The strong winds are keeping most of the fish except gaff top from biting but the high tide should bring in the fish when the wind goes down they will get a chance to bite.

Out at Rattle Snake Point they are getting some fish, mostly gaff tops, and a few flounder are being picked up but the tide is too high to get many of them.

At the Jolly Roger Camp they have not caught any trout this week but the gaff top are biting and there were a few large reds caught this week.

CHURCH GROUP Retail Butchers Must MEETS WITH Post Ceilings By June 4

An example of the task of assuring the American public fair flation is the recent group of beef and livestock price regulations, district OPS officials said. The regualtions are now in effect. Retail butchers are required to post their ceiling prices on beef by June 4, 1951. Ceiling prices now are those of the January levels. Two reductions in prices are scheduled before Oct. 1.
