FARM FACTS

By Peter Radford

We develop ourselves only by our own efforts.

Go to the farm and enjoy the blessings of freedom.

The farmer knows better than to exchange magic for common sense.

The problems of farming are as serious as the multiplication table.

The greatest factor behind all production is the creative faculty.

The farmer can only be helped through common-sense and co-operation.

Successful farming and marketing are the basis of all human progress.

Co-operation combines isolated human endeavor into a great central purpose.

The men who till the soil and breed the herds are the chosen people of God.

In farming every man pulls according to his ability and no man rides on the load.

Get the difficulties out of the farmers way and the farmers' problems will solve themselves.

The increase in prices of farm products has not kept pace with the increased cost of living.

The farmer can produce without organization but to successfully market he must unite with his neighbor.

The farmer is the directing head and operating hands of his business. He combines, directs and carries all responsibilities.

No farmer should put up a "no help wanted" sign but he should be particular in choosing his help, both manual and co-operative.

The farmer can not be helped until he organizes and the government cannot help the farmer except through organization.

The farmer sells at prices fixed in free trade markets and buys everything he wears and uses in a high protective market.

The value of farm crops is determined not only by the amount of labor necessary to produce them but by having them on the market when needed.

A great many people appear to believe that because a farmer pulls off his coat when he thinks that he is not capable of understanding his problems.

Married

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Olin. Mr. Frank Moore and Miss Ruby Beavers were joined in the holy bonds of wedlock on Sunday morning the 24th, A. J. Bush, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Moore were reared in Haskell and came to our city a short while ago. Mr. Moore has a position in the store room of the S. A. & A. P. They got at once to house keeping and thus another home is started. If all who marry would establish for themselves a home and rear a family, society would not be cursed with the divorce evil and so much of domestic unhappiness. Our Father instituted marriage for man's happiness and highest joy. The home is the basis of all good government and the center of all true happiness. Give us more real homes and you will add largely to the highest development of mankind. Mr. and Mrs. Moore will make their home in Yoakum.

ABOUT GOOD ROADS

By Homer D. Wade.

Improved highways increase the size of the load, but it decreases everything else.

The question of public highways is one that affects the fireside as well as the counting room.

I have not fully made up my mind as to what is meant by the unpardonable sin, but I am inclined to the idea that it is opposition to good roads.

A lie will make good headway over any kind of a road, but truth, if it goes to the mark, must have a straight and smooth road over which to travel.

The essence of false economy is to mire in the mud, when permanent roads can be joined, the high cost of living reduced and travel be rendered a pride and a joy forever.

Preachers are prone to put heaven and hell too far away. Like the poor, we have both with us at all times. This condition will obtain, as long as we have good and bad roads. Solve the good road question, and the hell on earth will be reduced to the minimum.

The owner of an automobile enjoys a smooth and permanent road, but what is joy to him is a real saving to the man who markets his crop, and since wealth is an ambition of many, the man who hauls his products over good roads, will have joy as well as economy.

Missouri people, fifty thousand strong, have shown the world one way to build good roads. The chief executive took the lead and the citizenship, without regard to political creeds, sex, or age followed. It is the co-operative spirit that succeeds, and the sentiment now created for improved roads in the "Show me" state will not down.

We are forced to disagree with those cotton experts who estimate the cotton crop at 14,000,000 bales. These same experts say Texas will make five million bales. When we take into consideration the thousands of fields of cotton that is about dead, with every half-grown boll on the stalk open, we are bound to dissent, from such extravagant estimates. The Free Press would advise the Browns and Scales that now is the time to buy cotton. We believe they can repeat with ease the feat of turning millions by bulling the market this season.

For Partial Exchange,—420 acres land. Will accept a good modern home in a good town, worth not more than $5000 and the balance in ten annual payments, at 8 per cent interest, 100 acres improved and good crop on same this year, 95 acres in cultivation.

320 acres good land in the best, latest irrigation belt in Texas. If you can match this, get busy.

W. R. Kelly, Rule, Texas. 2t

CITY BUILDING NOTES

By L. M. Ward

To the builder belongs the spoils.

Healthy discontent is constructive.

Discontention is commercial leprosy.

It's a weak wheel that has a broken cog.

Happiness is the natural reward of hard labor.

The tree of knowledge is fed from the stream of experience.

No city can be perfectly good, but it can be practically sanitary.

The good ship "progress" makes little headway through the sea of discontent.

The farmers' of Texas are no longer villagers but are cosmopolitan citizens.

Business men will profit immeasurably through the prosperity of the farmer.

Successful and systematic development of a business or community depends upon the united effort of the entire citizenship.

The condition of the city's, streets, sidewalks, buildings and residences are always noticed by the visitor. If unkept, an unfavorable impression is left.

There is no disputing the fact we are all in business for what we can get out of it. But it is sometimes necessary to assist others along the commercial highway before we can collect our own reward.

Non-Feaze-Able.

I am ceasing to criticize—I use the word in its present degenerate sense of fault-finding—because my complaints have not been productive of one iota of good. Moreover, they have always been ungraciously received either by the person whose good I sought or by the person upon whose sympathy I was depending.

Those whose good I sought have not listened to me. "Minnie," I said to my maid, whose stupid looks had become a trial to be endured no longer in silence, "do you know that you go about with your mouth open?" "Yes'm," answered Minnie stolidly, "I opened it."

I have been rudely treated when my motive was purely unselfish.

"Madame," said I to a stranger in a city shop, "your belt is unfastened."

"That," answered the lady, "is the way I wish it to be!"—Atlantic.

ADVERTISED GOODS

By W. Holt Harris

Goods that are advertised are usually priced to give the merchant the per centage of profit that he deserves and also suit the customers' pocketbook.

Unadvertised goods, while of the same quality, have to be sold at a much larger price in order to overcome the higher cost of doing business.

When the merchant sells fewer goods he must make more profit on each sale and as a consequence, the buyer is sometimes charged an unfair price.

Advertised merchandise offers the merchant his best opportunity to make money and the customer also profits by lower prices and has the satisfaction of generally obtaining better quality.

What Every Man Knows

There is a word at which all true men strike for the sanctity of motherhood.

Every boy knows its import, and rises in arms at the epithet. And it is a good thing to have it so.

The son who will not battle for the name he bears is a coward and a cad.

From youth on, the male understands the holiness of woman's virtue.

It is an entail, a heritage, impregnated in his blood.

Every man knows the shame and degradation of the aftermath; therefore you cannot plead age nor ignorance in extenuation of your crime.

If you are old enough to wreck a life, you are old enough to realize the direful circumstances for the girl.

When you wrecked her life you could not for one instant dismiss the picture of her punishment.

You're a masquerader, an interloper in honorable society.

The stain is on you. The years can't wipe it from your conscience. Hell must exist—your existence demands it.

She was reckless. Caution only comes with experience, and it was too late when knowledge came to her.

You swore that you loved her, but you lied; for men who love, reverence and protect. They do not degrade.

A million outcasts are slinking in the shadows, pacing the pavements—painted ghosts of "women who were"—nameless things—scourged by want—hungry for happiness.

She is there among them—a joyless shell, price marked and vice marked, without a friend, beyond the barriers, locked without the gates through which none may return.

But you'll pay, too. Her memory will never fade.

Throughout the years conscience will gnaw at your heart, and on that day of judgment the Master will avenge.

You can't replace—you can't retrace—you can't erase the past. You cannot expiate.

Plan as you will, rise as you may, climb as high as ambition can drive you, peace can never be your lot.

And one supreme torture awaits—when you look into the faces of your children and know that you are unworthy of their respect.—Herbert Kaufman in Woman's World.

HOME

By Mrs. E. P. Turner

Home is the place where our thoughts return in the hour of loneliness. Its memory seems to cling to us more in the time of need than in the moments of pleasure. We look upon home as a shelter where we find safety in times of distress, as a ship finds a calm sea behind the breakwater, when the waves roll high. Home is where we find a love worth while—a mother's love. Childhood days and the thoughts of home fill the hearts of the lowly as well as the lordly. We all love home but sometimes our thoughts are prone to roam to other things that for the moment command attention and seem more pressing. The awakening sometimes comes too late—after loved ones have departed or furious elements have done their work—but it is inevitable as life and death. Home is the natural haven of rest.

Anticipation.

"Allo, Bill! You do look pale and thin, Bill! Wot's wrong, Bill! Been ill, Bill?"

Thus spoke one jovial frequent-er of the gutter to a friend he had not seen for weeks.

Bill passed a horny hand across his brow.

"No," he answered. "I ain't been ill; it's work—work from 10 in the morning till 9 at night, and only one hour's rest. Think of it, mate!"

"Lumme!" replied Bill's mate. "And where are yer workin'?" "Ow long have yer been there?" "I ain't been there yet," retorted Bill, with a groan.

"I begin tomorrer!"—Pittsburg Chronicle Telegraph.

THE SILO A DIVERSIFIER

Farmer Radford has given some splendid reasons why the farmers of Texas should build silos, and one of the most important is its influence upon diversification. Farming is a business and the apostles of diversification should not lose sight of this fact. The cotton crop last season brought $27.19 per acre, corn $16.40 which was its nearest rival. Will a farmer cultivate land at $16.40 per acre when he can make $27.19? Will a laborer work for $1.60 per day when he can get $2.70?

Farmer Radford has suggested the silo and the feeding of livestock as a means of taking up the difference and bringing corn up to the productive value of cotton per acre.

Profit is the most powerful agency for diversification.

Marshall a Flyless Town.

Marshall has laid claim to being a flyless town and the modern fly-catching devices which have made good in that city verify the statement that "there are no flies on Marshall."

Scientists who have studied the housefly for years unite in saying that it is the most dangerous insect on earth and Marshall has put herself well within the health zone by exterminating the fly.

The clean-up days which were so common in commercial club work in Texas have been extended throughout the entire year, and the city of Marshall stands out boldly as a shining example of community sanitation. Kill the fly!

GIRLS! GIRLS! TRY IT, BEAUTIFIES HAIR YOUR

Make it thick, glossy, wavy, luxuriant and remove all dandruff

Your hair becomes, light wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Danderine hair cleanse." Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

Besides beautifying the hair at once, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

But what will please you most will be after a few week's use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it surely get a bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any druggist or toilet counter, and just try it.

A Card of Thanks.

I am now buying cotton and am prepared to take up any or all cotton contracted for delivery at Haskell to the Southern States Cotton Corporation on the terms specified in the contracts. They add that: "Every consideration, honesty, the law, your personal gain in the increased price and the building up of a stable market, should induce you to fill your contracts, and we expect you to do so."

This notice is given at the request of the Corporation.

Surprised Mary.

She had engaged a maid from the country, and was now employed in showing her newly acquired treasure over the house and enlightening her in regard to various duties, etc.

At last they reached the best room.

"These" said the mistress of the house, pausing before an extensive row of masculine portraits—"these" are very valuable, and you must be very careful when dusting. They are 'old masters.'"

Mary's jaw dropped and a look of intense wonder overspread her rubicund face.

"Lor' mum," she gasped, gazing with bulging eyes on the face of her new employer—"lor' m u m, who'd over 'ave thought you'd been married all these times!"—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

A POPULAR HASKELL LADY HONORED

Mesdames Robert Montgomery and Walter Meadors are known to be such charming hostesses that much pleasure was manifested when they issued invitations for a morning forty-two party. They named as honoree Mrs. S. W. Scott, who goes in a few days to make her home in San Antonio.

The day was delightful and the guests came early, bringing with them the spirit of mirth and sunshine. The house was decorated with bowls of flowers and made a pretty setting for the eight tables of animated players. After an interesting game a delicious salad course followed by cream and cake was served.

A few of Mrs. Scott's special friends had been invited to remain for the rest of the day. They were Mesdames Wilson, Long, H. R. Jones, Rike, Patterson, J. U. Fields and Scott Key.

When luncheon was announced Mrs. Scott was led to the place of honor and at her plate were a stock of dainty packages, little gifts of remembrances from each lady present. Mrs. Scott was deeply touched by this tribute of friendship and admirably expressed her appreciation, but not one of those around the table could find words to express how much love and esteem were represented in each gift. It was a beautiful gathering of friendship for these friends were tried and true. They have been close to her in joy and sorrow and no separation can break the tie that binds their lives together.

During the afternoon melon and cream were served. When the guests departed it was with a feeling of love and regret for the departure of Mrs. Scott and a deep appreciation for those who had given them so much pleasure.

The past week marked a round of gayeties honoring Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Scott, who are leaving for a winter in San Antonio. That given Saturday night by Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Long and Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Wilson was a fitting and beautiful close, as well as one of the very loveliest social functions ever given in Haskell. It was a garden party on the lawn of the Long home, which was beautifully and brilliantly electrically lighted for the occasion. The night was ideal, every one in happiest mood, and everything conspired for its success. The hosts and hostesses with their honored guests were at the entrance with a gracious word of greeting for each. Scattered about the lawn, under the trees, twenty tables were prepared for the favorite game of forty-two, and gentlemen with old-time Southern courtesies and ladies in the beauty of Southern womanhood entered the game with unusual zest and spirit. It was a gala and merry evening and be it noted that in this age of the advanced woman, it was Mr. Scott who was the guest of honor, his tap of the bell being the signal for progression. Be it also noted that Mr. Martin had fourteen punches when twelve games were played.

A delicious ice course was served at the close of the game.

The out-of-town guests who added greatly to the evening's pleasures were Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Robertson and Miss Payne of New York City, Mr. Jake Harrison, a Texas poet of Dallas, Mrs. G. W. Andruss of Rotan and Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Clarke of Cleburne.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Scott have a large circle of friends, who were out enmasse, old friends and new, to do them honor. There was that delightful form of merriment that can come only from close association and friendship. There is widespread regret at the leaving of this prominent and popular family; and this very lovely garden party given by Mr. and Mrs. Long and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, who have been almost life-long neighbors, is a sweetly beautiful tribute to speed the parting friends.

Mrs. Reynolds Entertains.

Mrs. R. J. Reynolds was hostess to the embroidery club at her home in west Haskell. The afternoon was spent in sewing, embroidering, crocheting and all kinds of fancy work. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Wilson in serving marguerites and ice tea and from the merry clatter and laughter we bespeak a most enjoyable afternoon, and pronounce Mrs. Reynolds a splendid hostess.

A Social Event.

On Tuesday, Sept. 9th from 4 to 7 P. M. Mrs. J. A. Hankerson was the charming hostess to her many friends, the occasion being a "42" party given at the Elks Hall in honor of Mrs. Emmett Robertson and sister Miss Evelyn Payne, of New York City. The guests were received at the door by Mrs. H. S. Wilson. A further welcome was graciously extended by a receiving line composed of Mrs. Hankerson, Mrs. E. Robertson, Miss Payne, Mrs. S. L. Robertson and Mrs. Jas. Fields and punch was served at a prettily decorated table by Mrs. Kimbrough. The hall was beautified with an abundance of ferns and cut roses. Nine games of progressive "42" were played, intermingled with merry conversation and music until the afternoon had fled all too quickly. The hostess was assisted in serving ice cream and wafers by Misses, Alice Poole, Cootie Hughes, Allie Irby, Ella Ree Debar and Helen McFatter. After which the guests departed all expressing themselves as having spent a most delightful afternoon and that Mrs. Hankerson had proven herself quite a unique entertainer.

The Limit.

Enthusiastic Auditor (lingering to congratulate him)—Every word you have said tonight is as true as gospel.

Modern Lecturer—True as gospel! My dear sir, it's as true as anything Henry George or Bernard Shaw ever wrote.—Chicago Tribune.

IF CONSTIPATED OR BILIOUS "CASCARETS"

For sick headache, sour stomach, sluggish liver and bowels.

Get a ten cent box,

Take a Cascaret to-night to cleanse your Liver, Stomach and Bowels, and you will surely feel great by morning. You men and women who have headache, coated tongue, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous, upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel all worn out. Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil?

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels.

Remember, a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. A ten-cent box from your druggist means healthy bowel action; a clear head and cheerfulness for month. Don't forget the children.

$25.00 Reward

I will pay the above amount for evidence leading to the conviction of the person or persons who recently burglarized my barn and shop, taking therefrom, halters, cotton pickers' sacks, and various tools.

Junior Editor Takes Short Trip

The junior editor and family spent Friday night and Saturday with relatives at Stamford. It was a very pleasant stay for them, meeting with old friends.

Saturday night they went to Anson and spent the night and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. A.
Dunwoody. While at Anson they attended the Jones County Singing Convention, and enjoyed some very fine music.
Among the noted singers of the State in attendance at this meeting, they noticed Profs. J. M.
Greer and L. A. Gordon, of Fort Worth, and Prof. R. H. Cornelius, of Midlothian. These gentlemen rendered a number of special songs to the delight of the large audience.

The convention met at Jones county's magnificent court house.
Judge Stinson delivered one of the prettiest and most hearty welcome addresses we ever listened to. The convention meets next time at Hodges.

Anson people are noted for their generous hospitality, and on this occasion they put forth an extra effort. This beautiful little city is also becoming noted for her concrete sidewalks, and larger cities could emulate her progressive example along this line with profit. It was indeed a pleasure to have nice paved sidewalks to walk on, instead of having to walk on the dry and dusty ground.

Woman's Auxiliary

On last Wednesday, the District Meeting of the Woman's Missionary Auxiliary of the Stamford district, met in annual session, at the M. E.
Church in this city. Our own district secretary, Mrs. P. D.
Sanders, presided at the meeting.

The program was published last week, but for various reasons some towns failed to send delegations, so substitutes had to be provided at the last minute.

Two Conference Officers were present: President of the North West Texas Conference, Mrs. D.
L. Stephens of Anson and Vice-President Mrs. McKeown of Stamford. It was not only a treat but an honor to have these two gifted women with us.

The presidents address was an inspiration to all present.
Those who failed to hear her, missed a golden opportunity to hear something good and learn something worth while.

Mrs. McKeown has so thoroughly solved the Social Service problems in her home town that she is called the "Dea-coness without a Bonnet."

Mrs. Hardy of Seymour led a discussion on Christian Stewardship; so simple and yet so forcibly, that the question arises, how can we fail to give the Lord His part of our time, talent and money?

The delegate reports of the various Auxiliaries were so gratifying to all who are interested in the Masters cause. They showed the advance of the missionary spirit, under the missionary study course.

Two vocal numbers given by the Haskell girls, showed the Haskell Methodist Church has material coming on to make splendid missionary women.

The ladies of the Haskell Auxiliary served a delicious two course luncheon to the visiting delegates, in the Epworth League room of the church building.
In the afternoon session they had a social hour and punch and cake was served to the entire congregation. Everything was done by the Haskell ladies that could be thought of to make this a memorable meeting. No leader of any band ever had better followers, than the Haskell Auxiliary.

The next meeting will be at Goree sometime next year.

The church was beautifully decorated with ferns and cut flowers, and open hospitality shown by the local Auxiliary and the spacious accommodations of the church edifice, will maintain the reputation of Haskell for being capable of taking care of meetings and conventions.

The Ladies Aid

The "God of All Grace" I'm sure smiled his approval on the band of women who faced the inclement weather Monday evening to go forward in their great work for Jesus sake. The president had asked Mrs. D. Scott to lead the meeting. She read the 14th chapter of John and made a beautiful comment on the entire chapter. Mrs. McFatter then led in a prayer for Divine Guidance, after which short talks were made by a number of the members—then business transacted with the Secretary, such as paying dues and subscribing for "good literature". These meetings are indeed inspiring,
"God is Love," and the more we follow in His steps the more we co-operate with each other in His name, the more real He becomes to us, and we reach out as it were, and lay hold of His grand promises as those of an earthly parent. "The God of All Grace." How vast must be the treasures of His compassion!
How boundless the riches of His love! Nor less boundless His strange and amazing condescension. He hath called the children of sin and of woe to glory to His eternal glory. Who can ever unfold the wonders of grace, and the goodness of God.

The world have their fading satisfactions and dying pleasures which must vanish when their poor possessors lie down to die;
but thou art my Father, and my Father, and my God, "Thou shalt guide me with Thy counsel, and afterwards receive me to Glory." Come my fellow-pilgrims, let us be more consecrated to our God, more loyal to His cause, more devoted to each other. Our lesson next week will be the Four Gospels. Matthew—Mrs. Bowman. Mark—Mrs. L. Taylor. Luke—Mrs.
I. D. Killingsworth. John—
Mrs. A. J. Smith. The Margarete Home—Mrs. Marshall.

We extend our sincere thanks to the Free Press for consideration given us each week.

HASKELL, TEXAS, September 13, 1913.

Twelve negro convicts were put in a dark cell 8x12 feet for 12 hours at the Harlem farm, in Fort Bend County, because they did not pick enough cotton, and eight of them were taken out dead next morning. Four of the strongest held their faces over the ventilation pipes and were still alive. The news dispatches state that the survivors called to the guards during the night the men were dying and the guards told them that if they did not make less noise they would wish they were dead. Is there no way to give a humane administration of the penal institutions? It seems that some of the convicts of this state are in the hands of ignorant brutes.

The Abilene Reporter is making a telling campaign for irrigation. The people of Taylor county have done more irrigating from streams and artificial lakes than any of the western counties. We believe when the storm waters that fall in the west are impounded and used for irrigation, it will greatly add to the humidity of the atmosphere and will thus increase the rainfall. Every farm in Haskell county should have reservoirs and lakes sufficient to impound all the water that falls. Build tanks and use the water for irrigating small patches if nothing more.

Surprised Both Ways.

"It is impossible to satisfy some sightseers," said a man who has country relatives. "A cousin visited me last week. The thousands and hundreds of thousands of people struggling for a foothold at bridges and subway stations struck him momentarily dumb. When his voice came back the first question he asked was, 'Where on earth do you get enough stuff to feed all those people?'"

"I answered that by taking him on a trip through the produce district. I steered him for miles through head high ramparts of meat, poultry, vegetables and fruits. At the end of the trip his first astonishment had been absorbed in a deeper wonder.

"Where on earth," said he, 'do you find the people to eat all this stuff?'" — New York Sun.

$100.00! Reward $100.00!

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all of its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

MOTHER! THE CHILD IS COSTIVE, BILIOUS

If tongue is coated, breath bad, stomach Sour, Don't hesitate!

Give "California Syrup of Figs" at once—a teaspoonful today often saves a sick child tomorrow.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Don't be fooled!

His Besetting Sin.

At a banquet in New York, Mark Twain was the guest of honor.

Thomas Bailey Aldrich was among those present, who happened to be seated near Twain, and in some manner the talk had veered around to pet failings.

"What is yours Mr. Aldrich?" inquired a man near him.

The poet opened his lips to reply, but Twain beat him to it.

"Vice Versa," he drawled laconically.—Country Gentleman.

Caught a Bad Cold

The Way of a Woman.

Foolishly he asked her for a kiss; naturally she said "no," bravely he took it, anyway; angrily she put him away! scornfully she told him what she thought of

ONLY the very best grapes are suitable for making raisins. They must be pulpy and should contain from 28 to 30 per cent of sugar in their juice.

White Swan Raisins are made with the best of these grapes—large, sweet, pulpy—every one perfect.

Dried in the sun so that every bit of natural sweetness and flavor is preserved, but protected absolutely from dust and rain, so that they are perfectly clean. They are seeded by machinery, wrapped in oiled, air-tight paper and packed in convenient paper boxes. They make everything in which they are used deliciously rich and good.

such action, and meekly he stood for the same old bluff.

"I am surprised and mad at you!" she said, and she looked every bit of it. "I don't think a gentleman would do such a thing; and now if you are going to stay here this evening, I don't want you to even touch me, but let us sit here and talk like sensible people."

Thoroughly cowed, he agreed. Seeing, however, that she had carried her little bluff too far, and he was taking her seriously, she made use of a bright idea.

"Will you promise to be good now?" she asked.

"Yes."

"Well, lets shake on it."

Solemnly they shook hands.

"Now," she said, with a cunning and meaning little twinkle in her eye, "you have touched me already and broken your promise. So, being as you have gone that far, you might as well go ahead and break the rest of your agreement."

Lumbago and Rheumatism.

A quick relief from lumbago and rheumatism is had by the application of Hunt's Lightning Oil, the quick acting liniment.

A friend writes, "We have been using Hunt's Lightning Oil for 13 years and deem it above all others."—Mrs. J. T. Nevels, Gordon, Texas, Route 2, Box 31.

25 and 50c a bottle. All dealers.

A Good Life Insurance.

Messrs. C. D. Long and Jno. B. Baker of this city represent the Wichita Life Insurance Co. of Wichita Falls, and have been notified of the payment of the first death claim. Mrs. Mattie Brokaw of Electria had a policy in this company, and died on August 25th and the claim was paid on August 28th. This shows the advantage of having your insurance with a Texas Co. The Free Press has always advocated that Texas people patronize Texas insurance companies. When Texas keeps her money at home we will have cheap money in Texas. Messrs. Long and Baker are strictly in the insurance business and have been careful to select the best companies. Life insurance is something that should be given more thought, while one is young. The time will come when a fellow will regret the folly of neglecting life insurance.

Mother of Eighteen Children

"I am the mother of eighteen children and have the praise of doing more work than any young woman in my town," writes Mrs. C. J. Martin, Boone Mill, Va. I can eat anything I want to, and as much as I want and feel better than I have at any time in ten years. I refer to any one in Boone Mill or vicinity and they will vouch for what I say."

Chamberlain's Tablets are for sale by all dealers.

Time it! Pape's Dyspepsin will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach surely in five minutes.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Common Weakness.

An interesting light is thrown on the purely human side of the late Edward VII of England by a story told of his inability to resist the temptation to appropriate a particularly good anecdote.

Some one told a delightful story to one of his majesty's young nieces. "That is capital," she said. "I must tell it to the King."

"No," she instantly added, "I won't, for if you tell uncle a good story he forgets in a day or two that it was told to him and goes about repeating it to everyone as his own!"—The People's King.
