BANKS LARGEST LENDERS TO TEXAS FARMERS

Texas banks were serving farms and ranches with more credit and other financial services than any other lenders at the beginning of this year, according to Walter F. Johnson, president, Texas Bankers Association, and president, First National Bank, Abilene.

During 1965, Texas banks maintained their leadership in agricultural credit services.

Based on the 25th annual farm and ranch lending summary of the Agricultural Committee of The American Bankers Association, Mr. Johnson reported that at the beginning of 1966, Texas banks were helping farmers and ranchers with $708 million in loans, 7 per cent more than a year previous. This total included $591 million in production loans and $117 million in farm and ranch mortgages. At the same time, $521 million in farm and ranch loans was held by life insurance companies; $375 million by the Federal Land Banks; $159 million by Production Credit Associations; and $88 million in non-real estate loans, plus $56 million in real estate loans by the Farmers Home Administration. About 71 per cent of the production credit extended by lending institutions to Texas farmers and ranchers came from banks.

Mr. Johnson said that "bankers in Texas are conscious of the large capital investments required in agriculture today and are making a concerted effort through improved lending programs to meet these changing credit demands of the state's farmers and ranchers.

The increased use of credit by farmers and ranchers, according to Mr. Johnson, has been accompanied by a substantial gain in the total assets of farm and ranch families. Therefore, in the aggregate, the equity position of farmers and ranchers contrary to public opinion, is being maintained at a satisfactory level. Nationally, farm and ranch families have $212 billion of their own funds invested in agriculture. This represents 84 per cent of the total capital requirements of farmers and ranchers.

Mr. Johnson stressed the importance of farmers, ranchers and bankers working closely together to improve farm and ranch financial arrangements. He reported that nearly 89 per cent of the banks in Texas were extending credit to farm people.

CAN'T DODGE INFLATION

According to news reports, at least one of the principal blocks to the settlement of the airline machinists' strike was the union demand for a cost-of-living escalator clause in a wage contract. As the machinists put it, the purpose of the clause is "to protect purchasing power." In other words, the union expected the value of the dollar to continue to decline. Thus, in effect, the threat of increased inflation caused the disruption of air travel. The irony is that no group can insulate itself against the sweeping tide of inflation.

If government fiscal policies persist in driving down the value of money, there is no such thing as a privileged class of citizens that can remain secure, while others suffer. In the meantime, government spending for war and the welfare state continues upward.

Seeking protection against inflation through crippling strikes is a futile gesture...sort of like trying to pinch a piece of quicksilver between your fingers. In the best interests of the country, all unions should join in a resolve to urge the curbing of non-essential government spending. That is the only answer to inflation.

BREACH IN THE WALL!

Sweden is often pointed to as the showplace of socialism. With this in mind, one would suppose that the land in Sweden would be predominantly publicly owned. But of Sweden's 112 million acres of land, only 25 per cent is owned by the government, while the remaining 75 per cent is held by private owners. By contrast, in the United States, supposedly the stronghold of capitalism, free enterprise and private property ownership, 39 per cent of the nation's 2,300 million acres of land is owned and controlled by federal, state and local governments.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Payne spent the week in Dallas, where they attended the second annual Southwestern Gift Show, held in the Baker Hotel. While there Mr. and Mrs. Payne purchased the holiday stock of gift wares for Payne Drug Co.

With many a shout of happiness, our ex-students left, or soon will leave, for various colleges. Several of the Seniors of '36 have gone to Texas Tech, Lubbock, including Tom Clifton, Sue Hood, Geraldine Norris, George Fouts, Harvey Simmons, Bill Reeves and Wallace Stark. Geraldine Fouts, Helen Baillard and Blanche Davis are to attend North Texas State Teachers College at Denton. R. C. Couch, Jr., is attending A&M at College Station. Minnie Ann Meyer will study in the University of Wichita at Wichita, Kansas. Jack Kimbrough will enter A&M. Gladys Fouts has entered H-SU, Abilene. Mrs. R. L. Lemmons and daughter, Frankie Doris, accompanied by Miss Ruth Welch, made a trip to Abilene Wednesday.

After two weeks of intensive training and work-outs, the Haskell Indians will open the 1936 football season on Friday, September 23rd, when they meet the Aspermont team in the first game for the locals.

40 YEARS AGO
 (September 16, 1926)
 The 1926-1927 term of Haskell Schools opened Monday morning. The attendance is much higher this year than ever before which is evidence we are going to have the best term in the history of the Haskell schools, Supt. H. D. Neff said.

R. L. Martin, living near the eastern section of the city limits, brought a June corn stalk to town and left it at the McCollum, Ellis & Couch store. The stalk measured 12 feet and 4 inches in height. Mr. Martin says he has several acres planted to June corn on the Wheatley and the Jim Fouts farm and it is making good.

In the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Couch last Sunday, Mesdames J. A. Couch and R. C. Couch entertained a number of the Couch relatives with a delicious and beautiful noon-day luncheon. On this special gathering Mrs. J. A. Couch, of Abilene, was present, surrounded by her four sons and one daughter and their families. These were Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Couch and daughter, Mildred Pope, of Weslaco; Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Couch, of Aspermont; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Musser and daughter, Martha, of Abilene, and the two sons in Haskell and their families.

H. O. Furrh, of Weinert Rt. 1, was in the city Saturday.

R. C. Montgomery, president of the Farmers State Bank of this city, who with Mrs. Montgomery, spent their vacation in Colorado, arrived home Tuesday of last week.

Opening of the new Haskell National Bank building on next Saturday afternoon at 4:30 will mark the greatest advancement in the history of the banking business in Haskell and the realization of the fondest dreams of the officers and directors of this popular institution. The bank occupies the site of their old building on the northwest corner of the courthouse square; the 35x80 foot building is constructed of native limestone rock trimmed in cut stone. Offices will be on the second floor.

60 YEARS AGO
 (September 22, 1906)

W. F. Wyatt, of the Sagerton community, was in town Wednesday and we learned from him that the new gin at Sagerton, which is first class in all particulars, started up Tuesday and ginned four bales which were purchased by the Sagerton Trading Co., at 9 cents. Mr. Watts says there is no doubt that the big dam will be built and an artificial lake made which will give the town an ample water supply.

Contractor Wyche has the framework of the Farmers' Union warehouse up and will push the building to early completion.

The revival meeting, which has been in progress in Haskell for the past ten days by Evangelist J. L. Haddock of the Christian Church, has been well attended and has developed a good deal of interest.

Mr. H. C. Buie has just returned from a prospecting tour to New Mexico.

Messrs. D. Edgar and son opened their new store to the public today and exhibit a large and choice stock of dry-goods, clothing and ladies' and gentlemen's furnishings. R. P. Moore, C. C. Birdwhistell, A. S. Bullock, Mrs. Carrie Williams and Miss Bertha Trby will be in attendance on opening day.

W. J. Evers is the name of Haskell's new saddle, harness and shoe shop man, north side of the square.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Scott, September 21, a daughter.

Mr. J. C. Holt brought a bale of cotton to the gin Thursday.

Mr. J. T. Strickland, general manager for the Haskell Light, Ice and Water Company, said that work had commenced on the erection of the electric light plant but that it would require about a month to get the plant in operation. The building is located near the railroad, just north of the Farmer's Union warehouse.

Mrs. John Couch and Mrs. Booth English spent the week with friends at Monday.

Boosters Name Committees For Mom, Dad Night

Members of the Booster club heard a scouting report by Coach Sonny Everett; a detail report was given by Coach Anderson on his Junior High team; Coach McWilliams reported on the freshman team; Coach Bennett, on the "B" team and Coach Everett discussed last week's "A" team game with Clyde at the Monday night meeting of the Booster Club.

With Andy Anderson, president, presiding, the following committees were appointed: For "Mom's" night, Herman Josselet, Jack McAdoo and Bill Skeen and for "Dad's" night, Carolyn Everett, Joan Dulaney and Joy Chapman.

A film of the game with Clyde was reviewed and highlights of the Southwest Conference film was shown of last year's games. The film was in color and sound.

Boosters discussed taking the "B" and freshmen players to the "A" team's games. Anyone having extra space in their car should call president, Andy Anderson or Harold Spain so that rides for these boys may be secured. If you do find you have extra room and do not have time to call, please go by Woody's and pick-up some boys and take them to the game.

Restless children add to driver distraction, points out Liberty Mutual Insurance Companies. Games and other amusements, especially designed for car travel, are suggested by weekend trip to keep the kids quietly under the seatbelts.

The Good Earth

I am writing this from Seminole as I wait to see if my father must undergo surgery. He has more tests to run at Lubbock.

Many in Haskell know James and Mary Jo Kennedy, my brother and sister-in-law. I am at their home here in Seminole as I write this column. Their yard is a gardener's dream.

A concrete block fence offers protection from wind and dogs. It also enhances the beauty of the yard. A patio and carport joins the house in the back. A round-shaped flower bed accommodates a fashion rose on the patio. Photinia, anemone, roses, lantana and zinnias make a pleasing picture against the back wall.

Chinese elm, Arizona cypress, cherry trees, peach trees and a weeping willow are scattered at random throughout the backyard. The cypress are small but growing fast. The elm affords shade for the picnic table and barbecue pit.

Chinese elm, apricot, cherry and pear trees make a cool retreat of the front yard. The lawn is a dark green carpet. A row of wax leaf ligustrum marches across the front forming a screen for the entrance. Tall Poplar tower above the house on the north.

Photinia, pyracantha and roses make a frame of the house in front. Cannas lend their charm to the picture also.

As this is my father's 82nd birthday, Mary Jo and I went to town for a few moments to get a present. On the way back we drove through several different areas of Seminole. The beauty of plants and flowers almost took my breath away. Never have I seen so many pyracantha. Pampas grass has more plumes here than I've ever seen on this plant before. Dahlias, both the tall and bedding type, in a rainbow of colors, are the prettiest I've seen in years. These, too, seem to be in the majority of yards. This town reminds me of California. Highly colored red berry enhances many yards throughout town.

Tall, graceful Poplar, large stately cottonwood, catalpa with large green leaves and Chinese elm turn Seminole into a garden paradise. Purple asters grow wild in every vacant lot in town which we gardeners of Haskell struggle to get asters to grow. There is also a wild grass pink that would be beautiful in any yard. Roses grace many yards here. The bushes are covered with blossoms. The foliage is dark green and luxuriant.

As I conclude this column, they have postponed my father's surgery for at least a couple of weeks.

Paint Creek Pirates Pop Greyhounds 32-20

Paint Creek's Pirates took a 32 to 20 scoring victory over the Strawn Greyhounds Friday night at Strawn, tallying three touchdowns in the opening half of play.

The Pirates scored in the opening quarter when Larry Walton took a 24-yard pass from Jimmy Cockrell and reached pay dirt. Bob Earl intercepted a Strawn pitchout for the second score and Jimmy Ballard ran 45 yards for the third Paint Creek tally. Ballard turned in a 74-yard kickoff return during the second half for the fourth touchdown. Strawn's first tally came during the third quarter on a 40-yard pass from Larry Kueck to Kirt Hinkson.

FACTS ABOUT MEDICARE

Q—What is a "spell of illness?"

A—A "spell of illness" begins when you enter the hospital and ends after you have been out of the hospital (or out of a nursing home) for 60 consecutive days.

Q—Do I have to go direct from the hospital to the nursing home to qualify for payment of the extended care costs? Suppose I was discharged and went home, but shortly found that I needed more care than I could be given at home?

A—The cost of your care in the extended care facility would be covered if you were admitted within 14 days after leaving the hospital. And if you should leave the nursing home before you had used all of the days of care for which you were eligible, and later found that you had to return, the additional days up to the limit for that spell of sickness would be covered, providing you returned within 14 days.

Q—Will most nursing homes qualify as "extended care facilities?"

A—An estimated 6,000 existing nursing homes may meet the conditions required to qualify for participation by January 1, 1967, when payment for post-hospital extended care is scheduled to begin.

A qualified post-hospital extended care facility could be an institution such as a skilled nursing home, or it could be a ward or wing of a hospital, or even a part of an old-age home. It will also be required in almost every case to have an agreement with a hospital for the transfer of patients and the interchange of medical records. It would also be required to have round-the-clock nursing services with at least one registered nurse employed full-time and a physician available to handle emergencies and will have to meet certain other requirements, including those which would provide safeguards for the health and safety of patients. Patients would also have to be under the care of a physician.

"Fresh" Is The Key Guide In Shopping For Produce Says County H. D. Agent

"Fresh" is the key guide to use as you shop for produce.

Quality is at the highest and prices are at the lowest during the peak of production. The secret of smart shopping is to buy vegetables that look fresh, and then take good care of them, says Mrs. Barbara M. Elliott, County Home Demonstration Agent.

The refrigerator is the best place to store fresh vegetables. The shorter the time between market basket and your refrigerator, the better quality vegetables you can serve to your family.

Besides produce, food shoppers have a wide variety of choices when shopping the frozen foods department for concentrated fruit drinks. Your choices range from lemonade to fruit drinks or punch to fruit juices.

If you select juices, you have only juice or juices and very fine pulp. There's no water added. The label will indicate if sugar has been added. Cocktails and nectars are usually mixtures of juices and pulps with water and in some instances sugar and seasonings.

Fruit drinks may be artificially flavored and contain none of the natural fruit. Others may contain some fruit juice. Fruit punch is a mixture of juices. The combination of juices is shown on the label with the one named first in the greatest amount.

Instant powdered drinks and concentrates contain fruit or imitation flavor, fruit acid and added color. Some are packed with sugar, and you add water.

J. E. Solomon Honored On 94th Birthday

Mr. John E. Solomon, a former resident of Haskell for over half a century, was the honor guest at a dinner party last Saturday evening in the home of Mrs. J. D. Turpen of Denton, Texas, a daughter with whom Mr. Solomon has been living for several years. Some thirty-five or forty friends and relatives were guests for the dinner or called during the evening.

Table games were enjoyed during the evening. Some of the relatives present were: Mr. and Mrs. Hilmer Klein, New Braunfels; Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Feuge and son, Max, of San Angelo; Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Busby and children, Rodney, Neta Carol, Newana and John Robert of Seymour; Miss Lily Solomon, of Gainesville; Miss Myra Russell, of Seymour; the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Turpen and Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Cunningham, of Denton.

Mr. Solomon was the recipient of many practical and beautiful gifts which he enjoyed unwrapping and exhibiting during the evening. Despite his having almost reached the century mark in age, Mr. Solomon is still young in spirit and enjoying comparatively good health. With the aid of his trusty cane, he still visits the neighbors in the block in his daily walks and has even planted a small vegetable garden in a neighboring lot. He delights in demonstrating the okra and tomatoes as well as blackeyed peas which he grew. In spite of his many years of living in town, he says he is still a farmer at heart and enjoys working the ground and seeing things grow.

He often talks about his good friends in Haskell and Haskell county where he lived for so long and wishes he could go back to see them more often.

Young People Should Have Balanced Diet

There would be fewer food problems among teenagers if more young people realized that well-balanced diets contribute to shiny hair, clear skin, good posture and correct weight, says Mrs. Barbara M. Elliott, County Home Demonstration Agent.

She points out that research shows that six out of 10 teenage girls and four out of 10 teenage boys in the United States have diets lacking calcium, ascorbic acid (vitamin C) and vitamin A. Teens' eating habits are responsible for this deficiency. Many of these young people skip breakfast, ignore milk or don't get enough of it, try fad dieting, and eat snacks low in calcium, ascorbic acid and vitamin A.

Parents and friends influence what teenagers eat, Mrs. Elliott points out. If teenage leaders choose nutritious snacks, the rest of the gang eat better. And at group get-togethers, parents can encourage teenagers to serve fruit juices and other foods high in essential nutrients.

Young people admire vigorous, popular people and wish to be like them. But all too often, teenagers don't realize that such persons maintain a well-balanced diet.

Parents have a major role in teaching pre-teens and teenagers which foods are rich in nutrients essential for good health and vitality and those foods which provide only empty calories, Mrs. Elliott adds.

NEW LOOK! Here's the brand new '67 Chevy pickup! Strikingly new in styling, its trim appearance puts many cars to shame. And tough new body sheet metal resists rust better. New all-steel pickup box provides full-depth double-wall side panels and tailgate. And the attractive new color-keyed cab interior is roomier. Also, there's better visibility plus many added safety features. The new '67 Chevy pickup looks so good and is built so well you can use it for almost anything!

1967 Vehicle Inspection Is Now Underway Colonel Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, announced that the 1967 vehicle inspection period has begun. Garrison said that the new inspection period began September 1 and will end on April 15, 1967, as prescribed by the Public Safety Commission. The inspection period is the same as in previous years. "This means that between now and April 15, 1967, each of the five and one-half million Texas registered vehicles will have to secure the new green and white 1967 inspection sticker from one of the 5,500 official inspection stations," he said. Garrison pointed out that Texas inspection stations can be identified by the official vehicle inspection station sign displayed at each station. Garrison suggested that if motorists have vehicles inspected during the routine visits to garages for ordinary maintenance, the necessity of having to wait in line at a later date for an inspection will be eliminated. In announcing the new inspection period, the Public Safety Director pointed out that vehicle defects contributing to traffic accidents in Texas during 1965 were the fewest yet experienced since the inspection program began in 1951.

Teenager Has Become Unusually Adept At Finding Paying Jobs

The American teenager has become unusually adept at finding paying jobs, says Mrs. Wanda Meyer, home management specialist at Texas A&M University.

The U. S. Labor Department says that one out of two young people between the ages of 16 and 21 are formally employed in the work force.

The number of informal work situations teenagers can find, however, raises this ratio much higher. As an illustration, there are more than a million teenage baby sitters, according to the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

"Project Talent," a nationwide survey of youth's capabilities, by the University of Pittsburgh, has made some interesting discoveries.

For example, fewer than one in ten high school students depends entirely on an allowance for regular spending money. But one in four high school boys earns all his spending money with a regular job.

Many more earn money on a regular basis doing neighborhood and community chores, while most youngsters depend on some combination of the three—family help, chore money and job money—to meet their spending requirements.

Teenagers find a wide variety of jobs to do, ranging from camp counselors and lifeguards to waitresses, office helpers and sales clerks. Most employers find them diligent and hard-working. In fact, many hold down the same job summer after summer.

The fact that teenagers are successful in their job-seeking is shown by these projections from employment officials: By 1970, teenagers are expected to earn $21 billion, an increase from $10 billion in 1960.

WHY I SHOULD BELONG TO MY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Active membership in my Chamber of Commerce carries with it a sense of accomplishment and inner satisfaction from the knowledge that I am doing my share in an important job.

Although everyone in the community benefits from the work of the Chamber of Commerce, I can accept those benefits with a sense of pride only if I have had a part in bringing them about.

Build your business by building your community — be a member of your Chamber of Commerce.

What It Is

Your Chamber of Commerce is a voluntary organization of citizens who are investing their time and money in a community development program... working together to improve the economic, civic and cultural well-being of the area.

Any citizen who is interested in helping to develop the area (which means more money—more business—more jobs and better living for everyone) is eligible to be a member of the Chamber of Commerce. The dues structure is designed to permit even the smallest business to be a member.

The Chamber of Commerce is not tax supported. The work of the Chamber is financed by the investment of the members who support it on the basis of their ability to pay and their interest in the progress of the area.

The Chamber of Commerce is composed of Committee workers, Directors and Officers who serve without pay. The manager and his staff who devote their full time to the Chamber of Commerce are the only paid employees.

What It Does

The Chamber of Commerce is a service institution and an action organization. It provides a medium through which people can take effective action for the progress of the community.

It helps create job opportunities through stimulation of industrial and commercial development.

It seeks the improvements of community facilities — streets, highways, parks, schools and marketing facilities.

It brings conventions, sales meetings and other gatherings to the city.

It works toward developing the agriculture and agricultural industry of the area.

In all these functions the Chamber of Commerce is serving as a department—a partner — of every business and every professional person in the area.

How It Functions

The Chamber of Commerce functions through working committees of the organization. Money, planning, inspiration and guidance are useless unless the members work vigorously on the committees of their choice.

Careful study is made of the community needs and an action blueprint, the program of work, is designed. The goal of the program is always to create more dollars for more people and to improve the economic welfare of all.

Every member has a voice in determining the policies and projects and every member is needed to work on active committees to get the job done.

Its Goal

The goal of your Chamber of Commerce is to promote the commercial, industrial, civic, cultural and general interest of your city and region. To accomplish this, action committees explore every avenue and possibility. These committees usually include those working in the areas of industrial development, agriculture, aviation, athletics, conventions, citizenship, membership, traffic and transportation, area development, publicity, highways, urban development, civic affairs, retail promotion and water resources.

Every individual, firm and profession, farmer, rancher and teacher derives direct benefits in a growing, stable economy. Such an economy is the result of your Chamber's efforts.

Soil Fertility . . .

of the workshop proceedings. The primary objective of the workshop is to develop an educational program on soil fertility and soil management oriented toward those persons who are in positions to advise the producer in his soil fertility program, selection of management practices and choice of fertilizers. Schumann says that producers will be welcome, but the instructions will be slanted toward those individuals who advise in matters concerning fertility and managements.

All persons interested in attending the workshop should contact the County Agent's office for more details on registration and payment of registration fees.

What About Fabrics Of The Future?

A futuristic look at fabrics of the 1980's has been projected by Michigan State University Cooperative Extension Service clothing specialists and U. S. Department of Agriculture scientists. The clothing specialists and researchers forecast that we'll be wearing more knit garments of natural man-made fibers; and there will be more colorful offerings, especially in men's clothing. More bonded fabrics and more stretch fabrics also will be in use.

Mrs. Barbara Elliott, County Home Demonstration Agent, says that researchers say that more wearing apparel will be developed with a specific use in mind, such as "Wash and Wear." The so-called "durable press" will be perfected further and it may be practical to perfect seams that are fused rather than sewn. Temperature-controlled garments adaptable to both cold and hot weather, are expected in the future. More soil-resistant, easily packed, lightweight fabrics that are easier to take care of are forecast.

Researchers are presently working on a method of developing a one-step process to making fabrics such as spraying them the thickness desired and thereby eliminating the two-step spinning and weaving process now used for fabric making.

Additional research will be directed toward improving existing fibers, fabrics and finishes by 1980, the research-extension teams have indicated.
