MORE POWER FOR SOUTH TEXAS-An architect's drawing of Lon C. Hill Power Station, to be built by Central Power and Light Company in the Corpus Christi area, is reproduced above. Construction of the new plant, named for the company's president, will begin this year. The first generating unit to be installed will add 66,000 kilowatts to South Texas' electric power supply. Additional units will be installed as needed and it is expected that Lon C. Hill Power Station eventually will be CPL's largest plant. From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

"Good Neighbor Policy"

about the old loose-stone wall that separated Easy Roberts' property from Handy Peterson's? That was when they decided they really didn't need the wall between them in the first place - so they simply stopped repairing it. Now I hear where a fellow, who bought the old Johnson place, wants to buy all those stones. It seems he figures a stone wall is just what's needed on his property.

From where I sit, if that fellow wants to build himself a stone wall,

Remember one time when I told that's his business. But if it's not really serving any useful purpose he may sooner or later discover -just like Handy and Easy didthat he'd be just as well off without one. Even some old-fashioned walls of prejudice are disappearinglike those that would deny a person's right to a friendly glass of beer now and then. Most Americans are learning that "walls" can get in the way of the persons inside as well as the persons outside.
