

National Polio Foundation Makes Arrangements For Vaccination of Local Children, Horton Announces

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis is staging a drive, according to Jack Horton, local chairman, to get everyone below the age of 40, and particularly children of school ages and under and pregnant mothers to be vaccinated against polio with Salk vaccine.

The local chapter will pay for nurses to administer the shots, and the vaccine will be furnished by the state.

To expedite matters, and to learn how many shots are needed, particularly for children of the community who have never had the shots, Horton asks that parents of the community sign the permit forms brought to them from school this week, or, if the children have not brought such forms, to call him at 6144, so that he can get the necessary forms to them.

Through this, the local chapter of the Foundation can learn how many shots are needed.

Mothers of pre-school children should also contact Horton, either at school or at home, in order that sufficient vaccine can be ordered for them, also.

In making the appeal, Horton emphasized some basic facts about the use of this vaccine.

Is The Salk Vaccine Safe?
Before the vaccine's use was officially approved, it was given in field trials to more than 400,000 children.

Highest medical authorities in the country have pronounced it safe.

Manufacturers must meet exceedingly exacting standards of purity, and the product must pass unusually severe government tests.

Since the Federal health authorities tightened their testing requirements in the spring of 1955, 51,000,000 persons have had vaccine injections with perfect safety records.

Three shots are required. The first provides some protection against paralysis. Two doses, spaced two to six weeks apart, are 75 to 80 per cent effective. The third — a "booster shot" given seven months after the second — provides maximum protection estimated at 90 per cent or better.

Duration-wise, three properly spaced shots provide a relatively long-lasting protection.

Following widespread inoculations among children of elementary school age, polio cases in 1956 dropped 47 per cent as compared with 1955, and 50 per cent compared with the five year average, 1951-55.

As of March 1, 1957, some 13,000,000 people had received only one shot; 27,000,000 had gotten two shots; and 11,000,000 had had the required three.

Of the total number (51,000,000) who had received at least one shot, 44,000,000 were under the age of 20. Most of these were under 10.

The biggest group reached up to now embraces children of elementary school age, with high school teenagers and pre-school children far behind.

58,000,000 Americans under 40, who are without any immunization whatsoever against polio. (There were 63,000,000 at the beginning of 1957).

The most crucial age group for immediate vaccination is pre-school children. One out of four polio cases is among youngsters under five.

Next in urgency are teenagers; then young adults from 20 through 39.

The proportion of polio cases among young adults has risen to 25 per cent of the total. Polio hits adults hardest. When they are mothers or wage earners, the resultant disruption to family life is particularly damaging.

ROCKPORT EXHIBIT AT DALLAS SHOW

The Rockport Chamber of Commerce exhibit was set up and ready to go last Saturday, when the Dallas Sport Show opened, according to Mrs. Charles H. Roe, Sr.

Mrs. Roe, Mrs. A. L. Holland, and Miss Marie Holland made the trip last Thursday and returned to Rockport on Sunday evening, after helping Mrs. Mary Juergens, chamber manager, with the erection of the booth.

Mrs. Roe said that over 15,000 people saw the exhibit last Saturday, and that when she talked to Mrs. Juergens Tuesday morning, that the Chamber of Commerce manager said that crowds even larger than this continued to pour by and see the booth.

Mrs. Juergens will be in Dallas with the exhibit until the close of the show, next Sunday night.

CITY COUNCIL MEETS MONDAY

The City Council at its meeting Monday, discussed problems attendant on the building of a new city hall, awarded a contract to Slovak Brothers for laying of sewer line past the courthouse, discussed requirements for lowering the city's fire rate, and adjourned.

Whitewing Doves Are Nesting Here

For the first time in more than twenty years, whitewinged doves are nesting in Rockport, far north of the territory where they were once so plentiful.

Mrs. Jack Hagar, nationally-known bird authority, has been keeping her eye on several nests in the Fulton area, waiting for them to hatch.

"These are the first that I have ever seen nesting here," she said.

"Of course, there has been a colony at Beeville for some years now, and this spring some of the birds are even nesting in San Antonio."

Whitewings were once among the most plentiful birds in South Texas, and, during the hunting season, cavalades of gunners came from all over the state to get in on the kill, blocking valley roads with their cars and burning so much ammunition that it sounded like a major battle.

As late as the 1920s there were over 5,000,000 of the birds in south Texas, but by 1920 there were only a million, and the last few years there have been so few that no hunting has been allowed at all.

Much of this decline has been due to gun pressure, but the thing that really hurt the most was destruction of nesting grounds in the Valley where, in 1953, only about 53,000 of the birds were counted.

Yet, despite the decline in this country, whitewings were not in any particular danger of annihilation, for the greater part of their range is in Central America and Mexico. Those that come to Texas, northern limit of their range, are only a fraction of their total.

In recent years, however, under strict protection, they have begun to make a comeback despite the fact that the mesquite trees they once used for nesting sites are almost a thing of the past in the Valley. As the brush was cleared they slowly turned to citrus for nesting places, and the northern birds have utilized other types of vegetation as well.

With their changed nesting habits, and a succession of warm winters to lure them northwards, they are using nesting areas that haven't been used for over a quarter of a century.

MOM GILSON PAYS HER 1957 DUES TO PERCH CLUB

Mom Gilson, ever one to meet her responsibilities, has already paid her dues to the Perch Club for 1957, apparently starting a new era in the club's financial picture.

Most people are content to pay the dues once, thus becoming a life time member, but not Mom. She wants to pay 'em annually, or else to become a double-life-time member or something.

Not content with sampling the waters of the Yacht Basin last year, she did it again this week. However, because the tide was low, she only went in over her waist.

ROTARY MEETS

Fred Bracht was in charge of the Rotary program at the Wednesday luncheon, and presented, as speaker for the occasion, Mrs. E. T. White, who spoke on "The Christian Home".

Boy E. Ginn was the guest of the Rev. A. Arnott Ward, and visiting Rotarians were Merritt Hulett, of Saratoga Springs, New York, and Lee Horney, of Norton, Kansas.

Rockport-Fulton Area Safety Council Meets Monday Night

The Rockport-Fulton Area Safety Council met Monday night in the County Courthouse, with Dudley Bracht presiding in the absence of the Rev. Dana Green, chairman of the council.

The group listened to the report of Jack Horton, chairman of the membership committee, who said that a large proportion of the membership cards had been passed out. Horton explained the method by which this was accomplished.

Vice-president Bracht told the Council that the Aransas County United Fund had allotted $100 from its contingency fund to the Council, and suggested that the Council determine its budgetary needs for the year 1958, in order that it might be included in the Fund's plans for that year.

Ed Beasley was appointed treasurer of the Council by a unanimous vote.

Bracht then appointed a committee to meet with the city council in regard to marking school zones on Highway 35. This committee consisted of Ted Little, Rev. A. Arnott Ward, Elva Mullinax, Walter Heledenfels, Dick Fox, Dudley Bracht and Jack Horton.

Current bills for membership cards were then approved for payment and the meeting adjourned.

Mrs. Mundine Passes Away

Funeral services were held in McAdams, Texas Sunday at 3:00 p. m. for Mrs. Titus Mundine, Sr. 67, who formerly lived in Rockport.

Those attending the funeral from here were: Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mundine; Mr. and Mrs. Milton Mundine and family; Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Mundine and family; Mr. and Mrs. Titus Mundine and family and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Mundine.

DUPLICATE BRIDGE WINNERS ANNOUNCED

Fifty persons played in the weekly duplicate bridge at Gillespie showroom Tuesday night under sponsorship of City Recreation Department.

High scoring pairs were Mrs. W. S. Pollock and Mrs. D. H. Caspary for north-south, Mrs. Mollye Davis and Mrs. Harold E. Anderson for east-west.

SACRED HEART ALTAR SOCIETY MEETS TUESDAY

The Sacred Heart Altar Society met Tuesday night in the rectory, with 23 members present. Mrs. Bill Wendell gave her report as treasurer and Mrs. Ruby Hart, secretary, also reported.

Both reports were approved. An Easter cake sale was planned and the year book was presented to the members. A social hour followed, with Mrs. W. F. Close acting as hostess.

COURTHOUSE, CITY HALL TO BE CLOSED TUESDAY

The courthouse and city hall will be closed Tuesday, April 2, which is election day.

CASES IN COUNTY COURT

Loren Willis Lee pled guilty to driving while intoxicated and was fined $50, with $21 in costs, and sentenced to three days in jail by County Judge John D. Wendell. In addition, he was sentenced to lose his driver's license for a period of six months.

Shrimpers Meet Discuss Industry Organization

Using House Bill 610, recently introduced in the Texas Legislature by Representative Harrington of Port Arthur, as an example of the problems that are continuously facing the shrimp industry, John Mehos, of the Liberty Fish & Oyster Co. at Galveston, addressed an audience of approximately 100 dealers and shrimp fishermen in the VFW Hall last night, pointing out the benefit an organization like the Texas Shrimp Association can be to dealers and individual members of the shrimp industry.

Pointing out that ambiguous legislation of this sort, based on insufficient knowledge of the fishery and the biological facts can work untold harm, Mehos said that the only way to combat such problems was by industry-wide organization, which could finance an officer on the job at all times.

In the past, Mehos said, it had been the custom to wait until the barn was on fire and nearly burned to the ground before leaders rallied and took appropriate action. Now, however, he stated, the fishery had put on long pants, was big business, and it was time to set its house in order.

Such an organization, he said, could and would have far-reaching effects in the industry. It could sponsor better training for fishermen; would aid in getting better fishermen over a period of time; should deal with problems of personal safety, insurance, communications, sanitation, research within the fishery to produce a quality product, government inspection, coast guard and other Federal regulation of the boats engaged in the fishery, and general operations of the industry.

Insurance, he said, that now takes so great a slice of the industry's earnings, can be, with proper planning, brought down to a point where it is easier to handle. In various regions, he said, fishermen's mutual insurance associations underwrite the cost of the necessary protection and collecting premiums from the boat owners. In so doing, he said, insurance costs have been out as much as 40% to 50% in some instances.

Organization makes it easier, also, to explore and do the necessary research in new fishing areas; to institute the proper conservation methods at these fishing grounds; to deal with matters like the recent seizures of fishing boats by the Mexican coast guard; to work for delineation of territorial waters and for assistance in waters outside the jurisdiction of the United States.

Production problems can be more easily whipped by cooperation, he said; the necessary statistics can be furnished with less trouble; the problem of importation of shrimp from foreign countries is an industrywide one; and sales promotion is too great a burden for the individual boat owner or dealer to handle in these days, Mehos said.

The importation of shrimp from other countries is growing rapidly, Mehos said. In 1935 only 1,863,000 pounds entered the United States, but since then the trend has risen, and in 1956, the total poundage from outside this country amounted to 68,619,000 pounds of tails. A significant thing about the whole matter is the act that

Check Found On Padre Belonged To Navy Man

A negotiable check for $125 found on Padre last week was lost by a Navy man, the son of the woman who wrote it.

The check was found by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marsh, of Slaton, who were vacationing at Rockport and had gone to Padre for a day's beachcombing and was returned by them to the San Antonio bank on which it was drawn.

"We were sure it would never be found," the San Antonio woman said in a letter of thanks to Marsh, "and we are happy it was found by someone like you. Some people would have cashed it."

The writer, who operates a service station in San Antonio, invited Marsh to "stop by and let her fill his tank." Since it would take two tanks of gasoline to collect, now that he is back in Slaton, Marsh is bypassing the reward, he said.

Goose Island Appropriation In Senate Bill

The Senate version of the proposed appropriation bill, covering the next two years, includes Goose Island State Park or a total of a little over $21,000. Under the bill, it will receive $9400 one year and $2400 the second year, for a keeper and maintenance work, plus $4200 for construction of sanitary facilities for the first year and $5800 the second year for fencing and installation of a disposal system, camping and picnic areas on the mainland during the second year of the biennium.

ARANSAS GETS DEEP WILDCAT

Tidewater Oil Co. of Houston has scheduled a 10,500-foot Aransas County wildcat 3 1/2 miles northeast of Rockport (a mile northeast of Fulton) at the No. 1 State Tract 124.

Location is 660 feet from the north and west lines of the tract on a 6320-acre lease, which is owned by Getty Oil Co. It is about 4,000 feet southeast of Atlantic No. 31 State Tract 121, oiler; 4,000 feet northeast of Atlantic No. 1 State Tract 123 an 8,000-foot duster, and 4,000 feet east of a 7,825-foot failure in State Tract 122.

BARBARA BARNARD WINS SPELLING CONTEST

Barbara Barnard 13, of Rockport won spelling contests at the Aransas County Independent School District. An eighth grader Barbara is considered an outstanding student. Art is her chief interest and she works in the school library. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Barnard of Rockport.

while Mexican shrimp have reached 53,693,000 pounds, and have been rising more slowly than they did some years ago, imports from other countries have overtaken this in the rate of rise as newer shrimp fisheries enter the picture. In 1935, shrimp imports from countries other than Mexico amounted to only 289,000 pounds, he stated, but last year this had climbed to 14,926,000 pounds and was still climbing.

He did not mention it, but in the last few days Corpus Christi papers have been full of advertisements on shrimp shipped in from India!

City, Senatorial, School Elections On April 2 & 6

Next Thirty-Five Days Will Bring Any Number Of Deadlines To Be Met Either Politically Or In Transaction of Business with Government

The next thirty-five days will bring many a deadline for residents of Rockport and Aransas County to meet, either politically, or in transaction of business with the government.

March 29 is the last day on which absentee ballots can be cast, either in the special U. S. Senate election or for two places in the City Council, for which Roy V. Rogero, Precinct Two, and Col.

James W. Porter, Precinct One, have filed.

So far, four absentee ballots have been cast for the senate election.

On April 6, citizens of the county will again go to the polls to select trustees for both Aransas County Independent School District and for Aransas County. Shelley Roaten, J. R. DeForest, and J. B. Jackson are running to succeed themselves on the Independent ticket, while Richard Fox, Arthur Bracht and J. F. Cloberdants have filed to succeed themselves on the county board.

The deadline for purchasing 1957 auto licenses will fall on March 30, and Mrs. Jordan Weber, in the tax office, says that, with a little over a thousand tags already obtained, there are still between 300 and four hundred people that need licenses for their cars.

She warns everyone to be sure and bring their certificate of title and their 1956 license receipts, if they want to expedite matters.

April 30 will see the end of homestead exemptions for this year, Mrs. Weber said. Here again, a number of Aransas County residents are remiss, careless, or have just overlooked the fact that they should get these in not later than the end of next month.

April 15 totes a double deadline. Penalties will be levied after that date on all automobiles that do not have a safety sticker displayed on their windshield, signifying that they have been inspected and are in good mechanical shape.

However, the other is the one that most people sweat out. On that day those persons who have not submitted income tax returns to Uncle Sam become delinquent, and have some explaining to do to the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

Methodist Quarterly Conference To Be Held In Fellowship Hall

The Fourth Quarterly Conference of the First Methodist Church will be held here Sunday, March 31, in Fellowship Hall.

Reports will be received from all organizations in the church, and officers of the church will be elected for the coming year, which begins on June 1.

The Rev. Val Sherman, District Superintendent, will fill the pulpit that Sunday morning at the 10:50 service.

San Antonio Anglers Stranded On Mud Island

Two San Antonio anglers used their heads Sunday, and as a result survived Texas' "worst blizzard in many a year" without damage.

Early Sunday morning, George P. Henderson of 315 McDougal, and his partner, Bill Morre, of 1737 Del Monte, left Rockport in a 14-foot outboard for some fishing, and were well over towards Mud Island when the wind began giving them a bad time.

With commendable caution they made the island, beaching their fourteen-foot boat, gathered materials for a fire, and were warming themselves around it when spotted from the air Monday morning by a Coast Guard plane sent out to look for them. They were removed from the island by a Coast Guard plane sent out to look for them. They were removed from the island by a Coast Guard boat from Port Aransas, and Monday afternoon were back in Rockport, little the worse for their experience.

BOND SALES TOTAL $8878

Series E and H Savings Bonds were purchased in the amount of $5187 during February, according to Fred Bracht, local chairman. Total for the year in Aransas County amounts to $8878, or 12.4% of the quota for 1957.

Jaycee Numbering Project Continued, Plan For Radar

The Aransas County Jaycees are on the job again. Eighteen hundred house numbers have arrived in a new shipment and were distributed among the membership Monday night to be put up within the next two weeks. The area from Liberty street to Orleans street and from Broadway street to Litron street is now being numbered.

So far around 200 houses have been completed and around 500 numbers have been used up. The area from Liberty street to Bay street and from Austin street to Ann street is almost complete.

Another project is being handled by a committee made up of Jimmy Little, Malcolm Nesloney, Bill Jones and Joe Pat Mills, who are working on ways to help Air Corps personnel to find a place to live, upon arrival in Rockport and Fulton, through locating houses and apartments for these newcomers.

The State Convention to be held in Corpus Christi was also discussed. This convention will be on April 25, 26, and 27 and details for local members to attend will be worked out by State Director, William Shuster.

April 8th is also an important date on the Jaycee calendar since on that date a new slate of officers will be elected for the next year. These elected officers will take office in May. A great deal of enthusiasm has developed, since several men have been nominated for each office.

The Christilles Return From Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Christilles, whose post card is mentioned elsewhere in the Pilot, came in Tuesday afternoon, returning from their trip to the West Coast.

Mrs. Christilles says they were lucky. While in San Diego they made a fishing trip, and the next day a tidal wave rolled in, in the area where they had been fishing.

At San Francisco they just missed the earthquakes, and on their way home, while they had to drive from Lubbock to Bandera in a dust storm so severe that they could barely see the white line down the middle of the road, nevertheless they missed the really bad weather.

The had a wonderful trip, Mrs. Christilles said, and she was especially enthusiastic about San Francisco which, she said, was entirely unlike any other American city she had ever visited. Incidentally, she said, in Oakland, where the houses are built on steep hillsides, the garages are generally on top of the house, and you have to descend stairs to get to the living quarters.

ALTAR SOCIETY SLATES BAKE SALE

The Sacred Heart Altar Society is scheduling a pie and cake sale for April 20. Pies and cakes will be on sale both at the Red & White and at Piggly Wiggly.

THETA RHO GIRLS PRESENTED CHARTER

Monday night Mrs. Ella Mae Ebert presented the Theta Rho Girls Club with their charter. Following the meeting, a box supper was held.

Assembly Coming

Next Tuesday morning, April 2, at 10:30 a. m. the students of the high school will present an assembly.

First on the program will be an instrumental duet "The Desert Song" with Merrily Johnson on the oboe and Carla Eller on the flute. They will be accompanied by Karen Casterline. Following the duet a short play entitled "The Doormat" will be presented by students in dramatics class. Participating in the play will be Joy Hamblin who plays the part of Sarah a high school senior whose mother insists she study her lessons; Roger Ayers, playing the part of Bill, her brother, a junior in college; Ray Washington playing the part of Tom, a high school senior and a man of few words; Marvina Davis who plays the part of Joyce, a popular high school senior who knows how to get what she wants; and Charia Hare playing the part of Nellie, Joyce's feather-brained shadow.

This is an assembly that will be enjoyed by all. As always the parents and friends are invited to attend all high school assemblies.

Interscholastic League Contest
Next Saturday students from all over the district will meet in Woodboro to compete in the Interscholastic League Contests. These students will represent their schools in literary events that have been organized by the University of Texas.

Participating are: Roy DeForest, boy's extemporaneous speaking; Shirley Owens, girl's extemporaneous speaking; Charia Hare, girl's poetry reading; Lenore Faber, junior girl's declamation; Barbara Schuster, senior girl's declamation; Carla Eller and Romana Fleming, spelling; Karen Casterline, Joe Lee Satsky, and Celia Wright, typing; Ellen Ann Gilley and Ann Schoonover, shorthand. We wish these students the very best in representing our school.

Sponsors for the trip to Woodboro will be Mrs. Florence Horton, Mrs. M. R. Lane, Mrs. Homer Faber, and Mr. Chester Barre.

Special Assembly
Last Thursday a special assembly was called to award girl's basketball jackets and basketballs. Those girls who played on the A-string in basketball received green wool jackets with white trim and inset white leather yoke. The ACHS emblem was embossed in white on the right shoulder. Receiving jackets were: Faye Washington, Rita Matthews, Clara Rodriguez, Mary L. Jackson, Pat Fields, Georgia Benningfield, Minerva Lopez, and Flossie Lown. Mary Martha Shivers and Gertrude Lopez received managers jackets.

The girls who played on the B-string in basketball received silver basketballs with a green ACHS emblem engraved on them. These girls were Betty Mae Armstrong, Teresa Johnson, Patty McMahan, Gloria Rodriguez, Joyce Weatherly, Geraldine Wright, Robbie Bocket, Janice Bateman, and Maud Jarboe. The girl's basketball coach is Miss Joan Robinson.

Volleyball Game
Last Tuesday night the girl's volleyball team played their second set of games with Ingleside. The senior high lost both of their games, the scores being 15-9 and 15-9. The B-team lost a practice game against Ingleside, the score being 15-5.

The next volleyball game will be Thursday night at 6:30 in Sundeen.

Is High School Too Easy?
How does your educational schedule rate in comparison to this list of high school subjects? Algebra, geometry, trigonometry, physics (four years) chemistry (four years), biology (two years), astronomy, psychology, and foreign languages (six years).

Former U. S. Senator William Benton has reported that all of these subjects will be required study for all Russian students by 1960. Furthermore, he said, these students will have a longer school day in a longer week in a longer school year than ours.

By contrast, many critics say, life is too easy for the 7,000,000 students in America's 28,000 high schools.

Most U. S. students are allowed a free choice from among many varied courses. But the critics deride this method as a "cafeteria system". They maintain that U. S. high school students spend too few hours in the classroom, and too many hours in clubs, games, and social events. They say that passing grades are reached without effort, and that homework is becoming more and more non-existent. In the U. S. they charge, a high school diploma is now considered as a right, rather than a priceless privilege to be earned the hard way.

Most U. S. students resent such statements. The critics, they say, want to evaluate education according to how much it hurts.

Americans today can point out that theirs is the only system of universal free education which is actually in operation. The wonder of this system, according to its supporters, is the fact that it effectively serves all American young people, and all their varied talents, abilities, and ambitions. And it gains these goals, they maintain, by making learning a pleasure. Besides doing an efficient job of teaching traditional courses they say, our high schools try to bring out the best in very person as a well-rounded student. They don't deserve to be criticized and called "easy" just because they are not narrow and rigid.

CHIEF GLEN BRANSON RETURNS FROM LITTLE AMERICA

San Diego, Calif. (FHTNC) — Glen E. Branson, chief machinist's mate, USN, husband of the former Miss Emma Solis of Rockport, Texas, is scheduled to arrive at San Diego, Calif., March 25, aboard the seaplane tender USS Curtiss after spending more than a year at Little America, Antarctica.

The ship stopped for five days at Sidney, Australia, to give the 140 Seabees their first liberty since going to the Antarctic with "Operation Deepfreeze I" during the latter part of 1955.

The Little America Station where the Seabees spent the long winter night, is located on the Ross Ice Shelf at Kainan Bay. The Station, which sits on ice ranging from 600 to 800 feet thick, was built during the first three months of 1956.

The Station served as the staging point for Byrd Station in Marie Byrd Land. Supplies and materials unloaded at Little America in the first phase of Operation Deepfreeze were transported by tractor train to their destination 644 miles away in Marie Byrd Land during Deepfreeze II.

The principal occupation of the Seabees during the Antarctic night was retrieving supplies from snow up to 16 feet deep, then loading them on sleds for the trip to Marie Byrd Land.

The lowest temperature of the winter was a minus 78 degrees, recorded August 9, 1956. When the sun rose August 21 after a four month absence, many camp buildings were completely covered by snow.

During the forthcoming years Little America will be the "flagship" of all Antarctic bases inasmuch as the commander of the seven U. S. science bases will be quartered there. In addition, the base will serve as radio central for the various nations manning some 40 bases in Antarctica for the concerted earth science studies contemplated during the International Geophysical Year.

Little America is made up of 19 buildings, connected by a tunnel arrangement designed to minimize human exposure during periods of severe cold.

TELEPHONE TALK

by Bob Watson, Manager

9,000 Calls a Minute

Have you ever thought, as you picked up the phone, how many other people were doing the same thing that very minute?

Well, believe me, you're not alone — you've got lots of company. Texas people used their telephones 9,000 times a minute last year.

That's just for local calls. Long Distance lines were busy, too, as Texans called out-of-town 98 million times in 1956.

This was a record number of both local and Long Distance calls, but it looks now as though 1957 will be an even busier telephone year.

What's behind the steady increase in the number of telephone calls? For one thing, thousands of new telephones are added each year, but there's more to it than that.

Nowadays, people seem to count on their telephone to do more errands for them, to help them keep up with the faster pace of living and doing business.

Personally, I think it makes a lot of sense. You can do just about everything faster and easier with the telephone.

Looking Ahead to Weekends

If you're like most people, you look ahead to weekends.

That's when family and friends get together to relax and have fun.

Unfortunately, sometimes all the family can't be on hand, or perhaps you haven't heard from some old friends for too long a time.

There's no point in letting this dampen your weekend fun. Just reach for the telephone and call them Long Distance. They'll be glad you called . . . and so will you.

Rates are lower all day Sunday, and after 6 p. m. weekdays.

And remember to call by number — it's twice as fast.

Convenience Is Here to Stay

All around the house, every day, we see convenience and more convenience.

Dad has his easy chair conveniently located next to his favorite reading table. Mother has a novel or her sewing basket near her. And the youngsters like to have a radio or record player in their room.

Maybe this is the time to take another look at your telephone service to make it more convenient for you and your family.

Why not have telephones where you want them, when you need them? We'll install additional phones wherever they serve your family best — in kitchen, bedroom, or any room in the house.

The cost is low, only 1.00 a month and a small one-time installation charge. Just call the telephone business office.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

THAD SAYS . . .

"In 1952 and again in 1956, we Texans endorsed President Eisenhower and his policies by landslide majorities. His leadership, I believe, has been good for Texas and the entire country."

"The President's task has not been made easier by a Congress controlled by the opposition party. Legislation he has asked for has often been delayed or thrown out altogether. An unfriendly committee recently cut 26 million dollars from the drought relief appropriation he asked for. My election would provide the President the friendly Senate he should have to hasten and complete his programs. Thad Hutcheson is the only candidate for the Senate who has been endorsed by the President. I urge you to send me to Washington to work with Mr. Eisenhower."

Miss Chittenden Is Bride Of E. A. Urban

In a candlelight ceremony Friday at the First Baptist Church, Miss Sally Ann Chittenden became the bride of Eugene Albert Urban of Lubbock.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. George Merriman of the Fulton Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Chittenden of Fulton and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Urban of 855 Savage Lane, Corpus Christi.

Miss Karen Casterline furnished the wedding music and accompanied Miss Rosemary Walthull, who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress of white nylon net with a lace bolero edged in white velvet. The waltz length skirt was fashioned with alternating ruffles of net and lace.

A Juliet cap accented with seed pearls held her fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a colonial bouquet of red sweetheart roses surrounded by white carnations.

Miss Tanya McElvee of Fulton was maid of honor. Her blue sheath dress in floral design had a waltz length over skirt of pale blue chiffon. She wore a white carnation corsage.

Charles Urban of Corpus Christi served his brother as best man. Bobby Chittenden and Jimmy Chittenden, both of Fulton, brothers of the bride, ushered.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the education building of the church.

White lace over pink covered the bride's table, which was centered with the heart shaped wedding cake topped with a miniature bridal couple and flanked by pink candles in crystal holders.

Miss Shirley Louise Owen was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Bobby Chittenden displayed the wedding gifts.

Serving cake and punch were Mrs. Harvey Blount, Mrs. Robert Madden and Mrs. S. W. Owen and also included in the house party were Mrs. V. D. Mitchell and Mrs. Buddy Robbins.

When Mr. and Mrs. Urban left for a short wedding trip, Mrs. Urban was wearing a toast shantung suit with white accessories and an orchid corsage. They will make their home in Lubbock.

The bride was graduated from the Aransas County High School and the groom is a graduate of the Roy Miller High School in Corpus Christi.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Novsal and family, Edwin Merkord and family, Robstown; Mr. and Mrs. Gus Kruger, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Merkord, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Merkord, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil James, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Wendt and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Henson, Miss Elaine Henson, Miss Julia Beth Wheeler, Miss James Yeager and Charles Haschke, all of Corpus Christi.

Statutory Division of Separate Estates Explained

The death of an intestate person (one who has made no will) may give rise to many problems regarding distribution of his separate estate. In the preceding column we investigated the manner of dividing the community estate upon the death of a husband or wife. Now we shall see that, where separate property is involved, a completely different set of rules applies in determining heirship and apportioning the estate among the rightful claimants.

It may be well to recall that the separate estate of a husband or wife includes property owned by either before marriage, and that which is acquired after marriage by gift or inheritance. Any other property acquired after marriage is presumed by law to be community property until the contrary is clearly proved.

Now, here is a general idea as to how your separate property will be divided if you do not make a will with contrary provisions prior to your death.

If your husband or wife survives and if, in addition, there are surviving children or descendants of previously deceased children, the children and their descendants immediately obtain a full (fee) title in two-thirds of the real estate involved. The surviving spouse receives a life interest in the remaining one-third of the real property, which passes on to the children and their descendants upon the death of the spouse.

The rule for distributing personal property — cash, stocks, bonds, furniture, or any other items not constituting real estate — is different. Here the surviving spouse gets full ownership of one-third, and the children and their descendants inherit the balance.

Now suppose your husband or wife survives, but there are no surviving children or their descendants. In this case the surviving spouse inherits all of the personal property involved.

With regard to real estate, the survivor obtains full title to one-half, and the other half is divided between your mother and father, if both survive you. If only one of them survives, he or she receives only half of this portion, and the other half (or one-fourth of the entire real estate) will be divided among your brothers and sisters (and their descendants) who survive. If there are no surviving brothers and sisters and their descendants, then the one surviving parent inherits the full one-half.

Where no parent survives, but there are brothers and sisters and descendants, the full one-half is divided among these survivors.

And, if there are no parents or brothers and sisters (and their descendants) surviving, then the surviving husband or wife inherits all of the real estate.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform — not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

3,202 TEXANS ENTER ARMED FORCES DURING FEBRUARY

Austin — A total of 3,202 Texans entered the armed forces during February, and 2,932 were reported as being separated from active service during the same time.

This was contained in a report Thursday from the office of Col. Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, to Lieutenant General Lewis B. Hershey, national draft director.

Of the 3,202 entries into the uniformed services from Texas during February, only 816 were through the draft boards, the remaining 2,386 individuals going in to uniform by enlistment or other voluntary means.

State Selective Service in February forwarded 2,550 men to armed forces joint examining and induction stations for pre-induction physical and mental examinations.

Of this number, 1,582 were found acceptable, the remaining 968 unacceptable, a rejection rate of approximately 38 per cent.

Husband Is Explorer For Family Dinner Table

New York — The American husband has become the pioneer of the nation's changing food habits.

Papa (not mama) is the new gay gourmet, the Marco Polo of the U. S. family dinner table.

"Husbands let their wives pick out the staple food items when they go supermarket shopping," said Harold Roth, president of the National Association of Specialty Foods Trade.

"But the men themselves are more adventurous. They like to explore the shelves for new and different food tidbits they can surprise their cronies with as snacks served during card games or at cocktail parties."

Their new interest in different foods also is forcing their wives to pep up their menus. A husband no longer is profoundly grateful to come home to a dinner of beef and potatoes. After all, he can get that at a business lunch any day in the week.

This new male interest in a varied diet has spurred the fancy food industry from a pre-war annual level of about $10,000,000 to nearly $50,000,000 today, a potential market of $100,000,000 within another decade.

An old-time grocer once drily defined a specialty food as "one that gathers dust." That is no longer true. Hundreds of unusual and exotic specialties now are stocked in more than 4,000 fancy food stores across America. Many supermarkets also feature them.

Typical specialty items: "Kiss-proof garlic," imported pate de foie at $35 a pound, charcoal sauce, mayonnaise in tubes like toothpaste, Japanese smoked oysters, canned kangaroo tail and shark-fin soups — even floral lollipops for the kids.

What has caused this upsurge of interest in out-of-the-ordinary foods?

Roth believes it is a result of prosperity, wider travel, the fact that millions of American men have served overseas, and the desire to put more spice in the routine of suburban living.

But he is annoyed at pranksters who startle their cocktail guests by serving them, unwarned, such dubious delicacies as rattlesnake meat, fried grasshoppers and fried Mexican worms.

"These things may have a limited circle of genuine admirers,"

Ex-Servicemen Needed For Gyroscope Unit

Prior service men are needed to fill vacancies in certain grades and military occupational specialties (MOS) that exist in the 4th Armored Division. This division has been designated as a "gyro-scope unit," and will replace the 2nd Armored Division in Germany this fall.

This enlistment option is open to men who have been out of the service not more than ninety days from date of discharge. Enlistments are also available to men desiring in-service transfer.

A limited number of married men, to be accompanied by their dependents, can be accepted. Eligible married men must indicate whether they desire assignment to the 4th Armored Division in the event their dependents will be unable to accompany or join them during the entire overseas tour due to non-availability of quarters in the overseas area.

Enlistments for four or more years are being encouraged so that individuals may receive full benefit of training and stability of assignment, and may accompany the 4th Armored Division to and from overseas. However, enlistments for three years will be accepted.

This is an outstanding opportunity for those who would like to see Europe, have security in assignment, and receive the many benefits offered in the United States Army.

Prior servicemen who are interested in reenlistment in the United States Army for assignment to the 4th Armored Division may obtain more information on the grades and MOS vacancies at the U. S. Army Recruiting Station, 122 Federal Bldg., Corpus Christi or contact Sgt. Treadwell at the Rockport Postoffice the 1st and 3rd Monday of each month from 2 p. m. to 3 p. m.

he said, "But they offend the squeamish and make them afraid to try new dishes they might really like."

"We don't think it's funny at all," Roth says it now costs about $30 to prepare and serve an ordinary good meal for six people at home. His idea of a perfect gourmet dinner won't run above $35 to $40 for the same number.

LIONS CLUBBERS GIVE LADIES NIGHT DINNER

The Fulton Lions Club observed Ladies Night with a dinner meeting Tuesday in Aransas Pass. M. L. Cochran presided and introduced the speaker, William Furlong of San Antonio and Rockport. Furlong's talk on Mexico was of the greatest interest to the Lions and their guests. For more than thirty years he has been an active champion of the Good Neighbor Policy. His support encouraged the Mexican government to build the international highway between the Texas border and Mexico City. He was one of the first motorists to travel this road, even before it had become the safe modern highway it is today. Furlong illustrated his fine talk with a large map, showing the routes to Mexico City, and with sound moving pictures in gorgeous color taken at Cuernavaca, Acapulco, Taxco, and Xochimilco. The group was interested to see a plaque, presented to Furlong by the Republic of Mexico in recognition of his contribution to Pan-American friendship. Furlong moved to Fulton from San Antonio a year ago. He is the father of Jim Furlong, whose attractive restaurant in Fulton draws patronage from the entire area. Other guests of the Fulton Lions Club were: Mrs. John Harold Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. Arley Shivers, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Osborn, Mr. and Mrs. James Jarboe, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dick, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Yeo of Ottawa, Ontario, Canada who have been visiting Mr. Yeo's cousin, Mrs. Boyd Faucett, have started back home by way of San Antonio, Austin, Ft. Worth and Dallas, visiting Texas' places of interest. The Yeo's were quite impressed with Rockport and our "shirt sleeve" weather. They plan to return next year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gurley had the following in Saturday night for coffee and cake: Mr. and Mrs. Richard Happner and "Chuchi", Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Gurley, Mr. and Mrs. Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Prophet and Mr. C. K. Thornton.

Mrs. DeWilton Jeffries of Houston was in town over the weekend visiting with her mother, Mrs. Chas. T. Picton and her husband Jeff who was in the hospital in Corpus. Mr. Jeffries is now at home in Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Snyder and son of Hondo and Mr. and Mrs. Sam James and family of Corpus spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wilkinson of Fulton.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Boerm and grandchildren of Annville spent the weekend with their daughter and husband Mr. and Mrs. Earl Johnson of Fulton.
