Bridge Will Be Open For Traffic Saturday

Temporary Structure Will Be Ready To Handle Initial Loads This Week

30 FEET BUILT

According to the statement of the engineers at the bridge Wednesday the temporary structure will be ready for traffic next Saturday. The bridge of Oklahoma and Burkburnett will resume travel over the span for the first time since May 18, when the original bridge crashed into the river at the site. In the crash the lives of prominent citizens were lost and the temporary structure was 30 feet long and will require more than 100 piles to be driven into the river. The structure is 30 feet long and will require more than 100 piles to be driven into the river. The structure is 30 feet long and will require more than 100 piles to be driven into the river.

The river down the men were able to make much more progress than they were when they were swung away from the old bridge. The structure is heavily reinforced and when entirely complete will be able to bear any kind of load that the ordinary bridge was able to carry.

The people of Burkburnett have been given a special invitation to the guests of the city on that day. It is possible that the guests of the Oklahoma and Burkburnett will be able to stay at the Oklahoma and Burkburnett and advantageous to them. The construction is progressing and the bridge will be ready for the guests to Burkburnett.

LIBRARY COMMITTEE STARTS DRIVE FOR $750.00 FUND FRIDAY MORNING

Oscar Kemp And Mrs. W. P. Sims To Act As Chairmen Of Drive

BREAKFAST STARTS DRIVE

One of the most important civic movements of the summer will start Friday morning when the members of the library committee and board of directors of the library and the board of the drive committee met at the Scruggs Cafe for breakfast to start the drive for a fund of $750.00. The final goal of the drive was made known by the board of directors of the library, and the committee will ask the loyal support of the community in the project. The drive committee will be composed of Mrs. A. Hill, Mrs. Mesdames A. B. Sandhorne Foster, J. M. Thomas, Mrs. S. B. Crissey and M. W. These and others that will later will start the campaign to raise the funds for the library of the public institution.

Excellent Work
The library was established last year and since that time it has been supported by the generosity of the citizens. It has become the center of service and culture in the community, and the work of the library has been responsible for its continued growth. However, the institution has reached the point where it must have assistance, and generous assistance of the entire public. In its opening, the library has increased its circulation

Telephone Co. Petitioned To Retain Employees

LOCAL MEN THREATEN TO ESTABLISH COOPERATIVE EXCHANGE IN BURK

CONTRACT TERMINATED

Petitioning the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. to retain the present manager of the local exchange, Mrs. Geo. Pennington and to raise the local contract wages in order that a fair compensation and efficient service may be gained, the people of Burkburnett threatened to establish a local cooperative exchange in the near future. Over 160 of the 270 subscribers signed the paper, and many of these signers have two phones making an almost unanimous demand on the part of the subscribers.

It is estimated that the company secures in exchange business over $500.00 per month in Burkburnett, and the contract for the local management, including the wages of the manager and the operators is only slightly over $170.00. The original income does not include the relatively large toll or long distance call traffic that is estimated to bring the income to an amount ranging from $200.00 to $300.00.

N. H. Harris Arrests Two For Theft Here

N. H. Harris, temporary chief of police arrested two young men in Burkburnett Thursday on demand for the sheriff of Archer county for an alleged theft that took place near Holiday Sunday night. The Perkins and Cullom Warehouse of Archer county was broken into last Sunday night and 12 5-8 collars were pilfered from the supply room. The local police received notice of the theft, and recovered the supplies here. They arrested the two young men near Burkburnett, and held them on the demand of the sheriff. The young men had attempted to sell the collars on the local market. After the material was recovered the young men were identified as having offered the material for sale. The investigation led to their arrest. The young men charged were turned over to the sheriff, Gosler, Friday morning and he carried them back to the Archer county jail at Archer City.

MR. CITIZEN, IT'S UP TO YOU—

Patriotism and loyalty! The town was filled with it last Saturday and has been filled with it for the past 9 Saturdays when Burkburnett holds her Treasure Day program. Most of the business firms of Burkburnett have rallied to the support of the Treasure Day from the standpoint of home-town loyalty. Such loyalty should be instinctive in every citizen in Burkburnett, but such loyalty is not fully expressed so long as certain practices continue. We have reference to some of the merchants in Burkburnett to refuse to take any part in the activities of the town in the promotion of good-will and encouragement to the people of this trade territory, such as the Treasure Day is promoting. When approached by the members of this organization they would give various and different reasons why they did not want to join. The managers of the local chain stores referred the committee to Wichita Falls and from Wichita Falls they were referred to Fort Worth. The only excuse they could render was that it was against the code. Mr. Parker of Wichita Falls, and proprietor of the Parker Cash Grocery here, and Mr. Slaterof, Oklahoma City, manager of the A. P. stores in this district, are members, or were members of the Retail Grocery Code Authority, with headquarters in Fort Worth. Others in Burkburnett gave their reasons as it caused too much business on Saturday and they could not take care of it. Others refused to join, preferring to ride the "grave train" or "gym-wagon" as it was called in the army.

One of the practices that is most injurious to Burkburnett is that of patronizing those firms which contribute nothing to Burkburnett and the Burkburnett citizenship. The paramount thought in trading with these firms is to economize. This practice, however, is but another example of the old adage, "Penny-wise, pound foolish." These dollars which have been earned in Burkburnett should remain here to create more dollars and to build the town. Instead, when they are spent with firms uninterested in the welfare of Burkburnett, with firms who refuse to uphold the community or to join in the activities of the town, they are drawn daily to other centers of trade where they have no part in paying taxes, building churches and schools, or supporting the town in other worthwhile projects.

A few firms operating in Burkburnett send their funds out-of-town to other centers of trade. They own no property in which to pay taxes. They contribute nothing to relief work. They refuse to support trade building projects, yet they profit by the projects.

This practice of always taking of a community's benefits and never supporting any of its institutions is a constant drain on the community resources. When loyal citizens support firms who do not support the community in which they do business they are choking out the life of their town.

In another column of this paper is printed a list of the merchants in Burkburnett who are sponsoring the weekly Treasure Day. A loyal citizen will give these firms due consideration. He will trade with the firms that support the community and keep his money at home. Mr. Citizen, it's up to you!

Buck McDonald Robbed Sun. Nite

Burk Citizen Slugged
And Money Taken
From Clothing

Weldon "Buck" McDonald was slugged and robbed on Main street near the Dudley Produce company Sunday night by an unidentified assailant. Mr. McDonald had returned from Wichita Falls about 9:30 and started to the place where he works, the Dudley company, and some person or persons slugged him from behind creating a definite fracture of the skull. He lay exposed to the terrific rain for some time before he recovered enough to go to his father's home in Burkburnett. His father returned him to the Burkburnett Clinic hospital.

Dr. Ruel Slaughter said Monday afternoon that he had improved rapidly and was not in definite danger. The report Monday indicated that the robber took about $4.00 from Mr. McDonald. The only danger was that the exposure might develop into pneumonia.

Clean-Up Program Proves Success Here

The clean-up campaign sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce has proven a success, according to the announcement of the officials of the organization. Most of the people of the community have completed the cleaning of the property and the work of hauling will be continued throughout the week. Almost every business and resident house of the community have responded.

The organization has hired trucks and other conveyances and the haulers have been busy every day, and will continue to haul the rest of this week and the first part of next week. Up to the present the territory covered includes: West Main, Magnolia, Park, College, Glendale, and other parts of the city. The business men down in town have had their trash hauled previously. The city has been cooperating by allowing men and trucks for the program.

Application Made $8,100 Project To Build Light Plant

Application was recently made for the application of $8,100.00 to furnish the labor for the building of the municipal light plant that has been projected by the vote on May 6th. The local citizens voted $32,000 bond issue in the first week of May to enlarge the present light system. This enlargement calls for the removal to another site and a plant with heavier foundation of steel and cement.

The application was sent through the Wichita offices, and the action will be taken on the project in the near future. The building of the plant will employ a large number of men for several weeks and if the government allows the project will make it possible for the local authorities to complete the present plans for the installation.

Canning Plant Ask People To Assist In Work

Local Relief Project Offers To Can Anything In Foods

H. D. Smith, director of the federal relief offices issued the request Wednesday that all the people of this area that had food stuff to can to get in touch with him immediately. The cannery at the high school will open full blast Monday, and it will be ready to can all types of food and fruits at the project headquarters. The shop is installing three new powerful cookers of the pressure type.

Each of these cookers are built for heavy service and have individual burners. They are made of heavy steel plate, and are built strong enough to maintain the safety of the operators. The cookers hold 48 cans of food, and have screw

Plans Complete For Burk's Treasure Day

Here's The Opinion Of Merchants

Here is what the Burkburnett merchants think of the weekly Treasure Day being held every Saturday.

City Grocery and Market: Best drawing card for business. We are for it 100 per cent.

Burk Grocery & Feed: Treasure Day is the very thing for the merchants as well as the people. Business usually is good on these days.

Davis Grocery & Market: The very thing to stimulate business. Think it is better than the rodeo which was held only once a month.

Parker Cash Grocery: Would be willing to cooperate if it meets the approval of the grocery code authorities.

NOTE: The Supreme Court ruled that the codes were unconstitutional and still Mr. Parker

Relief Problem Grows Acute Here

For the past two years the Federal government has been providing most of the relief in the communities in the United States, and last week the orders were received in Burkburnett as in every other area that the work would be greatly curtailed. The small allotments will make it almost impossible for the agencies to continue on the scale that they have maintained. This happened to occur just at the time when a large relief relief number was in demand for fixing bridges and roads that were damaged by the flood.

The withdrawal of the Federal and State bounties will throw the burden back to the county and city governments. There have been about 200 or more families on relief here for about 2 years. Of this number a large group are of direct relief clients. The only schedule that will be maintained will be the relief garden and the cannery. These two projects will keep only a small skeleton of the crews formerly maintained.

The cannery plant will be at the high school cafeteria for the remainder of the summer. It will employ about 12 people daily and will offer to can the products of the people of the people of the community on a share basis. The vegetable and fruit will be canned for 60 percent of the product. The meats etc., will be canned on a 50-50 toll basis and everything but the product will be furnished by the cannery.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO START COMMUNITY NIGHT PROGRAMS FRI.

Local Talent To Give An Interesting Hours
Entertainment
AT RODEO STADIUM

The first of a series of community night entertainments will be presented by the Chamber of Commerce at the Rodeo Stadium, 8:15 Friday night. A varied and interesting program has been arranged for the event, and entertainers from Burkburnett and the surrounding territory will dazzle the crowd with a gala performance. The stadium will offer ample seating capacity for a huge crowd, and the organization will be able to seat comfortably almost any reasonable number.

This will be the first of a number of events of the nature that will be staged. There will be several other local programs and the organization will take the performers to present programs in the various towns in the trade territory during the summer.

The programs in the trade territory will be presented in an attempt to create additional interest in the Burkburnett markets and institutions. This courtesy will win many friends for our city during the summer months.

The program Friday will open with a band concert by the Cow Boy band. This will be the first

Burk Cow Boy Band To Render Several Numbers On Main Street

Event To Hold At 4:30

The main feature of the Treasure Day this week will be held on Ave. C in front of the Burkburnett Star at 4:30 Saturday afternoon.

This will be the tenth event of this kind to be held in Burkburnett and the crowds grow larger and the enthusiasm greater at each one. Last week hundreds of people were transported across the river on the trolley to participate in this event. However, Mr. Abbott, who has assured us the bridge will be open for traffic Saturday morning.

The program will start with a band concert that will be led by the Cowboy Band, under the direction of E. L. Nichols. Special features that will entertain and interest you have been planned for this Saturday as well as special bargains by the merchants who are members of this Treasure Day club.

Below we print a list of those who are members and urge that you see them when you need anything in their line. It is through their cooperation that this special event is made possible every Saturday and they are worthy of your patronage.

Free Cooking School To Be Conducted

Announcement was made this week that a free cooking school will be conducted by Miss Zella Allen in the basement of the First Methodist church beginning Tuesday, June 11, and continuing through Friday, June 14. Miss Allen is widely known throughout the South and West as a food expert and has conducted a number of schools over the state this season.

A complete menu will be prepared each day, giving practical demonstration of every day and company dishes. Approximately 40 recipes will be prepared and mixed before the class. In order that the school may be a success, a number of merchants are cooperating in the work. The demonstration will begin at 2:30 each afternoon.

An invitation is extended to every woman and girl to attend. Miss Allen urges all women attending the class to bring a note book and pencil in order to copy the recipes. There will be souvenirs for all who attend.

THURSDAY, JUNE 6, 1935

TIME FOR ACTION

There are times when we become indifferent to abuses that are so prevalent that we do not notice them. This is true in regard to the local phone situation. We have personally expressed the opinion that the rates were too high and the pay for service of the local people was too low in proportion. However, with the vague indifference that is characteristic to the American public we merely shrugged our shoulders and asked "what can we do about it."

Because of the power and wealth that is on the side of the company, there is very little that we can do. At the same time, while the community is so aroused over the local petition, we have an opportunity to crystallize public opinion as never before. It is the most difficult thing in the world to do to get the public aroused enough to an abuse to secure a concerted action. They are aroused; now let's see what we can do.

The situation briefly is that the phone company has by its wide spread service achieved a practical monopoly on the local and all other phone services. This monopoly becomes unhealthful thing when it prevents the possibility of appeal for relief from outrageous rates by the customers. Now no fair minded customer would mind paying a little extra, if he felt that the extra would go to securing better working conditions and fairer wages for the employees. But when it merely means more dividends to an already overly powerful company, we resent that organization's avidity to control the communication system of the nation. Another branch of the same company that serves us fought a case for eleven years in Chicago before a fair minded and uncorrupted judge awarded the customer a rebate and reduction only a few months ago. We may not be able to fight a case all the way to the supreme court, but we can exert a group pressure for a fairer system.

THE COMMUNITY HOUSE

It has been one of the major ambitions of our community for several years to have a community center, where the activities, official and semi-official, could be held. There has been a lot of talk and very little action in the matter until the city recently signified that a building would be available for the project. We have heard a lot of talk about the energy and cooperativeness of the community.

Now we are given a concrete opportunity to show how much of our talk has been sincere. It will be a task, harder than most of us realize, to coordinate a schedule and complete the preparations for the use of the building. It will take a lot of hard work on the part of some interested people.

From the speeches that we have heard at the various luncheon clubs, social clubs, churches and Legion meetings, we would presume that every member of the groups had been eagerly re-training themselves, awaiting just such an opportunity. We would suggest that each of the organizations interested appoint a committee of two persons to meet some time next week. This committee can elect its own chairmen and make representation to the city fathers to secure concrete information and lay plans for the completion of the project. We can think of a lot of things that our city needs, but there is nothing that will add more to its civic pride than such an accomplishment.

THE LIBRARY

While the community has responded with enthusiasm to the idea of a community center, it should not neglect the library. Since school was closed, this institution has become one of the most prominent in the community. It took several years of work to establish the library, and after it was opened, we sat back sighed, and let it run itself. The financial program has been handicapped by this indifference. The people that use the library can not support it. It remains to the loyal and civic minded people to do something special and generous for what now represents our most important asset. Our indifference deserves the severest criticism. We need something to shake us out of our complacency.

TRAFFIC VIOLATIONS

Our city is rapidly gaining a reputation that is not at all an enviable one. Law is nothing in the world but codified courtesy, and when a person violates the minor traffic codes, he is merely showing a lack of consideration that is evident of either indifference or boorish ignorance. There is no excuse for any one with a grain of common sense to indulge in the silly and inane practices that we find on our streets every day and night, and especially on Saturday nights.

A person with the slightest sense of courtesy would not block the traffic and run the stop signs, but we find these things happening every day in our fair city. Last week a car was parked on Main street while a lady driver went into a store, then into a beauty shop for a wave set. In the meantime a large group of persons were inconvenienced and the traffic blocked for several moments. The strange part of it was that the woman was supposed to be normally intelligent.

If it were children who showed the evidence of such a lack of good taste, we would recommend that they be taken to an old fashioned wood shed. However, since it is grown up men and women with a presumably normal amount of sense, the only thing that we can advise is that the policemen be given instructions to clear the traffic jams with a series of tickets. Then for the city judge to see that the offenders have a stiff reminder in the form of a fine to prod their memory.

News Of The Week

France's Money Trouble
France has been one of the nations that has held to the Gold Standard stubbornly, regardless of what the rest of the world has done. In order to keep the gold bloc compact, she has loaned huge sums to Holland, Switzerland and other members of the bloc. Now in the face of almost certain devaluation, which means abandoning the standard, the Premier, Flandin, lost his position defending the standard on a test vote. The test vote called for dictatorial powers to hold the franc up to normal value. The chamber of deputies denied his request. That is the strange part of the French government. If we had a similar government, the President would have been required to resign when the majority voted for the bonus last week.

India's Earthquake
"20,000 die in India, and we pause a moment and say, 'Too bad.'" The scene of the disaster, however real to the Hindu, loses its realness to us because it is so remote. It does illustrate the cunning of the scientific man. Texas university released a story on a tremor Friday morning many hours before the news reached civilization about the real disaster.

NRA
The results of the NRA decision are not yet apparent. The chief trouble seems to be developing in the lack of a coordinated plan for the adjustment of differences between the laboring man and his employer. The price cutting war will develop. But that won't hurt anybody but the fools crazy enough to enter it. In nearby city a price war is being staged. The retail man suffers, the manufacturer suffers, his helper suffers, and the original producer suffers. That is the tragedy—nobody gains.

Betting In New York
The legislators of New York made a new departure from the ordinary laws regulating gambling or betting on horse races. In twenty five states the pari-mutuel system has been adopted, and New York state passed up this system. The people of the other states are still wondering why New York passed up the millions that could have been adopted for the depleted state treasury. The reason given is that the public has a chance to win bokmakers. That sounds like bad logic, but the legislators of the Empire state believe that the average man has a better chance with an individual than with a machine.

Kidnappers
The city of Toconoma has been aroused by the boldness of the defiant "Egoist" that successfully received his ransom. The $200,000.00 will be the hardest money in the world to spend. It is checked and number every possible way. The criminals haven't a chance. Some one will sooner or later turn up a clue that will lead to their arrest.

The federal government is in this kidnapping business to stay, and considers it a personal insult for any one to attempt a crime of this type.

Current Literature Club Treats Husbands

The members of the Current Literature Club entertained their husbands at a picnic Thursday night at the city water park. The members and their families met for a delightful evening of fun and eats. The dinner that was served was excellent, and the members and their families reported an entertaining evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kimbell, and David Kimbell; Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas, and James Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Lohofener, Donald and Sherill Lohofener; J. L. Caffee and Shirley Caffee; Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Jameson, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Gilchrist, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Flanagan and Mr. and Mrs. Neeley Vaught.

Current Literature

If you haven't become satisfied with the novels about war, you should try reading the "Paths of Glory." It is unique to find an authentic and terrifying novel written by an American about the subject. The author, Humphrey Cobb, has made a contribution worth your attention.

Some strange things develop from censoring of books. One of the most recent developments is the investigation that shows that Ireland is the most censorious country in the world. Boston appears to be the most puritanic, but everyone thought that. However, the fact that China had barred "Alice in Wonderland" is a distinct surprise. How any country could see that the delightful tale was immoral, is more than the average critic can understand. The reason given for the ban was that putting speech into the mouth of animals caused the people to be disrespectful, that is it lowered humans to an animal and immoral state.

This interested in "Anthony Adverse," if they have finished it yet, will find real pleasure in the 1,139 page "God's Soldier." The book that is a biography of General Booth, founder of the Salvation Army, by St. John Irvine. The double volume is easy to read since the life of the man is as dramatic as the product of the imagination of any dramatist. All the elements of religious zeal and business acumen that created a literal religious empire make the book a forceful thing. The book may disillusion some who admired the man, but it contains no criticism of the cynical type. It is an analysis that keeps close to the truth.

Read the first two books of Fairchild's trilogy. And try "Fully Dressed and in the Right Mind" but not on dark or rainy night. "Nijinsky" is another worthwhile biography.

Last Rites Held Here For Mrs. Cora Woods

Mrs. Cora Woods, 50, of Burkburnett died here last Thursday night and the funeral services were held from the First Baptist church Friday. Rev. Miles B. Hays, pastor of the church officiated at the final services. The burial was in the Burkburnett cemetery. Mrs. Woods was survived by her husband Mr. J. W. Woods and eleven children and nine step children. She has been a resident of this area for many years.

Keeping Burkburnett kids in shoes takes money now. In the old days, at this season, it took an apple sprout.

USE DOCTOR'S METHOD TO STOP

DEAFNESS

Head Noises, Catarrh

MANY hundreds of ear sufferers have reported relief from roaring, hissing, sounds, pain, sensitive and tender ears, after using Dr. Elliott's ERBALM. This simple, economical prescription contains valuable herb and medicinal ingredients that strike at the cause. You may be a long time sufferer, and may have tried many remedies—but do not give up hope before you discover what this Doctor's private prescription can do for you.

Dr. Elliott says, "I have found that ear troubles, and even certain forms of deafness, respond easily to ERBALM. It helps correct the cause of Defective hearing, Head Noises and Catarrhal conditions which have been of long standing in many cases. Truly, it is a remarkable medicine." Victoria Comings of Illinois writes, "My entire family are sufferers from ear troubles. The only remedy that we have found which gives quick relief is Dr. Elliott's ERBALM. The minister of our church first recommended it to us, and we are thankful for his advice."

Stop using expensive earphones, and buying expensive treatments. Let Dr. Elliott's ERBALM prove its worth in your own case. Make this ten day test: Before applying ERBALM see how far you can hear your watch tick. Use ERBALM ten days and you will be surprised how much improvement there is in your hearing. When You Make A DEPOSIT—

Somebody once said: "There are three American institutions upon which the stability of the nation depends—the Government, the Insurance Companies and the Banks."

Depositing money in a sound bank like the First National Bank is, indeed, similar in many ways to buying a treasury bond or an insurance policy. For in each case the money you turn over is safely reinvested—in public works, in industries, in homes, in commercial enterprise. In a word, the instant you deposit them your funds become a part of the great river of credit that turns the mill wheels of the nation.

J. Self Succumbs Home, Burkburnett

John Self died at her home 514 Ave. in Burkburnett morning at 5 o'clock. Mrs. Self has been a resident of Burkburnett 16 years where her husband owned the Skelly Oil Co. She is a member of the Baptist church.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the Baptist church. The Rev. A. G. Hays, pastor of the First church conducted the service. Burial was in the Burkburnett cemetery under the direction of Owens & Brumley Funeral Home.

Baptist Women Hold All Day Meet

The Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church met in an all day meeting at the church Monday, June 13, with a discussion of the general mission work in North and South America and the influence of the work of missions in the territory. The morning service opened with song "In the Cross of Christ," and the devotional, taken from Mark 8:34-38, was led by Mrs. Johnson, who ended the devotional with a prayer.

Funeral Services 3 P.M. Sunday For John Oats

Funeral services for John A. Oats, 66, were held Sunday afternoon at 8 o'clock from the South Side Baptist church with the Rev. T. C. Jordan, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Riverside, directed by the Owens and Brumley Funeral home of Burkburnett.

Survivors include a son, Shirley Oats of Wichita Falls; four daughters, Mrs. Fannie Hubbs, Ft. Worth; Mrs. Florence Hillard, Ft. Worth; Mrs. Flora Hughey, and Miss Rosa Oats, Wichita Falls; a brother, Harry Oats of Okla. City; and two sisters, Mrs. Allet McCabe, Ada, Okla., and Mrs. Lula Hunter, Temple, Okla.

Deluce Starts A Pipe Supply Co. Here

Frank DeLuce announced early this week the opening of a new pipe and supply company in Burkburnett. The company will be located next door to the Odd Fellows hall, and is open to service at the present. The new pipe and supply company will handle, buy and sell used pipe, fittings and all kinds of supplies for similar lines. They will also buy abandoned wells, pipe line and other abandoned oil supplies. Mr. DeLuce has been in this business for many years in this section of the country, and he is ready to handle any type of deal in the supply business.

Eastern Star 655 Installs Officers

In an elaborate and impressive service of the order, the Eastern Star installed officers at the meeting Friday night, with Mrs. Esther Baldwin, grand examiner at large, leading the service, and Mrs. Vesta Wheeler as guard installing Marshall. Mrs. Leo Foster sang the song of the East as Mrs. Alma Marker was conducted to her station in the East. The entire program of installation held the motif of serious service.

Mrs. Mary Wallace, retiring worthy matron, was presented a past matron pin, as Mrs. Leo Foster sang, "Love sends a little gift of roses". Mrs. Wallace was presented a gift of appreciation for her service. Bob Barnes, past patron was presented a gift by the group. Mrs. Baldwin was complimented with a gift in appreciation for her assistance in the installation. Punch and cookies were served to 75 guests and members of the group. Others receiving recognition by gifts were: Mesdames Edith Goodlett, Vesta Wheeler, Zelpha Foster, and Mrs. Strickland.

The officers installed were: Mrs. Alma C. Marker, worthy matron; C. O. Marker, patron; Mrs. Birdie Russell, associate matron; Mike Begun, associate patron; Mrs. Riby Harris, secretary; Mrs. Yetta Sanders, treasurer; Mrs. Jessie Bent, conductress; Mrs. Claudine Exley, assistant conductress; Mrs. Jessie Jones, chaplain; Mrs. Vesta Wheeler, marshal; Mrs. Strickland, organist; Mrs. Birdie Swan, Adah; Mrs. Mildred Davidson, Ruth; Mrs. Mildred Hill, Esther; Mrs. Emily Boyd, Martha; Mrs. Mable Strickland, Electra; Mrs. Helen Turner, Warder, and Mrs. Artie Whitesides, Sentinel.

Driving Rain Floods Streets In Burk Sun.

According to the statements of old-time residents, the rain that fell heavily Sunday night, reaching cloud burst proportions, flooded the streets worse than they have been flooded in 12 years. The rain was accompanied by two series of hail that did minor damage in garden and grain crops in this vicinity. There were a large number of stalled cars in the city after the deluge.

In one case a serious accident was narrowly averted. A resident of Bellevue driving south on D Ave., ran in to the center post. The car was a new Plymouth and was damaged slightly. The glasses were broken and the frame of the car bent slightly. Only one of the occupants, a lady received minor bruises and cuts, but no one was seriously injured.

Children Day At Presbyterian Church

The Sunday school of the First Presbyterian Church will give a program for the celebration of children's day next Sunday morning at 9:45. The program is a part of the national program of the denomination, and the funds raised will be sent to the board for work among children in national missions. An interesting program has been prepared for the celebration.

Robert Young, Maureen O'Sullivan Featured In An Outstanding Cast

Romance of Father Who Sacrificed Military Reputation to Save Son's Honor, Told Against Thrilling Background of World's Greatest Flying School

BREATH-TAKING AERIAL SCENES

Wallace Beery, who in the past three years has been established at the pinnacle of box office popularity is to be seen in the most stirring dramatic role of his career in "West Point of the Air", story of the United States Army Air Corps to be shown Sunday and Monday at the Palace Theatre.

Beery's sensational success in "The Champ" was followed by "Dinner at Eight," "Tugboat Annie," "Viva Villa," for which he won the International Award for acting from Italy; and recently "Treasure Island," Robert Louis Stevenson's immortal classic. Each picture established him more firmly as one of the world's favorite character stars.

The Romantic Leads

In "West Point of the Air" his notable supporting case includes Maureen O'Sullivan, as the youthful romantic lead; Robert Young as Beery's son; Lewis Stone, James Hardie, Henry Wadsworth, Robert Taylor, Robert Livingston and Frank Conroy.

At famous Randolph Field, Texas, the $10,000,000 Army aviation school Beery's son, played by Robt. Young finds romance with Miss O'Sullivan the General's daughter. She offers encouragement to the cadet while he goes through the rigors of tests, flying instruction, solo flights, and, finally, spectacular aerial maneuvers and training reviews with hundreds of planes.

Hundreds of Thrills

Thrills never before photographed for an air picture to be seen in the film include "power dives" from an elevation of ten thousand feet to the ground; a group parachute jump from one hundred planes in the air at once; peacetime bombing maneuvers of training planes over 2,000 ground troops and other breath-taking scenes.

Burk Rotary Club Installs Officers Tues. Nite, June 4

The members of the Rotary club installed the officers of the organization at a picnic at the Water Works Park Tuesday night when they met for a barbecue as the guests of the club at the installation meeting, and the whole group were treated with an abundance of chicken and other picnic delicacies.

In turning the chair over to the new president, Alvin Hill, Mr. Kemp challenged the club to give to the new officers the united support that is characteristic of Rotary clubs. He praised the club for its cooperation with him during the last year, and pointed out that the organization had the opportunity to make new records in club work with the renewed enthusiasm for the work the coming year.

In accepting the office, Mr. Hill said that the past year under the direction of Mr. Kemp had been the greatest Rotary year possible under the present conditions. He praised the work of his predecessor, and asked the club to give him the same cooperation that they had given the retiring officer. He pledged that he would do his best to carry out the duties of the officer with which they had honored him.

The other officers are: B. F. Gilchrist, vice president; N. R. Vaught, secretary; F. A. Jameson, and Glen Bear, directors. Guests from Wichita Falls were: Charles Kirby, W. C. Duncan, Dr. Frank Harrison, Curtis Cook provided a series of games for the picnic. The president appointed the committees for the next year.

The board of directors and committees are as follows:
Directors: Oscar Kemp, Glen Bear, F. A. Jameson, N. R. Vaught, and A. R. Hill.

Aims and objects: Jack Brumley, chairman; Paul Browning, H. D. Smith and Carl Morrison, club service; Jack Brumley, Butler West-erfield and J. C. Adams, vocational service; Paul Browning, Community service; H. D. Smith, chairman, Cecil Jenkins and Fred Brookman, International service; Carl Morrison, Classification; Neeley Vaught, Membership; Oscar Kemp, chairman, O. C. Wills and P. A. Wiggins, Fellowship and attendance, Cecil Jenkins, chairman, D. R. Peevey and Oscar Kemp, Program and information, M. C. Tucker and J. M. Thomas, Boys work, B. F. Gilchrist and L. G. Hagard, Louis Peyton, Crippled children, J. M. Thomas, chairman Dr. Ruel Claught-er and C. P. Logas.

Current Literature Club Starts Story Telling Hour Wed.

The Current Literature Club will start the story telling hour for the Burkburnett children next Wednesday, June 12, at the Hardin Park. The children will be invited to meet at four o'clock and will be served ice cream cones. This series has been carried on by the organization for several years, and the club has always provided an interesting and instructive program for the children of the community.

Mr. A. G. Johnson of Wichita Falls was in Burkburnett on a business trip Thursday and Friday.

The headquarters issued a statement of thanks to the Burkburnett Gas Co. that has helped to arrange the gas fittings for relief kitchen. Mrs. E. E. McKown, will be in charge of the work that will have a force sufficient to take care of all the canning that is demanded by the local gardeners and farmers. The toll on fruit and vegetables for this season will be 60 per cent. The government will furnish everything but the food. The cans, heaters, labor and expense, and the toll part will be stored at the commissary for relief purposes.

The work on the canning of the absolute relief garden products has been going on for over a week, and the kitchen is stacking up a large supply of food for the store house. The relief garden is one of the few projects that has been retained.

Katy Completes Bridge Over Red

The Katy railroad has completed the bridge work over the Red river after the complete wash out of two weeks ago. The bridge fell into the river the night that the tragedy occurred at the highway bridge, and the local shippers have been handicapped by the delayed traffic. The work has been done under the handicap of the temperamental river that has threatened to rise several times since the construction was started.

This will be the last link in the track to be completed. While more than a hundred miles of the road has been out of service following the flood, all but the local span had been reconstructed until Friday. The service will remain on the same schedule that has been in force in Burkburnett.

With the return of the normal service to the railway the mail schedules will be resumed. During the washout the mail left the city in mid-day, and no evening mail went out of the city. At the present the early train brings mail to Burkburnett and the evening train carries it South at 7:05. There is also a bus scheduled to leave the city at 12 noon sharp. This carries only first class mail and other parcels are held for the evening run. Mail for each class should be in the post office about 40 minutes before the buses or trains leave.

WICHITA BEATS BURK ALL-STARS

The Wichita Inter-City team beat the Burk All-Stars at the Cedar Park diamond in Wichita last Wednesday in the closest game that the local boys have played with a score of 11 to 8. Three times during the contest the score was tied, and twice the Burk team was in the lead. However, due to the effectiveness of the batting of Webb Curfman, of the Wichita ten, the Burk lads were never able to hold the leads.

Curfman batted out three home runs and a single, and drove in seven runs and scored another run himself. This accounted for more than two-thirds of the Wichita counters. The Burk team jumped into the lead with two scores in the first inning, but the Wichita team retaliated with three runs the next. The score was tied in 7th and Wichita jumped ahead.

Big Rabbit Creek

June 2, 1935

Well, when it rains it just pours. And when that great disaster came such as the bridge being washed out two weeks ago and the 4 lives lost, here comes along on the heels of it all a maddog panic. When Mr. Robert Thornton sent his little boy last Wednesday evening out in the pasture to bring in the milk cows, one of Mr. and Mrs. Hatcher's little boys went to the pasture with the Thornton boy. After they got out in the pasture they came upon a maddog, and as soon as the dog saw the boys it made for the little Thornton boy, knocking the little fellow down and biting his hand very bad. The Hatcher boy yanked the dog by the tail and pulled him off of his companion. The dog left the boys and went to the Thornton house. Mr. Thornton's oldest son was out in the yard and the dog made for him but the boy picked up a hoe and knocked the dog down twice, breaking the hoe handle. Mr. Thornton took his son for the maddog serum treatment at once. It's hoped that nothing will develop seriously from the bite.

A bunch of men headed by Robert Williams, Mr. Robert Thornton father of the boy who was bitten, Mansfield and Charlie Griffith started hunting over the neighborhood for the dog, but wasn't found until the next morning down in Mansfield Griffith's pasture and was shot and killed.

The next day, Thursday, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Alexander, who lives north east of Randlett, one of his dogs went mad and bit his brother, D. L. Alexander, who was visiting with his brother Orbin. It also bit several head of milk cows and some of his work stock, so the writer has been informed. J. A. took his son D. L. to have him treated for the bite. The writer has been advised that every dog owner in this community have their dogs tied up or have their dog muzzled or shot. It is hoped by all of dog bitten victims friends that their treatment will prove successful and they will all get o. k.

Mr. Charlie Nails called on the Owens family Sunday morning and visited a short while.

Owing to the washing out of the Burkburnett bridge Saturday night, May 18th, causing the loss of 4 lives the Big Rabbit Creek Singing Convention has been postponed until the last Sunday in June. Through the kindness of Mrs. John Ashton, she sent the writer the above advice. Many thanks, Mrs. Ashton, Don't forget the Sunday and the date, June 30.

Owing to so much rain all through the month of May, it has and will delay the harvest 10 or 15 days. The grain isn't turning yet. It will be around the 15th before harvest will get under good headway. Oats are just fine, but the oats are very smoothy and will cut the yield down some. Wheat has come out wonderfully and will make a fairly good crop after all.

The writer met his old time friend some time past, W. D. Day who lives on the highway and who owns the big peach orchard. W. D. was telling the writer that the majority of his peach trees was loaded with fine peaches and he would have lots of them to put on the market about the 10th of this month and that his price will be in line with other orchards.

Hawkeye and his better half motored up to Mr. and Mrs. James Self Sunday morning and spent just a few minutes with the Self family.

Mrs. Maud Owens went to Randlett Monday on business pertaining to the Signing up of this year's cotton plow-up contract. The contracts are handled through our local committee, J. A. Alexander of Randlett.

Some farmers that were fortun-nate enough to get a stand of cotton up before so much rain set in is now plowing it and it looks fine, also the corn. There has been 2-3 of the cotton over on this side that has been planted over the third time. Lots of cotton is being planted over on this side yet.

The mail on all of the rural routes are just getting back to normal again since the rail road bridge has been built back after it was washed out two weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Bridges and 2 daughters and their infant son called on the Owens family Sunday afternoon and spent the evening visiting.

All of the farmers over on this side who have such fine oars in sight is very anxious for the crop to get ripe so they can be harvested, as they are so afraid of a big hail might come along. If so it would be goodby-oats as they are now just in the right stage to be ruined.

W. S. Williams for several days now has been overhauling his binder so he will be ready to start cutting his barley Monday morning if the weather will permit.

Mrs. Ed Owens called on Mrs. D. L. Alexander and family Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Alexander is well enough to be up and around again after her long seige of sickness.

One of the heaviest rains of the season fell Sunday night between 8 and 10 o'clock. 1-2 inches of rain fell. The Rabbit Creek is all banks, and has covered a large portion of bottom lands, and the Rabbit Creek is higher than it has been since 1928. A hard wind accompanied the rain, but no damage done by the wind.

The writer joins the balance of the Oklahoman's, especially all were in the searching parties for the Texas brethren who lost their lives two weeks ago. The Mayor of Burkburnett commented on the way that the searchers hunted so diligently waded mud and water hunting their dead, of course the Mayor wasn't at no time with the search as he was unable to go, but he has been told around 40 or 50 Oklahomans participated in the hunt, but the comment which Mayor passed on over was were just grand in his talk. He wound up his talk stating the City of Burkburnett and all the men were doing everything possible to get the Oklahoman across the bridge so they could see their shopping. Lots of the Oklahoma people will remember Mayor's talk.

Announcement

The Church of Christ at street and Ave E will begin their new building next Monday. The house is not quite complete there will be plenty of good and sufficient accommodations for everyone who wishes to worship. Everyone cordially invited to attend.

McCOY TURNS FIGHTING EDITOR IN NEW THRILL DRAMA

Tim McCoy, hard-riding ranger and hero of countless screen thrillers, will be seen as the publisher of a small fighting newspaper, back in the days when lead bullets than lead type were the law of the land, in the Columbia Law Beyond the Range," which opens Saturday at the Theatre.

Lions Club

The Lions Club planned the installation of officers for Tuesday night, May 25 in an outdoor meeting at which the wives and sweethearts of the members will be the honored guests. The meeting will probably be at the water works park South East of the city and a barbecue or picnic luncheon will be given. Chester Duncan, recently elected president will be installed at the meeting as the executive officer of the club, along with the other officers and committee.

The program Tuesday night included an extemporary quartet by Leonard Mattingly, R. D. Owens, Ray Ruffner, and J. L. Caffee. Roy Jackson Jr. sang a solo for the club. The details for the installation and the picnic were planned.

Protection For Water Taps Painted On Streets

In order to conform with the state requirements and to protect the firemen in case of an emergency the city council passed a resolution Monday night at the meeting at the city hall. The spaces were ordered painted, and the work on the lanes was scheduled to be started Tuesday morning. The lanes will be protected by the ordinary city ordinance regulating illegal parking in the city.

Winners Announced Dress Making Cont'st

The dress making contest decision arrived this week and the winners were listed by Miss Bessie Lee Sykes who was assisted by Mrs. Fred Brookman, president of the Hardin Demonstration Club. The contest was conducted by Boyd Bros. in cooperation with the World Pattern and closed May 25.

Telephone

from $1500 to $2,000 per month out of the small city.

Termination of Contract
The resentment of the citizens started when they realized that such a large amount was being drained from the city, and such a relatively small amount was retained here for local expenses. However, it is probable that the local indignation would not have been aroused, had not the traffic manager of the Wichita district sent the local manager a notice of the termination of the contract.

The manager here had been warned that the release of any information relative to the wages allowed under the contract would be improper. The company apparently wished to keep the community uninformed about the small amount allowed for local expenses. Nevertheless, the investigation of several local citizens revealed that the company was not allowing sufficient to justify the business that they received here. This investigation led to the expression of some public opinions. The company in Wichita Falls then sent notice to the local manager that the contract would be forfeited the 16th of June.

The real reason for the discharge or transfer was that a wide friendship among the people. This friendly relationship was resented, according to those sponsoring the petition, because it was possible for the local people to observe the conditions under which the managers and operators were required to work.

Business Men Investigate
After the notice of the termination of the contract, the local business men investigated and found that the operators were paid what they called a disgraceful wage. A conference was called and the managers of the Wichita district met in Burk Burnett. However, no satisfactory solution of the question was arranged.

The result of the deadlock in the conference is that the local business men have arranged to establish an exchange here. The arrangements will be that the local pole system will be used, and the exchange will be managed on a fair basis and at a fair exchange price.

In an interview with the reporter, the manager of the traffic division, Mr. A. G. Johnson, said that "The hiring and firing of employees was the private business of the company," he stated further that he did not think it any of the concern of the public about the private matters of the company related to employees. That the local people were being transferred because they violated technical rules that the public was not interested in at the present.

The petition signed reads: "We the undersigned citizens of Burk Burnett, petition the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. to retain Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Pennington in their present positions, and to pay them a living wage and to furnish enough additional help to maintain a telephone in an efficient manner."

"Mr. and Mrs. Pennington are respected citizens in this community. Their present wages make it impossible for them to participate in any religious or civic activities." Photostatic copies of this paper were filed with the company, along with a copy of the signatures that were secured from the people in the city.

LABOR UNION LEASES HALL OVER BAKERY

The Oil Field, Gas Worker Association of Local number 258 have perfected a lease on the hall over the Betty Anne Bakery, and will probably take possession of the hall on or about July 1. The hall will be remodeled and will give the organization a convenient and centrally located meeting place for all the union and auxiliary groups. The union was organized more than a year ago in Burk Burnett. Since its organization it has been one of the interesting units of the international organizations.

At the present the membership ranks well over 300, and many of the members have predicted that it will become one of the strongest units in the state. It is the only organization of its type in this territory. At the first meeting the group met in the Legion hall; later they have been meeting at the Elks hall. The new club rooms will give them a private meeting place.

Business Houses Again Provide The Transportation Sat.

The business houses of Burk Burnett provided courtesy cars for the shoppers from Oklahoma last Saturday. The shoppers came in large numbers and carried all kinds of products to the local markets. The trolley was kept busy most of the day an even far into the night transporting visitors. The visitors were met at the bridge and given a ride to the city, and returned to the break as fast as they wished to return.

The bridge is progressing rapidly toward completion. The pile driver has been working in the face of great difficulty on the account of several small rises in the river. The hope of the men at the project is that it will be completed in time to take care of the traffic by Thursday morning. The building of the bridge has called for the addition of several laborers from the local communities. It will be a span of about 200 feet in length. The break in the bridge is 120 feet across and the temporary bridge that swings west of the break drops back 40 feet on each side of the gap. This forty feet of space will allow the construction of the permanent bridge to proceed without interruption from the traffic.

Harvest Of Grain Starts In This Area

A few weeks ago the farmers of this section had given up hope for any grain crop of any sort in this territory, but the timely rains have increased the prospects, until in some sections there will be a bumper crop. The cutting and shocking of the grain has started in some of the fields West and South of town. Across the river to the North a few farmers have ventured to cut the grain, and some indicate that harvest will be in full swing in the next week or ten days.

Garden Club Meets With Mrs. W. D. Bent

The Burk Burnett Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. W. D. Bent on Wednesday, May 29. Mrs. Ellis gave an interesting talk on "Pools and Water Plants." She said that there were formal and informal water plants, the informal one being more individual. The speaker told how the different kinds of water lilies and plants could be planted most effectively in pools.

Mrs. Lohofener told of "Rock Gardens" She stressed columbines as suitable flowers for the gardens, also spoke of verbenias. Rock gardens should appear natural and not man made, she said. Delightful refreshments of spife tea and angel food cake were served.

Those present were: Mesdames J. C. Adams, John Bostic, Pau IBrowning, Dudley Ellis, Fred Flanagan, Ray Hill, A. H. Lohofener, M. W. Majors, Carl Morrison, Ross Reagan, A. B. Sandler, R. C. Tevis, Butler Wetsersfield, and Mrs. Trask a visitor.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank our many friends for the kindness and sympathy shown us during the illness and death of our dear wife and mother, also for the many floral offerings. We especially thank the members of the T. E. L. Sunday School class and the Young Matrons Sunday School class for their kind deeds and may God Bless you.

Fire Department Thanks Helpers

A spirit of cooperation was manifested during the recent flood tragedy here which was of paramount value in the work at that time. Members of the Burk Burnett Volunteer Fire Department wish to express their gratitude publicly for the loyalty promoting the able assistance given when most needed. Every citizen who aided the Department either directly or indirectly is extended its appreciation. The sincere efforts expended by the citizens greatly facilitated the work to be done. To those who furnished necessary supplies and food for the workers, the Department is grateful. It is such cooperation which repays the Department's efforts to serve unstintingly the community.

Loreta Stacy And Hubert Thompson Married Sunday

Miss Loreta Stacy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Stacy of Burkburnett, and Hubert Thompson of Burkburnett were married in a simple ceremony at the home of the bride on Ave. D Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. The Rev. Luther Hagard, pastor of the First Methodist church read the ceremony. The wedding party was only the members of the immediate families and the closest friends of the young people.

The bride is a popular member of the younger set in Burkburnett and a graduate of the class of '34 in the local high school. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Thompson of Stringtown and associated with the Corner Drug Store of this city. After a brief wedding tour the young couple will be at home in Burkburnett. Those present for the ceremony included Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Stacy, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Hertz Southerland, Miss Opal Thompson, Eldon Thompson and other friends of the couple.

Summer School Here Registers 25 Students

The summer session of the local high school had more than 25 registrations at the end of the first week Friday. The students have been offered make-up and advanced courses in order to complete graduation requirements or to speed up regular session work. The classes are being supervised by Carl Pommerin and Scott Williamson. Each teacher handles nine classes during the morning session of the school.

Services Set Today For Mrs. C. E. Parson, Burk

Funeral services for Mrs. C. E. Parson, 33, who died in a Ft. Worth hospital shortly after noon Sunday were held from the First Baptist church of Burkburnett Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The Rev. Miles B. Hays, pastor, conducted the service assisted by the Rev. Bob Cunningham, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church. Interment was in the Burkburnett cemetery under the direction of the Owens and Brumley Funeral home.

Survivors include the husband; three sons, C. E. Jr., Glen and Carl, of White Deer; five daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Ryano of Gladewater, eParl Jean, Jonnie Marie and Vesta Fern Parson of White Deer, and Mrs. Lloyd Locke of Fort Worth; three brothers, Winfred Cole of Chickasha, Okla., and Willis and Bill Cole of Abasco, Calif., and three sisters, Mrs. Otis Femster, Mrs. Bertha Skinner of Chickasha, Okla., and Mrs. Bonnie Creasy of Fort Worth.

Pallbearers were: Hellis Goodwin, Don Musig, George Parker, Homer Gilbert, Charles Morman, and Ira Hullum.

Federated Society Will Meet Friday With Mrs. Knauth

The Federated Missionary Society of Burkburnett will meet Friday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. F. R. Knauth, west of the city for an executive council meeting. All the members have been urged by the president to be present. Mrs. Exley has announced that there will be several important items of business that the society must act upon at this meeting.

Go to church next Sunday.
Paul Kaiser, Pastor.

Revival Meeting

The Calvary Missionary Baptist Church announces the beginning of a revival meeting at the tabernacle at College and Ave. B June 23 to July 7. We are more than fortunate to have Rev. R. N. Coylar of Altus, Okla., to lead us in these services. Bro. Coylar is a mighty preacher and evangelist, and we feel sure that his coming to Burkburnett will be long remembered and deeply appreciated.

Pastor Cunningham wishes to take this opportunity to call every Christian who feels interested in the lost of our city and especially the members of the Baptist church to begin now to work and pray for the success of this revival.

Nazarent Revival Now In Progress At Church

The revival at the Nazarene church is increasing in interest and attendance. The people are enjoying and receiving blessings from the inspiring message of Evangelist Meador, and the splendid music by Prof. Carrell. The church is in a Sunday school rally for June 9, they are working for 100 in the school on that day. Every child that is present will receive a gift from Prof. Carrell and Rev. Meador.

The last Sunday of the revival the church is working for 150 in the school, on June 16. The person bringing the most will receive a beautiful prize. Everyone that does not attend is invited.

A. G. McClung, Pastor.

Tanner Studio Presents Pails

Miss Margaret Tanner presented the pupils of her studio in one of the cleverest recitals of the season to a packed house at the high school auditorium Friday night. The climax of the recital was the presentation of the one-act play "A Matter of Husbands" by the pupils of the group. The whole recital demonstrated an excellence of technique on the part of the pupils that was a compliment to the instructor. The arrangement of the program was unique.

The first part presented a scene as a garden party. The readers were dressed in appropriate costume to represent the various nationalities of their speeches. The cleverly arranged stage effects and costuming provided an adequate motif for the excellent interpretations of the students. The second scene consisted of stories, playlets and poems.

Soft Ball Schedules Ready For Players

Herman Brown of the Chamber of Commerce completed the memorizing of the schedules of the Burkburnett soft ball league, showing the afternoon and night games. All of the captains and managers of the teams are urged to secure a copy of the list as soon as possible. They may be secured at the Star office, Chamber of Commerce or any of the members of the board of directors.

The schedules indicate the home team and the time of the game. If any team wishes to agree on a different time or place they must make the agreement 24 hours ahead of time and secure the permission of all teams involved in the changes. The change must be filed with the secretary of the league.

PRODUCE PRICES STEADY LOCALLY

For the last two weeks there has been slight variation in produce and grain prices. Sweet cream is priced at 28 cents and sour cream at 21 cents. However, due to competitive conditions, sour cream is bringing the same price as sweet in some instances. Eggs and chickens have remained the same. Wheat, oats and barley have fallen slightly.

Mrs. Lewallen Still Studying With Nelson

The Star carried a story last week that may have left the impression that Mrs. Ed Lewallen had ended her study with Mr. Allen Nelson of Wichita Falls. The fact is that the student had completed a study course specially designed for teachers, and will continue to carry on her regular technical work under the instructor of that city. As a violin student, the completion of the special teachers course is significant of a better preparation for teaching violin.

O. A. Caldwell Dies At Home Near Devol After Heart Attack

O. A. Caldwell, 59, farmer living five miles north of Burkburnett in Okla., died suddenly of a heart attack at 9:30 o'clock Thursday night.

Funeral services were at the First Christian church in Devol Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Burial was in the Devol cemetery, under the direction of Owens and Brumley Funeral home of Burkburnett. Pallbearers were Henry Thompson, Lee Miller, Harvey Schull, John Finder, Dan Hall and John Martin.

Mr. Caldwell had been a resident of this section for eight years and was well known. He is survived by his widow, three sons, C. A. Wilson, Okla.; L. J., Atoka, Okla., and C. W. of Burkburnett; one daughter, Mrs. V. O. Adams, Wilson, Okla., and a brother, Ira Caldwell of Wilson, Okla.

Former Burk Man Runs Successful School At Wink

C. R. Roberts, brother of W. A. Roberts, and former citizen of Burk- burnett, has one of the most suc- cessful school systems in West Texas at Wink, according to a special fea- ture article in the San Angelo Morn- ing Times. The copyrighted article written by Sam Ashburn said that the school was larger than some Texas colleges and had a standard of pay for its teachers that was not excelled in any school system in the state.

Mr. Roberts went to Wink from Henrietta where he was superintend- ent, and since taking over the sys- tem in the sand dunes he has brought the standard of the school up to above par. Previous to his ex- perience at Henrietta, Roberts es- tablished the Fairview school near Burkburnett.

The system with a five million val- uation raises and spends $72,000.00 a year, and has reduced its debts from $250,000 to less than $62,000 in the last six years. The school is modern in every detail with cafeteria, science rooms, and gymnasiums. The football team has an average of 100 boys out for training. These athletic teams have collected trophies that any school would be proud of under any circumstances. The winning of regional championship caught the notice of the state last year, and 13 men of the first string of 19 will be back next year.

The administration has won and held the respect of the entire city. The former Burk citizen has char- acteristically kept a driving energy in every program of the institution.

If you give your property to the poor, that is generosity. If you give other people's property, that is polit- ics.

Sheriff's Sale

THE STATE OF TEXAS County of Wichita NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that by virtue of a certain Order of Sale issued out of the Honorable 89th Dis- trict Court of Wichita County, on the 25th day of May, 1935, by R. L. ## MAGNOLIA HANDS THAXTON FIRST DEFEAT OF SEASON

Mity Nice and Barrow-Grace Play Eleven Innings Mon.

INTEREST GROWS

Softball produced a week of up- sets in the league play for the last seven days, as the association set- tled down to serious business of playing the schedule after many delays. The program of the week was full of bitterly fought contests with the under dog winning more often than he lost. The interest of the crowds grew in proportion to the increase in the brand of ball played, until last night a stadium full of fans watched the bitterly fought Thaxton-Magnolia game.

The climax of the week came in the two games played Monday. Bar- row-Grace started the new week by taking the Mity Nice favorites for a cleanin gin an eleven inning game that ended 4 to 3. The game was tied until the eleventh and Mity Nice scored in the first half and seemed to have the game in the bag, but Barrow-Grace chalked up two runs in their part of the frame to win the game. It was the longest game played this year. Clifton pitched for the losers, and J. Kelly for the winners.

Magnolia handed Thaxton their first defeat Monday night when they plastered a stinging 13 to 7 defeat on the league leaders. The Thaxton team jumped into the lead, but the Mags soon staged a six run rally to jump ahead and were never in danger during the game. The game brought out the banner crowd of enthusiastic fans. Earlier in the week Magnolia had handed Mity Nice a 7 to 8 defeat in an afternoon game, and beaten Texas Company 13 to 5.

Thaxton had beaten Bell 12 to 2 and Barrow-Grace 7 to 4. Tucker won the first two games that they have won this year. They beat Bell Oil and Gas 10 to 6 and repeated the victory by defeating Skelly 13 to 12. They also held the Mity Nice in a close game of 5 to 4. Skelly handed Texas a 19 to 5 de- feat.

The whole program for the week brought out the most interesting playing of the season. The teams are gradually warming up and the interest of the fans is growing every day. The big game for the week will be the meeting of Tucker and Thaxton team Thursday afternoon. The Tucker team seems to have found a new strength, and the Thaxton team has lost only one game.

Averages:

Team	G	W	L	Pct.
Thaxton	8	7	1	.875
Magnolia	8	6	2	.750
Barrow-Grace	5	3	2	.600
Mity Nice	7	4	3	.571
Bell	6	2	4	.333
Skelly	7	2	5	.286
Texas	7	2	5	.286
Tucker	7	2	5	.286

Baptist Class Gives Picnic Last Tuesday

Mrs. John Brookman sponsored a picnic for the senior girls' class of the Baptist Sunday School class at Haven Park in Wichita Falls last Tuesday. The picnic lasted all day and the members of the class gave the affair in the honor of Mary Emma Hodges and Kate Wooten, who are leaving the city in the near fu- ture. After an early morning swim the picnickers ate lunch at the park and they made a tour of all the parls in the area. In the parks they played various games and tried out all the play ground equipment in each place.

The members of the class present were Mary Emma Hodges, Bernice Berringer, Kate Wooten, Christine Milliken, Bonnie Dell Smith, Dorothy Wallace, Lois Stegall, Harriet Chambers, Mary Louise Kelly, Emma Jane Smith, Virginia Ann Laney, and the hostess Mrs. John Brookman.

It does seem silly to buy arma- ment when no enemy could harm the country more than American do.

MAY ROBSON AGAIN ATTAINS DRAMA HEIGHTS IN NEW FILM

"Mills of the Gods," the Columbia dramatic film which opens at the Palace Theatre Thursday, is above everything else, a heartening personal triumph for the grand trouper, May Robson. The lavishness of this deserving praise is only evident when you consider that "Mills of the Gods" is a vivid and unforgettable screen drama, fashioned out of the story of a once great family whose individual fortunes take a dramatic turn when the great industrial crisis arrives. May Robson's sterling portrayal dominates the action and characters with a moving power.

Miss Robson as Mary Hastings, mistress of a giant industrial plant, has a brood of worthless children and grand children who are disporting themselves in all corners of the world, selfish, pleasure seeking, who can't be bothered with such flat and gauche affairs as financial statements and sales charts. The climax is a stirring and gripping sequence during which May Robson achieves a superb scene when she faces a rioting mob and sobers them into ceasing their disturbances by the power and domination of her mere presence.

Selling Declared Girl's Best Job by Joan Blondell

"Girls who want to have a career certainly should go in for selling," declares Joan Blondell. She has the stellar role in the First National production, "Traveling Saleslady," which comes to the Palace Theatre on Tuesday and Wednesday. She bases her advice on personal experience.

"The girl who has brains can develop personality, and there's nothing like a feminine smile and lively personality to break down male sales resistance," she says.

"When I worked between Broadway shows in a bookstall on 89th Street," she said, "I found it especially easy to build up a clientele of men. An alert girl can quickly learn the likes and dislikes of readers. A little personal appraisal intrigues them at once. If it is followed by a fair selling talk on the book the sale is a certainty.

"Women have one advantage over men in salesmanship. That is their intuition. Of course," she laughed, "it's called intuition when we are right, but only a foolish, feminine notion when we're not."

"Traveling Saleslady" is a hilarious story of a girl who nearly ruins her father's business by selling cocktail flavored toothpaste for a rival firm when her old fashioned parent refuses to give her a job.

Steve West, graduate of the Boston University, and formerly of Wichita Falls was in the city Saturday. Mr. West is working near Burkburnett for an oil company.

Henry Grace and family of Burkburnett and Dave Barrow and family of Denton, Texas, attended a family reunion at the home of W. T. Hester and family in Blum Sunday.

Neal Hall and his family returned this week from an extensive tour of the state that took them to the Gulf and through the Western section.

Miss Lorene Kirby, teacher of the local school system spent several family and relatives before going to Nashville, Tenn., where she will attend school this summer.

Miss Alice Dewese will leave Friday night for Santos, Texas, where she will spend 10 days visiting her mother, Mrs. Dan Dewese and relatives and friends.

Sam Cooper and Bo Willis are visiting in Dallas Monday and will go by Denton to leave Mrs. Willis. Mrs. Willis will enter Denton Teacher's College for a summer course there.

Chester Duncan, principal of the high school will study in the University of Southern California this summer. He will leave next Sunday for California, and spend two months in the Western state.

Mathew Tucker has been in Texas University this summer. His plans for the summer are indefinite, but it is reported that he may stay at the university for the summer session.

Miss Ethyl Virginia Allen underwent a minor operation at the Burkburnett Clinic on Wednesday. She has been removed to her home on the LaSalle lease and is reported as doing nicely.

Other visitors to Burkburnett this week were Mrs. Katy Ridgel, Mrs. J. W. Johnston and daughter Lahoma, Mr. and Mrs. August Hensmeyer, of Norman, Okla., and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Porter of Sapulpa, Oklahoma.

Ben Howle, deputy sheriff, assisted by the policemen of Burkburnett Saturday night. The local police department expressed appreciation for his assistance.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Tucker attended the commencement exercises of A. and M. College of Texas at College Station, Texas, and witnessed the graduation of their son, Kenneth Tucker. They also attended commencement exercises at Texas University at Austin to witness the graduation of their niece, Dorothy Householder. Their son, Mathew, completed his Sophomore year at Texas University this year.

Opinion—

fails to join in with the other merchants in this trade extension campaign.

A. & P.: Will have to see Mr. Smith in Wichita Falls. NOTE: Called on Mr. Smith and he stated he would have to take it up with the head office. Gave same excuse Parker did.

White House Grocery and Market: Not in favor of holding Treasure Day on Saturday. Too much business. However, would join if it could be held middle of the week.

The Famous: The Treasure Day plan was a great idea. Business shows improvement since Treasure Day was started.

The Manhattan: We are heartily in favor of Treasure Day. Think it is a wonderful business stimulation.

Majors Variety Store: Enjoyed seeing the crowds that come to town on Treasure Day. Good business Saturday.

Boyd Bros: We owe a lot to Treasure Day. Because the big crowd that was in town Saturday business was exceptionally good. Everyone was in a buying mood and we did a rushing business.

Corner Drug: Best thing that ever happened in Burkburnett. We do our part.

Cannon Drug Store: Am more than satisfied with the results obtained by the Treasure Day. We are always willing to cooperate in anything for the betterment of Burkburnett and its people.

Peoples Ice Co: It doesn't help our business directly indirectly it does. We are strong and are cooperating every way.

Betty-Anne Bakery: Proud to be a part of the Treasure Day Club. We always operate in anything that makes a bigger and better burkett.
