World to Observe Along The Waterfront Nations Day.

Fishermen are staying in today waiting to see what the Gulf disturbance will do to fishing over the weekend. A few nice catches were brought in during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Utz of Plains, Kansas, landed 18 trout while fishing Monday, some of which weighed over two pounds. Mr. and Mrs. Utz arrived Sunday to spend the winter here. They are veteran fishermen in the bay area.

Other fishermen who have arrived here to enjoy the fall and winter fishing are Mr. and Mrs. Jim Phillpot of Miami, Texas and Mr. and Mrs. Bonnie Rose of Pampa, Texas.

* * * I. J. Paul, H. T. DeHart and H. L. DeHart fished in Aransas Bay Saturday and Sunday and landed 113 gafftops.

Earl Mahaiver and Fred Procknon of San Antonio caught 80 gafftops while fishing in the bay area over the weekend.

N. M. Rainey of Houston landed 45 trout while fishing in Copano Bay over the weekend.

Leon Huckle and party of Houston fished with Jack Lawler last Thursday and brought in 11 flounder, five rat reds and 42 trout. Friday he fished with Harry Mills and caught 9 rat reds, 6 flounder and 18 trout.

Sid Suhler of Houston fished with Jack Lawler Saturday and

The court held in essence that the law passed by the last regular session of the Legislature failed to achieve its stated conservation objective. The mere limitation of the number of boats is not conservation.

> The law was also held to be discriminatory.

The opinion by Associate Justice W. St. John Garwood said:

"We conclude that the serious restriction of individual liberty to earn a livelihood which the present law imposes, together with the remoteness of its connection with J. L. Doris Huffman Wins Student Poster Contest

The Aransas County Emergency Corps awarded prizes to four students who submitted winning posters in the contest sponsored by the corps last week in connection with Fire Prevention Week.

Doris Huffman, Rockport grade school student, won the grand prize of $10. Awards of five dollars each were presented Theresa Hemmi at the Catholic school, Roy De-Forest at the Fulton grade school and Betty Driver at the Rockport grade school. A prize was not awarded in the high school division as only four posters were submitted from this group.

The posters are now on display at Johnson's Drug Store.

Leonard LeBlanc, assisted by T. J. Johnson and Jim Poletti, carried out the activities for Fire Prevention Week.
