

Fairly Heavy Voting Due In General Election Tuesday

Haskell County voters will ballot Tuesday, Nov. 8, in the final major election of the year, when they will register their choice of party nominees for offices ranging from Governor and U. S. Senator to precinct posts.

The Democratic column on the general election ballot lists nominees for all offices to be filled this year. The Republican and the Constitutional Party columns list only nominees for several state offices.

From all indications turnout is expected to be fairly heavy for an off presidential election year. Especially is the race between Democrat Waggoner Carr and Republican John Tower for United States Senator, creating considerable interest.

Also, voters will decide the fate of a whopping sixteen proposed (wordy) amendments to the State Constitution being submitted for approval or rejection.

Judge Jim Alvis and County Clerk Bill Reeves asks that all election judges bring or phone in results of the voting to the County Clerk's office as early as possible Tuesday evening.

Balloting in the general election Tuesday will be at all regular voting boxes in the county with the exception of Cobb (Box 13) which has been combined with the Paint Creek (Box 12). Polls will open at 8:00 a. m. and close at 7:00 p. m.

Voters in the four Haskell precincts will cast their ballots at the regular voting places in the courthouse used in the primary elections.

Courthouse offices will be closed election day.

Indians Lose To Hamlin 13-6; To Go Against Bulldogs Friday

Phillip Simpson paced the Hamlin eleven Friday night with 138 yards in 28 carries as they throttled the fighting Indians, 13 to 6, in District 5-AA play.

Haskell now is 0-3 in district play and Hamlin holds a 1-2 record.

The Pied Pipers combined a running and passing attack while shutting off the Haskell aerial charge for the win. Hamlin jumped into the lead with 4:55 left in the first period as Simpson climaxed a 77-yard drive with a 2-yard plunge with 3:55 left in the first quarter. Hamlin was penalized 5 yards before Doug Carlton could make the 1-point conversion.

The Indians roused to the occasion in the second quarter when they took the ball after Hamlin quick-kicked from their own 12 yard line. Haskell then marched 51 yards and scored on a 39-yard pass and run play from Tim Everett to end Ray Herren. Everett and Herren attempted to team up for the 2-point conversion but failed.

The Indians kept the war point on and threatened early in the third quarter when they drove to the Hamlin 12 but were held. The drive had started on their own 17.

With 7:45 left in the game Simpson returned a Haskell punt 78 yards for the final score.

ing of the game. The extra point try was blocked. Hamlin threatened in the final quarter when they drove to the Haskell 16 but lost the ball on a fumble.

Howard Perry was program chairman for the day and introduced Miss Diggs. The interesting review concerned the boyhood of Mr. Levinson and his eight brothers and one sister. Many of the incidents cited from the book by Miss Diggs reminded Rotarians of their early childhood and pointed out that life is much more interesting when there are more children in a family to share it.

President Bob Herren presided over the meeting; Rev. J. V. Patterson led the invocation and R. C. Couch led the group singing with Mrs. Henry Withers at the piano. Visitors noted at the meeting were Cleburne Huston of Stamford; Rod Ezell, of Rule; Manfred Reed, of Rochester; and student guests, Paul Heibert and Walter Felker.

Clay Smith of Monahans was a business visitor in Haskell the first of the week.

Alvy Couch left the latter part of last week for Lubbock where he has secured a position with a drug company.

Harvey of Seymour as Missionary and he will move to Haskell. A full representation of the churches was in attendance and great enthusiasm was manifested in all lines of the work.

As the brethren discussed the work and the Baptist outlook in Haskell County, our people gave liberally until nearly seven hundred dollars came on the board to spread the gospel in the county, and earnest prayer went up from all hearts for the prosperity of the work.

The cotton harvest began in this community last week and several farmers are defoliating so they will be ready to start in a couple of weeks.

There are several improvements being made around Sagerton. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Lewis are going right up with their new home on the spot where the Bob Laughlin home sat. Next door, Mr. and Mrs. Norvell Lehmann have purchased the P. E. Bush home which was damaged by fire a short while ago, and they are fixing it up to move into. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nienast are preparing to move in a two-bedroom house they bought and put it just south of their old home. The Delbert LeFevre home is about finished also. It is just north of the St. Paul's Lutheran Educational building on the farm-to-market road going to Rule. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Catrino Macias and his family have moved into the small house behind their home.

We are sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. Jack Plunk and family who moved to Rule recently. We are also sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hertel and family who moved to Stamford last week.

A SEASON TO ENJOY

Throughout the United States, fall is one of the most pleasant times of the year. It is the time of Indian Summer...a period of calm before the coming of winter. Fall is also the time of red tans and hunters. Thanks to state game laws, and the conservation efforts of many agencies, from the federal level down to the individual wood lot owner, there is plenty of game, and millions of acres of forests, plains, and mountains for hunters to roam.

The game and the beauty of the countryside will be with us in perpetuity. If hunters and recreationists will be content to enjoy, but not abuse the natural assets placed at their disposal. Courtesy, common sense, care and willingness to abide by the rules...don't be a game hog or a careless camper...will insure good hunting and a pleasant time for all.

The Shoe Fits Many Feet

When President Johnson recently prescribed "a strong dose of self-discipline" for the nation, the skeptics could hardly be blamed for wondering if he was referring to the behavior of Congress as well as the people. The spending record of Congress suggests anything but self-discipline.

It is a lack of discipline in government spending that is causing inflation. It is a lack of discipline in the enactment and enforcement of equitable laws that have led to virtual labor anarchy and strikes that cripple essential public services.

It is lack of discipline in public life that is responsible for the rise of a "get-elected-at-any-price-to-the-taxpayer" philosophy.

It will take more than superficial self-discipline to meet the disintegrating processes of inflation. It will take a return to first principles...a determination on the part of the people to stop asking government for handouts and a determination on the part of government to curb public spending that is beyond the ability of the taxpayer to pay. When talking about self-discipline, it will be found that the shoe fits many feet.

The Good Earth

By Mrs. B. F. Cobb

Tuesday evening Mrs. Emmet Wyche and I went to Munday, where Mrs. Wyche (Bernadine) gave a very interesting program on fall arrangements, to the Munday Garden Club. Mrs. Wyche is a national flower show judge and a member of the Haskell Garden Club. She explained the basic principals of flower arranging.

After the program was over, Mrs. Harold Partridge took Mrs. Wyche and I on a tour of her parents' (Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Griffith) yard. Mrs. Partridge is president of the Munday Garden Club. A long row of pecan trees borders the north side of the garden. A very large iris bed runs the full length of the border. Yellow and bronze chrysanthemums borders the east side of the iris bed. Next to the house on the north is a bed of geraniums running the full length of the house.

From the curb to the sidewalk running north and south across the lot are rows and rows of day lilies...150 varieties in all.

Purple liriope graces each side of the front sidewalk to the porch. Two tall cedars tower over the front porch.

The south yard is fall's beauty spot. Joseph's coat of two or three varieties blend in with ornamental pepper of several kinds. An Arizona cypress tree ringed with a planter of pink towers over the scene. Pink coccineum, bronze, white, yellow, pink and orchid chrysanthemums peep out from among a border of bush honeysuckle. Glorious daisies march along a white picket fence in the east yard. A very large carnation tus with balloon-like buds and blossoms like large starfish of maroon and brown, grows by the back porch.

A greenhouse of many different plants is Mrs. Griffith's pride and joy. Mr. Griffith grows color in parakeet birds, of blue, green and yellow. He has hundreds of these colorful birds. He also has a very large minnow pond to occupy his time.

A very large spreading pecan tree hanging with huge nuts shades a greenhouse where Mrs. Griffith stores her flowers through the winter. This tree is a seedling and the Griffiths planted a row of trees that produce the same large nuts.

After visiting the Griffith's yard, Mrs. Partridge took us on a tour of Munday gardens. Cushion mums were a blaze of color all over town. So thick were the blossoms on these plants one could hardly see any foliage. They range in colors of red, bronze, orchid, yellow and blends. Larger chrysanthemums were just beginning to open.

300 Register For Rochester Homecoming

Some 300 registered for the Rochester Homecoming which was held Saturday, Oct. 22.

In the business meeting, Mrs. Earlene Townsend was elected president. Homecoming was voted to be held every four years instead of the five years as it has previously been held. Tommy Michaels was elected vice president and Keele Acree was elected secretary-treasurer.

Special recognition was given to Mrs. Isla Corley for being the teacher at the Homecoming who had taught in the Rochester Public Schools the most years. Mrs. Ethel Ballard, being the earliest graduate at the homecoming, also received special recognition as she was presented a white mum. Mrs. Ballard was one of the first graduates to ever graduate from Rochester in 1911.

Widows Pay Under Social Security Can Start At 60

Many widows may be unaware of a change in the social security law and still think they have to wait until they become 62 to collect social security widow's benefits. This is the concern of R. R. Tuley, Jr., district manager of social security in Abilene.

Until the change in the law, effective September 1965, the widow of a man who had worked under social security could not qualify for monthly widow's benefits until she reached 62. Now, she can elect to have her payments start as early as her 60th birthday, but in smaller installments to take account of the longer time that benefits will be paid.

Tuley pointed out that generally women who choose to take these reduced benefits will collect about the same value in benefits over the years. He urged widows, who may have been waiting for their 62nd birthdays, to call or visit the social security office nearest their homes to find out how the age-60 benefits would work out in their particular cases. The social security office in Abilene is located at room 2321 in the Federal Building. Office hours are 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. Mondays through Fridays. In addition, the office is open from 5 p. m. until 9 p. m. on Tuesdays to afford persons who cannot come in during regular hours an opportunity to discuss social security matters with a representative.

PAINT CREEK... COMMUNITY NEWS

Farming in Paint Creek is still sowing grain and harvesting cotton. Most farmers have most of their sowing completed and many have not started their cotton but will in a few days. Scouts of Troop No. 48 spent the weekend at Aggeland Saturday and the trip was a lot of fun as well as educational. They left Saturday morning from the scoutmaster, Wallar Overton's home. Mrs. Gene Overton took some of them as far as Abilene where they met Bennie Young, and he took them on to College Station. The game was a sellout, so no "knothole" tickets for scouts were available. Mike Overton had called the scout executive in College Station and gotten the boys a job ushering at the game, so they got in the game free. They stayed in the Agriculture Pavilion (the horse barn to you old Aggies), and more exciting than the game to some of the boys was the football games they played there. The college was having a pony show in the Pavilion and the boys saw that, and also chickens and pens of animals all over the place. After the game they had a Hootenanny. They all took bed rolls and made beds on the Pavilion bleachers. Sunday morning they ate breakfast at the M.S.C., took a tour of the college, bought gifts for homefolks and left for home. They came by Waco and had dinner with Mr. Young's parents. They were having a turkey barbecue at the Baker Shoals for a road construction crew that was building a paved road for the neighborhood in appreciation of allowing them to store equipment and gravel in their lighted yards. The boys picked up huge acorns, rocks and stuff, and then bought persimmons to bring home. It was a wonderful trip for them and nobody cared that the Aggies lost the game except the scoutmaster. In fact, that David Dickie that made three touchdowns for Arkansas was Mrs. Bennie Young's cousin, and all the Dickies from Palestine were there for the game and visited with the Paint Creekers. Boys enjoying the weekend were Larry Cockrell, Glen Castleberry, Bill Lane, Lee Young, Dale Castleberry, Sam Powell, and adults Wallar Overton and Bennie Young.

Pinkerton Cemetery Assn. Being Organized

Those persons interested in forming a cemetery association for the purpose of beautifying the Pinkerton cemetery are asked to contact Mrs. G. F. Mullino, 1207 North Avenue E, Haskell, who will serve as secretary. Alton Richards of Rule will serve as chairman. Further details will be explained at the Rule Homecoming meeting, November 12. The cemetery is badly in need of working. Fire Marshal Travis Sell of Rule announced that he would send a truck to the cemetery and stand by while the grass and weeds were burned off. Just notify him when you are ready. Those persons who would like to donate to the Pinkerton Cemetery Association. Fund may send their contributions to the Farmers National Bank, in Rule. Former residents of Haskell and Pinkerton community, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Bruce, who now reside at Route 1, Garner, Texas, were unable to find the graves of loved ones in the cemetery and have contacted people who pledged their support towards the beautification of the Pinkerton Cemetery. W. S. Hayes of 4101 N. Magnolia, Lubbock, has stated he would assist with this work.

IF YOU STOP, YOU'LL STAY... THAT'S WHAT RULE MAYOR DID

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following article appeared in the September issue of "Connecting Rod," employe magazine of the Service Pipe Line Company. Haven't had to make a speech yet." His post as a community leader is not one of speech-making. It's keeping projects moving, for Rule is not a sleepy town. Many of the town's residents are oil people who are helpful, have experience, and want the town to grow. "Although there isn't oil within a stone's throw," said Worth, "we are in the center of several production areas. Consequently, there is an annual oil industry payroll here of about $350,000." Agricultural interests share in the town's major business activities. The combination of oil and farming generates diverse interests in community affairs and activities. "Because of varied needs," said the new mayor, "we are attempting to build a $100,000 community center. Plans call for a swimming pool, golf course, club house, recreation area and other facilities." Other civic challenges rode in on Worth's coat of arms with his election. Rule is not beset with community problems basically different from similar towns. "Low rent housing for our few low income families is a major need," recounted the SPLCoan. "Also, city equipment—our trucks, maintenance vehicles—will need replacement. There are questions each day. Streets, lights, sewers, water. Every city has these routine matters." Worth voices the sentiments of most of his constituents: "Our greatest asset is our people." Town Builds The people of Rule have worked hard to build the town. Recently completed school and athletic facilities, for example, are shared with pride by the residents of the Rule area. The school system is growing. Churches are prospering. Worth said, "And while the town is not expanding now as much as in the past ten years, we're holding our own. Investigating officers said the truck driven by Edwards left the highway and overturned on its side. "I took on the mayor's job because I was interested in the city," he said. "If the folks thought I could help make Rule a better community, I figured I should give it a try. There's no greater pleasure than participating in projects that succeed. I'm aiming for accomplishment." Where Worth's commitment to Rule ends, Dorothy's starts. She's been president of many of the city's organizations. To list just a few of her present responsibilities: president of her church women's organization; active in both the Haskell County Hospital Auxiliary, and PTA; is on the official board of the Methodist Church; "and serves as Rule's new complaint department," Dorothy said. She has relinquished many civic duties due to the pressures of being Rule's "first lady." "I used to voice my objections about holes in the streets, broken street lights, or other nuisances," Dorothy mused. "Now the ladies tell me about the same city problems." Worth smiled and added, "but we listen to everyone and pass on the comments to the city council." All of the mayor's family is involved in city business, including Green's 17-year-old daughter, Linda.

"Cotton Check-Off" Meeting Scheduled Friday

A very important and informative "Cotton Check-Off" meeting will be held in Seymour, at Mitchell's Cafe on Highway 82 at 10 a. m. Friday, November 4. All cotton producers in this area are urged to attend according to Dale Middlebrook, Haskell County Farm Bureau president. This meeting has been set up to better accommodate farmers from this county. Middlebrook said. Other meetings this week across the state would require farmers from this area to travel much farther, Middlebrook added.

Knox Citian Loses Arm In Smashup Monday

Terry Marcus Edwards, 18, of Knox City, was taken to the Wichita General Hospital Monday after losing an arm in a one-vehicle accident near Knox City about 7:00 a. m. Monday. He was driver of a Gandy milk truck which overturned about 6:10 of a mile east of Knox City on State Highway 222. He suffered head injuries and his left arm was severed at the shoulder, hospital officials said. Edwards was taken to the Wichita Falls hospital in a Smith Funeral Home ambulance. "And while the town is not expanding now as much as in the past ten years, we're holding our own. Investigating officers said the truck driven by Edwards left the highway and overturned on its side. "I took on the mayor's job because I was interested in the city," he said. "If the folks thought I could help make Rule a better community, I figured I should give it a try. Cooper Cougars Eke Out Win Over Haskell 'B'

The Cooper Cougars eked by the Haskell B team 8-0 in a well-fought ball game.

Haskell started on their own 35-yard line and moved down to the 4-yard line before fumbling away to Cooper. Key runs by Hershel Thompson and B. J. Stillwell set up this 61-yard drive.

Cooper took the ball in the second quarter and moved 70 yards in 10 plays for the score. Cougar quarterback lofted a 16-yard pass for the tally and sweep around right end gave the mite two extra points.

The second half was rough and rugged. Haskell was plagued with fumble-itis and just could not get moving, but they held Cooper to only four first downs the last two quarters. Standouts were Terry Chapman, Tickey Barnes and Sam Stone.

A reminder of SENATOR TOWER'S service in Washington for TEXAS FARMERS

HERE ARE A FEW OF THE MAJOR PROJECTS SENATOR TOWER HAS UNDERTAKEN FOR YOU:

He supported soil and water conservation projects so necessary to the future of agriculture in Texas.

He sponsored six key bills on water resources, conversion of brackish water, desalination, and rural water systems. Five of the six already have become law and are benefiting Texas farmers.

He served as a leader in the action against suspension of the investment tax credit which would amount to $100 million tax increase on American agriculture.

He supported necessary subsidies to help offset the artificial economic conditions created by too much government in agriculture.

He flatly rejected the contentions of some federal bureaucrats that farmers and ranchers are somehow responsible for the inflation really caused by federal deficit spending. He has fought hard against restricting or freezing farm prices.

He sponsored legislation making federal crop insurance available in high risk areas.

He sponsored legislation to allow states to regulate recruitment of foreign agricultural workers needed to harvest crops.

He has supported the REA's position in working to maintain status independent of Federal Power Commission control. He also cooperated with the REA's efforts in supporting federal bans for rural community water systems.

YOU COME FIRST WITH SENATOR JOHN TOWER Senator Tower serves you as a STRONG FRIEND OF THE LAW AND OF CIVIL ORDER. Senator Tower serves you as an effective FIGHTER AGAINST INFLATION AND SKY-ROCKETING PRICES.

Senator Tower serves you as a LEADER IN THE PURSUIT OF VICTORY IN VIET NAM.

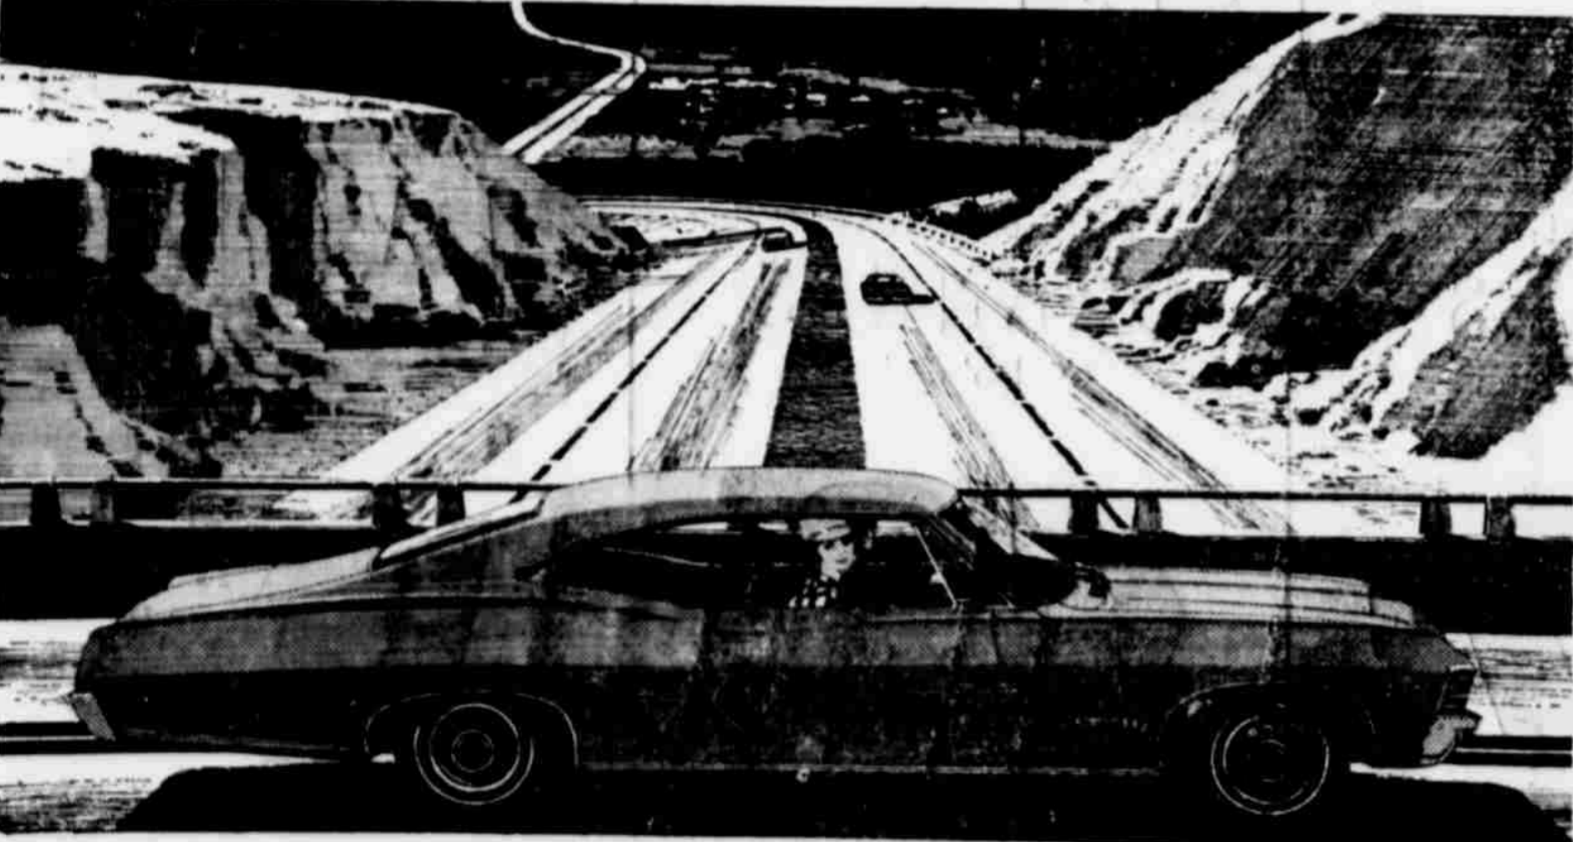

YOU CAN COUNT ON THINGS GETTING DONE WITH SENATOR JOHN TOWER ON THE JOB.

He has earned National Congressional seniority and gained experience no new Senator could replace. With John Tower in the Senate, Texas has the distinct advantage of having its voice heard in the highest leadership councils of both parties.

KEEP TOWER U.S. SENATOR HE'S DOING A GOOD JOB FOR TEXAS

Rochester Rips Rule 32-0
 The Rochester Steers zeroed-in on the Rule Bobcats, 32-0, Friday night to mark up a 3-1 District 6-B tally thus far this season.

The scoring spree started in the second period with Quarterback John Hudspeth punching over from the one, and Fullback Olson LeFevre running for the bonus.

LeFevre scored from five yards out in the third period and Halfback Sid Smart ran the extra points.

Hudspeth tallied once more in the last period with a 58-yard run and LeFevre picked up the double points.

Tackle Tony Hollingsworth set up the final score when he returned an intercepted pass about 50 yards to the 5-yard line and LeFevre went across in 2 tries. Phil Tanner scored the extra points.

Attend State Convention At Mineral Wells

Faye Jettton, Fay Fowler and Leona Carter attended the State Licensed Vocational Nurses Convention at Mineral Wells, October 27-30th at the Baker Hotel.

Division 72 there, hosted the convention, the first State

Nurses Convention ever held was at Mineral Wells. Theme of the convention was "The LVNS Stepping Stones to Progress In This Changing World."

On the first day of the convention there were 44 divisional presidents registered for the Presidents' Council. Others came Friday and Saturday from all parts of Texas.

Governor Connally proclaimed the last week in October as State Licensed Vocational Nurses Week in Texas. There were interesting speakers and good programs well attended by those not in the president's council and business meetings.

Friday evening there was a two-hour tour of Possum Kingdom Dam and to the U. S. Army Primary Helicopter school, Fort Wolters Air Show.

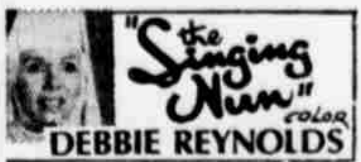

The Saturday night banquet was well attended and "It was a very interesting convention," the local group attending reported.

Pledging Alpha Psi Alpha social club is Patricia Franklin. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Henson, 1402 North 6th, Abilene. She is majoring in business education and minor in speech. Patricia graduated from Dunbar High School in Munday, in 1965.

Parallel Terracing Becoming Very Popular With Today's Farmers

"Texans built enough of the new, evenly spaced parallel terraces last year to reach from Texas to Maine—more than 2,200 miles," according to H. N. Smith, State Conservationist, Soil Conservation Service, Temple. "In fact, nearly half the terraces built in Texas were the new kind."

Cooperators with local conservation district built more than 5,000 miles of all kinds of cropland terraces last year. 2,265 miles were parallel, as compared to 984 miles in 1965. 440 in 1964. Haskell Countians built over 102 miles of terraces last year with over 36 miles being parallel terraces.

"This isn't just another Texas brag," Smith continued. "It just shows how popular these modern terraces are becoming. The amount built has doubled two years in a row."

"Terraces spaced an even number of rows apart and without point rows are called parallel terraces," P. M. Price, Texas State Conservation Engineer, SCS, pointed out. "They really save time and money for the farmer and they do a good job of conserving soil and water."

Designing, laying out and building this kind of terrace system, however, is not an easy job. Price said it takes more engineering time to design and stake a parallel system. They may cost more to build. Shorter terraces with more grassed waterways may be needed. More cuts and fills are used.

"Our engineers are willing to take extra time to figure out parallel terraces," Price said. "Some short cuts have been developed and we're getting more efficient in working out these modern conservation systems."

Price thinks that in another year or two, 50 to 75 per cent of the terraces built in Texas will be the parallel type.

Landowners and operators like them—from city farmers to soil and water conservation district supervisors. They are easy to plow and they save time and fuel. They also eliminate or greatly reduce short rows of uneven length—point rows. Some landowners say they would not have built terraces if SCS had not worked out these which are much easier to farm.

"Cost-share from the Great Plains Conservation Program and the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service has helped many farmers build these terraces. Technical help from SCS and loans from the Farmers Home Administration have also helped get this job done," according to J. C. Yearly, local SCS Conservationist.

Early Eating Habits Are Very Important

Many impressions children have about foods are established during the elementary school years. Such impressions can develop into strong likes and dislikes that may mean a child will avoid the most nutritious foods.

It is important for parents to encourage positive attitudes toward foods and good eating habits, says Mrs. Barbara Elliott, Haskell County Home Demonstration Agent.

Research shows that the diets of many school children lack the essential nutrients—calcium, ascorbic acid and vitamin A. This deficiency can become more serious as the child grows older because he tends to eat less of the food he needs.

To correct or avoid this nutritional deficiency, parents should provide adequate amounts of milk, citrus fruits and dark green or deep yellow or orange vegetables in each day's meal pattern.

Parents reinforce good eating habits by setting a good example, Mrs. Elliott notes. Children hardly see the importance of eating a good meal when adults don't. Since breakfast is the most important meal of the day, the family should eat one-fourth to one-third of the daily food needs at this meal.

Children often develop positive attitudes toward the right foods when meal time is a pleasant experience. Interesting non-controversial conversation keeps mealtime leisurely and pleasant. Having a set time for each meal is another factor that helps to create the proper attitude toward good nutrition.

Persons who wish to check their social security records can obtain a post card at the social security office for that purpose.

Junior Girl Scouts To Help Get Out Vote

The Junior Girl Scouts of Troop 464 and 465, Haskell, are learning more about being useful citizens.

One project they have selected is to help adults get people to vote.

On Tuesday, November 8th, election day, they will ring bells at 4:00 o'clock as a reminder. Also they plan to make telephone calls to their neighbors. The girls expressed the following views as to reasons for voting:

- 1. You vote for your freedom. 2. Select a Senator to represent you. 3. Because we have the freedom to vote we should use it. 4. When you vote you become a part of your town, state and country. 5. A person expresses how he feels. 6. If you pay your taxes you should vote as to how the money should be spent.

VOTE FOR NOS. 1 & 7 PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

Proposed Constitutional Amendment Number Seven will appear on the November 8, 1966, ballot as follows:

FOR "repealing the poll tax as a requirement for voting" AGAINST "repealing the poll tax as a requirement for voting."

This proposed amendment is certain to cause a great deal of confusion unless voters understand that voter registration is also an integral part of the amendment. Actually, the outcome of the vote on this amendment will likely decide whether Texas will have annual voter registration, permanent voter registration, or some other system of voter registration.

A majority vote FOR "repealing the poll tax as a requirement for voting" would require annual registration of voters without payment of a fee. A majority vote AGAINST "repealing the poll tax as a requirement for voting" would open the door for some future legislature to repeal the registration provisions of our election laws and require a system of permanent registration.

Since the poll tax as a registration requirement is now dead due to federal court decisions, the only real issue is whether voter registration should be on an annual basis or permanent. Those who favor a system of annual voter registration believe the system is the best protection against fraud.

Those who favor a system of permanent voter registration believe that this system would be more in keeping with the national trend toward liberalizing voting requirements.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment Number One which will appear on the November 8, 1966, ballot pertains to equitable use of farm and ranch land near metropolitan areas and is of vital importance to the farmers and ranchers of Texas. Naturally, any legislation pertaining to the financial future of farm and ranch land bears direct future costs of food and fiber, so all consumers have a vested interest in the proposed amendment.

The obvious objective of this proposed amendment is to provide some measure of tax relief to bona fide farmers and ranchers who are caught in the path of urban sprawl with its sky-high speculative values and accompanying sky-high taxes.

Amendment Number One will appear on the ballot as follows: "FOR the Constitutional Amendment to provide that land owned by natural persons designated for agricultural use shall be assessed for all tax purposes on the consideration of only those factors relative to such agricultural use." "AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment to provide that land owned by natural persons designated for agricultural use shall be assessed for all tax purposes on the consideration of only those factors relative to such agricultural use."

HASKELL COUNTY FARM BUREAU Haskell, Texas

Pol. Adv. paid for by Haskell County Farm Bureau Dale Middlebrook, President

TEXAS IS ON THE MOVE!

In virtually every field of endeavor, our state has made dramatic progress the past four years under the strong leadership of Governor John Connally. His administration's bold, yet sensible programs have helped provide new opportunity and a better way of life for all our people.

IMPROVED EDUCATION — Since 1963, state investment in higher education has doubled, and faculty salaries have increased 40%. State support of local public schools have increased 44% in four years, including a $100 million teacher pay raise enacted in 1965. Technical and vocational training programs have been vastly increased; junior college enrollment doubled during the current biennium. Special literacy programs for migrant workers and their children have been expanded. A college student loan fund of $85 million has been established. And a special Governor's Committee on Public Education currently is studying all facets of elementary and secondary education.

WATER RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT — Long range planning and development have been given top priority. $100 million in bonds have been issued for development of needed storage facilities; authorization has been granted to expand this program to $200 million for the next two years.

CONCERN FOR THE AGED AND NEEDY — Since 1963, assistance to our elderly has been increased 27%. The Governor's Committee on Aging is continually working for the benefit of our senior citizens.

OUTDOOR RECREATION — More than $2 million has been invested in improving ten of our most attractive state parks during the past two years to provide additional recreational facilities.

INDUSTRIAL EXPANSION — A record 855 new industrial plants have been established the past three years, moving Texas into second place in the nation in industrial expansion.

Last year, more than 23,000 new jobs were created in manufacturing alone — the best year ever for the Texas labor force.

INCREASED TOURISM — More than 12 million tourists visited Texas last year, adding more than $900 million to the state's economy, and creating 140,000 new jobs. The state's tourist advertising program has been sharply expanded.

MENTAL HEALTH AND MENTAL RETARDATION — New emphasis on prevention of mental illness and mental retardation has been achieved through establishment of new community centers, replacing the former practice of "warehousing" patients. Investment for research into causes of mental disorders has doubled the past four years.

BETTER HIGHWAY TRANSPORTATION — Texas has more farm-to-market roads than any other state — more than 35,134 miles. We lead the nation in construction of interstate highways, at a cost 40% below the nation's average.

COMBAT AIR AND WATER POLLUTION — New legislation for public health, "The Clear Air Act of Texas," provides state action to combat air pollution. Similar vigorous action has been initiated to control pollution of Texas streams, bays and estuaries.

NEW CULTURAL GROWTH — The Fine Arts Commission was established in 1965 to nurture the cultural enrichment of Texas. The state's cultural heritage will be preserved and portrayed in the state's pavilion at HemisFair '68 in San Antonio.

BUSINESSLIKE ADMINISTRATION — With unprecedented teamwork, our state government has operated responsibly and efficiently. The Legislature has finished its work on time in each session. Following a pay-as-you-go policy, we have maintained a healthy surplus in the general revenue fund without curtailing essential services.

HEALTHY, GROWING ECONOMY — Business activity rose 11% last year, as Texas continues one of the brightest growth areas. Employment and income are at an all-time high, unemployment at an all-time low. Despite increased responsibilities, our state government costs only $168.78 a year per citizen, fourth lowest in the nation. No broad-based tax has been enacted the past four years. Texas still has no personal income or payroll tax, no corporate income tax, and is one of few remaining states with a limited sales tax of 2%.
