

THE football scythe, 1941 model, will continue to be extremely busy during the next few Saturday afternoons. A few more teams from the upper ranks must drop into the list of the beaten before the season ends. Future upsets are to be expected. One of the favorite current debates concerns the toughest football schedule of the year.

My vote goes to Coach Charles Bowers' Pittsburgh squad. Here is the Panther hook-up—Purdue, Michigan, Minnesota, Duke, Ohio State, Fordham, Nebraska, Penn State and Carnegie Tech. The last named team is on the off side, but look over those first eight Pittsburgh games.

I can't find another schedule that calls for such opposition as Pitt must meet from Michigan, Minnesota, Duke, Fordham and Nebraska, without calling on the others, which are none too soft.

Another Entry

Considering the material at hand I'd say a good runner-up would be Dr. Mal Stevens and his group of Violets from N.Y.U. This year the Violets face Texas A. and M., Syracuse, Holy Cross, Penn State, Missouri, Tulane and Fordham. Tulane and Fordham alone would make a hard schedule for any normal squad.

This menu is entirely too much for the material Mal Stevens has at hand. From now on it would be a fine day's work for N.Y.U. to beat anyone of these opposing outfits.

Bowl Scouts Busy

The rush for bowl selections is already warming up, and the rivalry is keener than ever. Eight leading teams are needed for Pasadena, Dallas, New Orleans and Miami, and they want the best.

The Pacific coast always has one fixed starter—her own conference champion. But the western delay in waiting for the final game may cause trouble again, as so many leading candidates won't hang around that long with other bowls pressing the issue.

The Texans are hoping to keep their own conference champion hooked to the Cotton Bowl in Dallas, where they can handle over 50,000 spectators at top prices.

The Sugar Bowl, now able to accommodate 75,000 or more, would like to get the pick of the North and the South for New Orleans—Alabama, Tulane or Duke, for example, against a Fordham or a Colgate.

And Miami, with an increasing capacity, is just as keen to keep building up her big winter show.

This means the Rose Bowl committee faces claimants ready to pluck six of the best teams in the field. The Rose Bowl cut of $100,000 is a golden lure, but many teams invited to collect $60,000 or $70,000 don't care to gamble on losing the lesser amounts. Which is simple enough to understand.

Who They May Be

It is entirely too early yet to have any bowl teams line up. The Western conference and Notre Dame are out. So is Navy and the Ivy League—two years ago Cornell would have been a terrific card.

But the main candidates now, apart from the Pacific Coast conference, are Alabama, Duke, Tennessee, Tulane, Texas, Fordham, Colgate, Southern Methodist, Nebraska, and Oklahoma. To be beaten once is no bowl bar. Last season Fordham, Texas A. and M., Nebraska and Georgetown—all bowl teams—had each suffered a defeat. Two defeats are usually the eliminating point.

It isn't certain that Duke would take on a bowl visit, unless Wallace Wade changes his mind.

The two leading candidates from the North are Fordham and Colgate, which are not likely to be beaten twice, at any rate, and which are almost certain to have fine records.

Alabama and Tulane are excellent bowl prospects. They are two of the best. In the Southwest the battle is always so bitter that few teams ever finish a spotless season, no matter how good they are. The competition is so keen in that sector that the job of winning them all is nearly always an impossible turn.

WITCHES' NIGHT OUT

Spooks and fun while the goblins, black cats and ghosts make merry—isn't that an inspiration to have one grand, merry party before the winter sets in? Come, let's plan, stew and brew and set the witches' cauldron boiling and bubbling!

You'll need hearty sandwiches, plentiful and hot since the weather's slightly nipped with frost. Of course you'll have cider and doughnuts because they're wedded together and traditional. To top it off, have a witches' cake, a chocolaty, honest-to-goodness devil's food, moist and crumbly, and perhaps one of those pumpkin shaped molds of ice cream, or at least orange ice, to carry out October's orange and black color scheme.

The party starts as soon as the invitations are sent out. These can be pumpkin, black cat or cauldron shaped, made double with the invitation written on the inside. Send them early so your guests won't make other plans. The more, the merrier.

Twirl some streamers of orange and black crepe paper around the room, bring out the frayed straw hats, checked shirts, and grandmother's costumes from that trunk in the attic. All set? Here we go!

Sandwiches.

These can be made on the buffet or at the table if you have a sandwich toaster. If made in the kitchen use the broiler. Have assorted bread, butter, place cheese on first layer, then another slice of buttered bread, then a slice of ham, and top with a slice of bread. Toast, cut in three, and fasten with toothpicks. To bewitch your family and guests completely serve them a cake with that agreeable melt-in-your-mouth quality. Measure the ingredients carefully so you'll attain that feathery lightness so essential to a good cake. After the icing is spread on the cake, make decorations with melted chocolate.

Witches' Cake.

(Devil's Food)
2 cups sifted cake flour
2 teaspoons double acting baking powder
1/2 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup butter or shortening
1 cup sugar
2 egg yolks, well beaten
3 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted
1 1/4 cups milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 egg whites, stiffly beaten

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, salt and soda. Sift together three times. Cream butter thoroughly, add sugar, and cream

LYNN SAYS:

A Halloween party can be a success without the least fuss. First of all, decorations and table settings don't have to be letter perfect, for you can have the most fun in the midst of the basement or barn decorated with sheaves of cornstalk, pumpkin faces, rakes, hoes and goblins made of sheets.

For your table use a large piece of burlap or cotton sacks sewed together and dyed scarlet or gold. A centerpiece of pumpkin with candles inside the hollow or fruit and burnished autumn leaves will bring cheers.

Write fortunes and place them in apples or nuts. Play pin the tail on the cat. Bob for apples. Have target practice with bean shooters. Dance the Virginia Reel and other square dances if your floor can stand it—all amid plenty of black and orange crepe paper. Halloween's the time for all this noisy fun.

together until light. Add egg yolks, beat well, then chocolate and blend well. Add flour alternately with milk and beat well each time. Beat until smooth, add vanilla, and fold in egg whites. Bake in two greased 9-inch layer pans in a moderate (350 degrees) oven. Ice with:

Seven Minute Frosting.

- 2 egg whites
1 1/4 cups sugar
4 tablespoons water
1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla
1/2 teaspoon cream of tartar

Put egg whites, water, sugar, in top of double boiler and set over boiling water. Beat constantly for seven minutes with rotary beater then remove from fire. Add vanilla and cream of tartar and beat until of consistency to spread. Marshmallows (about 12 to 15) cut in pieces may be added.

Speaking of luscious cakes, there's another type of cake which will be just as much of a success either at your Halloween party or cake sale. As different from a chocolate cake as night from day, is this light, tender Silver Moon cake. Its velvety texture is no trick if you use a good shortening and cream it well!

Silver Moon Cake.

- 1/2 cup shortening
1 1/4 cups granulated sugar
2 cups sifted cake flour
2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon almond extract
3/4 cup milk
5 egg whites

Cream shortening and sugar until light, then add milk and sifted dry ingredients alternately, beating after each addition until smooth. Fold in stiffly beaten whites and flavoring last. Bake in three layers in a moderate (375 degrees) oven, 25 minutes. Frost with a butter frosting.

Uncooked Butter Icing.

- 1/4 cup butter
2 cups powdered sugar
3 tablespoons hot milk
1 teaspoon lemon or almond flavoring

Cream butter and shortening, add milk and blend until smooth. Add flavoring. For variation, add 2 1/2 squares semi-sweet chocolate melted before blending in milk. Flavor chocolate icing with vanilla.

A cake that wins a place in the Hall of Fame is this spice cake without which no cake sale is complete. But it isn't just an ordinary spice cake for it has the subtle flavor of bananas combined with the spices:

Spice Cake.

- (Makes three 9-inch layers)
1/2 cup butter
2 cups brown sugar
4 eggs
1 cup milk
1 teaspoon each, cinnamon, nutmeg
1/2 teaspoon each, allspice, cloves
2 1/2 cups flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
2 bananas, mashed fine

Cream together the butter and sugar until light and fluffy. Add beaten egg yolks and bananas and blend well. Sift together the dry ingredients twice. Add them alternately with the milk, beating smooth after each addition. Last, fold in egg whites. Bake in three layer pans, in a moderate (350 degrees) oven, for 35 to 40 minutes. Ice between layers with a double recipe of the Seven minute icing or Chocolate flavored uncooked icing. For a fruity spice cake, 1/2 cup raisins and 1/2 cup nuts may be added with the flour.

Star Dust

STAGE SCREEN RADIO

By VIRGINIA VALE

(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)
"PANAMA HATTIE," M-G-M's lavish version of the successful Broadway musical, is well under way. The initial set disclosed Ann Sothern in a night club, singing one of the show's best songs, and dancing while two hundred soldiers, sailors, marines and tourists served as a background.

An expert passed judgment on the set, uniforms, etc.—she is Mammie Kelly, for 25 years operator of the most famous night club in Central America, at Panama City. She declared that Rags Ragland looked more like a sailor than a sailor himself—and she's seen thousands of them!

For the eighteenth time in his life Richard Dix was made an honorary sheriff the other day; he's making "Tombstone," and his role is that of Wyatt Earp, the famous peace officer of Arizona in the state's wilder days.

Not since flame-haired Clara Bow took the movie world by storm has Hollywood seen a personality so vibrant as Frances Neal, according to Frank O'Connor, who directed the famous "It" girl in most of her films. He's playing an important role in RKO Radio's "Lady Scarface," in which she makes her film debut. Director Frank Woodruff dubbed her "Titan TNT," and O'Connor thinks it fits.

The job of doing the raucous, old-fashioned ring-master's voice for Walt Disney's "Dumbo" has been handed to Herman Bing. The task of recording voices for the part seemed endless—actual ring masters, rodeo and prize fight announcers and circus barkers were tried out for it, before Herman won by a throat full of r's.

Bob Hope and Jerry Colonna have acquired new honors, too. They are honorary members of the Salt Lake City police force; the award was made at the city's recent police show, with some 10,000 people looking on.

Rosalind Russell is right at home in M-G-M's "Her Honor," in which she's a woman judge. Her family's practically all lawyers on the male side—she can count seven without pausing to think. As a child she used to hide in her father's court room in Waterbury, Conn.—once she managed to do it when he was trying a thrilling murder case. She'd probably have been a lawyer if she hadn't had what it takes to be a movie star; as it is, she draws up her own contracts and lets it go at that.

Preston Foster, star of Paramount's "The Morning After," had a swell idea the other day. He bought two football tickets for every game to be played by the University of California at Los Angeles, and the University of Southern California, and sent them to the morale office at Camp San Luis Obispo; the office is to conduct hard luck contests, and the back private who'd had the toughest luck each week will be given the tickets, put up at the best quarters in Los Angeles, and provided with a pretty girl as a companion at the game.

Joe Marshall has a bigger job than washing an elephant each day; he paints one every morning. Sprays a two-ton beast from ears to toenails with gray-white water color so that he won't blend into the background during Technicolor shots for "Malaya," the Dorothy Lamour jungle thriller.

ODDS AND ENDS—Constance Bennett sings a nice little ditty in Warner Bros' "Wild Bill Hickok Rides"—it's called "The Lady Got a Shady Deal" . . . The famed University of Southern California Trojan band marches and plays in the big football rally scene in "The Male Animal" . . . Baseball's clown, Al Schacht, is still lamenting because he had to miss the World Series, for the first time in years; he was in Hollywood testing to play himself in Goldwyn's Lou Gehrig picture . . . Now the movies will again make the name of Smith famous—this time with Robert Young playing the title role in "Joe Smith, American."

Missed the Beauty

When Lily Langtry, the "Jersey Lily," visited the United States, a photographer paid her a huge amount of money for the privilege of photographing her. When he showed her the proofs, she eyed them with cold disapproval. "You have made me pretty," she snapped, "and I am beautiful!"

THERE GOES A TIRE!
... but why junk the car?
Any car can have a blowout in a tire. But you wouldn't junk the car. You'd just fix the tire—or replace it.
That's very much like a situation that exists in the retailing of beer. Beer retailing has its "flat tires," too—retailers who disobey the law or who permit unsavory conditions.
To protect your right to drink good beer, we of the beer industry want to eliminate the few "flat tire" retailers. Here's another reason: Right here in Texas, beer has provided employment for 31,165 persons, supports an annual payroll of $22,076,182 and paid $2,273,968.64 in state taxes last year.
The state, too, has an important stake in the beer industry's purchases—from material, equipment and services—from more than 100 other industries.
Those benefits are worth preserving. You can help us preserve them by patronizing only the reputable and legal places where beer is sold and by reporting any law violations you may observe to the duly constituted authorities.

EDITORIAL

The other day a student was heard to ask why our school library does not have a good collection of magazines. Probably that student did not take a thorough look through our library. If he had, he would have found a fairly nice assortment of magazines and some especially good ones. But think of the magazines he would have found, if at the end of the week, the usual waste-paper basket of torn and mistreated magazines were not thrown out!

If students would handle the magazines right and not use them as swatters or roll and bend them for making noises, we would have twice as many. Many times a student goes to the shelves after the magazines have been arranged carefully, and tries to see how big a mess or how mixed up he can make the literature. Not only does that disgust the person who arranges the magazines, but any other student who is trying to find a certain story or some other knowledge from the magazines.

I think that the students of Rockport High should show more appreciation of their magazines because, after all, it is much more enjoyable to read an interesting magazine than it is to read some dry book or study your school books when you are in the library.

Rockport's Drum Major

Miss Shirley Johnson, above, is the very attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Travis Johnson, and drum major in the local high school band. Shirley, by the way, is a member of the Sophomore Class.

Two New Courses Added To School Curriculum

The Rockport high school has added to its curricular studies, two new courses. These courses are Home Making II and Advanced Math.

Home Making II is taught by Miss Coley, the course providing one point to the credit of the enrolled students which number, to date, thirteen. The girls taking this course find it is most interesting and helpful.

Advanced Math is taught by Mr. Mobley, one credit being given for this course. Ten students are enrolled in this class.

These two subjects have brought the total up to thirty affiliated credits in the Rockport high school.

High School Band to Give Concert Thurs. Night At School Auditorium

The Rockport High School Band will give a public band concert Thursday night October 23, 1941 at the Rockport High School Auditorium. Representatives from the Graves Music Company of Corpus Christi will be there to show and demonstrate instruments. The purpose of this concert is to stimulate interest in the Rockport Band and to encourage new members to join. All patrons are invited and admittance is free.

Also to increase membership in the Band, a junior band is now being formed at the Rockport High School. This band will consist of all students in grade and high school who are interested in music. These students will have to furnish their own instruments. Any student who shows promise of becoming good musicians, and who work hard, will be advanced to the regular band after about a half year of junior band. This Junior band will start practice in about two weeks, William McGrath directing.

The regular band has been progressing very well so far this year. They have an increase of about ten members, the total number being forty so far.

Miss Shirley Johnson, drum major of the band, is accompanied by five other Majorettes, who in all make up a beautiful spectacle when the band is marching.

P. T. A. Presents Father's Night Program At School Auditorium Wed. Night

A Father's Night program was presented by the Parent-Teacher Association Wednesday night in the high school auditorium. Mrs. J. C. Herring presided and introduced Miss Katie Lee Clarke, the program chairman.

R. E. Black, superintendent of schools, gave the welcome address to the fathers, and Lt. U. V. Martin, of the U. S. Navy, made the response. Since this meeting also celebrated the birthday of the Texas Congress of Parent-Teachers, Mrs. Herring told the history of the local organization. Mrs. N. F. Jackson played a piano solo and accompanied the audience for assembly singing.

Mrs. W. C. Christensen announced plans for the annual P. T. A. carnival to be given November 1.

Refreshments were served in the social room of the school.

Report cards will be given out to the students of the Rockport high school this afternoon (Thursday). The preceding week was devoted to six-weeks examinations.

"THE SPY GLASS" Senior Class Orders Rings; To Be Of Same Design As Ordered Last Year

Myrtle and Gilbert seemed to be making the most of her last night in good old Rockport Sunday night. No use wasting time, eh what, Myrtle? Along with them was Myrtle's brother, Elroy, and Tootsie Smith who weren't doing bad for such a short acquaintance.

Margaret Shuster and Morris Kelly, who were seen at the football game together, were also seen at the pavilion and were having a wonderful time.

Some chatter is going on since Otis got the bad news from San Antonio, for he has given up wine, women and song and is letting his beard grow again. Cheer up, Otis, the girls of R. H. S. will still have you.

Football Fans
 Bobbie Ferris and Pauline Davis, Howard Kinsey and Shirley Johnson, Kathryn Rouquette and Harold Picton, Sue Kane and Buff Williams.

Among the stags were Otis Rouquette, Robert Simpson, Roscoe Johnson.

Oh yes! Thinking of football fans reminds us of Robert Bludworth and his two non-dates who were Joy Johnson and Betty Wiginton. We are wondering which of these girls will win.

It is said that Alberta Court went picnicing by herself Sunday afternoon. We wonder!

Say Genevieve, what does Whar-ton have that Rockport lacks? Especially over this last week-end?

We couldn't possibly have been mistaken Sunday night about a certain '40 Chrysler convertible stopped in a very conspicuous place with Lizzy and Ed in the car, or could we?

Genevieve Davis and Jerald Brundrett seem to enjoy this Chemistry class, especially on a certain Monday afternoon.

Now who could it have been that missed J. D. Kinsey so much this past week-end when he went to Monterey? We wonder.

Say Roscoe, how did your date with J. J. turn out? Come on, tell your secret to the Spyglass.

Well, well, well, what happened to all the football boys Friday? Were they too tired to have some fun after their victorious game? All the girls wonder what's the reason for their absence at the Pavilion after the game.

The seniors have ordered their rings for 1941-42. They are the same design as those of last year. They expect to show them with Thanksgiving. The school colors of green and white were chosen as the class colors and a committee composed of Otis Rouquette, Willie Schuster, Roger Bracht and T. J. Johnson has been appointed to obtain some suggestions for the class motto. A second committee, consisting of Natalie Smith, Polly Brundrett, Alphonse Hattenback, and Charles Roe, has been appointed to recommend a flower for the class, the class expecting a report from these committees Monday morning in the regular class meeting.

Joy Johnson Heads Committee to Raise Money For Junior Fund

To raise money for the Junior Fund, the Junior Class has decided to sell gum, candy and lemonade at the Woodboro and Ingleside games to be played in the near future. Jerry Wendell, president of the class, has appointed Joy Johnson to head a committee and to assist her are: Loralna Bludworth, Eddie Pat Mixon and Jimmie Herring.

Three Students Leave School This Week

Three new students have left school this week. Myrtle Krackau one of the school cheer leaders, left for Karnes City Monday afternoon. Charlene Bucy returned to her former home at Tahoka, Texas. Will Roy McWhorter left Wednesday to go to Houston. All the high school students will miss these students.

As most music lovers know, there's a band practice going on every Thursday night at the old dance hall and it seems as though Robert B. and Betty W. enjoyed the going home part most of all. "Fess up someone, tell us the truth."

As much as we hate to see people leave good old Rockport, we are very glad to have them visit us again. We all welcomed Mary Wood, who is now attending a school at Bay City, Texas, especially since she was cheering her best for the Pirates Friday night, and Richard Lithgow, who is now a student in Refugio High.

Pirates Show Their Mettle In Game With Odem Owls Friday Night; Get Revenge For '39 Blanking by Owls

Local Team Takes Lead Early in First Quarter ; Pirates Make Touchdown On Kick-Off in First Play of Second Half on Lateral by Roe to Johnson

The Rockport Pirates and the Odem Owls met in a 35-B Conference game at Rockport Friday night under favorable football weather. There was a large crowd attending the game in which the Pirates ran up the highest score of the season: Rockport-73; Odem-0. The Pirates were in fine shape as the score pointed out, and the overwhelming victory over the Owls points to revenge for the not-so-great defeat suffered by the Pirates at the hands of the Owls two years past. A brief resume' of the scoring plays follows:

In the first quarter the Owls kicked off to the Pirates on the 25 and the Pirates brought the ball back to the 39 yard line; continuing, the Pirates brought the ball down to the Owls 20 after Bracht and Wendell made two good runs. Then Johnson tossed Bracht a pass good for 20 yards to make the first score. Bracht then kicked the extra point, which was good.

The Pirates kicked to the Owls on the 10 and the Owls brought it to the 19. In two plays the Owls made only three yards, and lost the ball to the Pirates as they attempted to punt. Odem intercepted a pass by Johnson and ran off tackle for 11 yards. Odem plunged for 2 yards over center and a pass was incomplete, but Rockport was penalized 5 yards for off-sides. On two tries at end the Owls lost 8 yards and punted to their 45 and Johnson ran it back to their 35. Johnson carried it over center for 8 yards and then around end for 12 yards. The Pirates were penalized 15 yards for holding. Then Johnson threw Bracht a pass on the 30 yard line and Bracht carried it over for the second score. The Pirates failed to make the extra point.

Rockport kicked off to Odem's 32 and they ran it back to their 35 yard line. Odem on an end run lost 5 yards, and over center made no gain. Odem punted from their 45 to the Pirates' 40 yard line and Bracht stepped it back to the Owl's 31. Johnson took the ball on an end gallop 30 yards for the touchdown. Bracht passed to Johnson for the extra point.

Rockport kicked to the Owls' 22, and was stopped for no run-back. On an end run they lost 1 yard and a pass was incomplete. On a center plunge the Pirates were penalized 15 yards for backfield infraction. They punted from their 15 to the 42. Wendell and Roe on end runs picked up 28 yards to the 8 yard line. Bracht carried off-tackle for the extra point.

Rockport kicked to the Owls 15 yard line where they were stopped. The Owls were penalized 15 yards for clipping and went to punt, but it was blocked and Hunt recovered for another touchdown. Bracht passed to Wendell for the extra point.

Rockport kicked to the Owl's 22, and it was run back to the 31. Johnson intercepted a pass and ran it to the Owl's 11 yard line. Roe carried around end for the score. Bracht passed to Wendell for the Point.

In the second half Odem kicked to the Pirates on the 30 yard line and Roe ran it to mid-field and lateraled to Johnson, who carried it on to make the score. The Pirates failed to convert for the point.

Rockport kicked to the Owls 45 and were stopped for no gain. Odem tried two plays over center that netted only 1 yard. Odem punted from their 47 to the Pirates' 10 yard line. Bracht carried on an end run for 30 yards to the Owls 42 yard stripe. Wendell ran on end for 5 yards and on a reverse lost two yards. Johnson threw two passes both of which were incomplete, the ball going to the Owls. On two plays the Owls lost three yards and punted to the Rockport 23 yard line. Johnson passed and it was no good. Wendell plunged center for 6 yards and Bracht punted from his 30 yard line to the Owls' 28. Odem's pass, intercepted by Bracht and run to the Owls' 20. Johnson's pass was no good and Rockport was penalized 5 yards for off-sides. Bracht ran the right end for 10 yards and Roe ran end for 8 more, while Johnson passed to Wendell for the touchdown. Bracht passed to Schuster for the point.

Rockport kicked to ball to the Odem 20 and was run back to the 25 yard line. Odem fumbled and Rockport recovered. Johnson went around end for 14 yards. Johnson passed to Bracht for the touchdown. Bracht failed to kick the extra point.

Rockport kicked to the Odem 31 and was run back to the 35. Odem lost 15 yards to fumble. Odem punted to the Pirates' 46 yard line. Hattenback plunged off tackle for 12 yards. Bracht went 25 yards around end, and Roe went 40 yards off end for the score. Bracht kicked the extra point.

Rockport kicked off to Odem on the 35 and was stopped for no run back. Odem lost 2 yards and punted to the Pirates' 45 and Johnson ran it back to the Owls' 38. Johnson passed to Bracht for 25 yards. Bracht punted from his 40 out of bounds on the Owls' 7 yard line. Odem's punt was blocked and the Pirates recovered. Roe made the score on a sneak play, and the Pirates failed in their attempt to gain the extra point.

Rockport kicked off to Odem on the 20 and they ran it back to the 35. Odem passed but it was no good and on end run lost 2 yards. Odem passed but it was no good. On end run they lost 2 yards. Odem again tried a pass that was incomplete. On blocked punt, Odem ran it back 3 yards but the ball went to the Pirates. Rockport fumbled but drew 5 yards for Odem off-sides. Johnson passed to Roe on the 15-yard line as the whistle blew to end the game.

First Army Goes Into 'Action' in South Carolina

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS By Edward C. Wayne

Removal of Consulates From Moscow And Torpedoing of U. S. Destroyer Mark Important New Phase of War; Crisis Seen as Japan's Cabinet Falls

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.) (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

When the British and Free French took over mandated Syria from the Vichy French, they also took over the job of providing food for needy Syrians. Here is a typical scene at a food distribution center. Pails, pots and even wash basins are held aloft for offerings.

WAR; New Phase

Evacuation of the foreign consulates from Moscow and the torpedoing of the U. S. S. Destroyer Kearney off Iceland, occurring as they did about the same time, were looked upon as two major events marking the entrance into a new phase of the war.

Immediate reaction to these reports was noticeable in their effect upon the congressional voting on changes being considered for the U. S. neutrality law. Effect of the news was also reflected in the program of the "aid for Russia" program in which the United States, Great Britain and Russia were engaged.

'On Patrol'

First news of the Kearney incident came from Washington when the navy announced that the destroyer (one of the newest types) had been torpedoed while on patrol duty off the coast of Iceland. This report indicated that the ship was able to proceed under its own power.

President Roosevelt on the same day issued a statement saying that the torpedoing was clearly in the American defense zone.

Removal of the consulates from Moscow took place as the Germans, with their long range guns, began their "all out" campaign against the city.

JAPAN; A Cabinet Falls

When news came from Tokyo reporting the fall of the Japanese cabinet headed by Prince Fumimaro Konoye it looked like prelude to an Axis move in the Pacific.

Immediate speculation was that the fallen cabinet would be replaced by one more "warlike" and it was indicated that this change meant the collapse of the so-called "peace talks" between Japan and the United States.

President Roosevelt conferred for two hours with top military and state department heads just following the announcement of the cabinet's fall. White House sources did not at once discuss the conference or issue a statement on the new threat in the Far East. Other informed quarters, however, viewed the situation as grave and some forecast that the change in government in Japan came at a logical time for that country to strike a blow against Russia to aid Germany.

RUSSIA; Soviet Scene

As the German troops admittedly had smashed back the Russian defenders many miles from Smolensk, past Bryansk and past Vyazma, the picture became one in which the Russians admitted setbacks but always spoke of "heavy losses" to the enemy. The Germans issued optimistic statements so fast that the wires could hardly carry them.

Admitting many of the Nazi claims, Russian sources were asserting that "fresh legions" were entering the fight, that the Nazi advances had been made in spite of terrific losses, that the invader had been slowed, even halted and turned back at some points.

The British, including Churchill, took a rather gloomy view of the Russian situation. As to American aid, President Roosevelt said it was going forward in heavy quantities—but gave no details. Lozovsky said "the Americans are sending us 5,000 planes a month," but that was nearly twice total American production.

While the Russian statements, many of them, sounded somewhat like "whistling to keep up one's courage," still it was certain that the German all-out attack in the center, by Hitler's own statement a battle effort unequalled in the history of warfare, was not meeting the walkovers of the past.

Warmth in Iceland

Newly arrived U. S. soldiers are shown in their "homes" in Reykjavik, Iceland, warming chilled hands. In co-operation with armed forces of Great Britain these troops are "on the alert" for the protection of what has been defined as a Western Hemisphere defense outpost.

DRY DOCK; News Stories

What had been, by navy censorship, mystery yarns, and very nearly resulted fatally for one newspaper cameraman and a plane pilot, now has become regulation news stories, since the navy reversed itself and permitted the press to have access to British warships in drydock.

At one time or another docks in almost every sizeable port had been occupied, and the Warspite, a big battleship, was at Bremerton, Wash., and a 24,000-ton aircraft carrier was at Philadelphia.

And the skippers of these ships were giving out hair-raising interviews and pictures of combat, and the press cameramen were running wild with feature pictures taken on board.

The change in policy probably had been engineered by the President, who was leaning over backward to preserve press freedom, and a general feeling that this sort of story was the type of thing that would bring home the reality of the war to fun-loving Americans.

NORRIS; Has His Say

Senator Norris, the only man living and now in the senate who voted against American entry into the last war, spoke his piece about the Russian situation, and had this to say: "If Russia loses to Germany, then Japan will become so bold that we are sure to become embroiled in war with her."

"Not that it would be so bad for us," he said, "in some ways it might be a very good thing."

The senator coolly and dispassionately revealed that navy men had informed him that the Japanese fleet couldn't hold out two weeks against the American navy. He also pointed out that in a bombing war against Japan, Nippon was particularly vulnerable, as most of her cities were built largely of wooden structures, which would go like tinder on a windy day, set off by a few incendiaries.

GOODWILL; Visit to U. S.

The duke and duchess of Windsor, in paying their visit to Baltimore, the duchess' former home town, received an ovation which dwarfed anything seen in the United States surrounding any British visitor.

As a good-will ambassador, former King Edward had no rivals. A crowd estimated at 250,000 persons, one-fourth of Baltimore's defense-swollen population.

The duke played golf, and it took an army of Scotland Yarders, G-men, even diplomatic corps representatives to keep the gallery away.

The duke and duchess went to a reception to which 800 were invited, while an estimated 80,000 gnashed their teeth because they were left out. Finally 1,200 jammed into the club, gaped, cheered, and went home happy.

MISCELLANY:

New York: For the second time it had been testified by Nicholas Schenck, movie magnate, that Bluff, labor leader, had demanded a "shakedown" price of $2,000,000 not to wreck the movie industry by strikes.

New York: The B.B.C. radio stated that German losses (not giving the authority) since the start of the central offensive against Moscow, had been 160,000 killed and 450,000 wounded.

London: A second Eagle Squadron of American fliers has been formed and put into immediate action. Most of its work thus far had been in convoy patrol.

Kansas City: The police force was losing men to defense jobs, so police pay raises of $15,000 were given. They still went to defense jobs. A second pay raise of $20,000 was advised.

Berlin: It was announced that 12 more Czechs had been executed in Bohemia-Moravia protectorate for economic sabotage or possessing weapons.

Wreckage of the recently completed Arlington Methodist church, with only the portals remaining, can be seen. 'Baby' Legislators Honored

A delegation from the United Youth for Defense organization presented Sen. Joseph Ball of Minnesota and Rep. William Stratton of Illinois, two of the youngest legislators in congress, with medallions of the organization. Photo shows No. 1 New York debutante, Miss Betty Gordon, pinning a medal on Senator Ball, who is 34. Representative Stratton (shown) is 27.

Army To Spread Defense Work Among Small Business Firms of Various Parts

WASHINGTON, — New steps to aid small business by spreading defense orders as widely as possible were announced today by the Army Quartermaster Corps.

To carry out the program, the War Department said, price will no longer be the dominating factor in making awards. Awards to a single bidder will be limited. Awards will be made to as many regions, and to as many suppliers in each region, as is possible.

"In the matter of prices," the department announced, "the quartermaster general recognizes that a wide distribution of defense orders will entail increased costs, since small plants may be unfamiliar with and inadequately equipped to produce quartermaster items.

"Within reasonable limits, depending on circumstances surrounding individual procurement orders, bid prices will not always govern the award of contracts. Direct negotiations will be made with bidders in a particular region where it is desired to make awards, when bid prices are considered too high. Every reasonable effort will be made to induce such bidders to accept a stated quantity as what is considered a fair price to them."

Quartermaster procurement district headquarters to be used as the basis for regional distribution of awards are located in Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Atlanta, Jeffersonville, Ind., Chicago, St. Louis, San Antonio and San Francisco. Whenever possible, contracts will be let f.o.b. point of origin with final inspection at that place to facilitate payment for the order, particularly to small contractors who may have difficulty in obtaining adequate financial backing.

Army to Train Air Corps Radio Technicians

A thorough schooling as a radio technician in the Army Air Corps is assured all students at the Army Air Corps Radio Operators and Mechanics School at Scott Field, Belleville, Illinois, Sgt. Thomas R. Sizemore, Corpus Christi, stated today.

The school, the largest of its kind is training radio experts at the rate of approximately 20,000 a year. About 800 soldiers enter the school every two weeks. graduates of the 22-week radio course are thoroughly trained in the operation, installation and field maintenance of tactical ground radio equipment. During the training period students spend 770 hours in the classroom and laboratories, and many hours of study in their quarters.

Some of the things they study are the following: Mathematics, radio hand tools, beginners code, typing practice, code practice, radio telegraph and radio telephone procedure, flight radio operation, direct current, alternating current, transmitters, receivers, circuit analysis, test sets, frequency meters and interphones, command sets, lia-

YOUR CIVILIAN "SIGNAL CORPS"

Platoons of telephone construction men stand ready to roll out in blue-gray Bell trucks to set poles—string wire—install switchboards.

They know that a call for shell fuses now is almost as urgent as a call for serum—that life and death somewhere may hang on the prompt arrival of a shipment of cotton—that spoken messages must carry through the clatter of mighty mill sheds—must cross vast industrial areas and leap the miles between cities.

They're doing a big job—these telephone men—and the telephone operators and repairmen who work with them. They race with your country's vital needs. They struggle to keep up with a demand for service greater than they have ever known before.

ison sets, radio compass, marker beacon equipment, antenna ties, technical orders, and many others. "This provides one of the best opportunities available to young men with foresight and ambition who are thinking of fitting themselves for future life in the business world," Sizemore went on to say. "Here you have thorough training in a type of work which is rapidly expanding, one in which there will be great demand for skilled workers. The cost of the course is nothing to the young man. Everything is paid for by the government. After his term of service is over, a young man can step right out into civilian life and take up his place in a good profession.

Sgt. Sizemore appealed to every young man in this district to investigate this matter more fully. Either write or come by the office. Do not hesitate. In this the opportunity is offered not only to better oneself, but also to be of service to his country, it was pointed out.
