FISH FRY WILL HONOR PARK BOARD MEMBERS

The Texas State Parks Board, through its executive secretary, Bill M. Collins, has accepted an invitation to inspect Goose Island State Park and to attend a fish fry to be given there in the Board's honor on January 20, at Seth Steele, chairman, told members of the Aransas County Parks Advisory Board that Collins had called, saying that the State group - which will hold its quarterly meding in Corpus Christi on the 21st - had included the Goose Island trip in its agenda.

Besides Collins there will be eight or ten others in the official

Steele headed a Rockport delegation some time ago, which met quarterly meeting, and requested additional appropriations for Goose Island.

In addition to members of the State Parks Board, other guests from out of the area will include legislative representatives city, county, and navigation district officials, members of the Nueces County official family and park board, officials from Aransas Pass, and members of legislative committees in the Texas house and senate that deal with the state parks system.

Residents of Rockport and Fulton are especially invited, and the local parks board hopes that everyone interested in the improvement of Goose Island will turn out in full force, to greet the visitors and to point up the concern they feel over the lack of sufficient maintenance. If you're going, call Mrs. Mary Juergens, at the Chammmerce and let her know so your name will be in the pot.

Chester Johnson has been appointed chairman of the fish fry is in charge of food; Arthur Bracht telephone committee; and James M. Jarboe has been appointed to prepare a map of the layout at Goose Island to point out to the State Park Board Commissioners the needs of the park.

The local parks board asks that everyone intending to come notify Mrs. Mary Juergens, in the Chamber of Commerce, so that some estimate can be made of the amount of fish and other supplies can be made. This should be done before the night of Friday, Jan.

Assisting the editor will be class and club reporters at the high school, among whom are Bill Hottle, Myra Ingersoll, Gertrude Lopez, Joy Hamblin, Georgia Benningfield, and Mary Lucille Jack-

In line with this program, reporters will try to cover all phases of school activity including trips, dances, personal items, school organizations, band news, student achievements, faculty doings, and all news from the school system.

We, as the staff, hope to make the teen-age news section of the paper informative as well as entertaining.

Band News Two weeks ago several students from A. C. H. S. went to Beeville to compete in District Shirley Cole, and Richard Horne will travel to Victoria Thursday evening to compete in the Regional Band meet. We want to congratulate these students on the fine work they have done and wish luck to Shirley Cole in try-outs for Regional Band.

This week the band will choose its student conductors. Two student conductors will be chosen from five trying for the position, to direct the band in the student conducting division at Band Contest in March.
