THE INHUMANITY OF MULTITUDES

When Henry W. Grady was hesitating whether to remain on a New York paper or return to Georgia, he decided to go home because nobody in the apartment could tell him about the baby whose little white coffin was carried side by side with him down the steps of the adjoining apartment. "The inhumanity of cities" overwhelmed him. How many of us have had a similar experience?

In one of the large apartment houses in which I have lived on the west side, my front door, when it swung open, touched the front door of my next door neighbor, divided from me only by a thin wall of less than half a foot. One morning on going out I met a pleasant faced gentleman emerging from this door.

We exchanged the casual salutation of housemates. This we repeated on several subsequent occasions in a casual way. I never knew his name.

One morning about six weeks later, I asked the elevator boy what had become of him.

"He died two weeks ago," was the response, "and his body was taken out after nightfall and carried to the cemetery."

Here was this man who by every law of life and every creed of Christianity was my nearest neighbor, I could almost hear him breathe at night through the intervening wall.

And yet, he had sickened, he had suffered, he had gone through the agony or travail of death. He had been carried out in his mid-night casket to his grave and his family had come back to the anguish and desolation of an unspeakable bereavement.

And I, who was "this man's neighbor," had neither ministered to his suffering life, stood by him in the hour and article of death, nor comforted the crowning sorrow of those who came back to his broken and desolate home—just within a foot of the light and love and laughter of my own—because in the rush of our big world I did not know.

I have never gotten over that incident. I never will. Something ought to be done about it. If something could be done.

We pay a fierce price for the joy of cities. Too many people make one person unimportant. Great crowds dwarf and minify individuals. In the multitudes we forget each other too often in life and death.

When a man dies among two or three in a little community it is a tragedy. It darkens the sky, it shadows the spirit, it bows the head in reverence and humility and sympathy.

But when one dies among five millions, the little gap made by the passing of the atom closes up so quickly from the mighty mass that it is difficult to remember that the atom ever lived or even died.

From which I came to say that the cities are not much of a place for old people or people who die. They should find a softer and simpler life and a quieter place in which to enact the last great tragedy of life, which is death.

I would like to live in a great city all my vigorous life.

But I would like to grow old and die in the little country town where the neighbors would come to ask after me in the last days, follow me kindly to the churchyard when I was gone, and come back for a little tender touch of comfort to those who were left behind.

Is it not well now and then to halt this mad rush of living, and give space to a little breathing time of charity and tenderness, for those whose die?—John Temple Graves.

An Anniversary.

A man may be rough looking and yet have a touch of sentiment about him.

A ragged ill-kept looking man once appeared at the door of a Providence woman's home, and in a pleading tone asked:

"Have you a piece of cake, lady, to give a poor man who hasn't had a bite for two days?"

"Cake?" echoed the woman in surprise. "Isn't bread good enough for you?"

"Ordinarily, yes, ma'am. But this is my birthday," explained the tramp.—Harper's Magazine.

CONGRESSMAN SMITH PAID HASKELL A VISIT

Hon. W. R. Smith of Colorado City, who represents in congress the Jumbo district of Texas, which includes Haskell county, spent a few hours in our city Tuesday, and called on a large number of our citizens. His time was limited, so he could not meet with as many as he desired. In view of this fact the Free Press asked of him a short interview, as follows:

"The present Democratic administration has in no way demonstrated its devotion to the interest of the people more than in the conduct of its Treasury Department. If any were inclined to look upon Secretary McAdoo with suspicion because he came from so close to Wall Street such suspicion is now or at least ought to be completely dispelled.

"Secretary McAdoo has done the unusual thing of severing all underground connections between the Treasury and Wall Street, so long maintained by the Republican party, and for the first time in many a day that department of the government is being conducted wholly in the interest of the people.

"Let me illustrate what I am saying: In 1907 Wall Street brought on a panic for purposes of its own. New York banks refused to rediscount for country banks or even to pay balances to the country banks. In turn country banks were compelled to extend no further accommodations to their local business customers: They could not even pay their own depositors. Complete business paralysis ensued. Roosevelt was president and what did he and his secretary of the treasury do? They sent government money to the Wall Street banks to be loaned to the Wall Street gamblers and speculators. And this was not all. Roosevelt made a deal with Morgan to come to the aid of the government. Mr. Morgan poured some of his millions into the Wall Street rat hole and as a reward to him Roosevelt gave his consent to the merging of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Co. into the Steel Trust, thereby completing in violation of law the most gigantic industrial monopoly in the world.

"Early in this Wilson administration Wall Street threatened another panic and were taking steps to bring it on. It would have come had not Secretary McAdoo patriotically thrown himself into the breach. Instead of gathering up the government's millions and hurrying to New York as the Republican secretary had done, he defied the whole 'kit and kettle' of them. He announced to the country that he would send the government's money to the country banks and that if the amount on hand was not sufficient to avert the panic he would issue emergency currency as the law authorized him to do. Wall Street has not recovered yet from its utter astonishment at this unusual performance. It broke up the conspiracy completely and we never heard any more about financial stringency until some months later when the crops of the South and West were to be moved. Then Wall Street began to talk a shortage of money again, and Mr. McAdoo again came to the rescue, and when he began to untie Uncle Sam's purse strings the Wall Street banks began to see that 'it was no use' and began to untie their purse strings also and money again was plentiful.

"Mr. McAdoo deserves the gratitude of the American people and I predict his name will go down in history as one of the greatest and most patriotic secretaries of the treasury we have ever had."

The Sound and the Sense.

A schoolboy, asked to write an essay on cats, made the following statements: "Cats that are made for little boys and girls to maul and tease are called Maltese cats. Some cats are known by their queer purrs; these are called Purrsian cats. Cats with very bad tempers are called Angorie cats. Sometimes a very fine cat is called a Magnificat. Cats with very feelings are called Feline cats."

We all have big ears for that which favors our vanity, and small ears for that which discredits us. It should be just the reverse, for, if we are to improve, we must correct our faults rather than gloat over our virtues. As the Spanish maxim runs, "When you hear anything favorable, keep a tight rein on your credulity; if unfavorable, give it the spur."—Motion Picture Magazine.

IN THE HASKELL OIL FIELD

Progress on the Scott well for the past week has been some what slow, as the depth calling for the 19 inch casing had been reached. Some difficulties were encountered in the setting of the casing, owing to the caving nature of some of the formations. After the casing job was over, it was found necessary to overhaul the engine, which was sent to Wichita Falls, accompanied by contractor Shay, who will hurry the work, and return with it as soon as finished.

While in Wichita Falls, Mr. Shay will order new cordage, so the well can be pushed to completion. Driller Jim Crawford and tool dresser Lee Abbe, also went to Wichita Falls, to assist Mr. Shay.

We appreciate the trade the people of Haskell has given us since we came to this city two years ago, and thank you one and all, and those that do not now trade with us, wish to say, we would appreciate your business very much in the future and will guarantee entire satisfaction, in quality, prices and courteous treatment. We had a big demand for advertising space that came after we had printed four pages of the paper so to make room for "pay dirt" we were forced to leave out the church society notes, Magazine Club notes, many personals, locals and many other important matters.

Helping the Wayward.

Richard Tucklowfsky, of Racine, Wis., is a bad boy, six years old. He must be unusually bad, for he has been arrested sixty times. Recently he was consigned to a townswoman as a special guardian. She kept him straight two weeks. Then he stole two automobile clocks, and tried to rob the house of the chief of police, and something had to be done about it.

A Racine newspaper has set out to raise seven hundred dollars to send Richard to a St. Louis school for abnormal children for one year. At the end of one year, then, the seven hundred dollars will be gone, and Richard will be seven years old instead of six. Perhaps he will be transformed; perhaps not.

Suppose Richard Tucklowfsky were a good boy of six, as good as now he is bad, as promising as he is now unpromising, suggests the New York World. Would it be so easy then to get together seven hundred dollars to give him an education?

Unless Racine is as unusual a town as Richard is an unusual boy, it is not likely. People will frequently pay money to get rid of a boy, or in maudlin sentiment will subscribe to "give him a chance." The world's good boys usually have to take their chances as they come.

Wanted.

A bad case of Rheumatism. If you have Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Headaches, we want you to just try Hunt's Lightning Oil. You will be convinced of the truth of the statement of one customer that, "as a reliever of pain it is without an equal." All druggists sell it.

Mr. J. D. Sutton and son, G. L. Sutton, of Nolanville, Bell county, were in the city this week. The elder Sutton closed a deal whereby he becomes the owner of the farms of J. M. Speck and Francis Smith of the Rochester community. Mr. Sutton was already an owner of a farm in this community before these recent purchases and this makes his holdings in this county rather large, but he says he is pleased with his investments. The Free Press hopes he will some day decide to move here and become a resident citizen of our county.

The Rebels have captured Juarez and the fates point to the fall of Huerta.

For the good of the community, the local paper often refrain from commenting on the sensational incidents that happen to disturb the peace of the community.

Can a man with any self respect, afford to throw in with every old reprobate that comes along and denounces our best men and institutions? But do birds of a feather flock together?

There are two forces in every community. There is an element that spend their lives trying to lower the ideals of the community and another element that strives to uplift society. On which side are you?

If You are Subject to Colds
This Editorial will Interest You.
 A Great Majority of People Get One or More Colds Every Season and It is of Vital Interest to All to Learn How to Avoid and Relieve Colds Quickly, Since Colds are Said to be Contagious.

Some people think colds are only caught through exposure. This in return is contradicted by the fact that Arctic explorers are peculiarly free from colds. It is more generally accepted that colds are the result of civilized life, due to super-heated rooms and a very rapid change in temperature which causes the nerve centers to be depressed, and still more largely due to contagion—one member of a family imparting a cold to another by sneezing or coughing.

A cold means nothing if relieved quickly. That such a purpose may be accomplished, a quick aid to a cold is an essential. A remedy especially devised to relieve colds quickly is PERUNA.

PERUNA contains such ingredients that have an especially beneficial influence upon the inflamed mucous membranes and the quicker these mucous membranes are given the benefit of a remedy like PERUNA, the quicker the relief and the less contagion.

A neglected cold may become a serious menace to one's own life, and far worse, may endanger one's family.

We insure our homes against fire, our lives against death. Why should we not insure ourselves against colds if possible by having a medicine in the family chest that can be used at once?

PERUNA is a reliable household remedy for colds and should be in every home, for there should be a desire to combat a cold as quickly as possible. This is enlightened hygiene.

People who are feeble and run down are more subject to colds than persons in normal health. Such persons need outdoor life and PERUNA to help build up a strong constitution. If you have a poor appetite that is often a warning that you probably need a tonic like Peruna for Peruna aids the digestive organs. When your appetite is fair and work and exercise do not quickly tire you, your susceptibility to colds diminishes very much.

Persons who object to liquid medicines can now obtain PERUNA TABLETS.

We are glad to note that the proposed air line highway from Wichita Falls to Ballinger is receiving encouragement. It will run by Haskell. In a conversation with a prominent citizen, it was suggested that after leaving Mule Creek in this county, that if he road parallel the Wichita Valley railroad until within three miles of Stamford. By so doing it would be a far better route, entailing less expense in creating the new road than in building up the old road and far less expense to maintain, besides it would shorten the distance between this place and Stamford at least three miles. This line will mean much to West Texas when built, and we repeat that we are glad to note that the promoters are receiving gratifying encouragement in the undertaking.

Many new families are moving to this county from East Texas, and some good farms are changing hands.

The commercial clubs are getting into politics, and give promise of active work. If they do not get too reckless with the idea of high finance they can do good

Some people have such an antipathy for hypocrisy, that they never make an effort to be decent themselves, while pretending to be terribly shocked if some good man violates their ideal. In the drama or the tragedy of daily life, the villain recognizes no law as binding on himself yet he does not hesitate to appeal to the honor of the hero, or accept the benefit of moral and statutory law. Such conduct is both demoralizing and cowardly.

Some men try to back water on both shoulders. They stand in with the lawbreaker, pay the preacher, chum with the gambler, consort with the libertine, howl for personal liberty, traduce the good name of the best men and tempt the widows of dead friends to the way of vice and think they are fooling everybody. You may think you have people fooled, but it is you that is being fooled. If you are an old reprobate every one knows it and they have no respect for you. They may pass you by politely, but if it comes to a show down they will show you "your sins have found you out".

OUR CONTEST

Will close Saturday, Nov. 29th. Readers of this paper will remember that a few weeks ago we announced

Buck's Picture Coloring Contest
 For all little girls under 14 years of age. Each little girl is given an outlined drawing of a dining room, and to the one who returns to us the most artistic coloring of this room interior will be given free, a little "Bucks" Junior Range.
 Those who have not already made their drawings and turned them in should get busy at once, so your drawing can be in inspected with the rest. On Saturday, November 29th the contest closes and the range will be awarded.

Keep Informed.

In this day of progress the man who would succeed must be informed about the world's doings.

The local paper gives him local information which is needful, but it cannot cover the whole field. Hence the man who would keep step with march of the times will take a general newspaper also.

The Fort Worth Semi-Weekly Record has taken front rank among the great publications of the South and West. It is specially prepared for the reader who has not the time or the opportunity to read a daily paper.

First of all, it is a newspaper. The Record believes that the people of the country and the village are as much interested in current events as the people of the city.

In the next place, it carries features suitable for all the members of the family—women and children as well as men.

Last, but by no means least, the Record's editorial policy comprehends the economic welfare of the farmer and stock raiser. The Record is an acknowledged leader in the discussion of public questions in their relation to agricultural production.

In subscribing through this office you can get the Fort Worth Semi-Weekly Record, together with the Haskell Free Press, both papers one year for only $1.75. Accept this remarkable offer today.

Let the Free Press do your job printing.

Mr. Bryan's Paper, The Commoner

Through the columns of The Commoner Mr. Bryans meets the attacks of those who are opposed to Democratic reforms, as well as the clever misrepresentations made by the organs of the "special interests." As an exponent of the plans and purposes of the national Democratic administration, the Commoner is of unusual interest to all progressive citizens. Mr. Bryan's signed editorials give a timely discussion of public questions and are interesting and valuable to all students of governmental affairs. It is a big 32 page monthly. Besides supplying the best political and general matter, it has interesting Home, Fashion, Farm, Cartoon and other departments. A carefully prepared report of the work of the various members of the President's Cabinet is especially interesting to each tax payer. The subscription price is $1 a year.

Many of our readers are already Commoner subscribers; many others may desire to be. To make it convenient as well as inexpensive for our readers to send subscriptions to The Commoner, we have arranged with Mr. Bryan to furnish his paper to our readers, at a special low rate. Only $1.50 pays for a full year's subscription to this paper and a full year's subscription to The Commoner. If already a subscriber to either paper your expiration date will be extended one year.

Aid Society Notes.

The aid society of the Christian Church met in regular session Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. R. B. Fields. Our Thanksgiving Bazaar was the subject of supreme importance. Everybody was kept busy for the space two hours, tacking a beautiful comfort. When the work was finished, we entered into a most enthusiastic business meeting. Committees were appointed for the purpose of making candy, gathering up articles and keeping the Bazaar, which, through the kindness of Mr. Langford, will be held in the West Side Pharmacy, Tuesday before Thanksgiving. Let us all pray, plan and push. If you have not already made something for this Bazaar, make something. Reporter.

are dependent on nourishment for growth. Their health as men and women is largely established in childhood.

If your child is languid, bloodless, tired when rising, without ambition or rosy cheeks, Scott's Emulsion is a wonderful help. It possesses nature's grandest body-building fats so delicately predigested that the blood absorbs its strength and carries it to every organ and tissue and fibre.

First it increases their appetite, then it adds flesh—strengthens the bones—makes them sturdy, active and healthy.

No alcohol or narcotic in Scott's Emulsion, just purity and strength.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave
 Up in Despair. Husband
 Came to Rescue.

Patron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.
 The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand,
 and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

 HANDSOME

What makes more happiness than sitting around the glowing coals, especially if they be burning in a heating stove?

Our heaters will tone up that room and be an ornament as well as a comfort.

When you buy your stove or range from us you will buy a reliable make.
 One that will cook and give service.
 Don't fail to see our stock, we are headquarters.
