Along The Waterfront

Although fishing was spotty, several good catches were made at the Jolly Roger this week. Catches consisted principally of speckled trout, with only three small redfish being caught. The trout mostly ran to the smaller sizes, although five were taken by Mr. Agnew of Corpus Christi weighing 27 pounds, this is the exception to the average catches.

Mr. and Mrs. Donegre, of Kansas City, caught a string of trout weighing 67 pounds, a result of two days of fishing.

L. L. Curry and R. E. Glover, who have been staying at Hunt's Courts, caught 35 nice sized trout off the end of Hunt's pier. One of them caught a 10 pound pike, but neither will lay claim to actually doing the catching. Each tried to give the other credit for the catch, so we'll just say they were fishing together and caught all these fish between them.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Shelton and sons, William and Bubba, went out with Shorly Townsend Saturday and caught 127 large trout. They are from Smiley, Texas.

Fred Christilles took Ralph Stone, Frank Cherrer, Park Strickland, Arthur Braden, Ben Irby, and Gene Boemer, all of San Antonio, out Tuesday on his boat the "Christie" and they caught 64 nice trout.

Arthur Braden, Bob Maxwell, and Cecil Putty, all of San Antonio, went out to the Gulf Monday and brought back 50 good sized mackerel. Braden said they barbecued some of them and it was the best eating he has had in a long time.

H. H. Drumm, Paul J. Lemm, T. A. Low, T. A. Low, Jr., Pierre Roberts, and Frank Secura of Brenham, and Herbie Eversberg of Baton Rouge, La., went out with Shorly Townsend on his boat the "Snooks" and caught 147 trout Tuesday.

Mills Wharf reports excellent fishing during the past week, such as the party that went out with Herbert Mills on the "Linna May" and included M. C. Marie, H. C. Boehl, E. L. Brewer and R. H. Lapp, which brought back 302 trout Saturday.

E. D. Roberts of San Antonio, H. B. Way, and H. L. Way of Houston went out with Hopkins on the "Sea Dog" and caught 91 trout Saturday.

F. B. Carter of Rockport was out in a private boat and caught 50 pounds of trout and 33 pounds of drum.

C. W. Parish and A. J. Rider of San Antonio, and C. A. Diehl of Houston went out with Herbert Mills on the "Linna May" on Friday and caught 145 trout.

Dr. A. R. Ragsdale, C. T. Rowland, and F. C. Rowland of Ganey caught 115 trout when they went out with Harry Mills on the "Fisherman."

Mills Wharf reports that there were over a thousand trout brought in on Sunday, with the party that caught 302 trout leading the catches.

W. C. Williams of Shidler, Oklahoma, O. L. Harton of Danevang, and Jack Darce of Wharton went out with "Uncle Billy" and caught 91 trout.

R. L. Sims, and R. W. Hagan of Houston caught 102 trout on the 11th.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Farnham of Houston went out with Harry Mills on the "Fisherman" and brought in 133 trout.

National Service Insurance to Be Decentralized

The Veterans Administration's insurance files will be decentralized and an insurance division will be opened in the Regional Office in Dallas late next month. This will speed up the service for the veterans and will give them better service than was possible before.

National Service Insurance amendments passed by Congress have liberalized it and will make it more useful in the future. GI insurance benefits are now in line with those of commercial insurance companies at a great saving to the veteran.

Principal changes in the amendment act are: (1) Lump sum payments to beneficiaries if desired. (2) Total disability protection upon payment of a slight additional premium. (3) Entitlement of all persons who served in the armed forces between Oct. 8, 1940, and Sept. 2, 1945, to apply for National Service policies or to increase the amount of policies already in force.

(4) More endorsement types of policies offered. (5) Removal of many restrictions in the naming of beneficiaries.

Reinstatement Possible Some six million holders of NSLI policies now in force are eligible for many new benefits provided by these amendments. In addition, veterans who formerly held about ten million policies that have lapsed may still be entitled to reinstate them and take advantage of the low cost protection provided for their families by GI insurance.

Previously, the only method of settlement provided was monthly income or annuity payments. These forms are still available. In addition, the amendment provides an option under which the insured may have his insurance paid in a single lump sum to beneficiaries, or he may elect for payments to be made in equal monthly installments ranging from 36 to 240 months.

Disability Payments A new feature added by the amendments is the payment of benefits to an insured veteran who is totally disabled when such disability has existed for at least six consecutive months.

These payments are at the rate of $5.00 a month for each $1,000 of insurance and are payable for as long as the disability exists. The insurance itself is not affected by the payments so that beneficiaries receive the full face value of the policy upon the death of the insured.

The new total disability feature may be added to any form of NSLI including term insurance, if the insured meets specified health requirement and pays the extra premium.

Health Proof Needed All persons who served in the armed forces between Oct. 8, 1940 and Sept. 2, 1945, are entitled to apply for new NSLI. The total amount may not exceed $10,000.

The application will be filed at any time and will be granted upon proof that the veteran meets the required health standards. This is a change from the previous provision which limited all veterans to the amount of insurance they had while in service.

Applications for insurance which were rejected solely for health reasons between Oct. 8, 1940 and Sept. 2, 1945, are validated by the new amendments in cases where the applicants were killed or totally disabled in line of duty while in service. This amendment will provide income for beneficiaries who receive no insurance payments under the old law.

New Types Available Originally, permanent policies provided in NSLI were ordinary life, 20-payment life and 30-payment life.

Under the amendments, new additional types of policies available to veterans are 20-year endowment policies, endowment at age of 60 and endowment at age of 65. On all endowment policies, the premiums must be paid for the indicated length of time, at the expiration of which the face of the policy may be paid to the veteran.

Restrictions Removed It is not necessary for veterans

Using Large Trawl In Bay Costs Fisherman $21

William T. Rivers of Aransas Pass was fined $10.00 and costs in Justice of the Peace Joe Smith's Court Monday, August 12, for illegally using a large shrimp trawl in Aransas Bay, after being apprehended by Captain M. B. Mullinax assisted by Johnny Davis.

Captain Mullinax said that he hoped that this fine, which totaled $21.00, would serve as a warning to all other fishermen who might be thinking of using large trawls illegally in the bays in this district.

now holding term insurance policies to make an immediate change, as term policies issued before January 1, 1946, may be continued for eight years from date of issue.

All restrictions on the choice of beneficiaries which were imposed by the original act have been removed. Formerly it was necessary to designate beneficiaries who were near relatives. Now any person or persons, a corporation or an estate may be designated as beneficiary in a policy.

It has also been announced that interest rates on government life insurance policy loans have been reduced from five to four per cent annually effective immediately. Officials say that the new rate is in keeping with the present trend of interest rates on policy loans made by commercial life insurance companies.

Million-Dollar Saving Approximately 127,000 veterans of both World Wars have loans of more than $115,000,000 outstanding against the U. S. Government Life or National Life Insurance on an annual basis.

The new rate will mean a savings of over $1,000,000 to these veterans. The four per cent rate represents the second reduction in government life insurance loan rates within the past seven years. The first was made on July 19, 1939 when the rate was cut from six to five per cent.

Loans may be secured on permanent plans of U. S. Government Life and National Life Insurance after the permanent policy has been in effect one year. Veterans desiring information pertaining to service insurance may call at the Veterans Administration Office at 407 Texas Building, Corpus Christi.

Duck Bag Limited To Seven Daily

Possession of 14; Season Shortened A 45-day duck hunting season—a reduction of 35 days from last year—has been announced by Secretary of Interior Krug.

The 1946 regulations also reduce the daily bag limit from 10 to seven, and the possession limit from 20 to 14.

Shooting hours for waterfowl: Coot, rails and gallinules will run from one-half hour before sunrise to one-half hour before sunset.

The waterfowl season runs from October 5 to November 18 in the northern zone; from October 26 to December 9 in the intermediate zone; from November 23 to January 6 in the southern zone.

The daily bag and possession limits for geese have been reduced to two of any kind in any combination, including brant, plus two snow geese or two blue geese, singly or in combination.

The interstate transportation of waterfowl (except American and redbreasted Merganser ducks) is limited to one day's bag in a calendar week.

90-Day Possession Limit The post-season period for possession of migratory game birds remains 90 days.

Local Schools Expect Record Enrollment This Fall

Children Whose Names Do Not Appear On Census Rolls Will Not Be Entered

Football Players Asked to Report On August 26

Out at the high school, Coach John Ramseur is issuing a call for all prospective football boys to be on hand early on the morning of August 26 to discuss organization for the coming year, which starts for the footballers on September 1.

The meeting is set for 8:30 o'clock on that date in the high school auditorium, and Coach Ramseur states that boys who do not show up on this date will be left far behind on the playing schedule. According to Ramseur's estimate, there should be somewhere between 25 and 30 prospective players attending this meeting, and the coach urges all of them to be there for the starting instructions.

School Board Selects Mrs. Nannie Deane to Head Lunch Room

The school board in its meeting August 12 selected Mrs. Nannie Deane as supervisor of the school lunch room, and set the prices for the lunches at 25 cents plus the cost of the drink, which will be optional.

The board said that if the prices of commodities should advance during the year, the lunch price will be advanced proportionately. Mrs. Deane was authorized by the board to contact the merchants of Rockport for the purpose of determining just how many wish to participate in a percentage discount. Each merchant will be given a certain week of the month if he agrees to the percentage discount arrangement.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch McLester are the proud parents of a boy weighing 9½ pounds here Friday night.

Lamar District is merged with Rockport School. There will be an increase in the number of students here this year with the merger of the Lamar Common School District No. 6 with the Rockport Independent School District.

McDaniel Out of Town Gathering Book Data

Mr. and Mrs. Ruel McDaniel are on an extended trip to Slocum, Palestine, and Houston while he is gathering material for a book. They plan to be gone two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory M. Spencer became proud parents of a baby girl August 8. She was named Sharon Kay Spencer and was born at Spohn's Hospital in Corpus Christi.

A higher enrollment than has ever been recorded in the Rockport public schools is expected this fall, with something over 800 students expected to enroll for the coming term of school. The closest to this was in 1943 when 610 students were listed on the census rolls.

This rapid increase is due to the fact that many people have come down from the north either for the climate existing in this area or for business purposes. Others are students who have transferred or entered from other districts in Texas. This influx of students will cause a serious shortage of rooms in the elementary school, and may necessitate the use of other buildings in town until facilities can be built on the present school grounds.

None Enrolled Unless Name Is On Census Rolls The local board of education says that many people are careless about placing their children on the census rolls each year and many children start before they are six years of age. After considering the various difficulties that will be caused by the large enrollment, the board decided that no student will be allowed to enter school whose name does not appear on the census rolls. Also, no child under six years of age on September 1, 1946, will be allowed to enter school this year.

Cost Increases This influx of students has caused the cost of school administration and instruction to rise from $35,000.00 a year to $54,000.00 for the coming year. There will be more teachers in the schools for this year, but not near enough to take care of the expected enrollment. The board says: "Unless and until the state board of education or the local board of education is able to pay salaries commensurate with other neighboring schools, Rockport schools are scheduled to suffer from low salaries and housing shortages."

The local board has been studying means of obtaining funds to build or lease housing units for teachers, administrators and others, but decided that "such a program would take away from the children of the schools." Many other districts are rapidly building or securing buildings for teachers as living quarters, because this usually is one of the first requirements by teachers who are prospective applicants for positions in their schools. The board says that "until we can provide the necessary housing units, we will be unable to obtain all the teachers we need."

Methods of Raising Necessary Funds The local board believes that "only by a raise in the evaluation of the district and a raise in the local maintenance tax can the Rockport schools hope to build much needed buildings and hire qualified teachers. There is a possibility that the State of Texas, through the equalization and available school funds, might be able to help more than it is now doing. The Rockport schools are now receiving $21,000.00 from the state available school fund through its apportionment program (for the coming year) and around $12,000.00 from the equalization funds. This leaves the independent district paying around $10,000.00 of a $54,000.00 budget, which we cannot hope to raise unless we have a raise of another 25 cents in taxes, and a raising of the present evaluations on property."

Here is the roster of teachers for Rockport public schools for the year 1946-1947:

Mrs. John Haynes, Latin-American school; Mrs. Helen Albin, 1st grade Anglo-American; Mrs. Lillian Sorenson, 2nd grade; Mrs. Bertha Harper, 3rd grade; Mrs. Charlyne Hunt, 4th grade; Miss Katie Lee Clarke, 5th grade; Mrs. Golda James, 6th grade; Mrs. C. D. Prophet, 6th grade; Miss Ruth Lipscomb, 7th grade; Mrs. Ruth Rundlett, 8th grade; Mr. Thomas H. Foster, principal elementary school.

High school: Mrs. Susan Butler, English; Mrs. Ruth Hayden, math and textbook custodian; John Bowen, science; Mrs. Morgan C. Wheeler, homemaking; Mrs. Lucy Roberts, commercial; John Ramseur, physical education; Owen James, history and dean of students; Morgan C. Wheeler, superintendent.

TRIAL OF MIHAILOVITCH A PROPAGANDA STUNT

WASHINGTON. — The final defense of Mihailovitch, hero of the Chetniks, was little reported in this country.

I had against me a competitive organization, the Communist party, which seeks its aims without compromise. I was faced with changes in my own government and accused of connections with every possible secret service, enemy and Allied.

BROKEN BY TORTURE This is a Serbian soldier of resistance, far from the early time when he and the British alone were resisting the Nazis but Russia was not.

Of course, Sen. George Norris was the classic example. Five terms. Then he was replaced by an anti-Roosevelt man, Sen. Kenneth Wherry.

Senator Norris' closest contender for the longevity record in recent years was Ellison ("Cotton Ed") Smith of South Carolina, violently anti-New Deal. He was defeated by a pro-Roosevelt man the year after Norris lost out.

Before the "trial" of the Chetnik commander-in-chief, on our side up to December, 1945, his Communist party adversary Tito went to Moscow with him he took his military leaders and the head of his secret police—the Ozana.

Veteran Senator Winds Up Long Career Defeat of Wheeler Marks Passing of Able Legislator

By BAUKHAGE

News Analyst and Commentator.

WNU Service, 1616 Eye Street, N.W., Washington, D. C.

There was something rather pathetic about it to me when I heard the President say two words that marked the obituary of a long career.

There was nothing more that the President could say. He already had endorsed Wheeler with that remarkable loyalty that he has for his friends—a virtue which easily may go down in history as one of his faults.

Wheeler gave the freshman senator, Harry Truman, his first opportunity to show his mettle by letting him bat for him as chairman of the important Interstate Commerce committee.

The other day I was looking over the autographed photographs with which Harold McGrath, superintendent of the senate radio gallery, had decorated the walls.

In February of 1935 I had a long interview with Senator Wheeler. I have the yellowing clipping before me. It is illustrated with a huge photograph (more picture than text) showing Wheeler, his fist clenched about to drive it into his palm—a favorite gesture. I remember when the picture was taken.

Here are two paragraphs from the story:

"Last autumn (remember this was written in February, 1935), citizens of Montana sent the same young man to Washington as a senator for his third term with the largest majority ever given a candidate by the Mountain State."

"Wheeler (I observed this in the same interview) came back to his office in the Senate building with the pictures of the high mountains and the deep valleys of his adopted state on the walls, and a victory measured in the same magnificent dimensions.

The year 1940 was a bad one for veterans—besides Ashurst, William King of Utah left us, having served since 1917, and Lynn Frazer of North Dakota, who came to Washington in 1923.

Senator Wheeler served only four terms, but his vivid personality made it seem longer. He made many enemies. Many people disapprove of his isolationism and some of his other views most thoroughly. But there are many, even among his detractors, who respect him for his integrity, for his ability as a legislator, something which perhaps is understood in Washington better than elsewhere, and also because they consider his pacifism sincere.

I remember a conversation I had with Jerry O'Connell, former representative who tried to take Wheeler's seat in a campaign somewhat similar to the one which brought victory to Erickson. Jerry was pretty sore. He had a copy of the Anaconda Standard in his hand as well as a clipping. The clipping was a report of one of Senator Wheeler's campaign speeches, made early in his career. I can't remember the phraseology, but the general idea (expressed by Wheeler) was that if the Anaconda Standard, which was supposed to represent the sentiments of the big copper interests, ever praised Wheeler, it would be a sign that he was no longer worthy of the support of the people of Montana.

O'Connell read that to me. Then he picked up his copy of the Standard, and read from it some very kind words for Senator Wheeler.

However, I think it would be grossly unfair to say that Senator Wheeler ever "sold out," even figuratively, to any interests. As far as I know, he is as sincere today as he was when he made his first fight on whatever issue had a side unpopular enough to attract him.

His hair is a little thinner than it was but he can wake the echoes with the same thunder he released when he first arrived. He is still up and at 'em. And the higher they fly the more anxious he is to make them fall."

Wheeler, Norris, Ashurst—they, too, flew high.

Peace Talks Liberalized; G.I.'s Get Furlough Pay

PEACE PARLEY: Open Discussion

Smaller nations won the right to discuss any question pertaining to the peace treaty drafts for Germany's former European satellites at the Paris peace conference in a surprise concession by Russia.

The Russian action followed Greece's demand that the conference be allowed to consider any item which relates to a just and durable peace. After hearing Yugoslavia and the Ukraine of the Soviet bloc attack the proposal, Russian Foreign Minister Molotov advanced his compromise. By offering the opportunity for thoroughly discussing the treaty drafts, his plan would permit the molding of a sound peace, he said.

AUTO PRODUCTION: Face Drop

Up to a postwar production record of 312,576 units in July, output of cars and trucks threatened to take another slide this month as strikes at supplier plants cut down the flow of essential materials to booming assembly lines.

Because a walkout of 80 tool and die workers at the Dura division of the Detroit Harvestor company in Toledo, Ohio, affected shipments of door handles and interior hardware, Studebaker was compelled to lay off 4,000 employees and Hudson 12,000.

FURLOUGH PAY: In Bonds

G.I.s entitled to pay for unused furloughs will receive their money in bonds if the amount exceeds $50 under a bill approved by congress. Disbursements in securities was decided upon after the administration warned that payment in cash would have an inflationary effect.

To be issued in amounts of $25, the bonds will not be redeemed before five years, though they can be applied against U. S. government life insurance or national service life insurance before that time. In cases where excess sums do not total $25, payment will be made in cash.

WAR PROFITS: Garsons Kick

Denying the war department's charge that it made excessive profits on war contracts, Erie Basin Metal Products, Inc., asked the U. S. tax court to bar the government's efforts to obtain a refund of $358,874.58 for the fiscal year ending November 30, 1943.

The company was an important unit in the Garson munitions empire under scrutiny of the senate investigating committee headed by Senator Mead (Dem., N. Y.). Representative May (Dem., Ky.) was charged with having exerted his influence with the war department for awarding the combine war contracts and high army officers in Washington, D. C., were shown to have frolicked at the Garsons' expense and pushed their interests.

RED CROSS: Continue Work

German war prisoners stood to benefit as the International Red Cross committee, meeting in Geneva, Switzerland, authorized the collection of $2,750,000 from affiliated societies and governments for relief work up to 1950.

Humanitarian in its motives and recognizing no distinction in race, color or creed, the IRCC record of achievement during the war was especially noteworthy. The IRCC revealed that its activities included maintenance of a 27 million card index for 15 million prisoners of war; 900,000 inquiries to regiments regarding missing soldiers; visits by 420 IRCC delegates to POW camps in 56 countries to check on conditions, and safe delivery of 107 million letters or postal packages.

INDIVIDUAL APPROACH

Farm Plan Stresses Local Aid

Increased responsibility for conserving land resources is placed upon local farm and ranch owners in the 1947 agricultural conservation program, it is revealed in details of the new plan announced by department of agriculture.

For the first time, the program allows up to 10 per cent of county conservation funds to carry out a practice not included in the list approved by the government for the various states.

The balance will go toward carrying out conservation practices selected by farmers and committees from the approved list.

Costs 300 Million Dollars. Authority for the 300 million dollar program is granted by congress under the agricultural appropriation act of 1947. The money is authorized to assist in carrying out soil building practices, soil and water conservation or the harvest of grass and legume seeds and to pay administrative costs of the program.

Success of the program depends upon farmers and other committeemen who together work out plans for individual farms," said Dave Davidson, director of the field service branch, production and marketing administration.

Stress Local Angle. Davidson explained that greater emphasis on the local approach should help farmers make some needed shifts from practices which were necessary for quick wartime production to those of greater long-term soil building value.

Operators of some four million farms took part in the 1946 program, or about two-thirds of the total. The area of these farms included almost three-quarters of the nation's cropland.

Farmers receive assistance from the ACP in conservation materials and services as well as payments. Most materials are bought from local dealers.

List Practices. In general, the 1947 program is divided into these major types of practices: (1) Application of lime, fertilizer and other materials; (2) planting of cover crops; (3) harvesting of certain legumes and grass seeds; (4) erosion control and water conservation; (5) range and pasture improvement; (6) forestry; and (7) other practices such as weed control and clearance of land for plowing or pasture.

Special emphasis in 1947 will be placed on measures to prevent soil erosion and to conserve water. Such measures include planting of row crops on the contour, building of terraces, erosion control dams, livestock water ponds and similar practices. Use of lime and fertilizers on legumes and grasses will continue to be a major part of the program.

While Walter Winchell is on vacation, Jack Lait, writer of the "Broadway and Elsewhere" column, will appear in this space as guest columnist. Winchell's column will be resumed on his return in September.

Follies of 1946— The dogdays are here. . . . It shouldn't happen to a dachshund. . . . Winchell is on vacation, meaning he can get up at 7 p. m., instead of 6. . . . But the show must go on. . . . So Lait will jiggle the dots and juggle the dashes. . . . It's fun. . . . Let's get started!

Unreported incidents in Hollywood, eye-witnessed by my bureau of information, which never sleeps, never drinks, seldom eats: Betty Grable said she would not accompany Harry James east on his six-week tour. Almost as soon as he got off the train, she got on a plane—for New York. . . . Before John Perona flew to Paris, Mary Pickford gave him a solid gold St. Anthony's medal. . . . Bill Cagney begged Howard Hughes to take him up on that test flight and was turned down. . . . A movie company is paying $2,000 to advertise its picture-to-be, "The Egg and I," on an ostrich egg which is being hatched at a farm which raises the big birds in Pasadena. Thousands visit there daily. The deal is that as each party goes through, the mother ostrich is to be shooed off her future offspring, so that gawkers can read the copy. There are seven words painted on the egg, which figures out at a rate of $275.75 per word.

The following acknowledgment is being received by those who order from a large Manhattan auto agency: "We are enclosing herewith accepted copy of your order, subject to further delays due to conditions beyond our control. Delivery should be expected from 15 to 25 months."

Department of Internal Revenue has had an agent in Hollywood checking into the extraordinary number of refunds claimed and gotten by high-salaried movie people. By virtue of an ancient law, the government pays 6 per cent interest on sums paid and held, until refunded. There is virtually no such thing these days as a 6 per cent investment, but anyone who wants to miscount or forget to enter a just and probable claim for allowance can draw 6 per cent on such a sum, plus retrieving it in full. During 1945, the United States paid out $17,000,000 of such interest. In 1944, the amount was $23,000,000. This year, the interest will be only about $4,000,000, as the government is "hep" and rushing the kickbacks. Most of this, of course, is legitimate. But some big moneymakers have deliberately used it as a racket.

Howard Hughes, the incredibly rugged individualist, despite his excruciating physical agony and his multifarious mental misgivings, has refused to take one sedative. . . . Even the mildest sleeping-aids and pain-relievers, given patients who stub a toe, he has stubbornly turned down. . . . In fact, he refused to eat or drink, fearing some palliative may have been slipped in. . . . # TREASURE OF THE SEA

BY George E. Walsh W.N.U. Release

THE STORY THUS FAR:
After being adrift for four days on a raft, Dick Jordan is picked up by a small sailing vessel in the Caribbean sea. The captain is named Tucú, an evil-looking half-breed. Dick realizes that he is among men who are little more than pirates. He invents a story of some smuggled jewels, to gain time. He tells Tucú that these jewels are attached to a boat near the sunken steamer. On the way to the area where the steamer lies, they sight a derelict schooner. Tucú changes the course to meet it. When they come close to the drifting vessel, a man appears on the deck and shouts to them in a demented manner.

CHAPTER III

"Crazy!" muttered Captain Tucú. "Left alone, an' gone crazy. Pull away!" he added, addressing the Caribs at the oars.

The boat started in the direction of the schooner, but it hadn't covered a quarter of the distance when another figure appeared on the deck. If the sight of the old man had surprised the boarding crew, the second apparition—for it seemed like an apparition to many, certainly to Dick Jordan on the deck of the lugger—created amazement and consternation.

The newcomer was a woman, lightly clad, and with her hair streaming down her shoulders and back, half way to her waist. She had the appearance of one who has been interrupted in the midst of her toilet, rushing on deck to ascertain the meaning of the commotion. She glanced in the direction of the lugger, shading her eyes with one hand, and then back at the old man on the deck. She spoke to him in a low voice, which he heeded, for he withdrew from sight, and permitted her to do the talking.

"What boat is that?" she asked in a clear, bell-like voice.

Tucú hesitated for a moment before replying; then in his most persuasive voice, he informed her: "The San Miguel, Of Limon."

The girl or young woman—it was difficult to estimate her age at the distance, but to Dick she seemed young and comely—seemed in doubt, hesitating before replying; but her eyes were busy studying the boat's crew and the lines of the lugger. Finally, as if she had made up her mind, she retorted in a sharp, peremptory way:

"Well, what do you want? You can't come aboard!"

Captain Tucú smiled a bit craftily. "We took her for a derelict—abandoned."

"You can see now she isn't," replied the girl quickly. Then, as if anxious to pacify them, she added in a pleasant voice: "Thank you for coming; but we don't need any help. We can manage."

Tucú was a little nonplussed, but the grin hadn't left his ugly face. "You can't get into port with that wreck. We'll help y'er rig her up."

"No, thank you," was the cool retort. "We can manage."

The small boat had been drifting nearer all the time, and as if alarmed by this the girl added sharper than before: "Keep away, please! You'll get tangled in the wreckage."

Tucú turned to his mate and exchanged a few words with him, and then addressed the girl again: "Who's that old man aboard?"

She drew herself up and frowned. "You mean my father, Captain Bedford?"

"Is he cap'n?" There was a smile of derision on his face, which the girl caught. Resenting it, she nodded curtly, and said:

"Yes! Now if you have no further business here, go back to your own ship."

"I'd like to speak to the cap'n," was the cool retort, motioning to the Caribs to dip their oars again.

"You can't!" was the frightened reply. "He's not well, and has gone below."

Dick Goes to Aid Of a Brave Girl

Dick caught the note of alarm in the voice. He gave a start and glanced around him. The handful of Caribs left on the lugger were grouped forward, intently interested in the schooner and the conversation going on between the skipper and the girl. No one paid the least attention to him.

"If Tucú goes aboard," he muttered under his breath, "I'll go too."

After more talk, Tucú and his crew made fast to the schooner and prepared to climb aboard. "Stop!" she cried. "I forbid you coming aboard!"

"I'm in command here and I forbid!"

Dick didn't hear the finish of the sentence. He had quietly dropped over the stern of the lugger, and was once more battling with his old enemy—the sea.

Swimming slowly, with his head low down in the water, and making a wide detour around the stern of the derelict, Dick reached it without attracting attention. Nobody on the lugger had noticed his departure, and those aboard the schooner were too interested in their prize to give heed to anything else.

Dick climbed up the rigging hanging over the side opposite the lugger, and secured a firm grip on the deck rail with both hands. Tucú and his men were still forward, arguing with the girl. Dick could hear her high-pitched voice raised in remonstrance.

"If you put a foot on this deck, I'll shoot!" she was saying. "The law allows it. You're boarding my ship against my will."

Dick thrust his head above the rail. The men hadn't reached the deck yet, but were hanging over the side, with heads in view. The girl was facing them, with a defiant glitter in her eyes, and an ugly-looking automatic in one hand.

"Tucú saw it, and hesitated. Ordinarily he would break a woman with as little compunction as he would a dog, and ride roughshod over her opposition; but the one facing him was no ordinary creature. She was cool and collected, pointing a gun at his heart with a hand that did not tremble.

"Y'father asked us aboard, lady," Tucú replied after a pause, an insinuating pleasantry in his voice, "an' we come because o' that. Where's he gone?"

"I told you I was in command here," was the short, curt reply. "That's sufficient. Now get back!"

Tucú glanced aft and then forward. "Where's the crew?" he asked, smiling.

Then, as if drawn by common impulse, they turned and gazed at each other.

The girl woman paled slightly through her tan, but answered unhesitatingly: "There's no crew aboard. No one but father and me. Now you know the truth."

It was a bold challenge, delivered in a voice that never quavered. Dick smiled his admiration. She was capable of handling the situation. He made a bet with himself that she would force the men back through sheer will power and bravado.

But neither the girl nor Dick had figured upon the craftiness of old Tucú. Anticipating some such hold-up, the half breed had been playing for time until two of his men could work unobserved along the side of the schooner and climb up the rigging back of the girl. Neither of them was aware of this until her father, the demented skipper of the schooner, suddenly turned up again and announced his presence with glee. He had seen the two Caribs crawling up and instead of repelling them he rushed to offer assistance.

Captain Bedford Babbles Too Much

"Come aboard, mates!" he cried. "I'll help ye. It's a great prize I've picked up—so much money that I don't know what to do with it. Come aboard, an' I'll show ye."

The game was up. The girl turned a horrified gaze at her father, and then swung back again just in time to see Tucú make a leap for the deck. As if determined to punish him for his audacity, she opened fire at short range. With a growl of pain, the half breed dropped to the deck, with one arm limp and useless.

"Damn her. Break her neck, Burley!" he growled.

But Black Burley had no intention of facing the gun pointed at him now. He dropped out of sight behind the bulwark, crowding those back of him into the water.

She would have driven them into their boat at the point of her gun if the two, helped on deck by the old skipper, had not attacked in the rear. When she saw them running toward her, she gave a little cry of alarm, and for the first time seemed to lose her nerve.

Tucú raised his voice at the two Caribs, urging them to the flank attack. The crash of the pistol had evidently stunned Captain Bedford, for he stood helpless and amazed with mouth wide open.

Dick at this juncture decided to cast his lot in with the girl. The two Caribs had to pass close to him. When the first came abreast of his hiding place, he shot out a leg and tripped him. The second partly stumbled over the first. Quick as a flash Dick landed a blow with his fist on the point of the man's jaw, and completed the fall.

Both were armed with long curved knives that for ugliness could not be beaten. Before either could recover from his surprise, he relieved them of their weapons. Then giving the first one a kick he ran in the direction of the girl, who, with Tucú, had been watching him with amazement.

"Keep them covered!" Dick called. "I'll take care of these two. Shoot the first head that bobs up." Encouraged by the assistance that had so miraculously come to her, the captain's daughter turned more fiercely than ever upon the leader.

"I'll give you ten seconds to get over that rail," she said in a menacing voice. "If you're not gone by that time, I'll kill you like I would a dog."

Black Burley thrust a head above the bulwark. A bullet buried itself in the woodwork so near that he dropped out of sight again. "One!" began the girl. "Two!"

Tucú growled and showed his teeth; but his eyes were upon Dick, whose interference had aroused him to furious hatred. "I'll cut y'heart out, y'traitor!" he breathed thickly.

"Three! Four!" counted the girl. At the seventh count, Tucú picked himself up, slowly and painfully, made his way over the side. Dick returned to the disarmed Caribs, and with their own knives as weapons drove them into the sea. When they disappeared, leaving the deck cleared of all enemies, he hurried to the girl's assistance. She was peering over the side of the schooner to see if the crew were leaving in their boat.

"Keep back!" Dick warned. "They may shoot!"

She nodded and stepped cautiously behind the bulwark for protection. Dick glanced around for her weapon. A loose spar, as heavy as a man, and twenty feet long, attracted his attention. Picking it up, he carried it to the side of the schooner, and with a heave threw it outward so that it just grazed the top of the rail.

It rolled over with a clatter, carrying everything with it. There was a growl and scream below that informed him his ruse had succeeded. In its descent the long spar had knocked three Caribs into the sea, and falling on the lugger's small boat nearly smashed the bottom out of it.

Captain Tucú evidently decided that retreat, until he could reorganize his forces and plan a new attack, was the better part of wisdom. He belloyed a command to his men to pull away from the schooner, and a few moments later Dick and Captain Bedford's daughter saw the boat returning to the lugger.

They remained motionless and silent watching until the boat had drawn off beyond pistol shot. Then, as if drawn by common impulse, they turned and gazed at each other.

The girl was quiet and sober, her eyes regarding him inquiringly, almost suspiciously. There was no hint of a smile on her face. The events had tested her courage to the breaking point, and the strain was apparent in the fine lines drawn around the lips and in the heavy circles under her eyes.

Eat With Relish If You Put Up Own Pickles, Chili

After you wash jars for canning, sterilize them by pouring hot water to fill, then empty water from them and set the jars inverted on a clean towel until ready to use.

Your family won't go without those tasty pickles, chili sauces and catsup if you put up your own supplies this summer and fall. We don't know what market conditions will be for these products during the next year, but if you have your own you won't be a slave to market conditions.

Most canning budgets will permit putting up some relishes because as a general rule, they do not require too much in the way of sweetening. If these recipes prove too generous in quantity, cut them in halves or quarters and follow instructions.

I'm including old favorites in pickles and relishes which I'm sure will add much to your personal eating pleasure during the winter. It's easy to make pickles because they have enough vinegar and spices so that you will not have to worry too much about spoilage.

Now, let's get the jars ready and make plans for canning on the next fairly cool day that comes along. I know you'll want a good supply of these two favorite pickles for next winter:

Mary Virginia Jackson Honored With Pre-Nuptial Party

The first pre-nuptial courtesy for Miss Mary Virginia Jackson, bride-elect of Bruce Davis, was given Tuesday night at the recreation hall by the members of the Order of the Eastern Star.

The guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Mabel Bryant and Mrs. Lucretia Diederich. Inside the reception room Mrs. Tessye Wheeler, Worthy Matron, and Bert Smith, Worthy Patron; Miss Jackson and Mr. Davis welcomed the guests and Mrs. Bertha Harper presided over the register. Mrs. Mamie Hooper was master of ceremonies for the occasion and Mrs. Judy Collier was in charge of the evening's entertainment.

A musical program was given and consisted of Schubert's "Serenade" by Mrs. Norvell Jackson, two whistling numbers, "I Love You Truly" and "Sweet Mystery of Life," by Miss Willeen Schmidt of Taft, "Because" sung by Maynard Abrahams of Taft and "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" by Miss Iris Sorenson.

A crystal console set was presented to the honoree with Mrs. Wheeler making the presentation. Double hearts in gold and white, bearing the names "Mary and Bruce" were passed to the guests who found on the reverse side the name of one of a pair of famous lovers, which when matched provided partners for the refreshment table. The table, laid in lace, held as a centerpiece a miniature bridal party in a garden setting, complete with vine covered arch, the whole resting on a large reflector.

Mrs. Evans Corbin of Ingleside served lime punch from a crystal bowl and Mrs. Jim Jackson served the cake, a large white confection embossed with pin sugar spun roses and a design of silver dragees. Floor baskets and vases of late summer flowers completed the setting and had been arranged by Mrs. Elizabeth Brundrett and Mrs. Sara Brundrett. Games, with Mrs. John C. Sorenson furnishing the musical accompaniment, concluded the evening entertainment.

"THAT'S NO RUMOR..."

"IT'S A FACT. An electric range means FAST cooking!"

"I got it straight from a lady who uses one. At the bridge club the other day, I overheard Mrs. Whipple talking about her new automatic electric range.

"Mrs. W. was mighty proud of how FAST her electric range cooked everything from fried chicken to a pot roast; how COOL and CLEAN it kept her kitchen; and how ECONOMICAL it was to operate.

"Naturally, when she mentioned that her evening meal was cooking at home while she played bridge, that raised a few eyebrows. Of course the automatic timer on her range made that possible.

"Mrs. Whipple soon convinced those ladies that an electric range cooks just as fast as food will cook and gives more hours of freedom.

"There are lots of other advantages to cooking ELECTRICALLY. And don't forget that the electricity needed to operate an electric range, as well as your other electric servants, is ample, dependable and LOWER in cost than ever before.... Plug in, I'm Ready!"

Allan Shivers Is People's Favorite

Senator Allan Shivers, in thanking the voters of Texas for the heavy lead they gave him in the July primary to make him the favorite candidate for lieutenant governor, also warned citizens that attempts will be made to "scheming minority pressure groups" to defeat him in the August 24 runoff.

The Jefferson County legislator, lawyer and farmer, pointed with pride to the overwhelming support which he received in his present home county and in the county where he was reared to manhood, Shivers, a World War II combat war veteran (the only veteran in this race), polled approximately 75 per cent of the votes in Jefferson County, his present home, and was a 25 to 1 favorite over his runoff opponent in Tylee County, where he spent his youth. Senator Shivers led his runoff opponent by approximately 100,000 votes in Texas.

"I am deeply grateful for the confidence the people of Texas have shown in me and the progressive program for Texas which I advocate," Shivers said. "I shall strive even harder to work for the welfare of Texas."

"Because I represent the masses of the people, there will be those in the runoff campaign who will conspire to defeat me," Shivers predicted. "I will not be swayed by these radical, minority groups—the C.I.O. noisemakers in particular. My opponent is welcome to the support which they are giving him. I will continue to fight for the right and welfare and progress of our people who make up the backbone of Texas."

FRED HUNT'S TAILOR SHOP

THERE is a pitcher we think is a trifle overlooked. We say that because all the ball players we've talked to lately rank him as the best in either league.

No—his name isn't Bob Feller or Spud Chandler or Tex Hughson. He is a wiry left-hander by the name of Harold Newhouse of the Tigers. Newhouse was the best pitcher in baseball in 1944 when he won 29 games. They threw that one out. A war year.

Newhouse was the best pitcher in baseball last season when he won 25 games and took over the World series. They threw that one out, also. Another war year.

Wait until the big hitters come back, they said last spring—Ted Williams, Joe DiMaggio, Dom DiMaggio, Bobby Doerr, Bill Dickey, Charlie Keller, all these and many others. So what happens? Newhouse has been winning six times out of seven.

And Newhouse has been winning these games with a third-place ball club—a ball club that without Newhouse would be in fifth place. Newhouse was the best pitcher in baseball in 1944 and 1945. It is our prediction that he also will be the best pitcher in baseball in the current season of 1946.

Newhouse

Newhouse, 9 to 1

We decided to make a fuller check in Newhouse in his own league. We took a survey from 10 well-known veterans who know their way around. Nine gave us Newhouse, one gave us Bob Feller.

I asked Bill Dickey what he thought about the matter. The Arkansas quail hunter gave us a slow smile. "I'm already in enough trouble," he said, "without getting into another argument. When I came back to baseball this spring, I heard that Newhouse was just another wartime pitcher.

"Our league happens to be well stocked with fine pitchers. I mean Chandler, Hughson, Ferris, Harris, Trucks, Kramer and a few more. But so far I haven't seen a better pitcher than Newhouse. You know how hard it is to win 20 games. Newhouse has won 54 in the last two years. It wouldn't surprise me to see him win 30 or more this year.

"What has he got? About all it takes. A good fast ball. A good curve ball. Good control. A lot of confidence in himself. Determination to win. A good head. Plenty of heart."

Unless something disastrous happens suddenly, it is a pretty safe bet that Hal Newhouse will lead both leagues on the pitching side. It is also a pretty fair bet that he will pass the 25-game mark again and threaten the 30 spot, which few have ever reached.

Two 40-Game Winners

So far as so-called modern baseball goes the only 40-game winners I can recall at the moment happen to be Ed Walsh and Jack Chesbro. In the 30-or-more game winning we had Matty, Johnson, Dickey, Joe Wood, Dizzy Dean, Grover Alexander, Lefty Grove and possibly one or two others. Only Matty and Alexander have won 30 or more games three times, in the past 40 years. You can let us know if our memory is slipping.

Newhouse has yet to be a 30-game winner. But the willowy Tiger left-hander has the best chance to reach this mark for 1946. He comes so close to being the best pitcher in the game that someone else will need a spur to crowd him back before the stretch run ends in September.

Bob Feller, Spud Chandler and Tex Hughson are all great pitchers. Among the best. But all three will have to put on extra steam to crowd back Newhouse, who has been baseball's best pitcher for three years.

About the Two Leagues

Several querulous letters have come in since the all-star game from National league supporters asking what has happened to the veteran circuit.

"Why is it," one asked, "that the American league should come up with most of the top stars—such men as Ted Williams, Charlie Keller, Bob Feller, Newhouse, Chandler and so many others who apparently outclass most of the National league's best men?"

The sad facts—sad for the N. L.—are that the older league this season can match the younger circuit neither in stars, nor in average playing strength. The N. L. has no pitchers to rank with Feller, Newhouse, Chandler, Hughson and others. Outside of Johnny Mize it has no power hitters who can be classed with Williams, Greenberg, Keller, DiMaggio and several more. This was all known before. It would have taken a Carl Hubbell, a Dizzy Dean, a Matty or an Alexander to remove the noise from A. L. bats this season.

THE OLD AND THE NEW

New World's Oldest City Stages Anniversary Fete

Moss-covered ruins of some of the first buildings in America stand picturesquely among modern structures, suspension bridges, spacious boulevards, fine hospitals and schools in the oldest city in the western hemisphere, Ciudad Trujillo in the Dominican Republic, which on Sunday, August 4, observed the 450th anniversary of its founding.

As a highlight of the fete, a three-masted caravel, modeled after one of Columbus' ships, sailed up the Ozama river to re-enact the founding of western civilization's first permanent site. Wearing late 15th century costumes, sailors moored the ship to a replica of a tree used by Columbus' brother, Bartolome, when he founded the city in 1496.

Share With Haiti.

The original city, named Nueva Isabella in honor of Spain's queen, was located on the south shore of the island which Columbus named Hispaniola. Hispaniola, second to Cuba in size among the West Indies, lies between Cuba and Puerto Rico in the Greater Antilles chain. Sharing the island with Haiti, the Dominican republic occupies its eastern two-thirds.

Long called Santo Domingo, the city was renamed Ciudad Trujillo (Trujillo City) in 1936 after President Rafael Trujillo, in gratitude for his efforts in re-constructing the city along modern lines after a hurricane in 1930 almost completely demolished the city.

Proud of their capital city's long history, the 2,000,000 people of the Dominican republic are even more conscious of its modernity and up-to-dateness. Ruins of the first hospital built in the Americas are a short distance from the sun decks of the city's ultra-modern tuberculosis hospital. The vine-covered arch of the first monastery in America offers an exciting contrast to the modernist verandas of the Jaragua hotel, reputed to be the finest resort hotel between Miami and Rio de Janeiro. The Cathedral of Santo Domingo, another "first" in the Western hemisphere, is close to a long row of modern government buildings.

Wrecked by Hurricane.

Two violent hurricanes striking 428 years apart each stimulated the community's growth. The first occurred in July, 1502, demolishing the few flimsy buildings of the six-year-old post. The second struck the Dominican capital in September, 1930, a few days after Trujillo became president.

Through most of the 16th century, Santo Domingo thrived as Spain's capital of the western world. Columbus visited it often, even ignoring a royal decree when he stopped there on his last voyage. In accordance with his wishes, he was buried there. Ashes of the great admiral now rest in the Cathedral of Santo Domingo, awaiting transfer to the Columbus Memorial light-house, soon to be built on a high promontory just outside the city as a beacon for ships and planes.

Nobles seeking gold, scientists and explorers, rich, enterprising merchants, flocked to the new world's capital, making it a springboard from which new conquests were launched. Cortes, Balboa, Pizarro, Ponce de Leon, De Soto and others made it the starting point of important voyages of discovery.

Two centuries of decay followed capture of the settlement by Sir Francis Drake in 1586. Spanish interest was diverted to mainland mineral wealth. Internal quarrels, attacks by English, French and pirates thinned the colony to 500 people by 1735.

Church Treasure . . . Valued at five million dollars, the above church treasure was on display during Ciudad Trujillo's anniversary fete. Included are the original cross planted on the island by Columbus, an altar bell, designed by Benvenuto Cellini, famous Italian artist, and other priceless items.

Woman Mail Carrier No Longer An Oddity

SEATTLE.—Accepted among the men in the station and the housewives on her route as a seasoned veteran and a neighborhood fixture, Mrs. Ellen Nermo, substitute mail carrier at the Seattle post office for the last two years, is planning to take civil service examinations for permanent appointment.

Recalling her first day as a letter carrier, Mrs. Nermo said, "I thought one woman was going to faint when she saw me come up the steps. Kids used to gather in knots and whisper when I appeared."

Mrs. Nermo was among the women hired by the Seattle post office when war depleted ranks of carriers. Her only trouble, Mrs. Nermo insists, was with a housewife after she made a wrong delivery of a letter. "This woman kept lecturing me about the mistake and I took it as long as I could, then told her off," Mrs. Nermo said.

Union Baseball Up Again

The fight to unionize baseball has flared up again, with the Pennsylvania state labor board accepting jurisdiction in the Pittsburgh baseball club's case. Casey at the bat may yet be there with a union card as well.

Unionized baseball intrigues us. We are tired of the old patterns in the national game and yearn for such items in the box scores as "out at first under checkoff rule" . . . "left on bases; stockholders, 7; directors, 5" . . . "forced at third by jurisdictional dispute."

The game has become too smooth and peaceful. Gone are the old days of brawls and fireworks every inning. What may be needed are some flashy interludes where the pickets overturn some automobiles in the outfield, where a game is called on account of tear gas or where some Petrillo of the national fame orders a team to use four players at first, and put on extra shortstops at night games.

It seems to us that modern ball players lack the martial spirit. There is too much friendliness and goodwill on the field. Can you imagine Phil Murray taking a third called strike with nothing more than a scornful look?

It seems to us evident that the modern baseball player needs protection. He is too prone to taking a third strike philosophically instead of blaming it on the front office. He is too inclined to lose a pennant with a shrug of the shoulders instead of with a protest that he is being crucified by management.

Union rules will level off rewards. There is no reason why a man who can sock homers every day should get more than a fellow worker who does his best but can't poke one out of the infield. Hits and runs are not the proper measure for rewards. All men are created equal, and beyond that it is just luck, rhythm and box scores.

Robert Murphy, who is doing the union organizing in baseball, is a Harvard man. This puts Harvard one up on Yale and Princeton, but we hear Yale may soon demand a 40-hour week for golfers, while Princeton will ask for the four-day week for horseshoe pitchers.

Batter up! And, remember, a fair division of the profits or else.

OMIGOSH!

"Take It Easy. Avoid Accidents" has been formally adopted as a slogan in the war against auto accidents, and stickers are being issued to be pasted on windshields. All of which makes us giggle. "Take It Easy" lacks punch, but even if it were a good slogan a windshield sticker would be about as effective against auto accidents as a harp solo against the atomic bomb.

Death and slaughter rule the road—At laws the goofy drivers snicker; So up and at the killers all—We'll fight 'em with a windshield sticker!

They beat the green, defy the red; They run folks down with yells of "Quicker!" . . . So let us act decisively—The cry is "Forward . . . with a sticker!"

Elmer Twichell yearns for an easing of the meat situation so a fellow can stop fighting the dog over a bone.

SHADES OF THE PAST

Car of 1911 Vintage Embarks On Lengthy Endurance Test

Did a second Rip Van Winkle awaken from a long sleep and go automobile-minded?

That is what service station attendants from coast to coast are wondering as they behold a car driven by John Bacon of Wellesley Hills, Mass., Harvard university senior, on a new type of transcontinental endurance test.

Amazed by the klaxon horn, acetylene lamps and antique mien of the vehicle, the attendants soon learn that the car is a Locomobile of 1911 vintage.

Abandoned 25 years ago and stored in an Exeter, N. H., barn, the ancient car was discovered by Bacon when he was attending Phillips Exeter academy. He purchased it this year after returning from four years of army service.

Repairs Cost $1,000.

Always interested in old cars, Bacon is confident the venerable old seven-passenger Locomobile can put 1946 models to shame on the endurance test. After acquiring the car, he dismantled the six-cylinder engine and put an estimated $1,000 into repairs and parts to ready it for the road.

Motorists throughout the country will be startled as Bacon's 35-year-old wonder speeds past them—it can do 70 miles an hour without effort, he insists. He has no fear of bad roads, low wheel base and rugged construction combining to give a smoother ride than modern-day cars.

Bacon admits there are a few drawbacks to the ancient vehicle. The wheel is hard to turn and the foot pedals work a little hard "until you get used to them," he says.

Has 10-Day Goal.

A mark of 10 days for the Boston to Los Angeles run was set by Bacon as he embarked on the trip. He plans to spend some time sight-seeing in California before the return jaunt.

Although he has no doubts about the success of his junket, Bacon has refused to take up scoffers on proposed wagers.

"I just don't want to take their money—it would be too easy," he insists.

Raccoon Gets Lift

Bus Driver Rebels At New Hitchhiker

STRONGHURST, ILL.—Chester R. McCoy, Gladstone farm worker, unknowingly gave a ride to a new type of hitchhiker recently. When McCoy stopped at a filling station to have oil in his car checked, the attendant discovered a raccoon, peacefully lying on a shield near the fuel pump enjoying the unexpected lift. The raccoon resorted to fighting tactics in resisting all efforts to displace him from his berth.

McCoy surmised that the raccoon had crawled into the car while it was parked near a farm field during the day.

Boy Weighing 600 Pounds Dies at 19

GRAFTON, N. D.—Described as "the world's biggest boy," James Janousek, 19, who weighed 600 pounds, died of pneumonia at the farm home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Janousek.

Janousek first gained notoriety at the age of seven, when it was revealed that he weighed 235 pounds.

Can You Guess These?

Take a whirl at these, gentle reader, then head for the nearest psychiatrist.

The following jaw-breakers, believe it or not, once had something to do with recording of voices for talking pictures, which incidentally made their initial bow 20 years ago.

If you know the correct meaning of two, you're wonderful.

If you know the meaning of not you, you're just as well off.

- Schlerphonic?
- Ischnophonic?
- Kato-hypobariphonic?
- Agnuesiphonic?
- Polistephonic?

Did You Guess Right?

- Harsh, strident tones, as per Jimmy Durante.
- Thin, wavering tones, a la Jack Benny.
- This is a mean one. It means that in saying such words as going, coming, swimming, et cetera, you mistreat the final syllable—such as goink, swimink, comink—if you get what we're meanink.
- Swallowed, indistinct tones.
- Slow, hesitant, broken speech.

$35 Pony Beats Expensive Animal

CHICAGO.—Les Atlass, radio executive, doubted his ability as a horse trader after a recent experience at a horse show. Atlass' entry, a Shetland pony which he had purchased recently for $2,000, was bested by a pony which Atlass had sold for $35.

DENIED GUN PERMIT . . . Although he carried a gun for two years in the Pacific, fighting on Guadalcanal, Pelelieu, Guam, Saipan and in China, Henry J. Donigan Jr., Arlington, Mass., was denied police permission to carry a gun, required for a job with an armored car company. The reason: He's only 20 and the law requires age of 21 for gun permits.

"Off We Go" AVIATION NOTES

WHO BUYS AIRPLANES?

Through a survey conducted by the Aeronca Aircraft corporation, through its 1,200 dealers all over the U. S., some enlightenment was obtained relative to potential personal plane buyers:

Apparently the biggest group of potential light-plane buyers falls into the age group between 18 and 30 years, but Aeronca dealers report no marked decline in interest until beyond the 40-year mark. The number of people who prefer to buy on time or pay cash are about equally divided, the survey shows.

Another 40 per cent of potential light-plane owners are about equally divided among lawyers, doctors and educators on the one hand and highly successful business men and industrial leaders on the other. The remaining 20 per cent are independently wealthy people who defied classification as to gainful occupation.

Fifty-five per cent of the people who planned to buy personal planes know how to fly and 27 per cent of these are ex-servicemen, although not all of them flew in the service.

Three Per Cent Women.

Men far outnumber women as prospective light-plane owners. Only about 3 out of every 100 potential customers are women. But, as might be expected, many women accompany their menfolk to dealers to look at models and talk airplanes.

Where the man usually asks such questions as "How fast is it?" "How much does it cost?" and "What is the operating cost?" the women want to know "How safe is it?" "Is it easy to fly?" and "How long does it take to learn to fly?"

Sixty per cent of the dealers reported that it was their experience that men learn to fly more readily than women. Another 25 per cent said they could see little or no difference between men and women in aptitude to learn to fly. The other 15 per cent showed what must be a mixture of high honesty and diplomacy by refusing to commit themselves.

FIRST AIR SHOW

With the general postwar interest in aviation, air shows are being revived throughout the U. S. First air show to be held in New England since close of the war was held at Bedford Field, near Boston. Arrangements were under general direction of Theodore Drury, president of Aeronautic Association of Boston. Highlight of the show was a display by army air forces showing planes that played an instrumental part in America's war victory as well as new machines.

proposing an Amendment to Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas by the addition of a new Section to be known as Section 49-b, creating a Veteran's Land Board and establishing a Veteran's Land Fund; providing for an election and the issuance of a proclamation therefor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto a new Section to be known as Section 49-b which shall read as follows:

"Section 49-b. There is hereby created a Board to be known as the Veteran's Land Board, which shall be composed of the Governor, the Attorney General, and the Commissioner of the General Land Office. The Legislature shall provide by law for the issuance by said Board of not to exceed Twenty-five Million Dollars ($25,000,000) in bonds or obligations of the State of Texas for the purpose of creating a fund to be known as the Veteran's Land Fund. Such bonds shall be executed by said Board as an obligation of the State of Texas in such form, denominations, and upon such terms as shall be prescribed by law, provided, however, that said bonds shall bear a rate of interest not to exceed three per cent (3%) per annum.

"In the sale of any such bonds a preferential right of purchase shall be given to the administrators of the various teacher retirement funds, the Permanent University Funds, and the Permanent Free School Funds; such bonds to be issued only as needed, in the opinion of the Veteran's Land Board under legislative authorization.

"The Veteran's Land Fund shall be used by the Board for the sole purpose of purchasing lands suitable for the purpose hereinafter stated, situated in this State (a) owned by the United States, or any governmental agency thereof; (b) owned by the Texas Prison System, or any other governmental agency of the State of Texas; or (c) owned by any person, firm, or corporation.

"All lands thus purchased shall be acquired at the lowest price obtainable, be paid for in cash, and shall be a part of the Veteran's Land Fund.

"The lands of the Veteran's Land Fund shall be sold by the State to Texas Veterans of the present war or wars, commonly known as World War II, in such quantities, and on such terms, and at such prices and such rates of interest, and under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by law; provided, however, that any such lands remaining unsold at the expiration of eight (8) years after the effective date of this Amendment may be sold to anyone as shall be prescribed by law.

"All moneys received and which have been received and which have not been used for repurchase of land as provided herein by the Veteran's Land Board from the sale of lands and for interest on deferred payments shall be credited to the Veteran's Land Fund for use in purchasing additional lands to be sold to Texas Veterans of World War II, in like manner as shall be provided for the sale of lands purchased with the proceeds from the sales of the bonds, provided for herein, for a period of eight (8) years from the effective date of this Amendment; provided, however, that so much of such moneys as may be necessary to pay interest on the bonds herein provided for shall be set aside for that purpose. After eight (8) years from the effective date of this Amendment, all moneys received by the Veteran's Land Board from the sale of the lands and interest on deferred payments, or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be set aside for the retirement of said bonds and to pay interest thereon, and any of such moneys not so needed shall be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund to be appropriated to such purposes as may be prescribed by law."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held throughout the State of Texas on the first Thursday in November, 1946, at which election all voters favoring the proposed Amendment shall write

WORLD WAR I BRIDES

World War II Brides

MARKED CONTRAST . . . Foreign girls were wooed and won by American soldiers in both world wars but, as the above pictures attest, there was a marked difference in the brides of two generations. Photo (1) shows a group of American soldiers in World War I's army of occupation entraining at Coblenz, many bringing back wives and children. Girls like those shown in photo (2) won the hearts of American servicemen in World War I, the picture showing typical war brides ready to embark for the U. S. In contrast to their sister war brides of a quarter century ago, World War II brides show every evidence of modernity. Photo (3) shows joyous wives of ex-G.I.s obligingly posing on the railing of a transport in typical Hollywood style, although minus the finishing touches. Longer duration of World War II resulted in larger families for G.I.s and their foreign brides. Larger than ordinary is the family of Arthur Smith of Greenville, N. C. Mrs. Smith is shown in photo (4) arriving from England with her four children, two of which were by a former marriage. An Italian girl "fell hard" for Joseph Cianciotto of Rochester, N. Y., and they were married in Italy. Mrs. Cianciotto "fell hard" for him again when her war bride ship docked in New York, as photo (5) attests. Even modern modes of transportation were utilized in reuniting G.I.s and their foreign brides, photo (6) showing a group of war brides arriving in America by airliner.

'LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON'

Statistics Show Equal Foreign Marriage Rate for Both Wars

Influx of war brides to all parts of the United States leads to the general impression that G.I.s serving overseas during World War II were more addicted to marrying foreign girls than were their doughboy fathers of World War I. From the British Isles, France and Germany, even from far-away Australia and the Philippines, have come bride ships transporting war wives to America to join their former G.I. husbands. The common impression that the average G.I. of World War II was more inclined to take a foreign wife than was his counterpart of World War I is contradicted in statistics compiled by Metropolitan Life Insurance company. Records indicate that there were about 52,500 marriages with foreign girls during World War II, compared with an estimated 4,000 to 8,000 during the war of a quarter century ago. Records for war marriages at that time are very incomplete. Despite the increased number, however, the foreign marriage rate of the two generations of servicemen is practically equal.

70,000 brides and children came from these two areas and they represented more than 30 different nationalities. Great Britain had the largest percentage of war brides, 75 per cent, followed by France and Italy with 15 per cent each, Belgium and Ireland with 3 per cent each, with about 4 per cent from the other countries of Europe and North Africa. Many From Australia. From the Pacific area came 10,000 war brides, 85 per cent of whom were from Australia. Another 10 per cent are from New Zealand and 5 per cent from other countries, particularly the Philippines. Age of war brides varies considerably, with marked concentrations in the late teens and early twenties. Just as personnel of the armed forces was recruited from every state in the Union, so will these wives and children of ex-G.I.s settle in every part of the country.

Star Dust STAGE SCREEN RADIO

SO LINDA DARNELL won out over Gene Tierney for the title role in "Forever Amber," and a lot of us are still protesting that 20th Century-Fox has made another bad mistake in connection with that opus. Three hundred thousand dollars goes down the drains because of the first one—giving "Amber" to Peggy Cummins. Cornel Wilde remains as "Bruce Carleton"; Otto Preminger will direct, replacing John Stahl, who walked out before shooting came to a halt last spring. Come September the whole thing starts again—and this time it's got to be good!

Also in September William Cagney's "The Stray Lamb" goes into production, with Audie Murphy, the most decorated G.I., making his debut, unless Cagney lends him out to somebody else first. Murphy has been considering various film

LINDA DARNELL bids ever since last February—Jams Cagney has been after him since last July. Following "The Stray Lamb," Murphy's booked for "A Lion Is in the Streets."

Wendy Day, 14-year-old daughter of Clarence Day Jr., who wrote "Life With Father," has been given a role in the picture based on the book and play. Irene Dunne and William Powell star; if the movie's half as good as the play it should get an Academy Award.

A perfect piece of casting—Claude Colbert and Fred MacMurray in "The Egg and I." That hilarious account of an adventure in raising chickens should be the year's best comedy, especially appreciated by all who've ever raised chickens.

When Harry Von Zell went into movies he swore he'd never play a radio announcer — "Standing in front of a mike and talking and giggling into it is not acting, as I see it." But Von Zell, who's featured in RKO's "Till the End of Time," did play a radio announcer in "How Do You Do?" However, he alibis himself; explains that he did more than just talk into a mike—he really acted.

That same "Till the End of Time" gave Guy Madison his big chance. His only other screen role had been in "Since You Went Away," in which he was the sailor who laughed at Jennifer Jones' bowling. Fans went crazy about him, and there he is, playing opposite Dorothy McGuire.

Mary Meade, who sat on an eight-foot champagne glass in Republic's "Earl Carroll Sketchbook," has been promoted. In "The Magnificent Rogue" she lies around in the sand, in a wispy bathing suit. But it's an advance in her career—she gets to speak a few lines!

The air's daytime serials are non-audience broadcasts, but if you're privileged to walk in on one, it's no shock (after the first few times!) to find a Broadway star in the cast. Margalo Gilmore's the latest recruit. On the stage, she has an important role in the smash hit, "The State of the Union." And on the air she's recently assumed the role of "Connie Wakefield" in "The Right to Happiness."

As a special concession to Wendell Corey, who had the week's starring role in "Goodbye, Again" at the Yardley, Pa., summer theater, the company omitted a recent Wednesday night performance. That made it possible for Corey to get to New York for his "McGarry and His Mouse," NBC air show. The concession wasn't hard to arrange—the owner of the theater is—Wendell Corey!

ODDS AND ENDS—Undiscouraged by what happened with "Forever Earnest," Jackie Coogan says he'll return to the air with his own show; he'll also return to the screen in "Perry and the Pirates." . . . "So You're Having a Nervous Breakdown," a short, is now being made by Warner Bros. . . . Remember Dick Jones, the third "Henry" of "The Aldrich Family"? He's still in the army. . . . The typical day of a Hollywood star will be shown in the Columbia screen snapshot, "It's Tough to Be a Star." . . . Dennis Morgan tells it on his young daughter Kirstin—says she asked him what part of the cow makes the bottle!

Household Hints

Tip on painting: Don't overload brush, dip it one-third its length, and keep the can about half full. To remove dust from wall paper, wipe with a soft wall brush or soft cloth. Hard rubbing will streak and roughen the paper. Drab-looking flower pots can be brightened by going over them with ordinary wax crayons. It is easier to iron dresses and blouses in this order; sleeves, back, front and collar. Late fall is regarded as the best time to do house painting, for by then the long summer sun has removed all moisture from the wood.

Blood Test Used To Fix Maternity In Animal World

CHICAGO.—An equine parallel to Hollywood's recent series of paternity disputes was reported by the American Veterinary Medical Association. The investigation described by the veterinary authorities was made by two French veterinary scientists and was believed to be the first practical application of blood grouping to determine parentage in horses. The problem was to determine which of two mares, "Fanny" or "Clairette," was the mother of a colt named "Robert." Serum tests showed that Fanny's blood belonged to group "AB," Clairette's to group "A" and Robert's to group "O."

Soil Termed Great Laboratory For Production of New Drugs

Soil not only is the source of life-supporting food but also is a great laboratory in which are produced many new-found drugs for curing diseases of man and beast against which even good nutrition cannot prevail, according to Alden Stahr and Dr. Boyd Woodruff in an article in Capper's Farmer. "These are the so-called miracle drugs, first of which was tyrothricin," says the article. "Then came penicillin, used extensively during the war, followed by actinomycin, streptothricin, clavacin and gamma-glicin. Others have been discovered and more are in prospect." Among the things scientists have seen and identified, Stahr and Woodruff point out, are: One-celled plants, molds, green plants, animals, protozoa, worms and nematodes. And these soil inhabitants

Statute Books Contain Many Outmoded Regulations

Ancient blue laws continue to gather dust on New Jersey statute books. A person who drives a horse while intoxicated—the driver, that is, not the horse—is subject to a fine of from $2.50 to $10 and 30 days' imprisonment, according to one of the outmoded laws. Another law authorizes magistrates to order a ball and chain to be placed on the leg of any tramps tried as disorderly persons. Wearing of dangerous hats in any public place automatically makes the wearer a disorderly person, liable to a fine of $5 to $20 for each offense. In case someone should be stabbed, the injured person can recover half the fine. Practice of witchcraft or sorcery in an attempt to discover lost or stolen goods is classed as a misdemeanor under the law. A similar charge can be placed against anyone pretending to be God and causing followers to worship him.

Selling a floral wreath at a home where a funeral is about to take place is barred, the offense being listed as disorderly conduct and making the offender liable to a fine. Dumping of junk on private property also puts a person in the outlaw class. The legislature meets yearly to correct existing laws and enact new ones, but cannot ignore the outmoded regulations.

A GROUP OF GRADUATES OF MEMORIAL HOSPITAL'S 'LILLIE JOLLY SCHOOL OF NURSING'

Can you think of any professional women who mean more to humanity than nurses do?

If you are a College Graduate or a High School Graduate with 15 units of credit, you can enter our School of Nursing. During the course, you will not only study science and health subjects, but you will be of service to men, women and children, who are sick or injured. When you graduate, you will then become a Professional Nurse and can get employed in one or more of the numerous classifications of Nursing. You can become a Private Duty Nurse, or a Public Health Nurse, or a Nurse Supervisor or Institutional Nurse in the Maternity Department or Children's Department or any other department of a hospital or in some other classification. There are more than fifty classifications in the Nursing Profession and you can choose the one you wish to devote your life to. This Nation needs 250,000 more Registered Nurses than it now has. So you will have a great opportunity not only to serve humanity, but to prosper financially and, also, to be of great service to your own family. Our next Class will be admitted in September, 1946 If you feel that God wants you to serve suffering humanity, and you desire information concerning admission to the September Class, Write at once to: MRS. ROBERT JOLLY, R.N., DIRECTOR OF NURSING MEMORIAL HOSPITAL 602 LAMAR HOUSTON 2, TEXAS

Allan Shivers Opposed To Certain Types of Taxes

Austin, Texas, "I want the people of Texas to know there are certain types of taxes to which I am opposed, both personally and as shown by my record of 12 years in the senate," Allan Shivers, who led his runoff opponent in the lieutenant governor's race by approximately 100,000 votes in the first primary, said here this week. "I oppose a general sales tax, and always have, because I feel that it would place undue burdens on the people. I oppose a state income tax, because that field is pre-empted by the federal government."

"If any additional taxes do become necessary, and I don't think they will in the near future, the burden should be spread on as broad a tax paying base as is possible," he continued.

"I have always considered myself a conservative, both in expenditures and in taxation, and on many occasions have opposed appropriations of the taxpayers money because I thought the expenditure was unwise and unnecessary. I have also opposed many tax bills because I thought they were levied on the wrong principle

FURLOUGH PAY

Procedure to Follow In Making Application

The terminal leave pay authorized this week by Congress provides former enlisted personnel of the Army, Navy and Marine Corps, with bonds in lieu of pay for unused leave while in the service.

Most of the information required to be set out on the application form appears on the certificate of discharge. However, the individual must state the number of days of leave taken, days absent without leave, absent over leave, and confined as result of court martial sentence within the period or periods of service covered by the discharge document.

Steps In Applying

The steps as listed by the Treasury, War and Navy Department are:

1. Obtain from any post office a form entitled "claim for settlement, unused leave," and an accompanying instruction sheet.

2. Fill out this form. Help may be obtained at any of the veterans community information or advisory centers or at the office of any state of county veterans service officer.

3. Swear to the statements made in the form before a notary public or other authorized civil officer. Most community information or advisory centers will provide the service free.

4. Mail the completed form, together with a discharge certificate or certificate of service, to the appropriate Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard paying officer listed on the reverse side of the claim form.

Payment will be made by mail "as soon as possible" and the supporting documents returned.

The legislation, which also will equalize leave benefits of officers and enlisted men still on active duty, calls for payment of an estimated $2,700,000,000 in cash and interest-bearing five-year bonds to about 15,000,000 former members of the Army, Navy, Marine and Coast Guard. It is the first major revision of leave policies in the armed forces in 70 years.

Those who have been discharged will be paid in cash or bonds for accumulated leave up to 120 days between Sept. 8, 1939 and Sept. 1, 1946.

The official statement said the discharge certificate which must be forwarded may be the original, a photostatic copy, or a true copy certified by an authorized state or local official.

If the original has been lost or destroyed, a certificate in lieu of discharge will be issued upon application to the Adjutant General of the Army, 4300 Goodfellow Boulevard, St. Louis, 20, Missouri; Chief of Naval Personnel, Navy Department, Washington, 25, D. C.; Director of Personnel, Headquarters, U. S. Marine Corps, Washington, 25, D. C.; Commandant of the Coast Guard, Washington, 25, D. C. Army personnel may obtain the proper application form at any recruiting office.

If the amount due a veteran is less than $50 or if he was discharged before Jan. 1, 1943, payment in full will be made by treasury check.

For amounts of $50 and above, payment will be in bonds in multiples of $25, with a check for the balance. However, payment in full will be made by check to survivors or guardians of discharged veterans who have died, become insane or been adjudged incompetent.

All payments to veterans will be at the pay rate for the enlisted grade held when discharged. Those still on active duty also will be compensated at the rate for the last enlisted grade or rating held. Payments will include an additional 70 cents a day for subsistence and, for master, technical and staff sergeants with dependents, $1.25 a day for quarters.

The act puts a one-year limit on the time for applying for payments.

Maturity date of the bonds is five years from the date of the last separation from service. They may not be pledged as collateral or otherwise used in financial operations except for payment of premiums, loans or conversion on government or national service life insurance.
