

Along The Waterfront

Fishing has picked up considerably this week and the hunters have been reported to be doing very good.

James Williams of Cotula, Texas landed 70 nice sized trout in the Basin last Sunday.

C. L. Thomas and Bill Crist went out Tuesday and caught 200 pounds of redbfish, flounder and drum.

Dr. B. O. McDaniels, of Amherst, Texas and Glen Young of Littlefield, Texas brought in a boat load of fish Wednesday that really had the camera clicking. There were 125 redds, weighing up to six pounds each, for a total of 230 pounds.

This is Mr. Young's sixth trip to Rockport. He and his wife and girls spend their summers at the Edgewater Trailer Park; then he returns alone for the winter fishing.

Dr. McDaniels, after Wednesday's record catch, says Rockport is to be his fishing port from now on.

Leland Boezinger and mother of San Antonio, brought in 49 trout, weighing around 70 pounds Wednesday.

Bob Lee, on South Beach, brought in 53 trout, for a total of 65 pounds Wednesday—but, Bob seldom returns empty handed; usually has a nice string of keepers.

Mr. and Mrs. George Allard of Clear Lake, Iowa, who like to do their fishing by the wading method, have been averaging from 12 to 30 trout every day in addition to some redds, flounder, etc.

From Mills Wharf most of the reports come from hunters.

Forest Avery and Chubby Martin of Refugio landed 10 large redds, nine rat redds, one trout, and 12 medium size drums Wednesday.

Last Thursday, nine duck hunters went out, all got their limits. David Shearer of San Antonio got five geese and his limit of ducks on a combination hunt Thursday afternoon.

Friday, F. L. Eagon of Buffalo, N. Y., killed two Canadian geese. This was his first time to hunt. Eight hunters went out and all of them got their limits.

Last Saturday, 10 duck hunters and 27 goose hunters went out. All got their limit of ducks, but only 19 geese were brought in.

Sunday, there were 15 duck hunters and all got their limits except one. There were 17 geese hunters, and a record of 10 were killed.

Eight duck hunters were out Monday and six of them got their limits. Joe Prince of Nacogdoches, Tex., got a goose and his limit of ducks.

Tuesday Mills Wharf had 10 duck hunters and nine got their limit of ducks.

Wednesday, there were 11 hunters out and all got their limits. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Crawford of Fort Worth got their limit of ducks, plus one goose each.

Carl Osborn reports the following visiting at the Edgewater Trailer Park at this time: Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Marvin of Greenwood, Neb., Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Simmons of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. E. Tresize, Temple City, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dauphin of Lafayette, La.; Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Hodage and son, Mr. and Mrs. George Allard, Clear Lake, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Hale J. Denny of Union, Ill. and San Antonio; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gregory of San Antonio; Mr. and Mrs. Volney Cabitt and son of McGregor, Tex.; Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Emerick of Mt. Shasta, Calif.; and Mr. W. T. Bright of Lubbock, Tex.

Most of these folks are ardent fishermen (and women) and for the past week or so have really been "hitting the jackpot" out in front of the Edgewater Trailer Park and along the reef.

Aransas Gets 262-Barrel Oiler

The deep Virginia Field of Aransas County had another producer complete at the field's discovery well, the No. 1 Virginia Taton, which had died and now is complete in a side-tracked hole.

Union Producing Company No. 1 Virginia T. Taton, John Durst Survey, Virginia Field, flowed 262.69 barrels of 55 gravity oil, plus 2.52 per cent water, on potential test through 1/8-inch and 5/32-inch chokes, under 4,585 pounds pressure on tubing, with casing sealed Perforations, with 90 shots, were at 10,994-11,019 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 3,220 to 1. Total depth, in second side-tracked hole, was 11,050 feet, plugged back to 11,019 feet, and 10,214.57 feet of 7-inch casing and 1,258.49 feet of 5-inch liner was set in the hole.

This test originally had been completed early this year for 228 barrels of 55.9 gravity oil on 6/64-inch choke, and late this summer had sidetracked at 10,074 feet, after failing in that hole.

The No. 2 Taton was completed a couple of months ago for 333 barrels daily on perforations at 9,993-11,008 feet, and the No. 3 now drilling, was at 9,985 feet on Friday. Each is in John Durst Survey, A-51, off Highway 35.

The Taton Field is about four miles north of the Lamar Field, and about four miles southwest of the St. Charles Field.

George W. Graham, Ryan, Hays and Burke No. 1 George Easley, vildcat 1 1/2 miles northeast of Mud Flats Field production, was drilling at 8,653 feet at noon Saturday, after mud logger had indicated a good show at 8,642 feet. This test is just off Copano Bay and in lot 1, block 47, fifth subdivision, Taft Farm Lands.

Phillips Petroleum Company No. 1 Copano, in Tract 34, Copano Bay Field, is a new location in the southeast corner of the north half of the tract and 750 feet southeast of the field discovery. Operators are waiting on an Army permit to start this 7,500 foot project.

In Salt Lake Field, Renwar Oil Corporation No. 2 State Tract 105, plugged in Nov. 5, set 10 1/2-inch surface casing at 1,009 feet and Friday was drilling at 3,600 feet. Surface location for this test, which is being drilled directionally from dry land to a point under Copano Bay, is in Joseph Hollis Survey, A-76.

Phillips Petroleum Company No. 1-1 Pano (State of Texas), new Copano Bay Field test contracted to 7,500 feet, is 467 feet out of the southeast corner of State Tract 44. It is 934 feet west of Phillips No. D-1.

The Atlantic Refining Co. No. 1 William Johnson has been announced as dry. The total depth is about 7,300 feet. It is reported 54 feet lower than the No. 1 items.

TAIL OF WOE—It's hard to tell who is wagging who but you can tell at a glance that both "Spot" and his mistress, Priscilla Wheeler of Houston, Tex., are very unhappy about the whole situation. The woful tail came to a happy ending when the pooch broke away, to the relief of all concerned.

WAR IS HELL FOR PIGS TOO—The porker at right thoroughly agrees with Sherman's famous statement regarding the horrors of combat. His unhappy position came about when ration-weary Marines found him in a Korean village. The rolled-up rug carried by the Marine at left suggests that intelligence officers later had the four-legged POW "called up" and "grilled."

Oil Flow Slashed By 160,083 Barrels

Austin, Tex. — The railroad commission Tuesday set Texas crude oil allowable production for December at 2,556,944 barrels daily, a 160,083-barrel cut from the present permissive flow.

The slash was achieved by a one-day across-the-board cut in number of producing days, except two fields. This will allow 20 days of flow statewide and 19 days in the big East Texas field.

The Fullerton field, West Texas, will remain on 19 days and the Willamar field, Southwest Texas, on 12.

Pirates' Final Game At Goliad Friday

The Rockport Pirates go to Goliad Friday night for the final game of the season. This is also a conference game. Goliad will be a favored team on the field, however, our boys say they are determined to win one game this season so they will be in there fighting.

The Rockport Pirates lost to a speedy and aggressive Math team last Thursday night on the local field with a score of 63-0.

The Pirates started out pretty good in the beginning of the game, but finally lost the ball in the first quarter due to a fumble. The Pirates were unable to penetrate into a scoring position throughout the game.

The "B" team played in part of the first half and the remainder of the game. Coach Charles Roe reported the "B" team looked pretty good, considering they had not played during all this season.

Freedom Train Seen for Texas

Austin, Tex. — Gov. Allan Shivers announced last week that a special committee is working on plans for a Texas "Freedom Train" which would tour the state during 1951-1952.

The governor said the "general idea and plan" of the 1948 national Freedom Train would be carried out in Texas, with exhibition of state documents, manuscripts and historical materials.

Shivers said that a committee headed by Brig. Gen. Paul Wakefield of Austin recommended that the train should be equipped and moved without any expense to the state.

NOTICE

TO ALL PERSONS INTERESTED IN THE SUBDIVISION KNOWN AS "HARBOR VIEW ADDITION," ARANSAS COUNTY, TEXAS.

The following application for permission to cancel portion of subdivision has been filed with the Commissioners Court of Aransas County, Texas, on the 24th day of October, 1950, to-wit:

TO THE HONORABLE COUNTY JUDGE AND COMMISSIONERS COURT OF ARANSAS COUNTY, TEXAS.

Gentlemen: Now comes Wm. Seipel, and Edwin Schroeder, Petitioners, and would respectfully show to the Court:

That on August 8th, 1912, one Park R. Longworth caused to be filed in the plat records of Aransas County, Texas, a certain plat dated July 13th, 1912, known as "HARBOR VIEW ADDITION," purporting to subdivide Blocks Ten (10) to Fourteen (14), inclusive, Blocks Twenty-three (23) to Thirty (31) inclusive, and Blocks Thirty-four (34) to Forty-seven (47), inclusive, with the exception of 1 acre in the South end of Block Forty seven (47), of the C. H. Moore Subdivision of part of the Joseph Fessenden Survey, Aransas County, Texas, which plat of C. H. Moore Subdivision is of record in Volume 1, page 22, of the Surveyor's records of Aransas County, Texas, and the said plat of "HARBOR VIEW ADDITION" being of record in Volume 1, pages 32-33, Plat Records of Aransas County, Texas.

That at the time of the filing of said plat of "HARBOR VIEW ADDITION," the said Park R. Longworth, never had legal title to said property and has not since acquired legal title to said property and the filing of said plat has clouded the title to said farm tracts for the reason that said plat actually only covered part of C. H. Moore Farm Tracts, that it purported to in the dedication thereof.

That said plat has never been recognized and the land has always been used for farming and grazing purposes, that no streets have been set out or used, and that for the purpose of clearing the tax records of Aransas County, Texas, said plat of "HARBOR VIEW ADDITION" of record in Volume 1, pages 32-33, Records of Aransas County, Texas, should be vacated.

That the petitioners own all of the property purported to be covered by said plat, and the undersigned does hereby petition your Honorable Court, after due notice has been given according to law, to enter an order vacating and cancelling said plat of "HARBOR VIEW ADDITION," and to enter an order on the minutes of the Court, so that the Tax Assessor can assess such property as farm tracts of the C. H. Moore Subdivision, as though said plat had never been filed.

EDWIN SCHROEDER
WM. SEIPEL

Said application will be heard by the Commissioners Court of Aransas County, Texas, on the 11th day of December, 1950, at the Courthouse in Rockport, and all persons interested in such lands are hereby commanded to appear at that time to protest if desired against such action.

THE COMMISSIONERS COURT OF ARANSAS COUNTY, TEXAS.
By D. R. SIMMONS,
County Judge.

Issued this the 31st day of October, 1950.

GIVEN under my hand and seal of the Commissioners Court, at office in Rockport, Texas, this the 31st day of October, A. D. 1950.

State Has 1,200 More Teachers But Schools Still 1,800 Short

Texas schools have 1,200 more teachers than last year, but they are still 1,800 short, the National Education Association reported this week.

The number of teachers with emergency teaching certificates has declined 1,427, but 3,200 so-called "substandard" teachers are still serving in Texas schools.

The report forecasts a teacher shortage in both elementary and secondary Texas schools during the next three years.

Average salary for classroom teachers and other members of instructional staffs in Texas this year is $3,120, or $40 above the national average, the report said. The NEA pointed out that this is the equivalent of only $1,795 in terms of the purchasing power of 1935-39 dollars.

The Texas classroom teacher's average salary was listed as $3,054, with 86 per cent of Texas teachers in the $2,400-$4,000 bracket.

NEA found the nation's schools making a slow recovery from their postwar shortage of teachers and facilities.

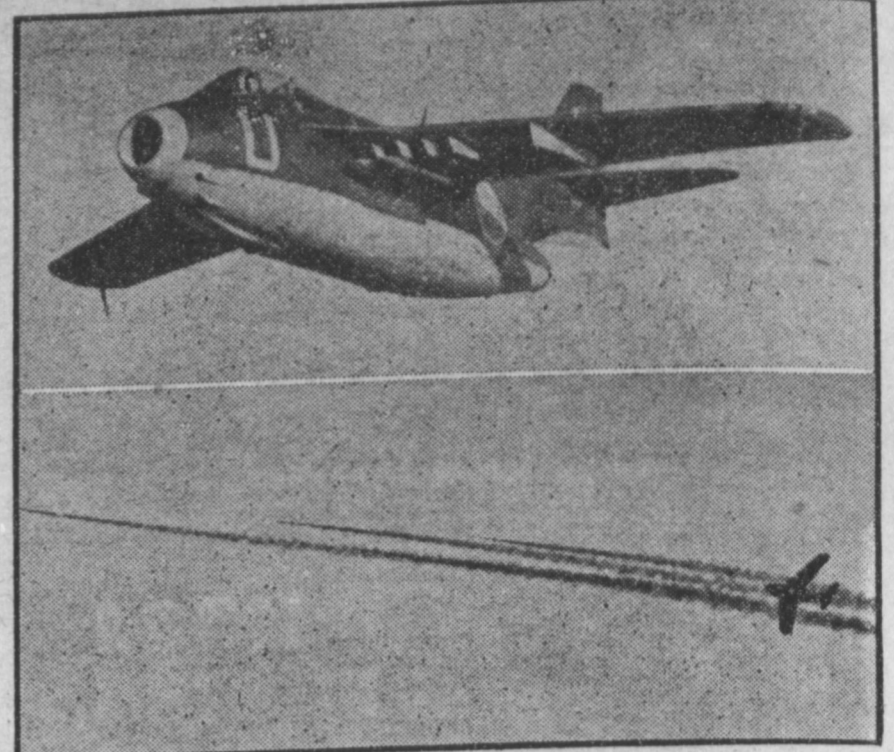

This recovery is being complicated, NEA said, by "rising prices which reduce the value of the school dollar, tax and price trends

Mexico Sees Shrimp Export Hike to U. S.

Mexico City. — Mexico officially estimated Tuesday shrimp exports to the United States this year would be 10 to 20 per cent more than last season.

Navy Minister Alberto J. Pawling said exports last year were around 8000 tons from both the gulf and Pacific coasts, and there are many more shrimp in the waters this year. He also said three new hydroplanes recently bought in the United States would be assigned to patrol Mexican waters to make sure fishermen have Mexican fishing permits.

THE ABC'S OF THE NEW SOCIAL SECURITY ACT

(Editor's Note: This is one of a series of articles explaining the old-age and survivors insurance provisions of the new Social Security Act. This series was prepared by H. M. Cleveland, manager Social Security Administration, 424 Taylor Street, Corpus Christi, Texas. Further information can be secured from that office).

G. Retirement and family insurance payments are made to retired workers after they are 65; for their children, (also step-children and adopted children) until they are 18; to mothers, at any age, if they have a child who is entitled to the payments; and, to wives after they are 65 years old.

H. Monthly family insurance payments are made to the survivors of an insured worker who dies. The payments are for dependent children (also step-children and adopted children) until they are 18; to mothers, at any age, who have a child of a deceased worker who is entitled to payments if the mother was living with or dependent upon the worker when he died, and, to the widow when she is age 65 if she does not remarry. If no children or widow, who could become entitled to the payments, survives a dependent parent may qualify at age 65.

I. The dependent husbands or widows of retired or deceased women workers may qualify for monthly payments under some conditions.

J. The new law makes provisions for a lump sum death payment in addition to the monthly benefits. It is paid to the surviving spouse, or if none lived to qualify, to the person who pays the burial expenses.

K. Beneficiaries now may earn as much as $50 a month in covered employment and receive their payments. They formerly could earn only up to $15 a month. Income, other than earnings, does not affect the benefits at all, and after age, 75, benefits are payable without regard to the amount of earned income of a beneficiary.

L. All payments are figured from the average monthly wages of each worker. Wages and self-employment income after 1950 are averaged from Jan. 1, 1937, to death or retirement after age 65. Beginning in July, 1952, the starting date will be Jan. 1, 1951, if the date would result in a higher average monthly wage. Time before a worker reaches age 22 is excluded if he was not employed.

M. Beginning with 1951, wages and self-employment income up to $3,600 a year are considered for benefits and taxes. Prior to 1951, wages up to $3,000 a year were considered.

N. The rate of the social security contribution or tax on employers and employees remains at 1 1/2% on each through 1953; 2% 1954-'59; 2 1/2% 1960-'64; 3% 1965-'69; 3 1/2% 1970 and thereafter. The self-employed will pay one and one-half times as much as employees.

O. The self-employed will report their income and remit the tax once a year with their regular income tax returns: The first such report will be due early in 1952 for 1951.

P. Those who served in the armed forces during World War II will be given wage credits of $160 a month for each month in which they were in the service from Sept. 1940 to July 1947.

Q. Under the new law, full time life insurance salesmen, most agent drivers or commission drivers, full time wholesale salesmen, and industrial home workers, earning at least $50 in a quarter, are considered employees.

R. Beginning Jan. 1, 1951, non-farm, self-employed persons, except doctors, lawyers, undertakers, full time public accountants, and professional engineers, will be covered by the law.

S. Regularly employed farm workers will come under the law in 1951, for work with one employer if they receive at least $50 and work not less than 60 days in a calendar quarter following regular employment in the preceding three-month period.

There was no information here as to the age of the girl married to Gyanendra.

7c GETS $257,799

London.—Two Britons who bet 7 cents each split more than $500,000 Tuesday in Britain's fantastic betting pool—and they don't have to bother about income tax.

Ernest Baker, 49-year-old tool-maker who earns $19 a week in a Manchester shop, got a windfall of $257,799. All he could say was: "It knocked me dizzy."

A short time later, a Londoner who refused to be identified hit the record high in football pool winnings—a clear $292,367.

Last week, a Manchester housewife won more than $200,000 in the weekly 7-cent pool.

Such winnings are exempt from the British income tax.

Supplied Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin Which Her System Lacked

Mrs. Jennie Lee Adele, 412 N. 27 St., East St. Louis, Ill., a nurse, says she wishes she had found out about HADACOL sooner because since taking HADACOL she feels so good. Mrs. Adele was suffering a deficiency of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron which HADACOL contains.

Here is Mrs. Adele's own statement: "I have been a nurse for over 14 years. My food never seemed to agree with me. I heard one day how so many folks were being helped because of HADACOL. I tried it and after 3 bottles I could tell a big improvement. Now I eat anything I want—sleep well and I am full of energy."

Why HADACOL Gives Such Fine Results

HADACOL does not bring just symptomatic relief. HADACOL now makes it possible to actually relieve the cause of aches and pains in the shoulders, legs and arms, certain nervous disturbances, and a general run-down weakened condition due to deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron in your system.

After reading Mrs. Adele's wonderful experience with HADACOL—how can you doubt that this great new nutritional formula will help you if your system lacks Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron, and Niacin?

What HADACOL did for Mrs. Adele, it can do for you if you're troubled with aches and pains in the shoulders, legs, and arms, certain nervous disturbances, insomnia when due to an upset stomach, stomach distress and a general run-down weakened condition due to such deficiencies.

So what are you waiting for? Don't you see that HADACOL is the kind of product you need—the kind you should buy and the kind you should start taking immediately!

Sold On A Strict Money-Back Guarantee

HADACOL even helps build up the hemoglobin content of your blood (when Iron is needed) to course through your body, carrying these great health-building elements to every body organ. No wonder HADACOL helps you feel wonderful.

Be fair to yourself! Give yourself a break if you have such deficiencies! Why continue to drag yourself around—a burden to yourself and your family—when relief may be as close at hand as your nearest drugstore if you suffer a deficiency of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron. This great HADACOL is inexpensive, too—costs only a small amount a day. Trial size, only $1.25. Large family or hospital size, $3.50. If your druggist does not have HADACOL, order it direct from The LeBlanc Corporation, Lafayette, Louisiana. © 1950, The LeBlanc Corporation.

THANKSGIVING PRAYER—Since the pilgrims of the Plymouth Colony thanked God for their first harvest in 1620, Thanksgiving prayer has been America's oldest and simplest tradition. Now, as then, families across the nation set apart a few minutes of festive Thanksgiving Day in which to solemnly thank God for the blessings of liberty and the fruits of the humble earth. Above, Donald N. Harding of the Moody Bible Institute portrays the sacred custom that originated with the settlers of this country.

Violinist Is Guest Soloist With S. A. Symphony

San Antonio, Tex. — Yehudi Menuhin, the popular and celebrated violinist, will be guest soloist with the San Antonio Symphony and Musical Director Max Reiter in the season's second subscription concert at Municipal auditorium Saturday night (Nov. 18).

The virtuoso will perform two works with orchestra — the Bruch Concerto and Chausson 'Poeme.'

The orchestral program will open with the first performance in America of the Overture to "Mohammed, the Second," a Rossini opera produced in 1820. Also programmed are the orchestral fantasy, "Die Frau ohne Schatten" ("Women without a Shadow"), by Richard Strauss, and the familiar "Fire Bird" Suite of Stravinsky.

Menuhin, American-born and famous since his career as a child prodigy, has just returned to the U. S. after a five-continent tour. During eight months he played some 147 concerts.

In Johannesburg, the demand for seats to his concerts was so great that people stood in line for as long as 13 hours — starting at 5 a. m.

Although a 12-day vacation was scheduled for Menuhin during the tour, he used that time to play 22 benefit concerts in Israel.

After a brief respite upon returning to the U. S., the violinist launched his current American tour, which includes his first appearance in several seasons with the San Antonio Symphony.

Symphony season tickets apply at the Saturday night concert. Single tickets are available at the Symphony's auditorium box office. Mail orders are accepted.

New Booklet Shows When Maid Is Under Social Security

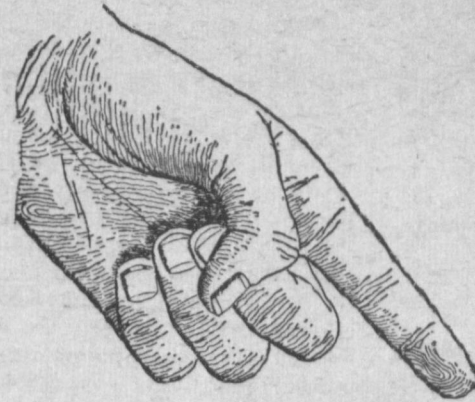

"Do you have a maid?" Not very many households these days can answer yes, but those who do have a maid or any other household worker will need a copy of a brief booklet bearing that question as a title. H. M. Cleveland, manager of the Corpus Christi social security office, now is distributing this booklet. The colorful leaflet sets out, in a few sentences, just how the lady of the house, or any employer of domestic help in or around the home, may tell whether or not home workers are brought under the new social security law which becomes effective on Jan. 1. The wages of those who are regularly employed in private homes will be credited to their social security accounts, and the employer will be responsible for reporting wages, along with social security taxes, to the Collector of Internal Revenue.

The title of the pamphlet does not stop with "Do You Have A Maid?" but continues "—or a laundress? — a cook? — chauffeur? — gardener?" Any of these, or others who are employed regularly for work in or around a private household come under the new law, and Cleveland urges their employers to request a free copy of the booklet. Copies of the booklet are available at post offices, or it may be secured at offices of the Bureau of Internal Revenue. "Our office also has a supply," Cleveland said, "and requests which we receive for the booklet, 'Do You Have a Maid?' will be answered promptly." Address the Social Security Administration, 424 Taylor Street, Corpus Christi, Texas.

Cleveland pointed out that regularly employed domestic workers will need social security account numbers beginning Jan. 1, 1951.

LEE BAKING COMPANY'S second plant will be the $600,000 unit pictured above at 3611 South Port in Corpus Christi. Scheduled for production in December, the plant will produce 6,000 pounds of Holsum bread an hour. Construction is in progress on the building shown in the architect's sketch. Contractor is Woodie B. Lee, partner with his brother, Wade Lee, and L. K. Dickerson, manager of the Victoria plant, in the baking business. The building will be of red brick and Austin stone, with a 175-foot plate glass front window. It will cover 44,000 square feet of floor space.

Million-Dollar Firm Built Up In 12 Years

Twelve short years ago, with $1250 liquid assets, a vision and a formula for bread, Woodie B. Lee and partners, Wade Lee and L. K. Dickerson, fired up the ovens of a defunct bakery in Victoria to start five bread routes for Lee's Bread.

Today, with more than 26 routes, Lee Baking Company, with completion of its plant in Corpus Christi, will reach a value of more than a million dollars. "We paid $2,000 in back taxes for the defunct bakery we took over in 1938," Woodie Lee recalled this week. "This left us with $1250 when we came to Victoria. "Out of this, we bought five Chevrolet trucks from Ed Atzenhoffer, purchased necessary incidentals to making bread and spent our last $28 in cash to The Victoria Advocate for our opening advertisement." The partnership's latest expansion is erection of a $600,000 baking plant in Corpus Christi, capable of producing 6,000 pounds of Holsum bread an hour. Completion of the plant is expected by December of this year. Woodie Lee, aside from bakery activities, is a builder of other things other than a "better loaf," as he puts it. Lee is contractor for the new plant. He also built the new red Austin stone home of his partner, Dickerson, on the Hallettsville Highway near Victoria. The new Corpus Christi unit will be of red brick and Austin stone. It will have a 175-foot plate glass front window and is to cover 44,000 square feet of floor space. Aside from housing the most modern bakery equipment money can buy, the plant will be so designed that bread is never touched by human hands. The process, as is also done in the Victoria plant, is mechanical, with every operation, from the massive ovens to the loading ramp, controlled by either temperature or time. After operating in Victoria for three years, Lee Baking Company saw the possibilities in Corpus Christi and opened a bread terminal in that city. Bread, baked in Victoria, was transported to Corpus Christi and distributed there. The firm also opened Lee's Sweet Shop in that city. Upon completion of the Corpus Christi plant, the partnership will divide the territory now served, with the Victoria plant supplying its area with Holsum and the Corpus Christi plant doubling its territory, Lee pointed out. "This is another step forward with a growing Gulf Coast section," Lee said. "Out of Corpus Christi, we expect to serve more and more counties and release of the Victoria plant from supplying the Corpus Christi area should open new fields here, also."

The story behind the Holsum loaf in Victoria began back in 1929. Woodie and Wade Lee were employees of the Continental Baking Company of Shreveport, La. That year the two left Continental and bought a "broken down plant in Mansfield, La.," they said. "We bought the plant in 1932, operated it for two years, sold it and bought two others—one in Paris and one in Sherman."

Woodie Lee went to the Sherman plant, while Wade operated the Paris bakery. L. K. Dickerson joined the partnership in 1936, going to Paris to work with Wade. "Things didn't work out so well," Woodie said in recalling the history of the partnership. "We were on the tail end of the bread market and the competition was rugged. Victoria looked like a pretty good spot when we found out about the bakery that had been sold for back taxes. We worked out the details, liquidated and arrived in Victoria with what was left of $3,200. Our choice was a good one. Victoria and the Texas Gulf Coast have been everything we hoped it would be."

Grady Lee, another brother to the partners, came with the firm in 1939, as sales manager. From five trucks to a large fleet operating over 3,000 miles daily and serving people in 26 counties today, Lee Baking Company is still growing. Until 1947, the firm baked and distributed Lee's Bread. That year, they joined the Holsum group and were given the South Texas franchise for Holsum's name. Lee's bread is still being sold in the El Campo area, it was pointed out. "While our plant here is not in a new building," L. K. Dickerson said, "we have equipped it with everything the baking industry has to offer in the way of automatic ovens and the like. We feel that the people are much more interested in a better loaf of Holsum than they are in the building in which it is baked."

"However, our future plans may contain a new home for Holsum in Victoria," he added. In the meantime, Lee Baking Company goes right on baking and marketing Holsum around the clock, "and we can do it simply because the public is buying our bread in generous quantities," the three partners agree. — Victoria Advocate.

Requirements Broadened For Discharge of Organized Reserve

Austin, Tex. — The Department of the Army has broadened its policy of discharging enlisted members of the civilian components having four or more dependents, Colonel Clarence M. Culp, Chief of the Texas Military District, announced today.

Under the new policy all enlisted members of the Organized Reserve Corps, whether on active duty or to be called to active duty as individuals or as members of units, are entitled to discharge if they meet dependency eligibility requirements. Enlisted members of civilian components now serving overseas will be returned to the United States for discharge. Generally enlisted Organized Reserve Corps members relieved from active duty for reason of dependency will be discharged from the Organized Reserve Corps. However, there are three types of enlisted reservists who may be relieved from active duty but will not be discharged from the Organized Reserve. These are: Those retired from the Regular Army with less than 30 years service; Reservists who previously enlisted in the Regular Army for one year; and those inducted under the Selective Service Act of 1948.

The original Army policy, announced October 16, 1950, applied only to enlisted members of the Organized Reserve Corps who had been ordered to active duty as individuals. Provisions for discharge under that policy did not apply to personnel on active duty overseas.

NEW BUM MANAGER? — Dodger shortstop Peewee Reese, one of the leading candidates for the managerial job in Brooklyn, if and when Burt Shotton follows Branch Rickey from the Flatbush scene, relaxes in his Louisville, Ky., home with his dog. If offered the job, Reese may turn it down to extend his career as a player.

Among Sunday guests at the B. W. Hamblin home were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kinsey, Woody Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Horton, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Sartor, Jr. of Houston, Harry Sandland and mother, Mrs. Sandland of Houston, and Wally Anastosoff of Houston.

can "take it."

Remember January 30-31, 1949, when temperatures dropped to zero at San Antonio and 5 above zero at Kenedy? That was the coldest period on record for south Texas.

Remember March 10-13, 1948, when Flax was in bloom? Temperatures dropped to 24° at Beeville, the lowest temperature ever recorded so late in the spring in this area.

Yet most Flax survived these trials to become a profitable crop.

Then came last winter's drouth... another near record breaker. Little or no rain fell throughout much of the Flax area from January 1st to April 14th. Again Flax brought good profits to most growers.

In addition to its hardiness, there are two other important reasons why Flax is a good crop for south Texas.

First, it requires less farm labor than row crops... farm help is high priced and hard to find.

Second, Texas Flax reaches the market in May when the price is usually near its annual peak. This gives the Texas grower an advantage over the northern farmer whose harvest doesn't begin until August or September. This past year the Texas Flax crop sold for as much as $1.00 above the government support price.

As a result of the small northern crop and a greatly increased demand for linseed oil, Flax is now selling for approximately $3.50 at Minneapolis. Flax promises to be a real money-maker again next spring. Send for your copy of the new Texas Flax Growers Guide today.

HISTORIC OCCASION—Pope Pius XII bestowed his blessings upon an estimated 700,000 people as his gestatorial chair was carried through the streets of the Vatican City to St. Peter's Basilica. From a special throne in front of the Basilica, the Pope proclaimed the dogma of the Virgin Mary's assumption to Heaven to the greatest assemblage of Roman Catholic prelates in the 2000-year history of the Church.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

We Ask That "Fares" Play Fair
 Judge Cunningham was telling about a taxi ride he took over to the County Seat last week. The cab was all littered with cigarette butts, plus candy and gum wrappers. This annoyed the Judge and he spoke to the driver about it. To his surprise the cabman answered right back. "Don't blame me," he said "Fast as I clear this taxi out, the fares just mess it up again. I like a clean cab as well as anybody, but a man has to have some co-operation!"
 Judge figures the fellow was in the right, and maybe we ought to do a little campaigning with the public. I agree with him—that's why I'm writing this article.
 From where I sit, it's important for us to remember the fellow who's going to get in the cab after we leave it. Because he pays the same as we do, he's got the same right to a clean, comfortable ride—just as he has the same right to enjoy the beverage of his choice (be it coffee, beer, lemonade, or what have you).

Non-reserve ex-Marines will be enlisted and assigned to immediate active duty by the recruiting service and transferred to Camp Pendleton, near Oceanside, Calif., for placement and retraining, Sergeant Heard explained.

The Marine recruiting office is open seven days a week and is located in Room 315 of the Federal Building in Corpus Christi.

Health Talks

One of the most common mistakes in regards to anatomy is placing the stomach in that big general region from the waistline to the pelvis. The stomach is really located mostly above the waistline, over on the left side extending towards the right under the ribs.

That region that you may call the stomach, your doctor refers to as the abdomen, extending from the diaphragm, that big muscle under the ribs, to those bones at the hipline. It is a very crowded area with all sorts of essential organs and their coverings, muscles, and blood vessels twisting around in there.

It may be divided into three general regions. The top part is known as the epigastric region and extends from about the fifth rib to the waistline. In here is located from right to left, touching the bottom of the diaphragm, the liver, the stomach and the spleen. The liver and stomach overlap like a pair of shoes placed heel-to-toe and where they meet at the bottom is where the gallbladder is tucked in. The stomach turns into the small intestine in a C-shaped tube called the duodenum, and tucked into the C, like the hole in a doughnut, is the pancreas.

The diaphragm forms a roof for these organs and a portion of the large intestine forms a floor, along the waistline. This may be considered the beginning of the second region of the abdomen, called the umbilical region, easily identified by the navel or belly button, sometimes referred to as the spot where the Yankees shot you.

Reading from right to left under this portion of the abdomen, you find the part of the large intestine that operates against gravity going up the right side of the abdomen, that part of the small intestine called the jejunum at the front, the kidneys at the back, and over on the far left the descending colon, that part of the large intestine that carries food down.

The hypogastric region, just above that big bone that forms the floor of the body, contains the place where the small intestine empties into the large intestine, the appendix, the small intestine portion known as the ileum, and the portion of the large intestine where it empties into the rectum.

In examining all these organs which are hidden from view, your doctor checks the outward appearance of your abdomen first, to see if there are bulges where there shouldn't be, caved in spots where it's supposed to bulge, lines where circles are supposed to be, and discolorations. He knows what your stomach should look like for your age, build and occupation; when he runs into something that varies from that look, he starts a closer check.

The routine check of the stomach also includes a certain amount of punching around on those organs to see if they can be moved as much as they are supposed to be or can be moved more than they are supposed to be. Each organ is supposed to fit within certain size limitations, too, and as he feels your abdomen, he is checking the outline of those organs to ascertain the size. Some organs are hard and some are soft, so he has to punch a bit to find out what the organ feels like, making sure that the hard ones haven't softened up and the soft ones haven't become hard.

There are all kinds of swellings that might appear in the abdominal cavity where they aren't supposed to be. Some tumor might resemble a hernia until your doctor pushes that swelling. If he finds a hole and the swelling gurgles when he pushes it back in the hole, then he knows it's a reducible hernia. These hernias are portions of an organ which break out of the wall that forms a cover and protrude into another space.

Each of these organs has a specific job to do, of course, and when one of them starts changing

SUPER CYPRESS—Tennessee Game and Fish Commission officials believe this giant swamp cypress near Memphis to be the biggest and oldest tree east of the Rockies. Measuring 140 feet tall and 22 feet in diameter, the tree is estimated to be at least 1000 years old. Note the comparative size of the man standing at the tree's base.

No Licenses Bring Fines to Violators

People still take a chance and fish or hunt without licenses. And they still get caught.

A total of forty-two persons paid fines for hunting without a permit and twenty-one others were apprehended minus fishing licenses during October, H. E. Faubion, assistant executive secretary of the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission, reported Saturday. During the month 310 persons paid fines for a large variety of game and fish law violations. The fines totaled $6,796. Three persons paid for poisoning water to kill fish. Many persons were fined for hunting various kinds of game out of season. Twenty-four paid for hunting from automobiles.

Prison walls are not built to scale.

Try to Enter Jim Wells Ballot Box Vault Reported

Alice, Tex. — An attempt was made sometime Tuesday night to enter the vault of the Jim Wells County clerk's office where ballot boxes from the Nov. 7 general election are being kept.

County Clerk C. H. (Hap) Holmgreen reported Wednesday that entry was gained to a back room in his office by breaking a window. The intruder did not get into the vault proper where the ballots are stored, Holmgreen said.

Jim Wells County gave 79th District Judge Sam G. Reams 2,672 votes to 604 write-in votes for A. J. Vale of Rio Grande City in the general election. Duval County gave Vale 4,739 votes to 43 for Reams.

Meanwhile, at Falfurrias Markel Heath, former law partner of Reams, reported that "many" letters and telegrams had gone to Gov. Allan Shivers' office protesting the outcome of the election—particularly the 4,739 write-in votes for Vale in Duval County to only 43 for Reams, the party nominee. There also has been a widespread response from members of the legal profession throughout the state, Heath said.

Telephone calls have come from attorneys at San Antonio, Beeville, Beaumont, Alice, Edinburg, Corpus Christi and Mission. Some calls, Heath said, indicated that there will be concerted action on the part of large portions of the membership of the bar in those cities.

Navy Won't Suffer Another Pearl Harbor, Adm. Radford Says

San Diego, Calif. — The commander in chief of the Pacific fleet said here yesterday it was continuing its western Pacific missions and that he was not worried about the possibility of another Pearl Harbor regardless of what happened in Korea.

Adm. Arthur W. Radford, who arrived from his Pearl Harbor headquarters to inspect Navy reserve air training and confer with fleet type commanders, said the program of building up the fleet through reactivation of ships was continuing.

He added that the Navy was continuing full support of other services in the Korea fighting and was also remaining on guard against any invasion attempt of Formosa — Chinese Nationalist stronghold.

He said there was no indication at this time that such an invasion attempt might be in the making. Radford will go to Los Alamitos Air Station to inspect the reserve training and then will go to San Francisco before returning to Pearl Harbor.

Pettus Refinery Fire Loss Set at $300,000

Pettus, Tex. — Fire which began at the Danahoe Refinery Monday night when lightning struck a crude oil storage tank burned itself out early today. Damage was estimated at about $300,000.

Destroyed were two 10,000-barrel oil storage tanks, about 100 feet of tank car loading rack and other equipment. However, firemen were able to keep the flames from the refinery itself.

School classes were shutdown Wednesday because of the nearness to the refinery and the possibility of a naphtha explosion. They reopened today.

Statewide Fund Raising Campaign Gets Underway

The VFW fund raising campaign for the Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation to be used for the treatment of victims of polio and other crippling diseases is underway in our community and will extend through Nov. 30. Bottles have been placed in business houses and stores for people to contribute to this worthy cause.

So far, the contributions in our community have been very light. This project goes direct to the Gonzales Foundation and the VFW post here asks all citizens of this community to assist in this important program.
