

Along The Waterfront

Mrs. Travis Oliver says that fishing has been good at the Good Luck Fishing Pier on Fulton Beach for trout, reds, and drum. Mrs. David Bates of Lubbock and her son, Dr. David Bates Jr., of Victoria, caught several nice strings of these, she said, and added that her other customers had been equally lucky.

J. E. Smothers and S. D. Young caught 97 speckled trout Wednesday.

One of the best fish stories of the week happened to Charles Younger, member of a Sohio Oil Company exploration crew operating off the mouth of Big Bayou, between Rockport and Aransas Pass. Charles and other members of the crew were carrying on their business of exploration when suddenly a 75-pound tarpon decided he wanted to come aboard their boat and wrestle a fall or two. The fish picked on Charles as the Georgeous George of the bunch, and pinned him twice in quick succession before he jumped out of the ring (or cockpit), and the rest of the boys subdued the big fish.

Fishing with Hugh Morrison on the Rambler Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Heil of Houston and party, caught 156 nice trout. Monday Mr. and Mrs. O. G. McClain and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Foster, all of Amarillo fished with Morrison and got 94 nice trout, weighing over 75 pounds.

Friday Earl Thomas fished a party of three, and they brought in 35 trout. Sunday Mack Brittain of San Antonio caught 174 trout.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner of Dallas, fishing with Bill Christ, Thursday, caught 97 trout.

Mills Wharf had one big party this week, and several smaller ones, for all of whom the fishing was good. Lee Golidart and party of Houston fished Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday with Harry and Herb Mills and went (Continued on page 4)

Hebbronville Takes A.C.H.S. Pirates In Fast, Hard Game

A. C. H. S. Pirates took a shell-lacking last Friday night, from the Hebbronville Longhorns. The boys from Rockport tried, and tried hard. Bracht galloped 20 yards once, in the third quarter, for A. C. H. S. first tally; a little later he tossed one to Cam-ehl, who blasted away for 65 yards and a second touchdown, but that finished Rockport's scoring for the night.

The rest of the evening belonged to a young gentlemen from Hebbronville called Gonzales, ably aided and abetted by another young man called Hinojosa, and nine other assorted Longhorns who were as wild as the mossy-horned steers in their own brush country. Gonzales threw, flipped, tossed, and heaved pass after pass, and to Rockport's sorrow, there was generally some glue-fingered receiver in the right place at the right time, with the result that Hebbronville racked up six touchdowns. Cantu's educated toe added five more points for the Longhorns.

Gonzales passed A. C. H. S. blind, and the combination of Gonzales to Hinojosa was deadly. Rockport knew what to expect, but that didn't help them a bit. The only thing Gonzales didn't do was stand on his head and pass, and he could have done that had it been necessary.

Nor were the Longhorns lacking in running ability. Several times they chalked up long gains along the turf. When the Pirates unconsciously spread a little after a series of passes, Hebbronville would run a couple through the line or around end, just to show that they could, and to drag the Pirate secondary in. Then Gonzales would start chunking again, and every time he let go of the ball it looked as though most of the Longhorn team was downfield, waiting to receive it.

The Pirates, caught between two fires, have no reason to feel downhearted over their showing. Even though they were out charged, out passed, and out run by a smooth and efficient football machine, they were never out-gamed. They played their hearts out, and really deserved better than they got.

The fireworks started early. (Continued on Page 8)

Sacred Heart Church to be Dedicated Sunday

This new $90,000 church, to be blessed Oct. 17 is the culmination of much planning and hard work by the congregation at Rockport, where Catholic worship began soon after the Texas Revolution when missionary priests came on horseback to say Mass.

Bishop Garriga to Dedicate Sacred Heart Church

Impressive Ceremonies Planned for October 17

His Excellency, the Most Reverend Mariano S. Garriga, D.D., LL.D., Bishop of the Diocese of Corpus Christi, will dedicate the new Sacred Heart Church on Sunday, Oct. 17 at 4:30 p. m., making this the third structure to bear that name.

At 5:00 p. m., the Reverend Gerald O'Doherty, resident pastor, will celebrate the first Solemn High Mass in the newly consecrated structure, assisted by the Rev. (Continued on page 4)

Chamber of Commerce Banqueters Promised Fine Entertainment

Members of the Rockport Chamber of Commerce and their guests that attend the annual banquet on Oct. 19 are promised good food and fine entertainment, according to Mrs. Mary Juergens, secretary.

Buster Shely will MC. He is the South Texan who went to England last year to teach our British brethren how to barbecue an ox, and is well known for his ability along these lines. Larry Platt, who was a professional magician for 24 years before he left the stage to settle in Corpus Christi, will provide a 30-minute program of black and white magic. Music will be furnished by the Thee Kings, instrumentalists.

Mrs. Ellis L. Clark is chairman of the decorations committee.

Ladies of the V.F.W. Auxiliary will serve the dinner.

Tickets are available (at $1.50 per plate) from Mrs. Juergens at the Chamber of Commerce building, or may be purchased from any of the following directors: James H. Sorenson Jr., B. T. Hardeman, B. W. Hamblin, Clark Wren, Ernest Bain, Tom Roper, Carl Osborn, Mrs. Roy Hinton, Mrs. H. F. Elliot, H. H. Dick, Grady West, Dick Picton, Arthur Bracht, Matt Scott, or Seth Steele.

PIRATES PLAY WOODSBORO HERE FRIDAY NIGHT

The Aransas County High School Pirates will play the Woodsboro Eagles at Pirate Stadium tomorrow night at 8 o'clock.

This will be a District 31A game, and should prove of interest, for if Rockport should win, it would have a good deal of bearing on the district championship.

The Pirates, operating at full strength this week, will nevertheless find themselves underdogs for this particular game. The Woodsboro eleven was a pre-season choice among coaches of the district to win the championship, and has won all of its district games so far. Moreover, their total record of four wins and one loss would seem to bear this out. The Eagles have a fine running attack, and two quarterbacks who can throw passes as well as run.

The Pirates will, of course, be out to upset the favorites. The coaches have been putting the boys through heavy practices this week, and they should go into this game physically in better shape than for the Hebbronville date.

Their record to date is one district game won, and one lost. In all they have won three games and lost two.

Catholic Worship Began Here Early

First Mass Held in Hynes Home by Missionary Priest, Early Records Badly Scattered Because No Parish House

The history of Sacred Heart Church, or rather of the Catholic congregation in Rockport, begins long ago, shortly after the War for Texan Independence, when, in 1838, two Vincentian Fathers from Missouri, Fathers Timon and Llerberia, visited Texas to investigate the future of the church in this wilderness.

In 1840 Father Timon was appointed Prefect Apostolic of all Texas. He remained only a short time in this area, but, when he left, delegated his authority to his companion, Father John Mary Odin, who in turn became Prefect Apostolic of Texas. Father Odin made a special effort to revive the few existing parishes and his work was so successful that in 1842 he was consecrated Titular Bishop of Claudiopolis, and appointed Vicar Apostolic of Texas.

One of the missionaries who came to Texas with Bishop Odin in 1840 was Father Eusebius Estany, who began his career under conditions entirely foreign to those he had known in his French homeland. Traveling on horseback he visited Catholics on the Coletto, as well as at La Bahia, Lamar, Live Oak Point, Rancho de Don Carlos, and Refugio.

Highway Department Officers Demonstrate Radar Speed Trap

Tuesday morning, out on Highway 35, R. E. Scholl and W. B. Tate, of the State Highway Department, gave a most impressive demonstration of the new radar speed trap that has been coming into use throughout the country. County officers inspecting the set-up were Judge John Wendell, Sheriff A. C. Shivers, Deputy Sheriff Sherman Mundine, and County Attorney Weldon Cabaniss.

From the outside it looks simple. There's a small black box with a dial, another larger black box that looks a good deal like a portable phonograph, and a third with a glass front through which you can see a roll of graph paper on which, every time a car passes, a pen draws a red mark. Besides these there are some miscellaneous wires, and a small gadget which Scholl explained was a transformer, capable of stepping car voltage up high enough so the timer would operate.

C of C, School Plan Decoration Contest

At a meeting in the Rockport Chamber of Commerce building held Tuesday morning, business men of the community, in cooperation with school officials, laid plans for a contest that may well become one of the outstanding tourist attractions of the coast and, at the same time, put an end to Halloween vandalism in this area.

The contest is patterned after one held by schools at Crystal City, a town where merchants actually worry if youngsters don't paint their store windows at Halloween.

In that community, some years ago, merchants and school authorities worried by vandalism of alarming proportions, put their heads together to figure out a way in which the children's energy could be turned to something constructive.

The Rotary Club came up with a new idea.

"Why not," its members said, "let the youngsters paint the windows with easily washed off show card paint, and give a prize for (Continued on Page 8)

Inventory Slips on City Tax Rendition Must Be Signed Says City Clerk

Inventory slips printed on the back of the city tax bills must be signed and returned, says Mrs. Frieda Diederich, city clerk. Many people have been overlooking this she said, pointing out that if this is not done, the city assessor has the power to make the rendition, and to alter the assessment, if he (or she) feels that it is justified.

Mrs. Dave Segler Named City Secretary

Mrs. Dave Segler, wife of Coach Dave Segler, was appointed city secretary Tuesday night at a meeting of the council, and will take office on Nov. 1, when Mrs. Frieda Diederich leaves.

The council passed the following resolution, thanking Mrs. Diederich for her work:

Resolution
Whereas, Mrs. Frieda Diederich has tendered her resignation as the city secretary of the City of Rockport, Texas, after having served in such capacity for many months with loyal cooperation and efficient endeavor; and

Whereas, all officials and employees of the City of Rockport will feel the loss of Mrs. Diederich substantially; and

Whereas, the mayor and city council of the City of Rockport desire to express their regret in the pending loss of Mrs. Diederich;

Be it resolved by the city council of the City of Rockport, Texas, that the resignation of Mrs. Frieda Diederich as city secretary for Rockport, Texas, is hereby accepted with reluctance and with regret over the loss of an efficient public servant; and the said council extend to Mrs. Diederich every best wish for success in any future pursuit.

Passed and approved by the city council of the City of Rockport, Texas, this 28th day of September, 1954.

Rockport Man Slugged, Robbed By Hitchhiker At Corpus Christi

Pete Flores of Rockport told police of Corpus Christi early Monday that he was slugged with a jack handle and robbed of $4 about 2 a. m. after a hitchhiker he had picked up downtown forced him to drive south of the city at knife-point.

Flores said when he and the man he had picked up in the 1700 block of Chaparral reached the 6000 block of Ocean Drive, he was ordered to stop and get out of his car.

He told police that a car pulled up behind his and three companions of the hitchhiker got out, took his money and rifled through his car. When they found nothing else of value, Flores said, one of the men struck him on the head with a jack handle. When he regained consciousness, the robbers were gone.

Flores was taken to Memorial Hospital where he was treated and dismissed.

The Fulton P-TA will hold their annual Halloween carnival at Fulton school on Saturday night, October 30, beginning at 6:30 p. m. As this is the only money-raising project sponsored by this organization, it is hoped that everyone in the community will turn out and give the ladies their support.

Texas Fisheries Produce 13 Million Pounds More Than For Last Year

Texas commercial fisheries production for the fiscal year of 1953-54 is up 12,697,750 pounds over the 1952-53 period. A large proportion of this gain is attributable to shrimp and menhaden catches, although these, in part, were offset by drops in the poundage of trout, flounder, and drum.

Shrimp production for 1952-53 was 60,713,604 pounds. This year favorable summer weather and good fishing conditions in the southwest gulf contributed to large hauls, with record landings at Texas coastal ports. Above average concentrations of white and brown shrimp were found on the upper and middle coast, along the 16-fathom line. Total catch for 1953-54 was 67,757,962 pounds, an advance of 7,044,358 pounds over last year.

Menhaden production advanced by about the same amount. Catches last year totaled 61,397,380 pounds; this year they amounted to 67,240,320.

Redfish production was up 40,000 over the preceding season, with a total of 399,104 pounds handled by the fish houses. Snapper landings were 1,020,361 pounds in 1953-54, or 24,470 less than last year.

Trout production was only 490,192 pounds this year, against 531,806 in 1952-53; flounders this year amounted to 92,460 pounds, last year there were 170,803 pounds of them caught. Drum in 1953-54 amounted to 395,556 pounds against 668,870 in 1952-53.

Mullet production was up 7,000 pounds; grouper was down 40,000; so was whiting. Only 1103 pounds of Spanish mackerel were caught; however, gaff-topsail cats, with a total of 64,522 pounds, were up 25,000.

Only a little over a ton of pompano was produced, against three tons last year. Sheephead in 1953-54 was 12,882 pounds against 57,763 for the previous 12-month period. Oysters this year amounted to 515,029 pounds; last year only 292,852 pounds of meats were recorded. Ten tons more crab meat were produced in 1953-54 than were caught the preceding year.

Bishop Defeats Junior Tarpons 20-6 In District Game

Aransas County Junior High Tarpons were handed their first defeat of the season in a district contest last Thursday night at Bishop. The Junior High Badgers of that city received the initial kickoff, and keeping possession of the ball staged a touchdown drive that gave them an early lead.

The Tarpons received, and staged a touchdown drive of their own, but failed to convert for the extra point.

Here the score remained until, on the last play before the half, the Badgers ran a reverse, picking up 35 yards, and racking up another tally.

Neither team scored in the third quarter, as defense tightened on both sides, but in the last 60 seconds of the fourth quarter the Badgers made their third touchdown of the night.

The Tarpons have won two district games and lost one, which leaves them with a better record than the ACHS Pirates, who have won one and lost one.

Their next game will be Thursday night, Oct. 14 (tonight) when they will play Aransas Pass Junior High here. Game time is 7 p. m.

Rockport P-TA Planning Big Halloween Carnival

Plans for the big Rockport P-TA Halloween carnival are going forward, and it promises fun and a good time for everyone. Mrs. Simon Lee Sorenson, chairman, and her committee have been working for several weeks on details of the affair; and have added many new features to the usual enjoyable attractions. There will be a Tiny Tot Circus, a Betty Blythe Style Show, and the crowning of the Queen of the Festival, for whom voting has already started.

School Tax Office Stays Open Through Noon Hour

The school tax office will stay open during the noon hour through the month of October, to enable everyone to take advantage of the 3% discount period which ends Oct. 31. Mrs. McLester, tax collector, says that the office opens every morning at 8:30 and remains open until 5 p. m.

MIGRATION NORMAL

Wild Birds Not Led Astray, Says Mrs. Jack Hagar

The atmospheric condition that is confusing racing pigeons in their homing flights apparently is not affecting wild birds in their migration, Mrs. Jack Hagar of Rockport, the Gulf Coast's top authority on wild birds, said Tuesday.

Mrs. Hagar said she had been reading with interest the newspaper accounts of the unusual failure of racing pigeons to find their home lofts, a failure attributed by fanciers to "something in the air that keeps the birds from getting their bearings."

L. A. Baggett, secretary of Corpus Christi Limited Racing Club, said at noon Tuesday that the 111 young pigeons released in Yoakum Sunday morning had fluttered into their home lofts. They should normally have arrived around noon Sunday. Two showed up Sunday night, 12 others Monday and 10 more Tuesday.

Owners think it may be radar, television or atomic bomb explosions, but they admit it is all guessing.

Mrs. Hagar "leans" to radar, she said, adding, "I don't know why, I am just guessing, too."

The wild birds have been on time in their fall migrations, and land birds who will winter here have arrived and others have passed through this area to their Central and South American winter resorts. Ducks, geese and cranes are just now "picking up," Mrs. Hagar said. She saw a flight of seven Sandhill cranes go over a few days ago, probably headed for the marsh flats on the King Ranch.

"Of course it is not possible," Mrs. Hagar pointed out, "to know whether individual wild birds are following their normal course—as it is with trained pigeons who are banded and are due at a specific loft."

"But as species, the bird migration appears entirely normal this year. It could be that the shore birds who wintered in Rockport last year—are up around Houston this winter, and some other flocks are settling here, but at any rate, the various areas appear to have their normal allotments of the regular species—and in the normal quantities."

Fr. Herbert Bockholt, of La Feria, former pastor here, who will act as deacon. The Rev. George Doyle will be sub-deacon, and master of ceremonies will be the Rev. William Hennel.

Master of ceremonies to be the Most Reverend Bishop will be the Rev. Robert Clark, and his chaplains will be the Rev. William Kinlough and the Rev. William Kelly. The sermon will be by the Most Reverend Mariano S. Garriga.

The new structure was planned by the firm of Wade, Gibson & Martin, Corpus Christi, and built by W. H. Wolter of the same city, ground breaking ceremonies having taken place early in January. The rectory was planned by the same firm, but C. C. Fowler, of Rockport, was the contractor.

The church, which is a modern version of earlier Spanish Mission architecture, was built at a cost of approximately $90,000.

Roman brick, stucco, and cast stone were used over a steel frame for the exterior. Inside the floors are of terrazzo; the walls are of plaster, and behind the altar a wall of natural brick rises in severely plain fashion, bearing the crucified figure of Christ.

Cabinets are unselected birch, separation walls around the altar are of redwood.

The auditorium has a seating capacity of 350. Furnishings for the new church were donated by the parishioners.

The main altar was given in memory of Charles T. Picton by Mrs. Picton and family; the Blessed Virgin altar and that of St. Joseph were given by the Misses Velma and Vivian Picton; the crucifix was the gift of Mrs. A. R. Curry and the Leonard LeBlanc family. The sanctuary lamp was given by Mrs. Bertha Lassiter and Mrs. Willie Close. Various candlesticks were given by school children, Mrs. Roy Court Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Close, Miss Grace Smith; altar cards were given by the Frank Kresta family; mass bells were given by Mr. and Mrs. Arley Shivers; the cruet set by Mrs. Hary Adolphus, the censer and boat by Mr. and Mrs. Dick Fox. A statue of the Virgin Mary was given by the Clark Wren family.

Other crucifixes and statues were given by Mr. and Mrs. Nichols, Misses Mabel and Genevieve Bracht, Mrs. M. P. Strickland Sr.,

the Edward Barnard family, and the Guadalupanas. The Altar Society gave a complete set of vestments, all altar and communion rail linens, and the altar boys' cassocks and surplices. The communion rail was a gift from Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McBride. Fred Bracht Jr. gave the holy water fonts, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bracht gave the holy water pot and sprinkler; Mr. and Mrs. Kemper Williams gave the missal; stations of the cross were given by Mr. and Mrs. Travis Johnson; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bracht gave the baptismal font; the L. Woman's Club Style Show Big Success Nets $131.00

In a Hallowe'en setting Saturday, Fall and Winter fashions for milady and the younger generation were modeled during a style show luncheon, sponsored by the Women's Club. The color scheme of black and orange was accented with festoons of tarleton and balloons in the chosen colors and leather-winged bats and holding the center of the stage was a huge silver web with a black spider busily completing its domicile. The centerpiece for each table was one of the traditional symbols of Hallowe'en, a goblin, a witch, a black cat or a pumpkin jack-o-lantern on a decorative mat.

Mrs. Ellis L. Clark was style commentator. Preceding the parade of the models, Mrs. Bill Clark sang "Trees", accompanied by Mrs. Ran Wilde. Mrs. Clark furnished background music as each entry modeled fashions from Townsend's Dress Shop. Mrs. James C. Herring was the first to walk the ramp, wearing a black chiffon crepe with beaded trim at the V neckline and on the long sleeves. The uneven hemline, reminiscent of 1918, accented the high topped kid shoes with spool heels and pointed toes. A black sailor hat and silver mesh bag completed her ensemble. She was followed by Mrs. Dick Denny, wearing a blue imported Swiss cotton with pressed beaver hat in Fiesta Red. Mrs. Denny emphasized the use of Merle Norman cosmetics. Mrs. Otis Hare, Mrs. Norman Emerick, Mrs. G. P. Begnaud, Mrs. Francis Riquette, Mrs. C. L. Grant, Mrs. Paul Wilhelm, Miss Loy Schorlemer, Mrs. R. G. Taylor, Mrs. DeWilton Jeffries and Mrs. A. C. Shivers modeled the trend in jersey for casual and traveling, smart basic black, velveteens, black cotton pinstripes, dacrons, cotton skirts with wool blouses, iridescent cottons and linen and velveteen combinations in harmonizing colors. Complementing accessories, including the ever popular costume jewelry, personalized each costume.

Mrs. Matt Scott in wool jersey blouse and hand blocked corduroy fancy pants, arrived from the Live Oak Country Club in time to show what the correctly dressed golfer will wear on the greens this winter.

The "Bloomer Girls of 1906", Mrs. James B. Jackson, Mrs. Ran Wilde, Mrs. Mary Juergens and Mrs. Norvell Jackson, entertained the group with a short program in song, presenting such classics as "Old McDonald Had a Farm" and "Where Has My Little Dog Gone".

The "Coke Set", including Joyce Ann Griggs, Bettie Young, Ida Belle Batson and Sallie Fields modeled date dresses in cottons with crinolines, wool combinations and black velveteens. Luxury lingerie was shown by Nell Clingman and Carol Brashers.

The "Ice Cream-Soda Set", represented by Mary Lucille Jackson, Robbie Boquet, Heather Wren, Tamara Camehl, Linda Mills and Julia Fox presented party frocks in velveteen with jewel trim, checked taffeta with metallice threads, felt and jersey combination with can-can petticoat, three piece wool worsted suits, black taffeta with multi-stripped, and lounging suits.

The "Lolly-Pop Set" wore Mother's clothes in miniature, in cottons, corduroy, checked gingham and jersey, worn with gay ballerinas, can-can petticoats, stoles and white gloves. Terry Thomas, Denise Picton, Mary Lou Little and Kathy Johnson delighted the audience with their poise as they modeled the correct trend in fashion for this group.

The "Teddy Bear Set" brought up the rear and included two-month-old Jean Marie Kleypas, Barbara Sue and Brownie Lynn West, Robbie Segler, Diane Hunt, Sherry Lynn Ivey, Jeannie Pro-

Accessories in contrasting colors, foils for the dresses or suits, accented each ensemble.

Heralding after-dinner nap time, Miss Joy Roe entered with Debbie Cruser and Jackie Arretta Johnson. Check how many of these electric appliances you have.

How far ahead of Edison are you?

Just 75 years ago, Thomas A. Edison created the first practical electric light bulb.

It was a feeble thing and a luxury at first. Who could have guessed then how many ways you'd be using electricity today—to save time and effort, to make living more pleasant.

You're putting more new electrical "servants" to work year after year. That means you're going to need still more electricity.

CPL is building now for that additional electric power you'll want. By 1965, consumers will be using twice as much as they do today.

No matter how far ahead of Edison you are—today or tomorrow—you'll have all the low-price electricity you want. CPL will continue to provide plenty of power for home, farm, business and industry.

Young Tom Edison and his history-making light bulb, 1879. To bring it into use he had to invent a whole system for distributing electricity.

Please Bring Pillows Back Says Junior Class Mothers

At the beginning of this year the junior class mothers went together and made a number of pillows to rent out at football games, funds from this rental going to help pay for the Junior-Senior banquet at the end of the year. Two games have been here and gone, and with them went twelve or fourteen pillows, eating up a lot of the profits and rendering useless the care and trouble the mothers put into the deal. They are sure that it was merely an oversight on the part of some people, and that they carried these away unthinkingly. Consequently they are appealing to everyone who may have done so to please return the pillows. They need 'em, and they are for the good of the junior class.

OIL IS AT YOUR SERVICE

Oil and natural gas supply power for industries.

Oil and natural gas supply supported by oil industry taxes.

Detergents and a hundred other items of daily use are derived from petroleum hydrocarbons.

Synthetic fabrics are made from petroleum hydrocarbons.

Petroleum fuels the machines of national defense.

Oil powers the U. S. transportation system.

Homes are heated by oil- or gas-burning furnaces.

Natural gas is the fuel for millions of kitchen stoves.

Printing inks, paints and plastics are petroleum derivatives.

Cars burn gasoline, use tires of synthetic rubber.

The products of the petroleum industry are literally everywhere. Every hour of the day, oil or natural gas serves you and virtually every other American. Oil is indispensable to our way of life; it makes the United States a better, safer country to live in.

You may wake in the morning in a room warmed by a furnace burning fuel oil or natural gas.

You drive to work, and your car burns gasoline, uses petroleum oils and greases for lubricants, rolls on tires of synthetic rubber which had their beginning in an oil refinery.

The plant where you work may depend on oil or natural gas as the source of its power. The oil and gas industry supplies 65% of the nation's energy requirements.

Meanwhile, if you live in Texas, your children are attending schools to the support of which the oil industry pays heavy production and ad valorem taxes. And your U. S. Army, Navy and Air Force plan the national defense with confidence that the oil industry has developed the proven reserves that can fuel their machines of war. Oil also supplies munitions — TNT for instance.

Finally, the lady of the house may prepare dinner on a stove fueled with natural gas, and you may go to bed in pajamas laundered with a petroleum detergent, after reading a newspaper printed with ink made from oil, in a room decorated with a paint manufactured from petroleum.

... And that's only a beginning.

The products of the petroleum industry, oil and natural gas, head the list of our most useful resources. A progressive, competitive oil industry, encouraged in the future as in the past, will undertake the further development that will keep them there.

the best one. Let's help 'em!"

So the club and superintendent of schools got together and worked out a set of rules.

Students were divided into four groups. First, second, and third graders were in one; fourth and fifth graders were in the next; sixth, seventh, and eighth graders in the third, and high school students in the last. Prizes were offered for the best Halloween pictures painted by each group.

October 31, from 8:00 o'clock in the morning until as late as was needed in the evening, was the day for painting.

Of course, all the students couldn't possibly reach the windows, so certain windows were set aside for certain grades. Each class named certain of its members as artists, and these youngsters decorated the windows. Half the teachers go with these to town; the other half double up on classes.

In Crystal City the plan was an immediate success, and as the years passed has attracted wide spread attention. Rotary club members, school authorities, and just plain citizens work for it enthusiastically, because after the fourth year of the plan operation, vandalism had practically disappeared from their community.

At the last meeting of the Rockport Chamber of Commerce, President James Sorenson appointed a committee composed of Dr. H. F. Elliott, Carl Osborne, and J. L. Baughman to bring the plan to the attention of school authorities and merchants.

At Tuesday's meeting a committee of merchants was formed, consisting of Grady West and Shelley Roaten, from Rockport, and of Earnest Jones and Harry D. Wilson of Fulton.

School officials present at the meeting were Superintendent Pat H. Greene, Dave Coleman, principal of the high school, Millard Owens, principal of Fulton Elementary, and Albert R. Griffith, Jr., of Rockport Elementary.

These two groups will formulate plans for the contest, which, if all goes well, may become a yearly affair, where the windows of an entire town are decorated with witches and goblins, as well as jack-o'-lanterns and black cats.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first of two articles dealing with the crystal city plan. The next will appear in the October 21st issue of the Pilot).

Methodist Youth and Junior League to Aid Goodwill Industries Drive

The Methodist Youth Fellowship and Junior Leaguers are sponsoring a Goodwill Drive to help Goodwill Industries of Corpus Christi. On Saturday, October 16, in Rockport and Fulton, the youngsters will place big bags on the porch of every resident, returning to pick them up on the following Saturday, October 22.

Goodwill Industries is a non-profit organization which provides training and employment for handicapped persons. Donated household articles that have been damaged are collected from homes and stores, and are repaired by handicapped workers in numerous departments of the organization. Merchandise thus conserved and sold in the Goodwill stores not only aids low income shoppers, but provides wages for the workers.

These are people handicapped by age, physical infirmity or chronic ill health, who are unable to compete in modern business and industry. Handicaps include age, loss of limbs, blindness, deafness, infantile paralysis, impaired speech, chronic cardiac troubles, arthritis, and arrested tuberculosis.

The Methodist youngsters of Rockport that are aiding in the drive to collect materials for this cause are: Marie Holland, Ramsey Bearden, Sandra McElveen, Linda McElveen, Virginia Holland, George Kitchens, Sue Eller, Carl Kelly, Nancy Embury, Betty Embury, Martha Ballou, Herbert Torian, Roy DeForest, Ronnie Avant, Bobby Kitchin, Joy Hamblin, Loreta Wilson, Carla Eller, and Ann Schoonover.

Radar Speed Trap

a phonograph faced Highway 35; the one with the dial in it sat on the hood of the officers' car; and the third, with the glass front, stood on the ground.

To show us how it worked, County Attorney Weldon Cabanis made several runs past the set-up. You could see him coming; then, as he entered the range of the machine, the dial needle would whip over, showing 45, 50, or whatever speed he was traveling, only to drop back after he passed. Every time the dial needle whipped over the pen in the glass-fronted box moved out and made a red mark for a certain distance across the graph paper, the end of the red line coming at a mark corresponding to the highest speed reached by the car passing. Everything the car did, every change in its pace while within range of the radar, was shown perfectly, and a permanent record was made beside which, had they wanted to do so, the officers could have entered the number of the car which caused it.

The whole deal is much more accurate than a car speedometer, being allowed only a 2% margin of error, and that in favor of the passing motorist. It's quite simple, also, if you understand electronics, which your reporter doesn't, so we can best liken it to the fathometers now used on so many boats along the coast. The radar bounces a beam off the car it's checking, the beam bounces back, hits the radar again, and is translated electronically into miles per hour, just as the fathometer translates sound waves bounced off the bottom of the bay into depths in feet or fathoms.

Our personal impression of the outfit was that here was something with which you couldn't argue. It made a record, and that was the crop. You couldn't claim that the arresting officer's speedometer was wrong, or offer any of the other shop-worn excuses. When they train one of these radars on you, you've had it.

The Secretary of State is the only cabinet member who does not have to make an annual report to the President.

Tuesday and Wednesday Pat Lambert of San Antonio fished with Jack Lawler, catching 25 trout and rat reds the first day, and 103 trout the second. Two other boats were out Wednesday, but there was no record of their catches.

Henry Brunner had a party of two out Tuesday, and they caught 195 trout. Free-shrimping, with live bait, produced some big ones for them.

A party from Port Aransas fishing the Lydia Ann area, Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Perkins, Dr. Preston Morgan, and E. A. Bristow, all of San Antonio, caught 300 trout and reds over the weekend. Mrs. Perkins caught three huge reds, the smallest a 7-pounder. Dr. Perkins caught a 7-pound trout. Many of their reds weighed between 4 and 5 pounds.

Johnson's Bait Stand reports that C. P. Hopkins of San Antonio caught 66 trout Saturday. Sunday B. E. Chesney and party of Pecos, caught 64 trout. Wednesday Dr. C. B. Bronson and wife of Fort Worth, caught 200 trout.

Mr. Rethemeyer caught 16 trout, three of which weighed 3 pounds each.

At Curley Floyd's fishing reports were good also. Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Farmer of San Antonio, and Ollie Winters, of Rockport, caught 150 nice trout and reds. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brandt and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Civileto caught 80 reds Monday and Thursday morning Mr. and Mrs. Fred Procknow of San Antonio, came in with 14 nice trout. They said they had caught an even dozen Wednesday.

Sunday Curly Floyd, Carl Kutzer, and Harold Nicholas brought in 50 trout and reds. Floyd caught 15 trout and one red that would weigh around 5½ pounds on Tuesday. Many of these fish were coming from the Mud Island, Shell End area.

Hugh Morrison's party on the Rambler brought in 8 4specks Wednesday.

Shorty Townsend had a party from West Texas Sunday and came in with two ice boxes full of trout, rat reds, and small drum.

Friday Earle Thomas fished a party of three, and they brought in 35 trout. Sunday Mack Brittain of San Antonio, caught 174 trout.

Band Voted Additional Uniforms By School Board

At its regular meeting Tuesday night, the Aransas County Independent School Board voted to purchase up to ten new uniforms for the band, as needed.

In addition to this, other band problems were discussed, and action taken on some of them. It was voted to allow any full time band student to substitute band for P.E., at their option, during the rest of this year, and next year the board and school officials intend to work out a further revision in the present set-up, provided it does not jeopardize the interscholastic standing of the school.

Supt. Pat H. Greene was also asked by the board to correct the junior high school band situation, making it possible, as far as possible, for the entire band to have more time for practice during school hours.

Another point brought out in the Tuesday night discussion was the fact that on away from home trips for the band, or for that matter, for any school organization, the school board, as long ago as last year, voted to pay for the children's meals. They did this because they found that on at least some trips children had been sent off by their parents without food or money to pay for the food, with the result that they had gone hungry all day.

The board is to be congratulated for this intelligent and humane meeting of the problem.

School Board Votes to Cooperate With Merchants, Chamber of Commerce

At their regular meeting Tuesday night, the Aransas County Independent School Board voted to cooperate with the Chamber of Commerce and merchants of the area in staging a window decoration contest for Hallowe'en where students will vie with one another for prizes given to those producing the most decorative window.

Presented to the board by two of its members who were at a meeting in the Chamber of Commerce building earlier Tuesday, the plan was approved, and up to $150 set aside for purchase of necessary supplies to be used by students in the contest, which is patterned after those so familiar to people in the Crystal City area.

It is hoped that this contest will become an annual affair and that, in the long run, it will also become a tourist attraction for the area.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Jackson left Wednesday morning to visit their daughter and son-in-law, Lieut. and Mrs. Bruce Davis at Fort Sam Houston. They will return Saturday.

Profits From Band Day At Mike's Station Are $75

Sunday, Oct. 7, the A.C.H.S. band, in an all-day session, sold gas at Mike's Service Station, the profits going to the band treasury. Total profits were $75. The band wishes to express their thanks to Mr. and Mrs. "Mike," who have been a hundred per cent for the band, and who helped in a similar manner last year. At the same time band members wish to thank everyone who came in on Sunday and helped the good work along.

Bradshaw kicked off for A. C. H. S. Gonzales took the kick and made five yards before he was dropped. Garza tried, and was hit by Smith and Mills. Gonzales tried a pass, incomplete, and then kicked.

Camel ran the kick back for about ten, but on the first carry Cannon fumbled and Ramirez recovered for the Longhorns. Gonzales climaxing a series of plays, tossed a five-yarder to Anabial Hinojosa. Cantu converted. Rene Ramirez intercepted a Pirate pass and went 32 yards for the second touchdown, only a few minutes later, and the first quarter ended with the Longhorns ahead, 13-0.

In the second quarter Gonzales hit Nathan McRae with an 8-yard touchdown pass, and the half ended with the Steers ahead by 20 points, Rockport not having scored. Bobby Bracht and Ernest Camel tallied for the Pirates in the third period to put them back into the ball game.

Bracht's touchdown came on a keeper play that went for 22 yards right through the middle of the Longhorn team, when he slipped through untouched. Bradshaw's kick was blocked.

Camel's score came a little later when taking a screen pass from Bracht on the line of scrimmage, he went 65 yards for the touchdown. The try for point was wide and the score remained 20-12.

The Pirates were on their way for a third touchdown when they fumbled and the Longhorns recovered, going on to make their fourth touchdown.

Trailing 27-12, the Pirates were trying desperately to catch up when Bracht had another of his passes intercepted for a touchdown. Later in the quarter Gonzales connected for another and the game ended 41-12.

Catholic Worship—

Father Estany's home was robbed by Comanches, who took all he had: clothes, books, church vessels, ornaments, and vestments.

All the coast country, including that where Rockport now stands, was his mission, and he had much to occupy himself. That he did this with zeal is known; Bishop Odín commended him highly.

Father Estany was followed by Father James Fitzgerald, who died of yellow fever in 1847 and was replaced by Father J. Giraudon in 1852, and it was Father Giraudon who was present as James Power, Irish Empresaria, lay dying in his home on Live Oak Point, in 1852.

In Father Oberste's book, "Our Lady Comes to Refugio," from which the above was taken, he goes on to say:

"In 1854 Refugio received its first resident pastor in the person of Father Padey, formerly of Hallettsville, and in turn the small churches of Rockport, Fulton, and Lamar were entrusted to the care of the pastor of Refugio."

Unfortunately Father Oberste neglects to give details. He does state that Father Padey left Refugio in 1855. Father Joseph Querat succeeded him there, and for ten years was pastor of Refugio, Goliad, Lamar, Placeda, and, presumably, on Live Oak Peninsula, where Rockport was founded in 1867. Father Berthel followed Father Querat; Father Lawrence Glynn succeeded him; Father Padey returned for a time; and then, in 1869, Father A. Badelon took over, remaining until August, 1874. He, like his predecessors, visited Catholics at Carlos Ranch, Delgado's Ranch, Matagorda Island, Alamita Ranch, Copano, Lamar, and, presumably, Rockport and Fulton.

"Priests of his day," says Father Oberste, "had to be robust and equal to the task of traveling in heat and cold, through mud and flying sand. They went by horseback from ranch to ranch, but gradually a little improvement was made to ease the burden of travel. Small, two-wheeled carriages called jumper, drawn by one horse, came into vogue. They were rough enough in traveling the unimproved trails. Two-seated conveyances, called buggies, hacks or ambulances, were eventually introduced. The introduction of the jumper was a great boon to the missionary priests. They no longer had to carry all appurtenances for celebrating Mass in saddlebags on horseback. . . ."

It was during the incumbency of Father Badelon at Refugio that the first Mass in Rockport is believed to have been celebrated between 1868 and 1870, by a missionary priest in the home of Judge John Hynes, son of Peter Hynes, one of the first colonists to settle in the area. This home, which at present is occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Clark Wren, at that time stood in the block across from and in front of the present telephone building, and was built of long leaf yellow pine, originally shipped here from Calcasieu Parish in Louisiana, to be used in building a church. When, however, that there was not a large enough congregation to justify building at that time, Judge Hynes purchased the lumber, and used it to construct his home, a story and a half structure, with a high mansard roof. The present second story was added later.

Mass was celebrated in the north room, called the parlor, at various times, by various priests, who came from various places in the area. Because there was no advance notice of arrival, Mrs. Hynes would send the younger children to notify Catholic families in the vicinity, thus giving them a chance to assemble for worship. The congregation consisted of not more than ten families, among which may be numbered the Driscolls, Woods, Hynes, and Wilsons.

The altar was arranged, and the hosts made by Mrs. Hynes and her two daughters, Clara and Frances Ellen. The hosts were made on smoothing irons, a method apparently learned when Mrs. Hynes, as a young woman, had attended the Ursuline Convent in New Orleans, where she was schooled in all cares of the Church and Sanctuary.

Mass was celebrated in the Hynes' home for a number of years by the different priests that would come, nearly always from Refugio, and there also were performed some baptisms, communions, and marriages. However, because there was no parish house, records of these events were carried back by the fathers to the various towns from whence they came. Some, concerning early members of the congregation in this area, have been found in San Patricio, Laredo, Refugio, Corpus Christi, and even San Antonio, and there are records of baptisms that took place here or at Lamar, signed by at least seven different priests who ministered to the spiritual needs of the community.

Mass celebrated, in Judge Hynes' office, which stood on the northeast corner of the same block, approximately opposite the present Cage-Marshall Funeral Home. This office was converted to a small chapel, maintained for years by the family.

As early as 1871, the present property was deeded to the Roman Catholic Church by Major Wood, during the tenure of Bishop DuBois. However, it was not until 1889 or later that the first building was erected. This was bound in with the advent of the railroad and establishment of an early Italian colony near Rockport. The church built at that time stood where the present structure of stone and steel stands and faced in the same direction, but was built of wood and collapsed during one of the so-called May blows, or storms. When rebuilt, between 1889 and 1892, it faced south, and so stood until moved to make room for the new building, which will be dedicated on Oct. 17. As originally rebuilt, it was much smaller, but various additions were made from time to time, until it reached its final dimensions.

Father Goebbels supervised the building of that first church, and he remained here for many years before he was removed to Corpus Christi, where he met his tragic death in a fire. Some residents of Rockport still remember the days when he used to come on horseback, before the church was built, and boys swimming in the bay would be summoned by an old school bell to come and say their catechism.

He was succeeded by many priests, most of them remaining only a short time, until Father Dubourgel was stationed here. After him came others, among them Father Kell, who arrived in 1936, and who died while at his post.

The first Catholic School was a small, one-room affair, organized by Father Grueber about 1923 or 1924, and used for a number of years. Later the building was moved and attached to the old rectory and the present school building was erected about 1930 by Father Joseph E. Sullivan. The church was also enlarged and redecorated during his time, and the present sisters' home purchased. In 1948 Aransas Pass was made a separate parish, with Port Aransas as a mission. These places were formerly administered from Rockport, but were separated because growth in population made it desirable that they have their own pastor.

A new church was dedicated at Aransas Pass on Sept. 23 of this year.

was donated by the Hynes family. This was later moved to Aransas Pass. The second altar and Stations of the Cross were donated by the Extension Society while Father John Dubourgel was pastor.
