Highway Dept. Ready To Plan Construction of Farm-to-Market Road

D. C. Greer, State Highway Engineer, informed County Judge Emory M. Spencer this week that the Highway Department is now in a position to proceed with the preparation of plans for construction for the farm-to-market road in Aransas County, having received the assurance that the county will furnish the right-of-way free of cost for the road to the state.

The commissioners had been advised that upon fulfillment of this requirement, the State Highway Engineer would proceed with the construction plans at an estimated cost of $147,900 and to assume the road for maintenance upon completion of construction.

The Texas Highway Department will let contracts and build roads in 1949 as rapidly as possible even though the funds will not actually be available until 1950, according to the state highway engineer.

15 Chihuahuas Will Perform Here Tues.

The seniors select a needy family to send a special Christmas box. Included in the box are such items as a turkey, other food items, clothing and toys for all of the family.

Admission to the show is 15 cents for grade school children, 25 cents for high school students and 50 cents for adults.

C. of C. Seeks Slogan for Area

Members of the Rockport Chamber of Commerce decided at the dinner meeting held Tuesday night that it was about time a slogan was selected for the area.

The membership voted to sponsor a contest with $25 to be offered as a prize to the person handing in the best slogan.

President Jas. Sorenson Jr. appointed Roy Rogero, Hugh Morrison and Jack Horton to serve on a committee to arrange the rules for the contest. The committee will meet within the next few days and dates for the contest established.

Several musical numbers were presented by Sally Weatherly, Jean Faye Johnson, and Ruby Wilkinson.

It was announced that Rockport and the area had received a great deal of publicity during the last few days through two newspapers, the San Antonio Light and The Advance Register, publication in Wichita, Kans.

Thirty-seven members and guests attended the meeting which was held at the Methodist recreation building.

About $16,000 Paid For Property at Tax Sale

Between $15,000 and $16,000 was taken in at the delinquent tax property sale which was held at the court house Tuesday. Most of the property which was sold went for more than the adjudged value and the county derived about as much money from the sale this year as they did from last year's sale, according to Ross Terry, Aransas County tax attorney.

Since the county now has the subdivisions which did not sell, it is in a position to sell the lots when the occasion arises. It is yet to be determined the manner in which the remaining property will be offered for sale.

The purchasers of the property sold and the amount which was paid are listed elsewhere in the paper.

All of the property that was sold is of substantial value while those lots which did not sell are located on the outskirts of Rockport out in the brush and are dubious value, Mr. Terry said.

The first of a series of parties for tourists scheduled for this year will be held at the school gym Thursday night from 7 to 11, December 16. Tourists can obtain tickets of admission free of charge at the tourist court at which they are staying.

Winter visitors are invited to attend the party where they can meet and mingle with people not only from their home state but also get acquainted with new friends.

There will be a Christmas tree, door prizes, favors and refreshments. The evening will be spent playing games which will be varied to suit the visitors choice.

Last year the Tourist Court Association held two parties for tourists in the home economics building at the school. These parties were well attended and the only complaint was that there was too few of them.

The Tourist Bureau of the Chamber of Commerce (formerly the T.C.A.) has arranged seven parties for this year. One will be held Dec. 16, two in January, two in February and two in March.

Mrs. Roy Hinton is chairman of the committee named to arrange the parties. Assisting her are E. J. Albin and Dick Denny.

Pirates Open Cage Season Here Monday

The Pirates will play the opening game of the 1948-49 cage season with Aransas Pass here December 13.

Coach Chas. Roe, of the opinion that good competition makes better games and helps build better teams has a very tough schedule in the making. The local cagers will be represented in three good tournaments excluding the district tournament. Rockport has accepted invitations to tournaments in Aransas Pass, Taft, and Ingleside and will make their bid for district honors in the district tourney to be held at Woodsboro in February.

There are about 30 boys reporting for practices each day. However Coach Roe says that it will be awhile before definite teams will be assembled. He plans to utilize four separate teams in each two games. There are several tall members on the squad as well as some small boys with good ball handling ability. It is that the boys want to play basketball and want to win. However experience and knowledge of fundamentals are a scarce item among the 30 candidates.

Coach Roe thinks that the Pirates have a good opportunity to enjoy the best season any Pirate cage team has played. He states, however, that because of lack of experience the boys will start slow. With a good supporting crowd at the home games, the team will make a good showing.

The boys have been divided into two groups of players, the varsity and the subs. There are five lettermen on the varsity. They are Jim Morrison, Tim Haynes, Frederick Close, Camillo Delgado and John Cron. Boys who played basketball last year that were placed on the varsity are Johnny Rowe and Woody Hunt. First year men on the varsity are Jimmy Hayden, Orval Ruth, John Paul Reese, Ozzie Williams and Gene Smith.

The basketball schedule of games is as follows:

- Dec. 13—Aransas Pass, here, A and B teams.
Dec. 17—Taft here, A and B teams.
Dec. 30—Woodsboro here, A and B teams.
Jan. 7—Taft tournament there.
Jan. 11—Ingleside here, A and B teams.
Jan. 14-15—Aransas Pass tournament there.
Jan. 18—Woodsboro there, A and B teams.
Jan. 21—Aransas Pass there, A and B teams.
Jan. 28-29—Ingleside tournament there.
Feb. 4—Ingleside there, A and B teams.
Feb. 18-19—District tournament at Woodsboro.

Lions Club Remodels Old Fulton School For Community House

The Lions Club at Fulton will have ready for use by Dec. 15, their charter night, a community house to be used for civic affairs. The men of the club, with the assistance of others, have reconverted the old school house into a community house complete with kitchen and table capacity for 60.

The members installed a kitchen equipped with a restaurant gas range, double sinks, hot water heater, shelving, front counter with table top for cafeteria style serving or tray use, and made enough tables to seat 120 people, half of which will be available for use outside in the summer time.

J. B. Mitchell wired the building. Water was brought over from the Fulton school pump. Screens were built for the windows and doors.

The $600 required for the project was loaned to the club by various members of the club.

While the building will be ready for use next Wednesday, further plans are underway to paint the inside of the building and to sand and fill in the floor for dancing.

M. W. Cochran was chairman of the project, which was the first to be carried out since the club was organized about two months ago. The Lions Club will meet in the building each Monday night. It will also serve as headquarters for the Fulton P.-T. A.

Tool Pusher Fined On Pollution Charge

R. Ford, tool pusher for the Grasscock Drilling Co. who are drilling the well for Stanolind Oil Co. on State Tract No. 82 which is located to the right of the entrance to the Copano Bay causeway, was charged with pollution by allowing mud to run over the tanks and get into the bay by Game Warden M. B. Mullinax. Ford plead guilty before Justice of the Peace Jansen Friday morning and paid a $100 fine and costs.

Tool pushers of the drilling crews working in the county met at the marine laboratory Saturday afternoon with Mullinax, County Attorney Weldon Cabaniss and J. L. Baughman. The problem of pollution was discussed and everyone agreed to everything within their power to prevent it.

Travis Bailey, mayor, was named chairman of the county to organize and to promote the required publicity for the survey.

Mrs. Wm. Patrick, president of the Rockport P.-T. A., the organization which was instrumental in bringing the survey here, was chosen co-chairman. Committee chairmen appointed by Mr. Bailey and Mrs. Patrick were Ernest Jones, chairman of Fulton; Otis Yeats, chairman at Lamar; Mrs. I. E. Allemang, chairman at Copano Village; Jim Barber, chairman at Estes; Mrs. O. W. Young, chairman in the Oak Grove and Rincon districts; E. J. Albin, publicity chairman; Mrs. Fred Bracht, house to house chairman; D. R. Simmons, transportation chairman; Miss Iris Sorenson, chairman of clerical assistants; Mrs. Joe Johnson, chairman of the telephone committee; Mrs. Roy Lee Hart, hostess chairman; and Gene Rodriguez, chairman to represent the Latin-American population.

The chest X-ray examination is furnished by the State Health Department without charge to the local community. It is tax supported and remains the decision of the community whether or not to utilize the service to which they have already contributed.

Mass chest X-ray survey is a modern, rapid and less costly method of examination of large numbers of people for the purpose of screening out those who have diseases of the chest—principally tuberculosis. The technique involves the use of transportable X-ray equipment using small size roll film.

Up to 1,000 persons can be examined in one day by one machine and its operators. X-ray examination is made while the person is fully clothed.

The X-ray survey seeks to examine all persons in the community who are 15 years of age and over. In 1946 the number of reported deaths from tuberculosis in Texas was 2,842, of which more than 98% occurred in people 15 years of age and over. The 15 year and over age group constitutes 80% of the population of Texas. Because tuberculosis infection in children is seldom communicable and because children do contract a tuberculous infection through contact with open cases in adults, it is first necessary to find, iso-

Schools Have Opportunity To Promote Health of Pupils and Community

Austin, Tex.—Every school has tremendous opportunities to promote the health of its pupils and its community, and for this reason Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, says that every school should have a definite health program including safe drinking water, good school lunches, proper lighting, seating and ventilating facilities as well as scrupulously clean premises.

"From early childhood to manhood and womanhood, most youngsters are enrolled in school and are under the supervision of school staffs for a substantial part of the day, approximately half the days of the year," Dr. Cox said. "The conditions under which they live in school, the help which they are given in solving their health problems, the ideals of individual and community health which they are taught, and the information and understanding that they acquire are factors which operate to develop attitudes and behavior conducive to happy, healthy and successful living."

To supplement the efforts of teachers, school boards, parent and civic groups interested in promoting school health, the State Health Department's Division of School Health Services carries on a full time program designed to promote and develop a sound basic health program for the school child. This plan consists of attempting the control of communicable diseases in cooperation with a local health department; the minimizing of hearing, vision, dental and other similar problems; providing minimum health essentials in classroom environment such as lighting, seating and so forth; an adequate physical activity program; stressing education on personal hygiene and local health hazards; nutrition supervision and instruction; and integrating the school health program with the total community health program.

TO FACE THE CAMERA again for the first time, since the birth of a baby last spring, is Martha Scott who will co-star with Jeffery Lynn in RKO Radio's "Sam Wynn." Martha was born on a farm and received her early training in Missouri. The stage or teaching were her ambitions. She borrowed money to attend the U of Michigan, tried teaching for 6 months, worked in a Chicago department store, got a part in Detroit's Civic Theatre, did a series of Shakespearean parts then arrived in New York with just $50 and a lot of courage. Her first real break and the turn of her career was the part of "Emily" in the stage play "Our Town" which led to the same part in the movie and a long-time Hollywood contract.

"PLEASE TO BEGIN". These words, spoken every Friday night over the CBS network by Fletcher Markle, introduce the "Ford Theater", one of the finest dramatic shows on the air. Markle's rise has been meteoric. Only 27 years old, he was unknown to American Audiences little more than a year ago. Today, he directs the greatest stars of stage and screen in radio (and writes some of the adapta. Fletcher Markle's for the "Ford Theater" which has been acclaimed by critics as "the best program in radio." While serving in England with the Royal Canadian Air Force, Markle was commissioned by the British Ministry of Information to write the documentary film on the Robot bomb. He came to American radio in 1947 when he wrote and directed 3 plays for "Columbia Workshop". In addition to directing "Ford Theater" he is director and co-author of the new film "Jigsaw" soon to be released.

HERE'S ANOTHER MISSOURI MISS who has made cinema-news. Next to be released is Warner Bros. "The Girl From Jones Beach", co-starring Virginia Mayo and Ronald Reagan and two more will follow on it's heels. Virginia decided, at the age of 6, to be an actress (without encouragement from her family). Luck was on her side, however, for her aunt operated a dramatic school which she attended. She made her first appearance at the age of 8 and following high school joined a vaudeville act. The act reached Broadway in "Banjo Eyes" with Eddie Cantor—Billy Rose saw her and signed her for his famous Diamond Horseshoe, Goldwyn looked and gave her a contract and Warner signed her in 1948. Strangely enough, Virginia's real name is Virginia Jones.

As making last minute changes on his own show and necessary substitutions on the other show. Even his dressing room is crowded with people right up to broadcast time. At the signal "on the air" Phil opens the first show and spends a fast 20 minutes directing and going thru his part then joins wife Alice Faye on "The Harris-Faye Show" (at 7:30 p.m. EST just as the announcer is introducing him) for a half hour of songs, gags and laughs. Day is done, brother, (at 8) but we forget to ask: When he eats, how he keeps the 2 scripts unscrambled and who said it's fun to be famous?

South Texas Aid C.A.P. Organization

J. P. Hanway and Bob Cooper of Refugio accompanied Lt. B. G. Cavner of Hensley Field in Dallas, on a tour last week-end which was made through West Texas and the Valley to promote the organization of an emergency C.A.P. network throughout the United States.

Cavner took Hanway and Cooper to Hensley Field where they saw the equipment which the army has furnished for the C.A.P. project. After picking up two "ham operators" in Abilene, they went to Odessa where a meeting was held to explain the emergency network. A second meeting was held in Brownsville.

Cavner met here with South Texas representatives a few weeks ago and asked members of this net to formulate the plans for organizing the country wide net as the largest emergency network in the world is operating here.

CIRCLES HOLD CHRISTMAS PARTY

Ladies of the two circles of the Presbyterian Church will hold their annual Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Harry Mills next Thursday afternoon, Dec. 16.

Mrs. Jas. G. Hooper is in charge of the program and Mrs. T. H. Pollard will have the Bible study. Instead of having a gift exchange among the members, the women decided to spread Christmas cheer by wrapping gifts for others for distribution in the community.

Oscar Lee of Glenwood, Iowa, has arrived to spend the winter at Fulton.

PRETTY PICOLAY

The latest fashion news of the winter season is picolay, an embossed cotton pique. Some of the most striking cold weather costumes combine picolay with velveteen. This smart round-the-clock dress, designed in Bates picolay, is trimmed with soft velveteen collar and cuffs. The National Cotton Council reports that cotton is enjoying new popularity this season as a wintertime fashion fabric.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS HAS PARTY

The Fidelas Matrons Sunday School class of the Baptist Church enjoyed a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. W. E. Beasley Tuesday night. Decorations were in the Christmas motif with a lighted tree in the living room. The dining table was centered with an arrangement of youpan and flanked with fern and pine cones.

Mrs. Mabel Bryant, class instructor, was presented with a gift from the class. Following the gift exchange, refreshments of turkey sandwiches, fruit cake, candies and hot chocolate were served.

Those who attended the party were Mrs. G. T. Cunningham, Mrs. Clarence Rivers, Mrs. W. A. Jones, Mrs. Raymond Morris, Mrs. Albert Ballou, Mrs. Dunn, Mrs. Gene Shults, Mrs. Tom Shults, Mrs. B. F. Rippey, Mrs. L. G. Wood, Mrs. Shelley Roaten, Mrs. Emory Spencer, Mrs. Simon Lee Sorenson, Miss Lupe Delgado, Mrs. John McLester and Mrs. Mabel Bryant.

Biologists to Address Academy of Science

J. L. Baughman, chief biologist at the marine laboratory, is one of the speakers scheduled to speak at the annual convention of the Texas Academy of Science which is being held in San Antonio this week-end. The convention will be attended by the State's leaders in scientific research.

J. R. Singleton, in charge of the Coastal Waterfowl Survey which has headquarters in Rockport at the laboratory, will address the group on the "duck marshes." Gus Engeling, assisting Singleton on the Waterfowl Survey, will also attend the meeting.

More than 400 delegates of the three divisions (senior, collegiate, junior) of the academy are expected to attend the convention which will feature an address by Dr. L. W. Blau, president, to be given at a dinner meeting of the Plaza Hotel Friday evening.

The delegates will tour the city during their three-day stay, with side trips to Fourth Army Laboratory, Lackland Air base, Randolph Field and the Foundation of Applied Research at Essar Ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Roberts of San Antonio, former owners of Palm Village, are in Rockport this week, fishing and on business.

BEDTIME STORY

Petite Jane Powell picks cotton for her favorite slumbertime style. The popular teen-aged star of MGM's "A Date With Judy" wears a matching robe and pajama set that is a junior's dream. The full skirt of the robe, checked gingham on the outside, is lined with quilted cotton on the inside. Daisies trim the matching one-piece pajamas which button high at the neck.

TURKEY DINNER AT CHRISTILLES HOME

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Hunt, Jimmy Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hanway and Mrs. C. F. Rozzell enjoyed a turkey dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Christilles Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Christilles recently returned from a hunting trip in the Bandera area where each shot a deer. They also brought home a wild turkey which graced the table Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Anchors have arrived from Kansas City, Mo., to spend the greater part of the winter here. They are staying at the Live Oak Apartments.

Mrs. Hagar Tells Rotarians About 'Bird Life' In Area

Mrs. Jack Hagar told members and guests of the Rotary Club at their weekly meeting Wednesday, that the Rockport area has a larger variety of bird life in it than any other section of the state and that there is more bird life in the state of Texas than in any state in the union. Mrs. Hagar had several mounted birds on display which she discussed in her talk on "Rockport Bird Life." She also explained the methods used and the necessity for banding and how the routes of flight are determined through banding.

Next week the Rotary meeting will be held aboard the "Rusty" again as R. R. Rice has invited the members on a duck shoot. The Rotarians will take to the duck blinds and make every effort to shoot enough ducks to feed the membership at the following meeting.

President Albin appointed Hugh Morrison, Dick Picton and Weldon Cabaniss to serve on a committee to arrange for socials to be held each Saturday night at the school gym for the Teen-Agers. The socials will begin after Christmas. Entertainment, music and soft drinks will be made available for them.

Visitors at the meeting were Guy Hagen of Cordell, Okla.; George Adams, Bryan, Tex., and Ruel Daniels of Port Lavaca.

Rockport Woman Starts Texas Flag Fund

Austin, Tex.—Gov. Beauford H. Jester, who complained sometime ago that his office had no funds to handle requests for Texas flags, received one $5 contribution.

One of the Governor's associates said today that Mrs. James G. Hooper of Rockport sent a check for $5, hoping to start a "fund for supplying Texas flags to persons over the world who write the governor asking for them."

The modest starter of the flags-for-displaced-Texans fund will be used to buy a flag for the Yokohama Service Club No. 15, whose enlisted men recently appealed to Jester for a Texas banner.

Mrs. Carl Eschenberg of Floresville visited in Rockport over the weekend. Mrs. Eschenberg formerly lived here.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Women's Civic Club will hold their regular monthly meeting at the fire hall Tuesday afternoon at 3:30, December 14. All members are urged to attend.

Rudolph Brunner and daughter of Dallas and Edward Wilhelm of Pennsylvania, spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Crist. Saturday they enjoyed a cruise on the Crist's new boat, the "Nana."

Kansas Fisherman Comments On Rockport And Vicinity

In October the Rt. Rev. Monsignor Wm. Schaefers, managing editor of the Advance Register in Wichita, Kans., came to Rockport with a few friends to fish. Upon returning to Wichita Rev. Schaefers wrote a lengthy article on the merits and demerits of Rockport as a city and as a place to fish. The following paragraphs appeared in the Advance Register, official paper of the diocese of Wichita:

"Rockport, Texas, is not much to look at. Half of the town's 1,800 inhabitants make a living in one way or another off the fishing industry. How the other half lives is something of a mystery. Most of the Rockporters believe in taking it easy. The stores open late. Only one of the half dozen or more eating places in the town opens in time to serve breakfast; the others remain closed until late in the morning. The town suffers from a lack of civic pride. It has no ambition.

"But once upon a time, Rockport was up-and-doing. That was a good many years ago, when the town seemed destined to grow into a big city. Commercial fishing, shipyards and tourist business promised a great deal. The county seat of Aransas County, Rockport built a sublimely ornate courthouse—and then promptly lost drive and courage. Corpus Christi, 30 miles away, took the lead, grew into a metropolis.

"But Rockport remained a fisherman's paradise, with Copano Bay as its backyard, Aransas Bay as its front yard. There's gold in them thar hills,—well, 'There's fish in them thar bays.' Then, too just beyond Aransas Bay is San Antonio Bay—where the fishing is excellent. The bays form the shoreline and are separated from the Gulf of Mexico proper by a long, curving strand of sand; nevertheless the water in the bays is Gulf water.

"Fishing out of Rockport is good most any time of the year, but particularly during the summer months and as late as the fag-end of October. The average sportsman who goes to Rockport to fish, fishes for trout and reds. One can make a 'killing' at this. Fishing for tarpon (not eatable) out of Port Aransas is thrilling. So is fishing for mackerel (in season), drum and other water game. But if you want to make sure of getting poundage, then fish for trout, or reds, or both. Our party of four, all Kansans, fished for three days down there during the week of Oct. 17. We shipped home 363 pounds of trout.

"I should have said: We were out on San Antonio Bay three times; actually, we fished for only 15 hours. The costs? Boat and pilot, for two fishermen, costs $20 a day; $5 for each additional fisherman (or passenger). Bait (shrimp) costs $1.50 per fisherman per day. Tackle rents for $1 a day. For the four of us the fishing cost was $40 a day, or only $10 a day per person. Fish fetches 35 cents a pound at any one of the fish houses at Rockport. Thus, you see—we might have sold our 363 pound catch for $127.05. This amount would have paid our fishing bill. But one fishes for the sport of it. On the basis of the cost of our trip plus the fishing costs, the 363 pounds of fish cost us $1.10 per fish-pound. However, we had $5 worth of fun per fish-pound. Whenever you can get $1,800 worth of fun for only $400, why—that is a bargain. No sane man will pass it up.

"The boat leaves from the basin (wharf) at 5 a. m. About two hours later, the fishing waters are reached. The guide may hit the right spot the first time he drops anchor, but if he does not, he will then weigh anchor and cruise around until he does find the right spot. After that, the fun begins. You fish for five hours, when the guide calls it quit. He pulls anchor, then heads for the basin. It is 2 p. m. when he berths his boat. Then he 'guts' your catch of fish. It is an imposing pile of trout. You take snapshots of it. Next, you take the big catch to a fish storage plant, where they will be iced. This is the daily procedure.

"If your party fishes for three days and hauls in 363 pounds of trout as we did, you pay the proprietor of the storage plant $10 for storage, icing, barrels, and packing. It will cost you about $15 to express the catch to Kansas. Then on getting home yourself, you will have the fun of giving away your catch in wholesale-sized packages to your friends and admirers—you will also have the fun of strutting around like a seasoned fisherman, while bragging without end about your catch—and your vanity skyrockets as your friends blow you up into something big: A Kansas landlubber home from a triumphant fishing expedition on the Gulf of Mexico.

"Honestly, fishing in the water of San Antonio Bay is simply superb. You cast, wait a second or two, then pop the cork, and—bang! Down it goes . . . a quick jerk of the wrist, and you have 'set the hook in him' . . . then you reel in your catch. Weight of the average sized trout is a pound. Occasionally, you hook a 2-pounder . . . now and then, you hook a 3-pounder . . . this sort of fishing, well—it is grand and exciting. You fish as hard as you can. You have time only for fishing. You neither eat nor drink anything. Your breath comes short and quick, you are feverish with excitement. The sun may get down to blistering business, or someone in the boat may fall overboard or drop dead—it means nothing to you; you bait, then cast, then reel in with a frantic interest—you have hit the jackpot. You fish in one spot for, say, 30 minutes, after that, you cast 20 feet farther to the right, and there you open a new pool. A shark or a stingere, or a 'cat' may take your bait. This causes you to lose time. For sharks and stingere and cats are not eatable. It takes time to reel in a baby shark, and free the hook; also he may have tangled your line, and it may take you 10 to 15 minutes to untangle it—and all the while you should keep reminding yourself that you are a member of the Holy Name Society. . . . You may hook a 30-pound drum, which is what one of our party did. The yell, 'I got a big one,' was the warning. And sure enough, the drum was big—as a washtub. He put up a splendid battle. It took our guide, with the help of our coaching, almost a half hour to bring him into the boat. The big drum is now being mounted by Richard Schmidt, expert taxidermist of Canton."

Rebekahs Serve Lunch
The Rebekahs sold cookies, sandwiches and coffee at the court house during the noon hour Tuesday, to the large crowd present for the delinquent tax sale.
The committee of the month was in charge of the serving. Proceeds will be used for the Christmas party.

Christmas Spirit Shines Forth From Decorated Home

Let the outside of your house reflect all the Yuletide spirit and holiday hospitality within. Cheerful colored lights, imaginative displays and garlands of greens will quickly transform your home into an attractive lighted greeting card that will wish your whole neighborhood and all who pass by a Merry Christmas.

By John R. Watson
General Electric Lighting Specialist

Let your home be a happy greeting to all who pass by it this Christmas season. Twinkling colored lights will transform any house into an attractive lighted greeting card that expresses the true holiday spirit of "goodwill toward men."

Plan Early

Outdoor decorations need not be elaborate or expensive to be effective. In fact, some of the most interesting Christmas displays are those done with simplicity and imagination. Regardless of how extensively you plan to decorate this year, it's not too early to begin considering your holiday decorations.

Pictured above are four attractively decorated homes which may provide ideas and inspiration for decorating your own home this year. Above all, don't keep a check rein on your imagination, for it can be a most helpful ally in creating an unusual decorative scheme.

Tree on the Roof

If your home has a shallow roof above the doorway, you may want to duplicate the unique display shown in the upper left-hand photograph. A live Christmas tree, complete with trimmings and lights, is mounted in the center of the sloping roof. Underneath the tree, "gift boxes" made with diffusing plastic tops are mounted on a wide board and lighted with colored lamps inside. The decorated tree is then mounted to the center of the board. Garlands of evergreen rope entwined with colored lights complete the display.

New Home

If you're the proud owner of a new home this Christmas, let that be the theme of your holiday decorating. You can decorate it simply and effectively by tying it as a "gift" with wide streamers of bright red oilcloth. Add a giant tag "From Santa" as shown in the lower right-hand photograph and completely bathe the house with light from two projector floodlights concealed in the shrubbery. By using color lenses on these weatherproof floodlights, you can make your "package" any color you desire.

Don't forget to plan some special decoration for the front doorway that extends your holiday hospitality as guests arrive. In the inset circle above, bands of bright ribbon, tacked diagonally across the door itself, are dramatically highlighted by a projector floodlight screwed in the socket of the regular entrance light above the door.

Another unusual door treatment that expresses holiday greetings is pictured on the lower left. Words of greeting (cut out of plywood or heavy cardboard) are silhouetted against a background of Christmas greens and the whole entrance with its wreath bedecked doorway is spotlighted by a projector spotlight concealed in nearby shrubbery.

One of the easiest and quickest ways to give your doorway a bit of Christmas lighting is to replace the regular bulbs in entrance fixtures and porch lights with cheerful colored enameled bulbs. The 25-watt blue, green, yellow, orange and red bulbs may also be used behind shrubbery or in other Christmas displays for spots of color.

Tommy Key Talks To Roy Rogers Over Telephone

Tommy Key, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Key, was probably the most excited boy in Aransas County Tuesday morning when he was able to talk with Roy Rogers, "King of the Cowboys" who was the guest of Richard M. Kleberg at King Ranch this week.

Tommy saw Roger's picture in the Corpus Christi Caller Tuesday morning and wanted to call him up since he knew the King Ranch wasn't very "far away." Tommy placed his call about 8:30 a. m. and was told that Rogers was out. About 11:30 that morning Tommy received a call and it was Rogers on the phone. Tommy asked him to come to Rockport and spend the night with him in his bunk bed but the famous cowboy had to decline the invitation due to prior engagements.

Roy Rogers is Tommy's ideal. Tommy has a complete cowboy outfit, Roy Rogers style. So for little Tommy Key it seems like Christmas has already been here as there is nothing that could please him more than to talk with his cowboy hero.

According to Mrs. Mary Elliott who took most of the calls at the King Ranch, parents called asking to bring their youngsters for a visit, school teachers wanted permission to bring their classes and calls came from all over South Texas from children wanting to talk with the cowboy star of screen and radio.

Dredging Permit Extended To Heldenfels Brothers

Heldenfels Brothers have been authorized an extension of time by the Dept. of the Army to complete dredging of shell for commercial purposes in Aransas Bay on Long Reef located between the Gulf Intracoastal Waterway and St. Joseph Island at a location central to a point 5.7 miles north east from Rockport. The dredging would be performed within an area approximately 600 feet wide and 6,000 feet long, and to a depth of 9 feet below mean low tide, and would extend from a point 300 feet east of the G.I.W.W. at about mile 5.26 in a southeasterly direction for a distance of 6,000 feet.

Dredging of shell was also authorized in Copano Bay to a depth of no more than 10 feet below tide, the dredged material to be placed ashore for commercial purposes) and to dredge a channel and turning basin (the dredged material to be placed along the sides of said channel) in Copano bay near Bayside.

Dredging of shell in Aransas Bay at Grass Island reef, about 6 miles east of Rockport was authorized. The shell is to be loaded in barges and unloaded on shore for commercial purposes.

Left-over turkey goes a long flavorful way in spicy turkey noodle squares. Rich egg noodles blend the flavors of turkey, spices, celery and apples to make a main dish.

Big, brand-new and ready for service soon!

IN ONE of our power plants a new 25,000-kilowatt electric generating unit is being assembled for service in a few weeks. This huge unit, ordered two and a half years ago, will make lots of electricity... enough, in fact, to serve a city of 125,000 people. It's only a part of the power we've got in the making. Construction is also well underway at another CPL plant to house a 33,000-kilowatt generating unit which will be in operation by next summer, increasing the capacity of this plant by two-thirds.

Step by step our expansion program moves forward. In the five-year period, 1947 to 1951, millions of dollars will be spent and our power supply to South Texas homes, farms, business and industry will be more than doubled. This increase means enough new power to serve as many as 100 towns of over 5,000 people each.

You and your South Texas neighbors can be assured we're working constantly to keep plenty of low-cost electricity ready and waiting for your flick of the switch, today and in the future.

Junior Cage Team Schedules Eight Games

Junior high school boys are being given an opportunity to play a scheduled season of basketball this year for the first time in the history of the school. T. Houston Foster is the coach for the junior team.

Boys who have turned out regularly for play are Jerome Wallace, Jimmy Sparks, Lee Ingersoll, Eddie Bradshaw, Billy Joe Davis, Leon Bateman, Chas. Smith, Bill Jones, Gerald Ballou, Billy Joe Rowe and John Silberisen.

The schedule of play is as follows:

- Dec. 17: Aransas Pass here at 3 p. m.
- Jan. 6: Ingleside there.
- Jan. 14: Gregory there.
- Jan. 18: (Tentative) Aransas here at 7:30 p. m.
- Jan. 20: Robstown here at 7:30 p. m.
- Jan. 27: Taft there.
- Feb. 3: Ingleside here at 7:30 p. m.

Feb. 10: Taft here at 7:30 p. m. Supt. J. F. Harbin has been instrumental in arranging for the junior team. By learning the fundamentals of the game while in grade school, the boys will be ready to work on the finer points of play when they are old enough for the high school team. According to Coach Chas. Roe the greatest handicap of the high school team is that they did not have the opportunity to perfect the fundamentals of basketball while still in grade school.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh
Yes Sir, Insomnia's Contagious!
When Bud Swanson had trouble sleeping nights, and tried to get over it by turning up the radio full blast, he started an epidemic of insomnia all down the block!
Folks finally dropped a hint to Bud that he close the windows or turn the radio a little lower. Bud did—and that was the quickest cure for other folks' insomnia I've ever heard of!
Not that any of us object to the radio, or swing bands, or anything else that helps another person relax of an evening. (Myself, I like a glass of beer with a bit of cheese before I go to bed. I can't speak for you.)
From where I sit, good neighborliness means nothing more than simply respecting the other person's tastes and rights—without forcing your own tastes or opinions down his throat. And that goes for Bud's radio, my glass of beer, or whatever temperate pleasure you happen to enjoy.

San Antonio Writer Acknowledges Redfish

Last week the Chamber of Commerce forwarded to Renwick Cary, author of Around the Plaza in the San Antonio Light, a redfish and a trout because Mr. Cary found it necessary to explain to friends the lack of whitefish in the area. Chamber of Commerce officials believed that once San Antonians had tasted of the redfish and trout caught here on the Texas coast, they would no longer yearn for the whitefish of the Great Lakes region.

Thursday Mr. Cary acknowledged receipt of the letter and the fish in the following manner:

Our recently-expressed enthusiasm for whitefish has brought us an air mail, special delivery letter from Jas. Sorenson Jr., president of the Rockport Chamber of Commerce, and, after reading it a couple of times, we feel compelled to hang our head in shame. The letter:

"Dear Sir:
"We would suggest that since the whitefish of the Great Lakes region is so hard to obtain in San Antonio that you sample the redfish and the trout which are on their way to you from Rockport, where they are caught in abundance the year around.

"The idea of a Texan talking about the Great Lakes fish when our gulf coast varieties cannot be equalled.

"Here on the coast we find people from Michigan and Indiana shipping our redfish and speckled trout back home to show the Great Lakes natives what good fish taste like. And we don't stop at the Great Lakes as our fish go to Oklahoma, Kansas and other mid-western states and only the Pacific stops us from sending them beyond California.

"Once all of you fish-hungry San Antonians have sampled the Rockport redfish and trout, you won't care if that January shipment of whitefish arrives or not. And, if you come to Rockport, we'll throw in a flounder for good measure."

Now, we're getting this little message off to the good people of Rockport.

"Thanks a million for sending wonderful redfish and trout instead simply asking us to verbally eat crow.

"Ready to admit what we should have known. Grass on other side fence always looks greener."

First Prize Winners for Best Story Why U. S. Farmers Should Buy More Savings Bonds Now

GIDDINGS, TEXAS—When the American Farm Bureau Federation, through its publication, asked the country's farmers to tell why they are investing part of their crop income in United States Savings Bonds, F. B. Curry, shown above with his wife, Mary, and four-year-old daughter, Carolyn Sue, responded with a simple human interest narrative, the key theme of which was: "Don't feed inflation. Save for your future by building a financial reserve in the form of U. S. Savings Bonds." His story won him the first award of $300 in savings bonds. Pride of the Curry family in their ownership of shares in their government is reflected in this scene on their farm as Papa Curry exhibits the $300 in bonds to Mama Curry and daughter.

Students to Recondition Used Clothing and Toys For Christmas Baskets

The student council is seeking clothing, toys and other items which can be repaired for distribution among the needy at Christmas time. The council worked in conjunction with the firemen last year in preparing baskets for distribution among the needy and plan to do so again this year.

The students desire to obtain all items of clothing which can be repaired for use. The only stipulation is that they be clean. Broken or discarded toys will be reconditioned by the boys in the industrial arts class.

Everyone is asked to make a survey at home and to take items no longer of use to the school as soon as possible so that the repairs can be made before school is dismissed for the Christmas vacation, Dec. 18.

Polio Doesn't Stop Christmas At Gonzales

Gonzales, Tex. — Johnny and Mary won't be at home for Christmas this year—but they'll have a big Christmas celebration just the same.

Maybe Johnny and Mary won't be able to run around the gleaming tree this year but they hope that perhaps they'll be able to next year. Johnny will be in a wheel chair. Mary will survey the festive scene with happy eyes gazing from a hospital bed. Both were victims of the poliomyelitis scourge which struck down 1,600 Texans during the first ten months of 1948.

There are high hopes in the young breasts of both Johnny and Mary, and of the dozens of other children who will attend this year's Christmas party with them. For all are patients at Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation and all hope that the warm therapeutic waters plus the most modern of medical treatment and the finest of equipment will enable them to walk again.

Expansion of the foundation's facilities are planned next year and Texans throughout the state are being asked to contribute to this year's fund-raising drive which ends on Christmas, says Ross Boothe, president of the foundation.

All funds contributed during the campaign will be utilized for expansion and operation of the 11-year-old Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation which now has a capacity of 110 polio patients, says Boothe.

This newspaper is one of many throughout the state which is participating in the campaign to bring the story of Johnny and Mary and all the other young Texas polio sufferers to the people of Texas—it's the story of how Texas takes care of its own in one of the nation's finest centers for the treatment of infantile paralysis.

The story ends around a Gonzales Christmas tree—and foundation directors are betting that it will have a happy ending.

Bacon Baskets for Eggs

Ever heard of bacon baskets for poached eggs? Make them from shredded wheat biscuits, by topping split biscuits with bacon, and then broiling. Top with poached eggs. These are extra good because the bacon drippings soak down through the crusty wheat giving added flavor.

MRS. LeBLANC ENTERTAINS YOUNG MATRONS AT BRIDGE

Mrs. Leonard LeBlanc entertained members of the Young Matrons Bridge Club at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Curry, Wednesday afternoon. Decorations were carried out in the Christmas motif.

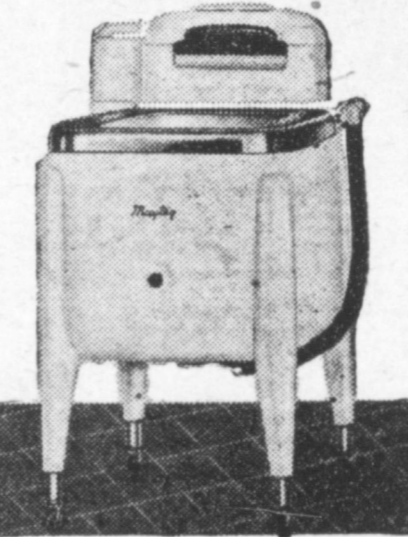

Mrs. Chester Johnson claimed the high score. Second high was won by Mrs. Roy Rogero. Mrs. T. J. Johnson was awarded the bingo prize.

Those who attended the party were Mrs. Ed Barnard, Mrs. Joe Johnson, Mrs. Arlie Shivers, Mrs. Roy Rogero, Mrs. Herbert Mills, Mrs. Harry Mills, Mrs. Chas. Ankele, Mrs. J. B. Jackson, Mrs. Norvell Jackson, Mrs. Emory Spencer, Mrs. Harold Picton, Mrs. Chester Johnson, Mrs. Weldon Cabaniss, Mrs. Steirly Rozzell, Mrs. C. C. Fowler, Mrs. Roy Woods, Mrs. T. J. Johnson, Mrs. Richard Fox, Miss Mary Beth Picton and Mrs. Fred Booth.

The membership voted to disband with the parties until after the Christmas holidays.

Col. C. M. Davis returned home from Spohn hospital in Corpus Christi Saturday.

Ex-Ray Survey

late and treat all cases in the adult population. Only through examination of our adult population can the danger of exposure of children to tuberculous infection be eliminated. The policy of the State Health Department is not to X-ray children under 15 years of age.

The Department of Health wants to X-ray every person 15 years of age or older regardless of how healthy they are. Since there are no symptoms found at the beginning of the disease, an X-ray is the only means of detecting the disease in the early stages.

The X-ray will also detect other abnormal conditions of the chest such as cancer and heart disease. These findings will be reported in the following manner: At the time of examination the person X-rayed is asked to name the physician to whom he wishes his report sent, should there be any abnormality found. If the X-ray shows tuberculosis or if the film is unsatisfactory, both the physician designated and the person X-rayed are notified. If the X-ray is negative, that is, within normal limits, the person X-rayed is notified directly by post card.

To reach groups of people in communities surrounding Rockport, transportation will be furnished where it is necessary to bring people to the site where the machine is operating.

The success of the survey in the county will depend directly on the number of persons in the county that are X-rayed.

Bacon-Spinach Salad

Raw spinach with crisp bacon bits and a sharp French dressing make a good salad. Sliced hard-cooked eggs may be added if you desire.

Patsy Ruth Haden of Marshall, Texas, is spending the winter in Rockport with Mrs. Ray A. Gilson. She is attending the Rockport school.
