supply division, 3750th Maintenance and Supply Group, has been named Sheppard's nominee for Air Training Command Outstanding First Term Supply Airman of the Year.

Sergeant McKenzie, a graduate of Oklahoma College of Liberal Arts in Chickasha with a major in business administration, was selected from all first term airmen at Sheppard in the supply career field.

Presently a NORs (Not-Operational Ready Supply) monitor, his job involves finding parts for aircraft to keep them flying. During his three years at Sheppard, he has held several positions in the chief of supply complex, distinguishing himself through his rapid grasp of complex supply procedures, exemplary manner, and communicative skills.

He has also taken an active part in the Fairway Baptist Church in Wichita Falls. He has served as a visitation leader in Sunday School, a teacher in Training Union, a member of the Evangelism Committee, and a choir member.

Final selection for the Air Training Command will be made later in October.

More reasons why you should shop at home

- Do you know the feeling?
- You are bruised physically, emotionally and financially.
- You have been confused and frustrated by off-ramps on-ramps, diamond, cloverleaf and one-way direction flow interchanges.
- Your car has been in a drag race on a parking ramp incline.
- Sales people look the other way. You've been jostled, bounced and bullied. You clutch your packages because you are afraid they may disappear.
- It's kinda nice to shop at home, isn't it? We think so.

FTD Training Program Better Trained Men Smaller Budget

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS--A new training program designed to produce better trained men with a smaller budget was recently put into effect at a detachment of the Department of Field Training, School of Applied Aerospace Sciences at Sheppard.

The 513rd Field Training Detachment at Mountain Home AFB, Idaho, graduated five airmen with their 3-level in the field of avionics in only six months. The course normally requires a year to complete.

Under the new program, an airman goes directly to Keesler AFB, Miss., for a crash course in basic electronics, then to Mountain Home for 10 weeks of intensive resident training.

Following graduation they are awarded their three level and put to work immediately on the flight line.

The old method called for a 29-week course at Keesler and then approximately six months of on-the-job training on the flight line before they were ready to perform their required tasks.

Although evaluations of the new program are currently being conducted, Master Sergeant Robert Santos, the avionics supervisor at the 513th believes that it is here to stay.

Said Sergeant Santos, "The program is definitely in." The next class of this type began Sept. 27.

Read any good clothes lately?

You'll find some very interesting reading on the labels in the new clothes you buy.

After July 3, 1972, all garments manufactured that require care and maintenance for their ordinary use must carry a permanent label giving instructions for care and maintenance.

Any questions you have about whether to wash and dry or to dry clean will be answered right on the label.

For home laundering, you'll find electric dryers are designed for a wide range of modern materials - including polyesters and other permanent press fabrics. This is just one of many reasons why the flameless electric dryer is America's favorite.

Here are a few tips on how to keep your new permanent press clothes looking their best without spending hours ironing:

1. Never dry more than one washer-load at a time.
2. For truly wrinkle-free clothes, try drying half a load, so they'll have lots of tumbling room.

3. Try fabric conditioners. They not only make clothes softer, but they cut down on the static electricity that makes clothes cling together and wrinkle while drying.

4. Clean your dryer's lint trap after each load, to increase drying efficiency.

5. Read your instruction book carefully to get the most out of your dryer's unique features. File instructions for future reference.

Briscoe Feels Confidence Must Be Restored

Dolph Briscoe, Democratic gubernatorial candidate is entering the final five weeks of his campaign with enthusiastic optimism.

"The reaction, the reception that I have been getting in my travels over the state has been very good," he said.

Briscoe's general theme has remained constant - that the public's confidence in state government needs to be restored; there needs to be greater fiscal accountability and control through a State Budget Commission; the leadership of tomorrow must be concerned more with serving the people of this state rather than building a political machine; and, that he is the man who can end the divisiveness and bring about the most responsive government to all the people of Texas.

The Uvalde rancher-banker has already demonstrated his ability to work with a variety of factions holding widely diverse opinions when he put his personal prestige on the line and made the recent State Democratic Convention in Houston one of harmony and unity when many people felt it would be impossible.

"I am proud that we proved once again that Texas Democrats have the tolerance, the intelligence, and the energy to work through our party for all the people of Texas," Briscoe said.

The Democratic candidate, however, did not rest on his laurels after the Convention but undertook a heavy travel schedule that put him out where the voters are.

In little more than a week following the Convention he appeared before the Lower Rio Grande Valley Chamber of Commerce in McAllen; the American Society of Agricultural Engineers sectional meeting at Bandera; opening of the East Texas State Fair in Tyler; the Dallas County Employees in Dallas; Associated General Contractors in Austin; the friends of East Texas State University at Commerce; annual meeting of the South Texas Chamber of Commerce in Del Rio; and served as Parade Marshal at the "Come and Take It" Celebration at Gonzales.

Briscoe not only is optimistic about his campaign, but has great confidence in the future. "I view the future as being one of opportunities and not just one full of problems. The public can look forward to the next legislature being a problem-solving session," he said.

One of the positive benefits the next legislature will have in its deliberations is that they will have been elected by a public that is concerned and anxious for their lawmakers to move forward with progress, according to Briscoe.

Briscoe also revealed last week that the people involved in his campaign effort will be essentially the same ones who have worked for him during the primary and runoff campaigns. "There may be one or two spots where we have brought in someone with particular expertise, but their involvement will be only for that function or for that particular time. We certainly expect to move forward with the same people who brought us this far, as well as utilize the added efforts of all loyal Democrats who may have supported any former opponent in the previous races," he said.

Fair's 'Straw Poll' Shows GOP Lead

In a voter registration "straw" poll conducted at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo, Congressman Bob Price bested his opponent almost 4 to 1. The poll also showed President Nixon leading Senator McGovern 82% to 18%, and Senator Tower leading Sanders 70% to 30%.

The registration drive and "straw" poll were conducted by the League of Women Voters and by Amarillo Radio Station KINZ. Over 4,000 people participated in the sample balloting and approximately 500 people were registered to vote.

The Nixon-Tower-Price ticket has led the McGovern-Sanders-Purcell ticket in previous surveys conducted, but never by such large percentages.

Phil Lyne Nears $50,000 In Winnings

Reigning world champion all around cowboy Phil Lyne moved closer to the $50,000 mark in winnings over the weekend, the Rodeo Cowboys Association said.

Lyne, of George West, Texas, finished first in calf roping at the Ak-Sar-Ben rodeo in Omaha, Neb., winning $1,372, was second in bull riding at the state fair rodeo in Oklahoma City for $988.

His winnings total $49,843. Lyne may be the second cowboy in history to win more than $50,000 in a single year. Larry Mahan, who reigned as world champion all around cowboy from 1966 through 1973, topped the mark in 1967 and 1969. The Salem, Ore., cowboy set a winning record for a single year in 1969 when he won $57,726. Lyne has a chance to beat the record if he continues winning at the present rate, the association said. At Oklahoma City, where cowboys competed to music provided by the city symphony orchestra, prize money totalled $24,653.

Bob Marshall, San Martin, Calif., was the big winner, picking up $1,393 in steer wrestling. He split first and second in the event average with Herb Collins, Fort Collins, Colo., who won an overall total of $1,267. At Omaha, Myrtis Dightman, Crockett, Texas, was the big winner, taking first in the bull riding average - winning an overall total of $1,530.

Ted Smalley of Burkburnett, Texas has won $9,235 in calf roping. Eugene Weakely, of Burkburnett, Texas has won $6,883 in steer wrestling while Kay Vamoras of Devol, Oklahoma has won $4,961 in GRA Barrel Racing.

Reserve Pays Youth to Learn

Most young men and women who want to learn new job skills have to pay to be schooled in them.

But in the United States Army Reserve they are paid to learn. In its 3,500 units and hundreds of schools across the country, young men and women are learning skills ranging from the electronics and communication fields to auto mechanics and medical technicians. And while they learn, they earn.

Not less than $600 a year, shortly after they've completed their short-term active duty hours.

Never before in its history has the Army Reserve required so many skilled men and women. And in most cases, the skills it needs are readily adaptable to the civilian marketplace. In fact, industry often places a premium on men and women with Army Reserve training

Texas State Fair Offers Low Admission Variety

When you look at the low cost of the admission ticket to the 1972 State Fair of Texas in Dallas, October 7-22, you wonder how so many shows, exhibits, parades and entertainment can be delivered at such a low price.

The answer lies in the sponsorship of many of the headliner events, free events and exhibits by national and Texas companies.

Take a look at the list of some sponsors at the "Dazzling Thirties" 1972 State Fair of Texas. Texas Department of Agriculture presents the "Food and Fiber Pavilion", all major auto companies present the 1973 automobiles, Dallas Museum of Fine Arts sponsors the "Expositions of the 1930's", Marlboro and Phillip Morris have Marlboro Country western art, chuckwagon exhibit and the "Goldminers", Miller Brewing Company sponsors a "Dixie Land Band" show and Dr. Pepper sponsors a free circus every day. Mibell's Sky Revue is a popular event.

Dallas area companies sponsor many events and exhibits - such as the Lone Star Gas exhibit in the gas building and the Dallas Power and Light electric building shows. The Dallas Symphony Orchestra and Dallas Civic Ballet combine with the 5th U.S. Army Band for a "symphony spectacular" and schools from many areas of Texas bring their bands for parades and pageantry. "A World's Fair in Just 16 Days" reads the State Fair brochure this year and it is geared to be just that.

Add the Southwestern Premier of "No, No, Nanette", the "Dazzling 30's Review", football games and La Fiesta Mexicana to the show.

An interesting feature of the Marlboro Caravan, a cowboy museum and artifacts of the Old West - its first tour through Texas. If you visit it, you might get into a cooking contest with the trail boss and the chuckwagon cook.

Here's their "Texas Red" Chili recipe - if you want to try it before you visit them at the Fair and challenge them to a chili cooking contest in your part of the state.

"TEXAS RED" CHILI

1/8 pound suet, finely chopped
3 pounds round steak, coarsely cubed
6 tablespoons chili powder
1 tablespoon ground oregano
1 tablespoon crushed cumin seed
1 tablespoon salt
1/2 to 1 tablespoon cayenne
2 large cloves garlic, minced
1 tablespoon Tabasco, if you dare
1 1/2 quarts water
1/2 cup white cornmeal or 3 tablespoons masa harina

In Dutch oven, fry suet until crisp; add steak cubes and brown. Add seasonings and water; heat to boil. Reduce heat, cover and simmer 1 1/2 hours. Skim off fat. Stir in cornmeal and simmer, uncovered, for 30 minutes. Stir occasionally. Serve with pinto beans and cornbread. Serves 8 to 10.

Vice-President of Opportunity To Speak

A distinguished clergyman, educator and public official, Dr. Luther Holcomb of Washington, D.C., is to be the guest speaker for the Midwestern University anniversary banquet Oct. 17 according to a joint announcement by Mrs. Joella Terrill Butler of Altrusa Club and Dr. Travis A. White, MU president.

Dr. Holcomb serves as vice chairman of Equal Employment Opportunity Commission in Washington. President Lyndon Johnson appointed him to this position in July of 1965, and he was reappointed by President Nixon in 1969. He lived in Dallas for a number of years before going to Washington in 1965.

While he was in Dallas, Dr. Holcomb was actively engaged in many facets of civic and religious work including leadership roles in housing, hospital service development, interracial and interreligious programs. He also assisted in work with child guidance clinic and senior citizens projects. His dedication to these community programs involved close communication with leaders in business, health, government, religion and education. He has been described as a man with "common sense, character, conviction, courage and compassion."

Dr. Holcomb is an ordained Baptist minister and a well known youth leader throughout the nation. His active ministry was with the Lakewood Baptist Church in Dallas, and he was named executive director of Greater Dallas Council of Churches in 1958 and served until he left for Washington.

He also was a commissioner for the Dallas Housing Authority between 1955-65 and a member of the Texas Advisory Commission to U.S. Civil Rights Commission for two years. He also served as a director, secretary - treasurer and vice president of the Council on World Affairs and fulfilled five overseas preaching missions under the auspices of the Chief of Air Force Chaplains.

Dr. Holcomb is a native of Mississippi and attended public schools in Texas. He holds degrees from the University of Oklahoma in Norman and the Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Ky.

The Oct. 17 banquet is being sponsored by the Altrusa Club to recognize Midwestern University upon its fiftieth anniversary. The MU anniversary's official observance is Oct. 17-28. It is a continuing practice of the Altrusa Club to recognize individuals and organizations for outstanding achievements and service to the community.

The banquet is scheduled in Clark Student Center on Tuesday at 7 p.m. Table or individual reservations may be made by contacting a member of the Altrusa at 723-6808 or 322-1697.

House Rejects Minimum Wage

REPORT FROM BOB PRICE

This week the House again rejected efforts of the labor-liberals to stack a conference committee on the minimum wage. Spurred on by the Senate, this group hoped to increase the minimum wage immediately to $2.20, a figure which would place an enormous burden on the small businessman.

I believe people should be able to earn a decent living wage; nevertheless wages must be set at a realistic level and ought to be determined by agreements between labor and management, and not by the dictates of government.

I fear the adoption of this extravagant $2.20 proposal would, in the long run, mean the closing of thousands of small businesses as well as the loss of thousands of jobs and millions of dollars in wages.

MEAT INSPECTION Under pressure of the Meat Cutters Lobby and their cohorts, the House voted down a measure which would have given financial assistance to State meat inspection programs.

This legislation, designed with the federal government under-writing 80% of meat inspection costs, would have left control of these programs at the local level.

The whole scheme of preventing passage of this legislation has been aimed at causing the failure of the small processors (who do not wish to be unionized), the folding up of the state programs, and the complete federalization of meat inspection. This will make it possible for the unions to organize the larger processors vastly increasing their membership, fattening their treasury with dues and greatly enlarging their power.

The defeat of this measure will almost guarantee their goal. It is unfortunate that the interests of some Congressmen seem to lie with the unions instead of the housewife who busy meat for the family table or the small businessman and his employees.

Railroad Retirement Benefits I voted with an overwhelming majority to override the President's veto of increased benefits for retired railroad employees.

I feel it is only fitting that these people be given the same benefit of an increase as that given to retirees who are on Social Security. The cost of living is the same for all our senior citizens and it would be totally unjust to ignore the needs of this group.

Richter Will Join Texas Electric Co-op Staff

Well known legislative and civic leader Walter Richter will join the staff of Texas Electric Cooperatives, Inc. in Austin on October 11.

Richter will serve as Executive Assistant for the State Association of the 80 rural electric cooperative systems in Texas. "As we in rural electrification work toward the total development of rural Texas, we welcome Richter joining our efforts and realize his rich background in legislative and civic affairs will be a big asset," stated Association General Manager J.R. Cobb.

As Richter moves to the rural electric cooperatives, he leaves the Department of Community Affairs and the State Drug Abuse Program. His other activities since serving in World War II have included two terms as State Senator, Director of Texas and Southwest Regional Office of Economic Opportunity and Executive Director of the Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation.

Other past activities have included serving on committees of the University of Texas, the Texas United Community Service and the National Association of State Drug Abuse Program Coordinators.

Richter is a native of Marble Falls in Burnet County and is married to the former Dorothy Jean Sample of Stockdale. They have two children, Gary and Robyn.

Guidelines of Life

by William W. Penn, First United Methodist Church

To most of us life has its problems. Of course, there is poverty and want, sickness and sorrow that invade our lives from day to day and time to time. But we more or less expect them, and usually have the strength to overcome such trying periods. The most distressing problems are not the ones which we expect, but those which we are not we think are nor our fair share of burden. There are fears, most of them of things that might be, and usually do not happen. There are frustrations--things we want to do, but cannot. We worry in endless cycles. We become bored, and give in when when disappointments invade our lives. Isaiah, the prophet, knew of such things, when he wrote in 40:31, "They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength."

Christianity proclaims three things. First, there is a foe. Second, there is a faith. And finally, there is a victory. We cannot deny that there is trouble and frustration that invade our lives. The foe seems always near ready to enter. Wrong is a reality we must deal with. Sin keeps trying to break out, from even within our own souls. But to those who have faith in God, and put their trust in him, there is always a victory. Sometimes it seems that we have to wait a long time for God's answer to our problems and needs, but no truer words were ever written than those written by Isaiah those many centuries ago. "They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength."

Mr. Lewis Brocker had the misfortune of falling from a high porch he was repairing on his mothers property in Ft. Smith, Ark., last week, breaking some bones in one of his hands and bruising him. Mrs. Brocker left last week to join him. He had been in a hospital a few days but is now out and recovering nicely.

for further treatment. J.L. Mitchell, a patient in Wichita General Hospital, has been moved from Intensive Care to a private room, but his doctors still think it best that he has no company yet.

Floyd Jackson is seriously ill in the hospital suffering from a heart condition, yellow jaundice, and gall-bladder complications.

Dennis and Sue Harsh have moved back to Burk Burnett from Mesquite. They are both graduates of Burk Burnett High School. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. R.D. Rietter and Dennis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L.P. Harsh of Burk Burnett. They have one daughter, Michelle, who is 3-years-old.

News From In And Around Temple

COURSES
Five Temple Methodists have indicated they will accompany Rev. Ray Howard to Duncan Sunday afternoon for a five-hour Lawton District Fall Mission Study Conference.

Plans are to offer three courses, "The Book of Romans," "Faith and Justice" and "Indiana Sixth of the World's People."

The event will be in the First United Methodist Church.

ANNIVERSARIES
Rev. and Mrs. J.O. Howard of Duncan and parents of Rev. Ray Howard, Temple Methodist minister, will be feasted by their children Sunday as they celebrate their 60th anniversary.

The civic room of the Duncan Cotton Electric building has been engaged to accommodate the event scheduled between the hours of 2:00 and 4:00 p.m.

Children of Mr. and Mrs. George Knox have arranged to honor their parents with a 50th anniversary party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Knox of Temple.

This long-time Temple couple will welcome friends and relatives between the hours of 2:00 and 5:00 p.m.

BIBLE STUDY
A group of over 35 Methodists have attended 2 one-hour study periods of a planned 12-hour course to study the book of St. Luke.

Classes are held each Wednesday evening beginning at 7:30 under the direction of Rev. Howard, who has been elected to serve his third year in Temple.

No time limit has been set to end the study periods that could last indefinitely, provided present interest is maintained, the leader believes.

SALE
An Eastern Star bake and rummage sale netted the Temple chapter $135.00, and the group plans to donate the take to the Masonic Lodge building fund which will clear the indebtedness and set the stage for a mortgage burning social.

The two-day sale was made possible by considerate Templetons donations of homemade pies, cakes, jellies plus wearing apparel, all displayed in the City Hall building Friday afternoon and all day Saturday.

Articles that did not sell were boxed and deposited in a Wichita Falls Good Will reciprocal.

ROOF
Temple's well known pan handler, Nathan Stone and caretaker of the United Methodist Church, is about to be relieved of his job he has taken care of for a number of years.

The church's roof is undergoing extensive coverage and it will not be necessary for tone to arrange the various pots and pans to catch the rain after it descends from a multiple of sources besides raining down the plastered walls.

An Ardmore, Okla. roofing company has completed a contract job costing near the $3,000 dollar mark.

The guaranteed roofing repair opens the door for a number of interior improvements aimed at beautifying the church's sanctuary and class rooms.

A number of class rooms will receive paneling, new floor covering and much needed paint jobs will be undertaken when leaks are stopped.

METHODIST

Last week's quarterly report given by Rev. Ray Howard, minister of Temple's Methodist Church revealed an all over gain in membership, finance and attendance, compared to the first 21 Sundays of 1971.

Total attendance, not including the nursery department was 1,758. Sunday collections totaled $5,694.58 and a net membership gain of three.

The same period last year average attendance dropped 10, $42.34 less average Sunday offerings, and only 1 membership gain.

YOUTH

A Methodist Youth group has been organized under the sponsorship of two young married couples, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Graham and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jeffrey and meet each Sunday afternoon for an informal social and informative meeting.

Cheryl Brown is president, Alisa Tucker secretary-treasurer and Eddie Deutschendorf, reporter.

To date, two socials have been enjoyed. The first was the result of the Waurika, Okla. UMYF group's invitation for lakeside supper outing and the second was a three course supper staged in three homes of adult backers. One course was served in each of the sponsors' home and the third given in Mrs. Ruth Jeffrey's residence.

Immediate plans are centered around a gathering after the football game for Temple high school and Waurika High School. The gathering will be held in the Temple church and refreshments of soft drinks and cookies will be served to backers of the teams that meet in a conference dual Friday on the Temple turf.

Several long range drawing board ideas, at present, will be announced later, according to Deutschendorf.

SINGING

Cotton county's singing organization will meet Sunday for a two-hour musical session in the Temple Assembly of God church. These meetings attract good quartets from Wichita Falls, Duncan and a number of other communities in commuting range of Cotton County. Churches take turns hosting the gospel musical programs.

DON'T TAKE RURAL TEXANS FOR A RIDE... AND DON'T TAKE US FOR GRANTED.

HERE'S WHAT NIXON IS DOING TO RURAL AMERICA

WHEAT SCANDAL - Giant wheat exporters made huge profits at the expense of individual wheat farmers, many in Texas, on Soviet trade.

TAXES - Wall Street Journal says federal laws favor the corporation or investor who farms on the side for a tax write-off.

FARM ISSUES - Under Nixon, parity dropped the lowest since 1933. Nixon held up payments of nearly $400 million for feed grains in 1970, forcing farmers to borrow at highest interest rates in history.

CONGLOMERATE SCANDALS - Big Business first, the public second - that's the Republican philosophy. Anti-trust suit against ITT dropped at the same time ITT pledged $400,000 to finance Republican Convention.

Harry S. Truman said, 'The Republicans admire our government so much they want to buy it.'

Let's face it. The Republicans just haven't changed much since the days of our grandfathers. They still favor Big Business over the average working man and woman. And while they're taking us for a ride, they keep telling us what a 'dangerous radical' Senator McGovern is.

That's what they said about Harry S. Truman.

HERE'S WHAT McGOVERN IS DOING FOR RURAL AMERICA

HIS STANDING - George McGovern has been elected time and again as a Democrat from a Republican farm state... because they know where he stands.

TAXES - His tax proposal would end the loopholes for tax-loss farming by giant corporations and the wealthy individuals who compete unfairly with family farmers. McGovern's proposal calls for the same tax on capital gains as on earnings.

FARM ISSUES - He sponsored and cosponsored: Meat Import Limitation Law; Dairy Control Act; Wheat, Feed Grain, and Soybean Emergency Reserve Bill; Rural Development, Rural Job Development, and Rural Telephone Acts; Farm Credit Act; and other pieces of important legislation.

HIS BELIEFS - George McGovern knows that the answers to many of our most pressing problems in America today can be found by developing genuine opportunities for everyone in our small towns and rural areas throughout the country.

Let's not be taken for granted by the Nixon Republicans. Rural America has always fared best under a Democratic administration. If you want to stand up and do something good for rural America, the answer is to help put a Democrat in the White House. We need George McGovern... and George McGovern needs us.

RURAL TEXANS NEED A DEMOCRAT.

RURAL TEXANS NEED McGOVERN

Army Private Lester N. Smart, 19, whose wife, Sandra, lives at 1121 Cheryl Drive, Burk Burnett, Texas, is assigned to Ft. Ord, California.

He is training under the modern volunteer army program. The program combines basic and advanced individual training (AIT) into an average 16-week program, depending on the AIT the soldier receives after completing basic. Decentralized instruction at the unit level and a reduction of formations and inspections give the soldier more time to train and increased off-duty time. Fewer restrictions on off-duty travel and improved living facilities are other benefits of the program.

Pvt. Smart began his training with company B, 4th Battalion of the 3D Brigade on Sept. 11 and is scheduled to complete the first phase on Nov. 3.

Voter League Slates Visit

Mrs. Margaret Peters, 705 Pecan is sponsoring the appearance here on October 30 of Mrs. Barbara Glickman, president of the Wichita Falls League of Women Voters and Mrs. Alisa Larson who will discuss the fourteen constitutional amendments to appear on the November ballot at a public meeting at 7:30 p.m. in the National Room of the First National Bank of Burk Burnett.

The Wichita Falls League of Women Voters regularly offers talks and non-partisan information on amendments. Voters Guides including information on state wide candidates as well as the amendments also will be available at this meeting, Mrs. Peters said.

The amendments to be voted on November 7 include proposals on legislator's pay, removing Justices of the Peace from the fee collection system of remuneration, rewriting the Texas constitution, four year terms for the governor and other elected and appointed officials, women's rights and homestead exemptions.

The League feels that with so much emphasis on candidates this election year, the amendment might be overlooked.

1972 Cotton Bumper Crop Spread Across Texas

The 1972 cotton crop is snapping up as a bumper crop across Texas and the United States. "The most recent cotton crop forecast from the U.S. Department of Agriculture indicates production in Texas to reach 3.8 million bales with U.S. production at 13.6 million bales," points out Charles Baker, marketing economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "This means a three million bale increase nationwide over last year. In Texas the crop was down to 2.6 million bales in 1971 due to dismal fall harvesting conditions."

Baker explained that this year's increased production stems mainly from increased acreage and good yields in most cotton-producing areas. Favorable prices last fall enticed producers to increase plantings this spring.

"However, the price situation has changed this season, as one might expect," notes the Texas A&M University economist. "Prices have dropped steadily since this spring as forecasts have indicated increased production. Trading has been light as buyers anticipate lower prices and producers expect a return to higher prices."

Many producers are considering the use of Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) loans to hold for better prices in early 1973. According to Baker, this likely will improve prices for qualities that are eligible for the loan.

Taking a look at carryover stocks and cotton disappearance the economist points out that even if all the expected three million bale increase is carried over to next August, stocks will still be lower than the 1967 carryover. Baker expects both mill consumption and exports to be slightly higher during the 1972-73 market year so that carryover stocks on August 1, 1972, should total about 5.5 million bales compared to this year's 3.3 million.

Dolph Briscoe To Speak At Farm Bureau Convention

Democratic gubernatorial nominee Dolph Briscoe of Uvalde will be the principal speaker at the 39th annual convention of the Texas Farm Bureau to be held in Houston Nov. 12-15.

He will speak at the general session on Monday morning, Nov. 13.

Some 1,500 delegates and guests are expected to attend the convention where FFB programs and policies for 1973 on state issues will be formulated and recommendations to the American Farm Bureau Federation on national matters will be made.

The convention will get underway with the traditional Vesper Service on Sunday evening, Nov. 12. Minister R.J. Weber of the Zion Lutheran Church near Brenham has been invited to speak at the Vesper Service. He was recently named Texas Rural Minister of the Year by the Extension Service.

Other Sunday evening activities will include the Discussion Meet for Farm Bureau youth and the Young People's Talent Find. Representatives of these two activities will be selected to participate in the national-level Discussion Meet and Talent Find at the AFBF annual meeting in Los Angeles in December.

A ladies luncheon will be held at noon on Monday, Nov. 13. A natural fibers style show will be presented under the auspices of the Texas Department of Agriculture using the same models and apparel as that demonstrated at the state fair.

District caucuses will be held that afternoon.

The number of special conferences on commodities and other matters of interest to Farm Bureau members has been increased this year. Added are conferences on Cotton, Rice, and one on Wheat and Feed Grains. Other conferences, which will be held on Monday afternoon, Nov. 13, and Tuesday morning, Nov. 14, include Community Services, Young Farmers and Ranchers, Field Crops, Dairy, Research and Education, Natural Resources, Livestock, Services, Poultry, Farm Labor, and Women in Farm Bureau.

The annual queen contest will be held on Monday evening with 12 contestants competing. The winner will reign throughout 1973 and will receive funds to defray the expenses of her and a matron escort attending the AFBF convention.

A voting delegation breakfast will be held Tuesday morning, Nov. 14. Some 1,000 voting delegates from 206 county Farm Bureaus are expected to attend this year's annual convention.

The policy making session will be the business meeting which begins at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 14 and lasts through Wednesday, Nov. 15. A banquet and dance are scheduled for Tuesday evening.

The convention will wind up with election of directors in even-numbered districts and the state president by the voting delegates. The current president is J.T. (Red) Woodson of Coker in Fannin County.

All convention activities will be in the Rice Hotel with the exception of the queen contest which will be held in the Music Hall.

Diets for elderly people can be expensive unless planned carefully. Their diets are high in protein, minerals and vitamins rather than energy foods. Although often cheaper, energy foods are needed less as people become less active physically.

Protein foods, such as milk, meat, fish, poultry and eggs, can take a large share of the limited food dollar. And unless purchased wisely, the recommended green, yellow and leafy vegetables, tomatoes and fruits also may run up the tab.

However, there are ways of keeping costs down considerably and still have a good diet. Through planning and careful substitutions, elderly people on modest incomes can help control costs. For example, certain foods can cost much more than others of similar nutritive value and use. Here is where substitution becomes important. Relatively low-priced vegetables include carrots, some leafy greens and many canned vegetables. Fresh produce also may be low in price when in season. Citrus fruit has been an economical buy for Vitamin C in the past few years.

Sometimes considered too expensive, milk actually is an inexpensive source of calcium. But for those on a tight budget, the recommendation is for using evaporated milk or nonfat dry milk for cooking. Probably the biggest problem is meat. Although prices vary, often the best buys are the leaner cuts, which can be made tender by chopping or low, slow cooking.

Fish is another source of protein which may be inexpensive, depending upon location. And poultry is a very good buy this season. So is liver with its high nutritive value.

An important savings practice to remember is not to buy or prepare too much of any one food. Older people generally need and prefer smaller quantities of food than younger people. Any wasted food hurts the budget.

Farm Bureau Employs T.V. News Director

The Texas farm bureau has employed a television news services director as a step in implementing the organization's Expanded Program adopted by voting delegates at a special meeting March 22, 1971, in Dallas. The voting delegates called for an expansion of the organization's public relations activities in behalf of agriculture and Farm Bureau.

The new staff member is Patrick Batts, 24, a graduate of Abilene Christian College with a degree in mass communications and an experienced television news and feature reporter. Batts will provide television news coverage of Farm Bureau activities and agricultural subject matter for Texas television stations. He will provide spot news and short features for both television newscasts and farm programs.

A native of Hillsboro, Batts resided in Alice and Abilene as a youth. He graduated from Abilene High School in 1966. In college, he was nominated for "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities," received the college's certificate of merit for work in television production two years, and was employed one year as a faculty assistant.

While a student at ACC, Batts worked part-time as a camera man and news director for KTSX-TV in Abilene. He started the noon news and weather cast which also sometimes included personality interviews. Upon graduation, he was employed full time with the station until November of 1970 when he joined the staff of KWTX-TV and KWTX AM and FM radio in Waco. In this position, he was feature reporter during the week and anchored the 6 and 10 p.m. newscasts on week ends.

He is married to the former Karen Cayer of Abilene, and they have one son, Brian Patrick, 6 months old. They reside in Waco and are members of the Columbus Avenue Church of Christ.

To help protect your family from the hazards of fire, pre-plan escape routes from every room in the house. This is a special recommendation for Fire Prevention Week, October 8-14. During this week give some thought to the possibility of a fire in your home. Plan ahead specifically for fire during the night when most of the family is asleep, since records for fire during the night when from the National Fire Prevention Association show that most dwelling fires break out during the nighttime hours.

Trim horse's hooves early in life to prevent feet and leg problems. The younger a horse is when proper trimming is started, the better the chances of encouraging straight and sound growth. Once the horse is two years old or more the chance for correction of problems is much less. Start handling a foal's feet early and begin trimming them at four to six months of age. Trimming may be started earlier if a problem occurs. Start by standing the foal up solidly on all four legs and viewing from the front, side and rear. If no defects are visible, trimming the feet every four weeks should suffice.

Woodson Requests A Price Support Program

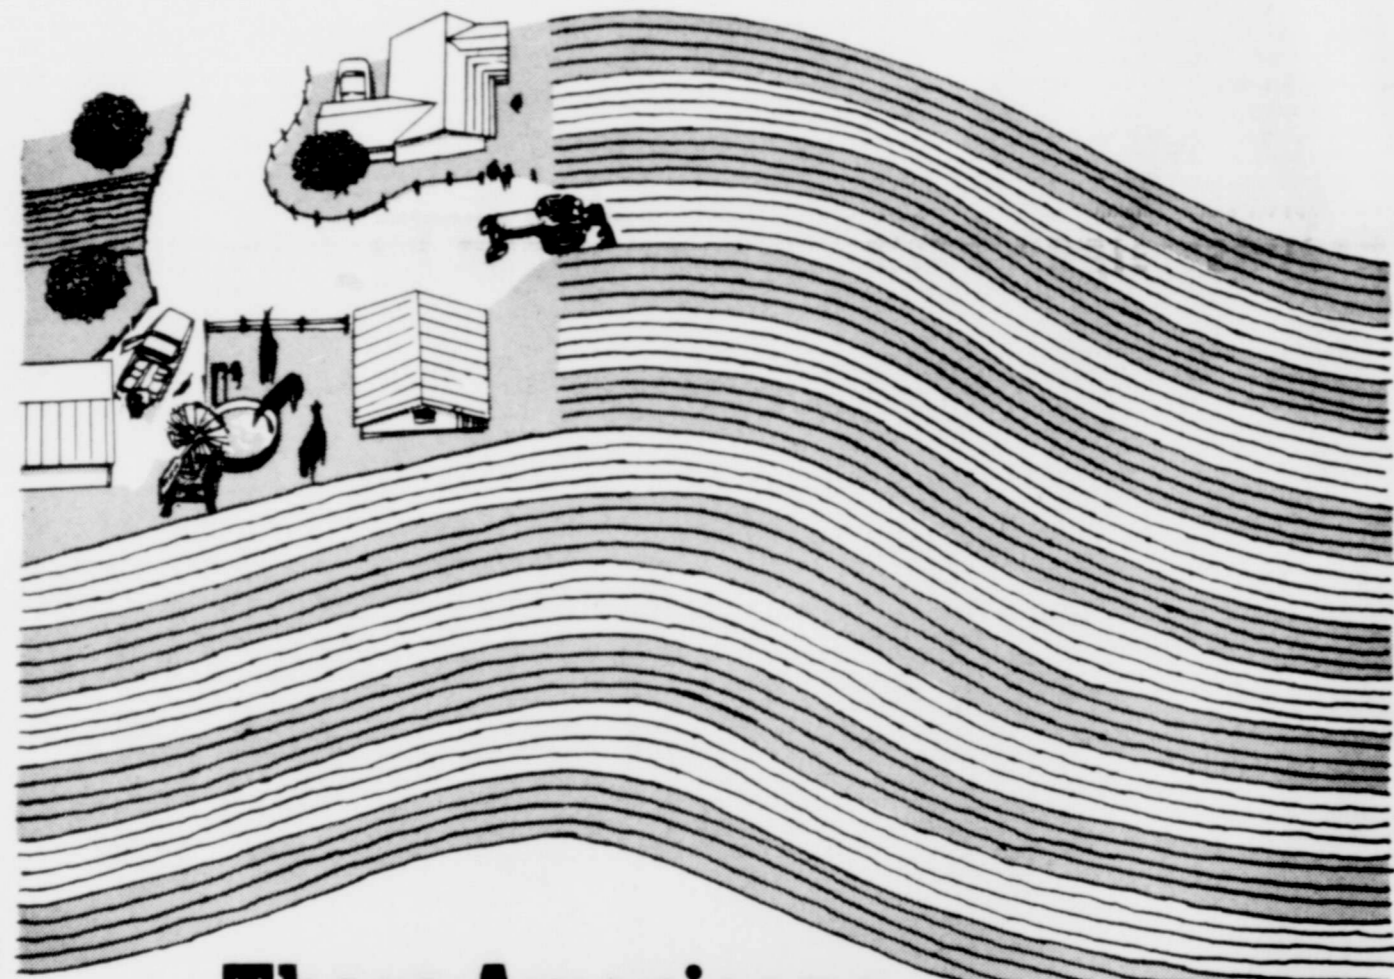

Texas Farm Bureau President J.T. (Red) Woodson on Oct. 3 requested Agriculture Secretary Earl Butz to authorize a price support program for cottonseed to assist in the marketing of this year's crop. Present farm legislation provides authority for such price supports, but the program is not now operative.

"Cotton producers are having problems with marketing their 1972 crop," Woodson wired Secretary Butz. "In addition to the depressed market for fiber, the price to farmers for cottonseed appears to be out of line when compared to the cost of cottonseed meal for livestock feed."

The president of the 130,000 member farm organization urged Butz "to exercise your authority to offer a price support program for cottonseed to producers in order to provide more orderly marketing for the 1972 crop."

If the Secretary decides to provide supports for this commodity, he is required by law to set the price support at a level that is competitive with other oilseed crops.

Texas cotton farmers received an average of $44 per ton for their cottonseed in late September, according to the USDA. This amounts to 52.6 percent of parity.

These Americans have held the line on prices.

There's a lot of talk about prices these days. And how to beat inflation. Unfortunately, there aren't any easy answers. But there are some effective inflation-fighters in this country. They haven't had a major price increase in the goods they sell for a generation. Who? The sometimes forgotten farmers in America.

Check the facts.

	1951	1971
Cotton (100 lbs.)	$37.88	$28.46
Grain Sorghum (100 lbs.)	$2.36	$1.84
Cattle (100 lbs.)	$35.72	$33.12
Corn (bushel)	$1.66	$1.08
Wheat (bushel)	$2.11	$1.31

Average yearly prices received by farmers (U.S. Department of Agriculture figures)

Take a look at the prices farmers received for a bushel of corn or wheat in 1951. Twenty years later, in 1971, prices were substantially lower. In 1951, farmers sold beef cattle for $35.72 per hundredweight. Twenty years later, the price had dropped more than 7%! Prices received for hogs decreased. Maybe you'll agree the best inflation fighters in the country manage America's farms.

Cheaper than dirt.

Here's a real eye-opener. Next time you're at the supermarket, price a 5-pound bag of flour, a 5-pound bag of corn meal and a 5-pound bag of potting soil. You'll find it's no exaggeration to say our farmers sell their products cheaper than dirt.

The high cost of winning.

All the while our farmers have been doing business at prices substantially out of the 1950's, the cost of the goods and services they buy are straight out of the 1970's. How can they survive buying high and selling low? The sad fact is many don't. In the last two decades, nearly half our farmers have left the land for already crowded cities because ends couldn't be met.

Now you know.

Statistics say the American farmer is the most efficient worker in the world. Each farmer provides food for fifty-one people. Compared to 20 in 1950. He is one of the very few of us who literally makes something where nothing was before. That could be why, in spite of the built-in risk of trying to beat Mother Nature year in and year out, you'll hear them all say, "I'm proud to be an American farmer."

Now, you may ask why the folks at Pioneer are telling you all this. Over the years, we've gotten to know a whole lot of farmers... so we decided we ought to speak up with the facts. Our friends on farms all over the country deserve it.

The success of the American farmer is basic to our country's economy. Yet he is besieged on every side... occasionally even characterized as some kind of profiteering villain. It is obvious that he needs help in telling it like it is. Pioneer Hi-Bred International is placing ads similar to this one in consumer publications. Hog Cholera Outlook Uncertain... Calf and Cattle Marketings Increase... Poultry Situation Summarized... Food, Fiber Pavilion Ready...

The Texas swine industry is intensifying its efforts to eradicate hog cholera from the state. Hog producers are hoping the two-month absence of the disease continues. A state must go 12 months without a case of hog cholera being confirmed before it can attain the hog cholera free status. Although the last case was reported in July, quarantines continue in Nueces and Parker counties.

Nationwide, hog cholera has made an alarming comeback. During the first two weeks in September, a total of 25 hog cholera cases were reported; this compared with only one for the entire month in 1971.

A new drive and a new toughness toward hog cholera eradication is underway.

Texas is becoming one of the major pork producing states in the nation. It now ranks 14th in total hog numbers with an inventory of about one million head. Hogs and pigs on farms in the 10 corn belt states are now estimated at 46.5 million head, one percent below a year earlier and eight percent below 1970 levels.

Hog producers in the 10 states intend to farrow two percent more sows during September-November this year than in the same period a year ago. They expect to farrow seven percent more sows during the December 1972-February 1973 period than a year ago.

LIVESTOCK auctions in Texas report that sales were above a year earlier for cattle and calves, sheep and goats but below for hogs.

Cattle and calves marketed through auctions during August numbered 671,000 head; this is 15 percent above a year ago and eight percent above a month ago.

Sheep sales totaled 109,000 head which is 27 percent more than a year ago but 17 percent below a month ago. Goats sold totaled 46,000. This is seven percent above a year ago and 70 percent above last month.

Hogs sold totaled 48,000 head. This is 26 percent below a year ago and four percent above a month ago.

UP, DOWN, Unchanged. That's the summary for poultry production in Texas. The August hatch of egg-type chickens totaled 1,449,000; this is down 18 percent from a year earlier.

The August hatch of broiler chicks increased three percent from a year ago to total 15,645,000.

The total turkey poult hatch increased three percent but was 61 percent below a month ago. Total hatch is 288,000.

Egg production was unchanged from a year ago at 215,000,000. Nationwide, egg production was down one percent from a year ago. The average daily egg production in Texas for 100 hens was 61; the average nationwide was 61.8 eggs.

BE SURE and visit the Food and Fiber Pavilion at the State Fair of Texas this October 7 to 22.

This is the third year the Texas Agricultural Product program-TAP-will be in charge. Special entertainment is planned, you'll see fashion shows utilizing Texas natural fibers-cotton, wool and mohair-and special cooking demonstrations are also planned.

It's all aimed at acquainting all Texans with the abundance and the quality of Texas-produced food and fiber.

Weekly Health Tip

from Joe Gillespie

One common cause of insomnia is exhaustion - simply being "too tired" at night. One remedy is to try taking a nap, even for 15 minutes, during the afternoon or early evening. If you cannot nap, at least rest with eyes closed and no interference from radio or TV. A snack just before bedtime to alleviate hunger, may also be helpful.

CARD OF THANKS

To: HICKORY ELM NURSING HOME

We thank you for your dedicated hands, For hours that ache when someone suffers pain - We thank you for a word of tenderness, To bring a ray of sunshine through the rain.

We thank you for the nights you stood beside, As death's dark angel hovered waiting there; We thank you for the comfort offered her, By those eager to prove that they still care.

Though we have felt the surge of emptiness, A loneliness to cause our hearts to burn, We pray the Lord in Heaven bless you all, As you have blessed our lives with your concern. ELLA ADAIR FAMILY
