

PARADE FRIDAY STARTS HOMECOMING EVENTS

Two days of events have been planned by ex-students and school officials for Burk Burnett High School's homecoming which will be this Friday and Saturday.

The event will open Friday afternoon at 2:30 with a "World of Disney" parade. Themes of individual floats are being built by high school classes. The celebration will continue through Saturday with a closing banquet on Saturday night.

The floats in the Friday parade will feature Babes in Toyland, senior class; Disney-land, junior class; Jungle Book, sophomore class; and Peter Pan, freshman class.

The parade will include decorated cars and floats sponsored by school clubs and the Burk Burnett High School Band under the direction of Jim McClain.

Also included will be the crowning of the Homecoming Queen during half-time ceremonies of the Bulldog-Weatherford football game Friday night. Nominees for Homecoming Queen this year are: Karen Paulson, Shelly Moore, Gail Cullison and Eva Mataska.

The schedule of activities is as follows:

FRIDAY, OCT. 12
4:00-7:00 P.M. Open house and registration in High School Library & pick up banquet and football tickets.

Viavattene Appointed

Assistant Postmaster

Postmaster W.T. Zimmerman announced today the appointment of Joseph C. Viavattene as Assistant to the Postmaster. "This is indeed a well-deserved promotion for this dedicated postal employee," stated Zimmerman.

Viavattene has 29 years of government service, 22 of which have been in the Burk Burnett Post Office. He and his wife, Edie, reside at 735 West Third Street. They have one son, Eddie.

Viavattene is an active member of the First Methodist Church, member of the Board of Stewards, Methodist Men, helped with MYF and youth trips. He is also a charter member of the Swim Club, American Legion, past president of the Optimist, being secretary-treasurer the past six years. He has assisted in the activities of the Youth Center, Little League Baseball and other youth projects. Viavattene is both a veteran of World War II and the Korean conflict.

Zimmerman also announced that due to this promotion, he was able to request the re-assignment of Mr. D.M. Roark, Jr., who was recently declared surplus, to this office.

Joseph C. Viavattene

POLICE REPORT

School Board Approves Addition

The Burk Burnett School Board met Monday night and approved an 800-square foot addition to the dressing area for the junior high, and also agreed to the payment of up to $300 for wiring the band hall to handle air conditioning units to be donated by the Band Parent's Club.

The board set a reimbursement figure of 41 cents per mile for the use of school buses for extra-curricular activities. They also hired Mrs. Bobbie Kee and Mrs. Judy Baker as teachers aides in kindergarten.

Raymond Smart, tax officer showed September collections of taxes to be $29,577, which is about 10 percent of the current tax roll of $279,046.

It was announced that the area Schoolmaster's Club would have a dinner meeting on Wednesday at the Burk Burnett High School cafeteria, with General David W. Winn, commander of Shepard AFB Technical Training Center, the guest speaker.

Chamber Sends Out Ballots

Ballots for the annual election of directors of the Burk Burnett Chamber of Commerce are being distributed to Chamber members this week, according to Raymond Greenwood, Chamber manager.

Five new directors are to be selected from a slate of ten nominees, including Francis Beaver, Randy Clement, Reelford Darter, Don Hellman, Wilma Sykes, Billy Ray Mize, Harry Elliott, Joe Wolfe, Quaid Richberg and Don Holtzen.

Retiring directors, who served as a nominating committee, include F.R. McCandless, J. B. Riley, Jr., Dale Lewis, C.J. Lippard and John Gill.

Ballots are to be returned to the chamber office by Oct. 31, Greenwood said. New directors will take office in January.

County Employees

Receive Pay Hike

The Wichita County Commissioners met Monday and approved a $3.8 million-plus budget for 1974 and along with the budget increase a salary increase for county officials and employees, which will total $42,095.

Action was delayed on proposed applications to the Texas Criminal Justice Council, seeking funds for the county's probation department.

The tax rate was also set for 1974 at $1.05 per $100 valuation; this is the same rate that has been in effect since 1962. The county will take two cents from the sinking fund and put into the general fund in order to maintain the same rate.

The Commissioners also voted to pay election workers $2 per hour for the November 6 election and named seven persons to fill vacancies in the election judgeships.

County's First Bale Of Cotton

The county's first bale of cotton was ginned last week at the Farmers Coop in Burk Burnett with Jack Crossland of Grandfield receiving premium checks for bringing in the first bale.

James Easter, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Agri-Business Committee presented a $25 check from the Chamber. E. G. Earp, manager of the gin also presented Crossland with a $25 check from Farmers Cotton Company. In addition to the premium checks, Crossland also received free ginning of the first bale from the Co-Op.

Crossland planted his cotton on May 2 and estimated he would have a bale an acre. Bill Potts did the planting, Larry David defoliated and Carl Hickey was stripping the cotton last week. The cotton sold for 51.5 cents a pound.

City Receives Sales Tax Check

The City of Burk Burnett has received a check from the State Comptroller for $18,967 as their part of sales taxes collected for the second quarter of 1973.

This figure compared to receipts of 1969 almost has doubled; in that year the city's second quarter check was for $9,938.

Other 1973 second quarter amounts in this area are: Childress, $19,217; Electra, $11,752; Henrietta, $7,748; Iowa Park, $11,222; Jacksboro, $14,734; Olney, $11,109; and Quanah, $13,950.

Rotary To Serve Chili And Stew Before Game

The Burk Burnett Rotary Club annual Chili and Stew Supper will be held prior to the Homecoming Game, Friday, October 12.

Everyone is invited to eat with the Rotary Club before going to the game. The supper will be held in the high school cafeteria from 5:30 to 7 that evening.

Proceeds from the supper will go into the Rotary Club scholarship fund.

Tickets are $1.50 each.

Rusty Barrett boots one of his many extra points in Friday's romp over Grah. Rusty connected for 4 of 5 extra points. The only one he missed was on a fumble where Barrett himself picked up and passed for a 2-point conversion.

Bulldogs Put Big Romp On Graham

The Bulldogs took a big victory over the Graham Steers Friday night, 38-7.

Naturally Zac Henderson put in his usual excellent performance, along with Rusty Barrett. Rusty accounted for 4 of those points directly and 2 more indirectly. Benny Wilkinson went in for 6 on a five-yard run. At the start of the second quarter, Graham's Bobby Tate took a pass from their Q.B. Abel for 6, and the extra point was good.

Bark wouldn't stand for this, so they didn't. The 'Dogs caught Abel in the end zone for a safety. This left the score at the half 9-7, in favor of the Bulldogs.

The rest of the game belonged to the 'Dogs with four more T.D.'s to come with Benny Wilkinson putting six more on with a 40-yard run. Barrett's kick was good.

Again it was Q.B. Wilkinson time with another 5-yard run.

For the extra point this time, the football fans had a real good show by tackle - quarterback Rusty Barrett. The ball was snapped to holder Jimmy Koulatos who, because of the ball being wet, fumbled it. Barrett picked up the pigskin and lobbed a pass to Mike LaBrie for a 2-point conversion.

The last 2 scores came on a 2-yard run by Zac Henderson and a 28-yard run by Jimmy Koulatos.

everything went right. No called-back TD's and Barrett converted everytime as usual.

In last week's games the scores came like this: Iowa Park, 14; Vernon, 3; Hirsch, 9; Brownwood, 7; Burk, 38; Graham, 7.

The 'Dogs take on Weatherford this Friday at 8:00 p.m. for the BHS Homecoming. Look for a good game. See you there.

Romp 'Em 'Dogs!

Dillard Named Girl Scout Drive Co-Chairman

The Burk Burnett Girl Scout Fund Drive will get underway Friday, October 12th with a kick-off coffee at the National Room at 10 a.m.

Judith Henderson, executive director of the Nor-Cen-Tex Council of Wichita Falls, will be in charge of the meeting. At this time the workers will pick up their cards and be told how to fill them out.

The Drive will be held October 15-20 in conjunction with all other non-United Fund Communities in the Council.

Mr. Albert Dillard has been named co-chairman of the Fund Drive by Mrs. Robert Norris, chairman.

Mr. Dillard is President of the First Savings & Loan in Burk Burnett and also the Orchid Branch in Wichita Falls. He has been active in civic affairs, having been on the City Council and is a past President of Southside P.T.A.

The Dillard's have three children. Their daughter, Tori is a Junior Girl Scout active in Troop 25.

Also assisting with the downtown area will be Mr. Vernon Duncan and Mr. Gary Owen.

HALLOWEEN

Chamber To Sponsor Contest

Plans were announced this week by the Retail Trades Committee of the Burk Burnett Chamber of Commerce for the upcoming Halloween costume parade and poster contest.

The event, according to Joe Gillespie, chairman of the committee, is open to youths in the elementary schools of Burk Burnett.

The costume parade will be held at 4:15 p.m. on Halloween afternoon, Wednesday, October 31. The parade is open to youngsters in the Burk Burnett School Systems that are 12 years of age and under.

Out of town judges will select a group of finalists from which three winners will be chosen. First place prize is $10, second $5, and third $2.

Those entering in the parade will meet at the old Ice House at N. Avenue E and E. Third Street.

The Halloween poster contest is open to youngsters in grades 1 through 6. They will be divided into 3 separate groups: Grades 1 and 2, 3 and 4, 5 and 6. First, second and third place prizes will be awarded in each group.

Local teachers will be asked to judge or have their class judge their entries and to send the top three from their class to the Chamber office. These posters then will be divided into the proper age groups and will be judged by Chamber officials.

Winning posters will be displayed in the windows of local merchants through Halloween. The posters are to be turned into the Chamber office by Oct. 25.

Prize money for each of the three groups will include First Place, $8; Second Place, $2; and Third Place, $1.

The posters may be any size up to the poster board size and may depict any Halloween theme the youngster would choose.

Texas Press Association
 AUSTIN, Tex.-- The third largest state oil and gas lease sale in Texas history brought more than $21.4 million to the state permanent school fund and boosted its total above $1 billion.

Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong said the sale further may be the "most significant" ever conducted by the state, since it "marks beginning of a new concept in management of mineral resources."

Of 1.3 million acres in 1,712 tracts of state land offered for sale from border to border, more than 392,886 acres were leased at an average of $54.65 an acre for oil and gas purposes.

For the first time, leases contain a new "in kind" provision which allows the state to accept its one-sixth royalty (where there is production) in oil or gas for resale, as well as in cash.

Armstrong said new pollution control regulations are written into the leases to protect the environment while drilling continues. Additional regulations were imposed to protect the Padre Island National Seashore.

Gulf tracts attracted more than $16 million of the bonus payments, but tracts $4.5 million and upland leases the balance.

The School Land Board leased 1,440 acres in the Gulf off the mouth of the Sabine River, in spite of a state of Louisiana protest that the area may be within its boundaries. Tracts off Matagorda Island were also leased over protest of the Air Force which has a bombing range in that region. Bid on one of six Gulf tracts which the federal government protested for inclusion in the sale was held in abeyance. The U.S. says it may own the tracts due to shoreline erosion.

CONCON PUBLIC INFO COMMITTEE MEETS--An all out effort to get the news and information about the 1974 Texas Constitution Convention is being planned by a legislative committee headed by Rep. Tim Von Dohlen, Goliad. Rep. Dohlen met with legislators and newsmen last week to discuss a public information office for the ConCon where all news media can get complete information about the convention.

The office will set up in the capitol building as close to the convention hall as possible, Von Dohlen said, and asked reporters how they wanted the information bureau set up for maximum efficiency for all media.

SCHOOL TAXES UP--According to a Texas State Teachers Association survey, 44 per cent of local school district officials responding to a survey said local school tax increases were necessary this year to balance budgets.

Seventy-five percent said TSTA, responded that they will have to raise local taxes in 1974-75 to keep programs at present levels. Twenty-nine percent said programs had to be curtailed this year.

AG OPINIONS--Signboards planted on private land should be treated for condemnation purposes as though they were owned and erected by the landowner regardless of private agreements on leases, Atty. Gen. John Hill held.

In other opinions, Hill concluded: Portions of the new Campaign Reporting and Disclosure Act of 1973 setting up state and county election commissions are unconstitutional, but validity of other portions is not affected. Balance of the act will be enforced, Secretary of State Mark White Jr. said.

New law bringing most Texas coastal waters under the uniform wildlife regulatory act does not supercede penal provisions governing seining. It does not cause the Parks and Wildlife Department to lose regulatory authority over shrimp in Cameron, Brazoria, Jackson, Willacy, Jefferson or Orange counties.

Gillespie County retains title to its county roads dedicated more than a century ago, except where they have been fenced by landowners continuously for 20 years and are not reasonably necessary to reach adjoining land.

The county judge of Hill County may not also serve as veterans county service officer.

A court reporter's salary should be paid by counties of a district on a scale fixed by the district judge.

Texas Amusement Machine Commission jurisdiction over coin machines on federal bases depends on terms of cession agreements and appropriate state law. If located on land not ceded to the U.S. and acquired with non-appropriated funds, commission jurisdiction will be complete.

A tape of testimony of Dallas vending machine magnate R.B. Williams before a 1969 House committee can be released under the open meetings law. However, Hill retained some of the committee files submitted to him for further study as to whether they may be confidential.

An act of the 1973 Legislature creating mass transit authorities with power to levy motor vehicle emission taxes is constitutional.

The open records bill does not permit public disclosure of birth and death records filed with county clerks, and certain portions of the Artesia Hall child care facility file are not subject to disclosure under the same law.

COURTS SPEAK--Directors of the $127 million Moody Foundation did not have authority to increase the board membership.

The Court of Criminal Appeals upheld the 10-year prison sentence given a Pecos man in the 1971 slaying of his parents. The Parks and Wildlife Department will appeal a $303,667 Gillespie County commission award for 131 acres of land condemned for Lyndon B. Johnson State Park inclusion.

HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT CITED--For the third time in six years, Texas Highway Department received top national honors from Discover America Travel Organizations Inc.

The Department took the 1973 award for its Infobord program in highway rest areas picturing scenic, historic and recreational features. A total of 188 Infobords are contemplated over the state.

WATER PROGRAM APPROVED--The Texas Water Quality Management program has been approved by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency.

The state program had to meet federal water pollution control act requirements for Texas to receive $1,200,000 in federal funds to assist with operation of the state program. BOLLWORM DEADLINE EXTENDED--Deadline for cotton stalk destruction in the pink bollworm control program in the Lower Rio Grande Valley and five Coastal Bend counties was extended to October 15.

Agriculture Commissioner John C. White extended the deadline for clean-up operations in Nueces, Bee, San Patricio, Kleberg, Jim Wells, Cameron, Willacy, Hidalgo and Starr counties due to rains which upset planting and plow-up schedules.

SHORT SNORTS Governor Briscoe asked that Fort Bend County be declared a disaster area as a result of floods and requested federal aid for flood-damaged Hidalgo, Guadalupe and Wilson counties.

The State Textbook Committee began a new series of meetings here on October 9 to select $1.8 million worth of new textbooks.

U.S. Sen. John Tower promised efforts to expedite a Laredo request for a permit to build a new international bridge across the Rio Grande. No decision is expected before January.

A significant cut in production of Texas farm crops and livestock is seen in 1974.

A governor's conference on rural development is slated here October 23.

A new state agriculture department office has opened in Dallas to serve Dallas, Ellis, Collin and Grayson counties.

State park visitors during the winter months must limit their stays to 28 consecutive days.

Sheppard AFB Fuel Reduction Noted

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS-- A nine per cent fuel reduction goal has been established for government motor vehicles at Sheppard, reports Major Donald L. Seamands, chief of Transportation Division, 3750th Maintenance and Supply Group.

For Sheppard, this means that based on past fuel consumption, a reduction of about 2,800 gallons per month must be made.

Major Seamands noted that all commander, vehicle control officers, and vehicle operators are encouraged to lend continued support to the base's Fuel Conservation Program so the goal can be met.

Air Training Command headquarters had called for an 8.4 percent minimum goal for all command bases.

WASHINGTON REPORT

from Congressman

BOB PRICE

New gasoline price ceilings under the President's Phase IV Economic Program should now be posted on all retail gasoline pumps, Congressman Bob Price said today.

The 13th District Congressman said he had received numerous requests from gasoline retailers as how to comply with the Phase IV regulations.

"The Cost of Living Council reports that gasoline retailers need only to add the increase in the price ceiling to the stickers which have been mounted on gasoline pumps since September 8th," Price said. "No other change should be necessary unless gasoline with a different octane rating is now being sold through that pump."

The stickers provided by the Council to retailers last month carry information as to the retail price ceiling and the octane rating. Under Phase IV regulations, retailers may charge less but not more than the ceiling price posted.

4-H, FFA Steers Weigh-In Friday

by Bill Lucas
Extension Director
Walters, Oklahoma

All 4-H and FFA steers entered in the Commercial Calf Class must be weighed in at 3:30 p.m. at the Temple Show Barn, Friday, October 12.

Calves must be lotted before 8:00 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 11 at the Temple Show Barn. They will receive fresh water and prairie hay. Hay and water will be removed from the pen at 8:00 A.M. Friday, Oct. 12.

Calves will be placed on feed for 140 days. They must gain at least 2 lbs. per day and weigh at least 900 lbs. for carcass competition. Carcasses grading choice and prime will place over carcasses grading lower.

On foot placing will receive 10 points. Efficiency of gain, 45 points and carcass desirability will receive 45 points.

An Oklahoma State University agronomist is predicting the shortages of fertilizer which hampered planting of fall crops will carry over into the spring and early summer of 1974.

Another tip—don't put nitrogen on legumes. "You seldom get much response and when you do, it's seldom profitable," he says.

The reasons for the shortages of plant foods are "many and varied," says OSU Extension Agronomist, Dr. Billy Tucker. "There's the fuel shortage, and it requires fuel to manufacture nitrogen. Then, there's the demand. The release on set-aside conservation acres to planting has increased the demand for fertilizer tremendously, particularly in the corn belt."

"And there's the devaluation of the American dollar," Tucker continues. "There's a strong export demand because of the price differential in favor of exports."

He also mentions the capacity to manufacture phosphoric acid being below present demand, a situation which will not change before 1975.

But, according to Bill Lucas, the situation is not all that bleak. "Farmers can do some things to help themselves get the most out of available fertilizer supplies," he says.

First, he suggests a soil test to indicate exactly what nutrients are needed. This will help avoid putting down fertilizer where it is not needed.

Another tip—don't put nitrogen on legumes. "You seldom get much response and when you do, it's seldom profitable," he says.

And, he suggests planting crops with high nitrogen demands on land following legumes. Sorghums plowed-out alfalfa land, for instance.

Burkburnett 4-H Club

Holds Meeting

by Tam Garland
The Burkburnett 4-H Club met Tuesday, Oct. 2 in the Community Room of the Burk Bank.

The club elected officers. President is Robert Bentley; vice-president, Larry Roderick; Pam Duncan, secretary and treasurer; and Tam Garland, reporter. Permanent installation of officers for the year will be on Thursday, Oct. 18 in the Burkburnett Community Room of the Burk Bank at 7:00 p.m.

Adult leaders for the 4-H year are Sonny and Rosemary Bentley.

Rural Youth Day Fair will be held in Dallas Saturday, Oct. 13. Also on Saturday there is a fun dog show to be held at the 4-H barn in Wichita Falls. Categories will be: Longest ears, longest tail, and many others. There will also be 3 mystery categories. Prizes will be given to all winners.

The achievement banquet will be on November 3. Schools are also planning to have a 4-H program.

Hope to see you all at our next meeting Thursday, Oct. 18 in the Community Room at 7:00 p.m.

County Agent News

B.T. HAWS

Seeding stands of small grains are extremely susceptible to the damage caused by the fall armyworm and yellow-striped armyworm. As fall temperatures begin to drop, the foliage of other hosts such as grasses, grain sorghum, alfalfa, peas, beans and cotton becomes less attractive and increased damage by these armyworms to stands of small grains can be expected.

The larval stages of these armyworms lasts about 20 days and their pupal stages are passed in the soil. Both moths lay eggs in masses on the foliage of host plants.

When large numbers of these armyworms are present, small grain stands can be severely damaged in a period of a few days. To prevent excessive stand loss, young stands of small grains should be inspected every three to four days prior to frost.

The need for insecticidal control measures should be determined based on the damage caused to the foliage of young small grain plants. Insecticides are most effective when applied against small larvae. Large larvae are more difficult to control. Several applications of an insecticide may be needed.

Information on various insecticides that might be used to control these armyworms is contained in MP-339, "Suggestions for Controlling Insects and Mites on Corn Sorghum and Small Grains." This publication is available at the County Extension Office.

The Wichita Falls 4-H and FFA Project Show will be held Saturday, October 13, in the 4-H Barn in Wichita Falls. All animals are to be in the barn by 8:30 a.m. The barn will be open at 7 a.m. to receive the animals. Ribbons and trophies and prize money will be awarded and sponsored by the Wichita Falls Board of Commerce and Industry.

The date of the annual Wichita Falls Junior Beef Show has been set for February 5-8, 1974 in the 4-H barn. The show is sponsored by the Wichita Falls Jaycees. I know that this is a date that 4-H and FFA members in the North Texas and Southern Oklahoma area will want to put on their calendar.

The Wichita Falls Area Pecan and Food Show date has been set for November 29-30. The show will be held at the Lone Star Gas Company Auditorium in Wichita Falls. This show is for the commercial producers and especially for the homeowner who has one or two pecan trees in his yard.

The Eighth Annual Industrial Weed Conference will be held October 15-17 in the new Earl Rudder Conference Tower, Texas A&M University. If you are interested in attending this conference contact the County Extension Agent, or Wayne McCully, Conference Chairman, Department of Range Science, Texas A&M University, College Station, Texas.

National 4-H Club Week

Conservation Poster, Essay Contest Slated

Conservation poster and essay contests will again be held in the tri-county area of Wichita, Clay and Archer Counties, it was announced this week. Fred Dwyer of Route 1, Wichita Falls, said that the contests are again being sponsored in the schools by the Wichita and Little Wichita Soil and Water Conservation Districts, the District Agriculture Workers Council, and the Women's Forum Garden Club of Wichita Falls. Dwyer is chairman of the Wichita SWCD Board of Directors.

He said the conservation poster contest will be open to students in grades three through six. Students are asked to draw posters showing any phase of conservation of our natural resources, such as soil, water, plants, wildlife, air, and minerals. Dwyer said the conservation essay contest will be for students ages 13 through 18. The subject for this year's essay contest is "Our Soil -- Our Strength".

Rules for both contests have been distributed to the schools. Dwyer said that ribbons and other awards will be presented by local Soil and Water Conservation Districts at the end of the contests.

Compiled From Sources Of The Texas Department of Agriculture
John C. White, Commissioner

HONEY is not so sweet in Texas this year as far as production goes. Even though production is down, the crop is sweet. But production is down 32 per cent in Texas from a year ago. Commercial apiaries had 81,000 colonies this year, the same as last year. But the average yield is expected to be 65 pounds per colony compared with 92 pounds in 1972.

Colony condition is poor this year due to late freezes and excessive rains in eastern parts of the state. Nationwide, honey production is about three per cent less than the commercial production in 1972. Yield per colony is expected to average 74 pounds, up slightly from 1972.

LIVESTOCK producers are reminded to continue to submit samples of suspected screwworms to the fly laboratory at Mission. The fall season is at hand, and screwworms increase infestations now until cold weather.

Consumer's Buying Less Expensive Beef

Due to higher prices, consumers have been buying less expensive cuts of meat--and less meat in general. Instead they're purchasing more meat alternatives.

"As a result, our present meat consumption (per capita) is running fully 10 per cent below 1972--at the lowest level in nearly seven years," according to Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, consumer marketing information specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

However, this week finds meat counters mostly full with a wide variety of cuts to select from, she added.

"In general, look for best beef buys on chuck roasts and steaks, round steaks, ground beef and liver.

"Fresh pork, on the other hand, is in greater supply and usually a good value. Boston butt roasts, shoulder and rib chops, shoulder steaks, quarter-loins sliced and small picnic are featured in some markets."

The specialist noted that fryer chickens usually present bargains when purchased whole and cut-up at home.

"Egg supplies continue ample with prices lower than a couple of weeks ago. Watch for more medium-size eggs in stores.

"Salad lovers will have no problem building a meal--in one these days," Mrs. Clyatt continued.

"Combine lettuce and other greens, celery, green peppers, radishes, onions and tomatoes. Add cold cuts, cheese strips, hard cooked eggs or cooked fish for protein.

"Salads of this type offer appetite appeal and stretch protein dollars."

Vegetables in good supply at the most economical prices include head lettuce, celery, collards, mustard greens and cuscaw. Also carrots, tomatoes, green peppers, squash, dry yellow onions, cucumbers, potatoes, sweet potatoes and rutabagas.

"This week also finds several varieties of grapes in good supply and the first of a large cranberry crop on their way to market," the specialist said.

"Plums, prunes, bananas, nectarines, pears, oranges, grapes, cantaloupes and watermelons offer the best fresh fruit buys."

"Peaches, however, are about gone for the season," she added.

County Extension Agent

What do you know about beef quality? Can you compare two beef cuts of the same type for example two sirloin, chuck or rib steaks and pick out the better eating one?

It's easy when you know what to look for. Just look for the U.S. Department of Agriculture's quality grade mark. It's a reliable guide to beef eating quality. If you understand what the grades mean, you can select for quality with ease.

There are eight USDA beef quality grades: (1) Prime, (2) Choice, (3) Good, (4) Standard, (5) Commercial, (6) Utility, (7) Cutter, and (8) Canner. Each of these grades represents a difference in degree of tenderness, juiciness, and flavor. Since the top three grades, Prime, Choice and Good, cover most beef produced for sale as fresh cuts in supermarkets, these are the grades the wise shopper should clearly understand.

However, tenderness varies according to cut as well as quality grade. Quality grades only indicate differences in eating quality between the same type of cuts from the same section of a beef carcass. Retail cuts from the chuck and round will be less tender than cuts from the rib and loin regardless of the quality grade.

Bearing that in mind here is a brief description of the differences between sirloin steaks in the top three quality grades to show you the relative differences between each grade:

A sirloin marked USDA Prime offers you the ultimate in tenderness, juiciness and flavor for a sirloin. It has abundant marbling, flecks of fat within the lean, which enhances both the flavor and juiciness.

A sirloin graded USDA Choice is very tender, juicy and flavorful. It has slightly less marbling than Prime, but is still of very high quality. Choice is the grade most commonly found in supermarkets.

Farm Bureau Annual Meeting Oct. 16

The Wichita County Farm Bureau will hold its annual meeting October 16 in the A.S.C. Building in Iowa Park beginning at 7:30 p.m., according to Norman Roberts, president of the county organization.

Every Farm Bureau family is invited to attend. Loys D. Barbour, T.J. Pace, Sr., and Raymond Schroeder have been selected to serve as a nominating committee for officers and directors.

The president will report on the accomplishments of the year. Reports from all committees will be heard. The 1972 membership figure was 925 and the 1973 membership is expected to show a good gain.

Queen Lee Ann Childers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Childers of Rt. 2, Iowa Park, will be presented to the group.

Miss Childers will represent District III in state competition in Abilene, Dec. 2-5. Two high school students, Cathy Moore and Walter Harvey, will make short reports on the TFB high school citizenship seminar held on campus of Baylor University in July.

Resolutions made in a county meeting will be presented to the group for discussion. The recommendations will be adopted or rejected by voting of Farm Bureau membership. Gordon Parkey will preside over this session.

Refreshments and door prizes will close the evening's activities. A safemark tire, battery, 5 fire extinguishers and other gifts will be given away to lucky Farm Bureau members.

President Roberts urges all Farm Bureau families to attend.

4-H Growing In Popularity

by Dee James
County Extension Agent
Wichita County

It is no secret... 4-H is growing in popularity throughout Texas and in the nation as the Number 1 youth organization. A record five million young people are participating in some phase of the 4-H program. And it's growth is no small wonder, as both youth and adult leaders have injected new life into some old program areas and have also developed new programs that reflect the excitement of today's rapidly changing world. Wichita County has 746 4-H club members involved in county clubs.

National 4-H Week -- Oct. 7-13 -- provides an opportunity for those in 4-H to renew their efforts for more active programs, perhaps redirect some aspects of ongoing programs, and also make a special effort to recruit new members. Wichita County 4-H Clubs are always actively recruiting new members and leaders.

All boys and girls between the ages of 9 and 19 are eligible to join, and there are many new exciting programs and project areas for individuals, regardless of their interests and backgrounds. 4-H is a youth development program of the cooperative Extension service focusing on the needs, interests, and concerns of young people. Behind the young people and lending their valued assistance are volunteer adult and junior leaders. Ninety-eight adult volunteer leaders work with the Wichita County 4-H Clubs and the numerous projects involving 4-H club members.

Theme of this year's 4-H Week observance is "4-H Gets It All Together".

The theme is appropriate, in that it shows 4-H as a complete program designed to aid in the growth and development of the youth of this country.

4-H is dedicated to building a better tomorrow by providing an active program in leadership and citizenship training. It also allows boys and girls to explore various career opportunities and to work toward improving their communities. 4-H club members can be involved in numerous projects including automotive care and safety, bicycle care and safety, career exploration, child care, citizenship, clothing, dog care and training, electricity, entomology, foods and nutrition, home improvement, horse care and training, horticulture, lapidary, leathercraft, livestock, money management, photography, veterinary science, and many, many more.

Wichita County community 4-H clubs hold regular monthly meetings. Project groups meet at other times during the month convenient for the 4-H club members and project leader. Two project groups have regular meetings throughout the year. The dog care and training group meets weekly on Monday and the 4-H club members are taking their dogs through obedience training. The 4-H horse clubs have regular monthly meetings and hold playdays on weekends. However, 4-H is not all work. There's plenty of time for fun and fellowship. Activities throughout the year, such as fairs, camps, playdays and picnics, provide plenty of opportunity for recreation and "just having a good time."

4-H can provide a challenging and exciting time during the years so important in the development of boys and girls. If you aren't already "getting in" on the 4-H action, do so now by contacting the county Extension office, 322-0721, extension 37 or 38.

Burk Riding Club Winners

Region 2
by Bobbie Klinkerman

Gee, this Burk Club had really been busy this month. First we went to the Rodeo at Vernon and helped in the concession stand and shutes. We rode in the parade and received a beautiful plaque for third place. Working from the club were Frank and Sandra Smith, Bill Hoover, Wendell and Dreda Goins, Sandi and Delton Jackson, Gavin and Garen, Janie and Kenny Roberts, Terry and Pam Baber, Bill Hoover and Cendy, Elmer and Bobbie Klinkerman and Joy Ann and Ray Charboneau.

The Burk Club went to the Nocona Rodeo and parade. Only a few went but we enjoyed it anyway.

We have just returned from the National Finals. We really enjoyed every bit of it. We stayed on the grounds and most of our members camped out. We met some new people again this year. This is always something to look forward to.

Our members that placed in the finals were Patric Perkins, 1st place in Keyhole; Terry Holly, 2nd in Potato; J. C. Stewart, 3rd in Potato; Pam Baber, 3rd and Peggy Holderness, 4th in Barrels; Don Klinkerman 2nd and Joy Klinkerman 4th in Flag Race.

Pam Baber, 5th in Poles, Jan and Joy Klinkerman and Donna Klinkerman, 3rd. Sharon Johnson, Phillis Klinkerman, and Ann Charboneau, 5th in Baton Relay, Pam Baber and Linda Boren, 5th in Ribbon Race. Thirty points were made for our club and this helped Region 2 to win first place in points.

Region 2 also won the Sportsmanship Award. We were so happy to win this award. This is quite an honor. We really have some great members in our District and Region.

Our club wants to thank Mr. and Mrs. Dee Morgan for all of the hard work that they put into the Nationals. They are wonderful leaders. I add Mrs. Morgan because she is a wonderful hard working woman. Thank you both so much.

Our club had its monthly meeting last night. A lot of things are coming up.

We are so sorry that one of our members, Dee Cos, will be leaving us. She had worked hard for our club and been a good member. She will be going to Okinawa where she will be stationed for 18 months.

Our Club will have a playday Oct. 14th. Register at 1:00 and ride at 2:00.

Bye, bye for this time.

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health

Accent on Health

J.E. PEAVY, M.D., Commissioner of Health

Falls account for almost one-third of all accidental deaths in the home.

Last year, some 8,000 people died from accidental falls in the home. Such accidents are not restricted to falls from one level to another but may be the result of a fall on a level surface.

Statistics indicate that more than half of these fatalities involved people over the age of 65. The elderly's impaired hearing, vision, and sense of touch, coupled with a possible lessened sense of balance and a certain degree of handicapped mobility, make them highly susceptible to accidental falls.

Officials at the Texas State Department of Health emphasize that many home accidental falls, especially among the elderly, can be avoided if forethought to safety is applied when building, remodeling, or rearranging your home.

For instance, many accidents could be averted if stairs were eliminated in home construction. While one-story single family homes successfully achieve the goal, increasing land costs unfortunately may necessitate the construction of multi-level housing.

So, it seems, stairs will be with us always. But they can and should be built with safety in mind. Dividing a one-story rise into two flights of stairs with an intervening landing should reduce the amount of injury by limiting the fall to less than one story. Also, stair treads and risers should be uniform in size. Handrails should be continuous, with double handrails when possible. This added safety precaution would provide a rail for both ascending and descending the stairs. The handrail should be small enough to be grasped easily.

Single steps are a very great hazard. Think of how many times you've over-looked single steps in an entrance sidewalk or between rooms, losing your balance as you unsuspectingly stepped down. If steps cannot be grouped to achieve the desired change in level, a ramp would be more useful. For elderly people, a railing alongside changes in level is essential.

Even minor changes in level constitute a hazard. If possible, it is desirable to eliminate the sill of the outside door. The sloping sill is, however, part of the weather protection--and if it is to be eliminated the entrance door will have to be protected by being set back in the house or by an extended porch.

The elimination of a change in level at the door is likely to increase slightly the cost of a home under construction, since additional space will be necessary for weather protection. Consideration should be given to such a procedure, especially if an elderly person is residing in the home.

A shift in level from one type of flooring to another can also be disturbing to those who are less coordinated than the average person, and thus floor coverings should be chosen with safety in mind.

Much can be done in the bathroom to eliminate the falling hazard. If the floor of the tub does not have some slip-resistant treatment, such material should be applied. In addition, a number of sturdy grab bars are useful for getting in and out of the tub for support during the bathing operation. Similar supports are desirable for showers.

Attention should also be given to the selection of flooring materials to avoid slipping. An additional safety aid is to broom finish exterior sidewalks.

There are other safety features which can be implemented even if you're not building or remodeling, say state health officials.

Rearrange your storage so that frequently used items can be stored at levels that do not require stooping, reaching, or climbing. Well lighted stairways and frequently used rooms are essential. Keep furniture clear of traffic lanes, and, in the bedroom, leave an open path to the window and door in case of an emergency. Fix loose or torn carpeting, linoleum, and stair treads that could cause falls. Remove all scatter rugs at top of stairways and other rugs that slide easily on the floor.

Don't be an accident statistic.

Burk Riding Club Playday

DISTRICT 21
Region 2
by Bobbie Klinkerman
Gee, we have finished the district playdays for the year. We always enjoy every one of them.

Then the points are counted and J.C. and Liz Stewart keep in confidence who are the winners of the trophies.

Each year we have a banquet after the points are counted. This is such an exciting time for us all. We all dress up, some in western clothes and others in dressier things.

We had our banquet in the National Room and there were 97 reservations.

Frank Smith, who has worked so very hard this year guiding us through so many trying times, was Master of Ceremonies. He has served the Club the past two years and has done a great job.

After the meal, the big event came that we had been working and waiting for: the awards.

Winning awards were Pee Wee girls: 1st, Karla Brown, 2nd, Cindy Spanible, 3rd, Cindy Hoover, 4th, Trece Clemens.

Pee Wee Boys: 1st, Patrick Perkins, 2nd, Terry Holly, 3rd, Bryan Perkins, 4th, Kendall Hefley, 5th, Jay Hefley.

Jr. Girls: 1st, Joy Klinkerman, 2nd, Jan Klinkerman, 3rd, Donna Klinkerman, 4th, Danita Roberts.

Jr. Boys: 1st, Jay Holly, 2nd, Monty Ray Kemp, 3rd, Dennis Douglas, 4th, John Spanible.

Int. Girls: 1st, Vicki McFadden, 2nd, Janey Roberts, 3rd, Wendy Holderness, 4th, LeAnn Kenny, 4th, Nancy Good.

Sr. Woman: 1st, Pam Baber, 2nd, Linda Boren, 3rd, Dee Cox, 4th, Bobbie Klinkerman, 5th, Sandi Jackson.

Sr. Men: 1st, Cecil Brown, 2nd, J.C. Stewart, 3rd, Wendell Goins, 4th, S.A. White, 5th, Don Roy Klinkerman.

This completes the awards in the playday events.

Frank gave special awards of thanks to Mrs. Dreda Goins and Irene Griffin for helping him through the years.

Special guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Hurley McClung. Hurley is our regional president and he has done a wonderful job in the region.

The district had a directors meeting and elected new officers that will serve in 1974. President is Robert Brown; vice-president, Elmer Klinkerman, secretary and treasurer, J.C. Stewart and Liz; and reporter, Bobbie Klinkerman.

Midget Football

The annual general meeting of the Burk Burnett Midget Football League will be held Monday, October 15, 7:30 p.m. in the Reddy Room (Texas Electric Service Company building). A report of the activities of the organization will be given followed by a question and answer period. Election of officers for 1974 will be held. It is important parents of children active in the program this year or who are interested in participating next year attend the meeting. This week the games will be played on Hayes Field with kick-off time 6 p.m. for the American League (8-10 years old) and 7:30 p.m. for the National League (11-13 years old). The Eagles play the Missiles from Sheppard Air Force Base, Wednesday, Oct. 10 and the Oilers meet the Longhorns Thursday, Oct. 11. Admission is free and a concession stand will be open.

On the other hand is the gal who loves to rough it in a ten thousand dollar camper complete with central heat and air.

In either case I applaud the gal for going and being a part of the trip. When you fellows stop and think about it, wives are the foundation of America. They stand for everything that's good for the family. Normally they are the first ones up in the morning, and the last one to bed at night. A big percent are also working wives, and not only do they take care of you, but they care for the kids, the home, the in-laws, the budget, family friends, and your ole hunting and fishing buddies. What it boils down to is that most wives are neglected and mis-treated. I purpose that you hunters and fishermen invite your wives on your next trip, let them share your experiences with you. Show them that you do know they are alive. I think that it will enhance your chances of getting to go more often.

I can't invite my wife on my next trip because it has already been planned, but for trips in the future, I will certainly see to it that she has at least the second invitation.

Junior High

Last Tuesday night, the B.H.S., 8th grade Bulldogs battled the Vernon Lions to a 14-0 win. This win leaves the 8th graders undefeated so far this season.

Charles Lewis, a spectacular tailback for the Dogs, scored both Burk touchdowns. One he scored on a 4-yard run and another on a 40-yard run. He also scored a 2-point conversion on his second T.D.

The Bulldogs also had two TD's called back due to penalties.

Some of the best plays that have been seen all season came from Q.B. Joe Horn, Scott Tucker at halfback and of course, tailback Charles Lewis offensively. Defensively it was Clifford Skelton at defensive end, Herbert Wall, Bill Patty at weak side linebacker, and his opposite strong side linebacker, Steve Stewart. The 8th grade defense has had no points scored on them all year.

Thursday, the 3rd and 4th team took on the City View team and they won 28-12.

The 7th graders luck was a little different Tuesday night as the Vernon Lions beat them 29-2.

Coach Willett didn't have much to say except, "We weren't ready to play ball."

Junior Varsity

Saturday morning the BHS J.V. went to Memorial Stadium in Wichita Falls to take a 34-12 licking from Rider.

The only two Bulldog scores came on runs by Bill Lindborn and Q.B. Tim Kormos.

Freshman

The B.H.S. freshmen traveled to Memorial Stadium last Thursday only to get hit hard by the Rider Raiders, 34-8. Q.B. Jimmy Edwards, and

The astro-turf gave the Dogs the most problem.

The J. V. goes back to Memorial Stadium again this Saturday morning at 10:00 a.m. to take on Hirsch.

Three Awarded Eagle Scout Awards At SAFB

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS--Eagle Scout awards were presented to three members of Troop 31 at Sheppard Air Force Base recently.

The court of honor was held in Chapel 2 annex at Sheppard Air Force Base. Presentations of the awards were made by Lee Hughes, chairman, House of Eagles, Northwest Texas Council in Wichita Falls.

The three were John Bina, son of Technical Sergeant Nadji Bina; Mike Bielefeld, son of Lieutenant Colonel and Mrs. Vilas Bielefeld; and Keith Kruger, son of Master Sergeant and Mrs. Donald L. Kruger.

All three are sophomores in high school and are honor students. They each have had extensive experience in troop leadership positions.

In the past I have written on many things from game wardens to snuff dippers. This week I would like to devote this column to the very person that makes the world turn. This person would be the "little wife". In one sense the wife is probably the most neglected soul in the world. I feel the wife only gets a very small amount of the attention that she deserves. She stays at home while the bread winner is out dunking minnows and chasing bird dogs. Most wives stay in the background while the better half receives the awards for the biggest bass for the year. What is never said or spoken is the fact that the wife is directly responsible for the award.

She was the one that rolled the hero out of bed so that he would be on time. The wife also was the one who made the coffee and sandwiches, and more than likely she helped pack the boat and car. She also made sure that all buttons were sewn back on, and the rips and tears were sewn up. When the alarm goes off at all hours of the morning and night she very quietly rolls out of bed and makes sure that her hero is dressed properly and warmly. She takes the kids to church, football games, and school activities, yet she very seldom gripes about it, at least not in the proportion that she should.

Wives can be bitter sweet when she wants to, and get what her heart desires in most cases, and never raise her voice. The wife takes a back seat to bosses, bankers, and good friends when it comes to invitations to go along. The wife is last on the long list of considerations when it comes to the cleaning of fish and game. It seems that hubby will clean the fish and game and give it away, but he sure fusses about cleaning it for the family.

Hubby will tell everyone how to cook the game, but never turns a hand to help his wife, and then throws a fit if it's not fixed to suit his taste. The wife has to listen to all sorts of tales about the great stalk, or how "Ole Blue" was just barely hooked in the upper lip and almost got away.

She hears tales of trials and tribulations and the endurance it takes to be a successful sportsman. Her ears burn with the stories of cold, wind, rain, heat, and how companions fouled up the best shot of the day. The hubby preys upon her sympathy in order to set the stage for the trip. The wife sits at home alone for many days and nights each year while the man of the house is chasing all over the country in pursuit of the great trophy. She stands by and watches him buy new hunting and fishing gear with her dress money that she had saved from the family food budget. She watches him trade guns and boats because his is out of date and a little loose at the seams. The little wife may have five thousand errands to run, but when her mate calls and tells her that he is "taking off work a little early" to go fishing, and be sure and have his gear ready, she always does. In some cases the big lug gets mad all over when arriving at his destination and finds that some lure was forgotten, but he never stops to think that he failed to tell her where the bait was hidden from the kids. It actually was his fault, but he would never admit it.

Wives comes in many different sizes, shapes, forms, and fashions. Some will be tall, lean, and lanky. Others will be short, stout, and wide.

Wives have a variety of tempers. Some will show their true nature immediately, while others just sit and simmer. The rare breed of wives are the ones that love to go with hubby and rough it in a tent, even if the weather is bad. These gals deserve some sort of medal because in some instances the husband makes it as hard as possible on her.

The BHS Freshman defense gives another all out try to stop the Rider Roudies scoring another touchdown.

Adventures Of Pioneer Cowman In Journal

The Smiling Blue Birds, under the leadership of Mmes. Raymond L. Brown, D.E. Hamilton and Gilbert Wasserzleher have chosen as their first service project to help beautify Hardin Park by cleaning and planting various shrubs and flowers. The group invites other groups to help them in this project. The plants are contributions of Berend Bros., Mrs. Mac's Greenhouse and Park Nursery.

Papa Jack Howenstine, the old cowman, trader and cockle-tur of the Wichita Mountains, was 85 when he died April 22, 1968. But the tales he spun are with us yet. The first of three parts of his stories, called "Papa Jack: The Adventures of a Pioneer Cowman," appear in the current issue of the Great Plains Journal published by the Museum of the Great Plains in Lawton.

Papa Jack's reminiscences include stories about the sod house in No Man's Land, running the Cherokee Strip, the cattle trail to Arkansas, cowmen and cowboys, practicing barbering and medicine, and pioneer blues. Weaving in and out of his tales are such towns as Liberal, Kansas, Fort Worth, Texas, Guymon, Hennessey, Enid, Arapaho, Apache, Lawton, and Cache, Oklahoma.

The tales -- in Papa Jack's own salty language begin: "I maybe done a lotta things wrong, but I kinda grewed with the country. I had a little experience. You name it. Papa Jack done it. Pioneer man. Rancher man. Broke cowboy. Tramp barber. Big trader on the Fort Worth cattle market. I done everything I wanted, and no son-a-buck ever had more fun doin' it."

The pioneer's tales are illustrated by western artist Robert Gartland of Lawton. After Papa Jack died, the announcer at the annual September Cache pioneer celebration entertained the barbecue crowds by reading all day from Papa's reminiscences, and there was a lot of laughing and elbow punching and thigh slapping, and everybody had a good time. Papa Jack's stories of his pioneer life were assembled by Paul McClung of Lawton, who himself was born on a Red River Texas ranch. Papa Jack suggested that his story be preserved, and that McClung put it together. McClung agreed, for here was a man whose life epitomized the tag-end of the great American adventure of moving West and dream of pionering. McClung's daughter, Jean, helped record many of the stories verbatim. Later she wrote: "Papa Jack shared his stories with me, but he shared, too, his disappointments and his friends and his Wichita Mountain sunsets and his roots. Later, we decided that when I got to be a doctor, I would take care of him so he could live to be a hundred. Looking back, I feel he had come to the conviction that the major task remaining to him in life was to fashion his wisdom into some sort of enduring gift. Much of what I did was merely to accept that gift."

Also appearing in this issue of the Great Plains Journal are the articles: "Claude-Charles Dutsner: A Review of his 1719 Journeys," by Mildred Mott

Wedel of Washington, D.C.; "A Prussian on the Plains: Baldwin Molhausen's Impressions," by David H. Miller of Cameron College.

The Journal sells for $2.50 per copy or may be received by subscription from the Museum of the Great Plains, P.O. Box 68, Lawton, Ok. 73501.

Guidelines of Life

by Ray C. Morrow, pastor, Calvary Baptist Church

Our theme for the month is "CHRIST IS COMING BACK--WHY?" The subject for this week's brief presentation is "CHRIST IS COMING BACK TO SUBDUCE ALL THINGS UNTO HIMSELF", Philippians 3:20-21.

God has purpose and plan in all that He does. He is not the author of the confusion that is in the world today, Romans 8:28-29, Cor. 14:33.

His first command and purpose and plan with mankind is that they should subdue all things, and have dominion over the works of God's hands, Genesis 1:27-28; Psalms 8:4-6 and share his glory.

But to the contrary, all mankind HAS SINNED, AND COME SHORT OF GOD'S GLORY", Romans 3:23; 5:12. In Adam man has forfeited all the rights and privileges that were given him. And instead of having dominion over "all things", we find man in a state of confusion and frustration - HIMSELF DOMINATED by "all things".

He is submerged in wars and rumors of wars, riots and rebellion, crimes and outlawry, sorrows and heartaches, sickness and death. His society is plagued with political upheaval, financial stress, racial strife, religious confusion and personal problems.

Surely, "We see not yet all things put under him" --- "but we see Jesus---", who paid for man's sin and forfeiture, to bring many sons into that ultimate glory of God, Hebrews 2:6-11. God's command to man to subdue and have dominion has not been abrogated. What we lost in Adam, we have more than regained in Christ, when we trust Him and are born again, Romans 8:15-19; I Corinthians 15:20-28.

Satan and his world shall not forever frustrate and defeat man. Our victory is in Christ, I Corinthians 15:57; Romans 8:37. He said He would come back. He is coming back to "PUT ALL ENEMIES UNDER HIS FEET". "The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death." I Corinthians 15:25-26.

This is the only real answer to a world torn by sin. Are you ready to meet Him?

Can anyone do what you do any better?

Probably not. All things considered you do what you do pretty doggone well. After all, no one has taken your job. And you're eating regularly. But...

But have you ever considered what doing your job just a little better might mean?

Money. Cold hard coin of the realm.

If each of us cared just a smidge more about what we do for a living, we could actually turn that inflationary spiral around. Better products, better service and better management would mean savings for all of us. Savings of much of the cash and frayed nerves it's costing us now for repairs and inefficiency.

Point two. By taking more pride in our work we'll more than likely see America regaining its strength in the competitive world trade arena. When the balance of payments swings our way again we'll all be better off economically.

So you see—the only person who can really do what you do any better is you.

America. It only works as well as we do.

WHEN IT COMES TO SAVINGS

There's one name on everybody's lips!

OURS Because for years we have been giving folks like you high interest rates and offering a choice of Savings Plans. Get the facts, soon.

Holiday Schedule Given

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS--Plans were finalized this week concerning the Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year holiday leave schedule and school closings.

According to Colonel T. B. Bueschler, director of plans and programming, training for the School of Applied Aerospace Sciences and the School of Health Care Sciences will be suspended Nov. 23 to allow for a four-day Thanksgiving weekend.

Classes will end at regular times Nov. 21 and since Nov. 22 is Thanksgiving day, no classes will be held that day.

Students and instructors were allowed to vote on whether they would rather have classes on the day following Thanksgiving or take that day off and make up the classes on a future Saturday. A majority indicated they prefer the four-day weekend.

Shuttle buses departing from the Recreation Center will take individuals to the Wichita Falls Municipal Airport to connect with flights for Dallas for the vacation.

Colonel Bueschler also pointed out that training will be suspended for both schools for the Christmas-New Year holidays from midnight, Dec. 20 to 6 a.m., Jan. 3, 1974. Students in training will be released at the conclusion of their normal training shift Dec. 20 and must return to the base in sufficient time to resume training at their normal shift time Jan. 3.

"The suspension of training will require four days of acceleration," stated the colonel, "on Dec. 21-24 and Jan. 1-2".

Students scheduled to graduate during and immediately after the holiday period may be accelerated to graduate Dec. 20.

California's original flag of independence was made with a piece of red flannel from a woman's petticoat.

Girl Scout Troop Attends 'Do-It-Yourself' Weekend

Bold Explorers in the New World was the theme of the annual Girl Scout Do It Yourself weekend at Quannah, Texas.

Burkburnett had 100% participation in the event with ten troops attending. Junior Troop 25 won second place for the best theme display. The girls display depicted Ponce De Leon's exploration of Florida and search for the Fountain of Youth. Their campsite and fountain were decorated with several hundred brightly colored flowers. Troop 25 had 21 girls attending under the leadership of Patrol Leaders, Donette Minors, Dana Lionber and Laura Fidalio.

Highlights of the event included the arrival of Burkburnett's own Pete Martin, alias Christopher Columbus, in a slightly out of control sailboat. Landing was accomplished with the assistance of the Texas React Team.

Touring the Mound of Knowledge the campers learned the finer points of various arts, crafts, nature sciences, outdoor living, first aid and how to eat cactus without getting stickers in their mouths. The First Aid came in handy when a Burkburnett mother discovered the cactus eating method wasn't foolproof and needed painful stickers removed from her tongue.

The campers were entertained during closing ceremonies by the Sheppard Air Force Base Blue Knight drill team and Red Baron Drum and Bugle Corp.

Hardin PTA To Meet Oct. 16

The Hardin PTA will meet October 16, 1973, in the Hardin Auditorium at 7:30 p.m.

The program will be presented by the Fourth Grade classes, under the direction of Mrs. Richardson, music teacher.

A door prize will be presented at the close of the meeting.

The nursery will be provided during the meeting.

Parents are urged to support their children, their school, and their teacher by regular participation in PTA.

Plans are underway for a FANTASTIC FUN NIGHT to be held October 20 from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. Advance tickets are available. Regular 10¢ tickets may be purchased in advance - eleven for $1.00. These may be purchased from Mrs. Cost, first grade building; Miss Clark, Mrs. McSpadden and Mr. Ray's office at Hardin.

Remember the Hardin PTA Skate Day to be held the last Saturday of each month from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. The PTA will receive 25¢ from each PTA skate pass that is used during this time.

Library Corner

The Burkburnett Library is open from 12 noon until 6:00 p.m. on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday; and from 10:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. on Saturday. It is closed Sunday and Monday. Books may be returned at any time in the "book-drop" in the wall of the building.

Books circulated from Jan. 1, 1973 to August 31, 1973 were 20,900. New and renewal library cards issued for the same period were 704.

Pupils of Mrs. Lavern Easter, art teacher in Southside Elementary School, have loaned some of their work for display in the library. These are colorful Chinese fish developed while studying line and color.

Reminisce while enjoying the pieces of "Depression Glass" in our display case. The exhibit was loaned by Mrs. Bill Pittard. Most of us have some of these "collector's items" at home and are unaware of it.

Non-fiction new on our shelves: HOW TO HOLD A GARAGE SALE - everything you need to know to make your sale easy, successful, and fun by James M. Ulman; AND THEN WE MOVED TO ROSENARRA - the art of emigrating - "hilarious" story by Richard Condon of his life abroad and final stay in Ireland; THE COMPLETE HOLIDAY COOKBOOK - menus, recipes, and ideas for special occasions; COMPLETE GUIDE TO PREPARING BABY FOODS AT HOME, by Sue Castle; THE COWBOYS, first volume in a Time-Life Series of the Old West; new editions of STANDARD FIRST AID and EMERGENCY FIRST AID, prepared and edited by the American National Red Cross; and JACKSON HOLE - the Grand Teton Country - by Frank Calkins. For those who enjoyed FOXFIRE I, we have FOXFIRE 2 - affairs of plain living.

New fiction by favorite authors: CALL IN THE NIGHT, by Susan Howatch; GANGWAY, by Donald E. Westlake; NETHERGATE, by Nora Lott; THE CURSE OF THE KINGS, by Victoria Holt; MILLIE, by E.V. Cunningham; and THE LAST OF THE SOUTHERN GIRLS, by Willie Morris.

A volume of the Americana Encyclopedia was dropped in this library's book-drop. Identify this book and pick it up at the library.

He, of the hairy face, writes again! Everyone keeps pointing out to me that the Henrietta Celebration is over and why do I still have the beard? Well, to be quite frank, it's grown on me!! Ho, ho, please excuse the bad joke, but I couldn't pass it up!!

I'm not much of a sports-writer, but I can't pass up the opportunity to write a tad about the MIGHTY BURKBURNETT BULLDOGS!! They do keep rolling along don't they?!! They racked up another victory last week against Graham, making the Bulldogs four and zero, 4-0... Undeclared for the season so far! They beat Graham by the score of 38 to 7, and sweetheart, that ain't bad scoring! This week the excitement builds up more and more as this is Homecoming week and just about everybody is going bananas for the Bulldogs!!!!

As I said, I'm not much of a sports-writer. So let's go on to other subjects that I may not know more about, but I at least can write more about them. "Them" being Movies... As a kid, my old man owned a movie house, as they were called then, in old Chicago, Illinois. While still in the toddling stage of your youth, I remember seeing all the movies that came there. Mainly we showed cowboy films--Buck Jones, Hoot Gibson, and my favorite then, Wild Bill Elliott!! Wild Bill, gosh, he wore his pistols backwards in his holsters, you never see that anymore, and he was a "peaceable man".

Even when he was shooting "baddies" right and left. Randolph Scott, he had a jawline that would make Dick Tracy look weak, was another favorite. Our theatre didn't go much for that love stuff in movies, if a guy kissed the girl it was only because the bad guys were all dead and his horse wasn't handy.

Charles Boyer and Ronald Coleman just didn't make it to our movie house in those days of yesteryear. The "Phantom" serials and "Nyoki" the jungle girl, my earliest recollection of women's lib, were the two top series running at the old "Fashion Theatre", our movie house's name, at that time.

An, NYOKI, I loved you not only for what you were but for what I was when I watched you performing all your derring-dostunts on the screen! You see, as you get older that love stuff begins to creep in, making you say things and feel things that, as a kiddo, you never even thought of! Well, Nyoki is probably a matron now, and I'm no spring chicken either but it was fun while it lasted....

This all leads me into writing about what you can see at your local theatre, the Palace Theatre in Burkburnett. As I looked over the coming attractions there recently, I thought about variety in films. The old days (ole rocking chair's got me), saw films divided into three basic formats: westerns, comedies and dramas.

Oh, there were love stories, but even they fit more into the drama department than any other. Nowadays, there are more and more formats for movies, some good and some bad. Well, maybe not "bad" as is beauty, bad is in the eye of the beholder, I think. I've seen some "wholesome family" pictures that were miserable and I've seen some that were R and X rated that were good; in the sense the story line was good or the acting was good.

I saw the "LAST PICTURE SHOW" and the "LAST TANGO IN PARIS" just to name two that were basically considered "bad" in the rating department. But both had something that was good. Acting, natural, real acting... the people in these films seemed just like you and I. They weren't all good or all bad... You and I aren't all one way or another. I do fifty bad things in a week, I do fifty good things. How do I classify myself good or bad?

That's people, the human animal, slightly weak, but always in there plugging. Lets get back to what I started to write about two or three paragraphs ago. The Palace Theatre has films ranging from the wholesome family types, "Treasure Island" or "Country Music" to, I believe, "The Third House On The Left".

"Treasure Island" stars one of the greats, Orson Welles, "Country Music" has Marty Robbins as the lead. The "Poseidon Adventure" is the next attraction. That's at the Palace Theatre here in Burkburnett.

The golf course is next. I know absolutely nothing about golf. I would be the last man to talk about golf, having never played the game. I'm told that golf is good exercise for a person and makes for good fellowship and the ninth hole is a great place to refresh yourself. It it's all that good, well, I say let's keep it as America's second national past-time. The only contact I've had with golf occurred many years ago, about when I was fifteen or so. I caddied, and, like many youngsters then, felt that this was the way I was going to become rich.

Caddies in my time and neighborhood made good money. I went and registered to caddy and waited with all the other boys, almost all day. Late on the first day my big chance came! I was to caddy for a Mr. May, a full 18 holes, lots of money, I'll bet... Mr. May and I did not hit it off. Really, I had waited all day and was tired and hungry. As we went along the course, I became thirsty, water fountains were available, and I stopped at as many as Mr. May would let me, which was about all of them, as I had perfected a convincing, whining, "Mr. May, can I get drink, please?" conversational gambit everytime we approached one of those "watering holes". I also realized for the first time in my life that I could not follow the golf ball once it was hit into the air!

I was surprised, but undaunted. Mr. May seemed to have that kind of luck in finally discovering where, in the rough, he had hit the ball. When we completed the full 18 holes and I held out my palm to receive the big tip that I felt I had earned by just carrying that heavy golf bag, Mr. May, bless him, tipped me fifteen cents!!

He also took down my caddy badge number, muttering something about making sure that he never got me again... I knew I had done wrong when the next day, Mr. May contributed $5,000 to a charitable organization without so much as a "here's what you can do for me" attitude. I gave up my caddying after that and never took up the game of golf either. I have been known to play a round of miniature golf occasionally, but even then I sometimes lose the ball.

Heading down the home-stretch there are a couple of things that I do want to mention before I close.

One thing is that I'm sorry that we are losing Kathy Jinkins as editor of the Burkburnett Informer/Star. She was the first newspaper editor that I ever saw that didn't have a cigar stub clenched between teeth barking out orders to stop the presses and get that story at any cost! (A big thank you to Hollywood for that image).

That's all for now. I rambled again, didn't I?!! Next time, I promise, I won't... maybe....

Highway Commission Approved Request

AUSTIN--The Texas Highway Commission today approved a request made by the City of Wichita Falls for the extension of Maurine Street westward to Loop 11. The Texas Highway Department will construct 0.2 mile of additional street provided the City of Wichita Falls agrees to certain right of way, adjustments of utilities and maintenance responsibilities required of local governments by the Department. Estimated construction cost to the Department for the extension is $51 thousand. The project will be included in the TOPICS program, a joint federal-state-city program for the increase of traffic capacity and safety on city streets.

DR. A. B. LIGHTFOOT

Dr. Lightfoot To Conduct Revival

Dr. A. B. Lightfoot, an evangelist from Kerrville will conduct revival services at the First Baptist Church starting Nov. 11 and continuing through Nov. 18, according to Rev. Lamoin Champ, pastor. Sunday services will be held at 10:40 and 6:30, evening services Monday thru Saturday at 7:30 except Friday evening which will be held at 6:30.

An internationally known evangelist, Dr. Lightfoot has conducted crusades throughout America and in Mexico, Guatemala, and Europe. He is also sought after for appearances in public school assemblies, civic club meetings and banquets.

He is a native of Santa Anna, Texas, and a graduate of both Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene and the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth. He has served as pastor of churches in Big Lake, Odessa, and Snyder, and as superintendent of missions for the Austin and Midland-Odessa, Texas Baptist Associations where he led in establishing 14 new churches.

In addition to his preaching ministry, Dr. Lightfoot is known also as a humorist and magician. His messages on Christianity are blended with humor. He emphasizes morality, patriotism and the Christian life through his magic presentations, adding a new dimension for helping people understand the message of the Bible.

His "magic with a message" programs for school assemblies have proven to be particularly popular with young audiences throughout America.

Mark Seay Appointed Post In Employers Insurance of Texas

DALLAS--Mark E. Seay has been appointed an agent in the personal lines division of Employers Insurance of Texas, it has been announced by Roy F. Cheatham, home office division manager.

Seay will operate the Mark Seay Insurance Agency at 2709 Halbert in Fort Worth, and be engaged in the sale of auto, fire, life and homeowners coverages.

Prior to joining Employers, Seay had had several years experience as an agent for a prominent life insurance company.

Born in Enid, Oklahoma, he graduated from Burk Burnett High School in Burk Burnett, Texas, and later attended Texas Tech University in Lubbock. Seay and his wife, Vicki Lynn, attend the Brentwood Church of Christ with their son, Mark Edward, Jr., age 8 months.

Retiring Air Force Personnel

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS--Nine of the 13 men at Sheppard Air Force Base retiring as of September 30 will be remaining in the area.

The three retiring in Burk Burnett will be Lieutenant Colonel Francis W. Raines of the School of Applied Aerospace Sciences with 20 years of active duty; Major Hubert E. Herrod of the USAF Regional Hospital with 21 years; and Senior Master Sergeant Duane J. Britton, also of the School of Applied Aerospace Sciences with 23 years. Colonel Raines has been in instructional systems; Major Herrod, training operations division; and Sergeant Britton, an instructor in air transportation.

The three who will live in Iowa Park are Master Sergeant George E. Gunter, military training instructor of 3763rd Student Squadron, and Master Sergeant Ronald D. Robinson, aircraft maintenance technician instructor, 3773rd Instructor Squadron, both of the School of Applied Aerospace Sciences and Technical Sergeant Floyd E. Kucinski, material facilities supervisor, 3750th Maintenance and Supply Group. All three have completed 20 years of military service.

Those remaining in Wichita Falls are Master Sergeants Dale B. Camp, missile facilities instructor, 3760th Instructor Squadron, School of Applied Aerospace Sciences; James W. Offield, missile electronic technician, 3750th Consolidated Maintenance Squadron, 3750th Maintenance and Supply Group; and Technical Sergeant Arthur R. Easler, communications center supervisor, 2054th Communications Squadron. Sergeant Camp has completed 23 years; Sergeant Offield, 22 years; and Sergeant Easler, 20 years.

Dr. Bill Boardman brought a very interesting and informing program to the Evening Lions Club in the presentation of a film of glasscraft by PPG Industries.

Showing the film, along with fine dissertation, questions, and answers were two of PPG's management team. Stan DeGreeve, who is warehousing superintendent, discussed the manufacturing portion; while Jim Maloney, Director of Employee Relations, gave views on personnel employment.

Tips for using electricity efficiently:

Get well acquainted with the control on your clothes dryer.

Clothes come out of the dryer harsh and stiff when you over-dry them. And you use electricity that isn't needed. If you don't have automatic controls, experiment with the manual control to find the right setting for each type of fabric, then use it. Man-made fabrics, in particular, require extended cool-down periods.

These other suggestions also can help you make more efficient use of your clothes dryer and electricity.

Group clothes together by weight and texture of the fabrics to avoid running an additional cycle for two or three slower-drying items.

When you want to fluff pillows, sweaters, knits or small throw rugs, tumble them without heat for not more than 15 minutes.

Place your clothes dryer in a heated part of your home, if possible, and have it vented to the outside. A dryer in an unheated area, such as an outside utility room or the garage, can take longer to dry your clothes in winter, because the air temperature in the drum will have to be increased.
