RAYMOND GREENWOOD

The Burk Burnett Bulldogs put it all together once again last Friday night as they slapped the Hirschi Huskies with a handy 13-0 defeat. One more game, and one more win, or tie, is all Burk Burnett needs to take the District Crown. If they play Brownwood tomorrow night like they have played the last two ball games, then I feel the Bulldogs will be the proud district winners for 1972.

I beamed with a little more pride last Thursday when I read the story in the Iowa Park Leader concerning Burk Burnett's win over the Hawks. Two of the paragraphs in the recap of the game went like this:

"Head Hawk Grady Graves later commented, after studying the game film, 'I believe we couldn't have played much better than we did. Burk Burnett has a fine football team. They beat us fair and square. That last drive was what did it. Any team that can do what they did deserves to win.'

"The drive he mentioned was in the last quarter, when the Bulldogs consumed slightly more than eight minutes in marching the ball from the Burk 20 into Iowa Park's end zone, and taking the lead 21-14."

Thanks for the fine compliment Coach Graves and I wish you the best of luck as you tangle with the Hirschi Huskies tonight in Wichita Falls.

I hope as many Bulldog fans as possible can will make the long journey to Brownwood. As always Brownwood will be tough to beat, but we do have the material to do just that. Most especially if our boys continue to make contact the way they did Friday night on the field. I don't believe I've ever seen a harder hitting football game.

Well the political scene has finally become calm, or at least more so than what it was two weeks ago at this time. Campaigning had reached a point to where that seemed to be all that was on the tube or in most of the larger newspapers. In fact, campaigning has become so heavy that my four year old wanted to know why her TV shows didn't come on and all that was on any more was 'ole George McGovern!

I too am glad its over. Now maybe my mail will drop back to a normal amount. The news media gets so many "news releases" from candidates of every office imaginable that I have really been looking for a news release on Mr. so-and-so's scheduled trips to the "reading room."

Talk is that the United States should convert to the metric system of weights and measurements within the next few years. Many say that we use a very simple and easy to understand system of measurements now, so why change. Although I'd be completely lost in the metric system for a while, I must admit I don't know the present system completely. If you think you do, and if you think the present system is so easy and simple, see how you rate on the following ten questions.

1. How much is a hoghead of liquid?
2. If you ordered a cord of wood, how much would it be?
3. How many sheets of paper make a quire?
4. How long is a chain in surveying terms?
5. How much is a fathom?
6. If a horse stands 18 hands high, how tall is it?
7. If a tailor made up an ell of cloth, how much would it be?
8. How many scruples make a dram?

BULLDOG SENIORS that will play their last regular season game tomorrow night in Brownwood.

'Dogs Remain Number One; District Crown On Line Fri.

"We've only just begun" said the victory banner as Burk Burnett Bulldogs burst through it Friday night on their way to a 13-0 route of the powerful Hirschi Huskies. Only one more team separates the tough Orange men from Burk Burnett from the cherished district 4-AAA crown and a chance to play toward the state playoffs.

Actually the Bulldogs "just begun" some six weeks ago with their first district opponent. The Bulldogs have met six of their seven district opponents and left the field after each contest with a win. The tough Orange men faced, and defeated, three of what was predicted as some of the best school boy football teams in Texas--Vernon by 21-14, Iowa Park by 21-14 and Hirschi by the score of 13-0. It's no wonder then that all eyes will be on the game Friday night as the Bulldogs travel to Brownwood to take on what is traditionally one of the best AAA football teams in Texas.

In talking with Coach Bill Froman about the Bulldogs and their progress this season, Froman put it all in five short words, "Beat Brownwood, This one's it!"

Froman was referring to the fact that a win over Brownwood would give the 'Dogs the undisputed District Crown for the first time since Burk Burnett has been in class AAA, which is over a decade. This is not the first time the 'Dogs have played Brownwood the last game of the season and in the game that would decide the outcome of the district. In both 1970 and 1971 Burk Burnett clashed with the Brownwood Lions with the same hopes of a win and the district championship, only to have it slip out of their grasp.

The feeling around Burk Burnett this week seems to be "The third time is the charm and this is the year we are going to do it."

A loss to Brownwood by the Bulldogs would mean that Burk Burnett would have to share the championship with the Lions and possibly the Hawks from Iowa Park should Iowa Park defeat Hirschi tonight in memorial stadium. If such a three way tie develops, then a coin toss would determine which team went on to represent the district. If Hirschi defeats Iowa Park it would give both of their teams a 5-2 and would eliminate Iowa Parks hopes of the coin flip. Of course, if that occurs, then Brownwood tops the Bulldogs, its Brownwood on again into the playoffs as they have in the last several years.

As Coach Froman stated, Beat Brownwood, This one's it. Then the Bulldogs problems concerning the district crown are over.

Coaching reports on the Brownwood Lions reveal that the team is a typical Brownwood, Gordon Wood, football team. They are well coached, well disciplined and very aggressive. Their errors are almost non-existent and they have overall good size and speed.

The Lions were plagued with injuries earlier in the season with injuries to key personnel. Their top running back, starting quarterback, and a couple of seasoned linemen were out at times during the season. Some of their key personnel were sidelined with injuries when the Lions suffered their only conference defeat in six years as Iowa Park outscored them several years ago.

"Their men are all back now and I assure you they will be well fortified when we play them come Friday night," was the comment from Coach Froman. Richard Riggins at tailback is one of the top yardage gainers for the Lions. Also Bryan

Cutbirth who started the season at quarterback, was injured, and was moved to the wingback. See BULLDOGS, Pg. 2

CENTER GETS PAINTING--Well known artist, Mrs. Wallace Landrum, center, presented one of her paintings via the Forum Study Club of Burk Burnett to City Manager Gary Bean recently. The painting hangs in the foyer of the Civic Center. Mrs. Donald Mills, left, stated that she hopes this will set a precedent that other clubs will follow and will give paintings to help decorate the Civic Center. The painting given by the club was in honor of the late Mrs. Joe Wolfe who was a member of that club.

City-Wide Auction Sale Saturday To Help Sponsor X-Mas Activities

The City-Wide Auction Sale sponsored by the Retail Trades Committee of the Chamber of Commerce will get underway Saturday morning with a large amount of goods as well as a large number of buyers expected.

Tagging of items will begin at 9:00 a.m. and the auction will begin at 2:00 p.m. in front of the Chamber office at 412 Avenue C.

Lester Yates, chairman of the committee, reported that only usable items will be accepted for sale and that clothes or printed materials would not be accepted. Books may be donated to the Friends of the Library at that time however for those who wish to clean out their book shelves. The Friends will have a representative at the Chamber to accept the books which will be sold at the Friends' annual spring Book Fair.

Yates stated that a 10% commission would be charged on all goods auctioned. He also reported that the Chamber would accept any donations of goods to be auctioned that persons would like to give. The money derived from the commission as well as donated items will be used to help pay for the week long Christmas activities that are planned for the upcoming festivity season. Those activities are to include a community Christmas tree, Santa helper to talk with the little ones, decorations as well as candy to give plus several other things in the making. It was suggested that the City-Wide Auction would be an excellent opportunity for local citizens to turn unwanted, but usable items, into ready cash for the upcoming shopping days.

The Community Service Council is planning to have available coffee, pies, cakes and sandwiches for sale during the auction. Their concessions will begin about 11:00 p.m. in the Texas Electric Reddy Room and continue until the end of See AUCTION, Pg. 2

Plans Aired For UHF TV

The Community Service Council of Burk Burnett was presented an in depth report from Ray Farabee of Wichita Falls Educational Translator, Inc. (WFETI) on the progress of bringing Channel 13 of Dallas to this area. The non-profit organization was seeking support from the Council and all civic clubs of Burk Burnett as well as its citizens in hopes of raising enough money to bring the educational television channel to persons in Wichita Falls, Burk Burnett, Iowa Park and Henrietta.

The WFETI has made application to the Federal Communications Commission for the use of Channel 24 on the UHF (ultra high frequency) band of the TV set. Channel 13 will be received by microwave from Dallas and transmitted in an area of a 20-mile radius of the Channel 6 tower in Wichita Falls. There will be no local broadcasting or programming on the channel. Farabee also pointed out that advertising or commercials are prohibited on educational TV.

Programs as Sesame Street, Misterogers Neighborhood, The Electric Company would be available in color to all persons having TV sets with UHF tuner. All TV sets manufactured since 1963 have UHF tuners, and inexpensive UHF adaptors are available for sets not having them. It was pointed out that persons would need a UHF configuration outside antenna to receive the special channel. Farabee pointed out that estimated cost for the antenna was about $10 plus installation.

Other Public Broadcasting Service programs other than the above mentioned ones would also be available like Bill Buckley on "Firing Line", Playhouse New York, Wall Street Week, and various concerts and films. There will be no direct or indirect charge to persons receiving this additional television programming since all with television sets with the UHF tuner will be able to receive the channel.

The WFETI estimated that some $40,000 will have to be raised to purchase and install the necessary equipment, and approximately $10,000 per year will be required for operation and maintenance. It is anticipated by the company that these sums will be raised by donations and contributions from persons interested in having educational TV available in each of the towns within the 20-mile radius of Wichita Falls. They'll take a lot of $5 and $10 donations as well as those for $500 or $1,000 like the Shepard Officers Wives Club recently pledged for us to raise this amount," stated Farabee. Workers for WFETI at Shepard raised $2,500 from 500 families there. Their sales pitch was that interested persons stay home one night they normally go out and to take the amount of money they would normally spend and donate it to the fund.

At present pledges are being accepted by the organization, and upon its receiving its license from FCC it will begin taking money. If the money can be raised the project should be complete and Channel 13 on the air by May of 1973. Farabee also pointed out that there would be no paid staff with the only exception being one engineer on a minimal retainer fee. Other engineering, space and utility expenses will be provided by a Wichita Falls television station.

Dear Editor,

Letter to the Editor:
This letter is in regard to the voting conditions in Burkburnett, Texas.

As in previous elections, the voters were all seated in open tables in complete view of each other and with no privacy what so ever. I asked to discuss this with a voting official and was informed that they were counting ballots, but the woman in charge of the ballot box said, and I quote in part "you can talk, stand behind, watch anyone vote in here and she did not care, and if I wanted to vote in private I should sit at a table by myself", which I did and was promptly joined by three others. And this is called a SECRET BALLOT in Burkburnett?

If these conditions cannot be remedied, I intend to urge all others to use the absentee ballot as one means of a private vote.

Unsatisfied Voter,
Glen W. Sutor

Two Car Collision Sat. Injures Two Racers

A two car collision between two Wichita Falls residents racing down Sheppard Dr. near its intersection with Bishop Rd. Sunday morning near 1:00 a.m. resulted in minor injuries to both men and extensive damages to both cars.

Involved in the accident were Lloyd C. Parkey of Wichita Falls driving a 1971 Ford Mustang, and Robert W. Stolzy of 2013 Kemp in Wichita Falls driving a 1972 Pontiac.

It was reported that both cars were racing at an undetermined rate of speed when the Stolzy vehicle pulled into the Parkey automobile causing both drivers to lose control and the cars to run across Bishop Rd. The Parkey vehicle struck a stop sign and a tree while the Stolzy vehicle struck a street sign and a telephone pole.

Local police also investigated a Saturday afternoon accident occurring at the intersection of Texas 240 and Rosebud Street. The accident occurred as Jess W. Blackwell Jr. of 1003 Rosebud, driving a 1964 Chevrolet turned left onto Rosebud. Raymie Mitchell of 900 CIBA Rd., driving a 1963 Mercury started to pass the Blackwell vehicle when it made contact with it. Damages to vehicles was minor and no injuries resulted from the accident.

A purse was also reported stolen from an unlocked automobile parked at the American Legion building Saturday night.

position, adds a great deal of ground power to the Lions attack.

Helping to keep the Lions offensive attack almost equal on the ground and through the air is Blue Chip player Truman Westfall who is a 191 lb., 6 ft. 6 in. end. He has good hands and good speed and poses as a constant threat to his opponents. Deal Low, quarterback for the Lions, throws more than past Lion quarterbacks, but is also able to keep the ground attack going.

No doubt the Lions are wondering if they can crack the tough Burk defense that has been extremely aggressive in its last three games. Their defense must then cope with the fierce ground machine of the Bulldogs that has racked up yardage in excess of 300 in the rushing category almost every game lately.

"We've picked up a lot of momentum these last three weeks, and it will take the same type effort and errorless ball game in order for us to win this Friday night," stated Froman. The Bulldogs have met their opponents with a bruising, aggressive type football and the same is expected this Friday night.

All Bulldog players are reported to be in fine shape, with no injuries, and with minor bumps and bruises expected to fade away by game time Friday night.

All fans are urged to make the long journey and support "this year's district champs", the Burkburnett Bulldogs.

Radio station KTRN in Wichita Falls has arranged for the game to be carried live over their station for fans that are unable to make the trip.

BULLDOGS SKUNK HIGHLY RANKED HIRSCHI 13-0 IN HEATED CONTEST

Allan Fournier, #51, and Mike Myers, #76, team upon QB Larry Johnson. The powerful field general couldn't break through the huge 'Dog line as the Orange and Black defense blocked all Hirschi TD attempts.

by Sedelta Verble
Cool, calm, collected and dominating the entire game, the Burkburnett Bulldogs smothered the Hirschi Huskies 13-0 at Bulldog Stadium on a chilly Friday night. The powerful 'Dogs knocked Hirschi out of district contention as they continue to march down a tight road with only Brownwood threatening to mess up an undefeated record and a District Championship.

Once again relying on a full team effort, QB Sam Hancock clicked off winning plays to a hot offense and Rick Bradley controlled the defensive effort that left the Huskies scoreless. Hancock finished a 60-yard drive to give the 'Dogs a 7-0 lead in the first quarter that went unchanged until he again mauled the Husky defense in third quarter action.

Also standing out of the shadows of a great orange and black effort were Allan Fournier, Scott Smith, Zac Henderson, Ted Neible, Mark Bulla, Bill Snowden, and many others, who though they don't get as many pats on the back, are important to a victory. They are the tacklers, offensive line that clear the road for Hancock and his tight ends.

The Hirschi defense held its own as the Bulldogs drove the five yard line of Hirschi land, but were stopped there when the half ended by a swift arm of a Husky defender who batted the Hancock pass to Snowden down.

Burk dominance was felt in every category of the game with 258 total rushing yards and sixteen first downs. In first down action the 'Dogs held victory minded Hirschi to ten and to only 32-yards rushing and 11-yards passing. To hold Larry Johnson, the quick armed QB for Hirschi, this was quite an accomplishment in itself.

The third quarter action which like most of the game was a defensive struggle, saw Hancock finally melt the Hirschi defense line to plunge through for a 13-0 lead. The Huskies tried to put a TD on the board but one Husky felt the off-sides penalty on a scoring drive was incorrect. He voiced his opinion to the ref a little too strongly and only added to Hirschi woes with another penalty.

All in all the defensive game proves that the 'Dogs have what it takes to beat Brownwood. Already Hancock and Bradley are all-state candidates and the team as a whole is what District Champions are made of.

QB Sam Hancock, #17, runs with the pigskin under one arm as Hirschi's fleet footed QB Larry Johnson, #17, pursues. Johnson angled in on Hancock to pull him out of bounds just two yards from pay dirt.

GOOD LUCK

MARK BULLA, #29, turns a corner with the ball as a Hirschi defender grabs on. Zac Henderson, #23, pursues the pursuer.

JV Holds Powerful Rider 22-12

by Sedelta Verble
Jay Lippard and Jimmy Koulovatoes chalked up two big TD's against a stingy Rider defense as the Bulldog JV fell to the Bandits 22-12. The Rider team was a worthy opponent ending the season undefeated in ten games. The Bulldogs are the only team to stop the explosive Bandits and hold them to this few points.

The Bulldog defense especially tightened up after first quarter action and didn't allow the Rider offense any more points. Outstanding JV players for the year are Kenneth Eden, Larry Lamer, Ricky Mason, Garrett Parky, Jay Lippard, Danny Ladd, Jimmy Koulovatoes, Lyn Taylor, Doug Garrison and Guy Froman.

The Burkburnett Bulldog Junior Varsity ends the season with a 3-6-1 record.

ZAC HENDERSON, #23, is hauled in by two Hirschi players as he death grips the ball. The two oncoming Hirschi defenders rush in for a block.

Frosh Drop Close Battle

by Sedelta Verble
David Ray, Bulldog Freshman fullback, plunged 6 yards into Rider territory Thursday night to start off the Bulldog Rider Rustlers game which despite Ray's efforts fell to Rider 20-14.

Ray galloped 60 yards for the other Bulldog TD in the fourth quarter. Coach David Kellers Freshmen battled the Rustlers well, moving the ball and playing stringent defense against the tough Wichita Falls opponent.

Randy Burke intercepted one Rustler pass while Mark Milam and James Burden were also outstanding for the 'Dogs.

The Bulldog-Rider game concludes the season for Burk with a 2-7-1 record. The Bulldogs have rounded off the season with more experience and a schedule of tough battles under their belts.

Woods & Waters

By Mike Gaines

Well, Friday will be the opening day of deer season and with the cold weather we've been having they should be moving a lot.

This year the Informer/Star will have its first "Big Buck Contest". I explained the rules a couple of weeks ago but for those of you who might have missed them we will repeat them:

1. The deer must be taken in Texas and must be a Whitetail.
2. It must be weighed in at a weigh station or a locker with the weight ticket accompanying the entry blank.
3. The number of points must be listed and must be at least an inch in length.

4. The date and county where taken and witnessed by another hunter.

The deer will be judged as follows:

1 point for each pound and five points for each antler point with the most total points winning.

Clip the entry blank and take it with you, you may be the lucky one.

Be sure to sight in your rifle before you go. The saddest picture in the world is a deer hopping away on three legs after being shot by the hunter who "thought" his rifle was sighted in.

Good Luck!

8th Grade Falls To Vernon 36-8

by Sedelta Verble

The Burkburnett eighth grade fell to Vernon eighth grade 36-8. Junior Cox ran through the 'Dogs TD in first quarter action. Vernon is the only team to beat the 'Dogs this year, leaving Burk's record 6-2. Coach Yeager named Mike Doyle, Harrold Rich, Jimmy Edwards, Chris Neible, Junior Cox, Brett Patty and David Jenkins as Bulldogs who have done an outstanding job this year. The Burk-Vernon game wound-up the Bulldog schedule for the year.

7th Grade Downed By Vernon 22-6

by Sedelta Verble

The Burkburnett seventh grade closed their football season with a 22-6 loss to Vernon's powerful seventh grade Tuesday. The Burk team moved the ball well and Steve Steward made a six-pointer but fumbles and Vernon defenders got in the way of a victory.

Coach Beard's team has chalked up a 4-2-1 record this season as they stood up against tough area junior high footballers.

The big Eagles outscore the big Oilers 20-6 in the Midget Bowl game.

Midget League To Hold Banquet

The Burkburnett Midget Football League will hold its annual awards banquet Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in the Burkburnett Civic Center. Bob Gant will be master of ceremonies. The stage band will be under the direction of Rusty Stove. Awards and trophies will be made to players and cheerleaders. Board members and coaches will be recognized.

SHEPPARD AIR FORCE BASE

Texas A&M Presents A Masters Degree Program At Sheppard A F B

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS--Texas A and M University has proposed the presentation of a masters degree program on Sheppard Air Force Base according to Kelley Ezell, base education officer. The plan calls for a master of engineering degree in industrial engineering.

Determination of availability of the program will depend in part upon an interest survey being conducted by the Base Education Office. Prior educational achievement establishes eligibility for admission to the curriculum. Bachelors degrees in science, mathematics, or engineering will qualify provided the holder has a grade point average (GPA) of 2.5 or better on a 4-point system. Lower GPAs may be offset by good scores on the Graduate Record Examination.

With the presentation of two 16-week semesters and one 12-week summer term per year, completion of the degree would be possible in two calendar years. For persons who might be reassigned after accomplishing significant elements of the degree Terminal TDY Foot-strap could afford completion opportunity.

In the absence of graduate study in engineering in this area, Ezell considers this opportunity quite significant to members of persons at Sheppard.

Individuals interested in the proposed academic offering should visit with a counselor in the Base Education Office to gain details of the plan and to file expression of interest.

New Emblem New Name

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS--The School of Applied Aerospace Sciences, Sheppard (SAASS), formerly the 3750th Technical School, has a new organizational emblem to go along with its new name.

The emblem is intended as a symbolic representation of the school's function.

"August 1, when the school's name was officially changed, it seemed only fitting that we have a new emblem to symbolize the school's function," Colonel Carl L. Brunson, SAASS commander, explained. "We wanted to better align our title with our educational efforts attendant to gaining accreditation for SAASS."

Knowledge, the school's mission, is represented by the traditional burning lamp portrayed on the emblem. A book supporting the lamp represents research and scholarship, the basic foundations for excellence in the school's training program. Knowledge, skill and attitudes, the school's expressed training goals, are represented by the three stars on the emblem.

A sphere on the emblem depicts the world-wide scope of the SAASS technical training mission and specifically symbolizes leadership in Air Force technical training and the challenge of the future.

"Service to the Nation," the school's motto, is printed at the base of the emblem and refers to the service provided by the school's development of human resources.

The emblem's blue background is symbolic of the skies in which the Air Force operates. Yellow is representative of the sun and the excellence of Air Force personnel in performance of their assigned tasks.

According to William S. Neale, Training Advisor, SAASS and creator of the emblem, heraldic standards specify that accurate symbolism be used whenever possible.

One of the reasons SAASS needed a new emblem was that, several years ago, the school's old emblem was combined with that of the parent organization, Sheppard Technical Training Center. Neale stated that sharing an emblem with STTC was, at best, a temporary solution. "The school didn't need its own emblem as long as it was the only school at Sheppard," he explained. "After the School of Health Care Sciences (SHCS) was transferred here, though, we needed something to express the technical training mission and the vastly expanded training programs, including the Air Force network of Field Training Detachments. Therefore, we wanted an emblem that would help reflect the full mission of the school and, at the same time, enhance the school's prestige."

Plans for the new emblem were submitted at the same time as were suggestions for changing the school's name from a numbered designation to a name common to all five technical schools in the Air Training Command. Neale said that this was in keeping with the underlying philosophy and goal of constant improvement of the school's standing in the academic community.

"Both the changed name and the new emblem were proposed to reflect the school's interest not only in teaching technical skills but with its interest in the student's knowledge, understanding, and attitudes the total man," Neale said.

Neale explained that he had provided the rough design concepts for the new emblem and that George Crowell, Chief of the Support Services Section, Curriculum Branch, SAASS, did all the art work required for the official proposal.

Steigerwald Takes 1st Place In 7 Categories In Photo Contest

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS--As judges viewed more than 100 color slides, monochrome and color prints in the base-level photo contest, the name of Master Sergeant Richard J. Steigerwald cropped up with amazing repetition.

Sergeant Steigerwald took 1st place in seven categories; Color Slides--People, Children, Animals, Scenic and Still Life; Monochrome (black and white) Prints--Children and Animals. He swept all four places in four categories and won 20 awards in the contest.

Other multiple winners were Technical Sergeant Donald Brady and Airman first class Edwin Taylor with eight each, Sergeant Bryant Turpen and Airman Daniel Barnett with 5 each, and Captain Dennis G. Wentworth with four.

All first-place winners have been sent to Air Training Command for command-level judging.

This is the fourth consecutive year that Sergeant Steigerwald has been the front runner in the base contest. During that time he also has posted many wins in the ATC and Air Force-wide contests.

The three local judges, Pat Wainscott, Staff Sergeant Jim Schoyen and Robert Arnold, selected Sergeant Steigerwald's monochrome print of his daughter Susan as Best of Show. Susan, "who has just turned four," was the fascinating subject of many of her father's pictures.

Sergeant Steigerwald is currently assigned to the Department of Field Training, School of Applied Aerospace Sciences. He has been a photographer for more than 25 years, is obviously a serious amateur, and considers himself a budding professional.

His equipment includes a Nikon F2, Nikkormat, KowaSIX, a wide variety of lenses, lighting equipment and accessories. "It represents an investment of thousands of dollars," he admitted.

A pet subject of his is the Wichita Falls Camera Club which is open for interested Sheppard photographers. Sergeant Steigerwald will be glad to provide information for those who wish to call him at 855-1990.

Winners by group and category are Group I: Monochrome Prints--People: Sergeant Edwin A. Blochowiak, Brady, Taylor; Children: Steigerwald (all four places); Animals: Steigerwald and Taylor; Action: Brady, Barnett, Brady and Brady; Scenic: Taylor, Barnett and Barnett; Still Life: Taylor, Barnett, Taylor, Barnett; and Experimental: Taylor and Sergeant John E. Perkins.

Group II: Color Prints--People: Brady, Children: Brady and Brady; Animals: Wentworth and Wentworth; Scenic: Wentworth, Technical Sergeant Edwin A. Gartland, Wentworth; and Military Life: Gartland.

Group III: Color Slides--People: Steigerwald, Brady, Airman First Class Gayle D. Ralston; Children: Steigerwald (all four places); Animals, Steigerwald, Turpen, Steigerwald, Taylor; Action: Turpen (all 3 places); Scenic: Steigerwald (all four places); Still Life: Steigerwald (all four places); and Experimental: Taylor and Turpen.

Sheppard Staff Donates Blood

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS--When Minnie Estess's husband, James, underwent open heart surgery, the Sheppard Staff Judge Advocate's office where she works responded in a big way.

Mrs. Estess has been a claims examiner in the office for six years. When her husband entered the hospital, her daughter called Technical Sergeant Richard Meyers, non-commissioned officer in charge of claims, requesting help, stating that her father would need 18 pints of blood.

Responding to the call Wednesday, one day after the operation, were Sergeant Meyers as well as Captain Larry Thrall, Staff Sergeant William Carter and Richard Kennedy and Sergeant Richard Innes. Saturday Sergeant Meyers received another call for more blood, and Monday several more people from the office responded. They were Colonel Norman Carroll, the staff judge advocate; Captains Melvin Howell and Bruce Lind; Senior Master Sergeant Duane Ford and his son Glenn, Master Sergeant Ken Lung; and Jack Rallsback, Jim Tunnell and Miss Lou Parker, all civilians in the office.

Also donating blood have been members of the teaching and coaching staff as well as members of the football team at Hirschi High School. Mr. and Mrs. Estess have filmed the team games since the school opened in 1962.

"The Party's Over" Theme For OWC Coffee

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS--"The Party's Over" was the theme featured at the Sheppard Air Force Base Officers Wives Club coffee Wednesday morning at the Officers Club.

"The day after election day" was in evidence with old campaign posters as decorations. Red, white and blue colors were used.

Newcomers introduced were Mesdames Jack Ekrem, Edward Dehan, Robert Robelaud, Robert Lane, Tyrone Whalen and Fred Lykes.

Hostesses were wives of officers assigned to the School of Health Care Sciences. Mrs. Gary Hilyard, chairman, was assisted by Mesdames John Colletti, Berton Dubois, Robert Hauser, William Mohri, Dallas Rhoads, Bart Rowen and Edwin Shiller.

COUNTY AGENT NEWS

B.T. Haws
Wichita County Agricultural Agent

Texans have always been proud of their state, and the Texas "brag" is widely known. However, when it comes to agriculture, that "brag" is very real because agriculture is "big" in Texas.

"It's appropriate to take a look at the state's agricultural industry as we enter the month of November, the month designated as 'Texas Food and Fiber Abundance Month'."

For instance, consider that agriculture is a $10 billion industry in Texas, second only to the oil and gas industry. In addition, the agricultural industry provides employment for 35 to 40 per cent of the Texas labor force.

Of the state's approximate land area of 168 million acres, some 143 million acres are in farmland—more than any other state. Texas also boasts more and bigger farms than any other state in the nation.

And talk about diversity! Texas produces more than 200 different types of crops and livestock. So, in many ways, the state is self-sustaining, notes Baker. In addition, it provides food and fiber for consumers throughout this country as well as abroad. Texas is the third leading agricultural state in the nation and ranks fourth among the leading agricultural exporting states.

Salt is one of the cheapest yet one of the most essential items in the diet of the dairy cow.

Lack of enough salt can cause the dairy animal to lose its appetite, become restless and have an unthrifty appearance. Cows deficient in salt also tend to chew and lick objects.

A good rule of thumb to use in adding salt to the grain mixture is to use 1 to 2 per cent of the total weight of the feed. Salt should also be offered to the cows free choice in a loose form.

Dairy herds on a complete or all-in-one ration require less salt and a mixture of one-fourth to one-half per cent is sufficient. Free choice salt should also be available in a covered feeder.

Food And Fiber Abundance Month

November is Food and Fiber Abundance Month in Texas. And there is no better example of an abundant product than Texas broilers.

"Texas is one of the leading broiler producing states in the nation," points out Dr. David B. Mellor, poultry marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "We produce enough for all Texans and some left over to share with our neighbors."

Broilers are economical and prices reflect their abundance, notes the Texas A&M University specialist. Back in 1920 broilers (chickens, as they were all referred to then) cost 37 cents per pound. Compare this with today's cost!

During 1957-59, one hour of factory labor brought 4.7 pounds of broiler. In 1971, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture, this same amount of labor brought almost nine pounds of broiler. This reflects some rise in factory wages, but an even greater drop in broiler prices, explains Mellor.

"Broilers actually cost less today than they did 20 years ago. Feed and labor efficiencies and genetic improvement have all combined to produce today's versatile broiler. The broiler industry has been the leader in effective use of nutritional knowledge."

In 1940, 250 man-hours were needed to produce 1,000 broilers. Today, only 15 man-hours provide the same output. Despite rising expenses, broiler producers have cut production costs 50 percent since 1949. All this came about with the use of "the most advanced system of food production" by our modern broiler industry.

Ten Voting Delegates To Represent Wichita County

Wichita County Farm Bureau will be represented by 10 voting delegates at the Texas Farm Bureau annual convention to be held Nov. 12-15 in Houston.

They are Messrs. and Meses. Loys D. Barbour, Leo B. Slaughter, and Bill Carnes; Mrs. Anna Mae Emmert, Wymore Downing, Carl Moeller, Raymond Schroeder and Jerry Don Padgett.

Also attending the 39th annual TFB meet from this county will be Mrs. Ruth Gard, and Mr. and Mrs. T.H. Stone and Debbie. They will be among the some 1,500 persons from the 206 organized county Farm Bureaus in the state expected to attend the event. Debbie Stone will participate in the Talent Find on Sunday night at 8:30 p.m. in the Grand Ballroom of the Rice Hotel.

1972 Most Successful Year In The History Of The Texas Farm Bureau

Asserting that they year of 1972 "has been the most successful year in the history of the Texas Farm Bureau" TFB President J.T. (Red) Woodson reeled off a succession of outstanding accomplishments to document the claim in his annual president's address at the TFB convention held in Houston, Nov. 13.

Woodson spoke at the general session on Monday morning, Nov. 13.

The year was successful in membership growth, he pointed out. TFB gained 9,541 member families in 1972, the largest gain in 17 years.

It was a year of "dramatic growth and success" in service to member programs, he added. Farm Bureau members saved more than $4 million in group purchases of tires and batteries alone, he explained.

"1972 has been the most successful year in the history of Texas Farm Bureau also because of our accomplishments in Austin," he declared. He said because Farm Bureau was in Austin, "we fared well in agricultural appropriations."

The farmer of 1980 will have to be a businessman just as much as an agriculturalist, according to Dr. John Hopkins, Stiles professor of agricultural finance for the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

He also will need an operation physically large enough to supply his family an adequate standard of living and still be able to generate enough capital

Farm Bureau was also active, he said, in the passage of a resolution asking for a constitutional convention to prohibit busing of school children to achieve racial balance.

"We were able to defeat a bill that would have required land owners to have a fishing license to fish in their own lakes and ponds if they had been stocked with fish from the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department," he added.

Two main issues that were before the last special session of the Legislature were competitive insurance rates and farm trailer regulations, he recalled. "Farm Bureau had a major stake in both," he declared. Farm Bureau policy favors competitive insurance rates, he pointed out, adding that "Texas Farm Bureau testified and was active on this issue." Many proposals set forth, according to Woodson, would have raised the cost of insurance to Farm Bureau members. "Your organization was a factor in preventing unsatisfactory insurance legislation. This matter will be re-considered in 1973, and Farm Bureau will be there to represent your interests," he assured some 1,500 Farm Bureau leaders attending the convention.

"The other item that was vital to agriculture was trailer legislation," he said. "Farm Bureau was a major force in working with the Legislature in passing Senate Bills 20 and 21, giving us a workable trailer bill for farmers and ranchers," he declared.

Woodson also related some success in dealing with regulatory agencies. "You were represented many times formally and informally with the agencies that deal with agriculture," he declared. The TFB president cited as an example the organization's relationship with the Water Quality Board, explaining the TFB was able to prevent the imposition of "complex and impractical" proposals for controlling livestock, dairy, poultry, and feed lot operations. "We have developed a working management skills, Hopkin, also with the Department of Agricultural Economics and Rural Sociology at Texas A&M University, said.

Generating both equity and debt capital, or risk and borrowed capital, will be one of the main concerns of the aware farmer. The large investments plus the need to keep competitive by utilizing new and usually expensive technological advances are causing capital to be very important.

To obtain capital, several things are necessary. The farmer-businessman will have to prepare profit and loss statements to show that he is profitable. Financial statements must be prepared to show that financial progress is being made and cash-flow projections developed to show loan repayability. Only then is the farmer ready to go looking for funds.

Skills in capital budgeting and analyzing alternative investment opportunities are needed to see that the limited capital is invested where payoff is the greatest. He also will have to exercise budget and cost controls of his business. Skills in building sound credit, and then merchandising it, are also needed.

Hopkin feels the greatest payoffs in the future are likely to come from the effort devoted to improving farmers' skills in business and financial management.

He also will need an operation physically large enough to supply his family an adequate standard of living and still be able to generate enough capital

Chili Pow-Wow Planned

Pioneer Bowl officials have announced a Chili Cooker's Pow-Wow has been planned as part of the Pioneer Bowl Week's Festivities on December 8 and 9 in Wichita Falls.

It is anticipated this colorful and zany event will draw chili chefs from all over Texhoma-land and from far away places as Arizona and California.

Contestants must bring their own cooking equipment. Example: cooking stove, folding type table and other incidental and miscellaneous cooking equipment, secret ingredients, condiments and all that stuff.

Meat inspectors will be on hand to certify the quality of meat used. Judges will observe cooking procedures and taste the chili for the purpose of declaring a winner.

The chili cooking Pow-Wow will be held on Friday, December 8, to determine five (5) finalists who will cook again from scratch on Saturday morning, December 9, to pick a winner, runner-up, and third place. Trophies will be awarded and winners will be recognized over National Television during Pioneer Bowl Football Game.

These chili - chefs are a unique group of people who cook in colorful uniforms and decorate their cooking booths with crazy signs, animals and people. Ceremonial dancers and western voo-doo may take place to help improve the nutritional and tasty quality of the chili.

Chili Cookers from Texhoma-land are urged to enter and compete against National Chili Winners. Please contact Pioneer Bowl Chili Cooker's Pow-Wow, P.O. Box 1860, Wichita Falls, Texas 76307, or call (817) 723-2741 for an application.

Guidelines of Life

RELIGIOUS FREEDOM CAN BE A CHALLENGE
by Rev. Albert H. Lindemann, Grace Lutheran Church

The phrase "religious freedom" does not at all mean ignorance or indifference to religion. The very fact that the Bill of Rights begins with a statement on religion shows how important the founders of our beloved nation considered religion to be. They did not intend to eliminate God from our way of life. Quite the contrary! They assumed religion to be the very foundation of government. One is amazed at the many bible verses quoted in speeches of early congressmen. As late as 1952, the United States Supreme Court commented officially that "we are a religious people whose institutions presuppose a Supreme Being."

Our forefathers sought out this continent as a place where they could worship God unhampered by tradition and religious persecution. They build churches as quickly as they build their homes. Many a person today might find it completely surprising that the primary purpose of establishing schools in the New England States was not to teach the three R's, but to teach sufficient ability to read the Bible - "it being," says the law, "one chief project of that old deluder, Satan, to keep men from the knowledge of the Scripture by persuading them from the use of tongues, to the end that learning may not be buried in the graves of our forefathers, in church and commonwealth, the Lord assisting our endeavors."

Wherever one looks, he is overwhelmed by the multiplicity of historic documents, monuments, inscriptions and other records attesting the fact that the source of our nation's strength from its beginning has been faith in God. A quick tourist tour through our national capitol leaves one with the thoughtful contemplation that our nation laid its foundation and developed its political and social structure by continued adherence to spiritual and religious ideals.

A good many people seem to have lost this anchor and are drifting. They have forgotten that without the Fatherhood of God, the brotherhood of man is just so much "bunk". It is when people are without God that they begin to think too much of themselves and throw authority out the window.

Either God is nothing, or He is the most important person in our life. He wants us to think of Him as more important than anything else. In the light of history and observation, I believe that our community would become collectively more stable and happy if the worship privilege in our national heritage were individually exercised. It would be the greatest "happening" in our town if every family, parents and children, determined to revive the truly American custom of weekly worship by attending our community churches. Our Lord once put it like this: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, mind, soul, and strength." That's a big order, isn't it?

Weekly Health Tip

from Joe Gillespie

Do you plan to stuff your Thanksgiving turkey? If you prepare the dressing the day before, keep it refrigerated to prevent the growth of harmful bacteria such as salmonella which can cause food poisoning. Poultry should be frozen if held for more than 24 hours before roasting. After dinner, both the turkey and dressing should be promptly refrigerated.

News From In And Around Temple

MASONS

District 34's final 1972 monthly meeting is set for Friday night and Temple's lodge number 210 will be represented when new district officers will be elected.

Robert "Butch" Yelding and Eddie Laxson, both of Temple, are being considered for next year's president and secretary respectively.

Yelding is tyler and Laxson is worshipful master in the Temple Lodge. Both have attended all district meetings this year, thereby adding 66 points to the total of 94 attendance contest points which places Temple third behind Duncan and Terral. Duncan will be presented the annual award, a plaque, for the third year in succession at Friday's gathering.

NEED MET

For a time following completion of the Senior Citizen building, it was doubtful if Temple's Pitch Club would survive the loss of membership caused by transfers to the new daytime facilities.

The fact that minimum age for taking part in the Senior Citizen program is 55 left a number of younger men high and dry. Then another problem arose because doors closed at 4:30 p.m. at the Center and eligible working men can't participate.

The two problems have been solved by phasing out the former Pitch Club and instigating in its place a new group known as Domino Club with a present membership of 11.

The one-room houses slated to receive a new coat of paint inside and out plus wall to wall carpeting.

MOBILE HOMES

Temple's mayor, Woody Wilson, Chamber of Commerce president, Dave Richardson and Bill Bentley, a layman deeply interested in bettering financial conditions in Temple and its trade territory, headed a safari of 24 Templetons to Idabel, Okla. Friday to attend an official dedication ceremony of a mobile home factory.

Wilson and Bentley, spokesmen for the group, agreed Temple has a good chance to secure a similar operation if C. L. Robinson, co-owner of Rapides Home, is convinced another $3, 000,000 assembly line business could be profitably located in Oklahoma.

Mayor Wilson knows of several locations within the city limits and acreages bordering the city's boundaries suitable for building a structure large enough to accommodate the plant.

Local welders would be benefited directly as all required welding would be farmed out to local firms, the mayor said.

Other area businesses should be interested in the proposed plant because it could expand to employ a maximum of 125 men, Bentley said.

Charles Walker, superintendent of Temple's schools, attended the dedication and is hopeful Temple proves attractive to the home builders to the extent this school district secures the new industry and thereby boosts the school's daily average attendance, which has been going lower each passing year.

The final outcome should be known within four to eight weeks when Robinson completes a feasibility check of the community.

AGING PROGRAM

Cotton County has a new organization with headquarters in Temple to lend assistance to older citizens.

A non-profit committee on aging was named Wednesday, Nov. 8, when Mrs. Louise Mooney, director of Temple's senior citizen facilities, called a meeting to elect officers and select local help to represent various organizations.

Rev. Ray Howard, pastor of the United Methodist Church in Temple, accepted the president seat assisted by George Kindred as vice-president and Eddie Laxson, reporter, will lead the committee. Mary Johnson in Welfare offices at Walters, Ruth as health advisor, Gladys Purvis, president of Friendship club, Theodore Jones, county

Library Corner

This week, November 13-18, is National Children's Book Week. The motto is BOOKS NOW! BOOKS WOW! The Burkburnett Library is celebrating this event with the shelving of dozens of new Children's books. Come in and look over these new ones for the 3 to 6 crowd, IN A PEOPLE HOUSE, by Theo LeSeg (Dr. Seuss); THE MAGIC SLED, by Nathaniel Benchley; THE OLD WOMAN WHO LIVED IN A VINEGAR BOTTLE, by Rumer Godden; INSPECTOR PECKIT, by Don Freeman; and THE ADVENTURES OF OBADIAH, by Brinton Turkle. For the sports fans - a football story, PHANTOM BLITZ, by Joe Archibald; FACE-OFF, ice hockey - by Matt Christopher; and THE LAST LAP - a racing tale, by W.C. Gault.

For further adventures of Charlie Buckett and Willie Wonka, read CHARLIE AND THE GREAT GLASS ELEVATOR, by Roald Dahl - starts where CHARLIE AND THE CHOCOLATE FACTORY left off!

Helen Hoke has edited a new book for joke-lovers, THE BIG BOOK OF JOKES. It is a fine collection of laughing matter! A new biography of BATMASTERSON by Dale White will surely interest the adventure hunters. His life was a real adventure as a cocky, but certain defender, of the weak.

Other books of interest: HAMDON'S NATURE ATLAS OF AMERICA - wildlife species; CATHY UNCOVERS A SECRET, by Catherine Wooley; DORRIE AND THE GOBLIN, by Patricia Coombs; and a new Betty Cavanna mystery - MYSTERY IN THE MUSEUM.

The publication went one step further by offering a suggestion that deals with furnishing transportation to the center for those who do not drive or who are physically unable to get to the center without help.

FIRE DAMAGE

Temple's volunteer fire department answered an alarm Friday and fought a stubborn fire one and one-half miles east of town on the Earl Cox farm that destroyed a hay barn and 800 bales of hay for a total loss valued at over $6,000 by the owner.

The destruction was triggered by sparks from a welding machine used in building a steel corral, according to Cox.

STUDENTS VISIT

Members of the Inter Faith Council, (IFC) an inter-denominational christian organization on Lawton's college campus, presented a program for Temple's Methodist congregation Sunday morning.

Rev. Phillip Jones, ecumenical minister in Lawton district, was in charge and main speaker.

Rev. Jones was assisted by Robert L. Zigler, IFC board member and faculty member and Allan Sander, student president of Lawton's IFC.

All 10 visitors, representing four different denominations, were guests of the church at a covered dish dinner following the service.

Rev. Ray Howard, local Methodist pastor, welcomed the group and Miss Sarah Hosenbeck, a student, spoke for her classmates and leaders to express appreciation for having been invited to outline what religious organizations on a campus mean to college students.

You're looking at one of the nice things about an electric dryer.

Drying a wet teddy bear, or other stuffed toys labeled "washable" is just one of many things you can do with a flameless electric dryer.

There are plenty of others. Like dusting draperies. Airing bed covers. Fluffing pillows. And many, many more.

Your instruction booklet is your best guide to the many unique capabilities of your electric dryer. Read it carefully and file for ready reference.

One of the big advantages of electric dryers is that you can get control features which automatically determine the temperature and drying time needed for various fabrics.

This fabric selector is particularly helpful in this modern age of care-free polyesters and other permanent press fabrics.

Versatility is just one more reason why flameless electric dryers are America's favorite.

News From Texas State Capitol

By Bill Boykin
Texas Press Association
AUSTIN, TEXAS--The State Legislature which convenes January 9 will be vastly different from the present one which has served through the 1971 regular and four special sessions.

There will be 77 new faces in the 150-member House and 15 new members of the 31-member Senate. (Five of the House newcomers have served before the 1971 session, and six present House members will be serving in the Senate).

Dolph Briscoe, of course, will succeed Preston Smith as governor, and Bill Hobby will preside over the Senate, succeeding Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes. Rep. Price Daniel of Liberty will become Speaker of the House, replacing Rep. Rayford Price of Palestine.

Basically, the House is expected to be a more liberal body than the present one, and the new Senate considerably more conservative.

Republicans, women and blacks increased their strength in the House; and the GOP added one more senator, for a total of three. There will be 17 Republican state representatives--seven from Dallas, seven from Houston, two from San Antonio and one from Midland. GOP Senators were elected in Dallas, Houston and Fort Worth.

The House, which now has a single woman member, will have five (including two blacks) in January. Mrs. Betty Andujar of Fort Worth, wife of a physician, is the new woman senator. She is a Republican.

The Senate's only woman member at present is Miss Barbara Jordan of Houston, a black, liberal Democrat who was elected to Congress November 7.

Black membership of the House will increase from two to eight.

$91.2 MILLION IN AID SOUGHT--Governor Smith went to Washington last week in search of $91.2 million in additional federal social service funding.

Texas has received $34.8 million in federal matching funds for social services to eligible citizens during the 4th quarter of the 1972 fiscal year. Smith argues people involved received the same services throughout the year, and the state is entitled to compensation for the first three quarters of fiscal 1972, as well as the last quarter.

The funding will be important in determining whether the next legislature will have to pass a substantial tax bill.

TAX LINE CAN BE HELD--Texas Research League predicts a major tax increase can be avoided next year if lawmakers can keep reasonable controls on spending.

Spending, says TRL, probably can be held within bounds of a $750 million raise over the next two years--unless federal court rulings require sharp increases in funds for public schools.

An increase in revenue from existing taxes is estimated at $375 million. A $40 million surplus is expected to be available at the end of the fiscal year, and federal revenue sharing may provide the state as much as $135 million during the biennium, according to TRL.

That is within $20 million of the new spending projection.

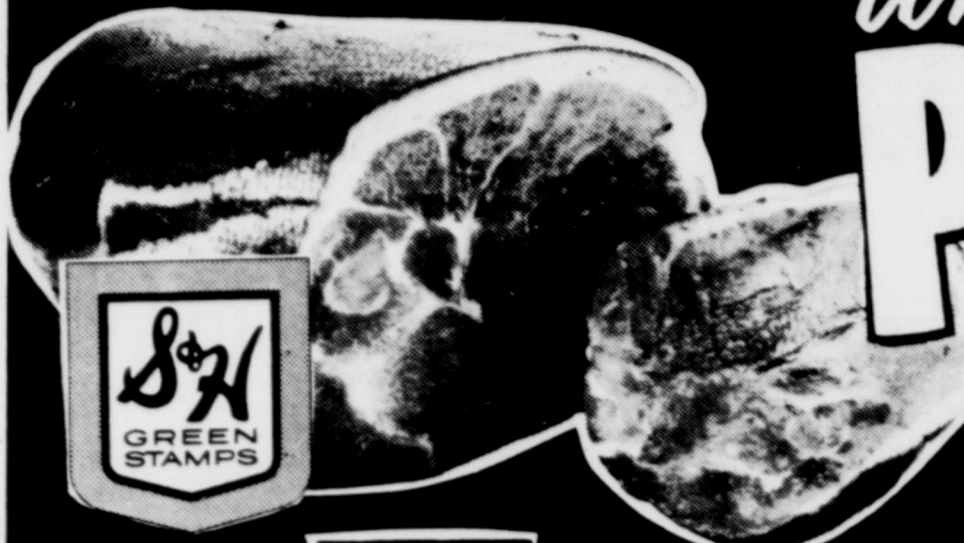

Texas Highway Department is due to ask for a two-cent-a-gallon gasoline tax hike next year, which would add another $70 million to key fund revenues in addition to earmarked road-building purposes.
