Shannon of Los Angeles, Exalted Ruler. An announcement by Mr. Shannon, order of Elks will have a most interesting program during the coming year under the two major objects that is its Pro-American Youth Movement. The local lodge of Elks has endorsed the plan and work and will be a important factor in carrying it out.

Before all else we ask: "Give us this day our daily bread." Why? Because energy, body fuel, is our body's largest need—and bread is our outstanding energy food. Without energy from carbohydrates, so abundant in bread, other important food substances, essential to a balanced diet, could not do their work. Bread also contains body-building proteins, valuable minerals and vitamins. Remarkable is the way bread fits into every meal, rounds out other foods nutritiously, and provides numerous ways of including, in our meals, other needed foods. Many varieties make it always tempting and tasty. Economical in price, with a total absence of waste, no other food investment yields such rich returns in needful energy at such low cost. Moreover, 96 per cent of bread's food value is made use of by the body. A product perfected by trained skill, modern equipment, high sanitary standards, and quality ingredients, bread of today is the finest ever made, and the most wholesome food we can buy. Digestion of bread is very easy for the body and brown bread contains helpful roughage that carries off waste matter. Just one more reason why it should be "bread-o'clock four times a day for everybody."

ing the usual inactivity of the summer months, the lodge will begin its year's work early in September. The lodge at Elks club Wednesday Feb. 13th of all who are in the above program, especially those who are chairman of their respective club and committee heads of all organizations.

Local Men Attend Chevrolet Pageant

The Chevrolet Motor Company conducted in Dallas at the Fair Park Auditorium on Wednesday, January 30th, a dramatic pageant of the history of their Company as an automobile manufacturer. Tex Willis, local Chevrolet Sales manager and his entire Sales Organization attended this important and interesting conference. Frank Deluce attended as a visitor. In addition to this dramatization of the progress of Chevrolet, all dealers and salesmen in the Dallas Zone inspected the new 1935 Master Deluxe Chevrolet, also the 1935 Standard cars and Chevrolet trucks. Mr. H. C. Howard, Zone Manager, Dallas, in opening the Chevrolet showing and pageant stated "The progress our Company has made since 1911 is accurately depicted in the historical incidents which are presented during this pageant and automobile showing. The progress of Chevrolet is recognized fully in the industry and has proven our Company's consistent policy of improvement and value we are offering to the automobile buying public in 1935." During the showing of the 1935 Master DeLuxe Chevrolet car, the important engineering product improvements were presented to the 1200 dealers and salesmen attending the meeting. The large number of unfilled orders now in the hands of Chevrolet dealers throughout the Dallas Zone indicates the fine acceptance of Chevrolet by the automobile buying public. Mr. Willis stated that the showing conducted in Dallas was greatly beneficial to his salesmen and himself in preparing them to tell their many local friends and customers of the many new features and outstanding values in the 1935 Chevrolet.

Funeral Services Held Sun. At Pentacostal Church

Funeral services for Doris Lee Hudgeons, 6, victim of an automobile accident in Burkburnett Saturday, were held at the Pentacostal church Sunday afternoon with Rev. H. M. Savage, pastor officiating. Doris Lee was fatally injured Saturday afternoon and her four year old sister, Betty Lou, suffered painful injuries when they were struck by a truck as they ran across the street on West Main. The accident happened at 3:30 o'clock at the city limits. H. R. Hayes, Texas Oil company gauger, driving the car which struck the two youngsters, told authorities he "didn't see the children until after the accident." The two Hudgeons youngsters ran directly in front of the Hayes' auto from behind a truck, witnesses said. The accident was termed "unavoidable." Mr. Hayes took the two children to the Clinic hospital here immediately after the accident, but the elder girl died from internal injuries shortly after arriving there. Betty Lou Hudgeons is suffering from shock, but her condition is not considered serious. Burial was under direction of the Owens and Brumley Funeral home. Survivors are the parents and the sister. Mr. Hudgeon is an oil field worker and has resided in this city for the last 10 years.

ROTARY CLUB

G. A. Reaves had charge of the Rotary program Tuesday at their weekly luncheon at the Methodist church. Bryan Creighton of Wichita Falls gave a reading of the trials and tribulations of Mark Twain during his visits to foreign countries. His reading was greatly enjoyed by the members and guests present. Mr. Reaves stated that practically every member of the club had asked to be placed on the program, and that he had endeavored to sacrifice the good of the meeting to please the individual. Following is the program: "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes" by X-Quartet, B. Westerfield F. A. Jameson, Nealy Vaught and H. D. Smith. Favorite Joke (ladies in the kitchen, please!) by Francis Felty. Reading by Paul Browning. Beans (one minute) by Jack Everheart. "I Know Oscar Kemp", (1 minute), (ladies in Kit) by P. A. Wiggins. "Trials of a Coach" by Volney Hill (1 minute). "Mae West and the Secrets of Screen Stars" (1 minute) by C. P. Logan. "Three Blind Mice" by Y-Quartet, B. F. Gilchrist, O. C. Wills, J. M. Thomas and Cecil Jenkins. "What I Dislike About Rotary" (1 minute please) by J. C. Adams. "Printer's Ink" (1 minute), Fred Brookman. "One Year of Married Life" (1 minute) by Louie Peyton. "My Favorite Joke" (remember the ladies) by Jack Brumley. "Auld Lang Syne" by Z-Sextet, M. C. Tucker, Oscar Kemp, R. C. Tevis, Ruel Slaughter, D. R. Peevey and L. G. Hagard. "How to say 'NO!'" (1-4 minute) by Alvin Hill. Grand Finale, "The Star Spangled Banner" by Carl Morrison, Glenn Bear and any one else. Yes, I know it was a bum program, but, by heck, you got a chance to do your part, so kwitchebellia-kin. Jack: Do you think automobiles will ever be so cheap that everybody will have one? Jill: No, I don't think that day will ever come. Jack: Why? Jill: Well, matches are cheap enough, but there are a lot of fellows who never seem to have one. Never trust your memory. If you save Christmas junk to give out next year you may send it back to the people who gave it to you. A winter resort is a place where people sit in misery and long for the old base-burner back home.

A COMMUNITY EXPERIMENT

The nation is going to watch closely the communal experiment which the Federal government is about to undertake at the headwaters of the Mississippi river, in Minnesota. A group of 49 adults and 55 children, relief families, are to pass this winter in a single community building. In the spring they will begin work on 6440 acres of land assigned to them. Each homesteader will draw on a central store of supplies, and later will be given cash from the co-operative association for the value of his work above the cost of goods he receives. Funds furnished by the Federal government will be ready in the spring to build each family a house, and also furnish each two cows, two pigs a hive of bees and about 100 chickens, plus the necessary farm implements for the tilling of the ground. Communal enterprises have generally been unsuccessful in the past. But this may prove the exception. If it succeeds, there will be others like it. If it fails, we shall charge off the cost to a worth-while effort to aid the needy.

SHOPPING COURTESY

In a local dry goods store recently a woman made a small purchase after tiresome inspection of goods, and after the clerk had patiently and courteously answered all of her many questions. In giving the change the clerk made a slight mistake, in favor of the store. The woman thereupon declared with an air of injured dignity that she had been short-changed. The clerk apologized for the error, but he had to meekly submit to her insult just the same.

Every now and then one witnesses such cases—and in almost every case sympathizes with the clerk. Men and women who are ordinarily polite and considerate of others often act toward salespeople as though they were there to be insulted. They do not consider that clerks spend long hours on their feet, that they are not overpaid and that they are not back of the counter because they like the work but because in most instances they have someone dependent upon them. Why anyone should seek a quarrel with them when they know the clerk will be fired if he engages in a quarrel, is past understanding.

The least anyone can do is to be courteous and considerate to those who wait on them. It also pays to do so, in several ways. The really worth-while people are always kind. It's the "small potatoes and few in a hill" type of people who are not.

If you want to enjoy yourself on a long motoring trip never lift up the lid to examine the contents of a roadside filling station sandwich.

If, as scientists say, thousands of germs are swapped with each kiss then we know some girls who are big traders.

There's talk now of permanent waves for men. Most of the old boys around Burkburnett would be satisfied with permanent hair and let the wave part go.

Still, if times were booming several million would still need relief if Uncle Sam kept on giving it.

Cancer Statistics

By DR. WILLIAM J. SCHOLES PART I.

It is estimated that 1200,000 persons in the United States die of cancer each year. And since the average duration of the disease is a little over two years, approximately 300,000 cases of carcinoma are to be found at all times.

Early Recognition the Only Hope

The majority of these people suspect that there is something seriously wrong with them, but they go on living in a fool's paradise until they are beyond the reach of medical aid. Or, they fritter away valuable time with this or that "cure" until it is too late for surgical procedures to extirpate the growth.

It is easy to understand the psychology back of most people's attitude toward the subject. They prefer going on hoping that perhaps "it" is not cancer to having an examination and finding out that "it" is cancer. For which they can scarcely be blamed. I can think of any number of things I would prefer being told to receiving the information that I have cancer.

How much more sensible, however, to go to a competent physician at the first signal of trouble and having a thorough examination. After all, the chance is only one out of ten that it is cancer. And where the disease is diagnosed early the chance of eradicating it is far greater. Still more sensible is it to have a physical examination every three months. I am convinced that if every woman past the age of 45 would receive a pelvic examination every three months cases of cancer of the uterus could be cut in half inside of three years, because it would be found sufficiently early to permit of its successful eradication. As it is, at the present time nine out of ten cases are inoperable in first examination by a physician.

The Age Factor in Cancer

If an automobile does not bounce off a man's head or some other accident or disease terminate his sojourn on this little ball before he is fifty-five, he then faces one chance in eight that he will develop cancer. At that, his chances are better than a woman gets, which is one out of five. Here, as in some other contingencies, women do not get as fair a break as men. For example, three times as many women die of cancer between the ages of thirty-five and forty-five, while during the next decade, forty-five to fifty-five, twice as many women die of cancer.

Taking both sexes into account, one out of every ten persons who live to be forty is doomed to die of cancer. If this disease could be wiped out entirely the average span of life would be tremendously increased, as ninety-five percent of all deaths from cancer occur after the age of thirty-five years.

VICKS VAPORUB

Often, "mere colds" have serious consequences. It is dangerous to neglect a cold—equally dangerous to experiment with half-way measures.

Feel safe! Use Vicks VapoRub—the proved external method of treating colds. No risks of constant internal "dosing", which so often upsets delicate digestions and lowers resistance when most needed.

DOUBLE DIRECT ACTION

Just rubbed on at bedtime, VapoRub fights a cold direct—two ways at once—by stimulation and inhalation. This combined poultice-vapor action loosens phlegm—soothes irritated membranes—eases difficult breathing—helps break congestion. Often by morning the worst of the cold is over.

Hints for the Household

By BETTY WEBSTER

Wouldn't it be rather amusing to celebrate Abraham Lincoln's birthday with a "pickaninny party"? Ask the guests to dress as colored mamies and "Uncle Toms." Decorate the house with balls of cotton.

After all have arrived, it would be amusing to play a game of "inventions." Give each one a list of inventions and ask them to write the names of their inventions in a corresponding list. A time limit can be named and a prize awarded for the best list. A guessing game of civil war songs would also furnish amusement.

A table decorated with white cotton and white refreshments would carry out the idea of the party.

DO YOU KNOW THAT:

- Buttons will not be torn off so easily when clothes are put through a wringer—if the buttons are folded inside the garment?
- Grenadine curtains will look fresher and stay clean longer if they are starched slightly when washed?
- Marquise curtains bought to be dry cleaned because washing causes the threads to "bunch"?
- Using the vacuum cleaner on rugs prevents the dust from collecting beneath them?
- Spots can be removed from mohair-covered furniture by washing with milk?
- Christmas tree lights can be used effectively for decorating a room or table for any entertainment during the year?

Pickup: How is your insomina? Is it getting any better?
Coot: I'm worse than ever. I can't even sleep when it's time to get up.

Then new minister had asked Eph Brown to lead in prayer. It was Eph's first experience of this sort but he didn't want to disappoint the new pastor and so he complied. Twenty minutes later found Eph still praying. He had prayed for everybody and everything he could think of. The congregation were becoming restless. Finally from one of the deacons came a strong Amen!

Eph looked at the deacon and said: Thanks, deacon, that's the word I have been trying to think of ever since I started.

Appropriation Bills
The major portion of the past week in Congress has been taken up in consideration of the Appropriation Bills. Monday, January 28th, the House, as a Committee of the Whole, discussed the Treasury and Post Office Departments' Bill. Thursday the House again took up this Bill and spent the day debating its various provisions. Friday, the House began the reading of the bill and finally passed it without a record vote.

Wednesday the House voted to instruct the conferees on the Independent Offices Appropriation Bill to accept the Senate amendment to restore to Federal employees and pensioners on April 1, 1935, the five percent pay cut which is still in effect under the Economy Act. The original plans of the President were believed to have been to restore the cut on July 1, 1935, as called for in the Economy Act, but it is now believed that he will not make any further objections and will accept this compromise and sign the bill in the near future.

Extension of Reconstruction Finance Corporation
Tuesday, January 29th, the House passed without a record vote, a bill to extend the authority of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for another two years. This measure had previously passed the Senate but had to be sent back to conference due to several amendments added in the House. These amendments were principally to liberalize the existing strict regulations as to kind and character of collateral that might be accepted as security for loans. The principal amendment requires that loans to industry be secured so as to reasonably assure repayment. Another amendment authorized loans to credit companies financing plumbing, electrical, and air conditioning equipment sales. A third authorized loans to $20,000 to owners of small mining properties for development of the same. Still further loans were authorized to closed banks but an amendment to pay depositors in full failed. The conferees reached an early agreement and the President signed the measure late Thursday only a few hours before the previous authorization expired.

World Court
The United States' adherence to the World Court was indefinitely postponed Tuesday, when the Senate rejected it by a vote of 52 to 36. This was seven votes short of the required two-thirds to secure ratification and came as something of a surprise to the opponents of the World Court since they had never counted on more than 30 votes against the treaty. Twelve long years of careful planning and maneuvering were scrapped when the administration met its first serious defeat. Every strategem that the administration could find was used to bring enough pressure to bear to secure ratification. The immediate local outcome was regarded as even more significant than the international implications for the failure of the administration to hold the Democratic majority in line seems to indicate the possibility of opposition to other important legislation.

Bonus
Wednesday, January 30th, Congressman Patman, Traux, and the writer spoke on the present status of Bonus legislation. All angles of both Patman's Bill and Vinson's Bill were discussed. Patman's Bill provides payment by issuance of new money which would not cost the taxpayers anything, and save them about $1,500,000,000. Vinson's Bill provides direct appropriation which must be paid by new taxes or by a bond issue which would pay the bankers over $2,000,000,000 in interest and which of course would cost the taxpayers that much additional. House sentiment strongly favors the Patman Bill.

District Deputy President, Myrtle Cooper was with us and also helped to install the remaining appointive officers. She gave an interesting talk to benefit the lodge and the lodge work.

We were indeed bereaved to hear that the Superintendent of the IOOF Orphan Home at Enid had passed away. Something we all must go through with but it is sad. Are you a Rebekah or an Odd Fellow? Do you know when you pass on that your widow and children will be shielded from the rough winds of adversity? If not, stop and give this a thought.

The Jolly Worker clubs will meet Wednesday, Feb. 13, with Mrs. T. J. Dickson at her home.

Refreshments were served to visitors Miss Myrtle and Louina Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Ackins of Electra and seventeen members. Were you one? —Reporter.

"Caravan" Will Show Boyer As Singing Hero

Bringing camera and story telling technique of a type new to American picture-goers, "Caravan," Erik Charell's spectacular musical romance at the Palace and Tex Theatres Thursday.

"Caravan," a Fox Film, tells its entire tale through the eye of just one camera, regardless of the importance of the sequence or the size of the set.

With its scenes laid in the famous Tokay district of Europe, and all the action taking place during the annual three-day grape harvest, many of the backgrounds in the village, the vineyards and in the huge "Chateau Tokay" are said to be among the largest and most impressive created since the screen turned vocal.

Female teachers are best. No boy is educated till he knows how to get along with a bossy woman.

GREETED AT OPERA

GERALDINE FARRAR, who left the stage of the Metropolitan Opera House amid the tears and cheers of thousands of admirers 12 years ago, returned to the regions back-stage the other day to receive a smaller but no less sincere ovation.

The greeting was more quiet than the farewell because the thousands of spectators were replaced by a few dozen stage hands, but every stage hand was an old friend who had known and loved "Jerry" Farrar in the 15 glamorous years she reigned at the Metropolitan.

Now, as she returned to prepare for her new role as radio raconteuse at the Saturday afternoon broadcasts of Metropolitan Opera performances over National Broadcasting Company networks they crowded enthusiastically about to welcome her home.

Even the old stage cat, now in his ninth life, came to rub its back against her skirt in welcome. And if every stage hand remembered Geraldine Farrar, the former opera star remembered every stage hand. Calling each by name, inquiring about children and wives and recalling incidents of the past, she passed a full afternoon with the men who used to decorate her dressing room with flowers as a token of their affection.

$200,000 Finale In "Kid Millions"

As a magnificent gesture of confidence in the American public's appreciation of novelty in screen entertainment, Samule Goldwyn expended $210,000 on the production of a unique Technicolor fantasy ending for "Kid Millions," his new Eddie Cantor picture showing Sunday and

Monday at the Palace Theatre. Yet this sequence provides less than 600 feet, or slightly more than half of one reel, of the picture! Nothing quite like this sequence has been filmed before. It may best be described as a "Silly Symphony" done with human beings and with exaggerated settings and properties instead of animated cartoons. It is Brooklyn street urchin's wish come true—a fantasy of what a poor boy wants to do when he gets rich. Husband's Birthday Cards—Star.

Doctors Know!

... and they use liquid laxatives

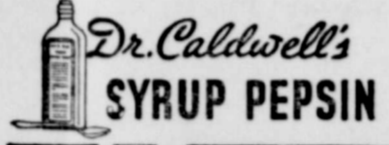

You'd use a liquid, too, if you knew how much better it makes you feel.

A liquid laxative can always be taken in the right amount. You can gradually reduce the dose. Reduced dosage is the secret of real and safe relief from constipation.

Just ask your own doctor about this. Ask your druggist how popular liquid laxatives have become. The right liquid laxative gives the right kind of help—and the right amount of help. When the dose is repeated, instead of more each time, you take less. Until the bowels are moving regularly and thoroughly without aid.

People who have experienced this comfort, never return to any form of help that can't be regulated! The liquid laxative generally used is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It contains senna and cascara, and these are natural laxatives that form no habit. It relieves a condition of biliousness or sluggishness without upset.

To relieve your occasional upsets safely and comfortably, try Syrup Pepsin. The druggist has it.

Washington.—At last after years of a social security program is before congress. And now that it is before congress there is a brand new one because it seems the "securers" never can agree themselves. The result is that in the house and in the senate trying vainly to follow administrative instructions, and has run into all kinds of difficulties. The social security program will not go back to President Roosevelt as a law in the form it was as an administration bill.

It is not the money phases that constitute the difficulties in the legislation as the leaders in congress see them. The bill sets up an intricate system of administration against which even the present fraternal list of New Deal agencies pales into insignificance. First, there is the ponderous organization for administration to be created here in Washington. Beneath that there are state organizations in every state, regional and county organizations and even city administrative bureaus. I think it takes no stretch of the imagination to foresee how many workers will be necessary to do just the plain chores of keeping a record of all the individuals on the government payrolls, federal and state, for administration of this legislation.

Here in Washington, we will have a social insurance board, a group of three members, receiving $10,000 a year each and serving for six years. The federal emergency relief administrator will have duties to perform in conjunction with the social insurance board as well as apart from it. The secretary of labor is given jurisdiction over some phases of the administration and the public health service is charged with conduct of the health insurance phases.

This is not all. The secretary of the treasury is charged with the management and investment of all of the monies under the various funds and it is he who must see that they are properly disbursed. In congress, considerable jealousy has arisen among committee chairmen, party wheel-horses and those who would enjoy being administration spokesmen.

Some of them, it hardly need be said, believe their political salvation lies in following the administration blindly and in addition there is another segment of legislators who keep their eyes on the historical significance of passing events. This group wants to have a leading part in enactment of the social security legislation because, it must be said, this is the greatest of all experiments undertaken at any time by the American government.

From lobby conversation it is perfectly evident that there are many men in the house and senate who would be willing to retire to whatever rewards their political service has given them only to become known as the father of the social security legislation. This condition has precipitated several humorous circumstances. Senator Wagner of New York sponsored the legislation in the senate and Representative Lewis of Maryland proposed it in the house. Senator Wagner's committee arranged to start hearings on a stated date in the senate and that date was announced rather suddenly. No sooner had the Wagner committee hearings been announced than Representative Doughton of North Carolina scheduled similar hearings before his ways and means committee in the house. He set the hearings one day ahead of the senate and the rivalry between the two for headline witness has been, to say the least, a source of many jokes.

Some weeks ago I reported to you that there were rumblings of difficulties ahead for the President's gigantic public works program, as his new experiment in recovery efforts is described. He asked congress for a lump sum of $4,500,000,000 with which to revive the heavy industries and other lines of commercial endeavor that they may absorb some of those unemployed now on relief rolls. It will be remembered that in his annual message to congress he said with emphasis that federal aid to the destitute must stop; that the giving of relief directly was a state responsibility.

Other Editors Say
"When All Think Alike no one thinks very much."

A newspaper friend, back from Washington, brings with him some excerpts from letters received by various "New Deal" agencies which he says, are adding to the gaiety of the nation's Capital. Here they are:

I cannot get sick pay; I have six children; can you tell me why it is?

This is my eighth child; what are you going to do about it?

Mrs. Brown has no clothing for a year and has been regularly visited by the clergy.

I have been co-habiting with several officers at headquarters, but without results.

I am glad to say that my husband, who was reported missing, is now deceased.

Sirs: I am forwarding my marriage certificate and my two children, one of which is a mistake you can see.

I am writing to say that my babies were born two years old; when do I get my money?

Unless I get my husband's money soon, I will be forced to lead an immortal life.

I am sending my marriage certificate and six children. I have seven; one dead which was baptized on half sheet of paper by Reverend Thomas.

Please find out for certain if my husband is dead. The man I am living with now won't eat anything or do anything until he knows for certain.

My husband has been put in charge of spittoon, so now do I get my money?

I am very annoyed to find that you have branded my oldest boy as illiterate. Oh, this is a dirty lie as I married his father a week before he was born.

In answer to your letter I have given birth to a boy weighing ten pounds. I hope this is satisfactory.

You have changed my little boy to a girl. Will it make any difference?

Please send my money at once as I need it badly. I have fallen into error with my landlady.

I have no children yet; my husband is a bus-driver and works days and nights.

In accordance with your instructions, I have given birth to twins in the enclosed envelope.

I want my money as quick as you can send it; I have been in bed with the doctor for two weeks and he doesn't seem to be doing me much good. If things don't improve I will have to send for another doctor.

During the year of 1934 1,048,811 men and boys were members of the Scouts and Cubs and it is looked for 1935 to be even larger. During 1934 they had 275,000 different men to be associated with Scout program in some manner.

Scouting is based on the "Code of Ethics" which is known to the Scout as the Scout Oath and Law, which provides the right qualities of character and right habits of conduct.

The youth under Scouting are organized for resourceful service and trained for efficient service in times of disaster and Emergency, such as Ohio and Mississippi floods, the Florida Hurricane and the St. Louis tornado.

The program of Scouting is a health, program, for the boy is taught to keep himself "Physically fit" but becomes an educational force in helping others toward a healthier and happier way of living.

The early part of 1934, President Roosevelt made an appeal, over the Radio, for Scouts to do a specific service and throughout the United States 2 million pieces of household furnishings and clothing and an additional twenty-five hundred dollars worth of food were gathered by the Scouts, with a great many smaller troops failing to report.

Every Scout is trained in First Aid and thousands of lives in the past twenty-five years have been saved because a Scout knew what to do in an emergency.

During the year just passed many thousand boys were permitted to camp under direction of trained Scout Leaders, and there is nothing that will bring a boy closer to his God than sleeping in the open and really communing with God—A boy Scout Camp gives the boy just this opportunity.

President Roosevelt is Honorary President of Boy Scouts of America and is Chairman of New York Scout Foundation, and has been for the past 12 years—he is an enthusiastic supporter of Scouting. Each year he visits several Boy Scout Camps. Scouting has helped the boys of America for the past 25 years and will continue to do so, under leadership of local men as Scoutmasters.

Newspapers, here is a very important message to the youth of your community:

President Roosevelt and a few men that are vitally interested in the boys of the United States have worked out plans for the biggest gathering of boys ever held in the United States. Over 30,000 boys of this country and approximately 500 boys from 58 other nations will gather for a National Jamboree, in Washington from August 21st to August 30th. The camp, which will be a very large affair, will be made in sight of Lincoln's Monument and the Capitou, and for 10 days the boys, who are fortunate enough to make the trip, will mingle and mix with other boys from all points of the United States and of the 58 nations of the world, also they will have opportunity of visiting all of the important places of interest in Washington and also visit Mount Vernon. The manner of selecting and restricting the number of boys to attend has been settled by allotting one boy to each troop. Each boy must arrange his own finances. The railroads of the United States have agreed to make a rate of 1c per mile, which means that boys from this area will cost approximately $30.00 railroad fare—the expense of the 10 days at Camp, in Washington will be $25.00 and an additional expense of approximately $25.00 makes the trip cost between $75.00 and $80.00. The trip will be nearly two weeks duration. All the 558

Scout Executives and the 300 Assistant Scout Executives have been notified to report for duty at Washington, which in addition to the many hundred Scoutmasters that will attend will assure the Jamboree of plenty efficient supervision.

The traveling uniform of all Scouts will be of a standard and uniform nature and will be Official Scout items.

The only manner in which Scouts can make the trip to Washington will be through his local Council—no Scoutmaster or group will be allowed to make the trip in autos or trucks or buses. All Scouts must go as part of the Council which his troop is a member of.

This Jamboree will promote a sense of National Brotherhood and will stimulate friendships. Will give Scouts an opportunity to observe how Scouts from other parts of the country carrying on Scouting. It will stimulate more interest in Scouting throughout the United States. Will provide wonderful educational advantages for the Scouts who are fortunate enough to make the trip. It will deepen the sense of responsibility and obligation of Scouts as Citizens of the United States.

Some Burkburnett men go to church, sit in deep reflection throughout the sermon, and then go home with their work planned for the entire week ahead.

WE POINT WITH PRIDE

"We Own Our Own At Home"

.... We don't want to carry the subject of owning our own at home to monotonous lengths, but the citizens of Burkburnett are taking such pride in being among the 35 Texas towns who own their public utilities that we like to remind you of it again. . . . You may well "point with pride" to the fact that you are keeping your money at home where it will be spent for your benefit; that your electrical rates are lower; that you are supporting home industry; that you are building a foundation for improved civic projects; that you are following in the line of progress Investigate the successful status of those towns which own their own at home.

According to a health expert daily use of the tooth brush improves the child's disposition. In the good old days around Burkburnett a hair brush was used for this operation.

Some scientists want to get the farmers to raise bamboo. Haven't the farmers been bamboozled enough as it is?

If you don't believe in Providence, watch some Burkburnett motorists on the highways and try to figure out what else saves them.

We agree with the judge who ruled that a wooden leg does not bar a man from driving an auto. It's the wooden heads that cause the trouble.

A man smelling of limburger cheese was convicted of disorderly conduct in New York City. Justice may be blind, but it hasn't lost its sense of smell.

Nature adjusts things. By the time a Burkburnett man's wife gets too fat to be held in his arms he doesn't give a darn, anyway.

Third parties may be just the thing in congress but most couples think them out of place in the parlor.

It is better for a man to have even a dollar a day with a job than a dime a day without a job.

If the dealer drives it 500 miles, it is nicely broken in. If you drive it 10 miles it's a used car.

'JUDGE PRIEST' GREAT ROLE, SAYS PLAYER

The most successful pictures Will Rogers has made are those in which he has worn old clothes. On many occasions these have been the identical overalls and jumper he wears on his ranch.

Rogers says so himself, pointing to "David Harum," "State Fair," "Lightnin'," "Mr. Skitch," "Handy Andy" and now "Judge Priest."

"I feel more comfortable in old togs," declares the comedian, "and feeling at ease, I can give a better performance."

"What about 'They Had to See Paris,' one of your greatest pictures?" asked an interviewer. "In that production, as I recall it, you wore evening clothes and several tailor-made outfits."

"Well," drawled Rogers, "that's the one that proves the exception. Some said I suffered from microphone fright, but it wasn't so. I was afraid the people would laugh at me instead of at the character."

This picture will be at the Palace Theatre Friday and Saturday.

Luggage Problem Solved by Dodge

Gone are the days—at least for owners of new Dodge models—when motor car passengers had to share the comforts of the tonneau with grips, suitcases and other travel appurtenances. It is different now. Not only luggage, but the spare wheel and tire are carried in the rear, in the space which, when closed, looks like a trunk and affords room for more things than a motoring trunk ever held before. An idea of the manner in which the luggage question has been solved in the new Dodge models, is given in the accompanying illustration showing at the right the touring trunk divided into two sections, the upper one serving as luggage space, the lower one as spare tire compartment. In cases where the owner prefers to carry the spare tire equipment forwards, in fender wells, the entire trunk compartment is available for luggage.
