

"Operation Sparkle" To Kick-off Spring Clean-Up Campaign

The Chamber of Commerce will sponsor Haskell in the Operation Sparkle contest, a program of the tourist development of West Texas Chamber of Commerce. Robert Greenroy, chairman of Community Betterment, will add this project to the year's program of work.

"Operation Sparkle" project will mark the beginning of the first joint project of the city and the Chamber of Commerce. April 25 through 30 has been designated as Spring Clean-Up, (Operation Sparkle).

"Operation Sparkle" is a two-year program of community improvement, aimed at attracting visitors and influencing them to stop and to stay longer. Haskell will compete with cities whose population is under 5,000, however, the contest is a statewide campaign. The program is designated to attract tourists and in 1968 Texas will have the greatest inflow of visitors in its history. The two principal attractions will be HemisFair in San Antonio and the Olympics in Mexico City.

Entry fee for Operation Sparkle is $25.00. The minimum number of projects of each city, to be eligible for the grand award in each division, will be 12. Seven of these projects have already been selected by the committee; they are to improve a tourist camp ground; clean-up unsightly vacant lots, place historical markers at places of interest... this project will include the depot museum, attractive highway signs, water drainage and improvement of the city park.

Winners will be determined by a newspaper size scrapbook furnished by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. Metal plaques, suitable for inside or outside mounting will be presented to first place winners in each division. Citations of merit will be presented to four runners-up in each division.

The contest closes Dec. 31, 1967. Winners will be announced and awards will be presented at the 50th annual meeting of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in April 1968.

Clean-Up Week
In designating April 25-April

30 as spring clean-up, city officials hope to make this the most intensive and thorough campaign of its kind in years. To that end the co-operation of all home-owners and citizens is necessary, as well as the help of civic groups and organizations.

City officials and Robert Greenroy, community betterment chairman, are urging all residents to rid their premises of winter rubbish, weeds and other unsightly growth, and to join with their neighbors in cleaning vacant lots.

The city will provide trucks to haul rubbish and trash of all kinds (except tree limbs and anything that will not burn) at no cost to homeowners. However, all trash should be put in containers for quick handling, but if unable to get containers, rubbish should be piled in a location accessible to the city trucks.

Clean-Up Week will also be an ideal time to paint-up and brighten-up Haskell and make this community more attractive. City Dads point out.

Sales Training Course To Be Conducted Here

D. W. THOMAS

D. W. Thomas, sales management training specialist, from the University of Texas, will conduct a sales training course entitled "Dynamics of Selling", at the City Hall here, April 25-28.

The course is designed for all individuals employed in any type of selling situation, including selling a service such as insurance or utilities.

Session one will be a discussion on why customers cross the street to buy, the development of a blueprint to success and happiness in the selling process and proper customer approach for effective results.

Session two deals with securing customer interest and creating customer desire for the product.

Annual Singing Convention Sunday

"Volunteers Are The Hope of The World," Ladley Tells Local Jaycees

The Haskell Jaycees' annual installation banquet was held on Saturday night in the Elementary School Cafeteria. Guest speaker for the event was former National Jaycee President and presently chairman of the board of the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce, R. Stanley Ladley. Mr. Ladley is a professional engineer with the Phillips Petroleum Company, Bartlesville, Oklahoma.

Lyndon Harris served as master of ceremonies for the evening. Awards were presented for various achievements in Jaycee work. The first of these awards was for the first-year Jaycee who has done exceptional jobs in various assignments. Recipients of these awards were Bobby Cass, Robert Greenroy, Frank Jenkins, Albert Roberts and Jimmy Terrell.

Outgoing president of the club Alfons Peiser, expressed his thanks to the Jaycees' wives for the assistance they have given in Jaycee work the past year, and also to the members' employers and to the community for their support during his term in office.

Keith Skelton, Sweetwater resident and state Jaycee director, introduced and gave their separate oaths to the incoming officers of the Haskell Club. They are: directors, Albert Roberts, Frank Jenkins, Jimmy Bledsoe; secretary, David Strickland; treasurer, Jimmy Terrell; inter-club relations director, Alfons Peiser; 2nd vice-president, Ben McGee; first vice-president, Ronnie Leach; president, James Franklin.

Billy Jack Ray, former President of the Haskell Jaycees and former State Director, introduced the keynote speaker for the event, Mr. Ladley. During his talk to the crowd of over 150, made up of Haskell citizens and out-of-town guests, he emphasized the fact that "volunteers keep communities going; they give a town its spark." He concluded with the thought that "volunteers are the hope of the world; and Jaycees are the hope of the world."

The top two awards presented

Plans are being completed for the 43rd consecutive annual district singing convention in Haskell, Sunday, April 24, and judging by the number of quartets indicating they will be on hand, it is going to be the biggest and best singing ever, Hallie Chapman, president, announced.

Haskell's singing convention actually dates back almost 60 years, and is one of this area's most historic and traditional institutions. There was a lapse of a few years due to lack of housing facilities for the choral convocations, but it has now enjoyed a straight run of 42 annual assemblies.

Chapman, now reaching "institution" status, will be presiding over the convention for the 28th straight year. Truett C. Cobb, who passed away last December, had served as president of the Haskell County Singing Convention for 40 years. Mrs. Troy Ash is the long-time secretary of the vocal organization.

The all-day program, set for 10:00 a. m. until 4:00 p. m. on Sunday, April 24, in the American Legion Hall here, is expected to draw a capacity crowd, as it has done over previous years.

A business session will be held on convention day to choose officers and transact business.

Plenty of parking space will be available on grounds adjacent to the Legion Hall, located on U. S. Highway 277. Picnic tables and other facilities at nearby Rice Springs Park, will be available for family groups attending the singing.

Shut-ins who are unable to attend the annual convention may hear a broadcast of the singing over Station KDWT, Stamford, Sunday afternoon, Chapman said.

Some of the outstanding quartets to be here for the convention include: Stamps Quartet, Dallas; Sunshine, originally from Haskell; Celeste Aires, Celeste, Texas; Key City, Abilene; Campbell, of Lubbock; Tankersley, Knox City; Revival Aires, Wichita Falls, and Bailey Quartet, Levelland.

City Engineer Leads Public Forum On Water Contract

The City Council of Haskell met Friday morning in the community room of the Haskell National Bank to hear Mr. Yeatts and Decker, of Abilene, Yeatts Engineers for Haskell's current water project, brief them, and a gathering of citizens on the plans to erect a water reservoir and water mains for the city.

Mr. Yeatts answered questions of interested citizens and listened to possible alternate plans. It was ascertained that the relocation of the reservoir in a more northerly position would be feasible, incurring only the additional pipeline to reach it. Other engineering problems were discussed in detail by Mr. Yeatts and Carl Anderson, city water commissioner.

In answer to the question regarding the adaptability of the improvements on which bids have been received to the plans proposed for the NCTMWA District, Mr. Yeatts suggested that "the plan for the improvements be reviewed by Jim Nichols of the firm of Freese, Nichols and Andress, Engineers for the NCTMWA District."

The Mayor of Haskell, acting as moderator, along with Mr. Yeatts, explained that the possibility exists that, if the plans are coordinated, the authority would purchase such improvements from the city and retire any existing bonds—since these improvements were substantially a part of the surface water project. He further explained that if we do not develop a surface water supply, we would have the reservoir anyway, and possibly in a better location than the now proposed site.

Lions Mop And Broom Sale Set Tuesday, May 3

Lions project for the month of May is the annual mop and broom sale which is slated for Tuesday, May 3rd. Both the downtown area and residential section will be canvassed by Lions during the day.

Items of merchandise for sale are made by blind workers in blind shops, or Lighthouses, in Texas, furnishing them employment on a non-profit basis.

Funds obtained from the mop and broom sale will not only benefit the Texas Lighthouse for the Blind, but will also help support local worthwhile projects such as the "Goodfellows Fund," which each year helps unfortunate families at Christmastime.

Highways on the outskirts of town and a number of streets in the residential section were inundated with water, hail stones and leaves.

More than 200 plate glasses were knocked out at the greenhouse at Conner Nursery, 505 N. Avenue H, and many of the plants were damaged.

Some crop damage was reported and many fields in the vicinity of Haskell were completely under water.

A number of Haskell homes, buildings, trees, shrubs and gardens, were damaged from the hail, but no estimate can be made until insurance adjusters complete their reports, a local insurance agency representative said.

"We are writing a number of new contracts and interest has grown considerably, especially in the past twelve months in the conservation program," said Yeary.

Pastures were rested from grazing during the summer months to afford the grass an opportunity to make recovery; 10 acres of pasture was root-plowed for mesquite control and was seeded to a mixture of native grasses of sideoats and grama and blue grama.

Balance of old terraces were destroyed in July 1965 and 16,744 feet of new terraces constructed; nine acres of old cropland which was established in a dead litter crop of forage sorghum in spring of 1965 is to be seeded to sideoats grama and blue grama soon.

A grinding two-car crash at 3:00 p. m., Sunday, just north of the Haskell city limits, on Highway 277, during a blinding rain and hail storm, sent four persons to the Haskell County Hospital for treatment of minor injuries. All, however, were released following check-ups.

Duncan Brown, 25, 2nd Lieut. stationed at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, alone in his 1961 Ford, was traveling south and Jesus Zepeda Gonzalez, 59, of Altus, Oklahoma in a 1965 Chevrolet, was driving north at the time of the accident. Rainfall Wednesday night which totaled slightly over half an inch, and which was general over this section of West Texas has materially brightened prospects and brought smiles to the faces of farmers and businessmen who were beginning to become pessimistic over the continued drought.

Monthly Trades Days in Haskell, in the form of community auction sales, will be inaugurated during June.

John Huckabee from S.M.U., Dallas, spent the weekend here with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. R. N. Huckabee.

60 YEARS AGO
 (April 21, 1906)

Messrs. Fred Sanders and Bonny Cummings made a trip to Rule, Thursday.

Mr. Vines Harwell, of the Paint Creek Community was doing business in town, Tuesday.

D. W. Pitchford and family returned early this week from a visit to relatives at Weatherford.

This rainy spell is alright, but the mud and slush is just a little disagreeable when one tries to get about town. That could be largely remedied, however, by a little work on the streets and sidewalks.

We learn that work on the Wichita Valley bridge, across the Brazos is nearing completion and that a crew of men will soon be at work on this side laying steel.

Mr. W. C. Henderson has purchased a lot on the north side of the square, adjoining Sherrill Bros. & Co., and is preparing to erect a business house. We understand he will put in a stock of gents' furnishing goods.

Mr. W. F. Draper was in town Thursday and said that most of the wheat is knee high and is looking very fine. He says that in some fields he noticed signs of heading and that such wheat will make, with the soaking it had this week, although a rain later on would cause it to fill out more and mature heavier grain. He says the oats prospect is equally flattering as that of the wheat.

The Free Press learned through A. B. Carothers, promoter of the new town of Roehester on the Orient between Rule and Carney, that he was advised by Chief Engineer Paret of the Orient that he had ordered the switch put in at Roehester and that the plat of the town was being prepared.

Mr. W. F. Watts announced this week for re-election to the office of county commissioner, precinct 4.

Haskell Band Receives Triple Two Rating

By J. LOVE

Saturday, April 16, after many weeks of hard work, the Haskell High band set out for Vernon and the 1966 UTL Concert Contest.

When we arrived, we nervously proceeded through the warm-up room onto the huge stage of the Vernon auditorium.

We played our concert pieces, "A Santa Cecilia," "Norwegian Folk Song Suite," and "Aup-pays Lorrain."

After the concert, we moved on into the sight-reading room, where we sight-read "Model Miniatures."

After sight-reading, we went back into the auditorium to listen to other AA bands perform. When all were through, the ratings were read, including the rating received at Marching Contest, Haskell's band rating was: Marching 2, Concert 2, and Sight-reading 2.

According to the UTL standards, a 2 is excellent and better than all but a 1, which is superior. So, by those standards, Haskell's band has had an excellent year.

A change has been taking place in Texas over the past several years. To the facility planner it is a highly significant one and one that he may not have been aware of.

Texas has been moving from a resource-oriented economy and growth to a market-oriented one. Consider that Texas has experienced a rapid population growth that is expected to continue. It is projected the State will go from 10.4 million people in 1964 to some 13.7 million by 1976.

Just the consideration of these facts points up an even more obvious one: Texas has its own built-in market. Alert companies have noted this and it is a major reason why fabricated and consumer products are big and getting bigger in Texas.

The Texas of today must also be looked at from its good business climate standpoint. Consider that Texas has no personal or corporate income taxes and lower per capita taxes than 44 other states.

Consider also the state's favorable labor supplies, a right-to-work law and a 1947-1963 work-loss rate low of .16 per cent, and the second lowest cost per worker for unemployment (1960-61).

There is also the added bonus that in Texas the businessman REALLY is a leader. It is all part of an attractive business climate picture that has spurred numerous companies in the past to consider and then invest in Texas.

Now, with a built-in market of regional proportions, many companies from coast-to-coast are taking another look at the new growth in Texas. In 1964, however, some 250 companies did more than look. They invested.

Are we prepared to get our share of new industries coming to Texas. It will take work on our part to get them to invest money in Haskell. The work can pay off in new jobs and new money to be put into the economy.

A NEW CLASS OF POOR

There is skepticism, within both the parties, that the deficit for the 1967 fiscal year can be held to $1.8 billion, as forecast by the President in his State of the Union message.

The projected budget is $112.8 billion. Anticipated revenues are $111 billion. The skeptics feel, for one thing that actual spending will run well beyond the anticipated figure...no one, for example, can now tell how costly the Vietnam war, which is being constantly escalated...will be. And they feel, for another thing, that revenues will not reach the estimates even if Congress goes along with the request to reimpose certain of the recently-reduced federal excise taxes, which is doubtful.

The trouble lies in the effort to wage a costly war on the one hand...while embarking on all manner of social welfare projects on the other hand. We find its fruits in increased inflation.

The truth is, that inflation and the government's vast spending to help the poor, have already created a new level of poverty above the old.

Ask anyone whose welfare or veterans benefits have been cut back because of the other-pocket addition of Social Security benefits. Ask anyone struggling on a fixed income in retirement. There has been created a new class of poor.

There will be more new classes of poor if present inflation-breeding policies, based on a "guns and butter, too" philosophy prevail. This is the fact that now confronts Congress.

TAX MAN SAM SEZ:
The good tax folks suggest that you take a look at your withholding tax. Be sure that the total tax withheld this year will be sufficient to cover your 1966 income tax liability. If it is not, now is the time to have your employer increase the amount withheld—or adjust your estimated tax. Tax planning now can lighten your burden when you file in 1966.

Rule Bobcats Are District 8-B Track And Field Champions

The Rule Bobcats, with Larry LeFevre setting the pace by running the fastest 440-yard dash in 14 years, Thursday afternoon piled up 139 1/4 points to win the District 8B track and field championship.

Mayor Finch Speaks to Rotarians Of Important Matters Facing City

Haskell Rotarians heard Haskell's Mayor, Douglas B. Finch, speak on matters of importance facing the City of Haskell as the new administration assumes its duties.

Mayor Finch prefaced his remarks by saying that "Haskell has long subsisted upon rumors rather than facts. It is imperative that persons seek valid information before telling or repeating stories 'picked up on the street corner'." The Mayor informed his listeners that nothing will be done in secret, and if any information circulates that brings up questions or feelings of animosity in the minds of persons, they should come to him (to the Mayor) for clarification.

Mayor Finch further informed the Rotarians that "absolutely no one is authorized to speak for him," and he felt that this was true of all members of the council. Each one has a mind of his own, but each one was committed to listening; to anyone who had anything to contribute to better government, and to say concerning city water problems... or any other matters of public interest. He again confirmed that the newly elected officials of the city were committed to no particular project for water supply, but asserted with emphasis that "he was free to listen to all persons, and he intended to make no apologies to anyone for persons with whom he chose to confer about city problems whether officially in his office or informally over a cup of coffee.

The Mayor asserted also, that he is simply not interested in any "sides" in any controversy, and will not recognize that such exists as far as his deliberations are concerned. The speaker referred good humoredly to fellow Rotarian Bob Herren as being one of the controversial figures of the past, and said that he would no more feel inclined to apologize for having coffee with Mr. Herren than he would for having coffee with any other citizen... "We represent all the people, even those who did not vote for us," the speaker said.

Mr. Finch explained to the club the status of the current contract to erect a water storage facility, and announced that Mr. Yeatts of Yeatts and Decker, contracting City Engineers, would meet with the council and the Mayor in open forum at the Haskell National Bank community room on Friday morning, April 15, and brief them on the contract and awards, and that all citizens who were interested in the situation should attend the forum in order to be brought up to date on the matter. The contract, the listeners were informed, cannot be awarded without the approval of the current city council and the Mayor's signature.

There will be a delay in the negotiations, the Mayor explained, while consideration is given to the matter of how well this project will coordinate with any possibilities of a surface water supply. It is being considered that the location of the reservoir in a more northerly position would have these advantages:

- 1) A northerly location would be more in accord with firm plans of the steering committee for industrial development in the future (the steering committee of the Industrial Foundation).
- 2) The location of the reservoir to the north would provide a better gravity flow to lower parts of the city.

3) Coordinating plans with the North Central Texas Municipal Water Authority will place us in the position of being reimbursed fully for such expenditure if a surface water project becomes feasible. If such project does not culminate, we will still have our needed reservoir. A northerly location is in accord with existing plans formulated by NCTMWA engineers.

4) A northerly location accords with previous recommendations by the Board of Fire Underwriters.

Mayor Finch said that we are now participating in the Regional Economic Survey Commission with other area towns by resolution passed by council at its first session, which is the preliminary step to receiving federal aid for a surface project through the Water Authority. A grant of $1,500,000.00 has been applied for through the Farmer's Home Administration. Mr. Finch further quoted the Governor of the state as saying that the bonding authority of the Texas Water Commission will be raised next year from $200,000,000.00 to $400,000,000.00 in view of the pressing need, especially in West Texas, of water conditions. The Governor made this remark at the dedication of a new industry in Graham three weeks ago, in the hearing of Mr. Finch.

Mr. Finch urged the citizens to get behind the Industrial Foundation which is now being pressed to completion, because "this is the most vital organization for Haskell at the present time." Haskell has some excellent industrial prospects, but we need some substantial "selling points" for inquirers in our community. Most importantly, the speaker said, we need to speak well of our community to all persons who might make inquiries, some of which will be made incognito. It is often taxi drivers and service station operators who make or break the success of an industrial inquiry.

The Mayor stressed again that the facing of our problems realistically and openly did not necessitate, nor did it indicate, the "running down" of our town. He quoted a reputable source as saying that cotton income might be down this year as much as 35 to 40 per cent. We must begin to make firm plans for augmenting and supplementing this loss, as it will reflect upon the whole economy of our community.

He announced also plans for attracting tourists to "stop a-while" in Haskell, by the erection, in cooperation with the Civic Betterments Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, of attractive signs at vantage points on the edge of the city and at historical points within the city, stressing the colorful history of Haskell. The Mayor urged citizens not to ridicule such efforts, for the result will be that we will see strangers "pulling their children around town this summer, reading the signs, bathing in western folklore, and staying to have lunch or to look in the merchants' windows for purchases."

Mr. Finch further informed the Rotarians that the money in amount of $110,000.00 from Revenue Bonds issued, is on deposit in the local bank. The bonds were issued at 4 1/2% interest. If the project is delayed, the Mayor said he would request Council to permit investment of the money in U. S. Treasury bills which will pay 4 1/4% interest to the city, creating a profit for the city. The bills considered mature in 90 days, though longer term bills are available. Guests were George Kinney, Rotarian from Stamford; Conner Horton, Rotarian from Rule; Bob Beauchamp, local WTU manager; Tommy Davis, postmaster, and student guest, Bill Perry.

Presbyterians Inaugurate Improvements

Haskell's First Presbyterian Church, through its Trustees, last week accepted and approved a new air conditioning system previously contracted for with Mr. Wayne Smith of Abilene. The new unit will supply 17½ tons of refrigerated air into the sanctuary and upstairs rooms. Smaller auxiliary units will cool the downstairs sections of the church. The work on this project is now completed. A new central heating system was installed in connection with the air conditioning project. Both units are the most modern and efficient available.

Plans are pushing toward culmination for the addition of two large bedrooms on the manse next door to the church building. The rooms will be approximately 18' by 20' each with ample closet space included in the plans. A. D. Frierson is the contractor for the manse addition. Work will be completed, Mr. Frierson feels, within 30 days.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET
 "Apple Blossom Time" was the theme of the annual Junior-Senior Banquet at the Rule School cafeteria on Saturday night, April 16.
 The banquet room was decorated in pastel colors, with several trees with apple blossoms, butterflies and birds in them. A fountain was the center of interest.
 Terry Joe Mathis, junior class president, was master of ceremonies and welcomed the group. Crawford Allison, senior president, responded. Mr. Lavon Beakley, high school principal, gave the invocation.

 Steve Harper and Kenny Miller of Haskell furnished the musical entertainment. Crawford Allison read the senior "Will" and Glen Davis read the Junior prophecy.
 Mr. Ray Futenwider, elementary principal, gave the benediction.
 Miss Deanna Dumis and Mr. Connor Horton are junior class sponsors.

Mrs. Wayne Dean and children of Lubbock have returned home after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Festus Hunt.
 Mr. and Mrs. Alton Richards and family visited Six Flags Over Texas this past weekend.
 Gail Wood of Munday spent the weekend with relatives and friends in Rule.
 Recent Davis of Texas Tech spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Davis,

The Good Earth

By MRS. J. C. DUNHAM

Gov. Connally designated April as bluebonnet month. There are two outstanding bluebonnet gardens in this vicinity.

Mrs. Ed Hester's bluebonnet patch is an eye catcher each spring. Planted along the highway it is viewed by many as are her iris. Mrs. Hester and her husband, Ed, take great pleasure in their yard.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dunham have two long rows of bluebonnets running from the road to their yard, where it spreads out in a fan shape. They cultivate their bluebonnets and the results are long flower spikes of deep blue.

I will try later (the Lord willing) to write a description of their yard when it is in full bloom. They have a very wide variety of flowers.

There is a purple flower growing all along our highways that must be a double cousin to the bluebonnet. The flowers are the same shape and so are the seed pods. The foliage is different. The flowers smell like grape soda.

Mrs. John Tubbs has recently been ill. She felt that she couldn't garden much this year, but the garden fever has her once again in its clutches. She has been setting out hydrangea and azalea. Mrs. Tubbs' Spanish Dagger and red yucca are pretty the year around.

Mrs. J. W. Massey's yard is ablaze with annual phlox and dwarf marigold. White iris border the side walk.

Two very dear friends this week gave me hydrangeas, chrysanthemums and Easter lilies which I set out at our old home.

Due to the sudden death of Mr. Mann Conner they will not buy our home. Mrs. Conner feels she will be more contented near her children. We hate to lose her as a neighbor, but know she will be better off near her own.

Mrs. Conner had worked hard on our flower beds and has them neat and clean and ready to plant. She would have been an asset to Haskell.

The Haskell Garden Club show is just around the corner. If we miss having hail there should be a large display of flowers this year. As we have a section for non-members to enter, we should really have a good show this year.

Lutheran Church Is Represented At Convention

The Southern District of the American Lutheran Church is holding its Sixth Annual Convention at Faith American Lutheran Church in Bellaire (Houston), Texas, this week, April 19-22. More than 500 pastors and lay delegates of the district's 256 congregations in Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana and New Mexico are expected to attend this convention.

Rev. Allen Johannes, pastor of the local Trinity Lutheran Church, and Roger Moeller, lay delegate, are attending the convention. They also attended the opening game of the Astros in the famed domed stadium, Monday night.

At this year's convention the election of a District President for a six-year term of office will take place. Dr. V. A. Mohr, the present president, is eligible for re-election.

Dr. William Larson, secretary of the American Lutheran Church, will represent the president of the church and will be featured speaker at a joint session of the Southern District, the A.L.C. and of the Texas-Louisiana Synod, the L.C.A. This meeting will be held in the Emerald Room of the Shamrock Hilton Hotel. The Texas Lutheran College band, under the direction of Dr. Nyquist, will play during the evening hour. Dr.

Larson will speak on "Space, Time, Eternity."
 The opening service of the convention was held Tuesday, April 19, with Dr. V. A. Mohr, district president, in the pulpit. The Rev. A. W. Doerfler, pastor of Faith American Lutheran Church, Bellaire, served as Liturgist.

Two corporations of the district will hold their first meetings in connection with the convention. They include the Lutheran Association of Southwestern Campin Corporation and Grace Lutheran Hospital Corporation. The district will also select the convention of the Lutheran Church.

Stockholders Of PCA Meet In Stamford Sat.

The 32nd Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of Rolling Plains Production Credit Association will be held in the High School Auditorium in Stamford, Texas, on Saturday, April 23, according to J. L. Hill Jr., General Manager. Registration will begin at 11:00 a. m., lunch will be served from 11:15 to 12:30 and the business session will start at 1 p. m.

One item of business will be the election of five directors. When the Stamford and Memphis associations were merged March 1, 1965, to form Rolling Plains PCA, both Boards of Directors were consolidated into one Board composed of 10 members. This group recently voted to reduce the number of directors from 10 to 5. The nominating committee placed the names of all ten directors in nomination with two competing from places 1 through 5. The five winning directors will draw for length of term: one for 1 year, two for 2 years, and two for 3 years. The nominees are: Place 1, L. M. Bartlett and J. C. Emmert, both from Wellington; Place 2, John E. Glover, Childress, and W. W. George, Turkey; Place 3, Lasater Hensley, Guthrie, and W. C. McClendon, Paducah; Place 4, C. G. Burson, Sr., Haskell, and J. C. Moorhouse, Benjamin; Place 5, Mack T. Claburn, Anson, and J. F. McCulloch, Stamford.

Rolling Plains PCA provides agricultural credit for about 1,750 farmers and ranchers in 17 counties of the Rolling Plains area of Texas with the headquarters office in Stamford.

 be enjoyed or merely tolerated. Here again the Graham Industrial Association was well prepared with attractive literature describing the advantages of living in Graham.
 "As a result when industry began serious discussions with the people of Graham and evidenced interest in Graham as the possible site for our plant, they set forth a multitude of advantages for living in their city and the contiguous area. Sports for both the participant and the spectator were available, including swimming, fishing, riding and hunting, a well-maintained golf course, rodeo, athlete program, baseball fields, municipal swimming pools, playgrounds and parks, schools and churches.

"When we made our decision Mr. Jagers said, we acquired a ten-acre site upon which we constructed our plant. We expect to provide gainful employment for some three hundred or more men and women who would have otherwise, perhaps, have had to leave Graham to seek a livelihood elsewhere in keeping with today's living standards. In fact, we anticipate that many people originally from Graham, who relocated in past years to seek employment opportunities, will return as positions in our plant become available."

merchandise. Emphasis is placed on product knowledge and telling the customer about benefits of a product or services... telling the story well to sell well.

The third session will be devoted to demonstrations by enrollees in the class. Each class member attempts to give a detailed explanation of all the features and benefits of a particular product or service. These demonstrations, which are carried on in small groups are followed by a short discussion on determining customer problems and why people buy.

Session four will deal with meeting customers' objections, closing the sale, and adding the plus sales will be discussed in the closing session.

The "Dynamics of Selling" course is sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and registration blanks are available at the office or from Mrs. Byron Frazier, retail committee chairman. Cost of the sales training course will be $3.00 and the classes will begin each evening at 7:30 p. m.
