GENERAL PURPOSE LIFE INSURANCE

By C. F. O'DONNELL, President
SOUTHWESTERN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

Over one hundred billion dollars of life insurance has lapsed in the U. S. The amount of life insurance not continued until death is the maturity of the endowment. The lapse figure can be reduced by the amount of insurance which is now in force in the United States which amounts to eight billion dollars. The amount suggests the possibility of using more care in the purchase of life insurance. Insurance have a selfish purpose to reduce the high cost of life insurance. It is also a reduction in the lapses of insurance would be beneficial to the insurance buying public. Insurance companies have that insurance which is for specific purposes stays better than life insurance.

BURK ENDORSES RAYBURN BILL

The executive committee of the chamber of commerce passed a formal resolution instructing the secretary to write all congressmen of the state to use their influence in securing consideration of a bill that will eliminate the short haul provision of section four of the Interstate Commerce act. The bill has been before the national congress for several years, but it has never survived committee investigation. Introduced by Congressman Rayburn of Texas, it was referred to a sub-committee last season as H. R. 8100 and died in the committee. The organization urged the representatives to use pressure to bring the bill to the floor. The advantage of the bill, according to the directors of the organization will be to give the railroads an opportunity to work out a sounder basis for rates on freight.

Mrs. Ola Hudspeth returned last week from Temple, Texas where she has been at the bedside of her father, Mr. J. C. Rice, 92, who has been ill with flu and pneumonia. She spent a month with him but left him well on the road to recovery.

Burk Youth Is Charged With Slaying Louisiana Man

A Louisiana farm boy who found a job and went to work in Burkburnett on March 1, found himself involved in a two-year-old murder mystery Monday night—exactly one month after arriving at Burkburnett.

The youth, Buck Sheppard, 25, was arrested at Burkburnett Monday afternoon on charges of complicity in the death of Dr. Fred Hamilton, a Jena, La., physician whose body was found in his burned home two years ago. Sheppard and two other men, one of them the son of Dr. Hamilton were indicted a few days ago by the Jena grand jury in connection with the case.

Knows Other Men

Sheppard told that he knew nothing about the circumstances of Dr. Hamilton's death other than what he had heard or read. He said that he came to Burkburnett March 1 to work for the Gulf Pipe Line company at the pumping station just outside Burkburnett. Sheppard said he was raised on a farm near Jena and that both Miller and Louis Hamilton were his friends. He added he was in Jena at the time of Dr. Hamilton's death. He recalled that the body of Dr. Hamilton had been found in the ruins of his burned home but said that as far as he knew the tragedy was accidental.

The prisoner said he had no criminal record. His nearest relative is a cousin living in Ranger.

Officers En Route

Jena officers wired Monday afternoon that they would leave that city Wednesday morning for Wichita Falls to take Sheppard into custody. Deputy Sheriff O. A. Robertson made the arrest at Burkburnett and brought the prisoner to Wichita Falls.

COST OF RELIEF

DON'T BURN MONEY

No matter how much money you may have, burning money is unwise. Along about this time of year there's a general ransacking of the attic, the basement and the barn.

There are a few people around Burkburnett who are always ready to sympathize with you in your trouble, and if you haven't any trouble they'll go out and hunt up some for you.

Investigators say that milk can be kept in cold storage indefinitely. That's where most of the "milk of human kindness" seems to be.

Sins of the parents are visited upon the children to the third and fourth generation, and their bond issues until the sixth and seventh generation.

Those old Burkburnett pioneers would have starved to death, too, if they had waited for government relief instead of getting behind a plow.

If Italy is prepared to spend $800,000,000 on a war in Abyssinia then why can't she pay something on the debts she owes on the last one?

When the old-timers called this the land of the free they meant free people, not free board.

Politicians must love the poor or they wouldn't be trying so hard to make us all that way.

CONTROL OF LOOPER By M. E. Lebo, Prof. of Horticulture N. T. A. C., Arlington, Texas

This spring we have had many inquiries already in regard to worms that have appeared on plum trees. These worms or caterpillars are commonly known as measuring-worms, inch-worms, or loopers.

These worms are primarily foliage-eating. The tree may be entirely defoliated within a few days after these pests have made their appearance. They usually found to be in greater numbers and to be more destructive in regions near wooded areas. They will feed on practically any kind of shade and fruit tree foliage. However, according to reports coming in, they are at the present time causing very much injury to plum trees here. They have been reported to have not only eaten the foliage but also the blossoms, young set fruit, and the tender tips of new growth.

The looper may be controlled on peach trees by using arsenate of lead spray at the rate of one pound of the powdered form to 50 gallons of water. When used on plums and other kinds of trees, one and one-half pounds of powdered arsenate of lead in 50 gallons of water is usually recommended.

Peach and plum foliage susceptible to spray burn; therefore, it is very important that the strength of the spray mixture is not increased over that recommended for them.

Capitol News Letter

—by—
W. D. McFARLANE, M. C.

War Clouds
It looks more each day like anything may happen throughout the world in the way of future wars.
Daily conferences between representatives of England, France, Lithuania, Germany,
and Soviet Russia
indicate how insecure our peace may be. This Congress carries appropriation bills amounting to more than a billion dollars for a national defense.
And now, Margaret Sanger, President of the National Committee on Federal Legislation comes forward

suggestion for a permanent peace,
of the following:
"If a nation cannot maintain its population, and cannot solve its problem by emigration and control of foreign trade, it has three courses open: it can lower its standard of living, it can expand by force of arms, it can reduce its birth rate.
The first means retrogression, the second means war, the third means birth control."
Utility Holding Company Legislation
Never before in the history of the United States has the Congress received such a flood of propaganda as it is now receiving on the Rayburn-Wheeler Bill for the control of Public Utility Holding Companies.
The members of the House and Senate are getting more than a hundred thousand pieces a day consisting mostly of form letters and printed cards. The striking features of this mail is that no specific objections are lodged against the bill or any of its sections. Only a general criticism is offered in spite of the fact that the bill contains 178 pages and 336 sections. But there is also much favorable comment that is specific and any number of comments similar to the following editorials can be found.

"The gist of the President's message was that gas and electric consumers cannot be expected to pay for maintenance of holding companies that cannot justify their existence on the ground of public service. That is sound doctrine." South Bend Tribune.
"It is an interesting commentary on the patience, discipline and sportsmanship of the American people that they have accepted the In-sull verdicts peaceably, although hundreds of thousands of them have drained to its dregs the cup of misery caused by operations under holding companies now declared by the courts to have been legal."
"Roosevelt's messages demanding legislation for the control of public utility holding companies was a good answer to the tremendous volume of messages opposing such legislation which has rolled in upon a bewildered Congress." Washington Star.

Calendar
The House and Senate both
have for past week been occupied mainly with conference reports and minor bills. The only important legislation passed was the bills to strengthen the Navy, passed in the House on Wednesday, March 27th, and the repeal of the Pink Slip Income Tax Publicity provision, passed in the Senate, Thursday, March 28th.
Next week the House will immediately take up the long delayed
final action on the Works Relief Bill. The conference report comes up Monday. The conferees reached an agreement the latter part of last week, but action was deferred.
Whatever time is left Monday will be devoted to Suspension Day and Tuesday the Private Calendar will be considered. Wednesday and

Thursday will be devoted to the McSwain Bill to prevent profiteering in time of war and a Rivers and Harbors Bill authorizing general improvements has been placed on the Calendar for Friday.

Controlling Lesser Peach Tree Borer

The Lesser Peach Tree Borer is the most important insect pest of trees in this community and confines its attack mostly above the ground, to the trunk and limbs of the tree. Only injured trees are attacked by these worms. Such bark injuries as may be made by sun scalding, broken limbs, or peeling up the bark in anyway will afford an excellent place for the eggs of this insect to be laid. The insect passes through the winter in the larval stage. During early spring the larvae changes to the pupa stage and in about 10 days the adult moths emerge.

At this time the eggs are deposited on and around any bark injury that might be on the tree. This is the way the trees are infested with the Lesser Peach Tree Borer.

The treatment recommended for this insect pest consists of one pound of paradichlorobenzene to two qts. of crude cottonseed oil. This mixture should be thoroughly dissolved, which will take quite a while. Only the injured parts of the tree should be treated as injuries might occur when too much of this mixture is put on the tree. A common paint brush is the best way to apply the treatment. —Jack D. Everheart

High School Library

The poster on display for the month of April is another which presents the idea of travel by reading. It shows in silhouette an airplane flying above an ocean liner, and bears the name of Book Journeys. The poster also bears the following words: "This interesting world of ours in books at your library".

See "Dummy," the Junior Class play!

NOTICE

All who are writing school songs must have these in on or before April 12.

The Choral Club will sing all songs entered and the student body will judge them.

You can't afford to miss 'Dummy'.

GOVERNOR JAMES V. ALLRED

Governor James V. Allred was asked to deliver the Commencement Address. He sent the following telegram: "Tremendously appreciate invitation and regret it will be impossible for me to come to Burkburnett on May twenty-third. Regards, James V. Allred."

Miss Estelle Hayes, former teacher in Burk High School and teacher in the Waxachachie school, and Gene Forman were visitors in the school Monday.

Let's elect Pauline Browning as Football Queen!

Senior News

A number of the talented Seniors met Monday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock in room 214 to display their ability as actors and actresses in order that Mr. Creighton, the Public Speaking instructor, might select the cast for "Kempy", the Senior play. The names of the cast will be posted on the Bulletin board Wednesday.

Friday evening the Seniors had as their guests the Juniors and their sponsors. The class motored to Prescott where a picnic lunch was served. Much could be told about the picnic but this is "one time" that the Juniors and Seniors agreed that "mum" is the word.

The Seniors regret that Grace Russel, their treasurer, and Tex Allen, Vice-President, are out of school due to illness.

The Senior Class has started making plans for their class day program which is to be May 9.

Miss Frances Clark, secretary of the Senior class, is out of school due to illness.

All members of the Senior class, with the exception of a very few who had very good excuses, attended school April 1. This sounds as if the Seniors will be granted Senior week.

The Senior class is planning to attend the Junior class play. They are also looking forward to the Junior-Senior Banquet.

Boost the Football Queens! Football Queen

Monday, April 1, the voting for the football queens opened. The nominees for the queenship are Pauline Browning, Billyjane Chatham and Lucille Kemp. The voting will close Friday afternoon at 4:15.

The money received will go to the track boys for their awards. Three boys have been selected to campaign for the girls. They are Dick Hall for Pauline Browning; Avis Finch for Billyjane Chatham and J. T. Clifton for Lucille Kemp. The one that receives the most votes will be crowned queen. A date has not yet been set for the crowning of the queen. Everyone is sure that the football boys will be pleased with whoever is elected.

Be Sure and See "Dummy"!!

April Fools Day For The Seniors

April Fools Day passed very pleasantly for the Seniors.

As the morning bells began to ring and the time was growing nearer for the lost or tardy bell to ring Miss Morgan appeared very nervous, afraid the Seniors were not going to get to school, but they began to file in one by one, two by two until finally all the seniors were in their places. Even Hubert Gragg came in and was just a few minutes early. He patted himself on the back for his own accomplishment saying "Look what all I have done". Of course all had an uneasy feeling all day that maybe they still had something up their sleeves. But the day ended with just a few jokes pulled on both teachers and students.

Ask the public speaking class how they felt when they were told to prepare to write for a test on April 1st.

"Dummy"

The Junior play "Dummy" is to be given soon, so watch for the date. The cast of "Dummy" is an outstanding one:

Curtis Blair, J. T. Clifton, Margaret Walton, Billyjane Chatham, Mrs. Walton, Willie Etta Alexander, James Camron, Johnny Baptiste, Mr. Hedges, J. R. Brock, Dorothy Burke, Irene Evans, Sylvia, Lucille Kemp, Prof. Walton, Othar Wheeler.

"Dummy" is to be given in order that the Juniors may give the Seniors a banquet this year. We are sure the Seniors will help us and we hope that everyone will come to see "Dummy" for it is to be the best play ever given in Burkburnett High School.

TYPIST TO GO TO DISTRICT

Paul Savage, who won first place in typewriting meet, and Pauline Brown, who won third, will represent Burkburnett High School at the district meet in Wichita Falls on Friday, April 5. The student placing second, Miss Abernathy of Iowa Park will make the third typing contestant from Wichita County. Wichita Falls did not of course participate in the Wichita County Meet therefore will have no elimination with the school until the District Meet.

Last year each typist who entered the county contest could go to the District Meet regardless of whether he placed in the county or not. That is in the past, the county meet has only been a practice meet for the typists. This will mean fewer contestants for the district meet. The five highest ranking individual students in the district will go to the regional meet at Denton on April 20.

PLAYGROUND BALL

Who won first place in county meet in playground ball in the Ward School girl's division? The girls team of the sixth and seventh grades did. This team was known as the girls team of Burk Grammar School.

Their record for contest games is interesting; the first game was with Fairview with a score of twenty-five to ten. By scoring eleven and Valley View scoring seven, the Burk team went into the finals. The final game was played with Thompson Ward of Electra and ended with a score of 24 to 2. In this game Burk was at bat first and made nine runs in this inning. Thompson girls made their two scores in the fifth inning.

The team is composed of the following girls: Pauline Rankin, pitcher; Jackie Jackson, Catcher and Cap't of team; Doris Bowden, first base; Norma Jane Pace, first short; Gussie Brittan, second base; Rosa Mae Gobbie, third base; Gwendolyn Stevens, second short; fielders, Pauline Conrad, Geraldine Morris, and Georgia Spillers.

The substitutes were Dorothy Moore, Virginia Noe, and Marcella Day.

The team wishes to take this means of thanking the boys for calling their games, knocking them off and any other assistance given.

A Few Words About Words

Nothing is more interesting than a study of words. The Latinist has an advantage over the non-Latinist in seeing in words the finer shades of meaning of which the latter must necessarily be ignorant. Take as an example the word "Meticulous." To the average person this word means "extremely careful." But the Latin word from which it comes to us, "meticulosus" means "full of fear" (metus, "fear"). A meticulous person is careful because he is afraid to be otherwise.

Have you ever stopped to think what is meant by a delirious person? "Lira" means a furrow made by a plow, and "de" means "away from". So a delirious person is one who is out of the furrow, off the track, wandering.

The story is told of P. T. Barnum, the famous showman, that on one occasion, when the crowds in the menagerie tents not moving fast enough, he posted a large sign reading "This way to the Egress." The crowds quickly thinned in search of the strange animal. There are about forty-two derivatives from the Latin word from which "egress" comes. "Gravior gressus" means "to go". Thus we have congress, progressive, digression, and aggressive "to go to it".

"Calculus", a diminutive formed from "Calx", "calcis", is a little stone, a pebble. Since these stones were used as counters, they give us our word "calculate". "Calculus" is also the name of a higher branch of mathematics.

"Scrupulus" means a small stone.

It emphasized smallness. It was with the Romans the twenty-fourth part of an ounce, but it was also a sharp, pointed stone, and in this sense it emphasized troublesomeness. A scruple is an anxiety about little things. A scrupulous person weighs his actions most carefully.

Many interesting words for "cordis", "heart". "Cordial" means "heartly". When persons are in accord or in concord, their hearts are together-agreed. When there is discord among them, their hearts are apart-separated.

"Orbita" means a "path", "a course". Our derivative "orbit" describes the path of a planet around the sun, or the moon around the earth. Anything that is exorbitant is "off the track"; it has lost the road. An exorbitant price is one out of line with what a price ought to be.

Home Economics

Plans are being made in the home economics department to attend the Homemaking Education Rally to be held at Corpus Christi April 25-27. We are now working on our last project for raising money for this trip. It is a quilt that is being made by members of the Helpful Homemakers Club. We will embroider your name on the quilt for 10c and later on, it is to be auctioned off. We would like for all of you to see one of the home economics girls and give your name to be put on the quilt. So far Mildred Kemp is leading the contest in getting the most names for the quilt.

Virgie Lee Skipwith will represent the third year class at the rally. She will model the afternoon dress that she made in class besides entering contests pertaining to family relationships, selection of clothing, foods and hospitality, and household furnishing.

Girls to represent the first and second year classes will be selected within one or two weeks. Each girl who is taking clothing this semester or took it last semester will model her dress and out of town judges will select the ones to represent the first and second years classes of Burkburnett at the Homemaking Education Rally.

Spring Football

Spring football is progressing fine. The boys have more interest than expected.

The most promising back for the coming season is J. T. Clifton, although he has to make quite an improvement in his kicking and passing. J. T. has improved in his ball carrying. He has natural ability to pick his holes and then hit them. Duke has improved at the guard position. Clifford has been out of school the past week and will be out another week with a foot injury.

Tolley McKowen, the new quarter-back, is an improved man over last fall. Tolley has to improve almost 100 per cent more for there is not a lot expected of him next fall. Truett Majors was a reserve letterman from last fall and if he improves in the next few weeks as he has this far, Majors is going to make Rose look bad. He is rough and tough.

Carl Cook has lots of improvements to make. He will of course do so if he keeps his good work going.

Kenneth Whitten and eighth grader, working at guard and is one of the hardest workers on the field. Looks like he is going to be a regular.

Eldon Maneyan, eighth grader, making a center. Eldon has lots of hard work before him. He loves football and that is what it takes.

Billy Rudd, a high seventh grade, now working at quarter back. Billie is doing nicely for his size and is a real boy who loves the game.

Dick Mall, ex-manager, and a tough little fellow in a uniform. Dick is learning fast and he looks as if he might get a regular job this winter.

Neldon Thompson, a guard, has had a little hard luck this winter. He has been sick and can't get going like he should. We can say he has it in him and that he is a sticker. A fine quality that makes football players.

Doris Hagman, an eighth grader, and mighty light. He makes up for it in his working and sticking ability. He is going to make a good man.

Billie Shoefstall an end, and a tough one at that. Billie is a great lad and he will improve a lot. He has the makings of a good man. Billie is an asset to the club.

Wade Johnson, high seventh, and a tackle. Wade is a big boy, weighing about 190. Wade is not able to handle himself at present but he has improved 100 per cent since he started his football. It's going to take lots of hard work for him.

Thomas Lowery, a guard, and a mighty light one. It's not size that counts, it's fight that makes a football player. That is Thomas.

Owen "Ug" Hatcher a tackle and a tough one. Hatcher is not a finished player as yet. He has to make a lot of improvement in his defense work. There is no reason why he shouldn't be an all-district tackle next fall.

Captain Avis Finch, it's fight with him a little fellow but loaded with powder. Avis is a nice defense man and is improving right along. He should make us a valuable man.

Wayne Rose and end. Wayne is working harder and has more interest in his work than he ever has. We believe that he is going to be the best end in the district if he keeps up his good work. He is a nice blocker and a fair defense man. Although he is not rough enough in his defensive work.

Bruce Blair, a coming young fellow, is catching on to his football pretty fast and the little fellow is progressing nicely.

Marshall Teal is progressing at the half back position. Marshall has to improve in his blocking. Teal has made a great improvement and is a real worker. He is going to make a valuable man.

Cline Brashear hurt his knee the first day of practice and hasn't been able to do much. Ralph Stuart with lots of hard work should prove to be a great help to the team.

J. W. Kent is big and fast and he will make a regular tackle berth if he will work hard and make up his mind he wants to be a good man. He has lots of ability and a nice future, but it takes a rough and tough boy to be good. J. W. can if he will.

Bryan Teal has lots of natural ability but hasn't made up his mind what he is going to do. He has possibilities of making a good man if he would. Bryan looked mighty good the first few days he was out, but he is not doing much now.

Vocational Agriculture

Planning a 3 or 4 year crop rotation and planting cowpeas regularly each year as a soil builder will more than pay for the trouble and will rebuild the soil with the least amount of expense, was the decision reached by the first year class in Agriculture during the past week.

Under normal conditions the cowpeas that will grow in this community are blackeyed peas, crowder peas. The varieties are better adapted to this community than some other varieties. Some of the uses of these cowpeas are for table use, feed for livestock, soil builder and pastures.

Another important problem being studied is that of Propagation of trees and shrubs. This work includes budding and grafting and all the steps necessary in doing this work.

Who is the "Dummy"?

Ain't Love Grand

By Lorean Alvey
Spring is in the air, and we just this to mention.

Between the ages of twelve and sixteen, a boy doesn't give thought to the opposite sex. This is just about the time a boy becomes boy-stuck.

She goes to sleep thinking of wavy hair, and those divine eyes she thinks he gives her, when he has not even given her a look. But when a boy reaches sixteen and seventeen, all his thoughts are for the girl of his dreams. He meets the girl of his dreams and as far as his family is concerned, it's just another boy home. About boys, here is a tip: always like boys, a little. They however, the girls get temperamental. She knows he's in love, she refuses to follow him around. Instead she gives him those know-all-experienced looks. Reason keeps a boy on the edge. Ah, well there's no getting around it. We fall sooner or later, and girls, don't forget. "Love is Blind!"

Vote for Lucille Kemp as Football Queen!

Husband (tripping over loose pet): I shall lose my temper if this confounded carpet in a utility!"

Wife: That's right, dear, do take a stick and give it a jolly hiding out on the lawn.

IT'S YOUR HOME
BUT—WOULD YOUR WIFE
BUY IT TODAY?

As your home stands today, would your wife buy it? Or would she turn to you and say, "Not this house! Just look at the condition of these floors!"

Why give her a home like that? It's your house... you own it. And there's no reason why you and your family shouldn't enjoy new floors... the kind that bring instant new value to any home. If you already have hardwood floors, perhaps they need finishing. That, too, is something to think about today.

Under the Better Housing plan, property owners may borrow now up to $2,000 for home modernization, and repay the loan out of income, monthly, over a period as long as 5 years.

Ask one of your local approved banks about this new and convenient way of paying for home improvements. Any of the firms listed below will be glad to look over your home and make an estimate, without obligation on your part. Now is the time to take advantage of the Better Housing Program. Seniors Get A Break

Members of the Senior Class are busy packing saving "cents" week-end in Denton, April 2-4. They are all anticipating a marriage and a "swell" chicken which is so characteristic of "good old South". Those in attendance either N. T. S. C. I. A. are planning to look and see just what there will be in store for them.

District Home Ec Club Meeting

Mrs. R. D. Watkins, Miss Lily May Armstrong, both instructors in the Fairview school, Elva Stimpson, Maxine Vines, Marvadin Vines, Ruth Miller, Anita Pharrries, Bennie Spencer, and Wanda Gale Harmon were visitors in Nocona Saturday, March 30th. While Mrs. Watkins visited her nephew, Bill Nat Wilks, the other members of the party attended a district Home Economics Club meeting.

Senior Personality

Ruthe (Bitty) Vogel, the last senior to be interviewed, graced this world with her presence for the first time January 25, 1918. The city of Burkburnett, Texas receives the honor of being her home town. She became known in the community as "Bitty", and is still called that by most of her friends. When this blond was five years of age she moved to Thrift, Texas. When she was seven she moved to Wichita Falls, Texas. Having nothing more to do in Wichita, she moved to Holliday, Texas, at the age of eleven. She lived in Holliday until the beginning of this past semester, September 10. She now is one of the most important students in F. H. S. Last year Ruthe represented the Holliday school in declamation and essay writing and won first in them at both the county and the district meets. This year representing F. H. S., she won first place in essay writing and second place in declamation at the county. She is considered one of the best students attending Fairview, and we think she is one of the best attending any school.

A few of her favorites are: drink, cherry phosphate; color, pretty blue; pastime, dreaming; hobby, collecting souvenirs; aversion, narrow-minded people; food, dill pickles; song, "Solitude"; book, "A White Dove Flying"; Orchestra, Jimmy Greer; actor, George Raft; actress, Kathern Hepburn; ambition, to entertain; amusement, dancing; flower, magnolia; class, speech; teacher, Y. C. Paschall, Sr.; Sport, tennis; motto, "Excell".

Miss Vogel, after much interviewing, consented to give us a description of her ideal boy friend (which she hasn't found): eyes, brown; hair, black and curly; height, medium; complexion, olive; in character he must be serious most of the time, yet be the kind you can have fun with. He must be a good dancer and have an appreciation for the higher things. He must know how to dress and conduct himself. One "not" is, he must "not" be a "nert".

Ruthe is vice-president of the senior class, associate editor of "Bear Tracks", was a member of the volley ball team and is a member of the Choral Club. She was chosen as the most representative girl for the senior class.

Miss Vogel has very definite ideas about boys (grand subject). She said that most of them are conceited, and had themselves over-rated. Very few can be a real pal to the opposite sex.

To give you a thumb-nail description of Ruthe, I would say: eyes, changeable (blue, grey, violet); hair, very blond (done up); height, five feet, five inches; a "swell" personality and a "swell" girl.

It has been said that she might be twins because she and Ada Marsh are inseparable. However, we hardly think that possible. In closing, we add that she is one "keen" sport and a good friend to everyone.

Must Simon annoy all the teachers and students?

Do people say Ada (dark) and Ruthe (blonde) are twins?

Do Seniors "loaf" until six weeks exams and then try to get all their work in two days' time?

Did Elva get up at the Senior class meeting Tuesday and end a short speech by presenting to Bill Wells money for his expenses to Denton with the Seniors?

Must Seniors get their lessons after they get to class?

Does Harlen do everything Marion tells him?

Won't Chuck make up his mind about Rosalie and Margaret Lee?

Did Kay return Rosalie's bracelet after wearing it for so long?

Aren't our teachers appreciated by the students?

Did Mr. Watkins win the contest for being best-looking man at the party?

The Seniors go romantic in their annual class play this year in "The Eyes of Love". The cast has been chosen, but work on the play has not yet begun.

The play is being looked forward to as one of the most important events of the season. With such talent as Marion McClarney, Elva Stimpson, Ruth Vogel, Ada Marsh, Geneva Seidlitz, Bill Wells, Milton Winkles, Simon Hanks, and Clarence Bridges, and with Mrs. Watkins as the director, the play is certain to be a success.

Throughout this week the four classes of high school will battle for the title of "champs".

The contests include track for boys, track for girls, boy's and girls' volleyball, skill at the shuffle board, and play ground ball. If any disagreements result, we appoint Mr. Watkins as the official referee!

Watch your local newspaper for final results and details!!!

Seniors Entertained At Tack Party

The Seniors were entertained by Fordina and Wessie Hearrell with a tacky party and April Fool party combined. Mr. Watkins was April-fooled by being given a prize for being the best-looking man there. Mr. J. W. Vanderbilt (otherwise known as Kay Biles) won the prize for being the tackiest and craziest boy. "Grandma" Seidlitz (Geneva) won the prize for being the tackiest dressed girl.

Seniors were dressed as duds, deacons, thugs, grandmas, grinning hippos, and country hoosiers.

Mrs. Watkins painted her lips, making them stretch a little more, but all in all, she looked quite natural.

The funniest thing and the funniest was Mr. Watkins with his comical costume. Several of the guests made themselves ill from laughing at him, and to think, he won the prize for being the best looking man. Everyone understood, however, that it was an April Fool's party.

Gingerbread and buttermilk in tin cups were served to Geneva Seidlitz, Wessie Hearrell, Ford Hearrell, Bill Wells, Elva Stimpson, Harlen Boyd, Marion McClarney, Simon Hanks, J. C. Paschall, Jr., George T. Roberts, Chuck Morrison, K. Miles, "Phoebe" Bogy, Mary Elizabeth Wells, Odessa Hearrell, Clarence Bridges, Mr. and Mrs. Watkins, our sponsors, and Mr. and Mrs. Wells, our class mother and father.

Let's have another party like that, Wessie and Ford, and let's not

When you have had your refrigerator as long as I've had my G-E, you'll know PERFORMANCE is more important than all other features combined.

General Electric dared to be different... and they built a Refrigerator that outlasts them all

Performance depends on the mechanism of the refrigerator—not on special features of the cabinet. The famous G-E mechanism is sealed in walls of ageless steel—protected from air, dust and moisture, and requires no attention, not even oiling. Hundreds of thousands of owners who have had their General Electric Monitor Top refrigerators over 5 years, find the matchless mechanism performs as well today as when first bought. 97% are still serving original owners—a record we believe to be unparalleled.

This Modern Generation

By Ruthe Vogel

"What is this modern generation coming to?" How many times is that question repeated each day by the members of the past generation and the generation before them? It is silently thought by those who do not understand us many more times than it is spoken. The entire world of mothers and fathers seem to be certainly concerned and doubtlessly worried as to what will determine the answer to the question.

Perhaps, if those waiting for an answer would look the question squarely in the face, their worries might cease. Our modern generation! It is made up of boys and girls who, with their strong and healthy minds and bodies, look at life and its facts without any veil of pretended conservatism; young men and young women who are not afraid to be frank with each other and to meet each other on an equal basis.

SHORTER COLDS VICKS VAPORUB
 PROVED BY 2 GENERATIONS

This is an age of free thinking, and many fine and beautiful things have resulted from this era. Great thinkers are the product of a period of free thinking; and great inventions and discoveries are the result of the labors of great thinkers—inventions and discoveries to help the labors, and to lessen the sufferings of humanity.

The fact that all of "this modern generation" are more frank and more independent than their forefathers proves conclusively that they are only doing their own thinking in a more clear and more concise manner than those who have just preceded them.

What is this modern generation coming to? They are coming to develop a world of greater thinking and greater equality. They are coming to contribute a greater part of science and humanity than any generation before them.

So, dear mothers and father everywhere, when you think of "what this modern generation is coming to", smile, and be proud of them!

Regrets

BURK ENDORSES RAYBURN BILL

The executive committee of the chamber of commerce passed a formal resolution instructing the secretary to write all congressmen of the state to use their influence in securing consideration of a bill that will eliminate the short haul provision of section four of the Interstate Commerce act. The bill has been before the national congress for several years, but it has never survived committee investigation. Introduced by Congressman Rayburn of Texas, it was referred to a sub-committee last season as H. R. 8100 and died in the committee. The organization urged the representatives to use pressure to bring the bill to the floor. The advantage of the bill, according to the directors of the organization will be to give the railroads an opportunity to work out a sounder basis for rates on freight.

Burk Youth Is Charged With Slaying Louisiana Man

A Louisiana farm boy who found a job and went to work in Burkburnett on March 1, found himself involved in a two-year-old murder mystery Monday night—exactly one month after arriving at Burkburnett.

The youth, Buck Sheppard, 25, was arrested at Burkburnett Monday afternoon on charges of complicity in the death of Dr. Fred Hamilton, a Jena, La., physician whose body was found in his burned home two years ago. Sheppard and two other men, one of them the son of Dr. Hamilton were indicted a few days ago by the Jena grand jury in connection with the case.

Sheppard told that he knew nothing about the circumstances of Dr. Hamilton's death other than what he had heard or read. He said that he came to Burkburnett March 1 to work for the Gulf Pipe Line company at the pumping station just outside Burkburnett. Sheppard said he was raised on a farm near Jena and that both Miller and Louis Hamilton were his friends. He added he was in Jena at the time of Dr. Hamilton's death. He recalled that the body of Dr. Hamilton had been found in the ruins of his burned home but said that as far as he knew the tragedy was accidental.

The prisoner said he had no criminal record. His nearest relative is a cousin living in Ranger. Officers En Route Jena officers wired Monday afternoon that they would leave that city Wednesday morning for Wichita Falls to take Sheppard into custody. Deputy Sheriff O. A. Robertson made the arrest at Burkburnett and brought the prisoner to Wichita Falls.

COST OF RELIEF

You can search all over Burkburnett and surrounding territory and you won't find two people agreeing as to what is going to be the outcome of relief work in this country. Everyone will agree, however, that it has developed into quite a "racket," yet few know exactly what a tremendous financial burden it has become. A Washington newspaper man has gone into federal records and made some figures. These show that relief is costing the U. S. $58 a second, or $3,480 a minute—every minute of the day and night. That means $208,000 an hour for every hour of the 24 in a day, or $5,000,000 a day. The total for a single month of 30 days is exactly $150,000,000. In May, 1933, there were 17,000,000 persons on relief. Today, two years later, the number is 22,875,000, and yet in the past two years the sum of $3,207,000,000 of federal, state and local funds have been expended to ameliorate the problem. The question, therefore, seems to be: "How long can this government keep going at this rate?" But who is qualified to answer the question?

DON'T BURN MONEY

No matter how much money you may have, burning money is unwise. Along about this time of year there's a general ransacking of the attic, the basement and the barn. Things you don't need are brought forth, and in many instances tossed on a heap in the backyard for a bonfire. Don't you know that there is someone who would be glad to get the very things you are destroying, and that most cases they would be glad to pay something for them? There's a market. List the things about the house you no longer need and want to get rid of. Then at a cost of but a few cents place a little "For Sale" ad in these columns. You'll find your market, because it has worked for others—and it will work for you.

There are a few people around Burkburnett who are always ready to sympathize with you in your trouble, and if you haven't any trouble they'll go out and hunt up some for you.

Investigators say that milk can be kept in cold storage indefinitely. That's where most of the "milk of human kindness" seems to be.

Sins of the parents are visited upon the children to the third and fourth generation, and their bond issues until the sixth and seventh generation.

Those old Burkburnett pioneers would have starved to death, too, if they had waited for government relief instead of getting behind a plow.

If Italy is prepared to spend $800,000,000 on a war in Abyssinia then why can't she pay something on the debts she owes on the last one?

CONTROL OF LOOPER
By M. E. Lebo, Prof. of Horticulture
N. T. A. C., Arlington, Texas

This spring we have had many inquiries already in regard to worms that have appeared on plum trees. These worms or caterpillars are commonly known as measuring-worms, inch-worms, or loopers. Their color may vary from light green to black, depending a great deal on the plants they are feeding on.

These worms are primarily foliage-eating. The tree may be entirely defoliated within a few days after these pests have made their appearance. They usually found to be in greater numbers and to be more destructive in regions near wooded areas. They will feed on practically any kind of shade and fruit tree foliage. However, according to reports coming in, they are at the present time causing very much injury to plum trees here. They have been reported to have not only eaten the foliage but also the blossoms, young set fruit, and the tender tips of new growth.

The looper may be controlled on peach trees by using arsenate of lead spray at the rate of one pound of the powdered form to 50 gallons of water. When used on plums and other kinds of trees, one and one-half pounds of powdered arsenate of lead in 50 gallons of water is usually recommended.

Peach and plum foliage susceptible to spray burn; therefore, it is very important that the strength of the spray mixture is not increased over that recommended for them.

 The House and Senate both
 have for past week been occupied
 mainly with conference reports and minor bills. The only important legislation passed was the bills to strengthen the Navy, passed in the House on Wednesday, March 27th,

Next week the House will immediately take up the long delayed
 final action on the Works Relief

 up Monday. The conferees reached an agreement the latter part of last
 week, but action was deferred.
 Whatever time is left Monday will be devoted to Suspension Day and Tuesday the Private Calendar will be considered. Wednesday and

Thursday will be devoted to the
 McSwain Bill to prevent profiteer-

Controlling Lesser Peach Tree Borer

The Lesser Peach Tree Borer is the most important insect pest of trees in this community and confines its attack mostly above the ground, to the trunk and limbs of the tree. Only injured trees are attacked by these worms. Such bark injuries as may be made by sun scalding, broken limbs, or peeling up the bark in anyway will afford an excellent place for the eggs of this insect to be laid. The insect passes through the winter in the larval stage. During early spring the larvae changes to the pupa stage and in about 10 days the adult moths emerge. At this time the eggs are deposited on and around any bark injury that might be on the tree. This is the way the trees are infested with the Lesser Peach Tree Borer. The treatment recommended for this insect pest consists of one pound of paradichlorobenzene to two qts. of crude cottonseed oil. This mixture should be thoroughly dissolved, which will take quite a while. Only the injured parts of the tree should be treated as injuries might occur when too much of this mixture is put on the tree. A common paint brush is the best way to apply the treatment. —Jack D. Everheart

Seniors Get A Break

Members of the Senior Class ready packing saving "cents" week-end in Denton, April 1 and 2, are all anticipating a martini and a "swell" chicken which is so characteristic of "good old South". Those in attending either N. T. S. C. I. A. are planning to look and see just what there will be in store for them.

District Home Ec Club Meeting

Mrs. R. D. Watkins, Miss Lily May Armstrong, both instructors in the Fairview school, Elva Stimpson, Maxine Vines, Marvadinne Vines, Ruth Miller, Anita Pharries, Bennie Spencer, and Wanda Gale Harmon were visitors in Nocona Saturday, March 30th. While Mrs. Watkins visited her nephew, Bill Nat Wilks, the other members of the party attended a district Home Economics Club meeting.

Senior Personality

Ruthe (Bitty) Vogel, the last senior to be interviewed, graced this world with her presence for the first time January 25, 1918. The city of Burkburnett, Texas receives the honor of being her home town. She became known in the community as "Bitty", and is still called that by most of her friends. When this blond was five years of age she moved to Thrift, Texas. When she was seven she moved to Wichita Falls, Texas. Having nothing more to do in Wichita, she moved to Holliday, Texas, at the age of eleven. She lived in Holliday until the beginning of this past semester, September 10. She now is one of the most important students in F. H. S. Last year Ruthe represented the Holliday school in declamation and essay writing and won first in them at both the county and the district meets. This year representing F. H. S., she won first place in essay writing and second place in declamation at the county. She is considered one of the best students attending Fairview, and we think she is one of the best attending any school.

A few of her favorites are: drink, cherry phosphate; color, pretty blue; pastime, dreaming; hobby, collecting souvenirs; aversion, narrow-minded people; food, dill pickles; song, "Solitude"; book, "A White Dove Flying"; Orchestra, Jimmy Greer; actor, George Raft; actress, Kathern Hepburn; ambition, to entertain; amusement, dancing; flower, magnolia; class, speech; teacher, Y. C. Paschall, Sr.; Sport, tennis; motto, "Excell".

Miss Vogel, after much interviewing, consented to give us a description of her ideal boy friend (which she hasn't found): eyes, brown; hair, black and curly; height, medium; complexion, olive; In character he must be serious most of the time, yet be the kind you can have fun with. He must be a good dancer and have an appreciation for the higher things. He must know how to dress and conduct himself. One "not" is, he must "not" be a "nerd".

Ruthe is vice-president of the senior class, associate editor of "Bear Tracks", was a member of the volley ball team and is a member of the Choral Club. She was chosen as the most representative girl for the senior class.

Miss Vogel has very definite ideas about boys (grand subject). She said that most of them are conceited, and had themselves over-rated. Very few can be a real pal to the opposite sex.

To give you a thumb-nail description of Ruthe, I would say: eyes, changeable (blue, grey, violet); hair, very blond (done up); height, five feet, five inches; a "swell" personality and a "swell" girl.

It has been said that she might be twins because she and Ada Marsh are inseparable. However, we hardly think that possible. In closing, we add that she is one "keen" sport and a good friend to everyone.

WHY—Oh Why

Must Simon annoy all the teachers and students?

Do people say Ada (dark) and Ruthe (blonde) are twins?

Do Seniors "loaf" until six weeks exams and then try to get all their work in two days' time?

Did Elva get up at the Senior class meeting Tuesday and end a short speech by presenting to Bill Wells money for his expenses to Denton with the Seniors?

Must Seniors get their lessons after they get to class?

Does Harlen do everything Marion tells him?

Won't Chuck make up his mind about Rosalie and Margaret Lee?

Did Kay return Rosalie's bracelet after wearing it for so long?

Isn't our teachers appreciated by the students?

Did Mr. Watkins win the contest for being best-looking man at the party?

"The Eyes Of Love"

The Seniors go romantic in their annual class play this year in "The Eyes of Love". The cast has been chosen, but work on the play has not yet begun.

The play is being looked forward to as one of the most important events of the season. With such talent as Marion McClarney, Elva Stimpson, Ruth Vogel, Ada Marsh, Geneva Seidlitz, Bill Wells, Milton Winkles, Simon Hanks, and Clarence Bridges, and with Mrs. Watkins as the director, the play is certain to be a success.

Intra-Class Meet

Throughout this week the four classes of high school will battle for the title of "champs".

The contests include track for boys, track for girls, boys and girls' volleyball, skill at the shuffle board, and play ground ball. If any disagreements result, we appoint Mr. Watkins as the official referee!

Watch your local newspaper for final results and details!!!

Seniors Entertained At Tack Party

The Seniors were entertained by Fordina and Wessie Hearrell with a tacky party and April Fool party combined. Mr. Watkins was April-fooled by being given a prize for being the best-looking man there. Mr. J. W. Vanderbilt (otherwise known as Kay Biles) won the prize for being the tackiest and craziest boy. "Grandma" Seidlitz (Geneva) won the prize for being the tackiest dressed girl.

Seniors were dressed as duds, deacons, thugs, grandmas, grinning hippos, and country hoosiers. Mrs. Watkins painted her lips, making them stretch a little more, but all in all, she looked quite natural.

The funniest thing and the funniest was Mr. Watkins with his comical costume. Several of the guests made themselves ill from laughing at him, and to think, he won the prize for being the best looking man. Everyone understood, however, that it was an April Fool's party.

Gingerbread and buttermilk in tin cups were served to Geneva Seidlitz, Wessie Hearrell, Ford Hearrell, Bill Wells, Elva Stimpson, Harlen Boyd, Marion McClarney, Simon Hanks, J. C. Paschall, Jr., George T. Roberts, Chuck Morrison, K. Miles, "Phoebe" Bogy, Mary Elizabeth Wells, Odessa Hearrell, Clarence Bridges, Mr. and Mrs. Watkins, our sponsors, and Mr. and Mrs. Wells, our class mother and father. Let's have another party like that, Wessie and Ford, and let's not

GENERAL ELECTRIC

WHY DOES GENERAL ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR ADVERTISING ALWAYS TALK ABOUT THE MECHANISM?

When you have had your refrigerator as long as I've had my G-E, you'll know PERFORMANCE is more important than all other features combined.

SEE THE NEW 1935 G-E MODELS

- Stainless Steel SUPER-FREEZER
- Sliding Shelves
- Temperature Control
- Automatic Ice Freezing
- Defrosting Switch
- Interior Lighting
- Foot-Pedal Door Opener
- Vegetable Drawer
- Covered Glass Food Containers
- Ice Tray Remover

General Electric dared to be different... and they built a Refrigerator that outlasts them all

Performance depends on the mechanism of the refrigerator—not on special features of the cabinet. The famous G-E mechanism is sealed in walls of ageless steel—protected from air, dust and moisture, and requires no attention, not even oiling. Hundreds of thousands of owners who have had their General Electric Monitor Top refrigerators over 5 years, find the matchless mechanism performs as well today as when first bought. 97% are still serving original owners—a record we believe to be unparalleled.

"The Tin Hero"

Come one, come all to our Junior play, "The Tin Hero"! The cast includes, Doug, shy, bashful, "lost in a fog" around the weaker sex, especially French gals, H. B. Northcott; Mrs. Goodyear, good looking young mother of Doug who always exaggerates every thing, especially that which pertains to Douglas, Ruby Jewel Williamson; Grace Goodyear, the thoroughly modern, but understanding and helpful sister of Doug, Evelyn Mills; Virginia, very jealous, sweetheart of Douglas, shy and retiring, Ruth Miller; Mr. Baxter Warner, a very henpecked husband, and president of the Hero's Club, Charles White; Mrs. Warner, wife of Warner (when the minister made them one she was the "one"), Maxine Vines; Bunny Wheeler, a bombastic, breezy young man (in fact, he is so breezy that one almost catches a cold when he comes into the room), Elbert Zink; Adelaide and Annette, two romantic young things who have taken a sudden interest in Doug, Beatrice Hearrell and Lavern Beavers; Victoria Esmond, a young newspaper reporter, Marvadinne Vines; Spike Rider, a champion swimmer with whom Doug has to compete in a race, James Sullivan; Mlle. Claudette Bordini, a beautiful young woman (when she goes after a man, she gets him or else he thinks he's been got), Anita Pharries.

Be sure and be present when this play is presented Friday night, April 5, at the Fairview Auditorium.

This Modern Generation

By Ruthe Vogel
 "What is this modern generation coming to?" How many times is that question repeated each day by the members of the past generation and the generation before them? It is silently though by those who do not understand us many more times than it is spoken. The entire world of mothers and fathers seem to be certainly concerned and doubtlessly worried as to what will determine the answer to the question. Perhaps, if those waiting for an answer would look the question squarely in the face, their worries might cease. Our modern generation! It is made up of boys and girls who, with their strong and healthy

FORD Strikes a new note in INTERIOR DESIGN-

THE MODERN MOTIF—Red and black accentuate the instruments, making them easier to see. Control knobs and cigarette lighter are ivory colored plastic. Center striping is chromium. Convenient glove compartment. Everything is designed to be useful, first—functional beauty inevitably follows.

EXPERTS in color design are enthusiastic about the new Ford Deluxe interiors. They have "spotted" immediately a new note in interior design—the subtle use of taupe grey as a background for feminine costumes.

Window mouldings, door handles, the instrument panel and even the beautiful, slim steering wheel, are all finished in blended greys. This color scheme cannot possibly clash with even the most brilliant ensemble. On the contrary, it will accentuate it.

And the upholstery!... Here beauty is coupled with long-wearing quality characteristic of custom-built cars. In all Ford Deluxe closed cars you have your choice of two materials at no extra cost. Mohair or soft, pin-stripe Broadcloth in Sedans and Coupes. Bedford Cord or one hundred percent Wool Suede in Touring Sedans. See the stylish, new Ford interiors at your nearest Ford Dealer's today.
