Al Mortensen, San Antonio, fishing with Herb, caught 35 trout and reds, four of the reds being big ones. Al Smith, piloted by Herb, caught 15 trout and three drum Sunday. Marvin Taylor, Eagle Lake, on Monday, caught 30 trout, two flounder, and two drum. W. C. Hines with Red Bell, caught 40 trout.

Earle Thomas had Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Fengenberger and Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Cochran, all of San Antonio, last Sunday, and they caught 37 trout.

Last Friday, Fred Christies fished Mr. and Mrs. George Goldway, of Fort Worth, and W. R. Whiteley, San Antonio, and the party brought in 25 trout and three gafftops. Monday he had Dr. and Mrs. Peter Kelloway, of Houston, who strung 81 trout; Wednesday he fished Luther King and party, Houston, and the gang pulled in 74 specks.

Bill Crist has had a nice string of parties. Howard and Don Lee, Lee Tines, and Walter Alexander, fished with him two days, and strung a total of 92 trout and 17 reds. Some of the reds were good-sized, Bill said. Friday he had a San Antonio party, Al Werbner, Herbert Serota, Selig Frank, and Eli Bergman, that caught 50 trout. Wednesday he had Albert Sheets, Houston, who strung 54 trout.

C. L. Thomas reported that he fished Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Fulton, Houston, and they came in with 29 trout. James Rutherford and party of Luling had 88 nice specks.

Commercial Motor Co. Leases Chester Johnson Site, Opens Ford Branch

Walter Boehnke, head of the Commercial Motor Company of Aransas Pass, announced today that he had leased the building now occupied by Chester Johnson Motors, as of Nov. 1, and will open a branch in Rockport.

Boehnke said that details of the formal opening will be announced later, but that he expects to have many of the new models of Ford cars and trucks on display this weekend.

This Weekend Sees Varied Scout Activities

Two of the largest scouting events of the year will happen in the coming weekend. On Nov. 5 and 6 the annual Boy Scout Camporee for the Copano and Karankawa Scout Districts will be held at Benson's Nursery in Sinton, and is expected to attract over 250 Boy Scouts and leaders who will participate in contests of camping skills and Scout-like living. A feature of the camporee will be the campfire to be held Saturday night.

The other event will be the gathering of some 200 adult Scout leaders and their wives for the annual dinner meeting of the Karankawa and Copano Districts, on Monday, Nov. 7 at 7 p. m. at the Sinton Elementary School Cafeteria. The meeting this year will mark the creation of a new Scout district made necessary by the combination of the Copano and Karankawa Districts. D. E. Nicholson of Sinton is chairman of the Arrangement Committee; J. M. Chrestman of Taft heads the Nominating Committee. Ticket sales for the dinner are being handled by all institutional representatives in the various communities in the two districts.

Following the service, Mrs. Weldon Cabaniss will preside over a social hour in the parish house. Mrs. Paul Reese and Mrs. Crompton Sowerbutts will serve from a tea table which will reflect the harvest season, in it's appointments.

All women in the county, including the tourists, are invited to participate in this service.

C. of C. Directors Hold Short Session

Chamber of Commerce directors, at their regular meeting Tuesday night held only a short session, due to the absence of 10 out of 15 members of the board, and because most of those present wished to attend the showing of the frame town movies made by Mrs. Roy Hinton.

However, despite this, a considerable amount of business was transacted.

Mrs. Mary Juergens, secretary, read a letter from the Corpus Christi Chamber of Commerce inviting her to ground breaking ceremonies to be held at the site of the Wesley Seale Dam, and directors voted that she should attend.

A letter from the Texas Medical Association, regarding a survey of doctors distribution throughout the state was referred to the Industrial Committee for further study and a report at a later date.

The Marfa Chamber of Commerce had written, asking endorsement of its Big Bend road campaign. After discussion, directors instructed Mrs. Juergens to write the various members of the State Highway Commission, stating that the Rockport Chamber of Commerce was in favor of the project.

The chamber was also asked to help in promotion of Safe Driving Day, and this matter was turned over to the Publicity Committee for action.

Head of the membership committee, Arthur Bracht, reported that nine new members had been obtained since the last regular meeting.

The publicity chairman reported that a great deal of national and state-wide publicity had been received since the last report, and that within the next few days a new series of releases using hunting and fishing pictures from around Rockport was planned for distribution throughout the tourist territory.

The report of the Tourist Promotion Committee on winter tourist activities was given by Mrs. Charles Roe, Sr., and Seth Steele reported on the activities of the Civic Affairs Committee.

Dora Lynn Wright's Dog Shot By Unknown

There's a little six-year-old girl in Rockport who takes a dim view of people's kindness these days, for her dog, Bimbo, a small black cocker spaniel, was shot the other night, by someone either careless or downright mean.

Dora Lynn Wright loved Bimbo, and she thought that someone would deliberately shoot him, and mangle his hind leg, so that he had to be taken to the veterinary hospital a little rough on a six-year-old, to say the least. The only bright spot about the whole thing is that Bimbo seems well on his way to recovery.

Mrs. Anna Henderson, wife of a Victoria attorney, shown at work in one of the figure classes being held by the Rockport School of Fine Arts this past summer, will be an exhibitor in the annual show to be held at the Woman's Club Building on Nov. 4-6. Hers will be one of more than 150 paintings and water colors exhibited by 1955 pupils of the school.

Recent Burglaries Solved, Loot Found

The recent burglaries of West's Red and White and the Village Center in Fulton were solved this week, when Deputy Sheriffs Sherman Mundine and Slim Haynes searched a house formerly occupied by Raymond Anderson, and recovered loot from both places, as well as other stolen goods which have not yet been identified.

Mundine and Haynes, who investigated both the burglaries, were able to follow tracks from West's Red and White to the back end of the lot where Anderson and his wife were living in a house belonging to Bill Pierson. Here they lost them on the grass, and while searching to see if they could find where they continued, were observed by Mrs. Anderson, who immediately drove off in her car.

Convinced that the goods had been taken into the Anderson home, the officers kept close watch on the place, and, when the Andersons did not return, contacted Pierson, who allowed them to enter the house.

The meat and other groceries that had been stolen from the two stores were found where they had been abandoned, and are being held as evidence. A pickup order has been issued on Anderson.

Navigation Meeting Wednesday Routine

At the regular meeting of the Navigation Board Wednesday night, only routine matters were discussed. Harbormaster Jordan Weber reported on the progress of repairs around Rockport harbor and that numbering of Fulton docks had been finished.

Permanent assignments in Fulton harbor are now being made, with some 10 or 15 stalls applied for, and more applications coming in.

After approving current bills for payment, the meeting adjourned.

CP&L Donates Prizes to Art Show

Last week, in listing donors for the Rockport School of Fine Arts show prizes, we inadvertently overlooked the fact that Central Power & Light Co. had donated a first, second, and third prize to the still life division. The total gift to the project was $80, made through the desire of the company to encourage cultural projects of this type in the area.

Standing Room Only at Home Town Movies

There was standing room only on Tuesday night, when Mrs. Roy Hinton showed colored movies of Rockport and the home town folks for the benefit of the Methodist Church Chimes Fund.

The movies, entitled "People, Places and Events in Our Town," was shown under the sponsorship of the chimes committee, which consists of Mrs. A. C. Glass, Mrs. Fred Hunt, and Mrs. J. R. Finstad.

The pictures were taken by Mrs. Hinton during the past year, and showed "Breakfast in Hollywood" a Woman's Club production earlier in the year, where Mrs. Mary Juergens' hat was the star attraction; the Valentine Party at the Club; the Presbyterian Christmas party of last year; various citizens of Rockport on the streets of the town; the Christmas party of Girl Scout Troop 3; homes around Rockport; a birthday party; business establishments and their employees, and all the varied facets of life in our city.

The first show was packed, with many people standing, and even the second show, at 9 o'clock, almost filled the hall.

A free will offering was taken to aid in purchasing the new chimes for the Methodist Church.

The Rev. Dana Green, Mrs. Hinton, and the Chimes Committee wish to express their sincere appreciation to everyone for the large attendance which made the showing such a success, and to extend their special thanks to Nancy and Betty Embury, Martha Ballou, Marie Holland, the Rockport Sign Company, Mrs. J. R. DeForest, C. F. Smilie, and Mrs. C. W. Vance for their help.

Tourist Promotion Committee Meets Decides On Program

The Tourist Promotion Committee of the Chamber of Commerce met last Thursday night and decided on its program for the coming winter.

Card parties will begin in the Woman's Club on Monday afternoons, about Dec. 12, and will skip Christmas week, starting up again in January.

Game nights at the VFW Hall will be on Thursday, and will start on Jan. 5. Committees to handle the games were appointed.

Whooper Films Shown to Lions

Julian Howard, manager of the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge, was the speaker for the meeting of the Rockport Lions Club Tuesday.

He showed films on the habitat of the Whooping Cranes and discussed the day by day routine of these famous birds.

In the business session, Clark C. Wren resigned the presidency of the club, since he is moving to Houston soon. A nominating committee was appointed to fill the vacancy, composed of A. C. Shivers, Lynwood Eller, and Clyde Townsend.

The pastor, W. D. Broadway, says that a good attendance is expected for this unusual mission study school. The same type of school is being held in more than 1,900 Baptist churches in Texas during this fall season.

Tropics Motor Hotel Opens This Week

The Tropics Motor Hotel, built by V. A. Dullye, Jr., of San Antonio, will open this week after many delays due to material shortages, Dullye said.

The new motel, one of the most modern in the area, contains 17 units, and is completely air-conditioned throughout, and has a central heating system. There are nine kitchenette apartments and eight without cooking facilities. Sixteen of the rooms can be connected into two room suites, one of which has a kitchenette, the other to be used for a bedroom only. Nine of them have two double beds each, eight units have a single double bed. All of them have telephones, and Dullye says that the switchboard will be open 24 hours a day. Limited room service will be available.

Mr. and Mrs. Dullye will be the managing owners.

Mundine's New Barber Shop to Re-open Monday

Mundine's Barber Shop, which has been undergoing such extensive remodeling, will open Monday, according to Elbert Mundine, who planned many of the features that will make this the most up-to-date shop in the area.

The big mirror case and back bar, built by Rip Wilkinson, was designed by Mundine, who, after all his years of experience knew exactly how he wanted it to be.

New leather upholstered barber chairs are the very latest in equipment, the lighting is of the fluorescent type, partly indirect and part direct, and the building is completely air conditioned.

Glen Mundine will be in charge of the new shop, as he was of the old one, and will have Monte Simpson, of Victoria, associated with him.

Fur, Feathers & Fins

By JACK BAUGHMAN

Duck season opened Wednesday morning at sunrise, thus departing from recent tradition, when hunting has begun at noon. Ducks were fairly plentiful, with more sprigs than anything else, and most hunters did reasonably well. Many of them got their limits.

For the first time since Texas has had a limit on ducks and geese, the seasons on them have started at different times, and goose hunting will not be legal until Nov. 17, a situation that may lead to considerable trouble for inexperienced shooters, unable to distinguish the birds from each other while on the wing.

Hundreds of amateur shooters hardly know a pintail from a mallard, and it would be quite simple for one of these fellows to mistake one of the smaller geese like the Hutchins for a duck, and thus run into difficulties with the law. Sportswriters throughout the state have commented on this, and some have predicted that more gunners will pay fines during this waterfowl season than ever before in history.

Bag limit is five ducks per day, 10 in possession, and shooting hours are sunrise to sunset.

Last year, according to the annual tabulation made by the American Rifleman, there were 1,561 hunting accidents. Three hundred and twelve of these were fatal, the balance, though they killed no one, left some badly maimed and rippled hunters in their wake. Out of 1,558 cases where causes of the accident could be determined, 483 of these were cases where the hunter shot himself through carelessness; 1,075 were caused by somebody else.

The most dangerous hunters were those having had from three to five years shooting experience, and these accounted for 22% of the accidents in 865 cases; next were hunters with from one to two years, who caused 19%. Hunters with six to 10 years were guilty of 15% of the wounds; men with from 11 to 15 years as sportsmen caused 11%; those from 16 to 20 years of experience accounted for 8%; hunters with less than one year of gunning were responsible for 8%, as were those with 31 or more years as shooters. Those with 21 to 20 years in the field caused only 4% of the accidents.

In age classes, boys from 11 to 19 were the most dangerous, with men from 22-29 next worst. The first group caused 42% of the damage; the second 22%.

Between drab and bright clothes, nearly twice as many men wearing the duller colors were shot as were those that had on some brightly colored cap, shirt, or jacket.

Sixty-five per cent of the accidents were on clear days.

There were a lot of other statistics accompanying these, but if you're interested, the best thing to do is borrow a copy of the Rifleman from some friend, and look the whole thing over. Its enlightening, and brings to mind once more the old warning "Never Point a Gun—Whether It's Empty or Not—at Anything You Don't Want to Kill."

Quail are expected to be more plentiful in some Texas areas this fall, as improved weather conditions, and man-made aids have improved the population, particularly in the Panhandle, certain other sections of North Texas, and a large part of East Texas.

They've done it again. Several of the newspapers for Nov. 2 carried a picture of four supposed whooping cranes that was taken near Lincoln, Neb. It was a good picture, even if it was taken from 150 yards away. There was, in fact, only one thing wrong with it. The birds weren't whoopers. They were white pelicans, which are also big birds. There are a dozen and one hints in the picture that show the birds are pelicans, too numerous to go into here, but one of the easiest to spot is the fact that the feet of the pictured fliers are webbed. Cranes do not have such webs.

The mistake is not an uncommon one, however, and there are many people that ought to know better that have made the same mistake. Only last spring, a game warden turned in a picture that was supposed to be of a flock of whooping cranes. His birds were white pelicans, just as are these in the latest photograph.

The Whoopers are whooping it up this year. Thirteen are in at the Aransas Wildlife Refuge so far, nine old birds and four young—one pair of twins and two only children. This is the most young birds that have returned to the refuge in many a year. According to Julian Howard, refuge manager, additional facilities have been provided to make their winter stay to their liking. Added freshwater impoundments have been provided inland from the cranes' favorite feeding grounds and expanded arrangements have been made to take care of the thousands of visitors who came from all over the country to gaze and gossip about some of the most expensive and pampered birds in history.

Fall hunting limits for Bell, Bosque, Coryell, McLellan, Somervell, Milam, Montague, Clay, Wise, and Parker counties have been established. Seasonal bag limits of one buck and one turkey gobbler were authorized by the Game Commission. Hunting regulations for Erath, Palo Pinto, Stephens, Jack, and Young counties are the same as they were last year.

In the Hill Country the present status is as follows: Kerr County, buck and antlerless deer, one turkey; Llano, buck and antlerless deer, two turkeys; Mason County, two weeks for bucks, ten days for antlerless deer, no turkey; Gillespie, buck deer, ten days antlerless deer, no turkey; Medina, buck deer and ten day antlerless deer season, two turkey; same in Blanco County; Sutton County, buck deer and two turkey.

EXPECT THE UNEXPECTED

The first recorded traffic death in this country was a pedestrian struck after he had alighted from a street car, according to the Texas Safety Association. And pedestrians have been getting themselves killed by automobiles ever since.

You'd think that in the many years automobiles have been part of the American scene, pedestrians would have learned to live with them. But statistics prove they haven't.

Last year 7,900 pedestrians were killed in traffic.

What's the reason behind this whole distressing problem? There are many reasons, of course. Some of them involve the pedestrian... others involve the driver... most of them involve carelessness on somebody's part.

But one fact looms large in any study of pedestrian accident fatalities — a great many pedestrians killed each year are non-drivers. They are unfamiliar with the limitation of the driver and his car.

The fact gives both drivers and walkers a valuable clue on the prevention of pedestrian traffic deaths.

Because of it the driver should expect the pedestrian to have faulty judgment in estimating the speed of an automobile, in figuring how well the driver can see him, in determining how long it will take the driver to bring the car to a stop, etc. The driver who proceeds on the assumption that the pedestrian has no appreciation of the driver's problems will act as if the whole job of keeping pedestrians safe in traffic depends on him. And he will keep many pedestrians safe.

In the same way, the walker who realizes that many pedestrian deaths are brought about by ignorance on the part of pedestrians themselves, will not be likely to trust his own judgment of what the driver can see and hear and how he can be expected to react. Such a pedestrian will never venture across a street until he is sure he has ample time to reach the opposite side in safety. He will never assume that just because he can see the headlights of a car, the driver can see him. He will look upon the driver as an unpredictable factor, whose reactions and limitations can not be accurately judged by the man in the street.

If both drivers and walkers would expect the unexpected from each other, many pedestrian accidents could be prevented.

Lay That Rifle Down

Austin, Texas.—The December draft call for Texas asks for 873 men for the Army and Navy, Lieut. Col. Morris S. Schwartz, state director of Selective Service, announced Thursday.

The figure is the state's share of a national call for 18,000 men, 10,000 for the Navy and 8,000 for the Army.

All 137 local boards in Texas will receive a share of the total 873 quota. These local board quotas are now being figured and are scheduled to be mailed from state Selective Service headquarters on or about Nov. 1.

There is no state quota for pre-induction physical-mental examinations in December. Only special cases and transfers from other states will be examined during the month.

The December draft call of 873 compares with a quota of 1,006 for November, previously announced. The state call for October, already filled, asked for 534.

A total of approximately 2,500 men is scheduled for pre-induction physical-mental examination in November. Decision to schedule these examinations followed the Navy's request for men in November.

Deliveries of men scheduled for the December call will be made from Dec. 1 through 10.

With the exception of delinquents and volunteers, the December quota will be filled with men who are 21 years of age or older on Dec. 1.

Frances LeBlanc Honored With Party

One of the highlights of the season for the junior set of Rockport was the Halloween dance given by Mr. and Mrs. Leonard LeBlanc honoring their daughter, Frances, on her 12th birthday, Oct. 31.

As costumed guests arrived at the Live Oak Country Club, they were greeted by ghosts emerging from the twisted live oak trees surrounding the club house. Mr. and Mrs. LeBlanc and Frances received the guests in the ballroom.

Several specialty numbers were provided for the entertainment of the guests. Miss Georgetta Roberts presented a solo dance "The Cat Mambo," appropriately costumed as a yellow cat. The famous Indian Mystic, "Swamii Swindyl," was present for the occasion, enthroned before oriental hangings. The Swamii's crystal ball revealed the fortunes of the guests. A dance, Mocrabre, was presented by the ghosts, who haunted the entire party.

As a result of a balloon dance, Miss Betty Mae Armstrong and Dale Barnard were awarded prizes of tambourines, which they were then asked to use for accompaniment for a special dance number.

Judging the costumes were Mrs. Jack Shelton, Rev. G. J. O'Doherty, and Mrs. A. L. Holland.

Miss Heather Wren won the prize for the most original Halloween costume. Miss Wren, as a cat lady, was dressed in black tightly tapered trousers, black velvet bodice, a snug black headpiece with pointed ears and small black mask complete with long whiskers. A huge pink satin bow around her neck and long cat claws of silver glitter set off the costume.

Roger Beasley was awarded a prize for his pirate's costume of unusual beauty. Black satin trousers and jacket were worn with a white satin shirt and red satin cummerbund. He also wore high pirate boots, earrings and a satin kerchief about his head.

A table covered in white with orange and black accents and orange flounce held the birthday cake and punch bowl. The unusual cake, depicting a witch on a broom, was served by the honoree's maternal grandmother, Mrs. A. R. Curry and Mrs. Charles Cleveland served the punch from a huge jack-o-lantern, topped with a witch's hat.

The Halloween motif was carried out in napkins, plates and other table accessories as well as decoration for the ballroom. Skeletons and jack-o-lanterns were seen in profusion.

Assisting Mr. and Mrs. LeBlanc with the festivities were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kitchens, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Woods, Mrs. Charles Cleveland Mrs. Ed Barnard, Mrs. A. L. Holland, Miss Lorna Sontag and Mr. Les Sontag.

In the grand march before the judges, Frances LeBlanc led the guests costumed as ghosts, witches and other traditional Halloween characters and spirits from various stages of time.

The honoree was dressed as a gypsy in long skirt of black satin with a chartruse blouse. Her bolero jacket and sash were of red taffeta. A colorful scarf on her head and gypsy jewelry finished the costume.

In the parade of spirits were Barbara Barnard, Carol Kinsel and Meccal Rivers as a band of Hungarian Gypsies. The fairies were Sue Armstrong, Ann Knox, and Kathy McClellan. The spirits of pirates were Jerry Armstrong as Laughing Ann, Richard Happner, and Georgia Kresta. A troupe of 19th century French ballet dancers came to earth in Terrie Ankele, Linda Mills, Sandra Williams, and Patricia Zawadzki. Agnes Phillips was the spirit of a Bloomer Girl and Linda Clark and June Knippa in original costumes portraying modern witches. George Kitchens was a ghost and Billy Johnson a grave robber.

En eerie sense of humor was presented by Mary Scott and Mike Smith as clowns and Campbell Wren as a court jester. Judy Dawson portrayed a demon dog.

Modern American ghosts were Mike Johnson as a college boy, Merrily Johnson as a cheerleader, Buddy Ayers, a colored boy, and Mary Martha Shivers, an ice skater.

From history appeared Robert Shivers in a top hat and red satin cummerbund, Martha Hanna as an ancient Egyptian dancer, Bobby Helen Kitchens as a Dutch girl, Betty Johnson, a Chinese Mandarin in satin trousers and coat complete with queue and Mary Lucille Jackson in an elaborate colonial dame costume.

Other guests were: Jimmy Ankele, Dale Barnard, Guy Clark, Harry Wilson, Joe May, Tommy McCabe, Eddie Ratliff, Charles Satsky, Charles LeBlanc, William Kelly, Henry Koehler, James Fox, Carol Geistman, Roger Ayers, David Perkins, Frankie Jones, Hays Warden, Robbie Bocquet, Teresa Johnson, Patti Mae Armstrong, Barbara Allen, Susie LeBlanc, Brian Barnard, Kenneth LeBlanc, Father O'Doherty, Mrs. Ruel Love, Mrs. Clark Wren, Mr. and Mrs. Arley Shivers, Mr. and Mrs. Joe

Last Word in Farm Machinery

Curly Lawson was first in this area to use one of those roadside vending machines. He's sold milk and eggs in one about a year now, and recommends them highly—but with reservations.

"Mine's the latest model," says Curly. "Built-in refrigeration unit—heater—an automatic sign turner-on for night. Takes any combination of coins."

"However," he warned, "those machines aren't cheap to buy... or operate. They run about $3500. If you're not on the main highway like I am—where lots of city people pass—you'd better stick to the old methods."

From where I sit, you have to admire Curly for his pioneering spirit. Of course, there's also plenty to be said for those who tend to stick to the old proven methods. People's ideas differ on the subject—on any subject. Like you may always drink buttermilk with your meals... while a glass of beer's the "automatic" choice with me.

OTHER 31A FOOTBALL

Flour Bluff wrecked Benavides, 19-14, at Benavides, Friday night. Flour Bluff made its scores in the first and second quarters. Roy Harris went over from the one foot line to give the Hornets their first score.

Benavides scored in the first quarter, first on a run by Eddie Canales with the extra point made by Eljio Uresti. Their second score was made by Uresti from the one yard line. He ran the ball over for the extra point.

The Woodsboro Eagles ruined a homecoming for Bishop and put them out of the 31A race Friday night by clipping them, 27-18, before a crowd of 2,500.

Bishop's Ronnie Bull put on a good show for the homecoming crowd, scoring all the Bishop points, but they weren't enough. He scored on 80, 65 and 30-yard runs.

Scoring for Woodsboro were J. Duncan, once on a 2-yard crash through the line and again from five yards out; G. Meissner from one yard out, and L. Terrell from two yards out. R. Kloesel booted three extra points.

The Sundeen Eagles edged by Premont 14-13, in a 31A district game at Premont Friday night.

Joe Penick's second boot through the uprights midway in the fourth quarter put the game on ice for Sundeen.

Premont broke the ice late in the second quarter and led, 6-0, at halftime after Joe Lozano broke through center from the 1-foot line. Daryl Pausky failed to convert.

Sundeen pulled ahead in the third frame but Premont went back in front before the period was over.

In the final period, Sundeen edged down to the Premont 16. Then a 15-yard penalty against Premont put the ball right at the goal where Bland took it across for the final touchdown.

The case of the missing housewife

There's a roast cooking to perfection in the electric range. Ice cream is being made—in the refrigerator. Coffee is percolating. The children's play clothes are being washed clean as new. But there's no one in the kitchen!

One clue solves the case—electricity. Electricity does a lot of homemaking jobs automatically—mother doesn't have to stay in her kitchen. Right now, she's attending a P.T.A. meeting. And when she gets home, the dinner will be ready, the laundry done!

Another clue—electricity works at low wages—costs less than 20 cents a day for the average family. Isn't it by far the biggest bargain in your family budget? The men and women at Central Power and Light Company are constantly working to keep it that way.

FOOLISH QUESTIONS

Once I fell down a flight of stairs,
 And as I lay there in the dirt
 Someone rushed up to me and asked
 "Are you hurt?"

I turned and gazed up at him
 And said with a dazed reply,
 "No, I thought the stairs were too slow
 And I'd go faster if I'd fly."

I went to town and met a friend and said
 I'd been to the funeral of dear
 Old Ted
 And he asked me in quick reply,
 "Is Ted dead?"

Jimmy Kay and Janice Kay Ben- ningfield were honored with birthday party Saturday in celebration of sales this year. Chevrolet for 1956 its most finished new passenger cars. Scheduled for debut at George Clark Chevrolet Co., in Aransas Pass, and showrooms across the nation Friday, Nov. 4, the latest models carry increased horsepower, a fleetier, more rugged appearance and are offered in the broadest array of bodies ever produced by the company.

Free coffee and doughnuts will be served all day Friday and Saturday.

New in the low-price field is a four-door hardtop sport sedan. This car has no obstructing center pillar in the window area and is fashioned with the same styling zest that made the Chevrolet sport coupe a sensation of the automobile market since 1950. Also introduced for the first time are nine-passenger station wagons, bringing the company's total number of 1956 bodies to 19.

Of prime interest to buyers who appreciate the security of ready acceleration is an increase in horsepower extending from the 6-cylinder engine to the pace-setting V8. The new model sixes rate at 140 horsepower. The Super Turbo-Fire V8 which, in a recent performance test, set, a new all-time record at Pikes Peak in September, develops 205 horsepower.

Among outstanding safety features in the 1956 Chevrolet line are the availability of seat belts and shoulder harness; improved, precision-aimed headlights and crash tested door locks to minimize the possibility of doors being sprung open by shock or collision.

In the 1956 Chevrolet, completely new sheet metal complements a more massive grille in all models. The grille is a wider, lattice-work design and the effect of staunchness and beauty is aided by a heavier chromium header bar.

Of traditional economical, valve-in-head design, the new six is equipped with a high lift camshaft, hydraulic valve lifters and extra alloy exhaust valves which are alddipped to minimize the build-up of deposits. The new engine provides even better performance than its predecessors, particularly for highway passing. Gasoline mileage has also been improved.

In addition to sixes, the 1956 Chevrolets may be powered by a variety of V8's, a type of engine which totaled almost a million in the company's 1955 model production. One develops 162 horsepower and is installed in cars with the standard shift. The second is designed for Powerglide and produces 170 horsepower. The Super Turbo-Fire with four-barrel carburetor furnishes 205 horsepower. Fitted with a new head, the compression ratio of the Super is at an all-time Chevrolet high of 9.25 to 1.

Optional equipment that scored high favor in the 1955 line again is offered by Chevrolet. These include the gas-saving overdrive, power steering, power brakes and push-button control of seat adjustment and window lifts. Compact air conditioning mechanism that fits under the hood and tinted glass are other optional items on the list.

Miss Barbara Ann Pampell and Anna Beth Hart, of La Grange, visited with Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Meador, of Copano Village over the weekend.

Signing of Courthouse Contract, Pays Architect's Fee Monday

The Commissioners' Court, at its regular meeting Monday, authorized County Judge John Wendell to sign the contract with Braselton Construction Company for construction of the new courthouse and jail, and okayed the bill for designing things, which amounted to $92,000. The bill of Houston for making soil test which to base engineer the two buildings was provided.

Buck Winn, Director of Rockport Art School, Completes Huge Mural

One of the largest, if not the largest, ceramic murals in the world was recently completed by Buck Winn, a director of the Rockport School of Fine Arts, in his studio near Austin. Winn, whose murals, in all the ordinary materials and in many original ones, cover the country, conceived the design in his Wimberley home. The two panels will be installed over the doors of the First National Bank of Phoenix, Ariz., and were made of tile because they will be exposed to the weather. The largest, 40 by 8 feet, takes its design from the theme "Plow and Water Cause the Desert to Bloom," and traces the pattern irrigation has left on the Arizona desert.

DIAL SO-527-76937—In effect, this is what Southern Bell lineman B. W. Kennon is doing as he adjusts this device atop a telephone pole at Americus, Ga. He is tuning in on Solar Power (check numbers on your own telephone dial) in a key experiment to tap the sun's energy for a new type of rural telephone service. The device, a solar battery, converts the sun's energy directly into usable amounts of electricity, and excess current feeds into a storage battery for use at night and during periods of bad weather. The battery, developed by Bell Laboratories, is said to be at least 15 times more efficient than previous solar energy converters.

RED TIDE AGAIN

Mexico's mysterious "sea plague" spread southward today, washing up more dead fish and other marine animals along a 650-mile stretch of the Mexican Gulf Coast.

The unexplained deaths of thousands of fish, crabs and shrimp was accompanied by "something strange in the atmosphere" which caused skin rashes and eye and throat irritations, and which halted work in the port of Vera Cruz Saturday.

There were all sorts of theories, from the birth of a new underwater volcano through atom bombs and some people even hazarded a guess that the visitation might be the red tide.

It probably is; the symptoms are the same, and the conditions are similar to those which were in existence at the time this occurred recently on the Texas coast.

There have been red tides for years, all over the world, but the memory of man is short, and rarely does anyone remember a former visitation. However, there was such a fish kill off the Mexican coast back in the eighties. No scientist was there to say red tide, but it is probable that it was.

It is only in recent years, since the Florida tourist trade began screaming its head off for the government to do something, anything, no matter how silly and expensive, that people as a whole have become red tide conscious.

It is entirely probable that the world will not end despite the recent outbreaks. Nature has a way of taking care of these things, despite the often ineffectual interference by man.

One thing about them, they make good copy for the newspapers, and give the experts a chance at a field day in the press.

SHRIMP PRODUCTION HIGH

Shrimp production for the Gulf area for the first nine months of 1955 appears comparable to the like period of 1954. As reported by Fish and Wildlife, 65,992,000 pounds of shrimp have been landed through Sept. 30, 1955. This figure contains partial report of landings for Tampa, Ft. Myers and Key West, Florida, in the amounts of 7,450,000 pounds. The U. S. Gulf area produced 59,163,000 pounds during the first nine months of 1954 (exclusive of landings at the Florida ports mentioned). Although not entirely complete, these figures reflect major landings and are comparable for the two years mentioned.

Cold storage holdings of shrimp as of Sept. 30, 1945 are reported as being 14,173,000 pounds of raw headless and 4,244,000 pounds of all other, making a total of 18,417,000 pounds. This figure compares with 25,117,000 pounds of shrimp in cold storage as of September 30, 1954.

The original home of the honey bee was southern Asia, probably including the eastern shores of the Mediterranean Sea.

The beaver has the swimming power more highly developed in his hind feet than has any other quadruped.

More than a thousand species of wild flowers have been found growing in Glacier National Park, Montana.

Giraffes, because of their poorly developed voices, communicate with each other mainly by switching their tails.

DAY OF NEW HEART, LUNGS SEEN NEARER

Chicago, Ill.—The dramatic day when you can get a new heart or lungs, kidneys or glands to replace your own tired or ailing organs is coming closer.

Prominent surgeons today reported new discoveries brightening hopes that living organs can be transplanted from one person to another. Healthy organs from persons killed in accidents, for example, could be transplanted to bring health and longer life to other humans.

"I believe the solution is not too far away," Dr. Herbert Conway, New York City, told the American College of Surgeons. Dr. Creighton A. Hardin, Kansas City, said he believes "the problem is solvable in time."

Just look at the figures if you don't think women are wearing fewer clothes these days.

DEBT ADJUSTMENT AGENCIES AREN'T ALWAYS WHAT THEY SEEM

Austin, Texas. — Possible pitfalls in doing business with debt adjustment agencies by persons who think they are "hopelessly" in debt were outlined this week by Charles T. Lux of Austin, executive vice-president of the Retail Merchants Association of Texas.

Lux said such agencies, sometimes called pro-raters or budget plan houses, were numerous in the East and California, but had only recently penetrated into Texas, thus far only in the largest cities.

These firms, operated by persons who pose as "professional budgeting experts," offer to "rehabilitate" people who have found their earnings cannot meet payments for the debts they have incurred, Lux said.

They propose to do this by setting up payment schedules for each debt, budgeting earnings and arranging with creditors to carry the account until the debt is paid off in full.

"This sounds very attractive to a person who is so far in debt he cannot see how he will ever get out," Lux said.

"But what he doesn't realize is that for this advice and service he is charged a fee," he explained. "The fee sometimes ranges as high as 40 per cent of his total indebtedness, and usually no less than 15 per cent," he explained.

"For a debt of say $300, the fee will increase the debt to anywhere from $345 to $420."

What happens then is the "professional budgeting expert" not only takes a large slice of the money that would go toward retirement of the debts, but also piles on a new debt. Thus, instead of keeping a debtor from bankruptcy, he is plunged closer to it.

Lux said a few states have laws regulating the operation of debt adjustment companies. There are no laws in Texas that control their operation.

Lux said the best way a debtor, who is pinched to meet his payments, can meet his bills is to call upon his creditors and explain the situation frankly.

"Before you sign up with any one or pay a fee, it is wise to con-

NEW PAMPHLET TO BE ISSUED BY LAND BOARD FOR USE OF VETERANS

A new pamphlet for the use of veterans wishing to apply for land is being prepared. The following paragraphs were taken from it.

1. New application forms have been prepared and can be obtained from the Veterans' Land Board only. Such forms will be mailed to interested applicants after Oct. 31, 1955, in the following manner:

(a) The distribution of all application forms will be controlled by the Veterans' Land Board and will be mailed to interested veterans in the numerical sequence in which their requests are received. This control by the Veterans' Land Board is necessary in order that all contracts to purchase may be handled in an orderly manner and consummated within a reasonable length of time. Only a limited number of application forms will be mailed to interested veterans as those on hand are closed.

(b) When a veteran has found a tract of land which he wishes to purchase through the Veterans' Land Program he should write the Veterans' Land Board and request that the necessary forms be forwarded to him.

(c) When each veteran's request number is reached in the normal order of processing, a set of application forms will be mailed to such veterans, who will be given a 30 day period of time for the completion of such forms and return to the Veterans' Land Board. These forms must be completed in accordance with the specifications as set out herein before they will be acceptable.

(d) If a veteran fails to file his completed application forms within the specified period he shall lose his priority and must again submit an additional request for application to have another opportunity to participate in the program.

As soon as these pamphlets are available, Oliver Brundrett will obtain a supply for local veterans.
