

Along The Waterfront

When the big freeze came last week all the fish left the bays for deep water but they should be returning to the bays soon.

Harry Mills of Mills' Wharf, who is a good fisherman and knows the ways of a fish, is out checking this morning, looking for both bait and fish.

Just before the freeze, J. M. Riley and Mr. H. D. Johnson from Delta, Wisc. were fishing out in front of the Jolly Roger Camp and caught 71 trout one day and 30 trout the next.

At noon the boys will spread their sack lunches on the ground and eat with their Den.

Starting at 1:30 in the afternoon the boys will compete in track and field events on the high school athletic field. W. A. ## Famed Magic Pair Come to Rockport Next Wednesday

The people of this city will be fooled and hoodwinked by one of the nation's leading magicians, Arnold Furst, the person chosen by The Society of American Magicians to represent the United States at The International Congress of Magicians which was held in Paris, France. This program has been arranged by the Rockport Lions Club which is sponsoring the show. The show, which is called "Mysteries Around the World", will be presented at the Rockport High School Auditorium Wednesday, February 14.

There will be an afternoon matinee for school children from 2 to 4 p.m. The Lions are giving their share of this performance to the Parent-Teacher Association. The night performance will be from 8 to 10 p.m. with the proceeds going to the Eye Conservation project of the Lions Club.

It is stressed that the program will have a great appeal to the adults as well as the children. Furst entertained over one million service men during the three and a half years he was with the USO Camp Shows during World War II. His present program will feature all of the effects he performed in those days as well as many new and larger illusions. One of the most unusual aspects of the magic show is that young ladies from the audience will take part in the two most spectacular effects of "Cutting A Girl in Half" and "A Girl Floating In The Air".

Other advertised tricks are titled: Otto, The Mindreading Duck; The Enchanted Princess; Hindu Sands; Bossie, The Magical Cow; and The Houdini Escape. These tricks have been assembled by Furst as the result of his having traveled around the world three times.

Oscar, The Rabbit, who stars in the magic and illusion show, is probably the most honored bunny in the world.

Oscar started out as the first rabbit to hold the rank of Second Lieutenant in the Army. The following year he was given the rank of Ensign in the Navy and finally was awarded the honorary rank of Assistant Vice-Commander. Oscar received a citation from Major General Bryon for his work.

A challenge has been issued to the people of this area by Furst who has agreed to attempt an escape from a packing box constructed by the Rockport Lumber Company and built so strongly as to make an escape from the inside of the box seemingly impossible. The box will be built this week and displayed downtown. The box will be brought on the stage and completely re-nailed by a committee from the audience.

The Rockport Lions Clubs, the sponsors of the magic show invites all the people of the area to attend the shows as the proceeds will go to two worthy causes.

Funeral Services Are Held For Mrs. T. W. Hynes

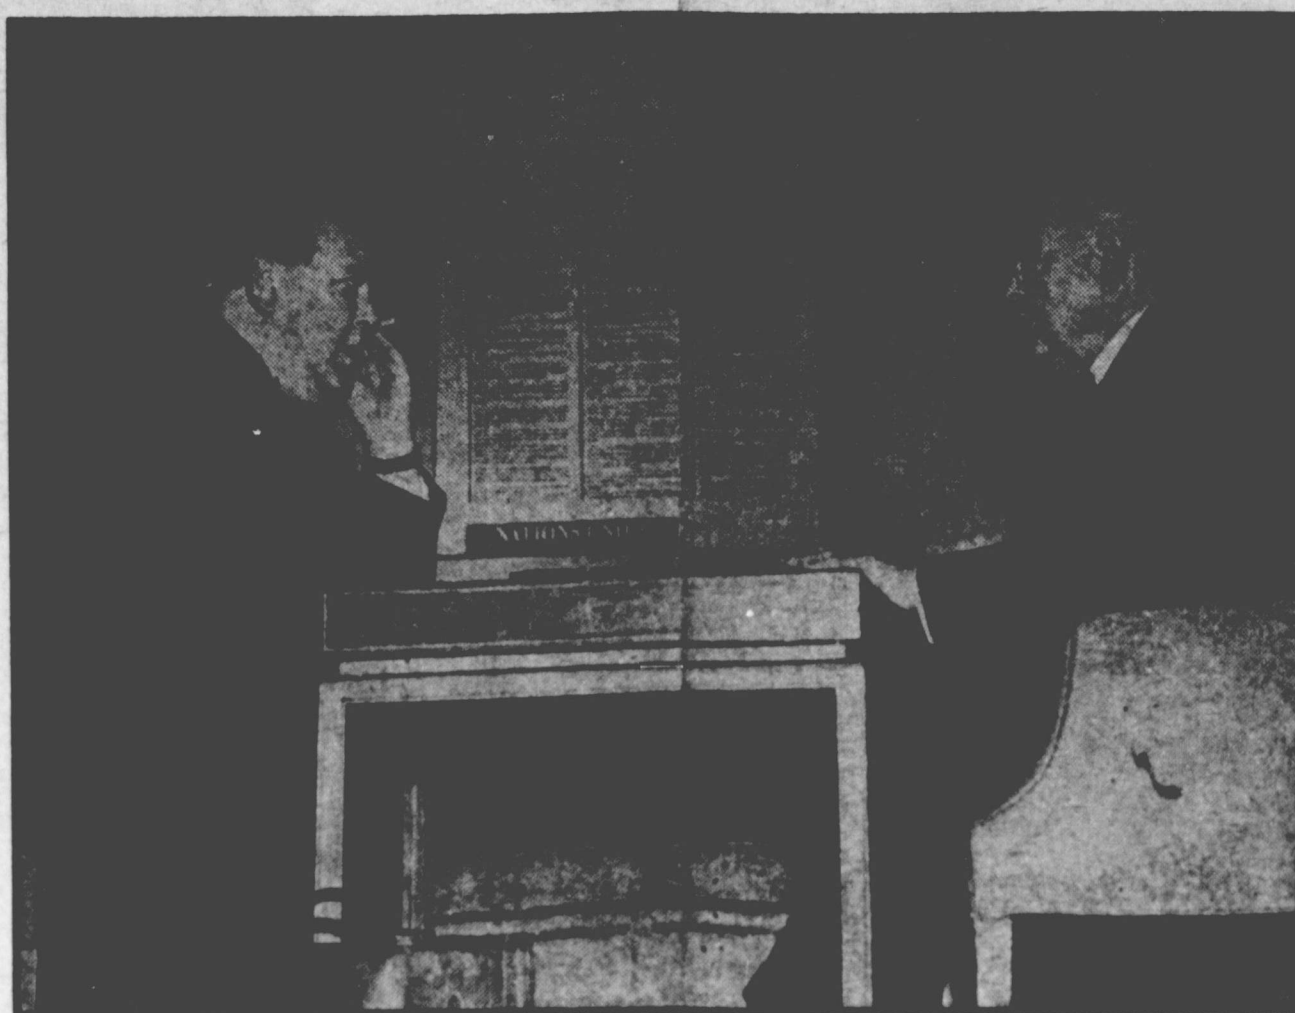

Mrs. Frances Lillian (Winnie) Hynes, age 75 years, a resident of Corpus Christi for 24 years, died at the home of her daughter in that city at 12:30 Thursday night.

She was a native of Lamar, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John M. Brundrett, also a niece of Jim Wells, for whom Jim Wells County was named.

Mrs. Hynes was a member of the St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Corpus Christi. The survivors are her husband, T. W. Hynes of Corpus Christi; three sons, J. T. Hynes, El Campo, T. W. Hynes, Jr. of Portland and Phil Hynes, Fehran, Iran; her stepmother, Mrs. Lulu Brundrett of Rockport; two daughters, Miss Bobby Hynes of Corpus Christi and Mrs. Chas. Peto, of Columbus, Ohio; five sisters, Mrs. Georgia Hood and Mrs. Guy Hanks of Rockport, Mrs. Clyde Christopher of Kingsville, Mrs. Walter Rowe, Ingleside and Mrs. A. E. Myers of Corpus Christi; four brothers, C. M. Brundrett of Alto Loma, A. L. and J. L. Brundrett of Rockport and Leo Brundrett of San Antonio.

Mrs. Hynes' funeral was held from the Sacred Heart Church in Rockport, at ten o'clock, Saturday morning, with burial in the Rockport cemetery.

S. delegate, held a serious discussion across a table at Lake Success, N. Y. It was largely through the efforts of the U. S. that Lie regained his office after his term expired.

Planes Are Releasing Plastic-Glad Postcards In the Gulf of Mexico

Several thousand postcards, each sealed in a plastic container, will be dropped into the Gulf of Mexico by U. S. naval aircraft during 1951 to trace complex gulf currents as well as the distribution and migrations of commercial fishery stocks, including shrimp, the U. S. Department of Interior announced recently.

This project is being sponsored by the Fish and Wildlife Service with the cooperation of the Gulf States Marine Fisheries Commission, the Texas Game Fish and Oyster Commission, the Department of Oceanography of the Texas A & M College, and the Office of Naval Research.

The "red tide" investigations of the Fish and Wildlife Service also expect to benefit. In these studies, according to Service Director Albert M. Day, it is necessary to determine the pattern of currents along the shore in order to learn the connection between the circulation and the production of the red tide organisms. Since the last violent outbreak of red tide (characterized by a reddish-brown discoloration of sea water caused by a minute free-swimming animal-like organism) that plagued the Gulf Coast of Florida in 1946-47 and killed an estimated half million fish worth several million dollars, the Service has been seeking ways to predict and control similar outbreaks in the future.

The postcards, called "drift cards", will be carefully distributed throughout the Gulf of Mexico by Navy planes during the course of the entire year. Each card carries this wording, written both in English and in Spanish since many of them will probably be recovered in Mexico:

"NOTICE TO FINDER: These cards are being used to study the currents of the Gulf of Mexico. Please remove from plastic and fill in blank spaces. Mail every card you find. No postage is needed in U. S. In return you will be told the time and place of their release. Thank you."

These cards are expected to drift about in the currents, and to be cast up eventually on beaches where many of them will be found and returned to the Gulf States Marine Fisheries Commission at New Orleans. There they will be routed to scientists who will deduce from the returns the paths which the cards must have followed in the sea.

Following drifting objects is an old method of studying ocean currents, declared Mr. Day. Usually oceanographers have used sealed bottles containing cards for this purpose. However, the course followed by drift bottles is often influenced too greatly by winds, an effect which the use of drift cards is expected to obviate.

Rockport Chamber of Commerce To Meet Tuesday Night

Basket Ball Team To Play In Tournament

Wednesday night the Rockport Pirates met Woodsboro in the opening game of the District 90-B Basketball Tournament in Ingleside. Rockport lost by a count of 53-20. The Pirates lineup was vastly different from early season games but they managed to show a lot of hustle and spirit throughout the game. The local boys held their own in the first and last quarters, but were too badly outclassed in the second and third quarters.

Max Keller was the Pirate standout, as he held the big 6 ft. 4 in. Woodsboroite to nine points and poured in 7 for himself.

The Pirates play Taft tonight at 7 o'clock in the second round of play. The Pirates must win to compete any further in district play.

The Pirates thus far this season have played pretty good ball. Their record is 8 games won and 10 lost. Five of the games lost have been by 1 to 3 points and in a couple of overtime games. It is certain that if they had the student body and town people's support their record would be better.

The Pirates have played some of the strongest teams in this area and only once took on weak opposition, yet they have never had more than a handful of spectators for their home games and even fewer road followers.

Let's get behind them tonight and try to yell them to a victory over arch rival, Taft.

World Day Of Prayer Will Be Observed Friday

The citizens of Rockport will observe the World Day of Prayer at St. Peter's Episcopal church Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Miss Katie Lee Clark will present the program and Mr. Kincannon has charge of the music.

Gas-oil ratio was 975 to 1, gravity was 42 degrees and perforations were with 28 shots at 7,133-40 feet.

In the Salt Lake Field, Sun Oil Co. No. 7, Copano State 73, Copano Bay, was at 7,070 feet Friday, preparing to core.

Hewitt, Park Rapids, Minn.; Jim Dow, Galveston; Merritt Huelett, Saratoga Springs, New York and Kemper Williams, Victoria.

The club is stressing 100% attendance for the month of February. They are trying to put District 85 in the lead in attendance.

Dick Denny read a letter signed by Arthur Lagueux, President, Rotary International, as follows: "Rotary is a world fellowship of business and professional men of all political and religious beliefs with 7,200 clubs in 83 countries. Rotary's universal appeal is its practical means of enlarging one's friendship. Each Rotarian is expected to be faithful to his religion and loyal to his citizenship."

Captain Swinehart gave the program. He told of the greatest concept of man that was ever completed, Ankor Wat. It is a Buddha temple, located in the jungles of Indo China which he and Mrs. Swinehart visited. The temple has been deserted for years and was only discovered 40 years ago. It was built over 1,000 years ago and is made of stone which was brought over 100 miles to the location. Many of these stones weighed from 10,000 tons up and the top of the temple is 250 feet high and it is one by one and one-half miles in size.

He went out in the jungle a short distance and sat down on a log and in a few minutes he was surrounded by monkeys who were not excited by his presence.

Mr. Jarboe represented the Rockport Chamber of Commerce.

Health Talks

The use of laboratory facilities to follow up on threats to health which may become evident during the physical examination will vary according to the location of the sign your doctor may have found. There are two tests which have now become practically routine in any medical check-up, however, the urine analysis and the blood count.

Since urine is a waste material of the body, the composition of the urine may lead to information as to what ingredients the body is throwing away that it needs for proper functioning. A sample of urine is broken down into the various chemicals it contains to ascertain whether too much of any essential material is being thrown off. Albumin and sugar in the urine do not necessarily point to disease; if the amounts discarded by the body are excessive, however, it will usually lead to a more detailed examination and probably repeated urine analysis as well as other types of tests.

The amount of urine which the body throws off will vary with the temperature, humidity, exercise, excitement and consumption of fluids. Under normal circumstances the amount is so variable that it is unimportant, but if the amount is consistently, over a period of time, too little or too much it may be an important health signal.

The other waste materials of the body may be subjected to laboratory examination if conditions within the body suggest it is advisable. Various forms of worms and other parasites may invade the intestines, creating minor and major difficulty, and an examination of the stools will usually detect their presence.

The sputum, too, may bring a health threat to a definite head after a laboratory examination. The color, odor and amount of material coughed up may contain the answer to an illness in the respiratory tract.

Diphtheria has changed a great many of its symptoms over a period of years but a study of the patches diphtheria usually forms in the throat may lead to the definite knowledge that though it has disguised itself in other ways, the illness is diphtheria.

When thyroid disorder is suspected, the basal metabolism test becomes an important part of the physical examination. This test is conducted by your breathing into a mask which is attached to a machine and the rate at which you inhale oxygen and convert it into carbon dioxide is computed. Since the lowest rate at which you "metabolize" is being sought, your report for this test with an empty stomach, fresh from a good night's sleep.

The empty stomach is important, too, for the test of the stomach juices. Sometimes there will be a preliminary test with a tube eased down your throat into your stomach to extract some of the juices. That gives the picture of your empty stomach. Sometimes the test starts with the next step where you are given some undetectable cookies to munch upon. After your stomach has gone to work on them with the juices, then that tube is eased down into the stomach and the cookies and juices are extracted. Since those stomach juices are very important, you can see that this test might play a vital part in a complete physical examination where digestive difficulty seems indicated.

The various skin tests for diseases, the patch test for tuberculosis and the Schick test for the effectiveness of diphtheria immunization are among the seemingly endless variety of health measures

Social Security Payments Explained

Eligible persons may receive old age and survivors insurance payments even though they are not wholly or permanently retired, according to H. M. Cleveland, manager of the Social Security Administration in Corpus Christi. The number of people making inquiries on this point prompted him to make the explanation.

"The new Social Security law enables insured workers over 65 and members of the families of deceased workers to earn up to $50.00 a month on covered jobs and still receive their insurance payments. The old limit of $14.99 was changed last Sept. 1. The $50 limit does not apply to those who have reached age 75," Cleveland explained.

"The law states that a person under age 75 cannot collect benefits for any month in which he earns more than $50 from work covered by Social Security. No amount of income from other sources will affect his right to benefits. After age 75 is attained, the benefits may be paid even though the beneficiary continues to work full time."

"Another point we'd like to make clear," Cleveland continued, "is that anyone now age 65 or over is insured if he has worked as much as a year and a half, at any time after 1936, on Social Security jobs."

Residents of this area who may be eligible for the benefits under the new law should get in touch with the Social Security Administration, 424 Taylor Street, Corpus Christi.

Pat Newman, from Sinton, spent two days last week in Rockport visiting his cousin, Mike Johnson.

that can be included in a check-up. The vaccinations, inoculations and immunizations that are part of the child's physical examination may have to be repeated in adults under certain circumstances. X-ray pictures of various parts of your anatomy may be necessary, too, for your doctor to complete the picture of diagnosis of your health. That is why he cannot tell until he starts checking you over just how extensive or expensive the physical examination will be.

He advises only such tests and analyses as he considers necessary for your good health.

No Change In College Student Enlistment Says Selective Service Director

Austin, Tex. — There has been no change in Selective Service regulations regarding college student enlistment, Brigadier General Paul L. Wakefield, state Selective Service director, emphasized today.

General Wakefield quoted the following telegram he received from Major General Lewis B. Hershey, national director of the Selective Service system:

"College student enlistment is a matter of discussion in Department of Defense. You will be promptly notified if any change is made in Selective Service procedure."

College students, the state director pointed out, are prohibited from enlisting in the service of their choice under existing regulations, after order to report for pre-induction physical examination is mailed.

"This applies to any registrant, as well as college students," General Wakefield commented. "The authority is set forth in Local Board Memorandum No. 11, issued by national headquarters in November, 1948."

The state director added that no official change in this authority has ever been received.

General Wakefield said that, under existing regulations, any registrant, including college students, "may volunteer for immediate induction through a local board at any time."

He pointed out that all registrants inducted go into the army, as other services, including the air force and navy, have not as yet requested manpower through the Selective Service System.

Misses Petra and Fernia Falcon, Mary Valdez and Beatrice Melorodo spent the week end in Corpus Christi.

Miss Rachel Ramirez is visiting with relatives in Ingleside, this week.

Mrs. C. A. Garcia, Linda, Gloria and L. B. of Taft are spending a few days at the home of her mother, Mrs. E. H. Falcon.

This clinic will be conducted by Mr. A. E. Sparks, an authorized ACOUSTICIAN who has a record of wonderful results especially in fitting difficult cases who have never been able to wear the usual type of hearing aid.

Everybody Come And See The New Chrysler

The 1951 Chrysler New Yorker Newport with new fender line that accentuates its low sleek beauty, and massive front-end that typifies the power and luxury of the new Chrysler line.

Interior of the 1951 Chrysler New Yorker Newport features rich appointments, extra roominess. Upholstery and trim selections are available in colorful, durable and luxurious combinations of leather and nylon cord.

View of the new Chrysler "FirePower" engine. Conservatively rated at 180-horsepower, the new 8-cylinder powerplant is a 90-degree valve-in-head V-type engine.

Advanced styling inside and out, a new 180-horsepower Fire-Power engine and an improved Chrysler Spitfire engine head the list of 73 major improvements incorporated in the new 1951 Chrysler line.

Chrysler Division officials state that in no previous year has the division introduced so many major mechanical features, nor done more to increase the esthetic appeal of the Chrysler models.

Major developments in the new line include an Oriflow shock absorber, standard equipment throughout the line; Hydraguide hydraulic-mechanical power steering; and a Fluid-Torque Drive torque converter.

The power steering unit and torque converter are standard equipment on the Imperial 8-passenger sedan and limousine, and may be had as optional equipment on all other Imperial and New Yorker models.

The 1951 Chrysler is offered in twenty-one body styles in the Windsor, Windsor Deluxe, New Yorker and Imperial lines.

Styling Advances
In appearance, the 1951 line fully sustains the pace of the mechanical improvements. All models have been completely restyled, inside and out, and each model has its distinctive individual characteristics that make it readily distinguishable from all others in the line. Changes have been made in the direction of further streamlining and the enhancement of sleek, luxurious appearance.

Styling changes include a new wide sloping hood that helps to increase driver visibility; new front fenders; new curved bumpers and massive bumper guards; new front and rear ornamentation; new grilles that are distinctive for each model; new front and rear fender moldings; and a belt molding that now completely encircles the car.

The new wrap-around "Clearbac" window is now used on all models, increasing rear-window area by 201.7 square inches or 30 per cent as compared with 1950 models not having this feature.

Accent on Beauty
Length of the car is accentuated by the new front fender line, which extends further back in the front door panel. A distinctive turn signal and parking light combination is found on each model, and the span between the headlights has been increased 3.5 inches, better to outline the width of the car.

Interior styling includes improvements in upholstery and trim with an unusually wide choice of materials that are the most luxurious and tasteful that Chrysler has ever offered.

S. A. Symphony Society In 7th Grand Opera Season

San Antonio—This city will again become the mecca for thousands of Southwest opera-lovers, beginning next Saturday night, when the seventh Grand Opera Festival opens at Municipal Auditorium, offering the first of two weekends of "grand opera in the grand manner."

Rossini's "The Barber of Seville" and Verdi's "Aida", two of the most popular and best-known operas in the repertoire, will be the initial offerings—the first Saturday night, at 8 p.m. and the second, Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m.

Patrice Munsel, the brilliant young coloratura of the Metropolitan Opera; Giuseppe di Stefano, leading tenor of La Scala Milan and the Met, and Frank Guarerra, personable young baritone, also of the Met, head "The Barber" cast. Most of the roles have humorous aspects, since the Rossini vehicle is sheer comic opera.

Herva Nelli, who sings the title role in "Aida", was a discovery of Arturo Toscanini, and she has sung every major soprano part broadcast under the maestro's direction, including "Aida." She is one of the few American singers well known to La Scala audiences. "Aida's" great popularity is based as much upon its great visual spectacle, as well as its music, which is, of course, among the finest ever composed by Verdi. The great "Triumphal March" and ballet in the second act brings more than 300 artists on stage at one time.

Prima ballerina for the "Aida" ballet is Albia Kavan, who was featured soloist with the Ballet Theatre and the Markova-Dolin company.

The celebrated conductor, Jonel Perlea, will direct both performances, and the full San Antonio Symphony will be in the pit.

The complete cast of the two operas:

"The Barber of Seville": Patrice Munsel, Rosina; Count Almaviva, Giuseppe di Stefano; Figaro (the Barber of Seville), Frank Guarerra; Dr. Bartolo, Fritz Ollendorff; Basilio, George London; Fiorello, George and Berta, Alice Ostrowsky.

"Aida": Aida, Herva Nelli; Ragan in July, 1949. The scores were announced last week.

Laboratories tying Texas in the first test could not be identified. Code numbers known only to the referee laboratories are used to designate the participants in the studies. Texas' code number was 13.

A total of 110 specimens were examined. Twelve specimens were eliminated from the study because even the experts at the referee laboratories could not agree on what organisms they contained.

The communicable disease center gave Texas' laboratory specialists a grade of 98.9 per cent on the first test, and 97.5 per cent on the second. No other laboratory in the United States proved to be so accurate, the report said.

Authorities at the State Department of Health said they have now begun intra-state laboratory evaluation studies, conducted on the basis as are the national studies. In the intra-state examinations, laboratories operating within the state are tested for accuracy in determining what organisms are contained within a given specimen.

Rheumatic Fever May Affect Heart

Austin, Tex. — Rheumatic fever is serious because it may affect the heart, said Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer. Age is important. Rheumatic fever usually begins in childhood at about age 5 or 6, although adults may have it. There is a susceptibility to the disease which causes rheumatic fever to be more common in some families than others. The other factors which may favor its onset, combined with an individual susceptibility, are frequent chilling, damp or overcrowded living quarters, and a poor diet.

It is also known that one attack of rheumatic fever does not protect a child from future attacks as, for example, one attack of measles does. On the contrary, rheumatic fever tends to recur. Repeated attacks are more likely to damage the heart. It is not communicable as chickenpox and measles are, and there is no danger of catching it by being in contact with a child who has it.

The physician is the only one whose judgment can be relied upon in this matter, and his directions should be followed exactly, no matter how well the patient feels or how slight the attack.

Good nursing is important for rheumatic fever patients. In communities which have visiting nurse service, a visiting nurse can give help of great value to the patient and to the doctor.

The child who has had rheumatic fever, with some degree of heart damage, should not be coddled but should be led to enjoy his home and school life, just as other boys and girls do. While it is important to provide the child with healthful surroundings and to encourage him in healthful living habits, harm can be done by overemphasizing the physical handicap.

If serious heart damage exists, and his activity is limited, he must learn to stay within these limits. But even children whose activities must be regirly restricted because of a severely damaged heart can have a wholesome interest in life and enjoy many of the pleasures of their more active associates by the intelligent planning of understanding parents, teachers, and physicians. However, rheumatic children do need special help in choosing a life-work which will give them the best chance of avoiding recurrences of acute infection.

With care in choosing work and play, people with rheumatic heart disease, even many with severely damaged hearts, can live reasonably active and useful lives.

Joe Johnson Jr. came home from A. and M. Friday to spend the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Johnson Sr. and brother, Mike. Joe Jr. brought as his guest, Miss Nan Hassler, from T.S.C.W. in Denton.

State Health Dept. Has Top Score for Identifying Intestinal Parasites

A delayed report from the United States Public Health Service communicable disease center in Atlanta, Ga., credits the Texas State Health Department Bureau of Laboratories here with top score in national competition in identification of intestinal parasites.

Two grades were awarded during the evaluation studies which are designed to raise the standard of laboratory accuracy. One was for the ability to correctly identify Endamoeba Histolytica, an intestinal parasite; the other for a correct determination of the presence or absence of all intestinal organisms.

The report said the Texas laboratory had tied for first place with three other state health departments in the first test, and had won a clear title to top honors in the second.

Forty-two state and territorial laboratories competed in the year-long evaluation studies which be-

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Blue Wins This "Hunt"

Cappy Miller's coon dogs—except for one of them, Old Blue—are about the finest hounds in the county. Blue's too friendly and easy-going to care much about hunting. He doesn't act the way we think a good dog should, so we figured he'd never amount to much.

But a fellow comes around Saturday looking for a good dog to photograph for some advertising. And the dog he picks is Blue! Says Blue's happy, friendly face is just the one to attract people's attention. So Cappy gets more money for that picture than his other dogs will ever take in hunt prizes.

From where I sit, that should teach us not to look down on humans, when they act differently than we think they should. For instance, maybe you think tea goes best with food. O.K.—but don't size up wrong the man who enjoys a bottle of beer at mealtime.

Like Blue, I guess we're all "different" in one way or another—but that doesn't mean we don't have our good points, too!

USE THE RIGHT SIZE BULB AND PROTECT YOUR SIGHT!

A lot of folks think that any light bulb will do for any lighting job... as long as the bulb will burn. A quick look at the table will show you the different size bulbs needed for safe, easy seeing throughout your home.

For instance, a 60-watt bulb is just right for a wall fixture, in a closet or hall, but if you use only 60 watts in your table or floor lamp, reading the newspaper will become a chore. For studying, sewing, reading or any close work, a 100-watt bulb is the one to give you proper light.

Bulbs are manufactured in different sizes for the purpose of providing the right amount of light for the job to be done. When you fill an empty socket or replace a burned out bulb, use the right size for good light. Protect your family's eyesight and put plenty of sight-saving light in every room of your home.

For the price of a single one-cent stamp, you get over two hours' light from a 100-watt lamp.
