MONTE WILLIAMS

During the past week, I heard the plea of a simple American. He lives here in Burk and he believes in his country and what it stands for. Furthermore, he believes that there is a symbol of his country that should be respected. It's worth very little materially but more than money can buy to an average American. That symbol is the Flag of the United States of America.

This particular man brought one to my office and laid it gently on my desk. It was quite a mess, torn and tattered beyond repair. It was found lying in the debris at the dumpground. He said that he had found 4 flags on January 16th and another the next day. He also found a Texas flag.

I don't possibly think that this treatment of our flag indicates willful and knowledgeable action on the part of the guilty party or parties. It must be mere ignorance. Ignorance is not a bad word, it simply means that someone doesn't know how to treat the American flag.

First of all, it is against the law, as it should be, to desecrate the American flag. Secondly, there are two very distinct ways to dispose of the flag. One is to burn it. The second is to bury it. Neither is hard to do. Many thousands of men have died to fly that flag. I can't see where it would be so difficult to treat it with respect, no matter how tattered or torn it may be.

In the next edition of the Informer/Star we will feature the Informer Hotline. This will give citizens of Burkburnett a chance to find out whatever they want to know about our city. All one has to do is write his question to the Informer/Star and sign it with his signature. That question will be routed to the proper person or office to find the answer. We will do our very best to answer all questions sent to us. However, we will not print questions that are not signed nor questions that are ridiculous. The readers hotline is now open. Send your questions in today.

The Wichita County Bloodmobile will be making a stop here in Burk today, Thursday. It will be at the National Room of the First National Bank from 3:00 p.m. to 6:30 p.m., taking pints of life-giving blood from us youngsters and you oldsters. I heard the other day that C.J. Lippard gave 8 gallons of blood to the bloodmobile and the Red Cross. Now I was beginning to think that C.J. was a bigger man than I had him figured for but Jerry McClure destroyed my thoughts when he told me that Lippard had given 8 gallons all together. I first thought he meant that C.J. had done all that on the last visit of the Bloodmobile.

Albert Dillard, had his company put up $25,000 in prize money to the civic club that has the largest number of active members donate blood. Dillard figures that if he can create enough participation that maybe he won't have to get HIS finger pricked.

Sure, I've given blood before. My only request is that they lay me on the table before they start working on me. That way, just about the time I revive from my faint, they are finished and I get a free donut.

Nonetheless, if you have or haven't given blood, be sure you do this Thursday, today, in the National Room of the First National Bank, downtown Burk.

BULLDOGS CINCH PLAYOFFS

The Burkburnett Bulldogs ended the first half of district Basketball competition Friday night by defeating the Weatherford Kangaroos 83-76. The 'Dogs and the 'Roos were running and shooting nearly the same during the first quarter of play with only one point difference in score at the sound of the first quarter buzzer. The teams seemed evenly matched until the beginning of the 2nd quarter. The 'Dogs were on the 'Roos with a lightening full court press. The 'Dogs forced the opponents to make mistake after mistake and stole the ball time and time again. The 'Dogs went literally on a scoring spree and racked up enough points to sport a 20-point lead at the end of the half.

It looked bad for the Weatherford Roos, trailing by 20 points at half time, but there was still another half to go. At the beginning of the second half, Weatherford started pressing the 'Dogs on a full court basis and they began a scoring spree.

At the end of the 3rd quarter the 'Dogs still held a substantial lead over the 'Roos but the lead was reduced to near half compared to their halftime lead. The upcoming 4th quarter would tell the tale. The 'Roos made a gallant try for a come back but the 'Dogs held fast to their lead and the final buzzer sounded with the 'Dogs in front 83-76.

Other interesting action took place during the game, but not from the standpoint of player to player. This action came from coach to referee. Three technical fouls were called against Weatherford Coach Tommy Burks. The rules say that on the third technical, a coach is out of the game and must retire from the playing area. Mr. referee did just as the rules stated--he through Burks out of the game and wouldn't even let him watch from the door. Those three technical fouls cost the Kangaroos several valuable points which could have just as well meant the winning points.

None the less, the 'Dogs, by winning the first half of play are guaranteed a birth in the District 3 - AAA Basketball playoffs if there are any playoffs. According to Dog Coach Jim Phillips, if the 'Dogs win or tie the second half of play, there will be no playoff because Burkburnett will have won without playing off. Phillips said, "I hope we don't have to play off for the district championship. I hope we Bulldogs can win it straight out from the beginning." Right now, with the beginning of the second half of district play, every team in the district is equal. If Burk wins this second half, they will be the undisputed champs. If another team wins, then playoff will be necessary to produce a district champ.

Dogs Win Big One; Down Iowa Park 68-58

The Bulldogs of Burkburnett out-gunned the Iowa Park Eagles Tuesday night in Burk, 68-58. Performing in a gymnasium packed with Bulldog supporters Burk defeated the only district team to defeat them in the first half of play. The Bulldogs jumped into the lead near the games beginning and lead the Eagles all the way. The 'Dogs held a 14 point half-time lead. The second half was a tough one. The Eagles playing catch-up ball and the Bulldogs trying to hold their lead. At the beginning of the third quarter, the 'Dogs led by 10 and played even scoring ball with their opponents to the games end.

The victory gives the 'Dogs a great start in the second half of play. It looks as though we may have another team of District champs on our hands.

40 Years By

Mrs. Ina Gilbert

On February 1st, Mrs. Ina Marie Gilbert will celebrate 40 years as owner and operator of the Elite Dress Shop in downtown Burkburnett. At the same time, Mrs. Gilbert will be celebrating her birthday. On February 1, 1933, Ina Gilbert opened her doors for business in Burkburnett. She named her shop the Elite Dress Shop and filled it with frilly fashions of the thirties. Those fashions of the thirties have now evolved into the fashions of the 1970's and are still as much in demand as ever. Mrs. Gilbert still carries two of the same lines of clothing that she carried when she opened 40 years ago, and they are still sellers.

Not once in 40 years changing hands, the Elite Dress Shop is the oldest business in Burkburnett. Times though were not always as great. Mrs. Gilbert and the Elite Dress Shop worked hard through the great depression following the big war. Times were slow everywhere. But Ina knew that where there were women, there was a market for women's clothes and has never ventured from her Elite Dress Shop.

Mrs. Jo Brookman has helped out at the Elite Dress Shop for several straight years. 22 straight years to be exact. Her start at the Elite was back in 1951 and she has been there since as she is today. Everyone is invited to an open house celebrating Mrs. Gilbert's 40th anniversary of opening her Dress Shop. The open house will begin at 9:30 a.m. and last until 5:30 p.m. on Thursday, February 1st. A free pair of hose will be given to the first 40 women entering the store during open house.

Mrs. Ina Gilbert, (right) will celebrate 40 years in business in Burkburnett on February 1st. Mrs. Gilbert opened the doors of the Elite Dress Shop on February 1st, 1933, which is also her birthday. Mrs. Jo Brookman (left) has worked with Mrs. Gilbert for the past 22 straight years.

Public Housing Project Receives Needed Approval

The Department of Housing and Urban Development has released approval on a project to modernize public housing in Burkburnett. HUD has obligated $458,000 to modernize 52 units of public housing that was built in 1953.

Pete Chavis, executive director of Burkhaven Homes project here was advised last Wednesday by the Public Housing Administration that $140,000 only had been released thus far for the remodeling project. Chavis said that $140,000 was not enough to start on.

If and when the money is released to HUD, Chavis said it would be used primarily for interior improvements in the 20 - year - old apartments with the addition of stoves, refrigerators, bathroom, and lighting fixtures, etc.

Also, there will be some exterior remodeling work, particularly the replacement of all sewer lines to the 52 apartments. According to Chavis, work will start as soon as it is warm enough, probably the last of March or first of April. "We don't want to be moving people around while the weather is cold."

He said there are about six vacant apartments now, since he was ordered by the PHA board here to stop making apartments available to new renters early in December in anticipation of the repair work.

Mrs. Harris will be accompanied by Linda Nelson, on piano, and the Providence Baptist Church Junior Choir.

She has performed for numerous civic organizations in Burkburnett as well as a large number of the special church activities held in the community throughout the year.

Burk Livestock And Project Show Date Has Been Set For February 10

The Burkburnett Junior Livestock and Project Show Association met Monday night in the Vocational Agriculture Building at Burkburnett High School for the purpose of planning the upcoming livestock and project show. The date for the activities has been set for February 10th and will be held in the same location as last year, the Vo. Ag. Building on the high school campus. The new show barn which is currently under construction will not be completed in time for this show, but members of the association indicated that the building should be complete for next year's show.

The livestock show will be divided into three divisions this year. Those divisions are swine, lambs, and steers. Four classes will be judged from the swine division: four barrow classes and one gilt class. In the lamb division, four classes will be judged and in the steer division, there will be two classes.

Entry fee for the show will be $1.00 for swine and lambs, and $2.00 for steers. Over $400.00 in prize money will be awarded the winners of the show with each entrant taking home at least a $2.00 consolation prize. Vo. Ag. teachers will handle all entries.

Animals entered in the show must be at the show barn on the night before the show. Hogs and lambs should be on the grounds at around 6:00 or 6:30 p.m. and steers at 9:00 p.m.

Trophies, plaques and ribbons will be taken care of by James Easter, Jake Fite and Rick Cunningham, all Vo. Ag. teachers at Burk High School, and Raymond Greenwood, manager of the Burk Chamber of Commerce.

It was decided that last year's guidelines would be used in breaking down prize money for the project show, which will be held the morning of February 10th. The Junior Livestock Association voted to give $50.00 to project show and Jack Aaron was elected again to oversee the prize money breakdown. It was also decided that one entry per girl per class will be allowed in the show.

The concession stand will be set up by the Burk Vo. Ag. teachers, and the Vo. Ag. girls will operate the stand during the show. Burk high school has numerous girl. Vo. Ag. students.

The motion was made and seconded that Membership fees would again be set at $5.00 for the Junior Livestock and Project Show Association. Vernon Duncan is in charge of memberships and tickets are now on sale.

Industry Prospect Visits Burk

Tuesday morning at 9:00 a.m. the Industrial Development Committee of the Burkburnett Chamber of Commerce met with an industrial prospect in the Texas Electric Reddy Room.

The committee made a presentation of Burkburnett as an industrial site with hopes that the industrial representatives will choose Burk for their location. The representatives are looking at various sites in the area and stated that the decision on their site location will be made in the very near future.

The committee, then, by bus, took the representatives to the actual land sites in Burk that hopefully the industry will select.

Jack Aaron, chairman of the Burk Industrial Development team, stated that this was a fine industrial prospect for Burkburnett and the community would be very lucky indeed if they decided to locate here.

As you probably have learned now from reading the story elsewhere in the paper, Burk Burnett was paid a visit Tuesday morning by an industrial prospect.

Almost twenty members of your Industrial Team met with the group and presented what I thought was a very fine presentation, or "sales pitch" if you will. The team, with Jack Aaron as chairman, covered Burk Burnett well with factual information needed by the prospect. Hopefully within the next couple of weeks the results of the meeting will be known.

Many times we hear, "I wish THEY would get busy and get some industry in here." Well folks, we already have several industries in Burk Burnett and the THEY you speak of are working to acquire more. Many times the public as a whole doesn't realize the work put in by "THEY" because the industrial prospect may not want any publicity of their intentions until plans are finalized on a specific location. Thus, if the industry decides not to come to Burk Burnett you may not know that our team ever talked with them.

Anyway, the THEY so often spoken of, meaning our Industrial Team or the Industrial Foundation, are continually working toward acquiring new industry for Burk Burnett or helping our existing plants with possible expansion.

Hopefully in the days to come, and the months and years to follow we will be able to hear announcements from these two groups about their productive efforts in acquiring more industry for Burk Burnett.

I read recently where a prospective Army inductee was being interviewed by the draft board. "What's your occupation?" asked the chairman of the board. "I'm a gag writer." "Let's see you make up a gag." The recruit got up and walked over to the door, where there was a long line of young men waiting, and said, "All you guys can go home now, I got the job."

Southside PTA And Coaches Vie For Basketball Victory

The coaches of Burk Burnett schools and a star-studded team produced by the Southside PTA will play their grudge game this Saturday night in the Burk Junior High School Gymnasium beginning at 7:30 p.m.

The PTA "Over 21 Gang" are saying that the coaches are going to be no trouble when it actually gets down to the nitty-gritty of basketball and backboards.

The purpose of all this brutal opposition is to try to thicken up the air conditioning fund for the Southside PTA. All game proceeds will go into the fund. Admission will be charged at the door at $1.00 for students and 75¢ for students.

The coaches aren't really worried about the "Over 21 Club." When it comes to sports, we are doing our thing, and that's why we are not worried about that bunch from Southside PTA. Besides, with guys like "Tuffy" T. M. Cornelius, "Peamit" Paul Avrit, "Blowhard" Bob Gant, "Rapid" Roy Hatcher, "Terrible" Tommy Arwine, "Chubby" Charlie Curry, "Timber" Tom Hayes,

"Casser" Guy Hester, "Barefoot" Bill Pittari, "Durable" Don Reno, "Humble" Hubert Smith, "Rouser" Robert Williams, "Wonderful" Wayne Sikes, "Big Bad" B. H. Alexander, "Dashing" Dwight Lionberger, and "Cory" Glen Drake, how much can one good team worry?

Halftime activities promise to be a real treat as the Rutledge Sisters will do a twirling exhibition. They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rutledge of Burk Burnett and they both attend Southside School. Cindy, age 8, and Debbie, age 6, have twirled since the age of 4 and have won a total of 93 trophies between the two throughout the states of Texas and Oklahoma.

Then, of course, there is the second half, that is if both teams make it out of the dressing room in time for the jump. You are cordially invited to attend this game. It should provide many laughs to all attending. That's Saturday night, 7:30 p.m. in the Burk Junior High School Gymnasium. Don't miss the game of the weak.

Here are members of the Southside PTA "Over 21 Gang". Some are not pictured and the names are not necessarily in order. But then again, the game probably won't be either. Paul Avrit, Bob Gant, Roy Hatcher, Tommy Arwine, Charlie Curry, T.M. Cornelius, Tom Hays, Guy Hester, Bill Pittari, Don Reno, Hubert Smith, Robert Williams, Wayne Sykes, B.H. Alexander, Dwight Lionberger, and Glen Drake.

TEA Makes Change

The Texas Electronics Association of Wichita County met on Thursday, January 18th in the Wichita Falls Savings and Loan Association Building. During the course of the meeting new business was discussed. By unanimous decision the organization made a name change from TEA of Wichita County to TEA of North Central Texas.

Four technicians were acknowledged for passing their Certified Electronics Technician exams. They were Corliss Needham, Earnest Jones, and Charles Neal of Wichita Falls. And Melvin Nethery of Vernon passed his exam. Joe Pugliesi of Burk Burnett was nominated to study the possibility of having technicians in the chapter. The technicians, not yet certified, are generally invited to the meetings of TEA but do not have membership privileges.

Members also discussed the problem of how to educate the general public that a Certified Electronics Technician's time does cost money. A CET is highly trained for the job he performs. He uses and maintains thousands of dollars in equipment, which without, the job would be impossible. A Certified Electronics Technician is a specialist in his field, and a specialist must charge adequately for his services.

The TEA voted to endorse UHF Channel 23 and to look into ways to promote said channel.

The organization is also looking into the possibilities of sponsoring some type of activity for the good of the area. The group would like to help needy children, adopt a base squadron, or help out some way at the old folks homes in the area.

Gene Shearman and Bob Zinn were appointed to make a list of factory suppliers and distribute them to all members of TEA and prospective members. This would aid all technicians in locating parts and supplies quickly to reduce in-shop time for various jobs.

The TEA of North Central Texas will meet again on Feb. 16th in the Wichita Falls Savings and Loan Building at 7:30 p.m.

The Rutledge Sisters of Burk Burnett will perform a half-time twirling exhibition Saturday night in the Burk Junior High School Gym. Debbie on the left, is 6-year-old and Cindy is 8-years old.

And then there was the time there were only two cars entered in an automobile race held in Moscow -- an American Ford and a Russian Moskvich. The Ford won easily. The next day, without mentioning how many cars competed,

Pravda, the Soviet news agency, reported:

"The Soviet Moskvich placed second while the American auto came in next to last."

Remember the Chamber banquet February 3.

MIKE MILLAR hits for two against the Kangaroos last Friday night in Burk. #11, Larry McMahon and #41, Greg Mayes are ready to rebound and Roo #33 of Weatherford forgot to stop running.

Burk Blasts Weatherford To Capture 1st Half Lead

by Sedelta Verbie
The Burk Burnett Bulldogs smashed the Weatherford Kangaroos Friday night 83-76 and captured this half of the basketball district play.

This puts the Bulldog record at 6-1 in district play with one more half to go before the complete District Championship is theirs.

Mike Millar paced the Bulldogs with 28 points as high point man against the 'Roos as the Bulldogs lead the entire game, sometimes leading by as much as 20 points. Danny Nix followed with 19 netted in and Greg Mayes whipped in 15.

Their quick agility and fast break ability made itself known to the Kangaroos as the 'Dogs dominated the four quarters of play.

Also contributing vital points were Bill (Red) Snowden, Zac Henderson, Mark Johnson, Mark Bailey, and Paul Dean. Coach Jim Phillips' Bulldogs will take on Stephenville Friday.

Burk Junior Varsity Now 10-1 For The Season

by Sedelta Verbie
Proudly displaying a 10-1 season this year, Coach Cecil McCoy's Junior Varsity Basketball team is getting it together. This is good news for this year's Varsity Team which is also having an exceptional season, because it promises more outstanding players for years to come.

This season for the cagers is already an outstanding one but checking the records, shows that the Bulldogs JV has a long tradition of winning teams. Last year's team ended the season with 20-1.

"The Junior Varsity play together as a team, they sport good height and have only lost once and this was to Rider," commented JV Coach Cecil McCoy.

Coach McCoy stated that the team was always impressive with a 100% effort and lots of skill. The teams next opponents are Stephenville Friday and Hirschi next Tuesday. The Junior Varsity plays just before the Varsity team and is an extra addition to the undefeated Bulldogs sportsman this year.

Approximately 50 mother and daughter couples attended the annual Mother-Daughter Banquet held last week in the High School Cafeteria. Just one of the many mother and daughter couples was Mrs. Frank Mallory (right) and her daughter, Amita.

Mother-Daughter Banquet; Style Show Held

Combining a spicy buffet and a model show, the Future Homemakers of BHS held their annual Mother-Daughter Banquet last week.

The girls who modeled made the clothes they were wearing in various Home Economic Classes. Their apparel ranged from the layered look in pant suits to flowing floor length dresses.

The banquet also consisted of a business meeting when the FHA Club elected Ted Nieble as their beau.

Food was brought by each member and consisted of everything from meat loaf to homemade bread.

WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN HIGH SCHOOLS was elected by BHS teachers recently. Out of the original twenty seniors nominated, the six pictured were selected on academics and involvement in clubs and activities. To qualify for the honor list, a student must be enrolled in 12 hours of courses, excluding pass-fail courses, and have at least a 3.0 grade point average. Texas Tech uses a 4.0 grading system.

The College of Education is one of six colleges and two schools at Texas Tech University, which will be observed 75. The fall enrollment was more than 21,490.

Sandra A. Bratina, a junior, 808 Mimosa, qualified for the dean's honor list.

Larry McMahon

by Sedelta Verbie
Though Larry McMahon missed the six foot mark by an inch, his build and expression clearly show him to be a basketball player. He has played basketball since seventh grade and has also played baseball, but his high shooting ability as a guard this year has been the key factor in Bulldog success.

"Although we don't have a lot of height, I think our success lies in speed, and fast break," the senior commented, while reflecting over the district championship of this half, won by the Bulldogs.

Larry poured in 13 big points in the crucial roundball game against the Weatherford kangaroos. He hopes to continue his basketball career into college which will probably take him to Midwestern.

"I think that the school spirit displayed during the last few games has helped us to win this half in district, and if it continues I think we can take this district completely," Larry predicted.

The roundball star played for the Bulldogs on the Junior Varsity level last year. He seems to be looking forward the rest of the season with the enthusiasm which is typical of his fellow bulldog teammates this year in all types of sports at BHS. He can be symbolized as the new kind of athlete to come to Burkburnett schools, displaying the winning spirit and ability that points out the making of a home of champions.

LARRY McMAHILL drops in an easy basket during last Friday night's action against the Weatherford Kangaroos. On the fast break, McMahon blasted wide open down court for the two pointers.

Burk Bulldog goes up for a shot surrounded by Weatherford kangaroos. Looks as though some of the Roos missed the whole play.

Mrs. Gay Retires After 23 Years Federal Service

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS--Mosselle Gay, chief telephone operator at Sheppard Air Force Base who is affectionately known throughout the base as Gay, retired Friday after completing 23 years of federal service. She worked for the 2054th Communications Squadron, Air Force Communications Service.

In reflecting on her years at Sheppard, Mrs. Gay said that it seemed such a short time since she came to work here in October 1949. "I didn't know an airman from a colonel and I was frightened," she said. "But everyone there was so nice and helpful. I have enjoyed it all."

At the time she came to work here, one operator could handle the whole switchboard, now it takes three persons and more of the work is automated.

In January 1950, Mrs. Gay became chief operator.

Many technological advances have been experienced in communications at Sheppard during these years. Two of the biggest events for Mrs. Gay were moving into the new communications building with a larger switchboard and the addition of autovon, the military communications system.

The move into the new building was in June 1963. Mrs. Gay noted that one of her most exciting times was to pull a string to activate the new board. This was one minute after midnight and when she pulled the string, out came 1,600 bobby pins. They had been used to deactivate the equipment during the installation. For a short while both boards were active, but soon all of the activity came to the new board.

Autovon, a communications system used within the military service began at Sheppard with two circuits and has grown to 31 circuits. Sheppard has also been designated along with three other bases as being the gateway to overseas for telephone calls.

Priority and overseas autovon calls and information are the principal duties of the Sheppard operators now that the Centrex system has been installed at Sheppard. Through this system, callers dial directly to the telephones they wish to reach thus eliminating the necessity for the operator to ring the extension.

Mrs. Gay also explained that another of the advanced capabilities at Sheppard is to bring a lecture directly from the speaker in Washington, D.C. to the classroom.

She recalled that tornadoes and other special events brought extra duties for the telephone operators.

The popular Sheppardite is retiring at 501 Oak Street in Burk Burnett, Texas with her husband, John C., and their cocker spaniel, Charlie Brown. Mr. Gay is also retired. He worked with the 3750th Maintenance and Supply Group at Sheppard.

Mrs. Gay says that she is looking forward to doing many things that she never had time for when she worked, such as knitting, crocheting, and is even going to paint her woodwork.

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS--SHEPPARD'S CHIEF OPERATOR RETIRES--Mosselle Gay, chief operator at Sheppard Air Force Base for more than 23 years, makes one of her last switchboard connections at Sheppard Air Force Base as chief telephone operator. She retired Friday and will live in Burk Burnett, Tex. (OFFICIAL USAF PHOTO BY TS/SGT. ROBERT PAGE)

Mr. Chuck Harding has been a music instructor for over forty-one years. His ability to play such instruments as the drums, guitar, accordion, trumpet and a number of others is reflected in ABE Music Store, owned by a corporation of himself, Mrs. Oneda Harding, Mr. Jim Bogle and his wife.

ABE is a specialty to Burk Burnett, because they rent, sell, and teach various instruments. The lessons are taught by Mr. and Mrs. Harding as well as by seven other instructors, all professionals of the music world.

The Music Store is an agent for such famous brands as Fender guitars and amplifiers, Kustom and Kasino guitars. ABE also handles Roger drums and Sunn Amplifiers.

Residents may also rent guitars and drums and if a student is taking piano lessons, then there are practice instruments available. This combined with a repair service on amplifiers and piano tuning and repair makes ABE the complete shop for music lovers.

After school snacksters have good reason to "drink up" if the family shopper reads labels to compare ingredients and prices of real juices, imitation juices and synthetic juices.

Most synthetic drinks containing vitamin C are two or three times more expensive than real fresh, frozen or canned juice. Some synthetic drinks may be a less expensive source of vitamin C, but they may not contain all of the other important nutrients. For example, although we drink orange juice primarily because it's rich in vitamin C, it also contributes vitamin A, thiamine and the minerals calcium and iron.

In drinks such as instant breakfast, imitation lemonade mix, and instant soft drink mix, sugar is present in the greatest quantity, followed by citric acid, several chemicals, vitamins, artificial flavors, and color; but no real fruit juice. Some imitation orange juices contain not less than 10 and some up to 50 per cent orange juice.

Drinks made with a substantial amount of real fruit juice deserve priority over entirely synthetic drinks, because they are likely to provide more food value. In addition they eliminate the excess of sugar so injurious to teeth or the caffeine, not recommended for growing youngsters included in cola.

Baby Feeding Schedules Not All They Seem

Almost everyone has heard of baby's "2 o'clock feeding." Forget it--if baby dozes.

According to a foods and nutrition specialist, the strict feeding schedule will set feeding times or hours may not have to be followed.

"Since a baby will tell his parents when he's hungry, it's sensible to feed him then," Frances L. Reasonover with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University, remarked.

"Most of today's doctors recommend self-demand feedings for baby. This means the schedule is flexible, but has some regularity."

"Generally, on the self-demand schedule baby is fed every three to four hours. At first, however, he may require smaller, more frequent feedings. Such a schedule allows the child to form his individual feeding pattern, the specialist explained. Handled properly, this makes for a happy, well-nourished baby.

Also, a pleasant association between hunger, food and people will be formed.

"Hunger is a basic need for all persons," Miss Reasonover pointed out.

"If hunger signs are ignored and the baby is required to wait until a schedule feeding hour, he may feel his parents' fall him because they don't satisfy a basic need."

This, a barrier between child and parent is formed.

"This can be critical since studies show that early experiences with feeding have psychological influences on children in later life," the specialist added.

Rodeo Excitement Jan. 26 thru Feb. 4

Indoor rodeo is 55 years old and the World's Original Indoor Rodeo will be presented in 20 performances Jan. 26 through Feb. 4 in Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum in Fort Worth as part of the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show.

More than 500 top cowboys will be competing for a share of over $90,000 in rodeo prize money on the sport's toughest stock provided by Billy Minick Rodeo Company.

A special feature during each rodeo performance will be acts of daring by Jerry Olson with his trained buffalo, Sam. In spite of his 1,000 pounds, Sam is quite agile. Not many buffalo have ever been ridden.

Also, on hand during the Stock Show will be over 11,000 head of fine livestock, the fun and excitement of the Carnival Midway and the sights of the commercial exhibits.

B. T. HAWS

Are you interested in top dressing small grain? If so you might like to attend a fertilizer meeting in the ASCS Agriculture Room on Tuesday, January 30, 7:30 p.m. Dr. Dale Lovelace, Agronomist from Vernon, will be the main speaker. He will also discuss row crop fertilizer.

To present a screwworm buildup next spring, complete reporting of all suspected screwworm cases is important now.

Now that screwworm incidence is down we must make the best possible use of our sterile flies, dropping them wherever screwworm populations remain--and worm samples from livestock owners are our only real source of information. Inadequate reporting of cases could mean that sterile flies would not be released where they are needed most.

Worm samples should be mailed to the Screwworm Eradication Center, Box 969, Mission, Texas for identification. Worm sample bottles may be picked up in the County Agent's office.

Hogs and pigs of all ages on Texas farms on December 1, 1972 totaled 1,264,000 head, according to the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. This is down 10 per cent from 1,405,000 head on December 1, 1971.

Hogs kept for breeding purposes numbered 190,000 head, down 3.5 per cent from the 197,000 at this time last year. Hogs for other purposes totaled 1,074,000 head.

Winter feeding of birds can create a natural laboratory just outside your window, providing an opportunity to observe some of nature's most beautiful creatures.

I would suggest feeding birds especially during the winter months when ice storms or heavy snows seal up the food supply on the ground for days or even weeks. Birds can stand frigid subzero weather if they can eat enough food to keep up their body temperatures. With inquisitive chickadees usually the first to discover the whereabouts of generous handouts, birds readily accept any hospitality they can find during cold weather.

Once sated and seed are put out, it is not good to discontinue feeding later on in the winter because the birds will come to depend on this regular supply of food.

U.S. RODENT CONTROL SPECIALIST

LARRY KILLGO

* Article 2 of 8 consecutive articles.

Last week I discussed the three common commensal rodents found in this area and the many diseases and types of property destruction associated with them. This week I would like to explain the proper use of anticoagulant bait for best results in reducing a rat and mouse infestation.

Anticoagulants prevent the blood from clotting and cause death from internal hemorrhaging. Rats and mice must feed on the bait every day from 4 to 10 days before the hemorrhaging is fatal. Several anticoagulants which are commonly used are Warfarin, Pival, Fumarin, Prolin and Diphacin. Many commercial products contain these chemicals and may be purchased at feed and seed stores, livestock supply stores and chemical companies. Anticoagulants are generally inexpensive and may be obtained in two forms--a dry premixed bait or a water soluble powder. For persons wishing to make their own dry bait, anticoagulant concentrates may also be obtained in many stores.

The dry anticoagulant bait is a mixture of ground corn or other grains with the chemical added in the proper amount to kill rats and mice and be acceptable to them. The water soluble powder comes in small packets which may be dissolved in water and placed in chick pans or small dish containers and placed where the rats and mice will drink. The use of the dry bait and the water soluble together will increase the effectiveness of the anticoagulant.

Anticoagulants are recommended for household use because they are much safer than other more toxic poisons. I say much safer, but not completely safe. If a pet or child should consume some of the bait, immediate medical attention should be given. Any animal or human can be harmed by anticoagulant bait if enough is eaten every day for several days. Take no chances; place bait where only rats and mice can feed on it and always remember to keep it out of the reach of children. The antidote for anticoagulants is vitamin K.

Proper placement of bait is very important. It should be placed where rats and mice are known to feed such as along walls inside and outside of buildings, in dark corners, under floors, in attics and under stairways. If children or pets are known to frequent these areas, the bait should be placed in a bait box or some other structure to keep them out. A small wooden box with a lid may be constructed and a 2"x3" hole cut in two opposite sides to allow rats and mice in and to keep other animals out. A 1'x6" board may be nailed at an angle from the wall to the floor and used as a bait station.

Next week I will explain the use of traps for rat and mouse control. Traps are very effective when used properly. If you have any questions please contact me at my office, 304 Federal Building, Wichita Falls or phone 767-4981.

Prices Predicted To Continue Rise On Items In Short Supply

Recent cold weather in many produce growing areas will have a decided effect on supplies in the next few weeks.

Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, consumer marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University, predicted that prices will rise on items in short supply.

"Currently, citrus continues to highlight Texas fruit counters.

"Oranges and grapefruit are in greatest quantity, while tangerines, tangelos, and lemons are still available."

Other fresh fruits and vegetables in best supply at the most economical prices include apples, bananas, avocados, potatoes and hard shell squash.

Also yellow onions, green cabbage, purple top turnips, rutabagas, sweet potatoes, carrots and broccoli.

New Courses For Update Of National Guard

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS--Two new courses to update Air National Guard officers and enlisted men in comptrollership will begin Feb. 5 in the Department of Comptroller Training, School of Applied Aerospace Sciences, Sheppard.

The courses, each two weeks, will cover all aspects of comptrollership: accounting, budget, finance, audit, and computer. The courses will take the place of a guard member's normal yearly two-week summer training.

The courses are the result of a request from the Air National Guard to bring members of the guard up to new Air Force standards in comptrollership. As such, they will be taught on a recurring basis, assuring that each member attends every three years.

The two courses basically parallel each other; that is they teach much the same thing. For the airman course, though, there will be an increased emphasis on accounting and budget. The officer course will contain an approximately 10 students per class and the airman course 12 students. Each class will meet the normal six hours a day.

Project a herd of charging elephants onto a movie screen, and a student sees what is happening in a far away world.

Play an album of Beethoven's symphonies, and the composer suddenly becomes more in a student's mind than just a name in print. Let a student watch the world of single-celled creatures through the illumination of a microscope, and he'll take a closer look at the world around him.

Test his ability against an electronic speed-reading machine, and he almost surely will respond to the spirit of the challenge.

Educators today are much aware of the value of audio-visual equipment in the classroom. Modern education is a sight-and-sound world in which electricity helps bring history, geography, literature and languages to life.

Electricity is hard at work for you just about any-
