Burkburnett Oil Blaze Results In $51,000 Damages

A cauldron of over 40,000 gallons of oil burned itself out Sunday morning sending towering banks of black smoke over Burkburnett for 17 hours. Service on the railway lines was disrupted by fire, but was resumed at 10 o'clock Sunday morning.

A 100-barrel capacity tank of the Continental Pipeline company exploded early Saturday morning during a shower. The tank and contents were destroyed and damage estimated at over $50,000 by O. Sturm of the company.

Railway officials estimated that the blaze cost the company at least $1,000. A large tank of oil boiled over and threatened an adjoining storage tank containing an equal amount of oil. Employees were hauled and threw up dirt fire to prevent contact of the hot oil with the remaining tank. Due to the nature of the blaze little was accomplished at extinguishing the fire, while company men sought to control its spread.

Approximately 400 ties were derailed on the M-K-T tracks adjacent to the tank and a work-train was required to replace 12 damaged ties and mail due in Burkburnett. The northbound train was forced to halt at 10 o'clock Saturday night when the train was forced to halt at Burkburnett. The northbound train was forced to halt at 10 o'clock Saturday night when the train was forced to halt at Burkburnett.

While the work-train crew repairs to completion. The train left Saturday morning and mail and passengers were again transferred by motor. A column of heavy smoke was seen in Wichita Falls Saturday morning like an overhanging cloud.

Money Due To Reach Burk Banks Few Days

$10 silver certificates, issued by President Roosevelt's order authorizing silver, will be received by Burkburnett banks within the next few days. The first of the certificates for the 11th federal reserve district were received at the Dallas Federal Reserve bank Wednesday. The certificates also are being issued in denominations of $1 and $5. The appearance of the new certificates is virtually the same as the old ones. However, there is some difference in the wording, with the certificate pointing out: "This certificate is not to be used as a means of payment for public debts of the United States or for the redemption of silver dollars, payable in silver on demand." It also states that "this certificate is legal tender for all debts, public and private."

The old certificates said "This certificate is not to be used as a means of payment for public debts of the United States or for the redemption of silver dollars, payable in silver on demand." It also states that "this certificate is legal tender for all debts, public and private."

MIGRATORY BIRD HUNTING STAMPS HAVE ARRIVED

Migratory Bird Hunting Stamps are now on sale at the postoffice, according to Neeloy Vaught, postmaster.

The following communication has been received from the United States Department of Agriculture Bureau of Biological Survey:

Buy a Stamp Before You Shoot. Every hunter of migratory waterfowl over 16 years of age is now required to have in his possession a Migratory-Bird Hunting Stamp. This is the requirement of an Act of Congress approved by the President to become effective June 16, 1934, and designed to aid the program for restoration of migratory waterfowl by purchase of suitable breeding, feeding, and resting areas.

The stamps will be sold at $1.00 each, and the proceeds will be used in the important program of waterfowl restoration.

Stamps can be purchased at post office in all county seats, in all cities having a population of 2,500 or more, at other points convenient to waterfowl centers.

Stamps are on sale annually on and after July 1. They expire on June 30. They must be affixed to the State hunting license, or, if no State license is required, to a certificate furnished by the postmaster. Form of application will be furnished by the postmaster.

Hunting waterfowl without a stamp is unlawful. It is punishable by a fine of not more than $500, or by imprisonment for not more than six months, or by both fine and imprisonment.

The stamp does not exempt the hunter of migratory waterfowl from complying with State laws and Federal regulations. It is not transferable. It must be carried on the person of the hunter while hunting waterfowl. It must be exhibited for exhibition for inspection on request of any officer or employee of the U. S. Department of Agriculture or of an officer of a State or local government authorized to enforce the game laws.

The Dickson Bros. filling station located on the Burk-Wichita pavement was hijacked Tuesday morning about 2 o'clock by two men, driving a 1933 Chevrolet.

According to V. A. Lawson, the night operator of the station, the men drove into the station and asked for some oil and tendered him a $5 bill for payment. Upon returning with the change one of the men forced Mr. Lawson at the point of a gun to back into the office where the cash register was robbed of $12.50. They put him into the car and drove several miles out of town where Mr. Lawson was forced out of the car. Local officers are working on the case but according to reports Thursday no arrests had been made.

Miss Delois Studyvin, Burkburnett's representative in the beauty contest, failed to place but won many points. Miss Beaumont won first place and Miss Graham, second.

About all that some Burkburnett men know about money is that the $2 bill used to be considered unlucky but isn't any more.

Burkburnett Hears Distant Rumbblings Of Fall Football

There are two things that always injects a feeling of enthusiasm. One is the first tang of frost in the early morning breeze in the early fall. The other is the distant rumbblings that indicate the approach of the football season.

A group of business men, along with Butler Westerfield, superintendent of schools here had a strong reminder Tuesday evening when the following Dr. Ruel Slaughter, Geo. Byarly, Henry Bentley, B. F. Gilchrist, Jack Everhart, Jack Brumley, Paul Browning, Oscar Kemp and Neeley Vaught went to Cratersville Park and were guest and enjoyed a camp supper with the local football boys, who have been in training camp there for the past week.

Several short talks were made covering the topic of the football outlook for the 1934-35 season with each one expressing their intentions of backing the boys until the final game of the season.

The boys are getting off to a great start with the daily work they are doing in the training camp at Cratersville.

Star Receives 44- Page Brochure

Corsicana, Texas, Aug. 29.—Within the last few days there has been mailed by the publicity committee of the Texas Centennial Commission more than 4,000 copies of a forty-four page brochure, accurately portraying the history of the Texas Centennial movement from its inception some eleven years ago to present date.

This brochure has been mailed to every newspaper editor in Texas, to the manager of every Chamber of Commerce, to the fourteen hundred members of the Advisory Boards in the two hundred and fifty-four counties, to all members of the Texas Centennial Commission, to all libraries and state officials.

The distribution of the brochure is necessarily limited, and being sent to the various agencies outlined above is intended to serve in every Texas community as a reference work for writers, teachers, students, speakers and other public-spirited citizens.

It will be available for inspection at all times at the places named above to any persons desiring information from it. No additional copies, however, can be mailed by the publicity committee because the supply is exhausted.

The book is a master creation of the printer's art, and its content has been carefully edited, with the purpose of being absolutely true to facts and history in every instance.

On the frontispiece is shown in colors the six flags under which Texas lived, underneath being a production of the State capitol in Austin. The title of the brochure is "Commemorating a Hundred Years of Texas History."

The preface of the book is an eloquent explanation of the purposes of the Texas Centennial from a historical and romantic viewpoint, written by Cullen F. Thomas, president of the Texas Centennial Commission.

On this page begins a series of footnotes, one appearing on every page, where is recounted in brief the running story of the early day history of Texas, the facts for this presentation having been obtained from the State Library in Austin.

Next comes the eloquent proclamation issued by the then Governor Pat M. Neff on February 12, 1924, calling for the first Texas Centennial conference.

Then comes a page discussion of the History of the Texas Centennial movement, followed by a review of the meeting of the Tenth District Advertising Clubs in Corsicana November 5-7, 1923, when the idea of the Centennial first was advanced.

Following this is the report made to the committee at a meeting in Austin by Lowry Martin, who had been named chairman of a Survey Committee. This showed sentiment to be practically unanimous in favor of the Centennial. Then followed a mass meeting in Austin in answer to the proclamation of Governor Neff when a Centennial Board, one hundred was created with S. Sells of Fort Worth as chairman. Later the governing board day Jesse H. Jones, now director of the Federal Reconstruction Administration, as director. The brochure then discusses the

LOOKING AHEAD

History may or may not repeat itself and bring another winter as long and severe as the last one; nobody can tell what is ahead. But housewives around Burkburnett are said to be taking no chances on it but are preparing to meet whatever comes. The summer season has not been favored for canning; there has been a shortage of fruits and vegetables. But canners have made good use of the foodstuff that did come to hand, and pantries in this community are reported to be well stocked against a long, hard winter, if that is the kind that is in store.

Families hard put to meet the cost of living should not have to be warned to "observe the ways of the ant," they know winter days are on ahead and that it is both wise and economical to prepare for them. If they fail to lay away a stock of canned goods while there is yet time to do so, then they do not deserve sympathy if they undergo hunger pangs later on. Most any neighbor is willing to help out someone who has not the ready cash for late vegetables and fruits; there are generous hearted people in every community willing to donate their surplus of cans or fruit jars. Right now such donations serve as excellent examples of welfare work.

There should be no cause for anyone to suffer actual want in this community next winter. But is a good idea to always keep in mind the aptness of the old proverb that "the Lord helps those who help themselves."

YOU'VE GOT TO FIGHT

When we hear a Burkburnett business man sit and growl about business, and try in no way to go after it, we are reminded of a blottoer we recently saw which carried the following message: "It's not the size of the dog in the fight—it's the size of the fight in the dog." Ever see a little dog clean up on a big one, and just because he had a little more spunk, a little more aggressiveness and a little more fight in him. Many a little business has licked a bigger, older competitor just because it had a little more spunk and aggressiveness. People will make a path to your door if you've got what they want. But how are they going to know unless you tell them what you've got? The big city stores and the mail order houses and catalogue men are fighting for business—because they know if they get it they've got to fight for it. The sooner the home-town business man learns this, too, and gets into the fight the better off he will be, and the farther along on the road to merchandising success.

Building 100,000 Farm Houses

Washington—First signs of nation-wide revival in home-building are seen by the construction trade in reports which have just been assembled, showing that nearly 100,000 new farm houses will be built in the United States during the next twelve months.

The average cost of the new farm houses will be about $4,000 indicating a total expenditure of $400,000,000 in farm-house construction, the largest total in a decade. More than half of this money will come from credits made available to farmers through the provisions of the New National Housing Act.

Statistics on this particular subject are being assembled at the Century of Progress in Chicago, where a model farm house, erected by the "Country Home", a national farm magazine, provides a center for information and encouragement of rural home builders. The model farm house itself will serve as the type of construction for new farm homes which are being built, inasmuch as it has been designed to demonstrate the latest and most modern ideas in home planning, building and equipment to produce a farm home for super comfort, convenience and practicality at low cost.

The model farm house at the World's Fair, exactly as shown there, can be built anywhere in the United States at a cost of approximately $5,000. It contains 13 rooms and bath, is fireproof, and can be constructed out of standard materials, available anywhere. Opinions of 75,000 farm people who have visited it indicate that they almost unanimously agree that it meets the need of average rural life.

This model farm house merits the study of every farmer because it utilizes an entirely new method of construction. The walls of the house are of brick, reinforced with steel rods. But the bricks are laid horizontally, on the grounds—"pre-cast", as the architects say. This process of laying walls is a method particularly adaptable to farm buildings, because it not only reduces the cost and time needed, but involves a type of work which men of average skill and mechanical ability can do, if properly instructed. In this type of construction, one brick does the work of two, thereby effecting a great saving in building costs. This is because the brick walls, reinforced with steel rods, needs only be four inches thick instead of the usual eight inches. Full details regarding the financing of home-building under the National Housing Act, can be obtained by writing direct to the model farm house at the World's Fair. An appropriate agricultural note in the completed house is the fact that the paint used on the exterior trim is soya bean paint, made from the soy bean, which as Henry Ford says, is the crop which links farming most directly with industry.

Poor Tires May Ruin Holiday If Not Replaced

Changing Tires on Highway Is Hazard as Well as Big Inconvenience, Says Dealer

A lot of otherwise careful motorists are going to have their holiday automobile trips ruined by having to change tires, in the opinion of Jim Alexander, local dealer for The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. "Holiday trips are planned and, the day before, the motorist takes his car to the filling station, has the tank filled with gasoline, the oil checked, the battery looked after and tires inflated with proper air pressure.

"However, just putting air in the tires is not enough in many cases. Motorists will start on their holiday trip on tires that are worn thin—and a double hazard immediately presents itself. Of course, many folks drive a little faster on a trip of this sort in order to reach the destination; and heat, being the enemy of tire life, often takes its toll in the form of a blowout, especially when the roads are hot and dry. Or, if the roads are wet and slippery, danger of skidding is great on tires worn thin and smooth.

"The best insurance against trouble when tires are worn thin and smooth is new tires, tires with traction in the center of the tread, such as possessed by the new Goodyear G-3. The G-3 gives 43 per cent more non-skid mileage, has two pounds more rubber in the tread and has a wider, flatter tread, giving it greater contact with the road," Mr. Alexander concluded.

Let's Talk About Clothes

By a "Young Modern"
Denton, Aug. 27.—Did you ever watch an artist chipping away at a cake of soap? Smoothing off the rough edges, chopping away here, rounding out there, and all of a sudden an exquisite little statue shows up. Well, that's exactly what happens when you go to select your hats!

A tilt over the right eye lends a certain note of sophistication to your entire being while one of those little "off the face" hats that proved so popular this summer seem to accentuate the girlishness and bursting enthusiasm of your individual personality. Variety is the spice of personalities and every hat you try on expresses a different one.

Students at Texas State College for Women (CIA) believe that the "truly smart" always start off with a new hat that reflects the fashion mode. It doesn't seem to matter if one has to build her wardrobe from last season's clothes, because the hat must be new and up to date. And although advance news on fashions, as on anything else is apt to be upset any minute, there are certain hat trends for which to watch.

Crowns of street and sport felts deeper in the back, but still shallow at the front seem to vie for first place with the wider brimmed hats turned up at the back and worn slanted over one eye. The classic small felt with a pointed or boxy crown is an addition to the fall mode. Then the berets! Whether formal or crumpled like a pan on the side of the head, these reflectors of personality, dress, activate you as will the new recently, bands and bows used the dog in the hats as well as our little "sophisticated" hats when your entire enmore creation!

At the conclusion of the above program the Demolay Chapter of Wichita Falls an organization for boys, headed by their Councilor, C. O. Home Makers Class Has Social Meeting

The Home Makers Class of the Baptist Sunday School met in business and Social session Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Sam H. Davis on Avenue F.

Due to the illness of the president Mrs. Troy Miller, Mrs. G. W. Ferguson, vice-president presided.

The meeting was opened with a devotional given by Mrs. Hattie Buchanan taken from John 15, in which she stressed the fact that as branches we must be connected with the true vine—Christ in order that we bear fruit for the Lord. Mrs. J. C. Hash then led in prayer asking for guidance in the selection of officers for the ensuing year. This was followed by a song "God Will Take Care of You" led by Mrs. Paulson with Mrs. Davis at the piano.

At the conclusion of the business session the following officers were elected for the coming year:

Teacher, Mrs. Sam H. Davis; Assistant teacher, Mrs. J. G. Hardin; Devotional Leader, Mrs. C. S. Paulson; President, Mrs. H. C. Day; 1st Vice-President, Mrs. G. W. Ferguson; 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. J. C. Hash; 3rd Vice-President, Mrs. J. H. Jacobs; Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. H. D. Smith; Assistant Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. E. F. Gilbow.

The date of the business and social meeting was changed to the 2nd Thursday of the month. The 4th Thursday was designated as a day to be set aside for personal service for each member of the class. The meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. J. C. Paulson. Refreshments were served to the following:

Mesdames H. C. Day, J. C. Hash, Hattie Buchanan, T. W. Capps, G. W. Ferguson, J. M. Rich, C. S. Paulson, M. W. Palmer, E. M. Evans, Sam Davis, Ruth and George Evans and Robert Palmer.

Evening years the Centennial was kept alive by a few men, until they were submitted in 1931 a bill for an amendment authorizing a centennial. Following a campaign waged by the men, this amendment was passed by an overwhelming ma-

Majority of the legislative body, carrying out the purpose of the amendment early in the present session, followed by the present Texas Centennial Commission, as provided for in the enactment.

The Advisory Board of the Centennial, together with an advisory committee, also is carrying out the duties of the Advisory Boards in the various counties.

The Commission of a Federal centennial, as provided for in the act, is being reviewed, also the work of the Commission and the present.

A beautiful reproduction of the centennial map is given, and the constitutional amendment, the legislative act following, carried in full.

Throughout the book is beautified, and it is the hope of the Centennial Commission that it will be a valuable contribution to the history of the State, not only for the perusal of the generations.

IN ORDER TO GET

You Will Have To Give!

You can't take out if you don't put in. You can't have prosperity unless you help to bring it about. You can't live in a good town unless you yourself help to keep it that way.

The winter season is just ahead. The wisdom of preparing for it should be apparent to everyone. Fuel, clothing and foodstuffs must be provided for in advance if you expect to be in position to meet whatever emergency may arise in the way of shortages, rising prices or delayed deliveries.

The time to make these provisions is NOW. Just as this is the BEST TIME to make needed repairs about the house and premises for more comfortable living conditions in the months ahead. A few dollars spent NOW will do the work of several spent later on; repair work now will forestall greater repair work next spring.

We invite you to contribute your share to the community's prosperity NOW by buying AT ONCE while you can buy economically, and by making such needed repairs or improvements on your premises NOW as you know to be needed, instead of again postponing it until another spring. And we urge you, as good citizens, to BUY EVERYTHING YOU WANT AND NEED FROM LOCAL PEOPLE—FROM THOSE WHO HELP TO SUPPORT YOUR PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS—FROM THOSE WHOM YOU KNOW—AND CAN TRUST!

Hints for the Household

By BETTY WEBSTER

I visited a most attractive home the other day in which there were several charming bedrooms. These, as well as the other rooms, were furnished in exquisite taste. I was mentally, if impolitely, calculating the cost of an adorable little chamber done in green and rose when my hostess spoke up.

"This," said she, "is my greatest pride. I did it all myself and spent ten dollars for the effect. Of course, I had the bed and the two wardrobes of the sewing room done in green."

"I gasped, 'did you ever do the dog in a must be a veritable fairy dog clean up.'"

"I replied, 'anyone can do that, thing. I'll tell you how business of it was.' And she did."

Of Ancient Vintage
The bed had been a marred wood-ward chair which had been stored in the cellar for years waiting to be thrown out and the chairs were scratched and the rocker needed a new seat.

The furniture she lacquered (with one of the new quick drying liquids) a cool green trimmed with rose and then coated two chili sauce bottles with the same green for lamps.

She covered the floor with a green linoleum and varnished it. Then, for the drapes, this clever person bought a cheap variety of chintz and lined them with unbleached muslin.

The dressing table she made of a wooden packing box, tacked some of the curtain material around in and covered the top with pink oil-cloth.

The bedspread, chair, seat and the tiny lamp shades were made of this same chintz. The lamp bases were wired for very little and the room was complete.

I thought this sleeping room was the daintiest one I'd ever seen and I intended to have one as near like it as I can make it. I thought maybe you would, too.

Dillinger Piker Says Fire Marshal

John Dillinger was a piker declared Fire Marshal John Blackstone in comparison with fire. The man who was known as Public Enemy No. 1 and was relentlessly pursued by thousands of police officers was responsible for the death of less than 20 persons, and stole money and bonds amounting to a hundred or two hundred thousand dollars. Yet in 1933 fire took ten thousand lives and destroyed property worth more than three hundred and fifty million dollars.

This statement was made in order to emphasize the importance of ceaseless vigilance in preventing fire. Dillinger is dead and his depredations have been ended, but fire, a more dangerous public enemy is always ready to break out and destroy life and property if it is encouraged by carelessness.

Criminals like Dillinger work of their own accord, but fire in most cases is helped by careless humans, who give it an opportunity to rob them of their valuable possessions. Careless smokers, those who mix gasoline and fire either in home dry-cleaning or in garage, parents whose children play with matches, those who tamper with electric wiring, and many others are all paving the way for fires inroads.

A great deal has been said about Dillinger's cruelty and ruthlessness and about his disregard of life and laws. For utter cruelty, nothing can compare with fire. It sears and scorches little babies and the aged as well as persons in the prime of life. Dillinger's victims suffered the pain of bullets, which is nothing like the agony fire brings its victims. And those victims who do escape with their lives bear horrible scars to their graves--constant and repugnant reminders of their narrow escape.

Dillinger was cruel and inhuman. But the cruelty of fire and enormity of its depredations make Dillinger's escapades appear insignificant. America did not rest until Dillinger had been killed. Yet while we should all fear fire even more, and fight it more diligently, we are still careless. The fact that this country's fire losses are so large, and that it is largely due to carelessness, should be a matter of shame to every citizen. Let us all unite to rid our nation of this menace that constantly threatens every home and building, and the lives of every man, woman and child. Our fire losses can be cut. Hundreds of those who die in burning buildings can be saved by using care.

We, of our Fire Department, are constantly on call to do what we can for you when the fire starts. What is done to prevent fire is largely up to you. Your Fire Department can give you valuable advice on preventing fire. If you will accept it, and treat fire with respect, you can be sure that you are making your life, the life of your loved ones and your home more safe.

County Judge Urges Tax Rate Fifty-Four Cents

A county tax rate of 54 cents is provided for in the 1935 budget of County Judge John P. Marrs which was to be presented to the Wichita county commissioners Monday afternoon for their study and approval.

The tax rate of last year as compared with that suggested by Judge Marrs follows:

Fund—	1933	1934
Jury	.06	.07
Road-Bridge	.05	.00
General	.25	.25
Bonded debt	.14	.22
Total levy	.50	.54

In submitting the budget Judge Marrs has issued a statement to the commissioners which reads in part as follows:

"It is to be noted with satisfaction that the actual expenditures out of the county general fund each year are showing a decrease, notwithstanding the fact that a large per cent of this expense is for charity. It appears that we are likely to run an overdraft in the general fund for some years yet, unless some new laws are passed giving the general fund more relief. The new law permitting the court reporters to be paid out of the jury fund will relieve the general fund about $6.00 in 1935. I see no reason why the law should not be further amended, giving authority to pay court bailiffs, jailers and the jail matron out of the jury fund, which would relieve the general fund of about $8,300 expense annually.

Delinquent Taxes

"Another important matter that should receive the serious consideration of this court, as well as of the county attorney and the tax collector, is the collection of delinquent taxes. Unless unusual efforts are made to collect delinquent taxes of all kinds, very little money will come into the county treasury during the next four or five months. Of course, there still are a lot of property owners who cannot yet pay any of their taxes. These should be let alone until their financial conditions greatly improve. There are some who could pay all of their delinquent taxes. These should be carefully looked up and be made to pay. There are many others, who can pay some of their taxes, perhaps a little monthly or quarterly. These also should be found out and be urged to pay up as fast as they can. There are some who owe more taxes on their property than it would bring at a forced sale. Some kind of a reasonable compromise should be made with such property owners by all of the taxing authorities having claims against such property. No property should be sold for taxes, except as a last resort, and especially if it appears that the county and state will have to buy it in for such taxes, as this takes it off the tax rolls of all taxing authorities and makes it exempt from all taxes until some individual buys it.

Suggest Appraisal

"There is such a lack of uniformity in the tax values of property in Wichita county, and especially in Wichita Falls, it is my opinion that all the taxing authorities should get together and employ a crew of good men who know values, and have them re-appraise all the property in the city and perhaps all in the county. Then let each taxing unit take whatever per cent of its actual appraised value it chooses for its own taxing values, according to the need of such governmental unit. This is the only fair and accurate way I know of to arrive at the correct present value of our properties. This ought to be done during the next three or four months.

"The consolidation of the offices of tax assessor and tax collector, should affect a saving to the tax payers of some $4,000 in 1935, and the consolidation of the offices of county and district attorney should save nearly $5,000 per year and the abolishing of the county court at law and the court reporter should save about $3,600, even after allowing the county judge a stenographer or helper at a salary of $125 per month. This total saving will amount to more than $12,000 per year to the tax payers and a good part of it was paid out of the county general fund.

"I do not see the need of employing an official expert court reporter for the county court, as not one case in 30 or 40 tried, is ever appealed, and the extra expense to the tax payers is too great to justify same. Only a very few of the large counties of Texas have court reporters for their county courts, as the cases are generally too small to justify such heavy costs. If a lawyer wants his case stenographically reported, let him pay for it, and not the tax payers."

Court to Act

The commissioners court will officially set the county tax rate when it meets Sept. 10. The commissioners will start sitting as board of equalization Sept. 3 and continue as such all of that week. The state tax rate has already been set at 77 cents, the constitutional maximum.

In recommending complete abolishment of the road and bridge fund levy in the 1934 tax rate Judge Marrs explained that Wichita county already had received more than $136,000 for this fund this year from automobile license fees and that the fees next year should be sufficient to satisfy the needs of that fund.

The county receives the first $50,000 in fees from registration of motor vehicles and 50 per cent of the remainder of the fees received. The other 50 per cent goes to the state.

MARCH OF PROGRESS

Philosopher of The Hills

By J. E. Jones

Four men sat on a summer evening. They were eating good food. The moon was shining brightly over the Great North Mountain. The way was a swell out-of-the-way. A swimming pool that was fed by a natural spring. A few miles from the Blue Ridge and the Alleghenies.

There was a rustle of excitement in the air. The mail had just come. The number one investigator for the Government, looked at the newspaper he had just received. "Anniversary celebration for ex-President Coolidge held in Plymouth, Vermont. Hum! He was born in 1872. He was President of the United States in 1923-29. Victoria was Queen of England and Germany had just won the war with France." He got that from the paper.

"I helped get a lot of new settlers started around here too" the pioneer continued, "and I built some of the first roads and bridges, and also the narrow-gauge railroad. Steam made tremendous changes in our mountains, but this section boomed until the automobile spoiled the business about 1910, and then we had the great fire when the hotel burned. But we have good schools and churches—"

"And the same kerosene lamps," chuckled Oak.

"Well you sleep in a soft bed, here; there's running water, and modern plumbing, and I never have charged you for listening to my radio, and using my telephone. Maybe an airplane will be sailing through the light of the moon while we are gassing. You city fellows know a lot about progress since Coolidge was born in 1872. But you'll know a lot more if you think about the stuff that is unloaded from the trucks that come in to these mountains— oranges from Florida, sugar from Cuba, tires from Ohio, automobile parts from Detroit, bottled goods from everywhere. Different isn't it, from stage coach times?"

"I was born the same year that Coolidge was," Oak said.

"Strange, but it must be that birds of a feather are not the only creatures that flock together, since I also have been 'coming through since 1872'" said the newspaper man. Lyss was born that same year—he has told me. We are all city-folks except Lyss, and he has some things we never can have. Lyss has the traditional background of America in his bones, body and soul." Then, with hesitation he concluded: "Fellows, we all follow different ways of life—that shows how The March of Progress keeps going on."

"The fly in our ointment seems to be that we are all older than the new Presidents since Coolidge. Hoover and Roosevelt were born later than us. New generations are about to do our marching," observed Lyss, real philosopher of the hill country.

"Let Us Hope It's So"

The President and Secretary of Commerce have both emphatically declared during the past week that business is definitely on the upgrade and that private enterprises are getting out from under the wings of the Federal Government which, as Secretary Roper says, "are responsibilities which under normal conditions belong to business". Both of these high officials of the Government are making what they believe to be truthful statements—there is no doubt about that.

Europe Rows to American Industry

Success of American automobiles in foreign fields is drawing the attention of official Washington.

In road tests competition as well as in design salons, American cars have this year walked away with many honors, it has been pointed out at the Capital.

Among the interesting competitions in foreign lands this year has been the Moroccan Rally in Africa and the annual Monte Carlo display.

In Africa, a Plymouth sedan won first prize after a road race of 1,000 miles in which the stamina of all entering cars is severely tried. Through trackless desert and winding mountain trails the cars traveled from Sfax, Tunisia to Marrakesh, Morocco. Of 32 starters only eight cars finished, with the American-built Plymouth the first prize winner.

In Monte Carlo and Nervi, Italy, De Sota automobiles won grand prizes for beauty of line. The new Airflows have proved exceedingly popular with Europeans who were the first to attempt true aerodynamic design. The De Sotas, however, won out over all other makes, whether American or European built.

It was noted in Washington that both the prize-winning cars were members of the Chrysler Motors family.

OKed For Hollywood

Cecil B. DeMille, the famous moving picture producer, has been in Washington where he has told the assembled newspaper groups of the Capital "what Hollywood thinks of censorship." Which is not much! He says that the best producers are interested in depicting life as it is and if Mr. American Public wants to look into the mirror he should find no fault if the reflection shows pimples. Mr. DeMille promises better and clearer picture.

The Wheel Goes 'Round

There is no use in denying the fact that very sharp differences of opinion exists in Administrative Councils concerning the NRA. While there is no attempt to render proper credit to General Johnson for what he has done for the Blue Eagle, there nevertheless are persistent reports that Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins and other powers in the Administration feel that it is time to break up the "one man control" and to re-establish and reorganize the NRA along lines that contain fewer circus features and more business methods.

Ever since General Johnson became the head of the NRA movement there have been rumors that he would be displaced but time and again he has won over all its enemies and triumphed over the opposition.

Fair Will Have 16-Day Stock Show

Dallas, Aug. 30.—A full showing of livestock for 16 days at the 1934 State Fair of Texas, Oct. 6-21, has been planned and the best herds of beef and dairy animals will be on exhibit as a master demonstration of the stability of Texas agriculture even under the most adverse conditions and as a forecast of her rich future, it has been announced by A. L. Ward, general superintendent of the Livestock Department.

"Many fine cattle have been permitted to get poor and weak and have been killed or sold," Mr. Ward said, "but the best of our herds have been well cared for and at the State Fair this year, the people of Texas will see not only the choice breeding stock of beef and dairy herds, but they will have an opportunity of meeting the owners and exhibitors of livestock who have the hardihood and courage to meet emergencies and who have the resourcefulness and the vision to use difficulties and obstacles as building stones."

Mr. Ward announced that more than $25,000 would be awarded the prize winners in classes of livestock on exhibit here this year and also that prize money in horse classes had been increased.

More bantam chickens that were ever shown in the South before will be on exhibit at the 1934 State Fair of Texas Poultry Show. The bantam Show this year will be three shows in one—the Southern Show of the American Bantam Association and the regular bantam show of the State Fair. Bantam will be shown during the second week of the exposition, Oct. 13 to 21.

"A Woman must have had a hand in styling the new FORD V-8"

• A handy compartment for gloves and purse. • A steering ratio that makes parking decidedly easy. • Plenty of body, head, and leg room in the rear seat.

THE fact is, many women did. For this new Ford car was definitely planned to meet the needs of women as well as men. That's why you'll find a special compartment for your purse in the dashboard and sun-visors for your eyes. That's why interior fittings have been so tastefully designed. Why a finer grade of upholstery has been used. Why brakes act on the slightest touch of your toe. Why the steering ratio is 15-to-1 in order to make this car easier for a woman to handle. And remember, the Ford V-8 has all the safety features modern engineering skill can devise—a V-8 Engine, Torque-tube Drive, All Steel Body, Welded Steel Spoke Wheels, Safety Glass and many others. Remember, too, that the Ford V-8 is the most economical car to operate Ford has ever built. Not only that—Ford V-8 delivered prices are decidedly low.

'Manhattan Melodrama' Comes To Palace Screen

New York's smart night world moves before the camera in a glamorous and dramatic parade in "Manhattan Melodrama," new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer three-star feature which opens Sunday at the Palace Theatre.
Clark Gable, William Powell and Myrna Loy share starring honors. Powell's First for Metro
Besides marking Gable's return to the screen after his recent triumphal personal appearance tour in the East, the picture is noteworthy because it is Powell's first appearance as a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer star, and because it marks the elevation to stardom of Miss Loy.
It is the first time Gable and Powell have appeared together. The picture brings about the reunion of Gable and Miss Loy, who were hailed as a new romantic team in "Men in White," their recent hit.
"Manhattan Melodrama" presents Gable as a powerful and dramatic figure of the demi-world of New York, a "big-shot" gambler who does not hesitate to use violence when he is crossed. He is in love with Myrna Loy, who is the wife of William Powell, district attorney and Gable's life-long friend.
The situations that arise out of this unusual combination of characters make a story that moves swiftly and dramatically to an unexpected conclusion.
The Supporting Cast
The supporting cast numbers many notable players, among them Leo Carillo, Nat Pendleton, George Sidney, Isabel Jewell and Muriel Evans.
Produced by David O. Selznick, "Manhattan Melodrama" was directed by W. S. Van Dyke, noted explorer-director who gave the screen "Eskimo," "Trader Horn," "The Prizefighter and the Lady" and other outstanding hits.
If the hereafter provides no heaven, then the sensible thing to do is to provide one on earth.
