Police Officials Recover Mercury From Car Here Sun.

Precious Metal Found In Car Of Young Men Arrested By Officer

OIL COMPANIES CHECK

Constable "Dad" Sanders recovered over 45 pounds of mercury from the car of two young men that were arrested on another charge by the peace officer here Sunday. The mercury is used in the meters of the oil and gas companies of this area.
The Texas, Magonia, Skelly and Tucker companies have the type of apparatus that uses the metal. They were checking their meters early this week to determine the amount of the loss. Bill Stapp, chief of police and Jim Turner assisted Mr.
Sanders in the arrest and investigation.

The alleged stolen mercury
would be valued at about $200.00 wholesale. The young men in whose car it was found claimed that they knew nothing about it. They believed it to have been placed there by someone else.

The mercury was being held at the city hall until the various companies had settled the amount that was stolen in each case. Claims will be made for the metal later.

The young men were being held here by the constable for complete investigation of the case of the authorities. If they are charged with the theft, they will be transferred to the county authorities and brought before the district court.

Rev. Paisley Holds Revival For Local Church Of Christ

Rev. F. L. Paisley, pastor of the Mineral Wells Church of Christ
started a meeting in the Burkburnett church early this week and will be in the city the remainder of the week. The meeting that will probably close Sunday night is reported by the pastor as an excellent success
in spite of the weather conditions
during the last few days.

The pastor, L. N. Moody, announced that every one is welcome to attend the services and promises a real welcome by the members of the congregation. Noon services during the week are held from 11:45
to 12:45, and at night the meeting starts at 7:00 o'clock. The regular Sunday morning services will be at

CHARLES HODGES SPEAKS ON TEXAS IN BURKBURNETT SCHOOLS, CLUBS

Noted Authority Tells of First Things

Speaking five times in the Burkburnett area Monday and Tuesday, Charles Hodges, noted authority on Texas history, drew large crowds of students and business men to hear the glorious and dramatic story of the state's unique history. Mr. Hodges was formerly a custodian of the historical exhibits at Baylor University, and during the last few months has traveled over Texas and other states to secure publicity for the Centennial celebration in '36.

The Centennial celebration intends to do three things, according to the speaker. In his speeches at the Rotary, Lions clubs and at the Fairview, Burk high school and grade schools, Hodges told the crowds that Texas wished to remind the people of the glorious struggle the pioneers made for freedom, to point out the progress made during the century, and to show the world the opportunities offered in Texas.

Brilliant Speaker

Before each of the groups at the schools, Hodges used a huge map that operated with electricity that illustrated in glowing lights the points of interest that the speaker told about in his lecture. His recalling of the events was in an excellent style and dramatic form, that classes him as one of the most brilliant speakers in the state of Texas.

In the speech he told of the first things that had been done in the state. Among these were the first white men to see Texas, the first surgical operation, the city of gold

C of C Annual Meet Postponed A Week To Prevent Conflict

Wichita Annual Meeting Set For January Date Causes Change

JUDGE COMBS INVITED

The annual meeting of the chamber of commerce that was set tentatively has been postponed one week to prevent conflict with the annual meeting of Wichita Falls by the same organization. So many of the Burkburnett members attend the annual meeting at the county seat
that the directors felt that a conflict would be unnecessary.

The secretary of the organization announced this week that Judge Charles Combs had been invited to speak at the banquet this year. The speaker is one of the past presidents of the WTCC and noted for his ability as an orator in West Texas.

The program for the meet will be built around the speech of the ex-president, and will include many features of excellent entertainment.
The directors will choose some member of the community for the annual loving cup before the date of the banquet.

Great Interest Shown In The Oil Drilling Of Red River Section

Real interest has been in evidence among the oil fraternity in the drilling in the Burk and Devol area.
Two wells have been started and the third has been projected by the drilling companies. The well eight miles north of Devol was close to the 3,000 foot level according to reports at the well. The powerful machinery that was set up is capable of an eight thousand foot test according to experts in the field.

Both wells that are under way
are using steel derricks and rotary rigs for the drilling. The wells are being drilled in an area that has been tried several times before without success, but the present tests are being made much deeper than any previously punched in the district.

The Burkburnett men have been very interested in the test in as much as the local oil men feel that success across the river in deep territory would be an indication of the oil at the same depth on the Texas side.

If the tests are successful a company has been tentatively organized for deep drilling test just south of the river, and two miles north east of Burkburnett.

Christian Church to Have New Building For Congregation

Remodeling and Refinishing of the Building to Give Modern Home

CALL PASTOR LATER

The members of the First Christian church of Burkburnett have undertaken an ambitious program
for the remodeling and refinishing of the local church building. The church that is used at the present will be discarded, and the former banquet and Sunday school rooms have been moved to the front of the property owned by the organization.

The auditorium used at the present has been too small for the services of the church, and when the group calls a pastor, the first of the year, larger quarters will be necessary for the church work.

The building that has been moved will be completely remodeled, and the interior refinished by the members of the group. The old structure will be torn down and moved from the present site. The land surrounding the church will be landscaped by the members, and sidewalks constructed in the front of the new building.

The church which has been served part time during the past two years will call a full time pastor or a regular minister soon after the construction is completed on the buildings.

First City Poll Taxes Paid Here

The first poll taxes for the city of Burkburnett were paid by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brookman, according to the report of the city officials. In addition to the regular state taxes that are required for voting the local municipal government elections require the payment of a city voting tax. The citizens of Burkburnett have been urged to pay the city and poll taxes as well as the state tax as soon as possible. The civic minded will register for voting in the near future.

Cement In First Block of Paving Project is Ready

Working on an average of 40 men each day, the $47,000 paving project completed the placing of the first block of crushed cement this week. The work, supervised by McFarlane, started at 4th street, and the stretch of several hundred feet to the light plant was filled with the crushed materials.

The paraffine will be poured into the rock as soon as the second block is completed. The rain stopped the work temporarily Monday afternoon. The continued bad weather will make it necessary to add a large number of men to the work here. The men who have been released for the cotton fields will probably be re-employed in case
the fields are still wet.

The men who have been employed are those who are classified by the relief bureau as physically capable of the work. Every client on the local roles received examination for physical ability several weeks ago. The men have been classified in four groups, (1) Those able to do hard manual labor, (2)
Those able to do light manual labor
(3) Those able to do clerical and inside work and (4) Those unable to work.

The last class will probably be a permanent charge of the state and communities. The national government recently announced the policy of handing the care of this group back to the state and local government during December.

Infant Son of Leo Richardson Buried

The last rites of James Allen Richardson, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Richardson of Bridgetown, were held in Burkburnett with the Rev. Miles B. Hays officiating. The last services were held under the direction of the Thomas funeral home, and the interment at the Burkburnett cemetery.

Life was a lot safer and saner around Burkburnett when all of th honking was done by the geese.

Car of Charles Jones Crashes Into School Child on West Main

Burkburnett Police Investigate Accident Taking Child's Life Wednesday

Goldie B. Elliott, 7 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Elliott, of West Main street of Burkburnett, was killed when the car driven by Charles Jones, teacher at Fairview school swerved into her on the West pavement in front of old Shamburger Lumber company, Wednesday afternoon at 2:45.

Mr. Jones was driving toward Burkburnett at the time of the accident with four other persons, in a party that had started to the Texas State Teachers Convention at San Antonio, Texas.

Statement to Police
In his statement to the Chief of Police of Burkburnett, Bill Stapp, who investigated the accident, Mr.
Jones said that as he approached the scene of the accident, that four children rushed onto the pavement and started across from in front of a car that had been parked at the side of the road.

"Three of the children started hurriedly back to the south side of the road, but the fourth one remained alone." In an attempt to swerve and avoid the entire group Jones' car smashed into the tiny seven-year old girl and dragged the body of the school child several feet.

The child was picked up by Mrs.
E. C. Lowery, according to witnesses and rushed to the Burkburnett clinic. Dr. Slaughter attended her, and found on examination that the neck of the child had been snapped by the blow, that the base of the skull was fractured and that there were several internal injuries.

The mother and father of the child were summoned and the child was dead on their arrival. Mr. Elliott is an employee of the Tucker oil company, and the family has lived in Burkburnett for several years.

The witnesses verified Mr. Jones' statement that the children had dashed in front of the car without warning, and that the speed of the car made it impossible for the person to slow down.

Those accompanying Mr. Jones
and his statement were Misses Lillie Mae Armstrong, Lois Blalock, H. B.
Northeott and Henry Fuller.

Burk Student

The child attends the Burkburnett school, and is in the primary department there. She is survived by the mother and father, and two sisters, Nina, Ola, and Marvilla and one brother, J. W. Elliott, Jr.

Rev. H. M. Savage, pastor of the church of Assembly of God of Burk will probably hold the services. Arrangements were not made late this afternoon (Wednesday). Owens-Bramley funeral home will have charge of the services.

Burkburnett Study Clubs Hold Annual Banquet Mon. Nite

Interesting Program Presented As
All Clubs Attend Dinner

The study clubs of Burkburnett met in the annual banquet of the organization at the First Methodist church Monday night, with the dinner served by the members of the Wesley Bible class of the church.
The clubs represented at the interesting program were: Current Literature Club, University Study Club, Junior University Study Club.
The four course luncheon was served in the basement of the church.

The tables were decorated with autumn leaves, yellow chrysanthemums, yellow lighted candles, and the center piece was a large pumpkin surrounded by fruits in the Thanksgiving motif.

The toastmistress was Miss No-rene Kirby. The invocation was given by Mrs. M. W. Majors. Miss Imogene Snoddy of Wichita Falls played piano music during the dinner. Miss Mabelle Sonamaker, accompanied Mrs. Geo. Kimbell who sang "Jes' a Dreamin'", and "I Carry You In My Pocket."

THE SCHOOL AND THE CITIZEN

The strength of the American government lies in its educated citizenry.

Even the crudest schools of pioneer days served well. The citizen owes a debt of gratitude to the legendary "little red schoolhouse". Those schools, and the more adequate ones into which they developed, have made our people one. They have been the principal unifying force in America. We have had no state church, no strongly centralized government, no unity of blood or of language to pledge us to a common cause. No consciousness of a distant past, no ancient traditions or century-seasoned folkways bind us to common purposes as the old world nations are bound. Our nation is still young, mingling blood and traditions and ideals of conduct of every race and clime.

But in city, town, and hamlet, dotting the open prairie and rugged mountainside, are schools—institutions familiar alike to crowded metropolis and isolated ranch. It is these schools which have blended age-old contrary cultures into the harmonious ideals of a new world. It is these schools which have been the "melting pot" of America.

In these schools our young people have been inspired with devotion to the flag as it stands for our highest purposes. In these schools American youth have acquired respect for law and the Constitution, admiration for our great national heroes, and a knowledge of the nation's struggles for freedom and self-rule.

The school is democracy's substitute for the scepter and sword, for the arbitrary power of dictators and kings and the domination of arms that were the resort of the past to weld peoples into national unity. The stability and permanence of the nation depend upon the unifying influence of the schools.

The schools of our fathers are no more adequate to serve today's needs than are the candle-mold, the spinning wheel, and the ox-bow. A nineteenth century school cannot adequately prepare citizens for twentieth century self-government. The future of a nation depends upon whether the education of its people keeps pace with its growing problems. The citizenship of tomorrow must have increased understanding of social, political and economic affairs. It is the responsibility of every citizen today to help improve the schools to meet changing needs.

BEAUTIFICATION

We have written several times about the preparations that will be necessary for the centennial celebration next year. There has been some response to these articles, but there remains more to be done—a larger part of the task is ahead of us. Some of the people have been civic minded enough to go ahead and clean up and paint up.

What is to be done mainly is along the three highways in the city. Every person that owns the property along the highways ought to feel the necessity of making that property attractive before the Centennial opens next spring. That means painting, remodeling, cleaning, and planting shrubbery in the yards.

The organizations in the city are planning to carry out a program to emphasize this work. A story appears elsewhere giving the details of a week set aside for the campaign.

When the people approach you the proposition to aid, meet them with a courteous response and line up in the program. Furthermore, the business houses in the city ought to try a little cleaning and painting. There a few buildings in town that do not need new paint.

The work so far has been in spasms. The city achieves the affect of a checker board. The whole scheme ought to be presented simultaneously so that a sparkling and effective front will be presented.

THANKSGIVING

Thanksgiving has become a synonym for big eating and a lot of football, and all the accompanying excitement. It is strange that we have kept the feasting part of the celebration and have disregarded the more vital features of the holiday. The original intention of the Founders of the festival was to pause for awhile and give a prayer of thanks for the blessings of the past year before they indulged in the huge dinner that had been prepared.

We today are willing to continue the eating and games, but we do not think about the pause for prayer. Of course it would not do much good if that were the only prayer we uttered during the entire year in appreciation for the good things that we have. Thanksgiving could be the season then of forgetting the trouble and worries—the imperfection of the year, and wiping the errors that we have made off of the slate—starting fresh with ambition and hope of a greater year ahead.

For the world this has been a year of trouble. It would be very appropriate for us to forget the war and hatreds that hang over the world. Forget those hatreds and abolish them into the limbo of all unworthy things.

Poem of Oklahoman Timely

Have you ever heard the rattle of a dying man's last breath?
Or seen the look of horror in the stare that faces death?
Have you ever heard a person scream and writhe in sudden pain
And look down at a mangled arm that will not move again?
Or have you heard the moaning and smelled the stench of gin
And seen the gory, bloody gap where once an eye had been?
When your car is doing fifty have you ever felt the yen
To let's have another notch 'n do another ten?
When a pokey guy's ahead of you have you ever had the thrill
Of swingin' out 'n passin' him upon a dangerous hill?
Or have you ever felt the old car scream 'n lurch 'n swerve
As you let's have the limit while you took a sudden curve?
Have you even seen the wreckage of an automobile crash
With flesh and steel made into a morbid, gruesome hash?
Have you ever seen the entrails 'n the ears 'n arm 'n hand
'N hat 'n shoes 'n fingers or what once had been a man?
Have you ever seen the jagged bone stick through a mangled leg
And heard the blood-smeared victim pray 'n cry 'n beg?
Have you had the keen sensation of a fast car at your bid
'N run up to a stop sign 'n slap 'em on 'n skid?
Did you ever pass a school-yard 'n give the horn a slam
'N drive close to a gang 'o kids 'n see 'em jump 'n scam?
Did you ever take a quart 'o rye 'n swallow four or five
'N take the old bus down the road 'n show 'em how to drive?
Have you ever seen a little child all crumpled up 'n still—
Who tried to run across the street while a car came down the hill?
Have you seen men's brains on fenders?
Have you seen blood in the street?
Have you seen them stare at bloody stumps of the things that were their feet?
Have you ever heard the crash 'n scream 'n seen the ghastly stare
On the face of what had been the driver 'n the rest of the man not there.
Morbid 'n gruesome 'n gory this, I'm sorry, but don't you see,
This was not meant to be read by folks as tender as you 'n me.
It was meant for the thoughtless 'n careless who kill 'n maim 'n mar—
The reckless fool who is to blame—the man in the other car.

Five Generations Are Present In Reunion

Five generations of girls were present at the family reunion held in Burkburnett this week with Mrs. Betty Hammons, 74, of Childress, as the honor guest. The reunion was held at the home of Mrs. Allie Thurlo of Burkburnett and Mrs. Estelle Mitchell of Burkburnett, both members of the five generations of the group.

The members of the group from the oldest to youngest are Mrs. Betty Hammons, Mrs. Minnie Preston, daughter, Mrs. Allie Thurlo, grand daughter, Mrs. Estelle Mitchell, great-grand daughter, and Jewell Louise Mitchell, 5, great-grand-grand daughter.

Mrs. Hammons was born in Texas, and has lived in the state her entire 74 years with the exception of a few brief visits out of the state to see relatives. She was born near Dallas, and has watched the city grow from a small town to the metropolis of the Southwest. Her father and mother came to Texas in the early days of the republic, Mr. and Mrs. Z. W. Catchum.

Mrs. Hammons has lived in Childress the last six years. Her husband died in 1900. She is a faithful member of the Pentacostal church.

C. of C. Petitions Radio Commission for KGKO

In co-operation with the chamber of commerce of Wichita Falls, the Burk chamber of commerce sent telegrams to the Federal Radio Commission Thursday petitioning that body to hold the hearing meeting of the KGKO radio station in Wichita Falls instead of Washington, D. C. The hearing has been set for the national capitol as to whether or not the station can be removed to Fort Worth.

Since the announcement of the intention of removal by the new owner, Amon G. Carter, protests have been filed by all of the civic organizations of this district. Herman Brown, secretary of the local organization attended the meeting in Wichita Falls on the preparation of the hearing.

Only two cowbell factories are left in this country and both of these are probably busy making equipment for jazz bands.

Central School Play To Draw Large Crowd

The fall operetta of the Central Ward school will draw a large crowd according to the interest indicated by the advance sale of the tickets for the benefit performance. The play will be produced for the library or book fund of the school and almost 100 students of the school under the direction of Ethyl Virginia Allen and other teachers, will appear in the first fall play.

The operetta will be at 7:30, Friday, December 6, at the high school auditorium. The admission will be 25 cents for adults. The story will present a lovely array of costuming and well trained voices.

Story of the Plot
King Martin, the Meek, of the kingdom of Make Believe, and his domineering Queen are preparing to give a grand party in honor of the birthday of their lovely young daughter, Princess Delmarie. Palace servants and trades-people are set to work, the cooks to prepare a splendid banquet, the painters to renew the decorations of the palace and the Fairy Cobbler to make shoes for all the court. The disagreeable and fault-finding Queen follows her usual custom of insisting that her own shoes are made too small and then blaming the Cobbler because they hurt her feet. To such a pitch of exasperation does she drive him that he plots vengeance against her with her sister, the bad fairy Vengefuleta, whom the Queen has slighted by leaving her off the list of invited fairies. Vengefuleta and the Cobbler summon the aid of a witch, who promises to work a spell that will put the royal family and all the birthday guests to sleep for a hundred years.

Princess Delmarie, however, who is as universally beloved as her mother is disliked, has a powerful companion in Vengefuleta's crafty cat, Machiavelli, who gives her one of his enchanted whisks to ward off evil spells. Learning of the plot, this wily schemer gets the witch to repeat her charm to him, and, finding her memory uncertain, confuses her so badly about it that when she manages to break into the party, she repeats the wrong charm, which, of course, fails of its evil purpose. Machiavelli is the hero of the hour, and the Queen, who has insisted on trusting the Cobbler and his tricky elves to guard the palace gardens against the malignant influence of Vengefuleta, thus discredited by the revelation of the elves' treachery, and for once her sadly henpecked husband gets the upper hand of her. The elves repent of their double-dealing, the Cobbler and Vengefuleta are forgiven for the harm they tried to do, and Princess Delmarie's birthday party ends happily for all concerned.

THE BULLDOGS GROWL

EDITED BY STUDENTS OF BURK SCHOOLS

Senior News

Seniors have not much news to report due to the fact that six exams are again on the prowl and they are indeed very industriously indulged in their studies.

Seniors this year have had failures, absentees, horse-die, than any preceding class, due to strenuous studies, sponsors, class officers, and a group as a whole.

Senior stand at the football game now closed, leaving the net profit of about $50.00 to be by the class in any way it chooses.

Seniors know their rings must be made, because it is taking time to get them together, with from Europe, etc.

High School Library

Book Week, which was started by the national association of book stores in 1919, was celebrated in the United States from November 17 to 23, with "Reading For the Slogan. Libraries, schools, and schools gave special attention to books of favorites with young people. Such a program was presented in assembly on Thursday, November 21.

Books of the high school were read to go to Bookland with Pauline Browning as reader and Barbara Crissey as the students who represented the school. Books were: "The Three Musketeers"; Lucille Cindrella; J. C. Adams, "Old Fashioned Girl"; Harms, Robinson Crusoe; Whitton, Uncas from "Last of the Mohicans"; Laverne Patton, Ivanhoe; Marilyn Harwell, Romola; J. R. Brock, D'Artagnan from "The Three Musketeers"; Mildred Kemp, Beatrix Esmond; and Russell Cope, Hamlet. The book characters were presented in a huge book bearing these words: "Bookland—Open Me."

Before the pageant J. T. Clifton made a talk in which he told something about Book Week. He also announced the names of students taking part in the pageant. Other students who helped with the presentation of the program were Ruby Louise Bishop, and Miles B. Hays.

F. F. A. Work

The second year F. F. A. boys have been working on their record books to see whether they can make money or not. Mr. Dean only ask for one project but each boy can have three.

The boys went out to Harvey Bentley's last week to contour a pasture. This is a great help toward having a pasture the year around. This week the boys are going out to Harvey Bentley's to butcher a hog.

Office News

Miss Mary Emma Hodges enrolled in school Monday. She has been attending school in Joinerville, Texas. We are all very glad to have Mary Emma back with us.

Randlett Cagers Win From Bulldogs

With a strong zone defense plus a Hooper-Martin combination on the offense, the Randlett cagers easily won over the Burkburnett Bulldogs in a practice affair Wednesday afternoon by the score of 44-23. Thornton led the Burk attack with 16 of the 23 points and was the outstanding man on the defense. By building him in with those men out for football the Bulldogs should have a group of county champions this season. Hooper's passing was the outstanding feature of the Randlett quintet, for time after time he dropped them squarely in the hands of his forwards, Martin in particular when they were surrounded by Bulldog defensive men. The Bulldogs will probably play a series of games with the Randlett crew before the regular season begins.

Volley Ball News

Same old practice every morning from 8:00 o'clock until 9:00 o'clock. It will be in the afternoon as well from Thanksgiving on.

The team has played several games and has won all except the first game with Fairview. The girls give you something to look forward to in the tournament. By starting off with a victorious season we are quite sure it will end up that way.

Sophomore News

The sophomore class had its 3rd home room program Monday, Nov. 25. Barbara Crissey and Bill Amyx gave talks on "Attitude on School Campus" and "Conduct in the Halls". The talks were enjoyed by the entire class.

The sophomores are glad to know that Mary Emma Hodges has enrolled in the class again.

Baptist Juniors Are Entertained Tuesday

The members of the Junior B. T. U. were entertained at the church Tuesday night in a social sponsored by the superintendent of the group. The meeting was opened with song and a short business session was held by Mrs. Wofford. Mrs. Henry Grace dismissed the group with prayer. Following the business session a program was given by the members.

The program included: reading, Dorothy Browning; piano solo, Doris Mae Grace; reading, Ed Richard Whitesides; piano duet, Doris Mae Grace and Frances Majors; readings Lela Mae Pinkston, Doris Frances Majors, Margie Lee Gilbert, Joe Neal Davidson accompanied by Pearl Cooper.

Games were led by Mrs. Artie Whitesides and Mrs. Robertson. Refreshments of cookies, sandwiches, and cocoa were served to about 40 juniors and guests. Rev. M. B. Hays dismissed with prayer.

Baptist Brotherhood Meets Monday Night

The members of the Brotherhood of the First Baptist church met in the class rooms of the organization at the church Monday night to study the subject "Brotherly Love," and for a social and business meeting. The group singing was led by Roy Magers with Mrs. M. E. Lewallen at the piano. Henry Grace, president of the group was in the chair in the business session.

The group planned the landscaping of the church lawn and arrangements were made to beautify the plot on the south of the church some time during the next few weeks. Roy Magers was appointed chairman of the committee to carry out the plans. A sub-committee was appointed to assist the committee.

The group planned to meet the last Monday in December for a general meeting with a Christmas program, and to extend an invitation to the ladies of the church to join the meeting at that time. Rev. Miles B. Hays was appointed to prepare the program for the Christmas meeting.

The secretary of the society was instructed to mail cards to each of the men in the church before the next meeting night. Vincent Buckalew, who is leaving for California was introduced, and the society voted thanks to him for his service as secretary during the past year.

The program was introduced by Ralph White. Lila Mae Pinkston read "Brotherly Love," a satire of young brothers' quarrels, and Mrs. M. E. Lewallen and Mrs. Viola Coltron gave a piano and violin number. J. C. Cook spoke on the "Power of Fellowship."

After the formal meeting the group was treated with doughnuts and coffee in the church kitchen. The next meeting will be during the Christmas holidays.

T. E. L. Board Meets Thursday, Nov. 21

The executive board of the T. E. L. Sunday school class of the First Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. E. H. Logan Thursday, Nov. 21. The opening song was "Bless Be The Tie That Binds." The prayer was led by Mrs. T. E. Carnes. Mrs. C. B. Wofford, president of the class read the devotional, and the devotional prayer was by Mrs. O. P. Brookover. Reports from the officers were received by the president and the class. The business session was devoted to a discussion of the ways and means of reaching the absentees of the class programs. The business and social meeting of the entire class was planned for December 10 in the class room at 7:30. The meeting was dismissed by Mrs. Kent.

Mrs. Logan Surprised On Birthday Thurs.

It will be possible to give some private lessons so that the new students can catch up with the group that is under instruction at the present. Any adults wishing to take on their own instruments for their own pleasure, should get in touch with Mr. Nichols.

Since the government pays farmers for not raising hogs why doesn't it pay the butchers not to raise the prices of meat?

...Devol Flashes...

All of the girls are feeling fine after the rush of games last week. They have been defeated once out of four games, and they declare that they shall never be beaten again.

WE WON—From whom: Co-operation, Randlett and Wilson. Scores, 2-27, 15-27, 15-31 and 21-41. When, Nov. 5, 7, and 13. How: Easy.

WE LOST—To Loveland. Score, 10-19 on Nov. 16. How: fighting.

The same line-up was in all four games: Odom, f, Dotson c, Hinkle c, Sellars g, and Taylor g. The substitutes were Pannell, Arnold, Mays and Compton.

Due to the lack of practice the sextette did not show up in their usual fighting form and fast going spirit Saturday night. Lillie B. Cozy has been off of the court for several days as the result of an injured arm.

Where We Spent The Vacation
Cleo Hill and Josie Dotson spent

Sunday in Dallas.

A group of "younguns" from Devol went to a box supper Thursday night. It was held at Mountain View where Miss Thelma Eubanks, formerly of Devol, is teaching.

Junior News

The junior class entertained themselves Friday night, November 22, 1935 with a chicken barbecue at the science building. Everyone had plenty of chicken, potato salad, pickles, and fruit jello. Many interesting and joyable games were played by the following: Dorothy Siber, Carrie Ruth Stonecipher, Lona Podbreger, Mildred Morrison, Margaret Nell White, Marian Sopher, Mildred Seidlets, Fay Morrison, Joan Podbreger, Iva Jim Benning, Ralph Winkles, Albert Zink, James Brown, Bill Hamilton, Fred Key, R. C. Gilbow, Leroy O'Guin, Henry Fuller, Scotty McCall, Margaret Lee Bogy, Mr. and Mrs. Y. C. Paschall, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Podbreger, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Watkins and Mrs. Harold McCall and Bobby McCall.

The juniors are one proud bunch since the arrival of their bracelets last week. The bracelets are yellow gold and the most outstanding thing in Fairview school.

The junior class is sorry to lose their beloved reporter member, Milbrey Lou Hoffman. Milbrey decided that being the wife of Chester Stradley means more to her than being a member of Fairview high school junior class. The class wishes her success and happiness.

Bill Hamilton is a new member of the junior class. Bill formerly went to Fairview, and he was well welcomed back by his old friends.

The junior class wishes to thank their mothers and fathers for attending P-T. A. Monday afternoon, so they could get the fernery. This makes twice the juniors have gotten the fernery. They hope they can keep it the remainder of the year.

The junior class is glad to have back their long, absent member, Arville Morris.

Sophomore News

We had weiners, buns, potato chips, pickles, onions and sandwiches.

Sport News

Well, Fairview was again victorious Thursday night, November 21, in the Fairview gymnasium. We played Valley View and defeated them 22-18. Because we had been defeated by Holliday the Friday night before, this caused us to be tied with Holliday for first place. It was decided that the best two out of three games be played. The first one of these games was played Monday night, Nov. 25, on our court. The score was 32-27 in Fairview's favor. The second game will be played November 26, on Holliday's court. We are planning to beat them. If we do, a third game will not be necessary. If our team is successful, we will be winners of the Eastern division of the Wichita-Red River Valley Conference.

Volley Ball

The volley ball girls have been "strutting their stuff". They have won the last four games that they played. Valley View, Burkburnett and the games with Holliday. Until Monday night, the volley ball girls won the first two games and no third game has been played, but because of their "Southern Hospitality," the girls gave Holliday one game Monday night. The girls are now tied for third place. They are just getting warmed up now, but wait until the next conference and then watch their smoke.

Texas Under Six Flags

Monday afternoon at 2:45, Charles W. Hodges, former custodian of Baylor University, lectured on Texas. His subject was "Texas Under Six Flags."

An interesting feature of the program was the large reproduction of the map of Texas, illuminated with hundreds of small electric lights showing the rivers, towns, battlefields, and the lines of ad-

Many patrons attended the lecture. The children and teachers of Fairview counted themselves very fortunate to have heard such a good lecture on our state of Texas.

Home Ec. Club News

Nation's Oil Supply Is Adequate For Centuries

Predictions of Shortage Unfounded Report Shows; Federal Control Unnecessary To Preserve Resources

LOS ANGELES, CALIF.—The people of the United States need fear neither exhaustion of the nation's petroleum resources, nor scarcity in the supply of petroleum products.

Crude oil reserves now are larger than ever before, and supplies of petroleum products sufficient to meet demand for centuries are available from oil, coal, and shale.

These reassuring facts were reported to the 16th annual meeting of the American Petroleum Institute here by President Axtell J. Byles after Institute committees completed a survey of petroleum resources to bring up to date estimates made in 1925. President Byles said the data indicated crude oil reserves now exceed 12 billion barrels, or twice the amount estimated 10 years ago, with more than a billion acres of geological formation still to be explored. Improved methods of discovery and development were found to be recovering larger quantities of oil from new fields and from greater depths below old fields.

When economic conditions warrant, President Byles explained, crude oil can be supplemented as a source of petroleum products by bituminous coal and shale. It was estimated that the nation's virtually unlimited coal deposits would yield enough motor fuel for generations, if not centuries, and that more than 100 billion barrels of oil—enough for at least a century—is available in oil shale.

Progress in refining technique, he said, also has contributed to conservation of petroleum resources, with nearly one-half each barrel of crude oil now converted into gasoline, as compared with one-sixth a few years ago. He added that modern refining plants can convert as much as 75 per cent, and known refining processes can convert almost 100 per cent, thus reducing the amount of crude oil needed.

Recalling that fears for shortages have been expressed repeatedly since oil production began in this country, President Byles declared that "so far ahead as the mind of man can run there is no possibility of a failure of this supply." He charged that "false prophets" are using shortage warnings "for the purpose of frightening the people and their legislative representatives into federal control of the petroleum industry." This, he said, would be "ruinous to the industry and calamitous to the country."

Sewing Rooms Open In Burkburnett Wed.

The sewing rooms for the relief clients opened in Burkburnett Wednesday, and placed 17 women of this city in rotation work on the project. F. R. Knauth and H. D. Smith were listing the eligibles for work, and the new plant will produce the materials needed for relief administration in this area. The materials which are made will be retained here to meet the problems of clothing and bedding during the winter season. During the past few weeks, due to the exhaustion of the funds, these types of projects had been closed. The announcement for the re-opening was received by the commissioner and relief administrator this week.

Daring Film Stars Landi in Best Role

Never has Elissa Landi, Paramount actress, been assigned a role as demanding of her acknowledged versatile capabilities as in "Without Regret." Paramount's sophisticated romance, featuring also Paul Cavanagh, Frances Drake and Kent Taylor which shows at the Palace theatre Saturday midnight.

Her newest characterization is a complete deviation from her past performances. Recognized as a comedienne, in sophisticated comedy parts, of exceptional skill, Miss Landi appears in an intensely dramatic portrayal which calls forth all the deep emotional historicities of which she has proved herself possessed.

In "Without Regret," Miss Landi gives a performance that justifies the varied talents of which she is capable. As an attractive young woman traveling in China, she is swept off her feet by the ardent attentions of Kent Taylor, handsome, ne'er-do-well aviator. She lives to regret her marriage to him. Being officially informed of his death, she marries again, this time a man worthy of her love, Paul Cavanagh, wealthy, famous, titled London physician.

Frances Drake, Taylor's exsweetheart appears, informing her that her first husband is alive and demanding blackmail or she will expose the bigamous marriage of her rival. Many dramatic, thrilling situations follow Miss Landi's attempt to save her husband's career from scandal, disgrace and ultimate ruin. Harold Young directed.

The year's prize optimist is the Texas girl who says she will marry any man who will pay her bills. She will be lucky to find a man who can pay his own.

Lederer, Dee Romantic Team in Laugh Film

Gay Deceivers Turn Misunderstandings into a Joyous Romance

The adventures and escapades of two light-hearted youngsters who look for thrills and find glorious romance constitute the story of Fox Film's delightful comedy romance "The Gay Deception," which is now at the Palace theatre, an stars handsome Francis Lederer with lovely Frances Dee.

Directed by William Wyler for Producer Jesse Lasky, the picture throws two romantics together in the sophisticated atmosphere of an ultra-luxurious hotel where most of the comedy incidents occur.

The two most interesting people in the hotel are Miss Dee, a little country girl spending the proceeds of a sweepstake prize in the grand manner and Francis Lederer, an European prince posing as a bell-boy.

These two are drawn together by love. As the climax approaches, Lederer emerges as his true self and is arrested as an impostor. And then the picture proceeds merrily to its close in which all the complications are cleared up and the lovers rejoined.

Our sympathy goes out to the Burk Burnett boy who reaches that particular age when he is too young to cuss and too old to cry.

Bankers burdened with idle money might revive the idea that $40 land is good security for a $200.00 loan.

The old-timer had dignity. He kept the respect of the woman who saw him in a night shirt putting out the cat.

Most Burk Burnett people are willing to admit that they would have been rich by now if they had profited by their mistakes.

Ten thousand critics can point out the winner's mistakes and faults and dumbness. They are the ones who lost their bets.

Some Burk Burnett men get excited when business is bad, others when their cars won't run.

Editing a paper without ruffling anybody's feelings is like fishing without a hook on your line—you get lots of recreation but no real results.

We're always suspicious of the Burk Burnett husband who goes around complaining that his wife nags him. Maybe he's mulish himself.

4,350 Bales of Cotton Ginned in Burk Burnett

The amount of cotton ginned in Burk Burnett, including both round and regular bales passed the 4,000 mark during the past week according to the reports from the Farmers Co-operative and the Burk Burnett Gin. The total ginned by the two companies was 4,350 bales. This is the first time in three years that the amount has passed the 4,000 bale mark. The bad weather held down the crop early in November, and during the last week the farmers of the area had rushed production.

However, the last few days a driving rain has kept the pickers out of the field. With fair weather the amount for the year will reach more than 4,500 bales easily. The price of the cotton has stayed near the 12c mark, with prices varying between the 11:50 and 11:74 marks.

The Burk Burnett man interested in putting his money into a going concern should first make sure which way it is going.

Many a man gives himself away but the trouble is such chirps find nobody wants them.

Gwinn Brumley And Harold Van Loh Wed In Ceremony Sunday

Popular Burk Burnett Couple Make Vows in Bride's Home Here

Miss Gwinn Brumley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brumley, became the bride of Harold Van Loh in a lovely ceremony at the home of the bride at 10 o'clock Sunday morning. The ceremony which was the climax of the fall social season in Burk was read by the pastor of the Methodist church, Rev. L. G. Hagard, before an altar of banked chrysanthemums of gold and bronze—the bride's chosen colors.

The blossoms and autumn leaves served as the basis of the decoration for the entire home. The musical motif of the program was set in the song, "I Love You Truly," offered by Mrs. Hazel Southerland accompanied by Mrs. Carlos Baker. The pianist played "Lohengrin's" wedding march as the minister and the attendants entered the room. The wedding candles were lighted by Misses Eloise Slaughter and Martha Beth Utts.

The attendants, Mrs. C. P. Van Loh and Mrs. J. H. Brumley, wore corsages of pink snapdragons. The bride in a lovely costume of green crepe with brown accessories carried a bouquet of orchids. The ceremony was an elaborate single ring service.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Loh are among the most prominent young people of the city. The bride is a graduate of the Burk Burnett high school and attended college at the Texas State college for women and North Texas State Teachers college at Denton. She has been a leader in the social life of the younger set in Burk Burnett.

The groom is associated with the Farmers State bank of Burk Burnett and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Van Loh, prominent citizens of the Burk Burnett area.

Reception

After the ceremony the young couple left immediately for a short wedding trip. In the wedding reception, the bride cut the beautiful wedding cake that held the symbolic bride and groom, and served it to the guests.

In the dining room at the punch bowl, which was on a table covered with Italian lace and set with a center piece of roses, Mesdames R. W. Wallace, D. H. Peevey, R. D. Owens and Misses Lilla and Sarah Majors assisted. With each plate serving a favor of tiny wedding bells tied with a white ribbon was included. Mints featured a gold and white color of floral design.

How It Started

The North Carolina mountaineers tell this fable:

Once there was a king and he hired him a prophet to prophesize his weather. And one evening the king he aimed to go fishing and the likeliest fishing place was right close to his best girl's house, so the king notioned to wear his best clothes. So he asked his phopphet was it liable to come on a rain before sundown. And the phopphet says, "No, king, hit ain't a-comin' on not even a sizzle-sozzle."

So the king put on his best clothes and started towards the fishing place. And along come a farmer a riding a jackass, and the farmer he says: "King, if'n you ain't aiming to git them clothes wetted you'd best go back home, because hit's a-comin' on to rain a thrash-mover and a gully-washer."

And the king says: "I hired me a high-wage phopphet to phopphet me my weather, and heallows hit ain't a-comin' on not even a sizzle-sozzle."

So the king went ahead and hit come on a thrash-mover and a gully-washer, and the king's clothes was wetted and his best girl she seen him and laughed. And the king went home and throwed out his phopphet and he says: "Fotch me that there farmer," and they fotched him. And the king says: "Farmer, I throwed out my other phopphet and I aim to hire you to phopphet me my weather from this onwards."

And the farmer says: "King, I ain't no phopphet. All I done this evening was to look at my jackass, because if'n hit's a-comin' on to rain his ears lop down, and the lower they lays the harder hit's a-comin' on to rain, and this evening they was a-laying and a-lopping."

So the king says: "Go home, farmer. I'll hire me the jackass." And that's how it started, and jackasses hev been holding all the high-wage go-ment jobs ever since.

Hines Compliments Burk For Interest In Highway Beauty

Chairman of State Commission Promises to Visit Local Area

Harry Hines, chairman of the state highway commission of the state of Texas sent a letter to the chamber of commerce and the American Legion of Burk Burnett this week complimenting the citizens of Burk Burnett for their interest in the beautification of the highway in this district.

The unusual interest that has been showed by the local community has caused the beautification of the port of entry near Burk Burnett, and will ultimately make it one of the most beautiful in the state of Texas.

Much of the credit for the local work should go to F. R. Knauth, the Legion and the chamber of commerce. The commissioner and the organizations have been persistent in their efforts during the past year to bring about the improvement near Burk that is gaining state-wide attention.

Only a week ago, Mr. Gilchrist sent his compliments to the district manager, R. F. Williams of the Wichita office for the work that had been done and the publicity that had been given to the department for the work.

The local plans still provide for the widening of the highway toward Wichita Falls, and the planting of trees on all sides of the city during the next few months. Mr. Williams stated here Saturday that he would be ready to plant the 1,000 sycamores East of the city during the first week of December.

A part of Hines' letter is as follows: "You do not know how happy it makes me feel to see my own division applying their best efforts to the matter of beautification and tidying of our highways; and the owners of signs, filling stations and business men taking a pride in the appearance of the same, and I feel that the tourists will develop a high degree of appreciation for the state of Texas as they enjoy our many good roads, visit points of interest and recreation throughout the state.

"With kind personal regards and hoping that it will be possible for me to have the privilege to have a visit with you folks at some future time."

The citizens of Burk Burnett have expressed appreciation for the work that has been done by Mr. Hines and the department. They have noticed the department's efforts to beautify the city and the precinct.

Good Book Week Celebrated Here

Our old friend John Ashton spent an hour or so visiting with the Owens family Sunday morning.

At this writing the weather is pointing forward for a snow storm, or a big rain. It's sleetng some over on this side of the big pond now. The farmers are wishing for the falling weather to hold off for a few more days so they can get their cotton all out.

Charlie Nails called on the Owens family Sunday morning.

Fred Hooper visited with W. H. Martin Sunday forenoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Orbin Alexander's children who were in the auto wreck last Sunday southwest of Randlett, were able to leave the hospital this week and were brought home. The Rabbit Creek community as well as the writer is glad to learn of their speedy recovery.

Henry Grace Honored at Surprise Party Wed.

Master Henry Grace returned home from prayer meeting Wednesday night, Nov. 20, to find a huge cake on the dining room table with three candles in honor of his birthday. After wandering around the room he unearthed such toys and marbles, toy guns, and other gifts appropriate for the three-year-old. Then to show courtesy to them he attempted to cut the cake to find it made of wood, with only a false covering of frosting.

Those honoring the Burk citizen were Brack Preston, Jack Kelly, Frank Kelly, Charlie Grace, George Brasher, W. A. Roberts, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Magers. The group played various games including "42". The honoree reported that George Brasher and Roy Magers were sure to get the shuffle near the end of each game. The hosts admitted that Henry Grace may have been older than the three years indicated by the candles and gifts, but they were adjusting the party to his actions. Therefore they brought the marbles, toys and three candles.

THE DOCTORS ARE RIGHT

Women should take only liquid laxatives

Many believe any laxative they might take only makes constipation worse. And that isn't true. Do what doctors do to relieve this condition. They use a liquid laxative, and keep reducing the dose until the bowels need no help at all.

Reduced dosage is the secret of aiding Nature in restoring regularity. You must use a little less laxative each time, and that's why your laxative should be in liquid form. A liquid dose can be regulated to the drop.

The liquid laxative generally used is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It contains senna and cascara—both natural laxatives that form no habit even with children. Syrup Pepsin is the nicest tasting, nicest acting laxative you ever tried.

Grade School Class Presents History of Texas Shrine, Alamo

The sixth grade history classes of the Central Ward school have an exhibition of the Texas cradle of liberty, the Alamo. The exhibit shows a model of the tiny mission that made the history of the state glorious. The mission fell March 6, 1836, almost 100 years ago. 186 Texans were killed in the fall of the mission that had been fortified by the defenders. Most of the hero's names of the state are connected some way or another with the location near San Antonio.

The Alamo received its name from the presence of the cottonwood trees which were noticed at the time of the founding of the mission by the Spanish Monks. The exhibits are in the window of the Rexall drug store.

Bulldogs Win From Iowa Park In Last Game For '36 Team

Five Boys Close H. S. Career As Dogs Slap Hawks In 33 to 6 Game

TOLLY MCKOWN STARS

Completing an unsuccessful season with a whirlwind of touchdowns that indicated a good season for next year, the Burk Burnett Bulldogs will hang up their togs after the 33 to 6 triumph over the Iowa Park Hawks in Burk Burnett Friday night. The game was primarily a personal triumph of Tolly McKown. Conducted by a host of hard blocking and tackling team mates, the star left half-back went over the goal four times for official touchdowns, and twice when he was called back by officials.

In spite of McKowns outstanding play there were other men that gained favorable notice. Rose, Majors, and Clifton, playing their last high school game, did just about everything a player can do. Rose's 46 yard run after catching McKown's pass was one of the spectacular plays of the game.

Hawks Score

The Hawks' single counter came in the third quarter when Wigley received a 20 yard pass over the goal line from Furl. These two men were the Hawks' best players. The score came after an interception of a Dogs' pass on their 20 yard line.

Both teams used frequent substitution. More than 25 changes were made during the game. McKown made the first counter when he went over from the 2 yard line after a steady drive down the field. McKown again counted from the five yard line after he, Clifton and Majors placed the ball there in a pass attack.

McKown Again

McKown pulled the most spectacular Bulldog run of the year in the second quarter when he twisted and wove his way through a half dozen tacklers for 20 yards and a touchdown. Then in the same quarter he carried a Hawk punt 15 yards to the 46 yard line of the Hawks. On the next play McKown fooled the Hawks. On a lateral he backed up and passed to Rose who ran the 46 yards for the goal.

Clifton ended his career by plunging all three points he tried for a 100 per cent average. The last score came after Teal had carried the ball over. Burk was off-sides. McKown carried the ball over. Both teams were off-sides. Then Teal and McKown finally pushed it over from the 14 yard line.

Senator Nelson Asks Unicameral Legislation for Texas System

"A two-headed snake was going to a creek to get a drink of water. Being in a hurry, it was not very observant of the dangerous path ahead and soon found itself caught by a twig, one of its head on one side and one on the other. It was unable to get loose from its mooring and after about thirty days, it expired.

"That," Senator G. H. Nelson said "is a fair analogy of what happens to laws the people want passed.

"To make the state government more democratic, to simplify its workings so that the will of the people can be carried out with the least possible expenditure of funds," Senator Nelson believes that Texas should replace the present Legislature with a unicameral body. Wednesday morning he offered a resolution in the Senate asking Representatives to go on record favoring, at the regular session of the Legislature in 1937, the submission of a constitutional amendment to the people on the question of the adoption of a unicameral legislature. The resolution was sent to the State Affairs Committee.

Senator Nelson, who attended the University School of Law, 1921-23, has been in the Senate only a short time. He was elected to finish the term of the late Senator A. P. Dugan.

Senator Nelson's proposal suggests a Legislature of forty-two members, two from each congressional district, to be elected for four-year terms. One member would be elected from each district every two years. Each would receive an annual salary of $5,000 and would be precluded from taking or receiving any compensation from any individual, firm or corporation during the tenure of office.

There would be a continuous legislative session. The chamber would recess or adjourn from time to time and would be subject to call by 50 per cent of the membership. Should a district feel that its wishes were not being followed, it could recall its representative. The governor's power of veto would not be abridged.

It is Senator Nelson's belief that once the people of Texas are made to realize how inefficient the present system is, they will readily adopt the unicameral legislature.

The criticism by the public of the Legislature is growing year by year. There are loud grumblings about costs of legislation, and about the type of legislation. These objections are valid, and once the people are shown how they can get what they want, they will not hesitate to give the order.

Senator has gathered a great amount of data on the subject. He has also collected figures which show that the cost of operation of each Legislature per man, for each of the 181 solons, is approximately $6,129.

"For the Forty-second Legislature," which he said was a fair example, "salaries to members totaled $4028,42.34; mileage amounted to $47,123.27; stenographic help, $241,378.06; postage, $822,435.52; telephone and telegraph, $33,861.71. Numerous other items make the total amount."

THANK YOU, AMERICA,

for more than a Million cars in 1935

This year Chevrolet has two very good reasons for saying, "Thank you, America."

One reason is that people have bought so many Chevrolet cars that production for the year will reach 1,040,000.

And the other reason is that they have placed a record number of orders for new 1936 Chevrolets during the first few weeks they have been on display.

Chevrolet is indeed happy to say, "Thank you, America," and to pledge continued adherence to the manufacturing and service policies which have won and held the friendship of the nation. CHEVROLET MOTOR CO., DETROIT, MICH.

From Your Doctor if the "Pain" Remedy You Take Is Safe.

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations

BEFORE you take any preparation you don't know all about, for the relief of headaches, or the pains of rheumatism, neuritis or neuralgia, ask your doctor what he thinks about it—in comparison with Genuine Bayer Aspirin.

We say this because, before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin, most so-called "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as being bad for the stomach; or, often, for the heart. And the discovery of Bayer Aspirin largely changed medical practice.

Countless thousands of people who have taken Bayer Aspirin year in and out without ill effect, have proved that the medical findings about its safety were correct.

Remember this: Genuine Bayer Aspirin is rated among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and all common pains... and safe for the average person to take regularly.

You can get real Bayer Aspirin at any drug store—simply by never asking for it by the name "aspirin" alone, but always saying BAYER ASPIRIN when you buy.

IMAGINE A PILGRIM'S SURPRISE

Picture the consternation with which even a sturdy Pilgrim Father would view a modern Thanksgiving celebration. But wouldn't he have made a big day of it if he had had the advantages of electric power and light plants which we accept without question in the modern period.

Much as we take the conveniences at hand for granted, they are items for appreciation and giving thanks.

The local electric light and power plant gives you low rates, enabling you to save in dollars and cents. It keeps your revenue in your home town, making better business conditions for the community. It is building a stronger feeling of citizenship responsibility, and is giving a project on which all citizens may co-operate and support.

Make your thanks and appreciation tangible by supporting the municipal light plant.

Fairview Bears Win Championship East Half Valley League

The Fairview Bears downed the Holliday quintet in the second straight game of the playoff series Tuesday night at Holliday to take the championship of the East half of the Red River Valley league. The two teams tied for the lead at the end of the regular conference play with one loss each, and Fairview won the first game Monday night at Thrift by a score of 27 to 32, and took the second one at Holliday by the same margin 18 to 23. In both games the Bears stacked up large leads for the first half of the game, and the Holliday team staged a rally in the last quarter.

Fairview will start next Monday on a playoff with Harrold Hornets for the championship of the entire Red River Valley. The team is in top condition, and Coach Randle Watkins expects a tough battle in the series.

Lee Tracy Gives Fine Performance

Lee Tracy, after much too long absence from the screen, comes back to win new laurels, in Paramount's "Two Fisted", sparkling comedy romance of the lively adventures of two low-brows who break into high-brow society, which comes to the Palace theatre Friday and Saturday.

"Two Fisted" is a rollicking screen adaptation of an original story by James Gleason and Richard Taber and pictures the breezy events of a prize fighter manager and his dumb pug when a chance meeting with a Park Avenue playboy crashes them into the swanky 400 via the butler route.

Tracy is seen in a role cut to his measure as the smart cracking, glib talking fight promoter whose business it is to keep his second rate, dim witted boxer, Roscoe Karnes, working. Karnes and Tracy make a perfect combination of mirth provoking comedians as one merry scene follows another, and give individually noteworthy portrayals.

Broke, hungry and quarrelling, the two accidentally make the acquaintance of a society man about town, Kent Taylor, much the worse for a night's revelry. Taylor takes to them and brings them into his home, later making them the household's butlers to cover the real reason for their being there, namely to put him into the pink of condition so he can sock at his crooked dealing brother-in-law who has been messing up the family's financial affairs.

Many side-splitting scenes occur as the two boys begin to take part in their benefactor's social life. One of the high spots of the fun film is the boxing match put on by Tracy and Karnes for the ritzy friends of their employer in honor of his birthday. Proceedings reach a lively and exciting tempo when the master of the house, five-year old Billy Lee, disappears, supposedly the victim of his father's kidnap plot. A brisk finale brings the comedy to a breath-taking, hilarious close.

Smoke-Eaters Hold Annual Feed Thurs.

The members of Burk Burnett's volunteer fire department were host in the annual invitation banquet last Thursday night at the American legion hall. Representatives from 20 towns were issued invitations to be present in the annual meeting. The fire-eaters were entertained with short talks and music from the local stringed quartet.

Paul Browning was master of ceremonies. The music was provided by Eddie Sims, Elmer Russel, Maurice Mitchell and D. H. Noe. Short talks were made by Ross Reagan, city manager, Mayor Oscar Kemp, Alvin Hill, Jack Kelly, chief, John Musick, Mr. Hipp of Chillicothe, Red Lewis of Electra, Grover C. Habern of Wichita Falls, and J. J. Blackstone, fire marshal.

Among the out of town visitors were Mr. Hipps and Mr. and Mrs. Hines of Chillicothe; A. R. Waddell, a charter member of the group, Chief and Mrs. Grover C. Habern, and Mr. and Mrs. Meadors of Wichita Falls; O. J. Dietz, Red Lewis and Ben Twomey of Electra.

The club will meet at Fairview school next Tuesday night.

Charlie Boy Killed In Truck Accident

The last service of Orlee Franklin (Bubbles) Buffalo was held at the Church of Christ at Charlie Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock with the pastor of the church officiating. The 11 year old boy was killed Tuesday afternoon when the cotton truck on which he was riding crashed into the underpass at the north end of Ohio street in Wichita Falls.

The boy with two companions was riding on a cotton truck and as it passed under the low viaduct the boy's body was crushed by the impact with the top of the bridge. The boy is survived by a mother, Mrs. May Buffalo and two brothers, Add and Jasper Buffalo. The services were directed by Owens-Brumley funeral home.

Still another trouble is that quite a few men around Burk Burnett are in danger of over-looking themselves trying to live without work.
