Saint of Children To Be Ready To Visit The City In Parade

SPONSORED BY MERCHANTS

A merry smile and ready to the wishes of the children who have been good, or at least passably so during the past year, Old Saint Nicholas will ride into burkburnett Saturday December 21, sponsored by the merchants and business men through the chamber of commerce. The business men are planning for a fair day in order that the child in this territory will have a chance of seeing and greeting the jolly northman. The formal parade the good

Burk News Boys Are Guests Of Lions At Dinner Tues. Night

The news boys of Burk Burnett were the guests of the members of the Lions club at the annual service club dinner at the First Methodist church Tuesday night. The boys were given a pair of gloves by the club, and were introduced by men sponsoring them for the evening. N. R. Allen, local circulation manager, was among the

W. O. Bucy, pastor of the First Methodist church was introduced and spoke briefly for the feature of the program. A tap dance by Joe Stoker, accompanied by Miss Katherine Exum and boxing matches featuring blind match between Red Hensley and Preacher Bruce. T. A. Mason and Lee Lyles boxed one round of regular boxing.

After the coffee, Frank Kelley and Herman Garland were appointed on a committee to make arrangements for the Christmas Eve meeting, Dec. 24. The committee was instructed to report at the next meeting for the arrangements. The program was prepared by C. Cook, Frank Kelley, and John Anderson. The project for a boys club and gymnasium was discussed by the members of the committee.

Labor Auxiliary Will Meet on Tues. Night

The members of the woman's auxiliary to the labor union will meet each Tuesday night at the home of the organization in the future. During the summer the society changed the meetings to Thursday afternoon, but the former meeting time has been resumed, and the society will hold its gatherings at the same time that Local 258 meets. Interesting programs featuring social, organizational and charitable work will be planned by the society. The women of the district that are eligible have been asked to meet with the society.

Committees Of All Clubs Asked To Be Present With Plan

Garden Clubs Take Lead In The Improvement of the City For Celebration

W. MAIN PROJECT PLANNED

A general meeting of the committees from all the civic clubs has been called for the meeting at the city hall next Monday afternoon, Dec. 16, at 3 o'clock to plan the improvement projects for the beautification of the city of Burk Burnett. The Burk Burnett Garden club and the Blue Bonnet Garden club have taken the lead in the campaign and the other civic clubs have been asked to join in order to co-ordinate the plans for the improvement program.

For the month of December and early January, special emphasis will be placed on the buying and planting of trees, and shrubs in the city. Later, clean up, repair and paint up campaigns will be underway.

The chamber of commerce has appropriated $100.00 to be used as prizes and expense in connection with the campaign directed by the ladies.

5,032 Bales of Cotton Ginned in Burk Burnett

For the first time in three years, the amount of cotton ginned in this area went over the 5,000 bale mark, as the total passed that point Wednesday morning with 5,032 bales of both round and regular bales. The report from the Farmers Co-operative and the Burk Burnett Gin indicated that the increase during the past week.

This amount of cotton represents over twice as many bales as were brought to the local market last year. It is half the total record crop, which was brought in 1932. However, the price for the year makes the total amount of money, counting compensation and all equal the biggest year of this decade.

Bert King Main Speaker At The Grid Banquet Mon.

Pep Squad Honors Football Team In Formal Dinner Here Monday

TEAMS ARE INTRODUCED

In an elaborate dinner honoring the members of the football squad, the pep squad members of 1935 entertained at the First Methodist church Monday night with Bert King, prominent Wichita Falls lawyer, the feature speaker.

The program which presented the members of the team for this year and next year was climaxed by Mr. King's speech. The speaker that kept the group of students amused and interested was introduced by H. R. Hayes of Burk Burnett. The banquet was staged with the football colors.

The master of ceremonies was Butler Westerfield, superintendent of the Burk Burnett schools. The welcome address was by Ruby Louise Bishop, and the response by Avis Finch, the captain of the 1935 team.

Billijane Chatham made a speech to the members of the squad and the guests. Pauline Browning and Mildred Kemp sang a duet. Lucille Kemp spoke. Miss Kemp served as the queen of the football squad during the last year. Miss Jo Ella Morgan sang a series of songs accompanied by Miss Blanche Butler. The guests of the group included the football boys, the coaches, and Mr. and Mrs. Westerfield, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. Bert King, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Chatham, Mrs. Paul Browning, Mr. and Mrs. Jingle Hayes and Jimmy Guest.

"I Was Naked; And Ye Clothed Me Not"

On Judgment Day this one phrase can not be assessed against the members of the Rotary and Lions clubs who have given their time in the preparation of the Minstrel for the underprivileged of this city. More than 200 boys and girls have benefited directly from these two organizations in a material way that was visible to these boys and girls. "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you" has actually been put into practice, not just theory. "In as much as you do it unto the least of these you do it also unto me" was one of the topics of His conversation, let us all remember. Actions surpass all theory.

Scruggs' Home Is Damaged In First Loss Since April

Flames Starting in Bath Room Causes Damage at Home

Flames that started at the hot water heater in the bath room of Mr. Scruggs, owner of the Scruggs Cafe, caused a heavy loss Saturday afternoon. The loss was the first in Burk Burnett since last April. The long period of low losses lasted eight months. During that time the local department had made several runs to minor fires, but none of them ranked as a loss.

The estimates by the insurance authorities had not been released at press time Thursday, but the authorities assured the Star that it was probable that the adjustment necessary would be small enough to prevent further rise in the insurance rates for the next year.

The sides of the rooms and ceiling and roof were burned by the flames. The fire marshal, J. J. Blackstone, stated that the fire had started around the pipes and flue in the bathroom, and that they had spread throughout the rest of the house.

At the same time the marshal issued the warning that a large percentage of the bathroom heaters had been improperly installed, and that with the winter season would probably cause more damage unless properly watched or unless the arrangements were made more safety first.

Library Buys Eight Books for Children

The Burk Burnett library added eight new books this week. Seven of the books were for the children, and one for the reference shelf for the reading room. The children's books have been catalogued and placed on the shelves for circulation. The reference book is Emily Post's Blue Book of etiquette, and it will be retained for reference only.

The children's books are: "Mary Ware's Texas, Mary Ware Promised Land" by Johnston; "Frontier Days" and "Covered Wagon Days" by Swan; "Patsy's Progress" by Knox; "Ann Frances" by White; "The Luck of the Roll and Go" and "The Golden Horse Shoe."

City Manager Speaks Election Rally Tuesday

Ross Reagan, city manager of Burk Burnett spoke at the final rally for the proponents of the municipal electric light plant in Wichita Falls Tuesday night. The rally was held to vote on one and a quarter million dollar bond issue, and the local manager told of the experiences of Burk Burnett and other cities in municipal utilities. The group of speakers representing the proponents spoke before a large and enthusiastic crowd.

Members of the Burk Burnett Rotary Club met at the Texas Welding Shop Tuesday noon as the guests of P. A. Wiggins, owner of the company, for a meeting featuring the study of safety week.

The main speech on the program was given by Paul Browning of the Burk Burnett Motors company.

The luncheon served was a muligan stew, and the members and friends enjoyed the meal. A. R. Hill presided at the program. Mr. Browning discussed the history of the automobile demonstrating the progress that had been made during the last few years toward making the machine more fool proof.

The mechanical perfection had been accompanied by an increased speed and carelessness as well as an increase in the number of cars that had been on the streets and highways.

The natural result of the increase of both the number of cars and speed had been a large number of accidents. The speaker used detailed statistics to point out the rapid increase in the accident rate and the deaths that had occurred from the crashes in the last ten years.

In 1924 16,000 people were killed in accidents, or died directly as the result of a collision in an automobile crash. This number at that time was alarmingly large, but the rapid increase during the last ten years that has more than doubled that number has made the crash problem a serious matter for every citizen in the United States.

In 1934 the number of deaths had risen in 30,000 direct deaths of which 16,000 were pedestrians which had been killed while crossing or walking down the traffic lanes. The blind crossings and other intersections had accounted for the largest number of these accidents.

In spite of the fact that fewer cars are on the streets and highways between 5 p. m. and 1 a. m. and traffic is lighter, the accidents are heavier during that period. This increases the ratio of cars involved in the accidents.

The intersection in Burk Burnett accounts for most of the fatal and other accidents during the past few years. This leads to the conclusion that the largest number of accidents could be prevented by care at the crossings of the roads.

The visitors that were present were Bill Stapp, Ross Reagan, Ray Ruffner and Mrs. M. C. Tucker.

Thomas Funeral Home Installs New Setting

A beautiful series of drapes for the funeral setting with the beautiful picture, "The Master" as the center, has been installed by the Thomas funeral home in their chapel here this week. The cyclorama is made of satin in mulberry shades, and the picture illuminated so that the head halo of the "Master" is emphasized.

The new background will make a touching and beautiful setting in the chapel. The picture is a reproduction of one of the most famous masterpieces in the world. One that has hung in the cathedrals of Europe, both in the original and in reproduction for many years. It has been widely copied by artists all over the world for its excellent portrayal of the "Master".

Fast Basket Ball League Organized By Nearby Teams

Six Schools Join in Play For Championship Trophy Jan. 8

FAIRVIEW STARTS AT BURK

One of the fastest combinations possible to gather in this area started last week when Butler Westfield invited five other basket ball teams of the district to join in forming a conference for the trophy to be awarded after a ten game series. Volney Hill and Polk Robinson visited each of the schools and received entrance bids from them.

The schools are Burk Burnett, Fairview, Clara, Henrietta, Nocona and Holliday. Each of these teams with the exception of Henrietta are of known strength, and promise a test of power before the district meet.

Nocona was district champions last year, and has several members of the champion squad returning for this year's team. Fairview won the East half of the Red River Valley league and lost to Harrold after a tough battle. Holliday tied Fairview for the regular season scheduled and lost by a margin of five points in two play-off battles.

Burk's Team

Clara always has a tough team, and has played some excellent games in the league. Burk Burnett has 4 lettermen back this year. Rose, Finch, Hays, and Millet, and a squad of 20 to pick a team for games and practice. The teams will play every Tuesday and Friday night on a home and home schedule for a double

Reba Dethloff Breaks Arm In Fall Monday

Reba Dethloff, 8 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Dethloff, fell from a tree at the home of her parents on the Riley farm near Burk Burnett and broke her left arm. The child was carried to the Wichita Falls General hospital and received treatment there. The arm was placed in a cast when it was found to be fractured at the elbow. The child was brought back to her home in Burk after the treatment. She was playing with companions at the time of the fall. Her parents rushed her to Wichita for treatment when they were informed of the accident.

Rileys Buy Davis Grocery and Market

Jewel Riley has purchased the Davis Grocery and Market, formerly owned by Joe Davis of Burk Burnett, and will be at the same location under the name "Quality Grocery and Market". The new owner took charge of the grocery Dec. 3, and extends an invitation to the people of the city, especially the friends and customers of the establishment, to visit the new store.

Miss Bess McGinnis will have charge of the buying and selection of stock in the store. John Clement will have charge of the market. The store will have a fresh line of groceries at all times, with a specialty of the Richelieu products. Fresh vegetables in season. Courteous service and excellent quality are promised to the customers.

Local Dentist Attends District Meet Graham

Dr. Carl Morrison, local dentist, attended the meeting of the 13th district of the Dental society at Graham, Texas, Tuesday in the regular convention of the organization. Dr. Morrison is secretary of the district, and was elected to that position at the meeting at Wichita Falls last spring. The features of the meeting were speeches and demonstrations by Dr. T. F. Edwards, oral surgeon, and Dr. Fields Farrar, specialist in construction of artificial teeth. The two speakers gave interesting clinical demonstrations and directed the study of the dentists during the meeting.

If calling names will help the country on the road to recovery, considerable progress has been made during the last month.

Rehearsals Promise Annual Minstrel To Be Year's Top Show

Special Features Make Well Balanced Program For Benefit Play

CURTAIN AT 8:15 O'CLOCK

Swinging into regular practice early this week the rehearsals of the annual Negro Minstrel, produced by the Lions and Rotary clubs, promised to be the top in comedy for the theatre season in Burk Burnett. G. A. Reaves, writer and producer, and W. D. Bent, director, were arranging a brilliant show for the presentation next Wednesday night, December 18.

All the glamour that is in the proverbial antics of the race will find a culmination in the unique arrangement of humor and music next Wednesday.

The well known names of the city will not escape the comments of the producers and players. This week many persons were anxiously

Highway Board to Let Burk Burnett Bridge Contract

Plans for the repairs to be made to the Burk Burnett Red river bridge are nearing completion and the contract is to be let soon, according to an Associated Press dispatch from Austin Monday night.

There were eight other highway projects in a similar status, including two in the Wichita area, the highway commission reported.

J. M. Isbell, resident engineer for the highway department, said that once started the repairs should not take more than two months for completion. He estimated that the job would cost $12,000.

Three spans of the structure were washed out last May 16 when the Red river went on a rampage. A shoofly is now being used by traffic over the bridge.

In making the repairs, two 60 foot spans on cylinder supports will be used instead of the three spans.

Other highway projects, contracts for which are to be let soon, include construction of a Fort Worth and Denver City underpass in Decatur on highway 24 and a Plains and Santa Fe overpass nine miles east of Roby on highway 15.

Candidates Listed C of C Directors

The nominating committee listed the candidates for the six vacancies for the directors of the chamber of commerce to be inaugurated the first of the year at the annual banquet that will be held January 17. The candidates include the six retiring directors, and seven new candidates.

The members of the chamber of commerce will be asked to vote as soon as possible, and the final date on voting will be on December 23. All ballots, which will be mailed this week to members must be in the box or at the chamber of commerce on or before that date.

The members of the organization may either vote by mail, bring the ballot to the office or drop the ballot in a box at the Corner Drug store. The members have been asked to not delay voting, but to mark the ballot as soon as it reaches them in order to prevent confusion in counting at the last moment.

The hold-over directors will be R. P. Reagan, Henry Prinzing, H. D. Smith, B. F. Gilchrist, F. T. Felty, Frank Kelley, R. J. Kally, W. W. Browning, Oscar Kemp, J. C. Adams, R. C. Tevis and the candidates who are retiring, but whose names will be placed on the ballot are: Roy T. Magers, J. L. Bostic, W. R. Hill, J. W. Butz, J. M. Alexander and Walter A. Roberts.

The new candidates that will form the ticket are H. C. Preston, C. P. Logan, Abe Sandler, Leonard Mattingly, A. H. Lohofener, Jack Brumley and M. C. Tucker.

Burkburnett citizens see no drawback in living from hand-to-mouth. It's having to live from hand to four or five mouths that floors them.

PROFIT IN BUSINESS

Mr. Fabian Franklin, already widely known for his conservative prejudices, makes a very scholarly defense of "Profits In Business". The words of this writer are refreshingly excellent—well above the average blasts that come from the writers of his type today.

The blast that he made was the result of a resolution on the part of a social organization for business men to think more often of their fellowmen, and less often of selfish profit. Of course any sane person must concede that the man who takes the chances in a business enterprise is entitled to a profit in proportion to the risks that he assumes.

However, that does not mean that his profit is to be the result of the suffering of a large group of people. By the way of illustration, the owner of a sweat shop or an establishment employing child labor, makes a huge profit, in proportion to the financial risk he takes. At the same time he causes suffering on the part of a large portion of society by his methods.

This is what happens. The children are injured, sometimes permanently in lack of health and stunted mental growth. Society is damaged in the lowering of standards of living. Commerce is injured by the loss of buying power. Competitive industries are injured by the cut throat prices of sweat shop goods.

What does the operator risk? Usually a few dollars on goods, or a few machines. Rarely an extensive investment is made. In case investment is made, usually the bank and not the operator takes the risk.

So is it any wonder that society is beginning an inquiry into the methods of men and organizations that place a desire of profit above this desire to give humanity a break.

As a warning we would like to add that such a system will not endure. Rome once found that out in a very painful manner when the time came that the slaves outnumbered the citizens.

LITTLE CHILDREN

We have watched with interest the political battle in a nearby city. It reminds us very much of a scene that we saw no one of the Burk streets a few days ago. There were three little children standing in the middle of the street throwing sand and dirt at each other.

For the life of us, we can't see any reason why the little imps were doing such a silly thing. However, they were having a lot of fun. That probably was enough the justify an otherwise crazy game.

If those nearby politicians didn't take the game of throwing dirt so seriously, maybe they could have some fun out of it like the little children we watched. Then their acts would be justified. The general public (except the citizens of that city that will have to pay for the childish game), are having their part of the fun watching. Maybe that makes it all worth while. We hope so.

The strange part about the whole affair is that the city is allowing itself to become a political football of conflicting factions. We wonder who will win the district championship.

MAIL EARLY

The Postmaster General, Jim Farley, made another appeal last week about the mail early campaign for Christmas packages. A large number of people are forced by the necessity of financial conditions to wait until the last possible moment to mail gifts, but still a larger number could get the packages away early, and do so at a profit to themselves and the postoffice department.

The advantages of early mailing are too numerous to mention in toto, but among the many are the advantages of getting your package to the right place before the holidays, of assuring careful and correct handling on the transmission, of guarding against loss in transmission.

Under the high pressure of the rush, the postal employees must, as all humans do, make more than normal amount of errors. It is remarkable that so few mistakes are made each year.

At the same time whether you mail early or late, be sure of several things. That your packages are securely wrapped, that valuable mail is registered, that there is a return address on both the outside and inside of the package, that you are not sending something fragile improperly protected.

And about Christmas cards. Inside of the city they can be mailed open for one and one-half cents if no personal message accompanies them. Two cents in case a personal note is on the card. Three cents outside of the city in case a personal message accompanies the card. One and one-half cents outside the city zone in case no personal message is on the card.

Keep the Christmas cards in normal size envelopes in so far as possible. The postal authorities will find it much easier to handle mail in the average size envelope instead of the queer shapes and sizes that sometimes are mailed in an attempt to be individual.

It would be far more comforting to the average Burkburnett man if his doctor would write his prescriptions in English and send his bill in Latin.

What is needed at this time of year is some weather that is so satisfactory people won't talk about it.

One scientist declares that the universe was born in a fog. Well, it's a comfort to know we are holding our own.

News of Week

Regardless of the political affiliation, almost every American citizen that is intelligent and without entirely selfish purpose is sad to see George William Norris, Senator from Nebraska, retire from active political life—at least he will not be a candidate for Senate again.

His name has become a synonym for progressiveness in America. Rising to the second highest honor that a state is able to give a private citizen from the life of a wandering teacher that bummed his way on a box car, the vigorous and persistent reformer has left an imprint on the life of the Americans that will never be erased until the nation dissolves.

He is beyond doubt the most brilliant and sincere man to ever represent any state. Among laws which must be credited to him are: the 20th Amendment, eliminating the "lame-duck" session of Congress, Muscle Shoals, outlawing the "yellow dog" labor contracts, TVA, unicameral congress in Nebraska, and many such progressive measures.

He was independent. Although a Republican he campaigned for Smith and against Woodrow Wilson. But he voted against Hoover and for Roosevelt. You could never tell what he would do, but you were always sure it was what he thought was right.

Hauptman Hope

The average cynical person asks why is it that after a whole year Hauptman just before execution date brings out some thing that may have saved him at the regular trial. If there is anything besides a lot of hot air, why didn't that smart set of lawyers and experts he had hired find it out before?

The general public is very doubtful about the authenticity of the supposed mysterious evidence. Ellis Parker was offered $200,000 to find the right man five years ago, and could not do so. That is strange that all of a sudden out of the purity of his heart and the noble purpose to prevent an innocent man from dying he suddenly discovers "important facts". Even at this distance a slightly offensive odor accompanies the whole investigation.

Oil Price

About as good news so far as Burk is concerned is that there probably will be a rise of 30 or 35 cents in the price of oil in the near future. Of course it is possible that the jump may not occur, but most experts over the state feel that such a course is inevitable. The rise will result from the cutting of hot oil running in East Texas and other sections to a minimum.

Haile Selassie

There are many things that the Ethiopians do that we do not understand. One strange thing happened during the recent Italian air raid which took the lives of 12 people. The Lion of Judah, Haile Selassie, instead of protecting himself, manned a machine gun and fired into the bombing squadron. Only the leader of a primitive people would do such a thing. It shames the leaders of other nations. While they send the best of the native population into battle, the ruler sits back in comfort.

Somehow war lost a lot of its romance when the leaders started sending their men into war instead of leading them. For that reason it is thrilling to see a king even of an African kingdom, actually fighting instead of sitting back in ease and comfort.

China Move Out!

Just because the man that lives next door to you owns a bigger gun, and is stronger doesn't mean that he can tell you to move out and let him take possession of your house and home. Society will protect you. But that is exactly what is happening in China. Japan owns tanks, bombs and an efficient fighting unit. Therefore she sends her army to China and absolutely says "General Ho Ying Chin, please move out, before we chop your blamed head off from its shoulders." What can a poor Chinese with ill-equipped army and lethargic people do but move.

Society ought to have some means of protecting the weaker nations just as society protects its members by laws and force.

Wesley Bible Class Holds Lovely Party at Church Thursday

Members of the Wesley Bible class were entertained in the annual Christmas party at the class rooms of the First Methodist church Thursday afternoon at 2:30. The room for the party was decorated in lovely Christmas motif, and the tree was set in the room for the gift exchange by the members.

The meeting was opened by Mrs. J. H. Rigby. After a short business session which planned the activities of the class, Mrs. Henry Prinzing gave the devotional in the form of a beautiful Christmas story.

The program was directed by Mrs. C. E. Melton, president of the class. Mesdames Marshall Chrestman and Carlos Baker sang a duet accompanied by Mrs. S. H. Baker. Barbara Crissey gave two readings.

The class exchanged gifts which had been placed on the tree, and refreshments were served by the hostesses of the class. The hostesses were: Mesdames O. E. Melton, S. B. Crissey, W. D. Stripling, L. G.

Hagard, Roy Alexander, Marshall Chrestman and Joe McKinsie. Those present were: Mesdames Paul Browning, Y. R. Chesney, G. L. Shafer, O. C. Wills, Carl Morrison, Rex Kolter, L. G. Hagard, F. E. Grade School Play Pronounced Success Friday by Sponsors

The sponsors of the grade school operetta announced Saturday the play "The Fairyland Cobb" was a success beyond the hopes of the sponsors, the library and home economics department. A crowd for both shows was excellent and the children reached a style in the final Friday night before a large crowd of patrons.

Whatever technical flaws youngsters may have made in the dramatic execution, they compensated in the eagerness and naturalness of their youth. Presenting a fantastic fairyland story with finesse that was beyond ordinary childrens play performance, youngsters proved the excellence of their training during the last weeks.

The costumes of the actors were good, and gave an impressive picture of the fairies they represented. The play was directed by members of the grade school faculty, and under the supervision of Miss Ethyl Virginia Allen. Miss Blanche Butler students in piano provided specialty musical numbers for performance.

More than 100 students appear in the play during the evening's entertainment. The play was the final fall festival of the grade school. The successful production of play promises that the spring production of the school will give the public another excellent production.

BURKBURNETT REPRESENTED AT SOUTHWESTERN LIFE CONVENTION

At noon the crowd of over 500 visitors enjoyed a trip to the San Jacinto battle field where Judge Clarence Wharton of Houston made a talk on the "Battle of San Jacinto."

Tonight there will be a get-together dinner, after which the Southern Methodist University Mustang Band will stage its "Pigskin Review". This will be followed by dancing and bridge.

Other business meetings will be held Friday and Saturday mornings and on Friday night the annual banquet will be addressed by Lieutenant Governor Walter Woodul and Dr. Harry Knowles of Houston. Music will be furnished by Walter R. Jenkins, baritone, and Miss Ruth Rankin Rice, soprano. Awards for business accomplishments during 1935 will be made after the dinner.

R. S. Ragsdale, pioneer residents of this city.

Reception

In the reception held after the ceremony, Miss Katherine Moore of Hollis, Okla., presided at the bridal cake and Miss Kathryn Campbell of Wichita Falls served as hostess in the dining room. The table was decorated in blue and white flowers and ribbons in harmony with the bride's chosen colors.

After the reception the bride and groom left for a wedding trip, the bride wearing a smart tailored green costume with green accessories.

The guest list for the wedding and reception included Messrs and Mesdames Grady Ragsdale, Lewis Regan of Wichita Falls, Miss Kathryn Campbell and Edward Campbell of Wichita Falls, Miss Ellen Parker of Wichita Falls, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Ledwig and family of Groom, Texas; Mayor and Mrs. Oscar Kemp, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Chatham, Louis Sims, Billiejane Chatham, Mildred and Lucille Kemp Kathryn Moore; J. P. Ruff, grandfather of the bride; Mrs. Annie Miller, grandmother of the groom; Sam Harbour of Iowa Park and the families of the bridal couple, Mr. and Mrs. Boden, Mr. and Mrs. Ragsdale and children.

Wichita College Will Be Named For The Hardins Burkburnett

Excavation on Foundation Will Start Some Time This Week

BOND ISSUED WILL BE USED

With the successful campaign for the bond issue completed and Federal funds available, the foundations for the new junior university were scheduled to be broken some time this week in Wichita Falls, and the college directors announced last week that the new institution would be named for the pioneer Burk resident, and his late wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hardin.

The announcement of the change in the name was released by C. H. Clark, president of the board. The name was chosen to show the appreciation of the Wichita college district for the life and work of the Burk citizens.

The pioneer and his late wife have made many valuable contributions to education in Texas, and among these was the liberal endowment fund which will ultimately give the Wichita school almost $400,000.00. The fund is a part of a large endowment created for general benevolence in Wichita county.

The contract for the laying of the foundation was let last Wednesday, and the ceremony for breaking the ground will take place before the Christmas holidays. The college has been in session in Wichita Falls continuously for both summer and regular classes since 1922, and since that time more than two thousand students have enrolled at the school.

Marion Boden Weds Alfred Ragsdale In Ceremony Here Sun.

All Known Burk Couple United At Home of Bride's Parents

Miss Marion Boden became the bride of Alfred Ragsdale at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boden Sunday morning at 9 o'clock in a lovely service read by Miles B. Rags, pastor of the First Baptist church of this city. In the presence of a few friends and the members of the families of the bride and groom, the services were completed.

The young people are members of socially prominent families of Burkburnett and each is a popular member of the younger set of this city. The ceremony was read before a beautiful bank of white carnations and chrysanthemums in a mass of greenery, edged by beautiful white satin ribbons. In the light of candles burning from tall candelabras, the minister read the vows.

The bride, who was accompanied by her father, was beautiful in a white satin gown with the veil caught up on pendant of pearls from the Isle of Capri. Her bouquet was of white carnations, gladioli and babies' breath. The bride's attendant was Miss Margaret Boden, her sister, who was dressed in a costume of pink lace and wore a corsage of pastel rosebuds.

The bride groom was accompanied by his brother, Grady Ragsdale of Wichita Falls.

The bride and bridegroom are both graduates of the Burk high school. The bride was unanimously elected princess of Burkburnett for the fall festival at Iowa Park. Mr. Ragsdale is associated with the First National bank of Burkburnett and is the son of Judge and Mrs.

Don't Cough Tonight!

Most night coughing is due to simple throat irritation. For this kind of cough you need the soothing, penetrating, relieving action of a real throat medicine—Throxine.

In 15 minutes and with only one swallow, it will break up that harsh, irritating cough—help loosen phlegm and congestion. Also acts from within to check throat cold. Before you know it you'll be relieved—ready to sleep like a top. If Throxine fails you tonight, get your money back tomorrow. Pure, safe even for children. 35c, 60c, $1.00 bottles.—Heine's Drug Store.

Cream Fight Ends With Prices Back To Normal Level

For a few days after ascension to the dizzy height of 42 cents, the price of cream settled back to normal prices of near 32 cents early this week. The price made a sudden jump last week when the cream buyers and shippers on both sides of the river started a heavy competition for the sour milk in this area.

The battle for the supply started when the buyers in both Burkburnett and Oklahoma started boosting the price in hope to bring in a larger amount of cream. Gradually the aspects of the markets changed into a rapid climb. An agreement was reached between the buyers after a few days at the high level, but the producers enjoyed the large margin in the period.

It is only after you have won the prize that you yearn it wasn't worth the effort.

"The Best That Can Be Done" Says Critic of May Robson

May Robson's career as an actress constitutes the most unusual record in the history of the stage. 49 years on the stage and 3 on screen. Never in all that time has Miss Robson missed a performance, and for 32 years she was a star in her own right. Most of the time for either

French Aviation Leader Marvels At Our American Radio Progress

AVIATION owes much of its phenomenal development to the radio, so it is natural that M. Bleriot, pioneer French aviation leader, shown in insert, should have been interested during his visit here in the great development in American radios during the past few years. So great was his admiration that one of his hosts presented him with an American radio to take back with him on his return. His is only one of thousands of American radios in France today.

Of the various professional groups in touch with The Radio Institute of the Audible Arts, founded a year ago by Philco Radio & Television Corporation, none has been found more dependent on radio than aviation. In its list of occupations which use radio as an important industrial tool, the Institute places flying at the head and farming second. Both depend on the radio to keep them informed about weather conditions. Radio is the fier's equivalent of a sixth sense, enabling him to conquer the former menace of bad weather by flying blind with safety.

Today a fier needs at least four radios in his plane. He uses one reliable transmitter through which he can keep in touch with the world below him. Another receiving set is tuned to the wave length of the Department of Commerce beacons and broadcasts. The third radio consists of a receiver tuned for messages from the company's private stations. The fourth is an auxiliary receiver that can be tuned to receive from either

Daniel or Charles Frohman, but never in all that time has Miss Robson had a more human or appealing role than she has in "3 Kids and a Queen", which comes to the Palace theatre Friday for a two-day engagement.

Here is just one scene from that remarkable picture, described by the reviewer of the daily rushes at the studio, the man who sees the daily shots before anyone else sees them.

"The youthful romance is at an end. Blackie is going away and Julie is in tears. They have quarreled. Before Blackie can get away, Mary Jane (May Robson) comes up for a breath of air and quickly realizes what is on foot. Then she gives the two kids a long lecture of advice. She tells them of her own blighted romance and how a little forbearance on both sides would have made Mary Jane and her beloved a happy pair.

"But pride had its way and wrecked their lives. Now Mary Jane sees the same thing happening to these two young people and she lays bare her own misery and talks them out of the false step they are taking. It comes hard for Mary Jane to do this. It is hard for her to melt her frozen sentiments, and several times she freezes up again in an instant and becomes hard boiled.

"It is a grand performance Miss Robson gives in this long scene. One moment she is the sighing, weary old victim of a blighted love, and the next moment she is a scolding old shrew, ashamed of having revealed her sentimental side and making herself more severe on that account."

Home Builders Class Entertained Wed., 4

Members of the Home Builders class of the First Methodist church held their annual Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Roy Stacy, on Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 4. Yuletide decorations in brilliant colors were used throughout the rooms.

The meeting was opened by singing "Holy Night" and the opening prayer was by Mrs. J. J. Nichols. Mrs. J. M. Thomas gave the impressive devotional. Mrs. H. C. Gilbert had charge of the business session at which time each member of the class presented a Christmas gift to be sent to the C. C. Young Memorial Home in Dallas.

During the social hour, names were drawn and gifts exchanged. The hostess served a delicious refreshment plate to the following: Mesdames W. A. Browning, J. W. Butz, B. M. Cropper, E. L. Gebhardt, H. C. Gilbert, R. H. Henry, F. R. Knauth, Ida Havner, A. J. Key, Scott Morris, J. J. Nichols, J. C. Parker, R. A. Simpson, J. M. Thomas, C. N. Thompson, M. L. Urban, W. T. Vance, M. C. Tucker, D. A. Westbrook and the hostess, Mrs. Roy Stacy.

Hunter No. 1 Test Strikes A Duster

The Hunter No. 1, located eight miles north of Devo, a test that created considerable interest in Burkburnett for the last few weeks has been abandoned by the drillers. The well was drilled for Colar Yoakam, et al (including several large companies) but was given up early this week as a bad location.

The interest in this district immediately shifted to the test of A. B. Hostic, Perkins and Cullum of the Devo area. Since the announcement of the dry hole the well at about 2400 feet Wednesday was watched closely by oil men. It is located five miles from Burkburnett and about 2 or 3 miles east of Devo.

The abandoned Hunter No. 1 was drilled 3015 feet before it was given up by the drillers. The company did not state whether or not they contemplated making further drillings in this area. They have about 8,000 acres under lease, and it is presumed that they will wait until definite information is available on the Hunter No. 1.

The leasing activities which had been so active the last few weeks in the Devo area declined slightly after the dry hole was found in the first well. However, there was not a great deal of tendency to trade on the leases nearer the second test on the south and eastern section of the city.

The Maggie Weaver No. 1 will drill to a 2,500 foot level. If success is not made there it is possible that the company plans to drill deeper in the area. The last test made in the immediate area was less than a mile from the present well and was abandoned after a good showing of oil and gas at slightly over 2,000 foot level.

A southern editor, reflecting on the world and its inhabitants, is moved to say that while you can't fool all the people all the time somebody is trying to do it all the time.

Young Peoples Bible Class Meets Sunday

Forty members of the young peoples Bible class of the Church of Christ, were present last Sunday, Dec. 8. The interesting program was presented by the members of the class. Ladene McBeil gave a discussion of "Idleness the Devil's Workshop". Geraldine Morris spoke on "The Sluggard's Vineyard", and Buster Jacobs "The Conceit of the Sluggard".

A Christmas party is to be given by the class Friday night, Dec. 13 at the home of Chlodella and Grover Posey. The leaders promise that the meeting will be a well planned social and with the Christmas season providing the motif of the occasion.

Chamber Commerce Plans Election Here Be Held By Dec. 23

Beautification Projects Approved by Directors for Various Roads

Banquet Committees Appointed

Directors of the chamber of commerce voted to select the six directors for the organization by Dec. 23, Monday night at the meeting of the officials, and the nominating committee includes Francis Felty, Wylie Browning, and R. P. Reagan. This committee will make its report some time this week and the balloting will start the first of next week to fill the vacancies left by the retirement of Roy T. Magers, W. R. Hill, J. M. Alexander, J. L. Bostic, J. W. Butz and W. A. Roberts.

The ballots will be printed and the box placed in a convenient place down town. The directors planned the annual banquet to be held January 17, and the president was authorized to appoint committees for the meeting. Mesdames Morris Strong and R. P. Reagan and Miss Evelyn Hardeman were appointed to arrange the banquet decorations. The tickets, arrangements, committee will be announced later.

Beautification

Henry Grace reported that the citizens of the city were responding rapidly to the beautification plans. Especially the womens clubs which will undertake definite projects for improving the appearance of the three main highways and the remainder of the city during the winter and spring.

The West Main Street will receive special attention by both the club and the other committees. A short bridge will be built on West Main for the large ditch. B. F. Gilchrist was appointed to make arrangements for the bridge.

The club voted to join the Lawton Legion in securing the improvement of 277. At the same time voted to ask the aid of Wichita and Oklahoma in securing more rip rap on the river banks. The motion to change the name of the organization was tabled until the next meeting.

Back KGKO

Voting contrary to the recent tendency to withdraw support from the Wichita Falls chamber of commerce on the hearing to retain KGKO in Wichita Falls, the local directors voted to continue their support of the Wichita Falls organization, and to assure the group of Burk Burnett support.

Directors present were: H. D. Smith, H. S. Grace, B. F. Gilchrist, R. J. Kelly, J. M. Alexander, Henry Prinzing, Oscar Kemp, W. A. Roberts, W. R. Hill, R. P. Reagan, F. T. Felty, Frank Kelley, R. C. Tevis, J. C. Adams and Roy T. Magers.

Facts Concerning The Lions - Rotary Minstrel

The minstrels are presented by individuals interested in the underprivileged children of this city to the extent that they are willing to give their time for practice and preparation of the show.

One hundred per cent of the proceeds go to purchasing of shoes and glasses for needy children of the city of Burk Burnett who are in attendance in the Burk Burnett public schools.

Not one cent is spent for advertising, jokes, songs, or expenses of any of the cast or directors in any way.

After investigation, shoes, or glasses are purchased for the underprivileged children through a voucher system from the local merchants. All checks on this account are signed by the local director of relief.

In the past three years more than two hundred boys and girls have been given direct aid by these two clubs through this medium.

Regular reports are given to the two clubs stating the expenditures, bills outstanding and balance in the bank.

An Actual Case Of Work By The Children's Fund

A knock is heard at the door and a child enters, bashfully, with bowed head, hiding every kind of emotion. "Mother sent you this note," he stammers. It reads: "Dear Mr. ... I would like to know if you know where ... can get sum shus for shoos. His paw ain't workin' no more but we is off the relief work for Mr. Smith." "I will come to your house tomorrow afternoon," he is told and plans are made for a thorough investigation of the ability of the family to provide the necessary shoes.

Fairview Bears Have Good Chance In Race

The Fairview Bears loom as heavy favorites in the Wichita county basket ball race. The Bears won the East division of the Red River league and have defeated Oklaunion, Geraldine, Cashion, Clara, Mankins, Valley View, Holliday (twice) and Randlett, Oklahoma.

Coach Randall Watkins has five letter men who make a well balanced team. They are Henry Fuller, and Scotty McCall, guards; LeRoy O'Guinn center; J. D. Mills and Albert Zink, forwards.

There are 42 boys enrolled in the Fairview high school and 36 have reported for basket ball. Reserves from last season are Wheels Robison, "Squeaky" Sullivan, Ralph Winkles, forwards; Albert Zink, Thomas West, Woodrow Robison, Wendell Goins, "Chink" Wright, Clarence Williams, Arville Morris, guards; Claude Strickland and Fred Key, centers.

New material includes Leon Brown, "Pug" Boyd, Carter Thompson, "Strawberry" Bundy, Bill Roberts, "Hardnose" Boggy, Charles Vines, Henry Connell, Johnny Gifford, Frank Morris, forwards; C. W. Goins, Carl Winkles, Dub Roberts, Clayton Owen, guards; Jack Mills, Dean Smith, Burk Bryarly, Doyle Rush, centers.

Labor Hearing Is Reset For Dec. 20

The hearing of the complaint by the national labor board at the request of the members of the Oil Field workers union of Burk Burnett, has been reset for Dec. 20 in Wichita Falls, according to a letter received in Burk by the union from Dr. Edwin A. Elliot. The hearing will be held in the civil court rooms of the postoffice building with Dr. Elliot presenting the complaint for the board, at 9:30 a. m.

The case started in the Burk oil fields several weeks ago when the union alleged that the Bell Oil and Gas company had violated the Wagner Law of Labor Relations in the discharge of several employees after a strike. The Bell Oil and Gas retaliated with the statement that the men had been discharged for unsatisfactory service.

The case promises to make an interesting test of the legality of the Wagner Bill adopted by the last special session of the United States congress.

Blue Bonnet Garden Club Plans Program To Aid City Beauty

The members of the Blue Bonnet garden club of Burk Burnett met with Mrs. B. F. Gilchrist Tuesday afternoon to plan the projects that they will undertake to assist in the beautification of Burk Burnett, and to study the use of flowers. Mrs. H. J. Exley was leader for the program and Mesdames Lillie Green, Roy Alexander and John Webb were assistant hostesses.

The program presented Mrs. F. A. Jameson, speaking on "The Yesterday and Today of Flowers" and Mrs. J. M. Patterson speaking on "Man's Use of Flowers". The Christmas motif of the meeting was set in the "Christmas Story" by Mrs. Johnnie Anderson.

Herman Brown, secretary of the chamber of commerce, and Henry Grace, chairman of beautification of the organization, spoke to the members for a few minutes about the work the group was planning for the beautification of Burk Burnett. The group was complimented for its interest in the projects and for its leadership in securing a more attractive city. Mrs. D. R. Peevey was appointed as chairman of the committee to meet Monday afternoon with the other committees of the city for a unification of the program of civic beauty.

The ladies of the club exchanged gifts for Christmas. Each member also brought a package or can for a basket to be given to some needy person Christmas season.

A delicious refreshment plate was served to the ladies present, including: Mesdames Ray Crissman, J. M. Patterson, Clyde Bohner, H. J. Exley, Roy T. Magers, Jack Chatham, J. L. Welch, Thompson, O. C. Wills, Lillie Green, Roy Alexander, D. R. Peevey, Geo. Kerr, F. A. Jameson, R. M. Gilchrist, Fred Alexander, B. F. Gilchrist, John Webb, Leonard Mattingly and I. D. Russell.

The group will meet Jan. 14, 1936 at the home of Mrs. Geo. Kerr, with Mrs. D. R. Peevey, and Mrs. Fred Alexander assistant hostesses, and Mrs. O. C. Wills as leader.

"It's Gay Life!" Boles Admits

Acting Business Is a Grand Adventure to This Romantic Singing Star

John Boles is one of the few important actors in Hollywood who admits that he pursues a gay and glamorous profession.

Unlike many film idols who would have the public believe that acting is a difficult business, the singing star of Fox Film's gala musical, "Red Heads on Parade," coming to the Palace theatre Tuesday and Wednesday, declares that motion pictures are mostly plain fun.

"Why kid the public?" asked the romantic favorite of millions of film fans. "When a movie actor tells you that his art, his business, his profession, or whatever he might choose to call it, is a serious and dignified pursuit, he is either spouting poppycock or taking himself too seriously.

"I think this is one of the most fascinating professions on earth. I enjoy every phase of it, even the routine details and the irregular working hours, wardrobe fittings, front-office idiosyncracies, personal appearances and other demands on an actor's time.

"Why, compared to other pursuits, this acting business is a grand adventure."

In "Red Heads on Parade", Boles not only sings and plays the chief romantic role, but he also executes a number of intricate dance routines.

Dixie Lee is coupled with Boles in the romantic lead, and Jack Haley, Alan Dinehart, Raymond Walburn and Herman Bing appear in the supporting cast.

Would You Like To Know Why?

I'll tell you—he is 12 years old, and you say he doesn't look that age—no, no doesn't, because he is 23 pounds underweight. Don't ask me how or why, I only know that he is and there is a reason. A good student? He makes a straight G card. Well, so what? Notice closer and you will see that his bare feet touch the ground; there are no soles on his shoes. Oh, you didn't know that there were children in such condition—you wouldn't—your children associate with their own circle of friends whose parents are well able to care for them and you don't come in contact with them. Offer him a pair of shoes? Surely, we will find out if his parents can purchase them for him but regardless he must have shoes. The ground is damp—it will be cold tomorrow—his pride must be protected—his health must be protected—tomorrow he will be a citizen. Next week he will hear "Peace on Earth, Good will to men"—and with his bare feet on the cold damp ground, he may, in his childish query ask, "What is good will among men?" Unusual you ask? Not so. The winter months will bring increasing bitter cold to only one actual case but we could many children of this city. This is tell you more. This one tells why.

Bridal Couple Is Honored at Dinner

Miss Marion Boden and Alfred Ragsdale, whose marriage was an event in Burkburnett Sunday morning, were honored with many social affairs given during the last 10 days. Among these was a dinner given at the home of Mrs. L. D. Ryan at 2401 Bullington in Wichita Falls. The affair was an event of Friday night with Mrs. Ragsdale as the honoree.

A group of friends of Burkburnett and Wichita Falls gathered to honor the prominent Burkburnett couple. After the dinner served by the hostess and Miss Blanche Butler of Burkburnett, the young people were entertained with a dance and series of games directed by the hostess. The rooms for the reception were decorated in blue and silver and during the dinner, the light came from silver candles.

In the games Miss Willie Etta Alexander of Burk won the high score prize, and Jerry Brookman won the men's prize. The bride-elect and the bridegroom were presented a gift by the hostess.

The guest list included Misses Marion Boden, Margaret Boden, Kathryn Campbell, Katherine Moore, Billijane Chatham, Willie Etta Alexander, Edna Cropper and Messrs Alfred Ragsdale, Ross Hudson, Sam Harbour, Louis Sims, Jerry Brookman, Edward Campbell, Ted Boden and the hostesses.

Wichita county students are as follows: Vinson Duvall, William Harold Elder, John William Garner and Robert Trask, all of Burkburnett; Ernest D. Brown, A. Frank Fisher, Lewis V. Ford, William Richardson, Billy Stewart, and Arthur Torvie, of Electra.

Chevrolet Motors Nov. Production Breaks Records

Chevrolet Motor Co. today reported a production total of 108,876 units in November, exceeding the previous record for any November in the history of the company by more than 60,000. The extraordinary increase in a period that heretofore has been one of the industry's low-production months is credited by the company to the effect of this year's introduction of new models in November instead of in January, as has been the practice.

Besides breaking all November records, last month's total of 108,876 units also exceeds by more than 17,000 units the highest January record in Chevrolet history, thus setting a new high total for the first month's production of newly introduced models.

Reports from dealers so far received are sufficient to indicate that November will set a new record in retail sales by a large margin.

The 108,876 units built during November included the production of the company's 10 assembly plants in the United States, its export plant at Bloomfield, N. J., and 4279 cars built at Oshawa, Ont., for the Canadian trade.

As indicating the effect of the early introduction of new models, Chevrolet executives pointed out that November has been exceeded in production this year by only 3 other months, April, June, and July.

It was announced also that during December production will be maintained at the same high rate established last month.

The best way to climb high in this world is to stay on the level.

After all, the capital most marriages these days have are the bonds of matrimony.

Big Rabbit Creek

December 8, 1935
Johnny Mouser departed Sunday afternoon with his father-in-law, a Mr. Turner, for Duncan, Okla. Mr. Mouser went on a business trip to try to rent a farm for 1936. He will return home Wednesday or Thursday this coming week.

This part of the country was visited during the latter part of the week with at least one inch of rain. The grain men were glad to see the rain come but it's tough on the cotton farmers that haven't got their cotton all out. It will be Tuesday or Wednesday before any cotton can be pulled in the Rabbit Creek neighborhood.

Our old time friend Mr. John Ashton called at the Owens' family residence for just a few minutes' stay Sunday afternoon. Bro. John came over to his fine Indian lease to look after his fine bunch of sheep.

Col. Guy Willis, Burkburnett's leading cattle and hog buyer, was shaking hands with his many friends over in the big Rabbit Creek community Sunday morning.

Well, folks, this is Hawk Eye's 28th year that he has been writing the Big Rabbit Creek news for the Burkburnett Star, and he will honestly state to the Star readers, out of the 28 years he has missed not over 14 months at different times of getting the Big Rabbit Creek news to the Burk Star. One more statement that he wishes to make is that at no time has he ever been in Burkburnett to stay any length of time but what he always called on the Burkburnett Star staff, till Saturday he was going to call on the office staff but he had to make a trip out in the country with a friend west of Burkburnett, and when he got back to the city it was too late to call on the boys.

J. B. Turner, who lives up in Duncan, Okla., motored down in the Rabbit Creek neighborhood Sunday afternoon and spent a short while visiting with his daughter and son-in-law and family, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Mouser.

A Mr. Bozer of Burkburnett, who is the head agent of the Zenith radio company and also of the wind charger, was over here last week. It's wonderful the amount of the Zenith radios and wind chargers that Mr. Bozer has installed over on this side of the big pond. And everyone is giving perfect satisfaction, and every farmer that has one installed and his house lighted up in first class shape is well pleased they tell Hawk Eye. They think that the Zenith radio is the best radio that has ever been put on the market at the present time.

Mrs. Dave Jones and her daughter were shopping over in Burkburnett Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ashton and their daughters were shopping over in Burkburnett Saturday.

It seemed to the writer that every one who lives in the Big Rabbit Creek bend, and a lot who don't, were over in Burkburnett Saturday shopping. Just lots of Santa Claus presents were being bought, getting ready for Santa Claus, as the time is flying by fast and Old Santa will soon start from the North Pole to visit the sunny south.

Well, hog killing time is drawing near. To those that have hogs to kill, there will be so many that won't have them to kill this hog killing time, that it will be a very small job. A few days past Hawk Eye happened to be at one of his real good neighbor's, just about meal time. Of course he was invited to have lunch and it isn't Hawk Eye's habit to refuse a good meal which he knew would get.

After everyone was seated at the table a big platter of what Hawk Eye supposed was fish, was brought in, but to his surprise it was fine fried ham. It had been so long since Hawk Eye had seen a piece of ham he thought it was fish. He isn't the only one going this route either, for he is satisfied that 98 per cent of Cotton county people, big, little old and young haven't had a piece of pork on their table since mid summer and maybe later and hogs still selling from $9.50 to $9.70 on the Fort Worth market.

One of the Big Rabbit Creek pioneers at one time, a Mr. Walling, of Burkburnett, accompanied Col. Guy Willis Sunday who called on the Owens family. Mr. Walling lived in our community for years farming and made good every year. If any crops were raised at all, Mr. Walling always made his share as he was considered a first class farmer. Finally our old friend Abner found a long-haired companion which he loved better than himself and for several years past and up to the present they both have a happy home and a prosperous one.

Mr. Tobe Hardin and Mrs. Martha Nails and her son Charlie were on the busy streets of Burkburnett Saturday shopping.

W. R. Elkins, wife and daughter were shopping over in Burkburnett Saturday.

Edward Owens and his better half were among the great throng of Burkburnett shoppers Saturday afternoon.

Col. Guy Willis was a very lucky guy when he hired Mr. Marshall Young and his brother-in-law to haul the rent feed which he purchased from Mrs. Maud Owens last week, as Mr. Young believe me, has a real bundle wagon. You might call it a truck and a real team of mules for power to operate it. He put on and hauled out of the field 1036 bundles of hegari. If the field hadn't been soft Mr. Young would have put on the entire 1536 bundles. When he got the truck out in the road, he hooked his trailer on behind with 300 more bundles, making the total of 1536. Mr. Miller got up on the load and started for home and all you could see behind this big load was just a streak of dust going up the road.

Ed LaBarre hauled over to Burkburnett Saturday a big load of roughness and had it ground into a fine lot of cow feed.

Wheat and oats are looking fine and they are supplying a fine lot of stock pasture.

W. H. Martin and his little daughter, Winnie June, were on the streets of Burkburnett Saturday. Also D. L. Alexander and Mr. Crouse and Mr. Braken and sons were also transacting business in Burkburnett Saturday.

Mrs. Dave Jones and a very prosperous farmer of the Rabbit Creek neighborhood has certainly got some of the finest meat hogs that has ever been raised in this part of Cotton county. It's a cinch she will have her year's supply of meat as she has several now that will tip the scales at 500 pounds or over. How's that for prosperous farming?
Yours truly,
HAWK EYE

If they started a plan to give everybody a pair of wings some people would spoil it by demanding four.

Study Club Meets With Mrs. Clifton

"Burkburnett" and "Austin Our Capitol City" were subjects of an interesting study program for the members of the University Study Club who were entertained Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Lee Clifton.

To establish the motif of the program, Mrs. R. P. Reagan introduced Mrs. Joe Davis who gave a delightful word picture of the "History of Burkburnett". Mrs. Butler West-erfield presented a travelog of the many interesting places that she had visited in Austin during the past summer.

During the brief business session arrangements were completed for making contributions to the Will Rogers Memorial fund, and giving two Christmas baskets. Members and guests present were Miss Knight of Commerce, Texas, Mrs. Morgan of Ennis, Texas, and Mesdames J. H. Davis, C. J. Duncan, John Bostic, R. M. Gilchrist, George Kerr, J. M. Pogue, Louis Peyton, H. W. Prinzing, R. P. Reagan, L. D. Russell, B. F. Gilchrist, B. F. Taylor, W. D. Utts, W. R. Hill, Butler West-erfield, P. G. Williamson, O. C. Wills and the hostess.

Be Sure They Properly Cleanse the Blood

YOUR kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as nature intended—fail to remove impurities that poison the system when retained.

Then you may suffer nagging back-ache, dizziness, scanty or too frequent urination, getting up at night, puffiness under the eyes, feel nervous, miserable—all upset.

Don't delay? Use Doan's Pills. Doan's are especially for poorly functioning kidneys. They are recommended by grateful users the country over. Get them from any druggist.

The Strength

Chiropractic Shows You the Way to Health!

You will observe in the picture a bone segment of the spinal column. When this segment or any other segment causes a pressure on the spinal cord, our very life force, it causes some bodily ailment, either slowly or quickly to arise within our body. The lack of life force flowing normally causes dis-ease.

With the aid of the Neurocalometer and the X-ray we can determine the trouble scientifically (the X-ray locating the protruding segment and the Neurocalometer giving the degree of pressure before and after the adjustment). When the Chiropractic adjustment is given, it is given in such a way that the bone segment is placed in its normal position, permitting the life force to flow normally and freely to the particular organ or organs. Health is the result.

THE BULLDOGS GROWL

EDITED BY STUDENTS OF BURK SCHOOLS

Senior News

Due to the fact that the Seniors are still very busily engaged in studies—Senior news is rather scarce.

Monday morning Mr. Williamson gave the class a little lecture on the home room work. He stressed the idea of more studies and less visiting. For the past year since Mr. Williamson has been the sponsor of the class he has certainly kept the home room a study period—thus this class is outstanding for the number of G scholars. After all, what would become of a ship without a good pilot? Does not an excellent pilot usually battle thru the storm safely? Just stand aside world—watch the crew of '36 Seniors from B. H. S.

The majority of Seniors now have in their possession one of the best looking class rings obtainable. "By their rings ye shall know them."

Volley Ball Girls At Work

With a determination to come up to the par of expected championship crew of Burkburnett, the volleyball girls were hard at work Monday afternoon. With 6 letters returning from last season, the prospects are very bright, the girls having won games already from Cashion and Fairview, their on-look toward the crown is even brighter. Of these six letter-men only one will be lost to the team next season, that is Irene Evans, the star captain of the 1934-35 season, so it looks like Burkburnett for two years at least will have a winning team.

Besides Miss Evans the other last year veterans include Mildred Milford, Juanita Shuffler, Marjorie Bowden, Marcella Foster, and Della Ashmon.
Coach McClure reports that she is using the team-work type of offense, exclusively, that in order to give each girl a chance to handle the ball and also to create greater spirit among the members of the team. On the defense, the center man, the one next to the net, moves back a little in order to permit her to help the ones who are playing back when the ball is served, for it is almost always served to one of these players. The outstanding individual to date is Marjorie Bowden, who is excellent in her serving as well as an active returner of the opponent's serves. Other stars are Juanita Shuffler, captain, Della Ashmon and Irene Evans.

Volley ball as has basket ball has been neglected much in our city and only by having a large winning column do the girls expect to create interest in an otherwise waning game.

The schedule, which heretofore has been played with the basketball schedule, is changed and will be played alone on separate dates this season.

Over 300,000 Pontiac owners throughout the United States are participating in a nationwide campaign instituted in the interest of safety and the reduction of accidents on the roads and highways, according to R. C. Gilbow, manager of Pontiac Motor Co. here.

"A direct appeal was made recently by over 3500 dealers to all Pontiac owners regardless of the age of their cars to co-operate in an effort to promote safe driving during the coming winter months," said Mr. Gilbow. "The co-operation of both dealers and owners has been the best we ever have had, and is an indication that motorists really are interested in safe driving and the reduction of accidents."

"Our campaign is simply the old story of getting the car ready for winter. But it was dressed up in such a way that its safety appeal struck a sympathetic note in the minds of the owners. And they responded."

"Over 300,000 of them are bringing their cars to our dealers to have their brakes put in shape; lamp bulbs replaced and headlamps adjusted; steering gears made right; and carburetors, distributors, batteries and electrical systems put in order so that motors will respond properly to acceleration. Thousands of heaters and windshield defrosters were installed."

"Car manufacturers are building safe automobiles today and rightly their responsibility ceases when the car becomes the property of the motorist. However Pontiac along with a number of other manufacturers believe in following out the familiar Biblical adage of being their 'brother's keeper'. They are doing everything they can to help their owners continue to be safe drivers."

"There is no one who would be quicker than Pontiac to favor the public condemnation and removal from the highways of cars that have become a menace to life and property either because of their age or their poor mechanical condition. And, no one more than Pontiac would be quicker to protest against the motorist who would permit his automobile to be ordered from the road because of his own neglect and carelessness in its upkeep."

"We know that the human element is the biggest factor in safe driving. Either carelessness in the handling of a car or carelessness in its upkeep may lead to a serious accident."

"The chances are we cannot do much for the owner who is careless in the way he handles his car, but the fine response we have received from our owners during their campaign has resulted in putting their cars in such condition that it will not be said that an accident was due to faulty equipment."

What makes men radical? Well, if the car is worthless junk, the owner doesn't care if it gets bumped.

National Cotton Estimates Drop 400,000 Bales Mon.

The final estimates dropped 400,000 bales in the final estimates for the crop with the total 10,700,000. This amounts to a slight bit more than last year's crop, but at the same time the government announced that the consumption for cotton had reached a new high for all time.

The average yield indicated that per bale was 188 pounds, and the harvest was reported as being ginned up through Dec. 1. There was little cotton left in the fields, but enough to bring the national total past the 10 million mark.

The market is expected to respond to the new estimate and rise in the next few days to a much sounder position. Several causes were assigned to the sudden jump in consumption. The disturbed conditions in the Orient and European nations contributed to the demand.

P-T. A. Executive Meeting

Thursday morning, December 5, there was a call meeting of the executive committee.

The December P-T. A. meeting was changed from Dec. 21 to Dec. 16 because the holidays would interfere with the attendance.

It was decided that a benefit "42" party would be given Friday, Dec. 13. Mrs. Jimmie Donehoo is chairman of the ticket selling committee.

Our Teachers

Thursday, December 12, the faculty Frivolity Club will be entertained by the Misses Army Armstrong and Toby Baird, at the teachersage.

Don't miss "Aaron Slick From Punkin Crick."

Jokes for the Paper

Mrs. Watkins—My husband is so careless of his appearance. It seems like he just can't keep his buttons on his clothes.

Miss Armstrong—Are you sure it's carelessness? Perhaps they are uh—well, not sewed on properly.

Mrs. Watkins—Maybe you are right. He is terribly careless with his sewing.

Mr. Estes, the bus driver—How old are you my little girl?

Wanda Marie—If the corporation doesn't object, I'd prefer to pay full fare and keep my own statistics.

Mr. Watkins—What insect requires the least nourishment?

Rosalie—The moth, because it eats holes.

Be sure and see "Aaron Slick From Punkin Crick."

Pep News

The Fairview pep squad was highly complimented on their drill which was given on the Fairview gym Wednesday night, Dec. 4.

Many members of the pep squad failed to attend the game at Harold Friday night. Although everyone did not attend, there was some hearty yelling done by those members who were there.

Fourth Grade

The fourth grade is giving the program for the Fairview P-T. A. Monday night, Dec. 16, at 7:15. The program will open with the story of "The Other Wise Men" told by Lafon Farrington. "Christmas Night"—a pageant will be presented by members of the fourth grade assisted by Mrs. Watkins and Miss Keller. The concluding number on the program will be a review of Loyd C. Douglas' "Christmas At Home" by Curtis Cook.

The pageant opens with the scene of Mary, Joseph and the baby in the manger with the guiding star lighting the whole scene. On the other side of the stage poses an angel before the cathedral window. Other angels join her during this scene. The shepherds and the wise men come to present their gifts to the infant. The candle bearer leads a throng of people to worship the Christ child. The chorus sings Christmas songs throughout the pageant that help carry out the story of the birth of our Savior.

Have you bought your tickets?

Sixth Grade

The sixth grade really got the Christmas spirit in class meeting yesterday when their party was discussed. Mr. and Mrs. Morrison, class mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Hayes, P-T. A. mother and father and Pat Thompson, class sponsor, are giving the sixth grade a Christmas party. Games will be played and Christmas stories told before having their refreshments. Then everyone will gather around the Christmas tree to receive their gifts. They hope Santa will remember them all. Honest, they are trying to be good until then.

Maurine Goodwin Is Honored at Belton

Miss Maurine Goodwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Goodwin, Burkburnett, was recently accepted by Historical-Phila, senior social organization at Mary-Hardin, Baylor, and was initiated Saturday night. Members of this organization are chosen for their scholarship, personality, and interest in the development of their activities.

Initiation was preceded by a series of formal receptions given by both senior organizations, after which the girls were accepted and pledged followed. Historical-Phila is nearly fifty years old, and has been a leading organization on the campus since the college was first moved to Belton.

Miss Goodwin, who is a sophomore in Mary-Hardin, has made many honors since she went there for she was a member of one of the most prominent of the freshman societies.

Hardin-Simmons To Play in Sun Bowl

Abilene, Dec. 12—Hardin-Simmons university gridders went back to work Monday for their Sun Bowl engagement with the New Mexico Aggies in El Paso, January 1. A two day lay-off was given the Cowboys last week-end by Head Coach Frank Kimbrough.

The Ranchers will be without the services of Leslie Clary, regular right end, who has been out with stomach trouble since the Howard-Payne game. Three other squadmen, Alton Terry, Gordon Wood and Clifford Wheeler, all ends, have reported for basketball drills and will not make the El Paso trip. Kimbrough will take the rest of his forty-man squad to the Sun classic.

T. E. L. Class Meets With Mrs. Wofford

Mrs. O. B. Wofford was hostess to the executive session of the board members of the T. E. L. class of the First Baptist church, Wednesday, Dec. 4 at her home. The meeting was opened with the song "I'll Go Where You Want Me", and prayer was led by Mrs. Keith. The devotion by Mrs. Brookover was from 122 Psalm. Plans for the contacting the absentees were made in the business session. Those present were: Mesdames Hardin, Cheney, Williams, Carnes, Brookover, Blanset, Keith, Stuckey, Logan, Bunday and Wofford.

Alton Simpson Dies In Wichita Hospital

Alton B. Simpson, 21, of Iowa Park, succumbed to an attack of pneumonia at 6:25 o'clock Monday night in a Wichita, Falls hospital.

The body was taken in charge by the Thomas funeral home at Burkburnett. Funeral arrangements were incomplete Monday night but it was tentatively planned for interment to be a Ringling, Okla.

Survivors include the parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Simpson of Iowa Park.

Lockett Circle Meets

The Lockett circle of the First Baptist church met in the home of Mrs. Roy Stuckey Monday afternoon. The devotional from the 100 Psalm was led by Mrs. Stuckey, and prayer was by Mrs. M. B. Hays. The following were present: Mesdames Logan, Hays, Bundy and Stuckey.

The average Burkburnett girl likes to have a man flatter her even though she knows he is lying.

SALARY BILL

Editor's Note: This is the fourth and final article of a series explaining the four laws passed by the recent legislature concerning general affairs in Texas. Liquor, Drivers license, and old age pensions have been previously discussed.

The constitutional amendment abolished the fee system for some of the counties in Texas, and made it possible for the rest of the counties to follow suit.

Special laws were passed for the four large counties, giving the officers of those counties a larger salary.

The commissioners court must meet at the first of the year and set the salary for the following year within certain limits. Official duty have a certain mileage.

In the precinct like the county commission, mine whether or not they receive a salary or fee.

Such offices as district sheriff, deputies and other salaries are set by law limits.

It is probable that the precinct will continue under the fee system of the past. There are several classifications for counties and property

Gilbert Announced

The National Tuberculosis Association declares that if modern knowledge about the disease were properly applied by the public, tuberculosis could be wiped out almost overnight; all present deaths from the disease are totally unnecessary. Educational work is therefore unceasing and includes the distribution of literature and posters, lectures, radio broadcasting, the showing of motion pictures and lantern slides, exhibits and other devices.

Tuberculosis Can Be Controlled By Scientific Methods

ren who do not actually have tuberculosis, but who are in danger of developing it either because they are physically under par or because they live in a home in which one of the members has active tuberculosis. At the preventorium they are built up physically with good food, plenty of rest, and supervised activity that permits adequate exercise but prohibits over-exertion. All services are of course provided free. The varied program of work and the number of persons assisted by the tuberculosis association during the year is a remarkable demonstration of the power of the penny, for it is all made possible by the sale of Christmas Seals for a penny each during the few weeks between Thanksgiving Day and Christmas.

Something Wrong Here

STORY OF A BRAVE RABBIT
Now there are all kinds of tales that have originated in the Burk fields, but when this country gets so wild that the rabbits start chasing the dogs—something is wrong. But that is exactly what happened on the Darby Lynn lease Saturday morning, and all vouched for by seven members of the Bell-pipe line gang.

Clara Lutheran Church

When the stunned bunch of pipelers regained normalcy, back over the hill came the brave bunny with an expression of profound satisfaction on his face. Rabbits grow big here but not that big. We have been trying to figure out what was the matter. Brer Rabbit number two must have just heard a political speech, or got his tax statement, or listened in on the Texas legislature hard at work (?), or just received his gas bill after a cool month. Maybe he had just sipped a little bit of the oil field dew—you know

There's Only One Way . . .

The corner stone in building a prosperous and happy community is loyalty.

Only by loyalty may a municipal utility bring its countless benefits to a town. Patronage is essential in creating revenue for such plant; and such patronage is wholeheartedly given, for citizens realize that a home-owned concern has the interest of home folks for its first consideration.

Keeping revenue at home and lowering utility rates are only a small part of the advantages of a local light and power plant. The lights crossing our streets at this holiday season are a manifestation of citizens' loyalty to home interests. Current for these lights is given free of charge by the local light plant.

Loyalty to home interests means owning your own at home.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our sincere appreciation for the splendid efforts of the Burkburnett Fire Department in saving our home on Saturday, Dec. 7. But for the fast and efficient work of every man our loss would have been complete. Our whole community should be proud of such protection.
Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Scruggs.

Santa Claus—

Saint will visit all the business places in the city, and those who wish a personal conference with him should meet him at one of the stores during his tour.

The music for the occasion will be provided by the Cowboy band under the direction of E. L. Nichols. They will march ahead of the procession, and Santa Claus will be in his sleigh. Everyone that lives in the Burkburnett area is welcome to the reception, and invitations have been sent out by the stores and the organizations to bring the people to the city.

The streets have been decorated with lights, and the evergreen trees have appeared for various stores in the city. All of the merchants have placed special displays and dressed up the stores in a very attractive manner. The bargains on toys, gifts and special articles are the best that the city has ever known during the last few years.

There is cause for real optimism in the city. The cotton crop is over twice as large as last year, and the farmers will soon place in the market the bonus checks that they will receive on price differential from the government. The projects in the city have employed almost 100 people on paving, sewing rooms and similar activities. The Magnolia company has started the re-conditioning of the pipeline to employ several dozen men. All of these things have contributed to a better feeling on the part of the merchants.

The lights for the decorations of the streets has been arranged by the city government, and the electricity used by the lights is furnished by the municipal electric plant. These lights will continue to be lighted until after the Christmas holidays.

The committees for the arrangements of the reception of the Christmas parade will be announced next week. It is generally believed that the entire population of the trade area of Burkburnett will be present that day to see the celebration.

Large Cast

Approximately 100 people will appear on the stage during the evening. The membership of both clubs will be in the colored choruses and the minstrel circle. At the center Neely Vaughn will direct the ceremonies as interlocutor.

And just think! "Porg Eye the Sailor Man" is another specialty number. Hardly believable that the local stage should have the famed spinach eater the second year in succession.
