

Along The Waterfront

The cool and windy weather of the past two weeks has made the water too muddy and rough for good fishing.

Henry Ballou, who owns several boats and takes out fishing parties informs The Pilot that there are lots of trout showing up in the bays early this year, due to the mild weather, and with reasonably good weather, people fishing in this area should get good catches of fish.

Ballou had Kirk Edwards and party out fishing one day last week. They caught 58 nice trout. V. T. Jones, of San Antonio, and a party from Alberta, Canada, fished with Ballou Monday, catching 82 trout.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Lieurance, went fishing Monday morning. She caught 2 redfish which weighed 6 pounds each. Tuesday afternoon they fished again and she landed 3 redfish, weighing 8½, 6½ and 5 pounds. Wednesday morning when they fished, she landed a 5½ pound red and let two big fish get away.

Mr. Lieurance has caught only one red which weighed 4½ pounds. She says she is going to rest a while and let him catch some fish.

EVENING MASS AT SACRED HEART CHURCH FRIDAY AT 7

Sacred Heart Church will inaugurate evening Mass Friday, March 6, at 7:00 p.m. This privilege of holding Mass in the evening was granted recently by Pope Pius XII in order to give Catholic people a greater opportunity of assisting at the holy sacrifice of the Mass and by establishing new rules for the Eucharistic fast, greater opportunity of receiving Holy Communion.

Special regulations were made during the war, both for late Masses and Holy Communion and with some modification these have been extended to all Catholics.

It is the intention of the priests in charge of the parish to have evening Masses on each first Friday and on the Holy Days of Obligation when Catholics are expected to attend Mass as on Sundays. The hour of 7 o'clock is experimental until experience has shown that another hour will be more suitable.

The law regarding the Eucharistic fast is as follows: drinking of water does not break the fast, therefore, people wishing to go to Communion may drink water at will. In order to go to Communion when Mass is said in the late afternoon or evening Catholics must fast from solid foods three hours before Communion. In this case, the fast must begin at 4 o'clock. Liquids including tea, coffee, milk, fruit juices, consommé, etc., may be used up to one hour before Communion, in this case 6 o'clock. Because this is the season of Lent the evening Mass will be followed at 7:30 by the recitation of the devotion, The Way of the Cross, followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Catholics are urged to avail themselves of this privilege of evening Mass and of the opportunity to take part in a devotion so close to every Catholic.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

An open letter to the Aransas County Navigation Board and Rockport Chamber of Commerce:

There may, in certain cases be some excuse for the sorry condition of a city's streets, but there is not the slightest, valid reason for allowing all entrances to Rockport's Yacht Basin to become in as sad a state of disrepair as exists now. Innumerable chuck holes from six to thirty inches in diameter and to a depth of ten inches, so closely bunched as to be unavoidable, constitute a menace to drivers and a disgrace to the community.

Rockport spends considerable sums of money each year to advertise this yacht basin attraction and because of that fact it has become the mecca for hundreds of summer and winter visitors.

The writer counted seventy-six cars in an hour Saturday afternoon trying to navigate their cars around these chuck holes.

To inject adverse reaction and nullify both effort and expense for lack of a few loads of rock asphalt is about asinine a procedure as one can imagine.

It is our understanding that responsibility for the entrances in question lies with the Navigation Board and that the damage in part is caused by contractors hauling heavy loads back and forth. Whatever the cause and whoever has jurisdiction we strongly urge fast remedial action and suggest to the Rockport Chamber of Commerce that they throw their influence behind an immediate remedy. —C. O. Bailey

Draft Quota For State Set At 2,876 In April

Austin.—The state draft quota for April, calling for induction of 2,876 men, was announced Wednesday by state Selective Service director, said that more than 5,700 men would be examined in April, compared with a March examination call of 6,800.
Local board quotas for the April induction call will be figured and placed in the mail "the first week in March," the state draft director said. Board quotas for the April examination were mailed Tuesday.
General Wakefield said that local boards will be authorized to induct men in April down to the age of 19 years and 6 months, as compared to 19 years and 9 months in March.
Local boards will be advised to fill April calls to greatest extent possible with men 20 years or older. At present, the state draft director said, most of the examined and acceptable men are in the 20-year-old group. Following is a breakdown of examined and acceptable group by age as of Feb. 1: 21 and older, 1,541; 20 years old, 6,167; 19 years old, 1,951.
General Wakefield pointed out that the number of 19-year-olds in the examined and acceptable group is increasing. The following shows how the number has grown: Dec. 1—43 men; Jan. 1—536 men; Feb. 1—1,951 men.
The state draft director stressed in a statement that present inductees for the armed forces are replacements for drafted men who are now getting out after two years of service.
Texas has inducted nearly 55,000 men since fighting in Korea began and has examined nearly 132,000 men during the same period.

Teacher and Classroom Shortage, a Problem

Chas. H. Tennyson, executive secretary of the Texas State Teachers Association, said that plans for easing the critical classroom shortage will be seriously handicapped if local school districts are required to pay a larger share of the minimum foundation program.
School districts are already paying more than 40 per cent of the cost of public education in Texas.
Figures compiled by the Texas Education Agency show that the total cost of public education in Texas during the 1951-52 school year was $318,963,078. School districts paid $132,832,708, or 41.6 per cent. The state paid $180,918,657, or 56.7 per cent and the federal government 1.7 per cent, or $5,211,713, and this mostly on the school lunch program.
Yet in Texas there are approximately 33,000 children in our elementary schools must attend classes for less than a full day because of classroom shortage.
Many states grant financial aid to schools for construction purposes, but in Texas the need for buildings must be met by the local communities themselves. In recent years Virginia set aside $45,000,000 for building schools; Washington $40,000,000; North Carolina, $25,000,000, and California, $50,000,000 and $70,000,000. The school districts in Texas have made no plea for similar grants, but are on their own initiative, doing their best to alleviate the critical classroom shortage.
Teachers too, are scarce. The teachers are asking a minimum salary of $3,000. The present minimum salary is $2,400, and about equals $1,200 in 1940 and $800 in 1925, when it comes to purchasing power.
Factory workers now average $3,500 per year and did not have to attend college for at least four years before starting to work. Teachers are being forced to leave the classroom in order to make a living. Many schools report a turnover of as much as 40 per cent of their faculty during one school term, and colleges are now training less than half the number of teachers necessary to meet the demand.
There are now 1,634,000 boys and girls in the Texas schools, and we are told that by 1960 there will be 2,000,000. Who will teach these children?

Carelessness of Taking Medicine Causes Much Serious Illness

The careless or uninformed use of medicines cause much serious illness and even many deaths in Texas every year, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer, said today in a statement urging the public to use caution in self medication.

"It is never safe to take medicine in the dark," Dr. Cox warned. "Always read the label carefully to make sure the aspirin you expect to take is not a bichloride of mercury tablet or some other poison."

As a matter of fact, poisons and medicines containing poisons should be kept together, well out of reach of children and marked in some distinctive manner.

Another thing to remember is that medicines should always be taken exactly as directed by a doctor because many beneficial medicines can do untold harm if taken too frequently or in too large quantities.

It is well to stop and think that you may be taking your own life in your hands when you take medicine casually.

The state health officer also warned of the danger in the inclination of many persons untrained to diagnose and treat their own ills. Such persons are apt to guess wrong he asserted, and while they may not take medicine that is actually harmful, they are nevertheless postponing an accurate diagnosis and the resulting proper treatment that could help their illness.

The safest rule is never to use medicine, internally or externally, that has not been prescribed by your doctor and for that particular illness with which you are suffering.

Mrs. D. R. Simmons Celebrates Birthday

Mrs. D. R. Simmons had a double birthday this year. Early Sunday morning someone rapped on the door and when she opened it, she was presented with a bouquet of beautiful flowers, bearing the card: "Happy Birthday from Viola and Jim". This reminded her that March 1, was her birthday.

When Mrs. Simmons returned from church at noon there was a big birthday cake in the center of her lace covered dining table and birthday cards and gifts were piled in the living room.

Then on the morning of March 3rd, someone phoned and asked Mrs. Simmons if she would be home that afternoon and she answered, "Yes". About 3:00 p.m. some friends drove up. They brought another big birthday cake, pies, sandwiches, salted nuts and some more gifts. She was speechless, but the friends went into the living room and prepared the table for another birthday party.

Those enjoying this jolly occasion were: Mrs. J. J. McWright, and Mrs. B. C. Camp, of Junction, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Simmons, of Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Reid Simmons, of Kingsville, Mrs. Hettie Thurman, of Corpus Christi, Mrs. J. M. Roden, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Ferguson, Ed Beasley, Mrs. T. H. Ratliff, Mrs. Christine Hackett, Mrs. Clyde Armstrong, Mrs. F. G. Huffman, Mrs. Karl Geis, and Mrs. Helen Keen.

Atty. Gen. Shepperd Appointed Member On Committee

Austin.—Appointment of Texas Attorney General John Ben Shepperd as a member of the committee on Submerged Lands of the National Association of Attorneys General was announced this week.

Shepperd will leave February 13 for Washington to attend meetings of the executive committee of the association. The committee on submerged lands will meet February 15.

Congressional hearings on submerged land bills will begin the following week, and committee members will testify at these hearings.

Shepperd said that he hopes to assist the Texas delegation in securing a bill giving Texas fair treatment.

Shepperd's associates asked him to take his East Texas rabbit's foot with him to Washington, since he has won two major cases in the last week.

During the past week the two outstanding victories for the School Fund of Texas were the Texas Company case in Corpus Christi and the gas gathering tax case in Austin.

If the decisions of the courts are upheld, the School Fund will immediately receive a million dollars from the Gas Gathering tax case in Austin.

If the decisions of the courts are upheld, the School Fund will immediately receive a million dollars from the Texas Company case, and over $3 million dollars from the Gas Gathering tax case.

In both instances, the School Fund will receive many additional millions later through income from the property involved in the Texas Company case, and from the tax on pipeline companies upheld in the Gas-Gathering tax case. The General Revenue Fund would get over $8 million dollars from the Gas Gathering tax suit decision.

Attorney General Shepperd met with Governor Mechem of New Mexico this week to discuss underground water problems of the two States and the water agreements which the States have signed.

Shepperd will represent the State Feb. 6 at a hearing in Dallas before a Special Master of the U. S. Supreme Court in The Texas suit against New Mexico over water used from the Rio Grande. Texas filed the suit alleging New Mexico is using more than its share of the water given New Mexico by an agreement between Texas, New Mexico and Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Blackwell and daughter spent last week end in Kingsville, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Blackwell.

12 Karankawa Scouts Will Attend Jamboree

Twelve boy scouts of the Karankawa District have made reservations to attend the National Jamboree in California in July, according to an announcement by J. M. Chrestman of Taft, district jamboree chairman.

They are Charles Jenkins and Roy R. Cardwell of Troop 43, Taft; Jimmy Helm of Post 43, Taft; Boyce Elliott of Troop 139, Aransas Pass; John Miller and Clyde Mayo, Jr., of Troop 31, Sinton; and Wallis Heitt of Troop 26, Ingleside.

In addition several institutions sponsoring scout troops will send representatives of their troops. These boys have not been named as yet: Troop 36, sponsored by Sinton Kiwanis Club; Troop 31, sponsored by Sinton American Legion; Post 43, sponsored by Taft Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs; Troop 49, sponsored by Rockport VFW; and Troop 144, sponsored by Gregory Lions Club.

H. C. Barber, scoutmaster of Troop 25 of Aransas Pass, has been selected as one of the Jamboree leaders. K. A. Wallace, scout commissioner at Taft, will go as a member of the sectional staff.

The delegation from the Gulf Coast Council will include 210 boys and 18 leaders. 50,000 boys from all parts of the U.S. and several foreign countries are expected to take part in the third National Jamboree to be held 12-23 at Irvine Ranch in California, about 40 miles from Los Angeles. Several interesting side trips are being planned and the local group will leave about July 7.

There are still several openings for more reservations, Chrestman said, and any boy interested in going should contact his scoutmaster immediately.

Instructions to Self Employed On Filing Reports of Earnings

Self employed persons, who operate their own trade or business, are required to file separate reports of net earnings on Schedule C attached to Form 1040 when income tax returns are filed. The returns for 1952 are due to be filed with the Bureau of Internal Revenue by March 16.

The special reports are used to credit earnings towards old age and survivors insurance, according to H. M. Cleveland, manager of the Corpus Christi office of the Social Security Administration. Cleveland listed the following points to observe when completing the self employment income report:

1. Net earnings from self employment should be filed on separate Schedule C of Form 1040. It is not necessary to report less than $400 or more than $3,600 a year for this purpose.

2. These provisions apply to all self employed persons except doctors, lawyers, farmers, ranchers, undertakers, public accountants and professional engineers.

3. Profit or loss from other sources should not be combined with income from covered self employment to determine net earnings for Schedule C.

4. Rentals from real estate are not generally included as self employment income.

5. The name and individual social security number, (not the business number), of the self employed person should be correctly shown on the Schedule C and C-a (lower portion).

6. A brief description of the trade or business should be accurately stated, in the space provided on the form, to show that the occupation is covered.

7. The taxpayer should retain a copy of his return with a copy Schedule C attached.

Dr. Cox Warns of Seriousness of Rheumatic Fever

Austin.—Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, commenting on the seriousness of rheumatic fever, today declared that this disease is recognized as one of the greatest killers among young people. Between the ages of 10 and 15 rheumatic fever causes more deaths and other disease, the State Health Officer said, and in persons between the ages of 15 and 24, it is outranked only by tuberculosis.

Dr. Cox stressed the fact that deaths in childhood from rheumatic fever have not decreased in a satisfactory manner during the past decade, and warned the parents of children to pay particular attention to the care and treatment of such predisposing diseases as tonsillitis and other upper respiratory infections.

"The diagnosis in this disease is not always easy," Dr. Cox stated. "Any child with suspicious symptoms should be under prolonged supervision of a physician since along with a general involvement of the body, the heart is practically always involved. The symptoms consist only of pallor, loss of weight, easy fatigue, unusual sweating, loss of appetite, and sometime fleeting muscular pain, and a little joint stiffness and a rapid beating of the heart. The more severe cases may show repeated nose bleeds, extreme nervousness, stiffness and pain in the joints, swelling of the joints, fever and pain over the heart."

According to Dr. Cox the majority of children who experience rheumatic fever suffer more than one attack and each may last months or even at times one to three years. The final result depends on the amount of heart damage incurred. Closely supervised bed rest throughout the entire period of infection is essential in order to minimize this danger.

Ducks Begin Heading North

AUSTIN—The Executive Secretary of the Game and Fish Commission reported that waterfowl wintering along the Texas coast are "getting uneasy about leaving" but that no mass migration northward has occurred yet.

He said field men have noticed considerable movement of some species such as pintails, mallards and gadwall from the southern part of Texas to the larger northern waters. He added that the main movement, depending on the weather, probably will begin late this month.

J. R. Singleton, wildlife biologist, stationed in the marshes around Winnie, said some of the hardier varieties are getting ready to have begun short hops northward. He said this is preparatory to probing the winter-embarked central states and even northern states where first breaks in ice-covered streams usually attract the pioneering advance guards.

Singleton reported that the snow and blue geese have been moving inland. He said that spoonbills, bluewinged teals, and baldpates are the last to leave this area. One species that does not leave is the mottled duck which occurs only in Texas and adjoining coastal areas and seldom travels more than 100 miles between wintering and nesting grounds.

Julian Howard, manager of the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge at Austwell, reported that waterfowl has scattered since the shooting season pressure ended but that it is a little early yet to notice any northward trend. Howard's prize clients—the stately whooping cranes—are sitting tight. They don't leave until about mid-April. He said the whoopers' wintering grounds have been closed to the public because the giant birds, now numbering only 21, have been unusually shy, apparently because of the prolonged drought's effect on their feeding areas.

Widow Says Survivors Insurance Helps Educate Children

Many workers are not aware of the financial protection which they have earned for their families, states H. M. Cleveland, Manager of the Social Security Administration in Corpus Christi.

"Survivors insurance, which is paid after the death of a worker, frequently means the difference between family comfort and need" he says.

"A letter, which was written by a widow who receives about $100 a month in Social Security payments for her three children, keenly illustrates the meaning of this insurance," according to Cleveland. "Here is what she says: 'We used to fuss because such a large amount was deducted from my husband's check, but if it were not for the checks I receive for the children, I am sure they would not receive a lot of the necessary things required by them.'

"People who never receive survivors' benefits little realize the value of even the small amount allotted for each child to a widow with youngsters to rear and educate."

Cleveland said that 1½ million widows and children all over the nation, like the widow in this area who wrote the letter, now receive the survivors insurance.

It's electricity's turn to take out the garbage!

Reddy says—
See your dealer for an electric garbage unit for your sink. It's quick, convenient and sanitary.

Morning, noon and night... breakfast, lunch, dinner... the preparation and clean-up of every meal means garbage to throw away. And for every woman who has struggled to lift a heavy garbage can or fussed with messy food scraps, the modern, electric garbage unit is a boon and a blessing.

This new, electrical servant quickly and efficiently does away with food waste before it becomes garbage. Electricity grinds food scraps into a fine pulp and washes them through the sink drain pipe to the sewer or septic tank. Potato peelings, meat scraps, even bones — practically everything but cans, glass and large quantities of paper, all can be disposed of easily. This convenient electric waste unit can be installed in any standard sink and costs only a few pennies a month to operate. Send your garbage chore down the drain. Let low-cost electricity take care of it.

Funeral Services Held For Owen W. James

Owen W. James was born in Jewell, Kansas, the eldest son of Fred and Catherine James. He departed this life February 28, 1953, at Port Isabel, Texas.

He is survived by his widow, Ethel, of Port Isabel, Texas; a son, Fred, two grandchildren, Sam and Sue, and one great grandson, John, all of Rockport, Texas. In addition, a brother, Don James, of Joplin, Mo., and three sisters, Alice Anderson and Mildred Leonard, of Joplin, Mo., and Helen Sanders, of Miami, Okla., survive him.

He was reared in a Christian home of the Evangelical faith. He united with the Presbyterian Church in Rockport in 1945, serving as church organist for a time and maintaining his membership here until his death.

His entire life was given to the educational profession, having started his teaching career at the early age of sixteen years. He never lost the ability to see the world through a child's eye, and, while he had many opportunities to work in higher educational fields, he always preferred to work with the younger pupils. He possessed the ability to secure a pupil's trust and confidence, so necessary in moulding the character of each individual that he should become a better and more useful citizen. He strived to instill in all youth a belief in the goodness of life in order to fulfill the purpose of his own life.

He was principal and dean of students of the Rockport High School for five years. As a man and as a teacher he was outstanding and was loved by the entire student body. During his principalship, a high school annual and a P.T.A. year book were dedicated to him attesting to the high esteem in which he was held.

His philosophy might be summarized by a quotation from the poet Pope:

"His education forms a common mind,
Just as the twig is bent, the tree 's inclined."

Funeral services were held Monday, March 2, at 4:00 p.m. from the First Presbyterian Church with Rev. T. H. Pollard officiating. Pallbearers were Marshall Story, Joe Champion, Joe Whitney, Ray Hinds, J. F. Harbin and Chas. Roe, Jr.

Burial was in the Rockport cemetery with Cage Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Herring and daughters, of Corpus Christi, and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Brittain were Sunday guests in the James C. Herring home.

IT'S THE LAW
★ in Texas ★
A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

STUDY AND EXPERIENCE ARE BASIS FOR LAWYER'S ADVICE

When a lawyer saves a client from trouble or financial difficulty, the client knows only that he has been charged for "advice"—a commodity oftentimes too freely given by us all. Often overlooked is the study, work, and time the attorney has spent in order that he be in a position to give advice that can be relied upon.

A lawyer bases his fee upon the benefits received from the services he has rendered and the time and effort he has expended. In addition, he stakes his professional reputation upon the soundness of the counseling given each client.

First, a practicing lawyer must have had six or seven years of academic education. In Texas this means at least three years of college work and three years in a recognized law school. Because the community at large has an interest in the qualifications and conduct of members of the bar, these minimum educational requirements must be met before examination for admission to the bar may be taken.

During the three years of formal legal education, the law student attempts to read, digest, reconcile and understand from 10,000 to 20,000 separate cases, statutes and monographs. He must draw from these an understanding of basic legal principles, of processes of legal reasoning, of methods of fact and legal investigation, and of court procedures which bring relief to clients.

From the standpoint of court proceedings, the community then expects the work of a lawyer to be a prompt and efficient trial of their causes at a fair cost. From a counseling standpoint, it expects reasonable promptness and efficiency with, above all, the utmost of sound judgment.

In both counselling and litigation, a lawyer must draw upon a wealth of precedent which he has attempted to store in his memory in order to apply one or more principles of law to the fact situation presented by his client. Ordinarily, many legal principles and rules of statute or decision are involved in even the simplest situation. Too, the problems raised by various clients, like fingerprints, are never exactly the same.

After searching his memory, the lawyer will usually check the pertinent rules and precedents. These are found in an ever-increasing volume of statutes with which modern legislation seeks to regulate many aspects of our life, and in the decisions of the courts, boards and bureaus.

Almost every problem presented to a lawyer requires research in the statutes and law books before a proper answer can be given.

Therefore, you will not receive an immediate answer to your problem from your lawyer, unless it is of the most elementary type. Your lawyer should, and you should give him time to, form his opinions from the authoritative statutes and decisions.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform—not advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts because the facts may change the application of the law.)

Self employed persons who have net earnings of $400 or more from their own trade or business should file a social security tax return along with their regular income tax report each year. If you are in business for yourself, get in touch with the Bureau of Internal Revenue and file your return to be sure you get the full social security protection.
