BURKBURNETT RECEIVES SEVERE SHOCK IN BRIDGE TRAGEDY LAST SATURDAY

Garland Honored By Entire City

CHIEF MOURNED BY BURKBURNETT PEOPLE

The largest crowd of people ever to gather in Burkburnett gathered at the Baptist church Tuesday afternoon to pay tribute to the memory of the chief of police Bill Garland that died Saturday night in line of duty as the bridge crashed into the raging flood. Dignitaries from all over the western part of the state of Texas and from southern Oklahoma came together to honor the late officer.

The entire city closed, and Rev. Hays and Rev. L. S. White spoke the tribute that rested in the hearts of the 2000 people gathered for the service.

Guard of Honor

Firemen of the Burkburnett department formed a guard of honor in escorting the body from his home to the church in Burkburnett Tuesday afternoon. The group was in charge of Chief R. J. Kelly and included W. A. Roberts, John Musick,

FOUR KILLED AND ONE LOST IN STREAM

Audrain Still Missing

Burkburnett suffered the most severe tragedy that has ever occurred in its history last Saturday night when the Chief of Police W. I. (Bill) Garland and four of his companions, Johnnie Pickerell, Mrs. Pickerell, L. M. Audrain and Mrs. E. O. Reeves, were swept into the boiling flood waters of the Red river as the Oklahoma-Burk bridge crashed. Mr. Garland had gone to the bridge to warn the curiosity seekers that the bridge was unsafe, and with the exception of Mr. Pickerell the people in the car with him went to their deaths.

A great crowd had gathered to watch the roaring stream, and the city that lost some of its most valuable citizens was fortunate that the hundreds that crowded on the structure were not swept away. The body of Mr. Garland was found Sunday as was Mrs. Pickerell's. Mrs. Reeves body was recovered Tuesday when C. L. West and Cook located it near the death car. Audrain was still missing Thursday morning.

Joint Services

More than 2,000 persons crowded the First Baptist church in Burkburnett for joint funeral services for Mrs. John Pickerell and Mrs. E. O. Reeves. The Rev. J. M. Montgomery, Highland Heights Christian church pastor of Wichita Falls, paid tribute to the memory of Mrs. Reeves and the Rev. Miles B. Hays, Burkburnett Baptist pastor, paid tribute to Mrs. Pickerell's memory. Both were occupants of a car which plunged into the river Saturday night when the Burk bridge collapsed.

The Burkburnett chapter of the Eastern Star formed a guard of honor at the rites. Mrs. Pickerell was a native of Magnolia, Ark., and had resided in Burkburnett since 1921. Mrs. Reeves became the bride of E. O. Reeves of Burkburnett Jan. 11.

Five Known Dead Seven Missing

The raging flood which sent Red river on its greatest rampage of destruction since 1908 had claimed at least three lives in the Altus area in addition to the two known dead at Burkburnett. Seven persons were missing, including four near Altus and three at Burkburnett.

Highway and railway traffic alike were completely demoralized thru this section extending across Hardeman, Wilbarger and Wichita counties in Texas. Railway refused to sell tickets to through travelers. Many motorists found their routes blocked, necessitating long detours.

John Pickerell, who alone lived to tell of his car's tragic plunge from the Burk bridge, was rescued by four Burkburnett men after he had been located from the air by Manager Fulcher Armstrong of the Wichita Falls Air Transport company. Mr. Armstrong landed his plane in a small field near the river to direct searchers to the marooned survivor.

Jack Brumley, Charlie Grace and Frank Kelly made two unsuccessful attempts to reach Pickerell but found their small motor unable to cope with high waves and the strong current of the river as it passed the island. They were joined by Jimmy Amyx, who provided a larger motor for the third attempt and were able to reach the island.

Brumley was the first to step from the boat. "The rest are all gone I guess, aren't they?" were the first words Pickerell said to Brumley. Brumley said "yes."

"I don't know how I got through myself," the rescued man declared.

He then described to Brumley how the car was swept into the flooded river, as he was making a desperate effort to speed to the Oklahoma side.

Pickerell was rushed to Burkburnett and placed in the hospital under care of Dr. Ruel Slaughter.

Pickerell was almost exhausted when he reached the security of the Burkburnett hospital. His body was

Burk Will Run Cable Service For Emergency

The Burkburnett sky line special cable across the break in the bridge will continue to serve the people of Burkburnett and Oklahoma until the bridge is rebuilt. The cable was erected Sunday after several hours of hard work, by A. H. Howard and Bob Key employees of the city. The two men faced difficulties in getting the initial line across the break. After its establishment the men worked the service for notes, mail, people and even turkeys and chickens.

Now the people of Oklahoma are invited to use the service to bring perishable products to the Burkburnett markets. The authorities are doing everything that they can possibly do to make the service as safe as possible. The pulleys and cables are being carefully watched and tended. Men will be hired to be at the gap constantly. The schedule will be announced later.

Three Arrested at Burk In Nocona Pipe Theft

A few hours of intensive detective work on the part of Deputy Sheriff Ben Howe and N. H. Harris, acting police chief of Burkburnett, resulted in the recovery Wednesday night of 19 joints of 6 5-8 casing valued at $250. The casing was taken from the Fort Worth Pipe and Supply company north of Nocona early Wednesday.

Nathan Persky of the Northwestern Pipe and Supply company in Burkburnett reported attempted sale of the casing at his place to open the investigation. Later George Brown of the Nocona firm and sheriff H. T. Chandler of Montague Co. arrived at Burkburnett to aid in completed the case. The pipe was recovered at a second Burkburnett supply yard.

Elmer Smithson, 23 Hobert Swan, 20, and Ed Stradley, 20, were charged with the theft over $50 in the case and placed in the Wichita Co. jail Wednesday night by Sheriff Chandler awaiting transfer to Montague early Thursday.

Temporary Bridge

Mr. Woodward and Rex Ritter of the state highway department of Texas promised in Burkburnett Tuesday morning that they would do everything possible to see that a temporary bridge was constructed at the break in the concrete bridge. The state of Texas will construct the temporary road and make arrangements with the Oklahoma department for permanent structure. Highway authority hoped to have the structure

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE WILL SPONSOR CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGN

PROGRAM TO START MONDAY, MAY 27th

The Chamber of Commerce of Burkburnett will start a systematic campaign to clean up the city starting next Monday, May 27. Every civic organization of the city has pledged that they will assist the Chamber of Commerce in the wide sweep to brighten the city and increase the health status of the population. The city council has officially signified that they will assist and will be able to provide some of the men and materials to be used in the campaigns.

The Civic Affairs committee with Francis Felty as chairman will cooperate with the Fire Prevention committee to organize the work to be done. J. J. Blackstone will be chairman of the fire prevention committee. These two committees will ask all the citizens of the city to aid in the complete coverage of the whole town and territory.

The directors in a meeting last Friday adopted the formal resolution adopting the campaign and they appropriated $50.00 to aid in the expenses. It is understood that some of the citizens will donate time and trucks that will haul away the trash that is collected.

Citizens to Cooperate
The citizen is merely asked to clean up his own yard and to have the trash for the men that will collect it in trucks and carry it away to the dumping ground. The business men of the city have been asked to assist and to secure all the publicity possible in the carrying forward of the effort.

Last year the committees sponsored a similar campaign and the organization conducted a house to house campaign and mailed letters to the citizens asking voluntary clean up. In 1933 the Chamber of Commerce actually hauled over 300 loads averaging two tons each to the dumping ground, and that established some kind of a record for the local organization.

The people will be asked to clean up and paint up. The business concerns will be asked to clear the property near town of trash, wrecked cars, cans and diverse stuff that is cluttering up the alleys and the edge of properties near the city.

This special effort is characterized as one of the most worthy the organization undertakes each year. It is said to improve the cleanliness and beauty of the city. Along with the tree planting campaign it has added much to the city beauty.

The members of the committees that are working are: Civic affairs, Francis Felty, R. J. Kelly, R. P. Reagan, L. N. Peyton, Paul Browning, Mesdames W. P. Sims, I. E. Harwell, J. M. Thomas and C. J. Morrison; the fire prevention committee, J. J. Blackstone, chairman; Butler Westerfield, J. F. Kelley, W. A. Roberts, C. Tucker and J. H. Coyle.

$25.00 REWARD

The citizens of the city of Burkburnett have offered a reward of that will be given to the person or persons that find the body of L. M. Audrain, the only missing person of the five swept from the bridge last Saturday night. This reward money was collected along with other expense funds from the local merchants and business men. These men have responded generously and the list of names will be given next week.

Bankhead Allotments Signed In Burkburnett

The farmers of the district were signing the allotment certificates for the cotton in this territory Wednesday. The men will get their assignments according to the proportion that they have grown over a period of five years average. The agents were given the possession of the old Collier building and they were doing a wholesale business at noon. The men assisting were O. F. Washburn, N. G. Entekin, Elmer Filgore and A. S. Curlee all of the Wichita Falls office.

IN EVERY TOWN YOU FIND THEM

In each community, be it large or small, there are always a few people who have a tendency to find fault with each and every thing. He is the citizen who stands around at the loafing places, hands in his pockets, chest expanded and tells what he would do if he were president, governor, senator, representative, president of school board, mayor or banker.

He is the fellow who says the fire department doesn't know how to fight fire, and always offers suggestions, but never lends a hand.

He complains because the street lights are not burning and about the ruts in the streets, yet he hasn't paid his taxes in years and years.

He finds all manner of faults with the schools and teachers, but never did anything to improve the school or aid the teachers in his life.

He cusses officials in office and works for the opposing side until they are put in office, then cusses them until they are out of office.

He goes to church on Sunday and sings "Bless Be The Tie That Bind," and on Monday wants to have his neighbor arrested because the neighbor's chickens strayed four inches across the property line.

If it were possible, at his death, this man would change funeral directors at the last minute because the grave was two inches too deep.

CLEAN-UP WEEK

The Chamber of Commerce and local civic bodies are combining their influence to make the annual clean-up week a success. There are so many civic enterprises that a large number of the citizens lose sight of the purpose of the whole group. However, there is rarely such an excellent opportunity given to the average person in the community to serve the whole community.

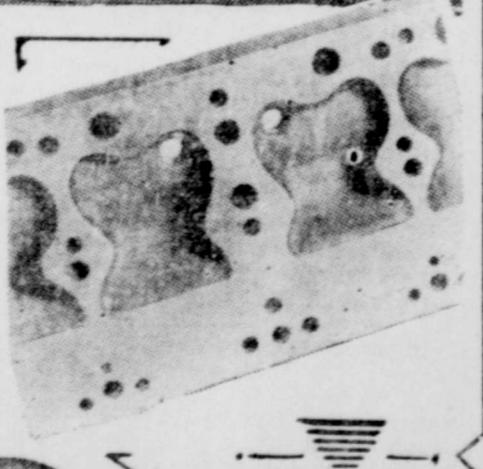

Last year the cup of the local Chamber of Commerce was awarded to the "Spirit Cooperation" that is evident among the people of the community. Now we are given an opportunity to show whether or not this award was justified. There is no law on the statutes that requires the citizens to clean up his own land, but the law of human decency will shame any person that does not assist.

The advantage gained will be the decrease in fire hazards, the removal of the unsightly wrecked autos in our alleys and on the vacant lots, the abolition of health hazards, and the increase of our city's beauty. Most of us will cooperate, and those who do not more than likely will merely lack the initiative, so the duty of these hole citizenship is to prod the bump of patriotism of the lagards.

Commencement At Mary Hardin-Baylor To Be Held May 25 to March 28

BELTON, May 22.—Commencement week activities which close the nineteenth year at Mary Hardin-Baylor began May 25 and continue through May 28 when the first diplomas bearing the new name of Mary Hardin-Baylor will be issued to the senior class. Speakers who have been selected for the occasion are Dr. John Hill of Nashville, Tenn., and the Rev. Frank Tripp, pastor of the First Baptist church, St. Joseph, Mo.

This year's commencement marks the completion of one of the most important years in the history of the college founded in 1845 at Old Independence. It has been a year in which a large debt has been met and the endowment increased substantially through the benefaction of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Hardin of Burkburnett.

The epochal year has been reached through the leadership of President J. C. Hardy who is completing in June his twenty-third year of connection with the school since coming to Texas from Mississippi where he was president of the Mississippi A. & M. College. Dr. Hardy's work with the school has made him outstanding in Southern Baptist educational circles.

Dr. Hill will deliver the commencement address May 28. He is the book editor for the Southern Baptist Sunday School Board and holds the M. A. Degree, having studied in Harvard, the University of Cincinnati, and Columbia University. Dr. Tripp, who holds the honorary D. D. degree from Mercer University, will preach the baccalaureate sermon May 26.

RY SONG NEW PROBLEM FOR MERRITT WHO WORRIES AS COSBY JUST VOCALIZES

Is anyone at the Paramount who knows more about Bing Crosby than himself, it is Merritt, the sound technician who supervised the recording of the songs for Paramount's "Swanee" coming Tuesday and Wednesday to the Palace Theatre. Although Crosby knows that he is in the sound mixer's hands, he never worries as long as he can see Merritt's face through the microphone.

a negro chorus singing "Swanee". It's the first song of a semi-classical nature that Crosby has ever used in his pictures and a marked departure from his customary technique. "The chorus naturally was more important than the orchestral accompaniment, so we had to arrange a special recording set-up," Merritt explains. Among other things, we used two microphones, whereas we ordinarily can record Crosby's song with one mike.

When You Make DEPOSIT—

Somebody once said: "There are three American institutions upon which the stability of the nation depends—the Government, the Insurance Companies and Banks."

Depositing money in a sound bank like the First National Bank is, indeed, similar in many ways to buying a treasury bond or an insurance policy. For in each case the money you turn over is safely reinvested—in public works, in industries, in homes, in commercial enterprise. In a word, the instant you deposit them your money becomes a part of the great river of credit that flows as the mill wheels of the nation.

Helpful Baking Hints To Those Using K. C. Baking Powder

Always sift flour and K. C. Baking Powder together at least three times. The more sifting, the lighter finer texture the cake, biscuits, etc. will be.

To mix a cake, first cream butter and sugar thoroughly, then add yolks, is used. Then, to this mixture alternately add moisture and the flour that has been sifted with baking powder and stir until smooth and glossy, adding beaten egg whites after thoroughly mixing.

For cakes, have your oven slow to moderate at first, until the cake is fully risen; then increase the heat, so as to just brown lightly.

Here are a few choice recipes. You will like them.

K. C. Everyday White Cake
½ cup of butter.
1 cup granulated sugar.
½ cup of milk.
2 cups flour.
2 level teaspoons K. C.
2 level teaspoons KC Baking powder.

Whites of three eggs.
1 teaspoon vanilla extract.
K. C. Bran Muffins
2½ cups uncooked bran.
2 cups flour.
1½ teaspoons salt.
2 eggs.
1 3-4 cups milk.
3½ level teaspoons KC Baking Powder.

4 tablespoons sugar.
3 tablespoonsfuls melted fat (1½ oz.)

NOTE: Permitting the bran to soak in the milk for 1 to 3 hours before adding the other ingredients, adds greatly to its palatability. Bake 35 to 40 minutes at 350 to 375 degrees.

K. C. Baking Powder Biscuits
2 cups flour (8 oz.)
2 level teaspoonfuls K. C. Baking Powder.

4 level teaspoonfuls shortening (2 oz.)
About 2-3 cup milk or water.
½ teaspoonful salt.

K. C. Doughnuts
3-4 cup granulated sugar (6 oz.)
1 cup sweet milk.
3 tablespoonfuls melted butter (1½ oz.)
3 cups flour (12 oz.)
1 teaspoon mace.
1 teaspoon salt.
2 eggs, whites and yolks beaten separately.
2 level teaspoonfuls K. C. Baking Powder.

bruised and battered by the experience in the river for approximately eight hours, and the subsequent long wait under a hot sun on the island before rescue came.

Carl Cook, 15, of Burkburnett, who was driving just behind the Pickerell car, said the bridge broke and the car just drifted out into the river. He told how the lights on the car were bobbing about and finally disappeared.

Cook said he threw his car into reverse and drove rapidly back toward Burkburnett. He was within 30 feet of the break.

The bridge was jarred almost its entire length. Several spans were spread apart at the joints—ranging the first free structure built jointly by Texas and Oklahoma in 1926. This is the first time it has given any trouble, highway officials said.

Police Chief Garland's body was recovered in river debris three and a half miles from the bridge on the Oklahoma side of the river directly south of Randlett.

The body was found on the Henry Bentley farm by Airport Manager Armstrong. He circled the spot dozens of times and sounded his siren until almost a score of people were attracted from the highway and found the body.

The bodies of both Mrs. Pickerell and Chief Garland were first taken to Randlett. The Owens and Brumley Funeral home of Burkburnett made two trips to Randlett to return the bodies to Burk.

The ambulance went by Henrietta and then to Ringgold where the river was crossed into Oklahoma. Garland's body arrived in Burk at 11:45 o'clock Sunday night.

The police chief's body was badly battered and Dr. Dice of Randlett, who examined the body, said Garland apparently was struck in the head in the fall with the bridge and was knocked unconscious. He said he found evidence of a bad brain concussion. Funeral services for both Garland and Mrs. Pickerell were incomplete Sunday night.

Burkburnett residents were also concerned Sunday night for the whereabouts of P. Morton of this city, who had not been seen since the bridge went out. He was known to have been at the bridge viewing the flood waters, friends said.

Mr. Morton later returned to Burkburnett. He had been marooned on the Oklahoma side of the river.

Searching parties were handicapped by the continued high water. Although the water receded from its peak Saturday night by at least five feet Sunday afternoon, lapping waves driftwood and underbrush offered added barriers in efforts to reach the edge of the flood waters to locate bodies of the missing persons.

Old timers in Burkburnett said "Old Red" had climbed to its highest stage in at least 15 years.

River bottom residents south of Temple reported the flood waters had climbed almost four feet higher than the last major flood in 1908.

At Vernon old timers said the flood was the worst in 50 years.

The body of Mrs. John Pickerell was found accidentally on the Oklahoma side of the river. The body had drifted three and a half miles from the Burkburnett bridge.

A. S. Nason recovered the body while he was walking through the field to the edge of the river. He was observing driftwood deposited in a corner of his pasture when he saw something in the edge of the flood waters and discovered the body on closer examination.

Mr. Nason immediately telephoned to Burkburnett that a woman's body had been found.

The woman was at first thought to have been Mrs. O. E. Reeves, but Manager Fulcher Armstrong of the Wichita Falls Air Transport Co. flew Mr. Reeves from Burkburnett to Randlett, where the body was taken in charge by a funeral home. Mr. Reeves identified the body as that of his cousin, Mrs. Pickerell.

Mr. Armstrong also notified searchers in Randlett that a man had been located marooned in an island several miles below Burkburnett. The man had removed his shirt and waved frantically as Mr. Armstrong flew over. Boats were sent both from Texas and Oklahoma sides of the river to rescue the stranded flood victim, and Pickerell was brought in.

The contest was successful in that it achieved the objectives of the members, and created a rivalry. Sixty members were present at the fry. The pastor, L. G. Hagard and the teacher of the class Butler Westfield made brief speeches. The class quartet composed of Carl Morrison, Ray Hill, M. C. Tucker and J. M. Thomas sang a series of selections for the program.

Ah-Ah-Ah-DILAPIDOSOS....

It's a serious illness for a house... symptoms. The roof leaks, steps sag, gutters rust, and walls have battered looks.

Dilapidosis can be prevented by paint protection. Paint does more than beautify your home and make it attractive. Paint guards your property against rain and sun moisture. Paint is like a coat of armor for your home.

Take a good look at the outside of your house. If the gleam has gone out of paint, and the surface is dry and chalky, this is the first warning that your home is not properly protected against damage from winter weather.

The National Housing Act makes it possible for you to give your home a complete paint job... financed by any approved local bank. You can have the job done with no "down payment" and pay for on convenient terms to suit your income.

Let one of the firms listed here make free estimate on the cost of beautifying and protecting your home with a new coat of good quality paint. Now is the time to take precautions against that disease called "Dilapidosis."

J. D. Sanderfer, president of Din-Simmons University spoke a brilliant wit and reverent address to the Graduates of the high school at the First Baptist church Sunday morning in the laureate services of the class. In a low tone that took audience into his confidence, the educator held an audience bound as he spoke on the subject "What is Your Name?"

The development of the subject Sanderfer used as a basis the 29th verse of the 32nd chapter of Genesis, reading "What name?" The speaker said the name of a person was one that they never had any choice in it was fostered on the individual by without the consent of a person, but what an individual with his name is his own choice.

Sanderfer spoke of his great respect for the names of the great men of the world. In each name of the great men there is something that represents accomplishment. This respect for great names should be kept in our hearts, and it will create for us a greater respect for the accomplishments of the men of the world. Each great man is worthy because he has put a name to his name. The work and balance to give even the ordinary name an extra value.

An inspirational address challenged the young people to put their own names as they prepared for their preparation for professional careers. With clear analysis, the speaker told from personal experiences how men have their own names meant the challenge ended with the question "What are you going to do in your own name."

A completely balanced program given by the class. Butler West, superintendent of the school and made the announcement. Rev. Miles B. Hays, pastor of church, and Dr. J. D. Sanderfer the benediction and invocation. A professional and recessional played by Dorothy Hagard, Wheeler, student, sang the inimitable dedicatory song "My Father's Name." The final services will be at the high school Thursday night.

Roaming Stock

We have stock laws and it would be a direct lawless act to permit your horses, cattle and hogs to run over a lawn or garden. But not so with dogs that roam over your flowers and garden beds and tear down trailing vines. While at this time the flowers and gardens are not here to be destroyed, but it is only a matter of a short time when the depredations of the canines will be observed by gardeners. Besides who wants to eat garden "sassa" after a flock of mangy, flea-infested mongrels get through wallowing over it?

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank every one that has been so kind to us in our recent bereavement, and especially do we express our gratitude to the searching parties, the city officials, firemen and all others who offered their assistance in the tragedy. For the beautiful floral offerings and the friendship shown by friends and neighbors we are thankful. Your assistance at the time of the death of our loved one will always be appreciated by us.

Industrial Type Pneumatics Open New Tire Field

Rubber Equipment Invades More Vehicle Classifications To Improve Service

From cream puff manufacturers to giant construction operations is a wide span in the commodity roster—but there is now a pneumatic truck tire especially adapted for every service required in the field of transport.

"The tires we sell range in size from the big 18.00-16 (which is more than 50 inches in overall diameter and carries 13,000 pound loads—thus being the largest pneumatic tire from the standpoint of carrying capacity) to the five by 1.75 inch pneumatic industrial, one of the latest additions to the line of tires," said Mr. Alexander, local Goodyear dealer.

"In the field of the pneumatic industrial, the application of air tires has been rapidly expanding during the past several months," Mr. Alexander continued. "The five-inch diameter tire is part of a series which includes units up to 200 inches in diameter for use as steel wheel replacements on industrial push trucks where easy rolling, floor protection, cushioning of loads and quiet operation are required."

To fit most of the steel wheeled trucks these Industrial All Weather pneumatics are available in a wide number of hub lengths and axle diameter combinations, each provided with roller and ball bearings for smooth travel.

Including in the category of vehicles for which these tires are built is the wheelbarrow used in garden, cemetery or construction operations; factories, bakeries, warehouse truck units and the like.

In addition Goodyear has also been supplying the manufacturers of toy wagons, velocipedes, toy automobiles and youngsters' similar sidewalk units with pneumatic single tube tires which not only make safer playthings for the children, but are welcomed by oldsters as well because neighborhood sidewalks are thus quieted.

Firemen Honored At Lion Meeting

To The Volunteer Fire Dept., Burkburnett, Texas.

During the recent tragedy which has come to our community when four of our citizens lost their lives and the lives of three others were in grave danger the Burkburnett Fire Department has undertaken and directed the work of rescue. You of this department under the direction of your leader, Mr. Jack Kelly, have very ably conducted this work. Many of you, together with others of our citizens, have spent many hours in the flood waters of Red river under adverse and trying circumstances searching for the bodies of our lost citizens. Some of you endangered your lives doing rescue work in boats.

We, the members of the Burkburnett Lions Club, wish to commend you for the active part you have taken in this splendid work. The citizens of Burkburnett should be congratulated for having such a splendid volunteer fire department. This department has proved itself in times of crises like this to be ready to serve our community in a capable and faithful manner. The Lions Club, speaking voluntarily for our community, wishes to thank you for this fine work you have done.

News Of The Week

The lawyers and prosecutors finally found a state law to stop the chain letter menace. An eight year-old law relating to endless chains was found under the caption of "Monopolies" or Bill 7249. This law makes it possible for the officials to fine any one who has not secured license to operate in the state. Any person who has sent a letter or promoted a chain is liable up to $200.00 for each days violation. The tax authorities have indicated that they will not push prosecution if those who sent or promoted the letters will come to the office and voluntarily pay the tax, but they do promise arrest and fine otherwise.

Franco-Russian Pact

Just before the world war a group of nations frantically pushed a series of pacts or agreements to not to fight or violate the neutrality of smaller nations. It was all vain just as the present negotiations must be vain. France and Russia are trying another nonaggression pact. It is just like the two Irishmen that agreed to not to fight unless some one stepped on their toes, they could always find some one willing to do just that thing. These nations agree on non-aggression, but all of them could find something offensive enough to fight about when they took the notion.

Farmers and AAA

The farmers filled the national capitol last week with the intention of making their voice heard in the legislative halls. For 150 years we had bonus for the manufacturers in the terms of special tariff, and the farmer paid that bonus on the increased price of his machinery and similar materials. Now a group is raising a howl because they have to pay the farmer a bonus in the terms of a processing tax. The manufacturers have yelled tariff and protection for 15 decades, and now when protection is given the farmer, they

IN foreign markets, the high cost of petrol (gas) is one of a number of reasons for Dodge increased popularity.

And here in America, too, the amazing economy and value of the 1935 Dodge is scoring new high sales records in all parts of the country.

Writing of the remarkable gas and oil savings of his 1935 Dodge, R. T. Hall, Ballinger, Texas, says: "It is easily the most outstanding car that I have ever owned from the standpoint of economy and performance, making twenty miles or better from ordinary gasoline."

With its economy you also get new comfort in the "Airglide Ride"—new safety with Dodge all-steel body and perfected dual-cylinder hydraulic brakes. Drive the new Dodge. See for yourself what a rugged yet luxurious automobile you can get for only a few dollars more than the lowest-priced cars. Now . . . $645 and up, f. o. b. factory, Detroit.

Filmore Speaks To Rotarians Tuesday

Judge H. W. Filmore, judge of the county court spoke to the Rotarians Tuesday noon at the First Methodist church on the subject "Juvenile Delinquency." Filmore made an analysis causes of the tendency on the part of children to commit offense against the social order. The care of the offender in order that he might be reinstated as an orderly member of society was discussed. The ratio of offenders in the county and other places brought out interesting comparisons.

The program was in charge of O. C. Wills. Two Browning girls entertained the society. Dorothy Browning gave a piano solo and Marie Browning read for the group. The two girls were well received by the club. The visitors were: Roy B. Jones Father Patrick O'Briene of the Catholic church of Wichita Falls and W. L. Duncan of Wichita Falls.

It is dangerous to criticize any group in America except the 90 percent of ordinary folks.

It doesn't take long for a normal Burk Burnett child between the ages of one and three years to spoil his grandfather.

PEACE

Deeper Than Vision
Surface disturbances, in a deep, tranquil pool, will seldom disturb the depths. So in the performance of our professional services, the depths of dignity and beauty for which our services have achieved an enviable reputation remain undisturbed. This constant, unvarying quality has served to place services by Owens and Brumley above the commonplace, and has won for our organization the lasting respect of those who have called upon us to serve in a professional capacity.

Current Literature

J. C. C.

One of the most widely read and least publicized books of the last six months has been the "Lost Horizon." This is the strangest and most fascinating book that we have read recently. The author spreads his scene of action over the whole earth without losing any continuity, and that is difficult. It has all the elements of adventure, romance and deep religious mystery. Its ending is exasperating, but leaves the reader satisfied that it could have ended no other way. In spite of all the romance and adventure, it constitutes a serious indictment against our present civilization. Like Dickens the author suggests change that might be made in our standards without his losing subtlety or appearing in the role of a reformer.

We don't like Somerset Maugham, but we are forced to admit that any list of the 10 or 12 best novels that omitted "Of Human Bondage" would be incomplete.

No sane man can deny Sinclair Lewis' place in literature. He always manages to arouse a storm of criticism, mainly because he does strike rather close to the truth in his work. The Nobel committee placed a stamp of approval on his artistry. Regardless of how much he angers the complacently minded, his workmanship is distinctive. "Rabbit Main Street," "Elmer Gentry," "Arrow Smith," aroused indignation, but none of these are as nearly artistically perfect as his "Work of Art." Not only is the opus technically perfect; but, in spite of its futility, it strikes a keynote of realism that charms the fairminded reader.

"The Road East" for a true history of the Jew.

"The History of Money," Slightly radical, but it ought to be read by every student of economics.

"Inside the Atom" for the layman that has an interest in Physics. In everyday language.
