The ol' Easter Bunny worked his way through the bone last Saturday morning in distributing better than 10,000 Easter eggs in Permian Park for Burk Burnett kiddies. Some 400 to 600 kiddos lined the barriers in three age groups just waiting for the big red fire truck to sound the go signal. When the signal did sound, it took less than 10 minutes for the 10,000 plus eggs to be placed into Easter Baskets of all sizes, shapes, and colors.

A few late comers had had news and then good news. The bad news was that not a single egg had even been accidentally overlooked anywhere in the park. It had been picked clean. The good news was that members of the sponsoring Special Affairs Committee of the Burk Chamber of Commerce had conned the ol' rabbit out of a few extra boxes of eggs especially for those who arrived at the hunt a little late.

Not a single unhappy face was seen leaving the park except for one. That was the face of Gary Owen when some big kid swiped the only egg he had in his pink basket.

Overheard someone say that the ground was so dry that his feet were cracking. . . . (No comment).

It certainly would be easy for Wichita Falls TV Stations to just sign off at 12:00 midnight and everyone go home and get a good night's rest, but they don't when threatening weather is in the area. To some in the area, it doesn't make any difference because they don't let the weather bother them. But to others, turbulent weather is a real source of fear, and the information given by local TV and radio stations is appreciated very much.

Area stations stayed with last Monday night and Tuesday morning storms until 2:00 a.m., keeping the public informed in their area.

It's that time of year again. If you haven't been out of doors with your family to watch old mother put her greens on for the summer, you are missing a really fantastic sight. It's hard to see it good from the window of the house or from the car. You have got to get out close enough to it to feel and smell it. Try it. . . it makes you feel new too.

Thanks for reading our newspaper. Call us when you need us.

Daylight Savings Time To Begin Sunday

Area residents will be moving up their clocks one hour Sunday at 2:00 a.m. as the calendar marks the annual arrival of Daylight Savings Time.

"The Daylight Saving program is a federal law with only two states making an exception--Arizona and Hawaii," said a member of the Weather Bureau. The member further stated that the time change is very confusing to Bureau workers because of the many different times they must work with.

Since the clocks are moved up one hour, the work day begins and ends earlier leaving one hour of extra daylight to be enjoyed.

"Daylight Savings Time does not end until the last Sunday in October and until then Texas residents will have an extra hour of daylight to enjoy whether they like it or not," he concluded.

Burkburnett's Mayor T.M. Cornelius signs the proclamation of "Postal Week" to be celebrated here April 29 through May 5. Burk Burnett's Postmaster, Dub Zimmerman looks on during the signing.

Mayor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, the United States Post Office was first opened in Burk Burnett in the year 1907, and has been in continuous operation in the City of Burk Burnett, Texas, since that date; and

WHEREAS, sixteen (16) employees are now employed by the Post Office here in Burk Burnett, Texas, which adds to the economy of the City of Burk Burnett; and

WHEREAS, a special commemorative stamp will be issued for Postal Week during the week of April 29, 1973, through May 5, 1973;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, T.M. CORNELIUS, Mayor of the City of Burk Burnett, do hereby declare April 29, 1973 through May 5, 1973, as Postal Week in the City of Burk Burnett, Texas.

"Postal Week" April 29 - May 5th

Postmaster W.T. Zimmerman announced plans today for "Postal Week" to be celebrated here April 29 through May 5.

On April 30, the Burk Burnett Post Office will highlight this observation with activities that dramatize the important roles performed by Postal People as they move the mails.

Postmaster General E.T. Klassen said the Postal Week observances are "an appropriate occasion for recognition of the vital responsibilities assigned to the mail service and a valid time to take stock of the challenges which must be jointly met by postal people and by the millions of citizens throughout America who depend upon the mail as an essential part of their personal and business lives."

As part of the observance, the Burk Burnett Post Office will join with the nation's 31,000 other post offices in issuing 10 special stamps honoring postal employees.

The Burk Burnett Post Office will mark the occasion with special First-Day-Of-Issue observances, simultaneous with similar ceremonies to be held in Washington by Postmaster General E. T. Klassen.

Ten new Postal People stamps will be placed on sale here in conjunction with the local observance.

Local activities planned for Postal People Day and Postal Week include: Mayor's Proclamation, recognition of retired employees and Chamber of Commerce activities. The attractive new stamps, the first such comprehensive set specifically honoring postal people--will be on sale at the Main Post Office.

Other plans for an appropriate observance of Postal Week are being developed, Postmaster Zimmerman said. Details will be announced as they become final.

"As the Postmaster General said in his message, we need the 'informed understanding cooperation and support' of every citizen. I think that we have this to an exceptional degree in Burk Burnett, and part of the purpose of Postal Week will be to show our appreciation," Postmaster Zimmerman said.

LONE STAR GAS INCREASE PRESENTED

Lone Star Gas Company has announced that they have applied to the Burk Burnett City Council to pass on a portion of the company's increased cost of gas used to serve customers.

Lone Star was authorized by the Texas Railroad Commission last year to increase its charge for gas delivered to the distribution systems in each city by 65% of any increase in the company's cost of purchased gas based upon semi-annual reports filed with the Commission. The company, however, must also receive permission from each city council to include these increased costs in the consumer rates.

Neal Hall, vice-president of Lone Star's Fort Worth Division stated that the company's weighted average cost of purchased gas increased 1.9 cents per 1,000 cubic feet during 1972, increasing the authorized charge to the distribution systems by 1.2 cents per 1,000 cubic feet. The company is seeking city approval to reflect these increased changes in general service rates.

Hall said that "Lone Star has a commitment to its customers to vigorously compete for natural gas supplies to keep its reserves in a favorable position. While other sections of the country are experiencing some shortages of natural gas, Lone Star has maintained favorable supplies."

Hall noted that as recently as 1969, the most expensive gas Lone Star had coming into its system cost about 19 cents per 1,000 cubic feet. "Today," said Hall, "we have new gas coming into our system at costs in excess of 40 cents per 1,000 cubic feet. The current national energy crisis has caused substantial competition and increasing prices for purchases of new gas supplies." Hall said that Lone Star anticipates that such conditions will continue and that a large portion of new gas supply purchases will be at prices in excess of two times the company's current average cost of purchased gas.

Hall also stressed that political, civic and business leaders must, for the sake of their communities and the people they serve, support the necessary rate levels that will make it possible for Lone Star and other energy suppliers to continue to serve their constituents. "This is the only way that our part of the country can continue to be different from other areas that suffer from blackouts, brownouts and heavy pollution," he added.

Alex Koulovatos is the new manager of Burk's Boomtown Golf Center. Alex took over the full-time job on April 1. Boomtown Golf Center now features a much larger and more modern pro shop for the convenience of area golfers, with a much larger selection of quality golf equipment than offered before. Alex invites you to stop by and see the new addition and get acquainted.

First Annual Little League Hotdog Feast Set For Saturday

The first annual Little League Hotdog Feast will be held at Hayes Field in Burk Burnett this Saturday beginning at 12:00 noon. The feast is under the sponsorship of the Womens Auxiliary of the Burk Little League leadership of Team Mothers.

Tickets providing one hotdog, a bag of potato chips and one Coke will be sold for 60 cents. Additional hotdogs may be bought (at the park only) for 30 cents. Additional Cokes and chips may be purchased for 20 cents (at the park only).

Tickets have been distributed by team mothers to team members to be sold to family members, door to door to Burk citizens, and to businesses. And just in case you are not approached by a Little Leaguer, tickets will be available at the park as well. The purpose of this hotdog feast is to raise money necessary to help in support of the Little League Season expenses. Total cost of the Little League season increases each year. Last year it was over $6,500; this year it is expected to be even higher. Most of the expenses are provided for through the business men's sponsorship program, the annual hotdog feast, and through the sale of candy later in the season. Complete support by all persons interested in this program is essential to our having a successful year.

For any additional information, where to obtain tickets, etc.; contact Mrs. Nancy Cerveny, telephone 569-0169

Naturally, if you have experience, this is fine; however, Mr. Nelson wishes to emphasize the fact that if you have no experience, or just a little, a training program will be provided to assist you in helping in this fine program.

If you are interested in boys, and if you would like to help in this fine program for the boys, call Robert Nelson at telephone 569-0296 or call Victor Fore at telephone 569-3269.

Following last Saturday's Easter Egg Hunt in Permian Park, Raymond Greenwood makes sure that no baskets were left empty. Several boxes of eggs were held back to accommodate those kiddos arriving a little late for the event. The hunt was sponsored by the Special Affairs Committee of the Burk Chamber of Commerce.

School Bus

Laws Reminder

Recently Issued

AUSTIN--A reminder on the State law about motorists stopping for school buses was issued today by Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety. Speir said the law, which applies on city streets as well as rural highways requires motorists moving in either direction on the same roadway or street with a school bus to stop and remain stopped as long as the flashing top red lights on the bus are in operation. He said the problem is becoming more serious in cities due to increased use of school buses in urban school districts. The grand jury noted that serious criminal charges might result if a motorist disregards this law.

Educational Expectations Stand Much Improved

An estimated 214,000 six-year-olds in Texas will start school in September, beginning a cycle of classrooms and homework that will continue for the next 12 years or more. Many parents and children view the first grade with mixed emotions. Parents are proud that the child has reached a big step in his climb toward adulthood and look eagerly to his learning to read and write. At the same time, they know that what the child learns at school will prepare him for the future, and that failure would lessen his chances for status. What can parents do to give their child a good start? Parents should visit the school in the spring, advised Evangeline Ornes, bilingual education director of the Laredo Independent Schools and a teacher for many years. If a parent is uncertain about which school his child will attend, he may telephone the superintendent at the school district's administrative office. Parents should observe the school with a number of things in mind, Ms. Ornes said. First, "How are the children regarded? What is the nature of the action that is visible-- as the children relate to each other, to the teacher, to the principal? "Is there spontaneity in the classroom, or boredom and rigidity? Are the works of the children displayed, or are all the bulletin boards the work of the teacher? "Are the children encouraged to go to the bathroom as they have to, rather than at a specified time? "Is the playground child-centered--equipped with soft materials such as rubber tires, sand and grass and open space for running? Or is the playground a jungle of concrete, steel, and pavement? Another important consideration is the principal. "The principal sets the overall psychological climate of the school," Ms. Ornes said. "What is the relationship of the principal to the teacher--is it comfortable? Of the principal to the pupils--are the children apprehensive?" Finally, the parents should ask about the policies of the school. How is discipline treated? How soon are parents notified of discipline problems? What kind of grading or reporting system is used? Is success genuinely encouraged of each child? Or is poor performance expected from some children of certain economic or ethnic groups, and superior performance from other children, perhaps those whose parents are highly successful? A parent with an active, highly curious child may feel that a school where the first grade teacher demands order and quiet would not give the child the kind of free outlets he needs. On the other hand, some "open" classrooms, which allow pupils freedom to choose their own study areas, might bewilder a six-year-old who needs more structure and direction. An another example, Spanish-speaking parents may find that the school has little or no provisions for bilingual or bicultural instruction. In such instances, the parents may look for ways to supplement the child's schooling. One option is to request that a teacher aide work with small groups of children for a portion of each day. Texas law requires one aide for every 20 teachers in a school district. The Texas Education Agency recommends that the teacher aide be used in the classroom, but some schools use aides for clerical or administrative tasks. Another option for the parent is to organize or join a volunteer tutoring corps. Housewives, senior citizens and businessmen in some school districts are volunteering an hour or more a week to tutor children individually. In some Spanish-speaking areas, the school brings in Spanish-speaking parent-tutors to work with children in special projects. Foster Grandparents, a program created by the Office of Economic Opportunity, allows elderly persons to work with children on a one-to-one basis, providing more "human input," Ms. Ornes said. Some schools have Neighborhood Youth Corps and similar projects, in which junior and senior high school students go into the primary schools in the ghetto and work individually with small children. If parents find that these options do not provide the kind of learning environment their child needs, they may decide to request a transfer to another school. "Many parents don't realize that school boundaries can be waived," Ms. Ornes said. By working together in a spirit of harmony with the principal, teachers and other parents, parents can help point the child to the satisfactions that learning and school can bring. Even before the child enters the first grade, parents can give the child a good start in learning in the child's own home. "The child should be actively involved in the affairs of the family," Ms. Ornes said. Dinner table conversations, watching television, trips to the store, even "unloading the grocery bag" can provide lessons in language and logic.

A-1 QUALITY FENCE CONSTRUCTION CO.

319 BUCKNER 569-3995

"Fence construction" is their business and "quality workmanship" is their motto. This statement is made about one of our younger businesses in Burkburnett, A-1 Quality Fence Construction Company. Owned and operated by Gerald and Geraldine Green, they have had their operation in Burkburnett for the past five years. Green has had a total of 19 years in the fence construction business.

They do all kinds of fencing projects for both commercial and residential customers. Also, they will do patios, flowerbeds and walks.

Specializing in wood fencing, the Greens have found that the use of black wrought iron posts will keep down the deterioration of the fence at the ground level. It also makes for a much more attractive fence.

Their chain link fences aren't to be out done either.

A-1 Quality Fence is a firm which believes in quality workmanship. Quality work assures another job.

The work crews were highly praised by Mrs. Green. "They are steady hands; real good workers," she bragged. Those employed are Jerry Green, Jr., H. F. Green, Mickey Green, Dean Green, Andy Whittington, Mike Shelton, and Buddy Norton.

They pride themselves on prompt installation and service. You can also have free estimates done on a particular job.

A-1 Quality Fence now offers FHA financing. You may purchase on a plan with no down payment and up to 36 months to pay.

Gerald and Geraldine were both raised in the Randlett, Oklahoma area. They have three children, Shirley Land; Donald Ray Green who is fencing in California; and Gerald Green, Jr., who is working with the company locally.

For any of your fencing needs be sure and give A-1 Quality Fence Construction Company a call at 569-3995. Have them come out and give you a free estimate soon.

DPS Accepting Applications For Appointment To Patrolman Post

AUSTIN -- Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, announced today the DPS is accepting applications for appointment to the post of patrolman. And for the first time since the State law enforcement agency was created in 1935, female applicants will be considered for patrolman positions. Also, the DPS director noted that the department has been increasingly successful in recruiting persons from minority groups to patrolman positions and said efforts in this direction will continue. Speir said general qualifications for DPS patrolmen are these: Applicants must be 20 through 35 years of age (inclusive); good moral character; excellent physical condition; height not less than 68 inches nor more than 76 inches; weight not less than two pounds nor more than 3 1/2 pounds per inch of height; visual acuity no worse than 20/40 correctable to 20/20; and a citizen of the United States. Educational requirements are a minimum of 30 semester hours of college credit. Persons selected as cadets will be assigned to Austin for an 18-week training school beginning June 26 at the DPS Academy. The salary during training will be $690 per month, and room and board during this period will cost the cadet approximately $55 per month.

Speir said upon being commissioned a patrolman, the salary is automatically raised to $743 monthly. Patrolmen receive additional longevity pay for each five years of service to 25 years. They are also granted a monthly uniform cleaning allowance, and receive travel expenses when away from their station. Uniforms, vehicles, weapons, ammunition and related equipment are furnished. Group life and hospitalization are paid for the employee, and dependent coverage is available at reasonable rates. Patrolmen participate in the Employees Retirement System of Texas as well as Social Security. Vacation, holidays and sick leave are as provided for all State employees. Successful graduates will be assigned to the Highway Patrol, License & Weight Service, Motor Vehicle Inspection Service, or Drivers License Service according to the needs of DPS and consideration of personal preference. Patrolmen are eligible to compete for promotions after two years of service. Experienced uniformed DPS personnel interested in criminal investigation may apply for appointment to positions in the Criminal Law Enforcement Division, which includes Narcotics, Intelligence, Motor Vehicle Theft and Texas Ranger Services as vacancies occur. Speir said applicants should contact any DPS office or patrolman for an application. The completed application form should then be taken to the nearest regional, district or sub-district DPS office where the competitive examination is given. Arrangements will be made for a physical examination. A character investigation will be conducted and those persons who are accepted for employment will be notified prior to beginning of the June recruit school.

STUCO Continues MS Fund Drive

Fund-raising drives by non-profit health agencies are nothing new in our community, but the one being conducted now by the National Multiple Sclerosis Society would appear to deserve special attention this year. Multiple sclerosis has baffled medical science for more than 140 years. Today, however, it appears that we may be approaching a true breakthrough in establishing the cause of this chronic, crippling disease that so often strikes the young adult. If the cause of MS is established, most scientists agree, the development of a preventive will not be far behind. According to such distinguished researchers as Dr. Jonas Salk, a pioneer in the development of an anti-polio vaccine, science is close to finding that cause. The primary reason for the current optimism in the scientific community is the recently announced findings of Dr. Hilary Koprowski. Dr. Koprowski, regarded as one of the world's foremost virologists, is conducting research programs at the Wistar Institute in Philadelphia. He has reported finding in the brain tissue of MS patients a para-influenza virus of the type known to cause acute respiratory illness in man. Two other independent investigations, one in England and the other in Australia, have strongly substantiated Dr. Koprowski's findings. The very isolation of the virus does not necessarily prove that it causes multiple sclerosis, but it is intriguing evidence that it might. Planned now, on the basis of this evidence, is a five-year, multi-million dollar research project involving some of the nation's top virologists, immunologists, pathologists and clinicians. The National Multiple Sclerosis Society is the only national voluntary agency supporting these research efforts. In the last 26 years it has allocated more than $20 million to scientific research and millions more to patient services. It needs and deserves your support. The Student Council of the Burkburnett High School is conducting the Hope Chest appeal. Miss Gail Cullison is chairman of the campaign. Mrs. Donna Perkins is student counselor. If you would like to participate in this very worthy effort, please contact Miss Cullison or any member of the Student Council.

Guidelines of Life

Tired of Getting Whipped???? by Rev. Max Dowling, Central Baptist Church

If you are tired of getting whipped by the Devil, I challenge you to study the BIBLE seriously and learn how to deal with your personal enemy. There are certainly few doctrines that will go further than this in teaching us our utter dependence upon God and in driving us to prayer. Satan is REAL! Listen to the Bible! 1 Peter 5:8 - "Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the DEVIL, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour." (He wants YOU!!!) Ephesians 6:11-12 - "Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the DEVIL. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places." (You will meet the Devil everyday of your life. If you want VICTORY rather than DEFEAT, study the sixth chapter of Ephesians and put on ALL the armour of God NOW!) John 13:2 - "And supper being ended, the DEVIL is having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray Jesus". (Simon lost his son, Judas, to Hell. I wonder if the father ever told his son the FACTS about Satan? Are you guarding your MIND against Satanic thoughts and suggestions?) Act 5:3 - "But Peter said, Ananias, why hath SATAN filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land? (Why be a LOSER like Ananias? Satan is evil and will make you evil if you allow him power in your mind. Ananias experienced a premature death because God killed him that very day. He died in DISOBEDIENCE which pleased Satan. Who are you pleasing today????) Study the "James Plan" in James 4:7, "Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the DEVIL, and he will flee from you." Don't try to RESIST before you SUBMIT! Follow the Bible. SUBMIT your life to God and then RESIST the Devil. God loves us and has planned well for our personal victory over Satan. Let God make you a WINNER!

Only four weeks are left for seniors at BHS who will graduate May 29, but in the immediate future is the Junior-Senior Prom scheduled for Friday night. The theme is "Color My World" and the band STAR will entertain.

Juniors and seniors who don't go to the Prom and who are members of the First Baptist Church will be going to Dallas Friday night. The trip will include dinner, ice skating, shopping and a show.

The Distributive Education Club is sponsoring a drawing for a free 15" Sony Color television and pedestal base. The tickets are $1.00 and the drawing will be May 18th, 10:30, at BHS. Participants need not be present to win.

There is a baseball game Friday afternoon with Electra at Bulldog Field and ROAR OF BOOMTOWN play rehearsals are Saturday afternoon for the cast. The Thespians will host a group going to see "Brother Sun, Sister Moon" Saturday night. This Wednesday they sponsored the film "Boomtown" starring Clark Gable and Spencer Tracy.

Clubs are currently planning end of school trips and the Awards presentation sponsored by National Honors Society will be held May 18 at 7:30. The STUCO awards presentation will be May 9. Also the STUCO officer elections will be held May 2.

Cheryl Hicks is one of eight girl's track stars to be competing in Regional contests next week. Cheryl is pictured making the Triple Jump which she won at District level.

Dogs 6, Hawks 4

by Sedelta Verble
The Bulldog Baseball Team fell to Iowa Park's Hawks Tuesday night at Bulldog Field by 6-4. Although the Bulldogs made comparable hits and runs, they failed to score the thirteen men left on base during the game. Going into the last inning the Bulldogs trailed the Hawks 5-0, then with two outs Benny Wilkinson moved to first base pad on an error. Mike LaBrie walked and David Todd slammed into first, scoring Benny Wilkinson. Zac Henderson knocked a single that drove home Mike LaBrie. Pinch hitter Gary Dibeck walked and Donald Guinn shot a pinch hit that drove home David Todd and Zac Henderson. Bob Hackworth struck out to end the rally and the game. Bimbo Davis pitched for the Dogs.

This is the first district game of the season and three more are scheduled for the year. Coach David Keller commented on the clash, "The reason we lost was due to the fact that we left thirteen men on base and didn't score them. We made four runs, six hits and two errors in comparison to Iowa Park's six runs, seven hits, and two errors." Even though these statistics show the Bulldogs to be strong, they don't tell the entire story.

Keller further stated that the Bulldogs have lost four games by seven runs. He also said that this is the Bulldogs main difficulty. "If we had made those seven vital hits, we would be undefeated. This is the thin margin between victory and defeat."

Player of the Week
Bimbo Davis

by Sedelta Verble
His friends call him Bimbo Davis and the tall sophomore seems to prefer the name over Jimmy. Picked for the Bulldog baseball team as a freshman, he now serves as pitcher as a sophomore. Bimbo has played baseball for twelve years and plans to make it his career. He hopes to win a scholarship to Arizona State for his college plans.

Bimbo is very sportsminded, playing basketball, baseball, and football these two years in high school, as are other members of his family. Commenting on this years team, Bimbo said, "I think we have a real good chance this year, we have the material and we can make what we have work."

His pitching record stands at 3-0 and he stated that his drop and curve balls are his favorites. As an individual, Bimbo contributes much to the team, but most important of all are his efforts as a team member for the hopeful Bulldogs.

Residents Journey Rio Grand River For Six Days Along 200 Mile Route

Bouquillas Canyon, La Linda, San Rocendo, Panther Canyon and Langtry are now familiar names to a group of Burkburnett-based canoeists. The crew of two vehicles, five canoes and ten people left Burkburnett Friday 13th at 7:00 p.m. After transferring cars to Marathon and back, the group left Rio Grande Village late Saturday. Six of the crew were from Explorer Post 155 and most of the equipment was furnished by these people. Kevin Kelly, MU student and Eagle Scout, and Tsu Kreidler were the only out of towners and Tom and Judy Thornton and Carol Henderson of Burkburnett finished out the crew.

large catfish came into the menu for supper so it was chill and fish that night.

Neil and Tai Kreidler had traveled the Lower Canyons Easter Week in '72 and had an idea of what was where in regard to the impossible rapids. Many places the canoe had to be lined through or carried around on their backs. Tai busted a paddle the first day out and was followed in this practice by Norm Kee, O. C. Hurst and Tommy Thornton. Near Langtry, there were no extra paddles and those remaining had duct tape bandages because they were cracked. Hurst's canoe had a crack in it 18" long from the 2nd day out. Everytime he and Kevin scraped a rock, they'd have a hopeless look in their eyes. Tsu finally broke his 50 yds out of the Langtry landing. One does not go far there with out a paddle, and La Linda is the last take out point before bunning the lower canyons. Any problems after that involves a 60 mile walk out.

Henderson rode bow and learned fast how to see and avoid rocks when charging those rapids. Carol traveled with Neil Kreidler in that canoe. Del Britton was stern man with Kee in the Post canoe and Tsu was bow in Tai's canoe.

The river was low so that the water was not as swift as other times, but many rocks were also exposed and some not. Panther Canyon was a spot where Neil and Carol swamped, Tai and Tsu flipped, Hurst and Kelly swamped and the other two filled with some water. 30 minutes was spent here emptying water or chasing gear floating down the river. Constant head winds further helped to build arms and shoulders and insured all of a good rest at night. Upper Madison Falls was a workhorse because here the canoes had to be emptied and man handled through or carried around rocks bigger than a living room. Neil Kreidler saw two fellows he had met a year earlier. They were from Ft. Worth and like a party from SMU, were going to run only the 67 miles of the hot rapids in the Lower Canyon. Our group tried to buy a paddle from them as they took out at Harrison's ranch but their equipment was all rented. The Bark Crew took the whole bundle which so far has seen less than 150 takers as it is reported to be an eight day trip. This green crew did it in six. Waistlines got smaller, arms and shoulders got fuller, and noses and cheeks got burned and peeled. One lady said, "I haven't worked so hard in my whole life."

Thornton was assisted and encouraged in his canoe by his lovely wife Judy. She and Carol

At Fed-Mart May 4-5 Scout-O-Rama Slated

The 38th annual Scout-O-Rama sponsored by the Wichita Falls Kiwanis Club in cooperation with the Northwest Texas Council, Boy Scouts of America, will be held at the Fed-Mart Building on the Jacksboro Highway, May 4 and 5 from 6:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. each evening, according to Coyal L. Francis, Jr., chairman.

Some 100 booths will depict virtually every facet of the Scouting program. It is designed to demonstrate to the public what Scouting is and how it helps in citizenship training, character development, personal fitness and leadership training," Francis said. Proceeds from the annual Scout Show go toward the development and maintenance of the council's two camps-Perkins Reservation and Horizon Wilderness Scout Ranch. In addition, units receive a commission on the tickets sold which generally goes toward purchase of equipment and program materials. Tickets may be secured from any Scout.

BENT HOOKS, MISSED SHOTS, AND OTHER TALES

by Jim Alexander

The response to last week's article was just great. I received several letters and a great number of telephone calls. Some were bragging, some nagging, and some were hateful, and a few said I was crazy. Right, wrong or indifferent, I certainly appreciate the interest that was shown.

I would like to make it clear that I was not criticizing Northwest Field & Stream Association as a club in last week's publication, but I was only commenting about the Farm Expo booth. How could anyone criticize a club like the Field & Stream? To name a few of the activities that the club sponsors will be like writing a book, but in order for my five friends to speak to me again, and the boss to sign the paychecks, I will attempt to do this. The year for the Field & Stream Association starts with the annual banquet, and from there the activities simply snowball. The club sponsors a Bass Club, a Gun Club, a rifle and pistol range, a trap range with two trap houses. The Gun Club has free trap shooting instructions for beginners, and turkey shoots and special sight-in days for rifle and black powder shooters, at their new $20,000 Club House. The Bass Club has monthly bass tournaments, and an annual invitational bass tournament for the public. Weekly kid fishing trips for de-servicing kids are conducted throughout the summer, and once a year, a kid fishing rodeo for over 1000 kids is held complete with hot dogs, soda pop, and ice cream. Three free kid fishing ponds that are stocked with fish are open to all youngsters in this area. The Field & Stream Association has one of the better hunter safety programs in the state and is first in the number of students graduated. The annual deer hunt for 15 boys is a very worthwhile project because these boys have never been hunting before. First aid courses are taught each year, and everyone looks forward to the membership fishing rodeo held at Graham each year. For the big eaters, there are several events at which you can eat all you want for one price, such as chili-feeds, the chicken feed, the shrimp feed, and any number of fish fries. All of these events are published monthly in their own monthly bulletin, THE FAMILY SPORTSMAN, and this past weekend, an Easter egg hunt was held for over 300 youngsters. How many outdoor clubs do you know that have this many activities? Of course, this is not all of them. No, I did not criticize the Field & Stream Association... just the Farm Expo booth. I feel that a club with so much to offer should have shown the ten thousand plus visitors what they stand for. I still contend that the exhibit could have been much better.

The tall tale story for this week concerns a well known Burk citizen, Gabby "Gad" Garland. After visiting with Gad this past weekend, I went home with tears in my eyes. Never in my life have I heard such sob stories about how Gad's slave driving boss and dominating wife has all but cut out his hunting and fishing. I heard stories about long hours at the salt mine, about working his fingers to the bone, and keeping his nose to the grind stone. Gad told stories about not having enough vacation time, and working weekends. I heard tales about having to have permission from the little wife to shop for a 39¢ lure. My ears hurt from that abuse they took in that short visit, and when I finally managed to get away I was convinced that Gad Garland was still bound in slavery, and was married to "The Beast from Forty Fanthoms". After checking with many people I find that Gad is married to a very sweet gal; considerate, kind, and she just happens to be very lenient on Gad's activities, and his boss never seems to know where Gad is, or what he is doing. So that could explain his occupational duties. After much thought and consideration, I finally decided to set the record straight on this story. Gad Garland is getting old. I know that his eye sight is failing, and his hair line is beginning to fall back to midfield. Gad's teeth are getting bad, and his spants now measure better than a yard and a half around the top. If you will watch Gad walk, you can detect a slight limp that is a fake. Listen real close when Gad gripes about how thin the sleeping bags are now days. He complains that the fishing rods are much too heavy, and his bird dog ranges too wide. The truth is Gad Garland is living in the past. He is getting too old and too soft for the outdoor activities that he once knew. So, Gad, I call upon you to quit blaming your wife and your boss for you not getting to hunt or fish like you once did. Just face the reality that you have passed your thirtieth birthday.

The yearbook Committee of the Home Demonstration Council met to make final additions to the 1973-74 yearbook. The work was done by Mrs. R.A. Gilbert and Mrs. Anna Mae Emmert, of the yearbook committee. Also assisting were Mrs. Clarence Payton, Council Chairman, and the Chairman - Elect, Mrs. Johnny George.

Imitation peanut butter differs nutritionally from the regular product. Nutrition wise, peanut butter is high in protein, food energy, fats, phosphorus, thiamine and niacin--ranking near the top in all six. In addition, it contains some calcium and vitamin E. Imitation products on the other hand contain less peanuts, so amounts of nutrients furnished differ from regular peanut butter.

To be labeled peanut butter, a product must contain 90 percent ground roasted peanuts with added ingredients not exceeding 10 percent. Added ingredients, which include seasonings and vegetable oils to reduce oil separation, must be listed on the label. Imitation peanut butters also made from peanuts but has less than required 90 percent. These standards also apply to peanut butter mixtures--such as peanut butter and jelly. For example if peanut butter in such a mixture doesn't contain at least 90 percent peanuts, it must be labeled "imitation peanut butter with jelly."

Peanut butter and imitation products are available in various grinds usually regular grind (fine to medium) and chunky (coarse). Once a container is opened, keep it refrigerated. However, since peanut butter stiffens in a cold place, remove it from the refrigerator a short time before using to allow it to soften. If oil separates, simply turn the jar upside down and the oil will make its way back through.

The following tasty peanut butter snack recipe requires no cooking. Combine one cup each of peanut butter, powdered sugar, corn syrup, raisins and nonfat dry milk. Mix well and form into small balls. Roll balls in crushed cereal.

Ask Feeford and Peggy about this question: "What will it cost to rebuild during 1973? Values on homes, apartments and commercial buildings have gone up greatly during the past five years. If your property insurance was adequate in 1968, it should be increased approximately 44% to cover replacement costs today, states the American Appraisal Co. Does the Lippard Insurance Agency advise a realistic increase of insurance limits at each renewal time?"

28th Annual Edition Of The Santa Rosa Rodeo May 9-13

VERNON, Texas-- The Santa Rosa Rodeo--which each year attracts the sport's top names and is scheduled for its 28th annual edition May 9-13--is the first of many events planned for Vernon by the rodeo grounds' new owner, the American Association of Sheriff's Poses and Riding Clubs.

Bill Brockriede Appointed To Conservation Dist.

Albert W. "Bill" Brockriede of Route 2, Electra, has been appointed a member of the Board of Directors of the Wichita Soil and Water Conservation District, Chairman Fred Dwyer announced this week.

Brockriede, 24, was named to fill the unexpired term of Eddie Showers, who recently resigned from the board. His term of office will run until October, 1974. He will represent Zone 4, which lies in the northwest part of Wichita County.

Dwyer said that Brockriede's education, farming experience, and knowledge of conservation problems made him a logical choice for the post. "As a district director, he will represent the people in Zone 4 in dealing with matters relating to conservation of natural resources," Dwyer said.

Association volunteers from a wide area have spent weekends doing maintenance chores and spreading thousands of gallons of paint to assure that the arena and stands of the $750,000 facility, built by the late E. Paul Waggoner almost three decades ago, will be bright and shining for the occasion.

The 10,000 member AASP&RC recently took possession of the facility and will headquarter in Vernon.

"Last year the Santa Rosa attracted national leaders in six rodeo contests," said Dee Morgan, AASP&RC President and 1973 Rodeo Chairman. "More than 30 Rodeo Cowboys Association world championships were represented among the 237 entries, and some of them went on to additional world titles in 1972."

Morgan, who attended the Rodeo Cowboys Association convention in Denver and said the same caliber of contestants was expected for 1973, added that three-dozen positions at the 1972 National Finals Rodeo were claimed by rodeo hands and cowgirls who appeared at the Santa Rosa.

Among former National Finals Rodeo personnel already confirmed for the 1973 Santa Rosa are clowns Chuck Henson of Tucson, Ariz., and Wiley McCray of Briscoe, Texas, and announcer Pete Logan of Medford, Ore. Logan has been the voice of eight NFRs and has appeared in a number of feature-length Walt Disney motion pictures.

Four-legged NFR stars will again be provided by Beutler Bros. and Cervi of Sterling, Colo.

Other features include the Santa Rosa Palomino Club, the "Los Caballeros" trick riders and the AASP&RC Pony Express Race.

The traditional Santa Rosa Rodeo Parade will begin May 9 at 3 p.m. Rodeo sessions are set for 8 p.m. May 9-12 and 2 p.m. May 13.

Tickets are priced at $4.00 for box seats; $3.50 for reserved grandstand; $2.50 for adult general admission, $1.25 for youths 12 years and under--and went on sale April 25 at Wagon Wheel Western Wear (Rodeo Ticket Office, Box 2190, in Vernon).

The current availability of grass, favorable prices and growing beef demand tempt cattlemen to add to their stock. This year, the cost of stocking will be high. Strong demands for feeder calves and the growing boneless beef market have also increased breeding cow prices.

Consumer meat boycotts have developed in reaction to current high beef prices. Recently, the Secretary of Agriculture encouraged the culling of cowherds to provide more beef for the consumer. While this might help in the short run, it would probably increase the problem in the long run by limiting future supply. And, with President Nixon's recent freeze on retail prices of beef, lamb and pork, production expansion may also be slowed even further.

Increasing cattle production is really the only solution to high prices. Yet, herd expansion will only be put in effect if production is profitable. Cattlemen can increase production only by purchasing or keeping heifers. Light heifer prices are as much as 20 cents per pound below steer prices due to the demand for steers for the feedlot and fixed feeding programs.

Heifers could be grown through the spring and summer for sale as heavy feeders or fattened for the slaughter calf market. They could also be kept as breeding herd replacements.

Be logical in your purchases. Pay only what you can afford. Study the market before buying and selling. Finally, remember the drought of 1971.

The withdrawal of different pesticides currently used in cotton production in the U.S., could reduce production by 10 per cent. The study also showed that the cost of production would increase by almost 10 dollars per acre. Both irrigated and dry-land production were considered. Among the pesticides in the study were organochlorines, organophosphates and aniline.

Land values continue to increase and ranch land is no exception. But often net income from ranching is limited, as a study of a ranching operation in the Edwards Plateau indicates. An economist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service found the ranch is reaping a mere 1.5 percent return on land, labor and management. Some alternatives might be to sell the land and invest the money elsewhere, use the land for recreational purposes, or buy ranch land with a lower value to increase net income.

Home building costs can be cut by careful planning. For a two-bathroom home, install the bathrooms back to back. Locate the kitchen and laundry center near the bathroom to shorten cold and hot water lines. Light-colored roofing will absorb less of the sun's heat and will cut cooling costs in the summer. Adequate insulation is important to reduce both heating and cooling.

Texas has a new general soil map, showing delineations of 73 major soil landscapes plus a small scale inset of the broad land resource areas. The map is now available to the public. It has just been released by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station in cooperation with the USDA Soil Conservation Service.

Wheat And Barley Acreage Reports Due By May 1

Farmers that signed up in the wheat and feed grain programs need to report the acreage planted to wheat and barley by May 1 at the county ASCS office, says Scotty H. Odom, Executive Director.

Farmers must report acreage accurately and also report as separate items "wheat for grain" and "wheat grazed off" said Odom.

MFA Insurance Co. Reports '72 As Year Of Increase

COLUMBIA, MO.--MFA Insurance Companies reports 1972 as the year of the greatest increase in business in the firm's 27-year history, according to Chuck Landenborn, MFA Insurance agent in Barkburnett.

At the firm's annual policyholders meeting April 4, President A.D. Sappington announced an increase of 21% in business written by the seven companies which make up the MFA Insurance Group. Total assets for the group have surpassed $164 million.

The record increase in business enabled the firm to add more than $10 million to its surplus as an extra protection for policyholders, bringing that figure to a record $42.6 million.

MFA Mutual, the parent company in the group, reported total assets of more than $113 million.

The 1972 figures include business written in 15 midwestern states in which MFA Insurance actively markets its property, casualty, life, and health insurance. With over a million policies in force, more than 2 1/2 million persons are insured by MFA Insurance, which ranks as the 10th largest mutual auto insurer in the nation.

Since the beginning of 1972, more than 200 new employees and 75 new agents have been added to the MFA Insurance Staff. The Home Office staff now totals nearly a thousand, with 870 employees in other offices in 15 states. Nearly 1500 agents sell MFA Insurance in those states.

The terms of three members of the nine-member Board of Directors expired and were filled by re-election for three-year terms of Miller Hurn, Rochport, Mo.; Sam Murrell, Unionville, Mo.; and Fred Brehe, Marthasville, Mo. The remaining members of the Board are: F.V. Heinkel, A.D. Sappington, and R.J. Rostler, Columbia, Mo.; Lawrence Kullmann, Warrensburg, Mo.; B.M. Seaman, New Boston, Mo.; and Edwin Sachs, Rolla, Mo.

Following the annual meeting, Heinkel was re-elected by the Board as chairman, and Sappington was re-elected president of the Companies.

At a meeting held the same day, the Board of Directors of the Missouri Farmers Association, Inc., founding company of the MFA Insurance Group, passed a resolution expressing appreciation to Sappington and his staff of officers and employees for "their fine record of achievement and service."

The resolution cited Sappington's "dedication to his work, which has been reflected in the excellent growth and progress of the MFA Insurance Companies."

Sappington announced plans for expansion within the present 15-state operating area, opening new marketing districts equivalent to three states of 2.5 million population each. The 30 new districts will require the addition of more than 400 agents in the coming year, and will make MFA Insurance available in areas not previously served.

In addition to presenting the MFA Mutual report, Sappington reviewed the operations of six other companies which make up the MFA Insurance Group.

Countryside Casualty Company, which specializes in writing commercial truck and non-standard auto insurance, reported an increase in assets to more than $12 million.

MFA Mutual and Countryside Casualty premium surpassed $16 million for the year. MFA Life Insurance Company premiums were in excess of $13 million, making a total of more than $129 million in premiums for the three companies. This compares with $110 million in the previous year.

MFA Life Insurance Company, writing life, health and accident insurance on an individual and group basis, reported insurance in force of more than $640 million, and assets of nearly $25 million.

MFA Security Service Company, an affiliated firm primarily conducting a finance business, reported an increase in assets of nearly $4 million, up to $26 million. Financing of cars, boats, mobile homes and other personal property is handled by MFA Security Service as another service provided by MFA Insurance agents.

Sappington's report included summaries of the operations of Danile Boone Underwriters, KMMO, Inc., and Mid-America Auto Parts, Inc., all wholly-owned subsidiaries of the insurance group which carry out operations associated with the insurance operations.

Multiphasic Unit To Visit Temple For Two Weeks

by Janice Duncan
Extension Home Economist
Walters, Oklahoma

The Multiphasic Screening Unit will move to Temple April 27 for two weeks. The screening unit is operated by the Oklahoma State Dept. of Health and is sponsored in Cotton County by the Extension Homemakers. They will be serving as hostesses while the unit is in the county.

Extension Homemakers Week is May 6-12 and several special events have been slated in conjunction with this week. A creative writing contest is planned for Extension Homemakers. Personal writing in the areas of prose, poetry, fiction, factual or recording of early history of area or community will be accepted anytime before May 1. An Extension Homemakers Arts & Crafts Contest will be held on Tuesday, May 8 in the Extension Center at the Courthouse. Classes include paintings (conventional or abstract) in oil, acrylic, water color, pastel and other media; sculpture, ceramics and creative arts (stitchery, macrame, croch, crochet, knitting). Entrants must be extension homemakers. An open house will be held from 2-4 p.m. on May 8 in the OSU Extension Center, at which time the public may view the creative writings and arts and crafts displays and learn more about the Extension Service.

Extension Homemakers Week will be climaxed with the annual Housing Tour on Friday, May 11. Registration will be from 9:00 a.m. - 9:30 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall of the Methodist Church. Lunch will be served at the Methodist Church, courtesy of the Walters Lumber Co.

Got the grocery store blues? Remember - ALL OF THE GROCERY STORE BILLS IS NOT FOOD! More than 20 percent of the value of those big bags the shopper struggles home with each week is made up of non-food items - laundry soap and detergents, beer and cigarettes, tissue, children's socks, books, ladies' hose, magazines, encyclopedias, and on and on-all are purchased these days in supermarkets. Consumers buy at grocery stores about 90 percent of all cat, dog and bird food; more than half of the toothpaste; half of the aspirin; and nearly half of all the hairspray sold in this country! In fact, in one recent year, consumers spent more in grocery stores on beer, cigarettes and pet food combined than for fresh beef. One of the more startling changes in food spending is for soft drinks--it's now nearly twice that of 10 years ago!

The next time you worry about how much you're spending and how much things cost, think a minute about how you're spending your food money!!

Extension Office Reviews Recent Wheat Damage

by Bill Lucas
Extension Director
Walters, Oklahoma

The big question asked our office this week is "Has our wheat been damaged?" The fields I have checked appear to have much less damage than was first expected. I can see very little damage to the head at this time.

Some of the factors affecting spike injury to cold are: (1) temperature, (2) length of exposure, (3) stage of maturity, (4) amount of moisture in and out of the plant, (5) amount of wind, (6) fertility of the soil.

Floral sterility in wheat may occur when it is exposed to a temperature of 28.4 degrees F for four hours. The percentage of sterility is increased if the spikes are wet at the time of freezing.

High fertility also increased freeze damage at low temperatures. The greatest amount of injury has been observed when freezing occurs during pollination. Pollination usually occurs just about the time the spike is coming out of the boot.

Damage to the spike can usually be observed in five to seven days after injury. Stem damage can also occur from late Spring freezes. The most serious damage usually occurs at the base of the plant. This type of damage causes a deformity of the joint or causes twisted and split stems. This damage usually causes lodging.

PECAN PROPAGATION TIME--Pecan propagation time is here. Small pecan trees may be whip grafted just before the growth starts.

After growth begins, young pecan trees may be bark grafted to improved varieties. This is usually the latter part of April in the southern Oklahoma counties and early May in the northern part of our pecan belt.

Devol Doings

In Devol, Easter was celebrated in the traditional way. Members joined in fellowship worship at the Church where Rev. Laine Crowe delivered a message of the Crucifixion of Jesus. At 2 p.m. the Church sponsored an egg hunt for the children of the community. The down pour of rain just one hour before did not dampen the spirits of the little bunny seekers as they rushed in every direction in search of eggs.

Easter holiday guests in the Frank McClendon home included Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bostick and family, Chess, Britt and Ronnie of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Ed McCreary and family of Tulsa, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. Monty McCreary and family of Rosebud, Mrs. Adie Jane Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Baumhardt and girls, Tommie and Jodie of Burkburnett, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Carroll and Mr. and Mrs. Lenton McClendon.

A.J. Mays and his mother, Mrs. Flora Mays, drove to Big Springs, Texas last week and were accompanied home by Mrs. Mays sister, Mrs. Orpha Little, who plans to spend a few weeks here with the Mays.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Uthe spent Easter Sunday in Henrietta with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shepaugh.

Mr. and Mrs. John Chapman are spending this week visiting relatives in Oklahoma City.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Dean Hawhee of Denton spent Friday with his father and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hawhee of Burkburnett and called on his grandfather, Mr. Charley Hawhee Friday evening.

Everett Hawhee underwent open heart surgery at St. Luke Hospital in Houston and is now able to be home in Burkburnett.

A three-day youth revival is planned to start Friday, April 27 and extend through April 28 and 29 at the First Baptist Church in Devol, under the direction of Rev. Laine Crowe, pastor.

A selection of youth speakers for each night will be heard. Friday night, Mike Mints of Wichita Falls will bring the message. On Saturday night, Jerry Jennings of Wichita Falls will be in charge of the devotional. Mike and Jerry will take turns directing the song services. The Resurrection Believers, a group from Wichita Falls will be in charge of the Sunday night services.

A young folks picnic is planned for Saturday. The group will meet at 2 p.m. at the church and go to the picnic grounds on the river. Paul Rector is scheduled to deliver a message at this time. All young folks are invited to come and join in the fellowship.

Sgt. B. G. Drake Receives Pin For 2,000 Hours

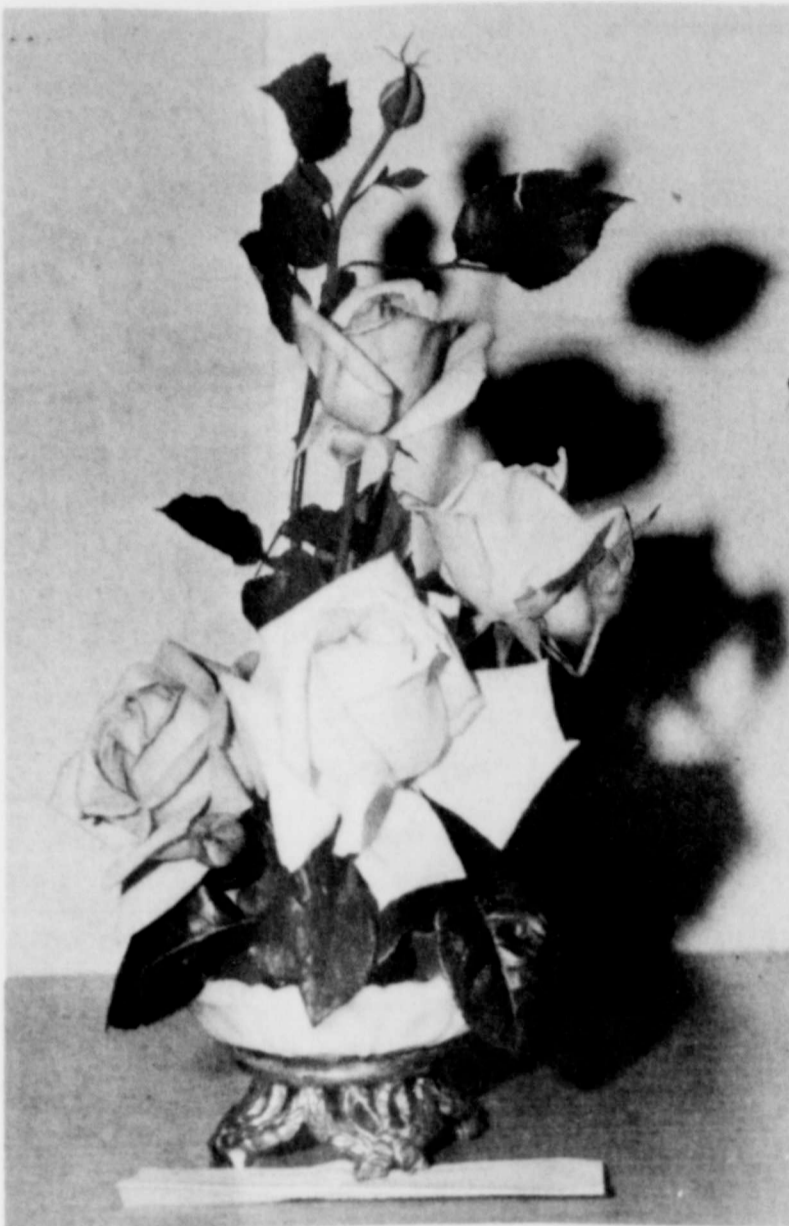

WRIGHTSTOWN, N. J. --U.S. Air Force Technical Sergeant Bennie G. Drake, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Drake, Sr., Route 1, Jan Lee Acres, Burkburnett, Texas, has received the Lockheed Aircraft Corporation pin signifying 2,000 flying hours as a crewmember of Lockheed-built C-141 Starlifter aircraft.

Sergeant Drake is a C-141 loadmaster at McGuire AFB, N.J. with the 30th Military Airlift Squadron, a unit of the Military Airlift Command which provides global airlift for U.S. Military Forces.

The sergeant has completed more than 15 years of military service, including 12 months of duty in Vietnam.

He was graduated in 1957 from Wichita Falls Senior High School.

His wife, Joan, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Heise, Bancroft, Neb. Sergeant and Mrs. Drake have two children, Valinda and Kathleen.

One of the many beautiful entries in the Bluebonnet Flower Show is this artistic arrangement. The blossomed roses display ingenuity in their simple and yet elegant arrangement.

Library Corner

"Thanks" to each one who had a part in the development of the Burkburnett Library's Book Fair. The unsold books are back on the "sale shelves" in the library, and may be purchased at any time.

Mrs. Veda Mae Krusemark has loaned a collection of her ceramic handwork to the library. These are now in the display case. The Easter bunny with a large egg and baby bunnies, is prominently displayed.

Non-fiction is in abundance now: Paul Dickson has created a light and informative book on ice cream - the origins of the cone, the language of the soda fountain, the art of proper dipping, and some of the greatest ice cream formulas. THE GREAT AMERICAN ICE CREAM BOOK is the story of "outa sight maple walnut", Victory Sundae - 1942, and the Ice Cream Enchilada.

CELEBRATIONS, THE COMPLETE BOOK OF AMERICAN HOLIDAYS, by Robert Myers is a useful and comprehensive guide to the notable holy days and holidays currently celebrated in America. It answers questions as Why do we wear clothes at Easter? Where did the Jack o'lantern come from? How did St. Patrick drive the snakes out of Ireland? In WEST TEXAS AFTER THE DISCOVERY OF OIL, Richard Moore traces the development of the petroleum industry from its beginning (Spindletop in 1901) to the present. And FOLKLORE OF THE OIL INDUSTRY tells the stories of the finding of oil in which seers, dreams, and doodle - buggers' step in when science cannot tell a man just where to drill. It includes songs, verses, tall tales, and anecdotes.

BLACKBERRY WINTER is the personal story of the world's most famous anthropologist, Margaret Mead. She relates her school days, her three marriages, and her early field trips to Samoa, New Guinea, and Bali.

The new biography of MARY TODD LINCOLN is the first complete collection of her letters. It is also a book that provides a new source of historians.

Another biography that is colorful and engrossing is DUET IN DIAMONDS - the story of Diamond Jim Brady and Lillian Russell. This story is about an era of red plush, ten course dinners, and glittering opulence with a special place in American social history.

New Fiction: THE RAVI LANCERS, by John Masters; THE PERSIAN BOY, by Mary Penault; WILD PITCH, by A. B. Guthrie, Jr.; and SMOLDERING FIRE, by D. E. Stevenson.

Tips for using electricity efficiently

Use oven heat for all its worth.

There's many a time when you can make your oven do double duty. When you plan to use it to cook meat or a dessert, you can make more efficient use of the heat by cooking an entire meal in the oven.

Simply choose foods that cook at the same temperature. One good example would be a meatloaf, baked potatoes, frozen peas or broccoli in a covered casserole, and a fruit cobbler. There! You'll have cooked a well-balanced meal without once having used a surface unit. And our home economists can suggest others.

Here are some other efficiency tips you may find helpful. Reduce the cooking time for frozen meats by thawing them properly. For best baking results, pre-heat your oven just long enough to obtain the necessary cooking temperature. For broiling or roasting, do not pre-heat, but start with a cold oven. If there's a delay in serving the meal after it's cooked, a temperature setting of 150 degrees will keep food warm without cooking it further.

It's our job at Texas Electric to help you get the most value from your electric service. Call us when you have questions about cooking or any other use of electricity.

Employees Receive RIF Notices Due To Custodial Changes

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS--Due to a change in custodial services at Sheppard Air Force Base, reduction in-force (RIF) notices have been received by approximately 50 civilian employees at the base.

The Air Force is changing to contract janitorial service from the in-house capability; however no formal contract award has been made.

The RIF notices would become effective July 14.

"Employees affected will be offered other jobs as they become available; however these are the lowest grade jobs so there will not be many open to them," stated Fred Davenport, civilian personnel officer.

"It is hoped that the contractor will hire as many of these workers as he can," Davenport said.

"The RIF notices can be withdrawn if the contract is not let," the civilian personnel officer pointed out.
