Riley Takes Helm Of Burk C of C

The Chamber of Commerce board of directors monthly meeting was held last Thursday in the Reddy Room at Texas Electric.

J.B. Riley presided and read a letter of resignation by Lester Yates, chamber president, who has been transferred to Seymour.

Bob Carter and Bob Carpenter were appointed directors of the Chamber to fill the unexpired terms of Lester Yates and Larry Watts.

The directors also appointed two committees: The Budget Committee to be headed by Vernon Duncan and will include Gary Owen, Clark Gresham, Walt Doerre and Loretta Hunt. This committee was asked to make a report by the November meeting on the 1974 budget.

Reid McCandless was appointed chairman of the Nominating Committee and this committee will include John Gill, C.J. Lippard, Dale Lewis and J.B. Riley.

The directors also approved the Retail Trade Committee's recommendations that an assessment be made on the members for the upkeep and additions to the Christmas decorations. Donations would be appreciated.

There was a discussion but no action taken on the annual banquet which will be held the last of January.

Next month's directors meeting will be an early morning breakfast meeting to be held Tuesday, October 2, at the Community Center at 7 a.m.

Brig. Gen. David Winn To Speak To Rotary Tues.

Brig. Gen. David W. Winn, who recently assumed the duties of Vice Commander of Sheppard Technical Training Center, will be the featured speaker for the noon Rotary Luncheon Tuesday. Gen. Winn, who was one of the returning POW's last March assumed his duties at Sheppard on August 31. He is filling the office vacated by Col. Andy Atkinson, who was transferred to the Pentagon.

Gen. Winn, flying a F105 fighter was shot down over North Vietnam on August 9, 1968 and was held in prison near Hanoi until his release last March. He was a part of the 355th Tac Fighting Wing stationed at Takhli Air Force Base in Thailand.

Among his numerous awards are the Silver Star, Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal and the Purple Heart.

A veteran of World War II, the Korean conflict and the Viet Nam war, he enlisted in the Air Force in 1942 and received his commission a year later. out to members for the October 12 event.

Also upcoming on the Rotary calendar is the annual visit by the local Rotary District Governor, which is slated for October 16.

Food Retailers Must Get State Authorization For Food Stamps

Wichita County food retailers will have to be authorized before they can accept U.S. Department of Agriculture food stamps.

That's the word from Carl J. Speegle, officer in charge of the Abilene field office of USDA's Food and Nutrition Service.

"Most grocers in a food stamp county will want to apply," said Speegle, "since the program usually means a noticeable increase in food business."

The Food Stamp Program opens in Wichita County Oct. 1, and will be operating statewide by the first of the year. Under the food stamp program, needy families are certified for the program by the State Department of Public Welfare. They then pay a certain amount of money each month for food stamps. The amount they spend depends on family income and size. In addition to the food stamps they buy, they are given "bonus" or free coupons to increase their food buying power.

Food stamps are used like cash at stores authorized by USDA to redeem them. Merchants redeem the food stamps through local banks and the federal reserve system.

Grocers who have not been authorized and would like to participate in the program should contact the Abilene field office, according to Speegle. Either write the office at Room 510, Petroleum Building, Abilene 79601 or call Area Code 915, 673-2509.

Bulldogs To Host Duncan Friday

District 4-AAA Teams Continue To Show Opponents Superior Strength

As the third week of the 1973 football season approaches District 4-AAA is still about as unpredictable as it was before the first whistle. The only team in that district that has lost a ball game thus far is Weatherford and that came from the hands of AAAA Mineral Wells. It would probably be more correct to say the Kangaroos were out scored rather than beaten as the final score tallied Mineral Wells, 56, Weatherford, 46.

Other teams in the District

4-AAA dealt their opponents misery as Brownswood blasted Sweetwater 40-0, Iowa Park blanked Ardmore 29-0, Graham passed by Ft. Worth, Brewer by 21-14, Stephenville routed Granbury by 44-0 and Burk Burnett slammed Lawton Eisenhower by the score of 21-0. The other two members of the local conference Hirschi and Vernon had open dates.

As can be seen from the above scores, teams in District 4-AAA not only have scoring ability; they can also play defense.

The Burk Burnett Bulldogs who held the big Lawton team scoreless throughout last week's game will again have to contend with the weight problem. The Duncan Demons have a full house of hefties both on the offensive and defensive units. Commenting on the size of visiting Demons this week, Bulldog coach Pat Smiley stated, "They always play Burk Burnett a tough game, and we can expect the same from them this year." Smiley reported that Duncan has a good running attack but can also throw the ball well. Scouting reports reveal that Trent Grove, Duncan's 6' 2" 175 lb. tight end is a favorite target from quarterback Dan Moore. "Grove," stated coach Smiley, "is big, tall and has exceptional speed and is an extremely fine athlete."

In Duncan's 8-7 win over Durant last week the Demons threw the ball some 20 times. When they stay on the ground they usually run out of a full house backfield or a split T.

In their season opener, Duncan was outscored 23-7 by Midwest City who is predicted to have an outstanding season.

The Bulldogs will be without the services of senior Robert Chaney, who twisted a knee in last Friday night's clash. Rick Brooks, a 185 lb. junior will replace Chaney on the defensive unit while Larry Lamer, a 165 lb. junior will fill Chaney's offensive position.

All other Bulldog players are expected to be ready to go with only a few minor bruises hampering their abilities.

Burk Burnett's defensive unit, a question mark in fans minds the beginning of this season due to the small number of returning starters and the small size of the defensive unit as compared to last year, has proven they can compete. Lawton Eisenhower came to Bulldog Stadium last Friday night with a highly explosive offensive unit, both on the ground and through the air, and was held scoreless for the entire game.

In years past, Burk Burnett has always been known for its stingy defensive team and it appears at this time the same can be expected again this year. If the two past games have been any indication of things to come.

Offensively the Bulldogs are able to grind out the three and four yard gains as they have in the past, but even more so this year opponents are going to have to contend with the big plays--the long gainers.

Zac Henderson's 95 yard punt return last week made this fact even more evident. With the speed and running ability of Henderson, Tommy Rushing and scrambling quarterback Bennie Wilkerson six points can quickly blink on the score board. In addition to this ends David Todd and Mike LaBrie provide good targets for the fine Bulldog aerial attack.

A tough game can be expected at 8:00 Friday night as the big Duncan Demons clash with the stingy, explosive Burk Burnett Bulldogs in Bulldog stadium.

Desk & Derrick Club Tours Local Oil Park Museum

Twenty women from the Desk and Derrick Club in Wichita Falls toured the Burk Burnett Oil Park Saturday morning. Walter Riley directed the tour through the Park. He explained how some of the equipment was used in the oil fields and many other interesting facts concerning the Burk Burnett Oil fields.

Mrs. C.M. Archer, Lila Mallett, Klonda Jefferis and Mrs. Ralph White, representing the Burk Burnett Current Literature Club were on hand to welcome the ladies and serve refreshments to the Wichita Falls club. Mrs. Archer and Mrs. Mallett were on the original committee that started the Oil Park.

City Makes Application For Jail

Burk Burnett's City Council met Monday night and reported that an application for a grant of $22,500 for new city jail facilities will come before the State Criminal Justice Council in October.

Plans submitted to state authorities call for conversion of 800-square feet in the rear section of present police department into retention quarters including five cells.

Approval was given by the council to a plat of Sections 4 and 5 of Mimosa Heights Addition which would open 47 lots for residential construction. The council also authorized city participation in the extension of a new eight-inch sewer line to the corner of Preston and Kramer Road to join sewer lines within the new subdivision.

The council voted to delete the names of offenders on future corporation court reports, listing only the offense and the fines.

An ordinance was passed governing public use of the City land fill and providing fines of up to $200 for violations.

Delinquent tax collections of $10 and corporation court fines of $808 were reported to the council which also approved the payment of current accounts in the amount of $17,248.

Booster Club Hosts Bulldogs

Monday night the Burk Burnett Booster Club had as their special guests, the Burk Burnett Bulldog team.

The Booster Club have special guests every week. Next week it will be the Junior Varsity and their cheerleaders, and the week after that will be the Freshmen, with the 8th graders and 7th graders the next two Monday nights.

At each meeting the coaches give last week's results, next week's game, scouting reports on the next game, the film of last week's game and of course, refreshments.

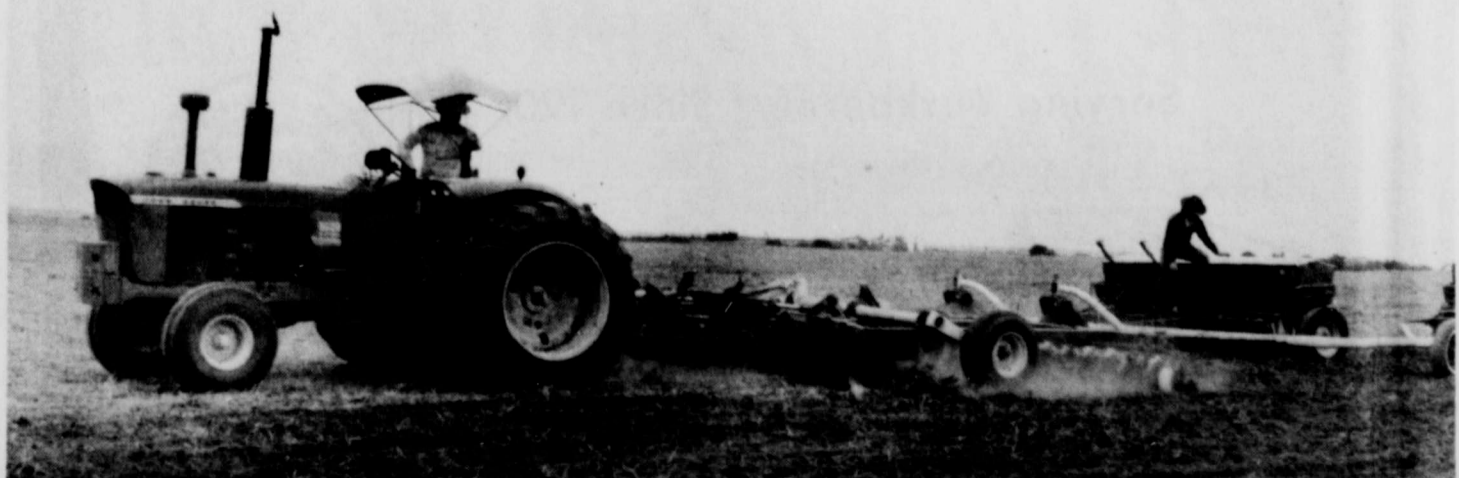

The main objective of the Booster Club is to help support the Athletic Program at Burk Schools. They do this by memberships and selling bumper stickers. The Club has purchased an ice machine which was so badly needed at the High School Athletic Dept.

This year so far there are 91 members in the Club. You don't have to have a child in athletics to be a member of the Club. Just show up and pay a membership fee of $5.00 per family. Every Bulldog backer should be a member of the Booster Club.

The Booster Club meets every Monday night in the Community Room at the Burk Burnett Bank at 7:00 p.m. So all of you Bulldog Backers, become Booster Club members.

Roof Rat Common In Texas

by Larry J. Kilgo Urban Rodent Control Specialist The roof rat (Rattus rattus) or sometimes known as the Alexandrine or black rat is very common in North Central Texas. It may be found in many homes, barns and other buildings both in urban and rural areas. It is extremely agile and can be seen climbing up walls, along rafters, running along pipes, ledges and wires. The roof rat may be identified by its tail which is longer than the head plus the body. The roof rat is not native to Texas being introduced into North America from Europe and Asia. It lives and feeds its family always at the expense of man and other animals. In obtaining its essentials of life, the roof rat becomes a definite economic and health hazard. It gnaws constantly for pleasure and in search of food. It must gnaw to keep its continually growing teeth worn down. The gnawing on electrical wiring insulation many times causes unknown fires. Ugly holes are gnawed through walls and ceilings. Rats gnaw into stored food containers contaminating the contents with their filth. On the farm a tremendous amount of damage may occur in haystacks and feed storage areas. Many diseases are carried by the roof rat including tubercular plague, murine typhus fever, leptospirosis, hemorrhagic jaundice, salmonella food poisoning and rat bite fever. The roof rat along with its close relative the Norway rat are considered to number about half the human population in Texas. Each rat will cost Texans $20 a year due to their parasitic nature. With the population of Texas at 11,196,730, this staggering expense adds up to $11,967,300. Many local, state and federal agencies are continually working to control these pests, which have been described many times as man's greatest enemy.

All-Out Farm Production May Cause Problems

The decision of the government to call for all-out farm production in 1974 may cause serious soil and water conservation problems. Gary Batte, District Conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service in Wichita County, said that other reasons for the growing concern are the sharp increase in commodity prices and the end of the set-aside program. "Thousands of acres of agricultural land that has been under grass or otherwise held out of cultivation in recent years because of various farm programs may be headed for the plow," Batte said. To many farmers, the price looks right. The National Association of Conservation Districts says that much of the land put into set-aside and other land reserve programs was often the least productive. It tended to be marginal or submarginal acreage because of low fertility or other handicaps. Some of it was too steep, too shallow, too wet, too sandy, or too rocky for cultivation in relation to former market conditions. Now the situation has changed. Volume production using all available acreage has become more attractive, especially for farmers with large equipment. Batte said that SCS and Soil Water Conservation Districts are afraid that if large areas are broken out and put to cultivation without attention to conservation farming rules, the price could be high. Soil blowing, dust storms, gullying, and heavy sediment pollution of our streams and lakes might result. Fred Dwyer, director of the Wichita Soil and Water Conservation District, said several farmers have already broken out grassland in Wichita County. "We want to stress the importance of attaining production with conservation," Dwyer said. The landowner needs to decide what conservation practices are needed on the "new land" he is putting into cultivation. According to the SCS, most of the land being converted to cropland will need at least a good crop rotation program and management of crop residues. "Some of it will also require terraces and waterways to prevent erosion," Batte said.

Take Note

A special note to the thousands of hunters taking to the fields and woods this fall in search of game-- BEFORE you pull the trigger, know what you're firing at. Sporting arms -- from a single-shot .22 calibre rifle to a heavy big game weapon to a fast-shooting automatic scatter-gun -- are designed to kill birds and animals. They also can kill humans. The Texas Medical Association reminds that nearly every year several hunters return from fall outings via hearse. Hundreds of others return with a load of bird shot or a rifle bullet to be dug out by a doctor.

In the next few weeks merchants will be getting a letter from our office urging them to give $10 to a special fund for Christmas lighting. The money will be used to repair existing lights and to add to the decorations as funds permit. Our present decorations are about as economical as can be found, yet they cost almost $100 each. You can see from this there won't be a fantastic number of new decorations this year, but we are hoping we can at least keep present ones in good repair and add a light every year or so.

You'll be seeing two new faces cropping up on our list of Board of Directors, as well as various committees. Bob Carter and Bob Carpenter will be filling the unexpired terms of Lester Yates and Larry Watts, who have resigned from the board. I think we are fortunate that our vacancies could be filled with these two men.

In last weeks board meeting, nominating and budget committees were appointed as well as a change in the directors meeting date was made. Directors voted to hold their monthly meetings at 7 a.m. on the Tuesdays following our regular Chamber luncheon. It is hoped that this breakfast meeting will be more convenient for directors where a 100% attendance can be had at each meeting. The breakfast meeting will be held at the Community Center.

I guess I could fill up the remainder of the column about the big son that's new at our house. Guess I'll just leave it by saying my wife finally got around to having the little 9 lb. plus runt.

The guest speaker for the evening, Mr. Leon Pace, Auto Mechanics Instructor at Burkburnett High School gave two interesting presentations. His first presentation dealt with how the world has changed from too many animals in prehistoric times to too many people in our time.

For the second part of his presentation, Mr. Pace talked about how to recognize common problems in automobiles and possible courses of action to correct the problems. This was especially interesting to everyone and at the conclusion of his talk, Mr. Pace spent quite a bit of time answering questions such as why a car knocks and what to do about it, how to properly start a car and how to drive on ice.

Bulldogs Slap Eisenhower In Tough 21 - 0 Battle

by Ken Willingham
Friday, Sept. 14, 1973 will go down in the annals of High School Football History as the night Zac Henderson led the charge when the "Orange Crushers" blurred into Bulldog Stadium to "Properly Pluck" the Lawton Eisenhower Eagles 21-0.

The first half of the game was defense to defense. The 'Dogs offense just couldn't get a move on with a Texan defense like Rusty Barrett, Rick Brooks, Zac Henderson, David Todd and Tommy Rushing.

Meanwhile the AAAA Eagles had two defensive stars, Terry Smith at Defensive Tackle and linebacker Charles Cohee.

The Bulldog defense ate up

Eagle Q.B. Mike Moschella and the three running backs. The 'Okie line was big, strong and fast, but the Bulldogs defensive line was just a little bigger, stronger and faster.

On the other hand, Burk's offense picked up several yards but just couldn't turn the key to the door that opens up the goal line.

The second half was a different chapter. The 'Dogs came back out and smashed the Eagles in the correct fashion. Zac Henderson was so fast that those 'Okies saw more of his backside than his frontside. And Lynn Hammond was ripping the Eagle defense apart.

The first score of the night was in the 3rd quarter on a Wilkinson to Henderson pass for 9 yards and a T.D. The second came only minutes later as the Eagles were forced to punt. Zac Henderson caught the ball on his own 4 yd. line and got a block from Dave Robinson to go 96 yards and another Bulldog TD.

On the first touchdown, Barrett connected for the extra point while on the second, a low snap from center forced number 2 quarterback and holder, Jimmy Koulovatos to run around his right end for two points. And he got them.

The 'Dogs offense could do no wrong that night. The final score came when Lynn Hammond scored on a one yard run. The run didn't make it and the final was 21-0.

The 'Dogs take on the Duncan Demons, Friday night, Sept. 21 at Bulldog Stadium. See you there.

GO DOGS!

8th Grade Hits Iowa Park

The Burk Burnett Junior High football teams both won their season openers last week against Iowa Park in games played in Burk Burnett.

The Eighth Grade team won 26-0, with Charles Lewis scoring three touchdowns on runs of three, 20 and 11 yards. Joe Horn scored the other Burk Burnett touchdown with a six yard run.

Lewis scored in the first quarter from three yards out. The extra point was good when Joe Horn passed to Scott Tucker.

In the second quarter Lewis scored again on a 20 yard romp, extra point try failed. Also in the second quarter, Joe Horn increased Burk Burnett's lead when he scored from 6 yards out, extra point try failed.

Then in the third quarter Lewis closed out the scoring with another touchdown, this one on an 11 yard run.

Loses Tough One

This year the J.V. Football team has 35 men on the squad under the leadership of David Keller and Kenny Young. Last Thursday the J.V. team battled the Wichita Falls High Coyotes to a 14-6 loss.

Top shape players offensively were Mark Milam, Ricky Mason, Paul Gersterner, Mark Cummings, Bill Lindborn and Tim Kormos. Defensively were Jerry Beckett and Kevin Tory.

"Both the offensive line and defensive line worked real good. We had a lot of hustle," says Keller.

Frosh Stomp Coyotes 20-0

Last Thursday the B.H.S. Freshmen ball club stomped the W.F.H.S. Coyotes by a score of 20-0.

Top players were Bret Patti, and Darryl Dickey at linebacker positions and Mike Penn at defensive end. "The defense made all the difference," says Coach Phillips. "We played good defense."

"Offensively, we played excellently. Quarterback Jimmy Edwards was hot along with Junior Cox and Mike Doyle. We made very few penalties and few mistakes."

The Freshmen take on Vernon Thursday at 8:00 p.m. just before the J.V.

Henderson carries for long gainer.

7th Grade Wins By 14-0

The 7th grade Bulldogs played Iowa Park in Bulldog Stadium last Tuesday night and won by a score of 14-0. The three best performers were Q.B. Mike Bavosett and backs, Ron Woods and Darryl Ray.

The offensive this year is one of the best ever with Robinson at center and guards Burg and Nixon. Tackles are Shirley and Johnson. At both ends are Gresham and Guffey. The backfield consists of Cosby, Ray and Woods, while Horn and Bavosett alternate at quarterback.

"These guys played real well fundamental wise; they only had one turnover, a fumble. Iowa Park crossed 50 once and that was on the fumble. We had good pursuit defensively. There weren't many mistakes and no broken plays," says Coach Willett.

It really looks like the 7th grade team will have a great season.

Sophs Hit By Lawton

The Sophomore game was played Monday night against Lawton like at Lawton. Burk lost 24-0.

Ike scored twice early in the game to make the score 18-0, and then late in the final quarter to make it 24-0.

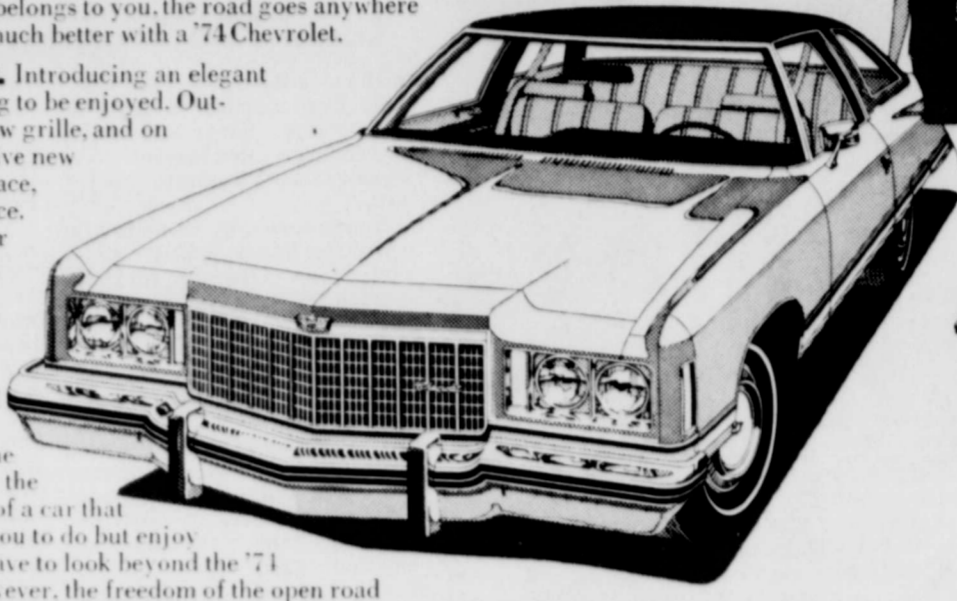

Offensively the star was Russel Clamp at tailback. Defensively it was Mike Shallenberger at middle linebacker and Mark Langenback at cornerback.

"We played kind of badly, due to inexperience," says Coach Keller, "but time will take care of that."

When the wheel belongs to you, the road goes anywhere you say. And it's so much better with a '74 Chevrolet.

Camaro. The way it looks is the way it goes. Quick, sleek and nimble. With a low, wide stance, responsive steering. And comfort that's rare in a car that handles so well. Plus classic new styling, and plushness from the cut-pile carpeting up.

Malibu Classic. A luxury Chevelle, new this year. With full foam seats. A fold-down front armrest. Wood-grained vinyl accents. Elegant inner door panels. Extremely tasteful upholstery and cut-pile nylon carpeting.

That's just inside. The exterior is just as classic, in character and in detail, as the interior. Yet, it remains mid-size. And, it remains all Chevelle. Boom Country Report

Good pickin' and singin' and humor abound every Saturday night at Boom Country Jamboree.

JAMBOREE was proud to present this past Saturday, the warm and pleasing personality of Wynn Stewart. He sang something to suit the taste of any country music lover. His "Love Ain't Worth A Dime" is a favorite of all JAMBOREE goers. Wynn also gave a preview of his soon to be released "Raining in Seattle".

Wynn had the audience's sides splitting with his novel version of "Has Anybody Seen My Sweet Thing." Many more favorites were sang to a completely captive crowd.

Bobo's "Number Three Son", Reuben did a great job on an all time favorite, "Don't Be Angry".

As a change of pace for the Finley's Ron soloed. He introduced two songs he had written himself: "Son of the Bayou" and "It Takes Two". Singing, picking, writing, just where does this guy's talent end?

We had visiting BOOM COUNTRY this week, Joe Carroll and his wife Hazel from the Big G Jamboree in Garland. Peggy Woods, of Burk, is Joe's sister and they did a fine duet number. He was then joined by his wife for a gospel duet. Their performance was enjoyed by all.

A name becoming quite familiar at JAMBOREE is Jim Barnes. He offered a couple Bobby Bear and Tom T. Hall songs. He carries a lot of vocal power.

on hand to sing her song, "Boom Country Jamboree" to everyone's delight. Her bright smile and winning ways have made her the audiences sweet heart.

The crowd roared as Greg Roberts completed his imitation numbers. Performing hits by the greats, Hank Snow, Johnny Cash, Jerry Lee Lewis and Elvis, Greg stole his listeners attention. Applause and whistles brought him back on stage to do his soon to be released "The Wrong Man". He started the performance off on the right foot by doing "Candy (All Over My Face)".

KLUR was well represented this week with Jim Hill, Jim O'Keefe, and fairly new to the scene, Bob Wilde. Their comedy and humor again set the pace for the action. You never know what they will come up with next. They promise a real whopper of a surprise for this week's JAMBOREE. Let your curiosity get the best of you and come on out to the Burk Burnett Civic Center Saturday night at 8:00 p.m. and find out just what they have up their sleeves.

See you there! PD, ADV.

Use Energy Correctly

The fact that many of the appeals and much of the information concerning proper uses of energy are coming from utilities and other power producers provides ample reason for heeding energy conservation advice. More than anyone else, they realize that conservation of energy is one of the keys to eliminating power shortages. However, in supporting these efforts, it is absolutely essential that we understand that conservation of energy does not mean abstaining from its use. Mr. Shearon Harris, president of a major southern utility, emphasized this when he said, "We want to sell you all the electricity you need, but we don't want to sell you more than you need. By encouraging conservation and helping our customers make wise use of electricity, we are working to assure that the new facilities which we are building and projecting are to supply energy for productive, needed uses." He added, however, that while advocating conservation of energy, his company is committed to the proposition that "no one will be denied a job or the opportunity for a better job, that no pollution abatement device will stand idle, and that no housewife will be relegated to the drudgery of a past era because of the unavailability of electricity." Conservation means using energy wisely. To cut off its use would endanger our national security and our economy. We would be shirking our responsibilities to improve our environment and to correct other problems waiting to be solved. We cannot afford to stop using energy any more than we can afford to waste it. The future progress and development of this nation will demand the use of more energy. At the same time, wise and efficient use will be imperative in ensuring that adequate supplies are available to meet these needs. Therefore, it is in our own best interests to learn about energy conservation and to use it correctly rather than waste it.

County Extension Agent

The 1974 wheat program is designed to encourage all-out production and thus will be no set-aside requirement. There will also be no conserving base requirement for the four-year life of the Agricultural and Consumer Protection Act of 1973. New in the wheat program is the target price feature. If the average price for wheat is at or above the $2.05 per bushel target price, the producer will receive no payment. If the price average is below the target, the producer will receive the difference between the target price and the five-month average price received by all farmers.

There will be no preliminary payment. Any payment due will be paid after December 1, 1974. If the average price received by all producers is under $2.05 per bushel for the July-November, 1974 period, a producer would be paid on an amount of bushels determined by multiplying the farm allotment by the projected yield established for the farm. The projected yield represents the potential production for the farm as determined by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) county committee.

The total amount of payments a person may receive under one or more of the 1974 wheat, feed grain and upland cotton programs may not exceed $20,000. Loans will be available to producers on their 1974 wheat crop at a national average of $1.37 per bushel, an increase of 12 cents over 1973 loans.

The national allotment is set at 55 million acres. Thus, on the average, each producer's allotment in 1974 will be about three times that of this 1973 allotment. This allotment is not a constraint on the amount of wheat that can be planted and its sole purpose is for making payments to producers in the event the five-month average price received by farmers is less than the target price.

Producers may substitute any non-conserving crop or any conserving crop used for hay or for grazing in order to preserve their wheat allotments and to make them eligible for any payments under the target price feature. Crops for which a marketing quota is in effect are excluded.

Winter pastures can provide high-quality nutrients for the beef and dairy herd and this is especially important this year when feed costs are at an all-time high.

Three key elements for top winter forage production are early planting, proper fertilization and use of high-quality seed.

Early plantings can take full advantage of fall rainfall and other favorable growing conditions. Growth is faster while days are still fairly long and more sunlight is available.

Early plantings also offer a target for some insect pests, but the advantages of getting the crop established early far outweigh any insect problems that may develop.

A soil test should be made well ahead of planting to determine the proper rate of fertilization. An adequate amount of a balanced fertilizer at planting tends to promote deep root systems, early growth and high-quality forage. One or more sidedressings of nitrogen will generally be needed during the grazing season for continued forage production.

Planting high-quality seed in a well-prepared seedbed further boosts production and high-quality forage.

MONSTER
At first there was curiosity,
Of what it would be like;
That was my motive to try it,
But now I'm not sure why.
I knew enough about it,
But there was something inside;
A need to try it myself,
That didn't seem to die.
Then the monster found me,
I didn't try to hide;
I never did reject it,
So it found it's way inside.
At first it was fantastic,
At least it was in my mind;
But then I got to know it,
It no longer seemed kind.
It changed my life completely,
It won't let me be myself;
This monster has taken control,
Of my very soul itself.
I Beg You, today's generation,
Be Smart, don't close your eyes;
Don't let a syringe and needle
Dictate your entire life.

How to make your electric payment the same every month.

As temperatures go up and down during the year, your electric bills do, too. That's why we offer our residential customers a Level Pay Plan -- an option that lets you pay for your electric service in equal monthly payments. Here's how it works: Based on an analysis of all the information we have regarding your account, we estimate your yearly electric costs and your monthly average -- and if you agree, that's what we bill you. During periodic reviews, if we find you've used more or less electricity than first estimated, we'll work out an adjustment. If you think you'd like the convenience of "Level Pay," give us a call, or simply let us know on the comment portion of your electric service bill.

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health

Accent on Health

J.E. PEAVY, M.D., Commissioner of Health

If you could virtually insure your child against having five dangerous diseases, would you make the effort?

State Health Department officials strongly emphasize that immunizing children against early childhood diseases is worth both the time and expense -- for the child's health and the health of others.

Under ideal circumstances, only a few visits to a clinic or private physician are needed to complete the immunization schedule during the child's first year and a half of life.

You say it's an inconvenience? There's no real threat you say? Don't fool yourself into thinking the "conquered" diseases are really conquered. Sure, your child is safer from disease than his or her grandfather might have been, but consider this:

--Two of the four cases of varicella reported in Texas last year struck children under two years old.

--Children under the age of five years were the target of almost 30 percent of the 41 cases of diphtheria and about 35 percent of the 20 cases of tetanus.

--43 percent of the approximately 1600 cases of ordinary measles reported by age in Texas last year occurred in children under the age of five.

--Of the 185 reported cases of whooping cough or verticillus in Texas last year, 50 percent of those whose age was recorded were four years old and under.

You say your child is strong and healthy and can withstand a few days in bed with a communicable disease? Think about children still to be born. If your child has rubella and infects a susceptible neighbor, friend, or acquaintance during the first months of pregnancy, the chances are that the newborn, if the newborn does arrive, might suffer blindness, deafness, retardation, and heart disease. Is it worth taking such a chance, when a single immunization for rubella could eliminate the possibility of your child causing such a tragedy?

A 1971 State law requires that all children entering school must be immunized against diphtheria, tetanus, polio, measles, and rubella.

In those areas where no local facilities exist to provide immunization services, the State Department of Health will provide or administer the required vaccines.

As a further result of the 1971 law, Texas schools now maintain a record of the immunizations of every student in the State.

In an attempt to increase immunization among the very young, the State Health Department has implemented an Infant Immunization Surveillance Program. The program essentially involves mailing cards to parents of newborn and one-year old children, informing them of recommended vaccination times, and asking them to check and return the cards. Reminder cards are issued to non-responding parents, and field referrals are issued to local health departments and Immunization Service Aids if parents do not respond to the

AN ORDINANCE REGULATING USE OF THE CITY SANITARY LAND FILL; PROVIDING A PENALTY FOR THE VIOLATION OF THE REGULATIONS AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

WHEREAS, the City of Burkburnett, Texas, owns grounds for a City Sanitary Land Fill outside the City Limits of the City of Burkburnett, Texas, and

Weekly Health Tip

from JOE GILLESPIE

A survey among physicians finds that too many patients withhold vital information - they are reluctant to tell full details of their health problems or symptoms. Half of the patients, for example, did not mention symptoms of heart and respiratory problems which appeared obvious and serious to their doctors. The lesson is plain - the patient can only get his money's worth from his visit to the doctor, and can only be helped to a cure, if he confides all necessary information and symptoms so the doctor can make a prompt and correct diagnosis.

Allows the Legislature, by general law, to exempt all real and personal property used by non-profit water supply corporations or cooperatives from all property taxes. The exemption would apply only to such property as is reasonably necessary to conduct the business of a non-profit water supply corporation or cooperative.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to exempt from property taxes certain property used by a non-profit water supply corporation or a non-profit water supply cooperative."

BENT HOOKS, MISSED SHOTS and OTHER TALES

by Jim Alexander

Tracy Wood and Bob Weir certainly made a lot of bass fishermen happy this past weekend. Both Tracy and Bob are representatives of Creme Lure Co. and they were in Wichita Falls for two worm fishing shows. The pair doesn't present gimmicks or gadgets to be the secrets of catching a lot of fish; rather, they preach common sense. When you get right down to the nitty-gritty of the subject, common sense is what some of us use less than anything else. A very special thanks to Tracy and Bob for taking time from their busy schedule to appear for the benefit of some of us novice bass fishermen. A tip of the hat to some of the fellows that help make things more pleasant goes to Art Lavine, Sgt. Gary Teer, Pat Patterson, and the officers at Sheppard Air Force along with Jack Coltrain of the downtown Holiday Inn. Everyone that attended learned something of value from the demonstrations.

One of the more interesting dove hunts I have ever gone on took place this past Friday. Bill Naylor, Ed Oglesby, Nick Karr, Benny Clark, Frank Brandeberry, Virgil Stone, Jack Garrett, Cleatus Wolf, Jack Brewer, Johnny Cobb and Bill Greenroyd and myself all participated. What was so interesting was the bag limits. Jack Garrett, 14 years old and apparently destined to become one of the top hunters in this area limited out with ten birds in record time. Frank Brandeberry always puts on a good show, and this time he did it with some spectacular shots. When Ed Oglesby emptied his bag it looked like he had been on a treasure hunt. A piece of baling wire, a broken insulator, three rusty staples, 9 dove, and 4 black crow feathers. Ed simply explained it this way: "There is more to life than shooting 62 times at those fast flying doves". Bill Naylor was caught stealing birds from the community pile to go with his three kills. Three birds out of four boxes of shells is really pretty good for Bill. With all of the shooting in his corner it sounded like "Pork Chop Hill" all over again. Benny Clark turned in 10 doves and 14 mosquitoes that he said "would bring 20¢ a pound at Neal Collier's livestock auction because they were so big." Nick Karr refused to let us count his birds, but he did ask for a cash refund on 7 empty cans of "Off". Nick swears that it doesn't work. Johnny Cobb and Bill Greenroyd hunted together and deposited at our feet 26 dove, of which 20 had been killed that afternoon, and 6 that had been dead for what we think over a week. They certainly cannot be called gamehogs. Virgil Stone had a days kill, no dove, two fence posts, four field dressed mosquitoes, 2 bullfrogs, and a rabbit's foot. Jack Brewer checked in with two rusty gas caps, a broken oil gage, 1 five pound carp sucker fish, 10 dove, and a cow skelton. Cleatus Wolf fired only one shot, made a clean kill and quit. He insisted that for the remainder of the season he would be shooting a thousand per cent. I do agree with him.

Hunts like this one are really worth going on, because of the fellowship, fun, and togetherness that comes from them. If you will notice I did not report on myself, and there's a reason. I was the first one to arrive at the camp, and I'm writing this story so that should answer your question.

On a personal note I will be joining Jim Hill and the gang at K.L.U.R. FM Radio this week, and I'm certainly looking forward to it. Jim has promised to teach me to sing, if I will in turn teach him to fish. This is the type arrangement I have been looking for a long time. If I can only keep my wife from talking with Jim I'll have it made. She doesn't think I can catch anything, but as long as Hill doesn't know that, I'm in like Flynn. Mum's the word.

Glenn Phillips Named Director

Glenn Phillips, 34, has been named Wichita County executive director of the ASCS office in Iowa Park.

Phillips, who trained in Jayton and Seymour, fills a post vacated in April with the resignation of Scotty Odem. Mrs. Polly Struill has been serving as action director.

Phillips was reared in Munday and attended Ahlberg Christian College two years and then graduated from Sam Houston State with a B.S. degree in agriculture. He has worked 5 1/2 years for the SCS, taught school for 5 1/2 years and has been with ASCS 1 year.

His wife, Nikki, is presently teaching school in Seymour where their two children, age 10 and 11, attend. The family will move to Iowa Park in January at mid-term in the school year.

Phillips, who is presently working out of the Wichita County office, urged farmers to sign up for the new farm program. "They can plant all they want, but must keep their allotments and this requires signing up at the county ASCS office," he said.

The county contains 1,500 work sheets which is a rough estimate of farms in the county.

Guidelines of Life

by Lamoin Champ, pastor, First Baptist Church

A friend of mine told about working with a carpenter who said he didn't need God. While the men were working one day on a high roof, the skeptic lost his grip, began to roll toward the edge, and in the progress, began to cry to God to save him. Just before he was about to roll over the edge and fall from a great height, his clothes caught and his fall was stopped. Suddenly he found himself embarrassed because he had called on God and the men in the crew had heard him. So he quickly said, "That's alright God, I can help myself now."

Multitudes are like the man - calling on God in times of need, sickness and sorrow but failing to show gratitude in a changed way of living.

Two quotes state this truth: "It is a poor religion that is never strong except when the owner is sick"; "Some people never think of religion until they come in sight of a cemetery".
