Final Rites Are Held For Former Haskell Sheriff

W. C. (Crofford) Allen, 91, ex-sheriff of Haskell County, ex-Texas Ranger and the man who named the Jud community, passed away at 1:45 p. m. Sunday in the Haskell County Hospital where he had been a patient for four days.

He was the deputy sheriff of Montague County at the time. He and his wife moved shortly after their marriage to Haskell County where they settled in a farming community northwest of Haskell which he named "Jud."

He was the first postmaster of Jud, established a blacksmith shop there, and served as a dentist. A few years later he was elected sheriff of Haskell County, and served in that capacity for 12 years. He later served with the Texas Rangers for a number of years.

He was a member of the Baptist Church.

The Colorado City Wolves eked past the Haskell Indians here Friday night 12-7 in a hard-fought game played on a muddy field. The adverse field conditions blunted much of the Indians' attack as runners repeatedly had trouble moving.

Trailing 7-0 going into the final quarter, Colorado City's Dan Steakley, who had scored previously on a three-yard run in the first period, took off on an 88-yard sprint that ended the Indian's hopes of victory.

It left the Indians with an 8-2 season record and a district mark of 3-2.

Derral Davis scored the only Indian tally with a yard lunge in the third period.

Haskell compiled 251 yards rushing and completed five of 23 passes for another 75 yards while Colorado City was grinding out 193 yards rushing and adding another 53 via the air lanes.

Derral Davis and Johnny Jossell led the Indian ground gainers with 54 and 118 yards respectively.

Reynolds Author Of Article On General Aviation

In the November 8th issue of "Business Aircraft" appeared an article, "U. S. General Aviation," written by Robert Reynolds, former Haskell resident who is now Assistant Administrator for General Aviation Affairs, U. S. Federal Aviation Agency.

Mr. Reynolds has been Assistant Administrator for General Aviation Affairs, FFA, since July 1965. He has 30 years of experience in general aviation. In the present position, he serves the growing needs of general aviation in the United States, serving as the Federal Aviation Agency's principal advisor on the progress and development of general aviation.

General Aviation, which includes aviation of all kinds except military and commercial operations, accounts for an amazing 82.7 per cent of all aviation in the United States. And in the words of Mr. Reynolds, it is still but a sleeping giant, with great potential for aiding the advance of underdeveloped areas not only in the "emerging world" overseas, but also in the U. S. itself.

Haskell Countians turned thumbs down on all but two of the proposed Amendments to the Constitution, but favored the creation of a hospital district by a big majority in the election held Saturday, November 11. A total of 950 voters marched to the polls in Haskell County which was a "good turnout" considering the fact the election was held on Saturday and had to "back" football games deer hunters and weekend travelers.

Hospital District
Here is how Haskell Countians voted on the issue of creating a Hospital District:

Five-hundred and seventy-three voted FOR and 377 AGAINST the creation of a Hospital District; providing for the levy of a tax not to exceed thirty-cents on the hundred dollars valuation; and providing for the assumption by such district of all outstanding bonds heretofore issued by Haskell County for hospital purposes not heretofore assumed by the Stamford Hospital District.

The election for the creation of a Haskell County Hospital District was made possible by a Special Law (House Bill 845) that was passed by the State Legislature this year.

A petition which was signed by 159 citizens throughout the County, calling for an election, was submitted to the Commissioners Court and in a meeting of the Court on September 26th, the commissioners unanimously voted to call the election for Saturday, November 11, at the same time voters would voice their decisions on the constitutional amendments.

The main purpose of creating a Haskell County Hospital District of course is to obtain more funds to operate, maintain and eventually expand the local hospital.

1. Consolidating county taxes: Approval 452; Against 481.
2. Municipal Health Service: Approval 500; Against 408.

SPORTSMAN'S CORNER

by Clark Webster, Remington Wild Life Expert

Hunters... Helpers

Conservation of natural resources is one of the most serious problems facing our nation today—and no group has done more to help solve it than the 18 million American hunters.

Unlike any other segment of the population, hunters asked to be taxed so that there would be additional federal funds for wildlife preservation. Back in 1937, both the shooting industry and sportsmen requested a tax on the sale of sporting arms and ammunition.

Over $300 million has been collected and distributed back to the individual states under this tax law—known as the Pittman-Robertson Act. From the 11 cents collected on every gun and ammunition dollar, five cents goes for improving game range, two cents for buying wildlife lands, two cents for scientific research, and two cents for maintenance and administration.

From these pennies have come 75,000 covers for pheasants and rabbits, 8,000 miles of multiflora rose hedge, and over 2,500,000 acres of land brought into the public domain. Such vitally concerned companies as Remington Arms maintain experimental farms to study ways of increasing game populations on private lands.

These government agencies use the sportsmen's money to provide refuges for more species of non-hunted wildlife than for game animals. In most cases, the refuges are open to the general public, which pays nothing to enjoy them.

Committees Named At Meeting Of Indian Booster Club Monday Night

With the secretary-treasurer, Bill Reeves presiding in the absence of the president, Elbert Johnson, and vice-president, Glenn Sammons, the Indian Booster Club met Monday night for their regular monthly session.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved and a letter was read from David Anderson of Baylor University, a member of the varsity football team, stating he and his wife were happy to accept invitation to the "All-Sports" banquet to be held here January 25, 1968.

The following committees were appointed to serve as follows: 1968-1969 Booster Club new officers committee: Bill Ratliff, chairman; Bud Herren and Howard Perry.

Program and decorations committee for All-Sports banquet: Margaret Ratliff, chairman; Mary Watson, Billie Everett, Lee Burson and Jerome Couch.

Chairs and table committee: Buck Everett, chairman; Coach Sonny Everett, R. C. Couch Jr., and Elbert Johnson.

Food committee: Tom Watson, chairman; Glenn Sammons, Charles Thornhill.

The club members voted in favor of charging $2.50 per ticket for the All-Sports Banquet.

Ticket sales committee: Mary Wiseman, chairman; Eula Mae Herren, Opal Stark, Correne Patterson, Jewel Pittman, Ella Belle Burson and Laine Joseph.

In the absence of Coach Mullins, Coach Everett reported on the Haskell-Olney Junior High game.

Coach Bennett gave a report on the Haskell-Olney "B" team game. Haskell "B" team racked up a season record of seven wins, one loss and two ties. Coach McWilliams gave a report on this year's basketball players and games to be played in the upcoming season and urged fans to attend each game.

PALMER NAMED MANAGER OF TEXAS SAFETY GROUP

Lloyd F. Palmer, Dallas, has been named General Manager of the Texas Safety Association and has assumed his duties as director of statewide activities for the 29-year-old safety organization headquartered here, it was announced by E. E. Edmondson, Jr., Houston, President of TSA.

Mr. Palmer has been in public relations and related fields for more than 30 years and most recently headed his own public relations firm in Dallas. As owner and President of Lloyd F. Palmer Public Relations, he successfully directed the Texans for Traffic Safety program in support of the recently enacted traffic safety laws in Texas.

He has conducted national, regional and statewide public information programs on behalf of associations, companies and governmental agencies and is accredited by the Public Relations Society of America.

In commenting on Mr. Palmer's appointment, Mr. Edmondson said: "The Texas Safety Association is indeed fortunate to have obtained a man of Mr. Palmer's proven ability and experience to spearhead the activities of the Association in its efforts to reduce the needless waste of lives, the disabling injuries and the economic loss caused by accidents in our state."

In addition to his recent work with the Texans for Traffic Safety, Mr. Palmer has conducted information programs for several other safety groups. He set up the public relations program for the Oklahoma City Safety Council and the Oklahoma Safety Council, a statewide organization, when they were first organized.

The new TSA General Manager is a former newspaperman, having served on several newspaper staffs in the Mid-

BIOLOGIST DON SMITH IS TAKING FRESH APPROACH

Biologist Don Smith, science teacher at North Texas State University, Denton, has an 8,000-mile-long cookie research project underway that is a real gasser. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Smith who reside 17 1/2 miles northeast of Haskell.

Dr. Smith thinks he has figured a way to freshen up the annual Christmas cookies-for-Vietnam problem and he's trying it out on his brother, Capt. Hugh Smith a flight pilot in Phan Rang.

The idea is to mail the cookies in sealed containers pumped full of nitrogen. Oxygen in the normal atmosphere causes oxidation of the fats in the cookies, Dr. Smith explained, and that's what causes Mom's best to go flat on the long trip.

Dr. Smith, a North Texas State University faculty member, has sent two three-pound coffee cans of chocolate chip cookies to his brother. Both cans were sealed with aluminum foil and paraffin, but only one contains the special nitrogen atmosphere.

Capt. Smith and his buddies will judge between the contents of the two cans. The biologist said that air, which contains about 80 percent nitrogen anyway, could be replaced with any of several gases. A good vacuum also would be effective, he said.

Some Big Country Folk Are Slow In Filing 1966 Medicare Claims

A number of Big Country folks could be losing Medicare payments, advises R. R. Tuley, Jr., District Manager of the Abilene Social Security Office. Indications are that some folks who had medical expenses covered by Medicare's medical insurance for July-December 1966 have not yet made their claims for payment. Their claims can still be paid now, but loss could result by delaying too long, Tuley reports.

Many may be waiting until all of their medical bills are paid. In most cases, this is not necessary. If the doctor or medical supplier will accept assignment of his bill from Medicare, payment can be made immediately. Also partial payment can be made in most cases where the total bill is not yet paid. Those who have Medicare coverage and incurred medical bills for 1966 should file their claims before Dec. 31, 1967.

"The Abilene Social Security Office can give further information and assist with these claims. We urge all our Big Country folks to do this now," Tuley says. Persons unable to come to the Abilene office should check at their local post office for a schedule of visits by a representative of that office and meet him when he is at a nearby contact station, he added.

Area Farm Leaders Meet In Stamford

Forty-nine agricultural leaders from 21 Rolling Plains counties met in Stamford Thursday night, November 9, at the quarterly meeting of the board of directors of the Rolling Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.

Cotton producers, ginners, oil mill representatives, compressmen, county agents and ASCS office managers from Childress, Paducah and Henrietta on the north, to as far south as El Dorado in Schleicher County, came to meet Charles G. Bragg, the new executive vice-president of RPCG and to discuss current farm problems in the area.

J. B. Copper, Jr., of Roscoe, president of the group, called the meeting to order at 6:30 p. m. in the Cliffhouse Restaurant in Stamford. Charles W. Stenholm, who recently resigned from RPCG to become associate manager of the Stamford Electric Co-op, Inc., introduced his successor, Mr. Bragg, who has spent the past three years working with the U. S. Department of Agriculture in Washington, D. C., told of recent developments in Washington of concern to cotton producers, and encouraged the group to encourage area farmers and businessmen to give strong support to their cotton organization. "Legislation is now being considered," he said, "which will replace the Food and Agriculture Act of 1965. A strong and active grower's association must be maintained to protect the interests of the cotton industry in the Rolling Plains under the new program."

GRIM DIAGNOSIS

Like a fever thermometer, the cost of living index continues to indicate the presence of a virus in the U. S. economic system. That virus is inflation, and there is no cure for it except a strong dose of reform in the high-living habits of government.

There is talk of a substantial tax increase to help offset a deficit in the federal budget that some have estimated as high as $25 billion for the fiscal year that began July 1. But, a tax increase will not cure the virus of inflation nor curb the harassing monthly increases in living costs until people one day realize that the annual decline in the value of the dollar cannot stretch on into infinity with prices continuing to move upward.

At some point, there must be control of government spending or the dollar will cease to exist as a medium of exchange. That is the grim terminal diagnosis which the cost of living fever thermometer portends. Curbing non-essential spending at all levels of government is more essential than ever before in our history.

Haskell County History

30 YEARS AGO (November 19, 1937)

Six Haskell County girls are among the 2,470 now enrolled at Texas State College for Women, which still holds the record as the largest residential woman's college in the world. These students are: Misses Gayle Roberts, Helen Mable Baldwin, Ava Alene Grindstaff, Mayra Lena Tubbs, and Edna Solomon, of Haskell; Mrs. Ruby G. Taylor, of Weinert.

Deer hunters left early Sunday morning and other groups Monday on their annual deer hunt in Central Texas near Mason and Llano. Perhaps the most enthusiastic group who go regularly each year as soon as the season opens, left Sunday for a week's trip which included: Sam A. Roberts, Frank B. Reynolds, C. O. Scott, R. B. Guess, P. C. (Buck) Kendrick and Virgil Bailey. Dr. L. E. Taylor, J. W. Gholson and Rev. H. R. Whatley and his son, Herman, joined the group Monday at their camp in Llano County. Sheriff Giles Kemp, Paul Prier-son, Charlie Reese and Lloyd Tidwell left for their private camp in Mason County. Another group including Andy Josscolet and family, Mr. and Mrs. Estell Gilliam, and Jim Ferguson will also hunt in Mason County.

The North Ward Parent-Teachers Association will meet Thursday afternoon at 4:00 p. m. at the school gymnasium. Mrs. Theron Cahill will direct the program with pupils of the sixth grade presenting an Indian operetta.

The Haskell Indians overpowered the Hamlin cellarites and scored two touchdowns to defeat them 13-0 here Friday night.

Scott Whitaker, assistant football coach attended the Daniel Baker homecoming at Brownwood Saturday.

Ed C. Brown, 41, Weinert trucker and resident of that community for the past 20 years, was killed instantly Monday night shortly after 9:00 o'clock in a head-on collision in the south outskirts of Weinert.

Mesdames Leon Pearsey, Carl Arbackle, Wallace Ruff and Jno. Willoughby were in Wichita Falls, Tuesday.

40 YEARS AGO (November 17, 1927)

Miss Mary Sherrill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Sherrill of Haskell, is one of 18 members of the sophomore class of Austin College, Sherman, on the "merit list" published by the registrar of the college in recognition of good scholarship for the first six-weeks period of the fall term. Seventeen students in all are on the list. Aside from her studies, Miss Sherrill is active in student interests, including the choral club, the Kappa Gamma Chi Literary Society, Y.W.C.A., the Girl's Council and other organizations.

Mrs. J. U. Fields, who has served as president of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs the past two years efficiently, and untrigingly to foster all that was worthy while in the organization and sponsored every new movement that was uplifting and far reaching, has spent a strenuous term but retires with the knowledge that she did her best for Texas club women. Mrs. Fields very graciously surrendered the gavel to the incoming president, Mrs. W. R. Potter of Bowie and pledged her ardent support to the new administration.

On Armistice Day morning in a combination sandstorm and norther the Haskell Indians played Merkel a football game if you don't mind what you say. The total score was a whole lot or many to nothing. Everybody played except Coach Dodson. The game should have been played with second or third freshman team.

The King-Lawson Motor Company, Hudson-Essex dealers for Haskell County have moved back to their old location and have leased the entire building.

The Bear Cat Society of the Haskell High School met for the first time last Thursday and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Johnnie Banks; 1st vice president, Lucy Martin; secretary-treasurer, Roy Sanders; Sergeant-at-Arms, Glenn Marrs and reporter, John English.

50 YEARS AGO (November 16, 1907)

On Saturday afternoon the beautiful little bungalow of Mrs. D. W. Pritchard was thrown open to her many friends, the honoree being her sister, Mrs. Beem, of Ft. Worth.

At the entertainment to be given by the M. E. Home Mission Society at the residence of Mrs. C. D. Long, Thanksgiving, Thursday evening from 3:00 to 6:00 p. m., each society member will be expected to contribute $1.00 for Home Mission purposes.

The theatre patrons of Haskell have a rare treat in store for them, for the local management takes pride in pointing out the fact that the Olympia Opera Company has been for years one of the established attractions that yearly tour the south.

Mr. S. W. Vernon was in the city Tuesday.

Mr. J. T. Miller moved out to his farm this week.

Dr. F. T. Cherry has moved from Rochester to Sugarton.

Constable T. J. Lemmon made an official visit to Carney on Thursday.

COUNTY AGENT'S CORNER

By R. W. Schumann
Haskell County
Agricultural Agent

Many of our Haskell County Cotton producers have tried new varieties of longer staple cotton this season. It will be interesting to see how these varieties compare with the cotton our producers normally plant as to staple length, grade, etc.

I have been working with several producers on this, however, I would like to get as much information from as many producers as possible so that all farmers in Haskell County can benefit from the results. I would like to encourage any producer that has planted and harvested one of these longer staple varieties to share their information with me. I, in return, can then compile this information for the benefit of the whole county.

I hope that most producers realize the importance of a good testing program in the county, be it on grain sorghum, cotton, wheat, guar, hay or livestock. Only through tests run right here in the county can we find what is best for our producers.

If you are interested in information on a new product, I would encourage you to contact me and we can test to give the info you need.

Paint Creek Pirates Maul O'Brien 51-7

The Paint Creek Pirates won another District 4-B game on Thursday, Nov. 9th, at Paint Creek, defeating O'Brien 51-7. The Pirates' speed merchant, Jim Ballard, led the scoring with three TD's and an extra point. Dudley Cokerell and Steve Livengood both made two Pirate tallies, and John Palacios hit pay dirt by receiving a 40-yard pass.

Lynn Holmes scored the only Bulldog touchdown in the third quarter with the Pirate defense, led by Ricky Perry, John Palacios and Nete Palacios holding the Bulldog offense in tact the other three time periods.

Tonight, Thursday, the Pirates meet Luaders-Avooca in a game which will decide the District 4-B winner. Both teams will enter tonight's game with a 3-0 district record.

Two-time Academy Award nominee Rod Steiger co-stars with Oscar winner Sidney Poitier in the explosive crime drama, "In The Heat of the Night," a Mirisch Corporation production, opening in Color by DeLuxe, November 17-18, at the Texas Theatre, through United Artist release. Both actors portray police officers—but bigotry and resentment ride with them in their search for the murderer in this unusual murder mystery directed by Norman Jewison.

The Selective Service boards are sending 4,650 for this examination in November. The state's 155 draft boards will be called upon to furnish 924 men for induction in December. Inductions are scheduled for the period December 1 through December 15.

This compares with quotas of 1,159 for November, 977 for October, 1,180 for September, 1,421 for August, and 974 for July.

Local board quotas for induction and pre-induction examination in December already have been figured and sent to the state's 155 draft boards. The Texas quota of 924 for December is the state's share of a national call for 18,200, all for the army.

OUTDOORS --IN-- TEXAS

By Vern Sanford

It wasn't many years ago that leasing lands for deer hunting was a novel practice.

Today the pay-to-hunt plan has been accepted by both the hunter and by the landowner. And the idea gradually is spreading each year.

Now some farmers and ranchers are leasing their lands for quail and dove hunting, too. Some even are building private lakes for fee fishing.

This practice is destined to grow. There is increasing demand for recreational outlets while at the same time landowners are searching for ways to get full utilization from their lands.

Recreation is booming. Estimates are that by the year 2000 our population will be double what it now is, and demands for recreation will triple.

To satisfy this ever-increasing demand, the outdoorsman must look to private lands. There simply is not enough public land to handle the demand. This certainly is true in Texas, where public lands are minimal.

Actually, the pay-for-recreation plan has benefited both the outdoorsman and the landowner. The farmer or rancher, recognizing fish and game as a source of income, has tried to propagate the various species on his land. This in turn has helped the outdoorsman by providing more fish to catch and more game to hunt.

Some landowners even have camping sites available for family camping.

Many studies are being made today on recreation in conjunction with farming and ranching, thus to utilize the land at its fullest potential.

At Remington Farms near Chestertown, Md., for example, the officials of the Remington Arms Company have set up a 3,000-acre test policy to study the effects of game on agricultural practices.

"I believe that sound farming and good wildlife management are compatible," says Clark Webster, who is in charge of wildlife management for the Farms. "We're trying to prove this in our everyday activities."

Webster says the deer population on the tract has increased considerably within recent years, and "there's no question that our efforts at improving soil fertility have helped the deer population."

Webster points out that among the effective techniques being used at Remington Farms are the planting of shrubs and grasses in field borders between cropland and woodland. This serves a dual purpose since such areas generally are unproductive and often subject to damaging erosion.

"Cover crops such as bicolor lespedeza do particularly well on these edges and provide excellent food for quail and other game species," says Webster.

Areas such as fence corners, rocky spots, abandoned roads, or areas isolated by ditches, streams and gullies, also can be utilized for wildlife management, he adds. Usually too small for anything else, these spots can be planted with trees, shrubs and other plants to provide food and cover for upland game birds and animals.

Webster calls attention to a booklet that is of value to sportsmen and farmers alike. It is available through the Soil Conservation Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Titled "More Wildlife Through Soil and Water Conservation" (Agriculture Information Bulletin No. 175), it can be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. It sells for 15 cents. If you're interested in further details write the USDA for the booklet.

Bobcats Feast On Turkey Turks

The Rule Bobcats took an easy victory from the Turkey Turks Friday night in District 6-B play to give them a 6-1 record and the second place shot behind Chillicothe, also a winner this week.

Rule's 59 points against Turkey's eight was easily explained by looking at both passing and rushing yardage. Rule had 340 rushing to Turkey's 129 and 124 yards in the air to Turkey's three.

Bobcat Paul Cornelius tallied 31 points, Dwight Kinney had 14, Ken LeFevre had 8, and Jimmy Kitley 6. Quarterback Westbrook was responsible for several scores with well aimed tosses.

Turkey's score was by Johnny King, with the PAT coming from Rod Setliff.

VA Questions and Answers

Editor's Note: Veterans and their families are asking thousands of questions concerning the benefits their Government provides for them through the Veterans Administration. Below are some representative queries. Additional information may be obtained at any VA office.

Q—My son was lost at sea during World War II. I would like to have a memorial marker to put in a private cemetery. Will the Army furnish one?

A—Yes. Application for the memorial marker should be made to the office of Chief Support Service, Department of the Army, Washington, D. C. Application forms are available at all VA offices.

Q—Is a veteran penalized if he pays off a G. I. home mortgage loan before it is due?

A—No. A G. I. loan may be prepaid without penalty at any time. Pre-payments may be made in the amount of the monthly installment or $100 whichever is lesser, or in any larger amount.

Q—I draw a disability pension from the VA. I have just received an unexpected income as an inheritance. Will this now to the VA questionnaire at the year.

A—You should receive your pension promptly. This will allow you to terminate your coverage for the balance of the year to eliminate any overpayment being against your account.

Q—Shortly after I was discharged from service my GI insurance went into effect. I have borrowed all the money I can.

A—In a word, yes. The VA office to which you are sending your premium to find out the value of your policy should then arrange to be paid 91 per cent of the value of your GI insurance. The interest charge will be four per cent if there is already a loan. You may borrow the unpaid loan amount cash value of the unpaid amount could be deducted from a benefit.

Keeping Your Husband Healthy

Happy family days such as Thanksgiving have a way of bringing our husbands very close to us, making us realize all over again that they are the very center of our lives. Looking at them across the festive dinner table, let's resolve to cherish them even more this coming year.

Statistics show us that married men live longer than bachelors, widowers and divorced men, but even so, they don't live long enough. The average American male's life span is 6.8 years shorter than a woman's, whereas in 1900 there was only a three-year gap between the two life spans. What accounts for this heart-breaking trend? Doctors say that, for the most part, it is the result of heart attacks among young men in their forties and fifties. (Incidence of coronaries in younger middle-aged men has increased fivefold since 1930.)

Tension is almost always an important factor in pre-disposing a person to heart trouble, and it is in eliminating some of this tension that wives can help their husbands. How can we do this?

1. We can let them know every day and in countless ways that we love them. (When they really know this, doctors tell us, they attack their jobs less savagely.)
2. We can reduce the pressure on them by reducing financial demands. (Wouldn't it be better to live with fewer things and more of our husband's presence?)
3. We can safeguard their health by feeding them intelligently, helping them get 8 hours sleep each night, and encouraging them to have a physical checkup every year.

Note to wives with grown children: Why not suggest to your husband that you convert some of his life insurance into a paid-up policy and persuade him to take a little honeymoon this winter? Your Traveler's man will show you how this conversion would work for you.
