

A VISIT TO THE OIL FIELD

Haskell Citizens Visit the New Oil Properties Located in This County.

We are pleased to announce that the Bunkley well was started last Tuesday evening and quit a crowd went from here to be at the commencement of this well. Dr. Bunkley had planned to have a blowout, and have pictures made of the crowd and machinery. We were very sorry indeed to miss this trip, but on account of illness of Mr. Greer's brother we were forced to leave off the trip. However, it rained all day and it was well for us, as those that went looked somewhat different when they returned, though they report a nice time. They say that from all indications that there is no reason why the well should not be finished in the course of two or three months, and at a more reasonable price than the Electric oil wells, as the well is located on California Creek, where water is plentiful and handy, and plenty of wood for fuel. It seems that all who went are very much pleased with the situation and those that bought stock are prouder of their investment. We hope that as our home people have invested in this well and as it is in Haskell County that it will be a profitable well. Dr. Bunkley has the best drillers that could be had and as they have considerable interest in the stock of the company, we feel sure that this well will be pushed both night and day. We hope to see this well finished in a short time and hope to see the oil business pushed as it should be as that is what brings business to all. Should this well prove to be good it will be a great help to Haskell as there will be more wells put down near town. Those that went from here were Judge A. J. Smith, Messers. T. C. Cahill, J. D. Kinnison, A. D. English, Booth English, Dr. Helton, Collins Pinkerton, Joe Williamson and son, Off Neathery, W. H. Starr, Jack Simmons, Bob Robertson, Mark Whitman, W. H. Mansfield and Rube Brewer.

T. C. Cahill For Mayor.

The friends of Mr. T. C. Cahill has prevailed upon him to make the race for Mayor, and he has authorized us to announce him for the office. Mr. Cahill has been a citizen of Haskell for the past seven years, and has probably settled as many people in this county as any one who ever engaged in the land business. He is an up to date business man and is thoroughly competent to deal with the many perplexing financial question that confront the city government. He tells us this is the first time he has ever aspired to a political office and promises if elected to give the city the best service of which he is capable.

FINE RAINS THIS WEEK

Haskell County Farmers Rejoicing Over the Prospects for Wheat and Oats

It rained here nearly all day Wednesday, at night, and on Thursday morning it took a new start, and rained a good down-pour. There is the heaviest acreage of oats sown that has been sown for several years and the indications are that the crop will be immense in Haskell county this year. Some farms have as much as 500 acres of oats. Haskell soils will stand an excess of rain or a dry spell better than any soil in Texas, so we are going to be in the swim this year. The slovern who did not farm his land this year is going to have the blues when he sees his neighbors harvest.

County Court

Criminal Docket
State vs. C. W. Winchester, charged with aggravated assault; tried and acquitted.
State vs. Wade Park, charged with giving liquor to a minor; acquitted.
State vs. C. E. Childress, two cases, giving liquor to minor; both cases dismissed on motion of county attorney.
State vs. F. L. Ayres, charged with exhibiting the prize fight of Jeffries and Johnson by moving pictures; plea of guilty and fine assessed at $100. Ayers had been told at two other places by county attorneys that it was not against the law to make these exhibitions, and he has been showing them all along the line. Haskell county is the first place to enforce the law against him for this infraction.
State vs. I. N. Shadle, charged with violating the stock quarantine law; continued.
State vs. M. S. Shook, charged with violating the stock quarantine law; dismissed on account of defective complaint.
State vs. J. E. Wilfong, charged with destroying timber tried and acquitted.

Court is still in session. Next week will be a non-jury week.

Near Society People

St. Louis, Mo., March 22.—Whether man or woman, married or single, you should have a child to care for if your salary exceeds $20 per week. This is the belief of Dr. Lindsay Wynekoop of Chicago, mother of four children, who is attending the National Mothers' Congress here.

Mrs. Wynekoop said today that married couples with an income of $25 per week should have at least one child. Bachelors over 30 years old or maids over 25 with such an income should adopt a child, and, as their income increases, adopt more.

"It would only be a question of some of our bachelors cutting down their expenditure for cigars, ties and silk sox in order to set aside enough to support and give a child a home," said Mrs. Wynekoop.
"Race suicide is being widely practiced today by our women, especially the so-called better class or near-society woman," said Mrs. Wynekoop. "This is not to be deplored in the least, because a reproduction of their like would in no way benefit the human race. There are too many of them already."

BOYS AND GIRLS MILO MAIZE CLUB

You May Look for Interesting Developments From Haskell in This Feature.

Demonstration Agent Latham informs that he has just forwarded to Washington, D. C., a complete revised list of the names of the members of the Haskell County Maize Club, and that there are in all 200 members. This means that there are two hundred boys and girls in the county, each growing an acre of milo maize along improved lines, or rather we should have said will soon be growing, for as yet not many of them have planted on account of the cold weather. It is a healthy sign too, to know that these boys and girls are from every nook and corner of the county. Mr. Latham says he thinks these young citizens are going to be able to make a class of demonstrations that will be eye-openers, and he is more than pleased to have such a goodly number. "Great oaks from little acorns grow," and we expect these are the acorns. Three cheers for the Boys' and Girls' Milomaize Club.

Notice to City Voters

I desire to say that I am now confined at home sick and not able to get out to see the people. I am still in the race for Mayor. I want the vote of everyone who will support me, as I need the office. Assuring you of my appreciation for same, I remain, Yours truly,
R. W. Thompson.

J. S. Menefee for Commissioner

In another column will be found the announcement of J. S. Menefee of Rochester as a candidate for the office of county commissioner for Precinct No. one, subject to the action of the democratic party. In commenting upon this announcement we wish to say Mr. Menefee is a man worthy of the trust to which he aspires. He is well known at Haskell where he resided some years ago. His experience as a business man and qualifies him to meet the responsibilities of the office of county commissioner, and will give Haskell county good service if elected.

THE SMALL POX SITUATION

Official Reports from Ft. Worth Indicate Situation Well Under Control.

Mayor Wilson of this city has received a letter from Mayor Davis of Fort Worth, in reference to the quarantine situation as follows:
Gentlemen:—

We are advised that several men who were in Fort Worth this week have been put under quarantine upon their return home.

This, of course, is none of our business and we do not want you to feel that we are interfering or meddling where we have no right to do so, or are acting in a presumptuous manner.

The purpose of this letter is to inform you of the exact facts and to show you that the men who were here have had no chance to be exposed to small-pox.

During the past ten days we have averaged but one case per day. Each case has been reported promptly and seven out of the ten were taken to the pest house, the other three being too ill to be moved. Their homes were quarantined and all members of their families closely watched to see that they did not get out on the streets or mingle with their neighbors. Every house in which a case originated was thoroughly fumigated and the inmates vaccinated.

All told we have about 85 cases most of them being among the Mexicans and negroes. It started among this class and got a good hold before we knew it was here, but we believe we have it under control at this time.

In our opinion there is no need for any one being quarantined as they could only come into contact with the disease at the pest house, about 7 miles north-east of the city or in one of six homes where sufferers from the diseases were allowed to remain at home, the house and all inmates being closely quarantined and thoroughly fumigated.

Yours very truly,
J. Liston,
Secy of Board
To the Mayor and City Officials of Haskell.

Scott Key for City Attorney

One of our citizens, acting for the friends of Mr. Scott Key, has requested us to announce Mr. Key as a candidate for the office of city attorney, which we do in this issue of the Free Press. We can say of Mr. Key that he is a hard working young lawyer who came to this city two years ago, and associated himself with his uncle Judge Scott of the Haskell bar, and that he has been engaged in an active practice and is fast earning a reputation as a reliable and able member of the bar. Mr. Key is a son of Judge Key of the Austin Court of Civil Appeals, and possesses the training and moral and personal qualities that fit him for the office to which his friends would call him.

BABY'S EASTER SHOES

Don't overlook the baby's shoes—This is the place to buy the little folks shoes as well as your own. Bring the little ones along and let them be fitted here—Above all the growing feet should be perfectly fitted, their shoes should not be too small, nor too large and above all they should not be too short. And they will be if you are not careful. More feet are ruined by wearing shoes too short than by any other two ailments. We positively will not sell you a shoe that don't fit if you allow us to fit it and we are more careful about the length than any other part of the fitting.

Stamford, Texas, March 23.—J. B. Adams, who lives about thirty miles east of the city, was run over by a freight train on the Texas Central yesterday afternoon, both legs being cut off. WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY NOTES

Because of conflicting with the entertainment planned by the ladies of the Christian church, our society has postponed the Easter Tea as announced last week.

Beginning with April the regular time of meeting of the society will be 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Let every member remember this change.

Our last meeting was under the management of our 3rd Vice Pres., who had a well arranged program on Christian Stewardship.

The Board of Missions has inaugurated a Forward Movement Campaign which looks toward quickening the whole church to a sense of its personal obligation to hasten the coming of Christ's Kingdom. The bugle call of the Forward Movement is: "Double our Membership; Double our Offering." Why?

1. Because the present membership is inadequate to maintain a larger work than that which is enterprised at present. Growth of work depends on more women joining the auxiliaries.

2. Because our mountain schools, industrial schools, Rescue Home in Dallas, Wesley Houses, Mission schools and Immigrant Home here on our own Gulf coast all need improvements and enlargement of every kind. To meet these demands, we want 250,000 women in the year 1912—each auxiliary to average two cents a day per member.

How will we do this?
Pray—Work—Give.
The success of this movement depends upon every woman getting back of it. It is God's call as definitely to the womanhood of the church as it was in the days when He was here incarnated in the Christ when Mary said, "The Master is here, and calleth for Thee."

To the Voters of Haskell: I understand that it is being rumored that I am a candidate for the office of City Attorney and that some of my friends are soliciting votes for me in that behalf. While I greatly appreciate the efforts of my friends, still I want it plainly and emphatically understood that I am not a candidate for the office of City Attorney. Therefore, I take this means of asking the voters not to consider my name and not to vote for me.

Very respectfully,
Scott W. Key.

Mr. Elkins has served the state of Texas in the lower house of the legislature, and his service as a statesman, and practice as an attorney, has enabled him to acquire the versatile experience, that fittingly qualifies him for the office he seeks.

Mens Spring Shoes

Our Spring stock of Howard & Foster's fine shoes for men is here.

This line has only been sold for four seasons and our sales have increased on it each season. It is well made, fits perfectly and wears as long as any shoe made for the same purpose.—Longer than most of them. Our limit is $5.00 and we positively guarantee our $5.00 shoe to wear as long, hold its shape as well and give you as much satisfaction as any shoe you can buy at any price. You may pay $6.00 or $7.00 and even $8.00 for a shoe, but when you do just think of our Howard & Foster shoe at $5.00 and subtract that amount from the price you paid and you'll see how much you have paid for value you didn't get. That's a pretty strong statement but we mean it and would like to prove it to you.

Let us sell you one pair of these shoes and you will be convinced.

Dear Oscar:—

Find herewith draft for $2.00 to cover past due subscription to Free Press, and to put me in good standing one year in advance. I note that you are suffering from an attack of the political microbe. My observation has been that there is no permanent cure for this malady, and but one corrective, and that is the "elective panacea," which I trust will be administered to you in liberal doses next July.

With sincere regards to yourself and family, I am,

Your friend,
J. A. Jones.

Mr. J. A. Jones is a brother of Mr. J. L. and J. F. Jones of Rule and Mrs. T. B. Russell of this city and has many friends and acquaintances here. He is now cashier of the Somerville State Bank.

The Symphony Club will give a musical at the home of Mrs. Wallace Alexander, Wednesday afternoon April 3rd, at 4 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to the public. Admission 25 cts.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Address, F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.
Sold by druggists, 75c.

Avoid Sickness

It shows more practical sense to take medicine to prevent sickness than to take it to get well after becoming sick. You save in three ways—a doctor bill, a smaller medicine bill and a good deal of suffering.

HASKELL, TEXAS, March 30, 1912.

In order to accomplish the most, every man should work as a unit for the upbuilding of his town.

You can not expect a town to grow where the citizens do not cooperate together for its growth and development.

It cannot possibly be anything else but selfishness or pure cussedness to knock on your home town. Anybody who has a thimble full of brains knows that what helps our city helps us.

Just because the other fellow may not see a proposition just as you do is no reason that his plan may not be for the good of the town. It is better to sacrifice your personal opinion a little and enter heartily into any plan that will help to build your town.

Among the leading Congressmen who have declared for Gov. Wilson of New Jersey, as the democratic candidate for president are Senators, Gardner and Gillicuddy of Main, John Sharp Williams of Mississippi, Bryan of Florida, Hoke Smith of Georgia, Goore of Oklahoma, Myers of Montana, Culberson of Texas, O'Gorman of New York, Newbanks of Nevada. Representatives Burleson of Texas, Whitacre of Ohio and Palmer of Penn.

The tariff board has made a report. President Taft has sent in a special message to Congress, recommending a sweeping reduction in the cotton schedule of the Aldrich bill. The report of the board shows that the duties are enormously excessive considered from the standpoint of protection, and shows that the European labor in the cotton industry gets higher pay than in America. O, where is the "full dinner pail?"

Mr. R. E. Sherrill called at our office Wednesday and loaned us several copies of the Dry Farming and Rural Home, the official organ of the International Dry Farming and International Congress of Women, published monthly at Edmonton, Alberta, Canada.

From time to time we will publish articles from this paper and we hope in this way to present some scientific and interesting articles to our readers.

An editor was asking for admission to heaven. "Can't let you in," said St. Peter; "the record of your goods never came to our exchange table." "But," said the editor, "the postal authorities are to blame for you not receiving my paper." Then you'll have to go to the other place and fight it out," said St. Peter. "the postal authorities are all down there."—St. Louis Star.

Backward; turn backward. O Time in your flight, and give us a maiden dressed proper and right. We are so weary of switches and rats. Billie Burice clusters and peach basket hats. Wads of jute hair in a horrible pile, stacked on their heads to the height of a mile. Something is wrong with the maidens, we fear. Give us the girls as they used to appear. Give us the girls we once knew of yore, whose curls didn't come from a hair dressing store. Maidens who dressed with a sensible view, just as Dame Nature intended them to. Give us a girl with a form of her own, and fashioned divinely by Nature alone. Feminine style's getting fiercer each year—oh, give us the girls as they used to appear.

The Hand That Rocked Seattle

The failure of Hiram C. Gill in the Seattle election of March 5 to regain the office of mayor was a signal triumph of the newly enfranchised women voters of that city, if we are to accept the general verdict of the newspapers. "Twice within a few months," says the Cleveland Leader (Prog. Rep.), "the women of Seattle, the largest city in Washington, have shown that they can be counted upon to defeat any man who runs on an 'open town' platform." And this journal goes on to say that what the women cared for and insisted upon was civic decency, and that other considerations sank into comparative insignificance in their estimation. On the other hand, the newspapers opposed to woman-suffrage are generally silent on this incident.

While Colonel Roosevelt's magazine is criticising President Taft for his lack of progressive-ness, Mr. LaFollette's campaign manager is proclaiming that "Roosevelt has betrayed LaFollette and is a traitor to the Progressive cause," and the Progressive Republican Milwaukee Journal, Mr. LaFollette's staunchest supporter in the West, is suggesting that "the nomination of President Taft might be fraught with less evil than the nomination of Mr. Roosevelt." The Journal states LaFollette's grievance as follows:

"As a progressive leader of proved ability, Senator LaFollette was drafted as a leader of the fight to be made at Chicago. Colonel Roosevelt at that time positively eliminated himself from the 1912 fight, and his followers, for the most part being also sincere admirers of Senator LaFollette, pledged themselves to the latter.

"LaFollette started the fight at a time when the prospects for preventing the renomination of President Taft were ridiculously small. As the movement grew and the indications of possible Progressive strength developed the Roosevelt boom was launched."—Literary Digest.

A Beautiful Entertainment.

The recital given by the pupils of Miss Day's expression class and Miss Maxwells music class last Saturday night at the High School auditorium was one of the most enjoyable events the writer has had the pleasure of attending in a long while. The program was replete with a diversified class of numbers. The scenes from one of Shakespeare's plays were rendered, the young men representing their parts in a most creditable manner, showing a remarkable interpretation of this famous author's works. The recitations of those on the program were very much appreciated, and Miss Day has reason to feel a pride in her pupils and her efficient work. The musical numbers also showed remarkable talent upon the part of the pupils as well as creditable training and instruction by Miss Maxwell.

Miss Garvin added to the pleasures of the evening with a delightful vocal solo.

The Undertaker a Developer.

There are in many communities successful business men who stand like stumps in the highways of progress and in such a situation the undertaker is an important factor in development. Scarcely a day passes that they do not add a new terror to death by refusing to join with public spirited citizens in a movement for the up-building of their city or by their indifference snag an industrial enterprise.

It takes live men to build a city and there is no sadder sight in municipal life than a few noble spirited citizens staggering under a load of dead timber. The undertaker is oftentimes a developer.

South East Texas Jottings.

Dear Mr. Editor:

On account of the heavy rains and creeks being so high I failed to get in with these few dots last week. Pardon me Mr. Editor for a few minutes and let me say a word to Judge. Well, Judge, I am glad you feel like you are slightly acquainted with me. Say Judge are you the little fellow that the principal had on the stand down in a school in East Texas concerning a sweet potato that had been thrown across the school room? If so I am slightly acquainted with you. Those were rocky times then Judge, weren't they? Mr. Editor I believe I promised I would give a brief description of some of the counties I had visited. Now I will not take up too much of your good paper and time so I will first briefly give a sketch and will possibly pass over some few incidents I will be glad to refer to later. I will begin right in your city after being in some of the rural parts of your county for some time. I came to your city in the afternoon in the latter part of one of our spring months. After spending an enjoyable evening with friends and acquaintances I found it near train time. I hurriedly tried to get around and tell most of my friends good bye, and I must say I was greeted with that Haskell county feeling which makes a person anxious to go back after once being there. Well, late in the afternoon I stepped aboard the west-bound Wichita Valley train and in a very short time reached the town of Stamford where I remained for several hours as the schedule time of the T. C. is generally late and while there took a view of that beautiful city. I believe some time about 9 p. m. the T. C. rolled in and in a few minutes we were off again. Our next stop was Leuders. I had promised to stop over there with a friend and attend an I. O. O. F. picnic. Next morning when preparations were full underway a slow rain began to fall and continued till noon and this put a stop to the picnic. But when the noon hour arrived I was invited down to my friends house and then partook of one of those dinners which accompany one of these affairs. Now, maybe you don't think I did justice to that dinner, for further information ask those people. In the evening my friend took me out to show me his beautiful farm and prospects. This farm was situated on the clear fork of the Brazos and had every feature that tends to make a fine farm. It resembles a great deal of your farming land. We returned late in the evening and that night I caught the fast T. C. again. I will not take time to mention other places between there and Waco. I landed in Waco next morning shortly after sunrise. So we took out here for breakfast. Write often Judge and all the rest of you writers. I enjoy reading your chats.

Better Than All The Rest.

Three little boys were boasting about their belongings and their parents.

"Well," said the first little boy, "My father is going to build a house with a steeple on it."

"Oh, that's nothing," exclaimed the second little boy scornfully, "My father is going to build a house with a flagpole on it."

The third boy, who had been listening quietly, threw his head high in the air, "Gee, that's nothing, my father is going to build a house with a mortgage on it."

There's a Reason.

O'Flanagan and his spouse frequently had a falling out. He came home one night with a deep band of black crepe around his hat.

"Why, Mike," exclaimed his wife, "what are you wearing that mournful thing for?"

"I am wearing it for your first husband," replied Mike firmly. "I'm sorry he's dead."

C. A. Glossner, 24 Ontario St., Rochester, N. Y., has recovered from a long and severe attack of kidney trouble, his cure being due to Foley Kidney Pills. After detailing his case, he says: "I am only sorry I did not learn sooner of Foley Kidney Pills. In a few days time my backache completely left me and I felt greatly improved. My kidneys became stronger, dizzy spells left me and I was no longer annoyed at night. I feel 100 per cent better since using Foley Kidney Pills." Sold by Robertson's Drug Store.

Citation by Publication

The State of Texas:
To the Sheriff or any constable
of Haskell County Greeting:

You are hereby commanded,
that you summon, by making publication of this citation in some newspaper published in the county of Haskell for eight weeks previous to the return day hereof, the heirs of S. F.
McCanless, deceased, whose names and places of residence are unknown, to be and appear before the Hon. District Court, at the next regular term thereof to be holden in the County of Haskell, at the courthouse thereof in Haskell, Texas, on the 27th day of May A. D. 1912, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 9th day of March A. D. 1912, in a suit numbered on the docket of said court
No. 1395, wherein, J. E. Davis is plaintiff and The Unknown Heirs of S. F. McCanless, deceased are defendants.

The nature of the plaintiff's demand being copied from plain-tiff's original petition is as follows:—

1. That heretofore, to-wit:
On the 1st day of October A. D.
1911, the plaintiff was lawfully seized and possessed of a certain tract or parcel of land situated in Haskell County, Texas, hereinafter more fully described, holding the same in fee simple; that on the day and year last aforesaid the defendants, the heirs of S. F. McCanless, deceased, wrongfully and unlawfully and forcibly entered into possession thereof and ejected plaintiff therefrom and now wrongfully withhold from the plaintiff the possession thereof to his damage $500.00.

That the premises so wrongfully entered upon by the defendants and withheld by them from the plaintiff are bounded and described as follows:

Share No. 1—According to decree of Partition made and entered in the District Court, and the minutes thereof, of Haskell county, Texas, at the March term of said court, 1889, described by metes and bounds as follows: Beginning at a stone mound from which a dead mes-quite bears S. 61 W. 23 1/2 varas, and was made for S. W. corner of J. B. McCanless survey, 1900
varas North of S. E. corner of L.
Howerton survey which is identified as the original corner;
thence North at 540 varas a branch, 1522 varas, a pile of stone with mesquite sticks laid on same for corner; thence East 659 1/2 varas, stone mound for N.
E. corner; thence South crossing branch 1522 varas to a pile of stone, on south side of small branch for S. E. corner; thence West following S. B. line of original grant 659 1/2 varas to the place of beginning, containing 178 acres of land, same being part of J. B. McCanless survey of 1280 acres situated in Haskell County, Texas, Abstract No.
318, certificate No. 53, survey
No. 47, patented to the heirs of
Jno. B. McCanless on Feb. 5, 1858 by patent No. 1057, Vol. 3.
That the annual rent of said premises is of the value of $500.00.

2. Plaintiff's claim and title to the land here sued for is set out as follows: (a) Patent from the State of Texas to the heirs of J. B. McCanless conveying 1280 acres of land, fully described in patent No. 1057, Vol. 3, dated Feb. 8th, 1858, (b) A Decree of partition between the heirs of J. B. McCanless, deceased, made and entered by the District Court of Haskell county, Texas at the March term 1889, together with all proceedings in connection therewith, in cause No. 42, styled N.
L. McCanless et al vs. J. A.
McCanless et al then pending in said court, under which the 178 acres here sued for was decreed to and vested in S. F. McCanless,
(c) Deed from the heirs of S. F.
McCanless, deceased, to W. B.
Anthony, conveying said 178 acres; dated Feb. 13th, 1897, recorded in Vol. 18 page 291 of the deed records of Haskell County, Texas, (d) Deed from W. B.
Anthony to B. H. Dodson conveying said 178 acres, dated March 23rd, 1897, recorded in Vol. 18 page 427 of the deed
records of Haskell County, Texas, (e) Deed of Trust from B. H.
Dodson to W. B. Anthony, Trustee for the Haskell National Bank, conveying in trust the 178 acres here sued for dated June 26, 1899 and recorded at page 67 of Vol. No. 3 of the deed of trust
records of Haskell County, Texas, (f) Trustee's deed from J.
W. Collins, substitute Trustee for the Haskell National Bank under the foregoing deed of trust to J. A. Price, conveying the 178 acres of land here sued for dated August 7th, 1900 and recorded at page 391 of Vol. 21

of the deed records of Haskell
county, Texas, (g) Deed from J.
A. Price to plaintiff, J. E. Davis, conveying the 178 acres here sued for, dated March 2nd, 1901
and recorded at page 429 of Vol.
16 of the Deed records of Haskell
County, Texas.

3. That all the deeds, transfers, and other documents mentioned and referred to in 2nd subdivision of this petition are in the possession of the defendants and they are each hereby notified to produce same upon the trial of this cause to be used as evidence or else that secondary evidence of their contents will be introduced.

4. Plaintiff further claims title and ownership of the 178 acres of land here sued for under and by virtue of the Texas Statutes of limitations of three, five and ten years which he pleads as follows: (a) Plaintiff says that defendants should not have,
hold or recover any of said 178 acres from him because he has had and held peaceable, continuous and adverse possession under title and color of title from and under the State of Texas of the lands and tenements
described in 1st subdivision of this petition for more than three years before the commencement of this suit and after any cause of action in behalf of any of the defendants for the recovery thereof accrued,
(b) Plaintiff says that defendants should not have, hold or recover any of said 178 acres of land from him because he and those whose estate he was claiming the same under a deed and deeds duly registered, has had peaceable, continuous and adverse possession of the lands and tenements
described in 1st subdivision of this petition, cultivating, using and enjoying the same and paying all taxes due thereon for a period of more than five years before the commencement of this suit and after any cause of action in behalf of any of the defendants accrued.

5. Plaintiff says that the nature of the claim or title held or asserted by defendants or either of them to said land or any part thereof is unknown to him, and therefore he does not set out such claim or title in this petition.

6. Wherefore plaintiff prays for issuance of citation and the service thereof by publication as the law directs in this character of case, requiring defendants and each of them to appear at the next term of this court and answer this petition and that upon final hearing the plaintiff have judgement against all defendants for the title to and possession of the land and premises here sued for as well as his writ of possession, execution and cost of suit.

Herein fail not, and have you before said court, on the said
first day of the term thereof, this writ, with your endorsement thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

of office, at Haskell, Texas, this the 20th day of March, A. D.

4. That all the transfers, deeds and other documents referred to and described under subdivision of this petition are in the possession of the defendants and they are each hereby notified to produce the same upon the trial of this cause to be used as evidence or else the plaintiff will introduce secondary evidence of their contents.

5. That plaintiff further claims title to the 314 acres of land first herein described under the Texas Statutes of three, five and ten years limitations which he pleads as follows: (a) The plaintiff says that the defendants ought not to have, hold or recover the 314 acres of land sued for in this case because that claiming to be the true and lawful owner of same by the metes and bounds describing the same in 2nd subdivision of this answer he has had and held under title and color of title from and under the State of Texas, peaceable, continuous and adverse possession of the lands and tenements so described for a period of more than 3 years before the commencement of this suit and after any cause of action in behalf of any of the defendants for the recovery thereof accrued, (b) The Plaintiff says that the defendants ought not to have, hold or recover said 314 acres of land from him because claiming the same under a deed and deeds duly registered, he and those whose estate he has, have had peaceable, continuous and adverse possession of same, cultivating, using and enjoying the same, and paying all taxes thereon for a period of more than five years before the commencement of this suit and after any cause of action in behalf of any of the defendants for the recovery thereof accrued, (c) Plaintiff says that defendants ought not to have, hold or recover any of said 314 acres of land from him, because he claiming to have good and perfect title to same as described in 2nd subdivision of this petition has had and held peaceably the land claimed, and adverse possession of same, cultivating, using and enjoying the same for a period of more than ten years before the commencement of this suit and after any cause of action in behalf of any of the defendants for the recovery thereof accrued.

6. Plaintiff says that the nature of the claim and of the title, or either, of any of the defendants of in or to the land herein sued for or any part thereof is unknown to him and he therefore does not set out the nature of such claim or title.

7. Wherefore, plaintiff prays that citation in terms of the law be issued and served by publication as the law directs in this character of case requiring defendants and each of them to appear at the next term of this court and answer this petition and that upon final hearing plaintiff have judgement for the title to and possession of the land and premises herein sued for, as well as for his damages and rents above alleged and cost of suit, against all defendants and also for his writ of possession and execution.

A Statement.

It has reached me recently that many statements had been made in regard to what the present City Council was doing and going to do with the City Water Works, some of which have been erroneous and calculated to leave some one under the wrong impression of facts.

The Light people has been before the City Council and made the statement that they could sell the Power to the City at a price that would save the City between $35, and $65, per month on the pumping of the water that the City uses. They have said that they could furnish the City electricity at 10c per Kilowatt, and that they would guarantee that a Kilowatt would lift 2,000 gallons of water into the water tank, thus pumping the water for 5c per 1,000 gallons. But to get the benefit of this rate, the City will have to put in an Electric Motor and Pump. We have no large water meter by which we can measure the water that we pump now, and cannot tell just what it is costing us to pump the water we are now using, but Mr. Oneil, of the Oneil Engineering Co., told the City Council when he put in the water system here that we could not pump water for much less than 10c per 1,000 gallons, we think that our water is costing us now about 10c per 1,000 gallons, and if we can get it pumped at 5c per 1,000 or less, it seems that it would be a matter of business to pump it the cheapest way. In doing this we would have two pumps, and if one should get out of order the other could be used. As we are now, if our pump gets out of order, we will have to shut down the Pump Station until we get repairs, and in the mean time we could have a fire that might do great damage, and the City would be helpless. I am in favor of getting the water pumped in the cheapest way, and to give the public the very best service.

I am in favor of extending our present mains so as to reach as many tax payers as possible. I now have a letter from a gentleman in Chicago, Ill., who proposes to make the city a loan of $5,000 under the Act of the last Legislature, which was passed so that cities the size of Haskell might be enabled to extend their Water Works Mains.

The matter of the extension of the Mains was fully discussed last summer, and Judge J. E. Poole went into the matter fully and found that we could purchase 4" pipe at Beaumont, Texas, that had been used as oil line pipe at from 18c to 24 per foot, about 1/2 the regular price for pipe, and he wrote many letters trying to get some one to make the City the loan. He failed. I also wrote many letters trying to place the loan but failed. I can now get the money for 20 years at 6 per cent.

I think we should make arrangements to get this money and use it all in extending the mains. I think that if this is done that it will double the present income of the water works.

I am in favor of the city Council managing and controlling the City water works and Sewerage System, and think both should be extended as fast as possible until every Tax payer can get the benefit of them if he wants to do so.

I favor more lights on the streets until all parts of the City is lighted. The present light contract was made under the Administration of Mayor T. E. Matthews, and it was the best contract that could be made at that time for the reason that the Light plant had to put in a new circuit, poles and switch-board for the city street lights.

A contract could not be had for a less term than three years. The present contract will expire in about one year, and I favor its renewal at the very best price obtainable, and I think the service should be extended until the City is lighted.

I favor better Streets and more cement sidewalks, with trees planted in the same, so as to show some civic pride.

The present City Council have not been able to undertake such improvements, for the reason that this and the preceeding Council have been harrassed with damage suits against the City for alleged damage accruing from the city dump ground and the septic tank. We have had a number of judgments to pay and we have had to pay attorneys to fight these cases, and we had court costs to pay. We now have an Incinerator on the dump ground, in which we destroy the garbage and the septic tank is in such a shape that we will have no more cause for complaints from it. We are trying to prevent the water tank from running over, so that we will not have damage suits against the city from spraying over on any contiguous property.

Hoping that this will be a prosperous year, and that the newly elected Council, Mayor and other city officers can make a better showing for the good of the whole city, I am very truly,

H. S. Wilson, Mayor.

Roy English For County Clerk.

We are authorized to announce Roy English as a candidate for the office of county clerk, subject to the action of the democratic party. We can say of Mr. English that he has lived in this county five years, and because of his qualifications and splendid personal deportment, he attracted the attention of business men and two years ago was offered the position of deputy county clerk, which position he accepted and has held ever since. He is only 24 years old but has already developed into a most competent officer.

In discussing his qualifications he said he would be glad if the people would take interest enough to inquire of the attorneys of this bar, farmers and business men who have had dealings with his department, as to his qualifications and service.

Mr. English is a quite, unassuming young man, and when one has business with him, you can attend to the same without getting a political windjamming that makes a fellow feel like a fool.

He asks those who have had dealings with him to interest themselves in his campaign. He hopes to be able to make the race on his own merit, and says he will avoid all partisan methods that is some times used by politicians to cover up their demerits, and if the people will trust him he will give them good and efficient service and will so keep the court dockets as to facilitate the work of the courts, and in fact faithfully and promptly discharge every duty.

We can say of Mr. Rike that he has long been a citizen of this county, and has been engaged in farming and stock raising for several years. CHAPTER XVII CONTINUED.

This thought awoke me in an instant from my dreaming, and I spurred my horse furiously, glancing anxiously backward as I rode, but unable through that dense gloom to distinguish the form of my pursuer. Yet the fellow was coming, coming faster than any speed I could possibly conjure out of the weary black I bestrode, either by whip or spur. Closer and closer upon me came rushing down that pounding of iron hoofs on the hard path. Heavens! how like a very demon the man rode! As a trooper I could not withhold admiration from the reckless audacity with which the vengeful fellow bore down upon me. In spite of my utmost efforts it almost seemed as if we were standing still. Surely nothing less than hate, and a thirst for vengeance bitter as death, implacable as fate, could ride like that through the black night on the track of a hunted man!

I was able to trace dimly his outlines now as he rose on an eminence in my rear, his horse looming dark against the sky, like those giant steeds that snorted fire in my child's picture-books at home, and then, with increasingly louder thunder of hoofbeats, he came charging straight down toward me. In sheer desperation I glanced on either side, seeking some avenue of escape, but the high banks were unscalable; my sole remaining hope lay in a shot which should drop that crazed brute before he struck and crushed me. Riding my best, with all the practised skill of the service, I swung my body sideways, bracing myself firmly in the deep saddle, and took steady aim. The hammer came down with a dull, dead click, the revolver was chargeless, and with an exclamation of baffled rage I hurled the useless weapon full at the advancing brute. Almost at the instant we struck, my horse went down with the impetus, while over us both, as if shot from a cannon, plunged our pursuer, his horse turning a complete somersault, the rider falling so close that I was upon him almost as soon as he struck the ground.

A dip of the flying hoof had cut a shallow gash across my forehead, and my hair was wet with blood, yet bruised and half stunned as I was from the hard fall, my sole longing was to reach and throttle that madman who had ridden me down in such demon style.

"That's 'bout all I know, Cap, till I lit yers."

"You unchained devil!" I cried savagely, whirling him over upon his back, "I spared your life once tonight, but, by all the gods, I'll not do it again!"

"Gosh, Cap, is that you?" asked the voice of the other, feebly.

I started back, and lost my hold upon him.

"Bungay?" in an astonishment that nearly robbed me of utterance. "Good God, man! is this really you?"

"It's what's left 'o me," he answered solemnly, sitting up and feeling his head as if expecting to find it gone. "That was 'bout their worst ride I ever took."

"I should think it likely," I exclaimed, my anger rising again as I thought of it. "What, in Heaven's name, do you mean by riding down on me like that?"

"Holy Gee, Cap," he explained penitently, "ye don't go ter think I ever did it a purpose, do ye? Why, their gosh-durned old thing run away."

SANDERS

"Ran away?"

"Sure; I've bin a bangin' on ter ther mane o' thet critter fer nigh pon three mlie, an' a prayin' fer a feather bed ter light on. It's my last 'listment on ther cavalry, ye bet. I never seed none o' yer steam keers, but I reckon they don't go no faster ner thet blame boss. Gosh, Cap, ye ain't got no call fer ter git mad; I couldn't a stopped her with a yoke o' steers, durned if I cud. I sorter reckon I know now 'bout what Scott meant when he said, 'The turf the flyin' courser spurned,'—you bet this one did."

Jed rubbed his cheek as if it stung him, and I looked at him in the faint dawning light of day, and laughed. His peaked head and weazen face looked piteous enough, decorated as they were with the black loam through which he had ploughed; his coat was ripped from tall to collar, while one of his eyes was nearly closed where the bruised flesh had puffed up over it.

"It is a fearful strife, for man endowed with mortal life," he quoted mournfully.

"You're right," I assented. "No doubt you had the worst of it. But how came you here?"

"Why, I was a huntin' fer a boss thar et thet picket post whin ye scared up ther bunch, an' by some sort a fule luck I got holo' o' thet one, an' tuke arter ye, tho' in course I d'ndn't know who it was raised sich a rumpus, it was so durned dark. Ther whole blame Yankee caboodle tuke a bias et me, I reckon, leastwise they was most durn keardless with ther shootin' irons, an' I rode one feller over, knocked him plum off his hoss down ther bank, kerslush inter ther water, by thunder, an' then ther derned critter I was a straddlin' boited. Thet's 'bout all I know, Cap, till I lit yers."

There was no doubting the truth of his story, and I held out my hand. "You're a good man, Jed," I said heartily, "and so long as we are both alive, a few hard joits won't hurt us. Let's see if the horses are in any condition for service."

A single glance told the story. The black mare was browsing by the roadside, apparently little the worse for the shock, although a thin line of blood trickled slowly down her flank. But the big roan had not been so fortunate, and lay, head under, stone dead in the middle of the narrow road. Bungay gazed at the motionless figure mournfully.

"Woe worth the chase, woe worth the day, that cost thy life, my gallant gray," he recited solemnly, "only it's a roan, an' I ain't so durn sorry either."

Regrets of any nature, however, were vain, and as the little man positively refused to ride, I mounted again. He trudging along manfully beside me, the two of us set forth once more, our faces turned toward the red dawn.

CHAPTER XXI.

Reinforcements for Early.

"Come, Wayne, wake up, man!" Captain, I say, you must turn out of this."

I opened my eyes with a struggle and looked up. The golden glow of sunlight along the white wall told me the day must be already well advanced, and I saw the lieutenant of my troop, Colgate, bending over me, attired in service uniform.

"What is it, Jack?"

"We have been ordered north on forced march to join Early, and the command has already started. I have delayed calling you until the final moment, but knew you would never forgive being left behind."

Before he had finished I was upon the floor, dressing with that rapidity acquired by years of practice, my mind thoroughly aroused to the thought of active service once more.

"Was it the news I brought in yesterday, Colgate, which has stirred this up?" I questioned, hastily dipping into a basin of water.

"I imagine it must have been, sir," replied the Lieutenant, leaning back comfortably upon a cracker-box, which formed our solitary chair. "Things have been on the move ever since, and it certainly resembles an advance of some importance. Staff officers at it all night long, McDaniel's division off at daylight, while we go out ahead of Slayton's troops. Reeds was in beastly good humor when he brought the orders; that usually means a fight."

"Any artillery?"

"Sloan's and Roche's batteries are with us; did not learn who went out with McDaniel's. Longstreet has crossed the White Briar."

"Yes, I know," I said, drawing on the last of my equipments, and quickly glancing about to assure myself I had overlooked nothing likely to be of value. "All ready, Jack, and now for another 'dance of death.'"

Our regiment was drawn up in the square of the little town, and as we came forth into the glorious sunlight, the stentorian voice of the Colonel called them into column of fours. Staff officers, gray with dust from their all-night service, were riding madly along the curb, while at the rear of our men, just debouching from one of the side streets appeared the solid front of a division of infantry. We had barely time to swing into the saddles of the two horses awaiting us, and ride swiftly to the head of our command, when the short, stern orders rolled along the motionless line of troopers, and the long, silent column swung out to the northward, the feet of the horses raising a thick cloud of red dust which fairly enveloped us in its choking folds.

MID SCHOOL HOUSE

- SUGGESTIVE PROGRAM
1. Invocation—
 2. Song — "America" By School.
 3. Origin and Purpose of the Hogg Movement for Education in Texas — Superintendent or Principal of School.
 4. The Financial Value of Education — Selected Pupil of School.
 5. The Cultural Value of Education — Selected Pupil of School.
 6. Relation of Property Owner to Public Education—President or Secretary of School Board.
 7. How Parents May Help Improve the School—Short Talks by Visitors.

It is hereby recommended to superintendents, teachers and boards of school trustees that Friday, April 26, 1912, be set apart and observed as Hogg Education Day in Texas Public Schools. The purposes to be accomplished in observing the Day are two-fold: First, the dedication of this day throughout the State in an uniform effort to stimulate active, genuine, and aggressive interest of every community in behalf of its public school; second, the sympathetic enlargement and extension of public interest throughout the State in the improvement of all phases of education in Texas. These purposes are in keeping with the idea suggested by the illustrious character whose name is given to this day of educational endeavor, a suggestive program for which is given above.

As an encouragement and as a stimulus in legitimate educational effort and rivalry, the Educational Campaign Committee of the Hogg Organization offers to the pupil who prepares the best essay on "The Financial Value of Education" a prize of $100 in cash, and also to the pupil who prepares the best essay on "The Cultural Value of Education" a prize of $100 in cash; provided, this contest shall be limited to the pupils of such schools observing the Day and executing this program. For information governing the contest, see the city or the county superintendent of schools, to each of whom information will be furnished. With little effort, county and city superintendents should supplement the prizes herein offered by this committee by inducing merchants, lawyers, and other public-spirited citizens to offer local prizes for the best essay on each of the subjects mentioned.

Appropriate music or readings should be interspersed in the program, care being taken to devote the exercises to the main objects for which the day is set apart. Above all, teachers should see that the day or half-day, as may be the case, is made one of special interest to the parents, extending to them urgent invitations to be present. Where convenient, school rooms should be decorated and the Texas Flag or the United States Flag, or both, should be displayed upon the public school building or used in decorating the interior of the school house, and an exhibit of school work should be arranged in each school observing the Day for the inspection of parents and visitors. A proper observance of the Day will bring the school and home into closer sympathy and better understanding and will create a State-wide interest in our educational system, extending from the common public school up to and including the institutions of higher learning. In small schools, where the local authorities think it desirable, two or more of such schools should unite in appropriately observing the Day. It is believed that this day can and will be made an eventful one for the promotion of the cause of education in Texas.

It is respectfully urged that teachers and patrons study the purpose of the above organization and lend whatever assistance possible to stimulate higher education in and among the schools.

I shall be glad to hear from teachers and to know if they are going to carry out the above program.

Doubly Proven.

Haskell Readers Can No Longer Doubt the Evidence.

This grateful citizen testified long ago.

Told of quick relief—of lasting benefit.

The facts are now confirmed. Such testimony is complete—the evidence conclusive.

It forms convincing proof of merit.

J. R. Henson, 719 Indiana Ave. Wichita Falls, Texas, says: "I am quite free from pain and lameness in my back and also headaches and dizzy spells since I used Doan's Kidney Pills. Prior to that time I was in a bad way and found nothing that would relieve me of the dull, nagging pain across my kidneys. Mornings I felt depressed and devoid of energy and after sitting in a chair for awhile, I could hardly stand erect. Sharp twinges darted through me when I stooped. These troubles all disappeared after I used Doan's Kidney Pills and I cannot recommend them too highly." (Statement given December 10, 1910.)

Re-endorsement.

On December 27, 1911, Mr. Henson said: "I have had no occasion to use a kidney remedy since Doan's Kidney Pills cured me some years ago. The cure effected at that time has been permanent. You are at liberty to use my statement as heretofore."

Bad Break.

Stubb—What did that big watchman at the bank get fired for?

Penn—Why, a stranger came in and said he wanted to start something and the watchman threw him out.

Stubb—But I thought the bank wanted a man who could handle people who wanted to "start something."

Penn—Yes, but when they picked this chap out of the mud they found out he wanted to start a $10,000 account.

Requirements of Candidates.

Politics is the only occupation on earth that has been successfully followed without either ability or preparation. The door of public preferment has swung wide open to many a candidate who never read the Constitution and who knew no more about our statutes than he did of the laws of the Medes and Persians.

In fact, many a man in public life whose success exceeded that of his neighbors has found himself envied and discredited by his colleagues and constituents.

It has been said of many a foremost politician that "He didn't use his muscles fat, He didn't use his brains, But in the Legislature sat And tried to stop the trains."

But we are beginning to recognize that the government is a big business institution and those who would ride in the chariot of state must be able to do something more than chloroform the Constitution.
