Along The Waterfront

The fish are still biting in the basin, although the high winds have made the water rather muddy. A party from Walton Court caught a 5-pound fish out of the basin this morning.

Some fish are being caught at Mills' Wharf on the flat in front of the Wells Cottages most every evening. One boy caught a 3 pound red Wednesday evening. Harry Mills took out a party Tuesday morning and they caught 27 trout before the wind came up.

Fishing is better than it has been at Lenoir's Landing. Mr. Lenoir reports some red fish being caught along the shore, but he says there are not many fishermen out.

G. V. Langston, from the Gulf Cottages, has been catching fish out in front of Fulton. His prize catch was a 10-pound red fish which he hooked Wednesday.

Fred Christilles has been taking some parties out in his boat and they have had good luck. Mr. Christilles had Frank Merritt and party, of Waco, fishing Thursday and Friday. They caught 177 trout Thursday and 157 Friday. Saturday Howard Lee, of Houston fished with Christilles and he brought in 102 trout. Westlet Nelius, of Houston fished Sunday, catching 104 and Monday John Brooks, of Tampa, Fla., caught 13 7trout.

Alex Scott gave an interesting talk on "Working in Unison" fol lowed by a pet parade by the pupils in the first and second grades, sponsored by their teacher, Miss McLennan.

After marching around the auditorium the children took their floats with the pets and paraded through Fulton.

Sandra Spencer won first prize. Her float was a little red wagon with a circus cage built on it containing a white rabbit. This float was trimmed in red and white.

The second prize was won by Linda Mae Johnson with her wheelbarrow, trimmed in lavender and holding two yellow kittens.

Ronny Stacey, who decorated the hot rod float, carrying a tiny Manchester dog belonging to Marvin Allison, won the third prize.

The next meeting will be Father's Night and will be Tuesday night, February 5.

On Friday, February 29 the P.-T.A. is sponsoring a style show with the children doing the modeling. There will be a small admission charge and there will be coffee and cake for sale.

BRIDE-ELECT HONORED AT SHOWER

The W.S.C.S Ladies of the Methodist Church honored Miss Joyce Nell Townsend, whose marraige to Sgt. John Albert Ratliff will be solemnized at the Methodist Church, Saturday, Feb. 9, with a miscellaneous shower on Friday, January 18, at the Methodist Church Annex.

Yellow and white were the colors accented in the table appointments and refreshments. The lace covered table was centered with white and yellow chrysanthemums, flanked by yellow tapers in crystal candelabrum.

Mrs. Clyde Townsend, mother of the bride poured the punch Canada, present. and Mrs. T. H. Ratliff served the cake, which was frosted in yellow and trimmed in white sugar Caspar from Locknet, Texas, respun flowers.

Miss Mary Ann Close assisted the honoree with the presents and Mrs. W. B. Allen had charge of the register.

The guest list included sixtyfour of miss Townsend's friends.
