

Along The Waterfront

Simon Michael, of the Rockport School of Fine Arts, Miss Lorna Hamilton, and Ronnie Manning went fishing in the Gulf Sunday and came in with fifteen beautiful kingfish, that grossed over two hundred pounds. The largest, gutted and gilled, weighed in at 35 pounds, and there were two others that weighed 25 and 20. The big fellow, which Mike caught on 36-pound-test line, took him over 30 minutes to land.

These were the big, silvery king mackerel, or great kingfish, the largest member of the Spanish mackerel group, and may be easily distinguished from the spotted kingfish or cero mackerel by the lack of spotting on its sides, its grayish silver color, the lack of the line that runs down the middle of the cero on either side, and the sharp dip of the lateral line just below the dorsal. In the cero that lateral is more regularly curved, and the fish is often mistaken; when small, for a Spanish mackerel. With the great king there is never any doubt, for whatever else it may look like, its color is entirely different from either of the other two.

Kingfish inhabit the tropical Atlantic, from Africa to the Gulf of Mexico, in immense numbers, and are common throughout the West Indies, ranging south to Brazil. They occur off both coasts of Florida and are common as far north as New York in summer. They inhabit the shores of Mississippi, Alabama, Texas, Mexico, and the Caribbean countries. However, they do not seem to inhabit the Louisiana in any great abundance, possibly because of the great discharge of silt from the Mississippi. For this reason, and others, it is extremely doubtful that the populations of the eastern and western gulfs mingle. Those east of the river probably belong to the Florida population; those on the west to the Caribbean.

On the Texas coast a few scattering fish appear in April, but the big schools do not appear until May and they remain from then until September or October.

Along much of the coast the kings appear only in scattered schools, but at certain spots they congregate in huge numbers over shallow reefs and thousands may be caught by charter boats operating out of Groveson, Freeport, Port Arthur, and Port Aransas, in a single day.

Oddly enough, although their favorite food appears to be squid when it is obtainable, extensive shrimping operations have changed the habits of these fish. The frequently follow the shrimping fleet, like the gulls and porpoises, bums feeding on scrap fish and shrimp that the shrimpers throw overboard.

A school feeding on live bait at the surface is a sight long remembered. First a few splashes break the water; then a whole patch of sea turns to foam. Up from the water shoots a kingfish—higher and higher—until twenty or twenty-five feet above the sea arcs over (his torpedo shape and great forked tail etched against the sky) and drops back into the sea, head first, to disappear in the depths.

Over all hangs a cloud of gulls and terns, screaming, dashing down into the fray to snatch a bit of fish, then rising again, fighting off would-be robbers until the tidbit is swallowed. Then they plunge into the turmoil again and again until suddenly the fish disappears, the sea becomes smooth, and the birds once more take up their oceanic patrol.

Fishing in the neighborhood of the Good Luck Pier at Fulton, has been good, according to Travis Oliver, although live bait has been scarce. Some trout are being caught on dead bait, and gaffs are being bit on almost anything in the way of either shrimp or cut bait.

Oliver reports that, beginning this week, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Stratton, formerly of Lubbock and Corpus Christi, will take over and operate the pier. They will move to Fulton this week.

New 156th Judgeship Is Filled

Bee County Judge Joe Wade Wednesday was appointed judge of the newly-created 156th Judicial District.

Wade was notified of his appointment from Gov. Daniel Wednesday afternoon. The appointment is effective Sept. 1.

Wade said he will notify members of the Bee County Commissioners Court Thursday of his appointment to the district judgeship. He said he will submit a formal resignation as county judge, effective August 31, at the regular meeting of the commissioners court there Saturday.

Wade's appointment to the post has been anticipated for several months. He had been endorsed by the members of the bar in all five counties of the new district.

Wade has been county judge since January 1947.

The new district created by the last session of the legislature will have jurisdiction over civil matters only. It will include the counties of Aransas, San Patricio, Bee, Live Oak and McMullen.

The bill creating the district calls for two terms each year in each county. The schedule set out is Aransas County, beginning on the first Monday in May and on the fourth Monday in October; San Patricio, first Monday in June and the first Monday in December; Bee, first Monday in February and fourth Monday in August; Live Oak, third Monday in March and first Monday in October; McMullen, third Monday in April and third Monday in November.

Texas Shrimp Landings 4.4 Million Pounds Above Last Year's Catch

Landings of shrimp at gulf ports during 1956 totaled 109.4 million pounds, with a dockside value of $69.6 million dollars during 1956, according to the latest release by the Fish and Wildlife Service.

Embodied in a little pamphlet called "Shrimp Landings", this is the first time that detailed information has been given on the fishery. Three varieties of shrimp—pink, brown, and white—made up the bulk of the catch. Browns accounted for 50%; pinks amounted to 27% and whites furnished 22% of the total, while sea bobs made up the remaining one per cent.

Headless shrimp numbering from ten to 40 to the pound accounted for 77.6 million pounds, while shrimp running 40-67 totaled 20.1 million. The remainder averaged over sixty-eight to the pound when headed.

October produced the most shrimp, with 16.3 million pounds, followed by August when fishermen caught 13.2 million pounds head-off, as are all weights given here.

Trawlers made over 142,000 fishing trips during the year, and they combined fleet fished 164,000 twenty-four hour daws to make the catch.

Twenty-eight percent of the catch came from waters between the mouth of the Mississippi and Texas; 23% was caught off Texas; fourteen percent came from the high seas off Oregon and Campeche, Mexico.

Coastal waters between Pensacola, Florida, and the mouth of the Mississippi produced thirteen percent; twelve percent came from the Sabinal-Torugas fishing area of Florida, and nine percent from the high seas off the Mexican coast, west of 94° West longitude. Only a little more than one percent was caught between Apalachicola and Pensacola, Florida.

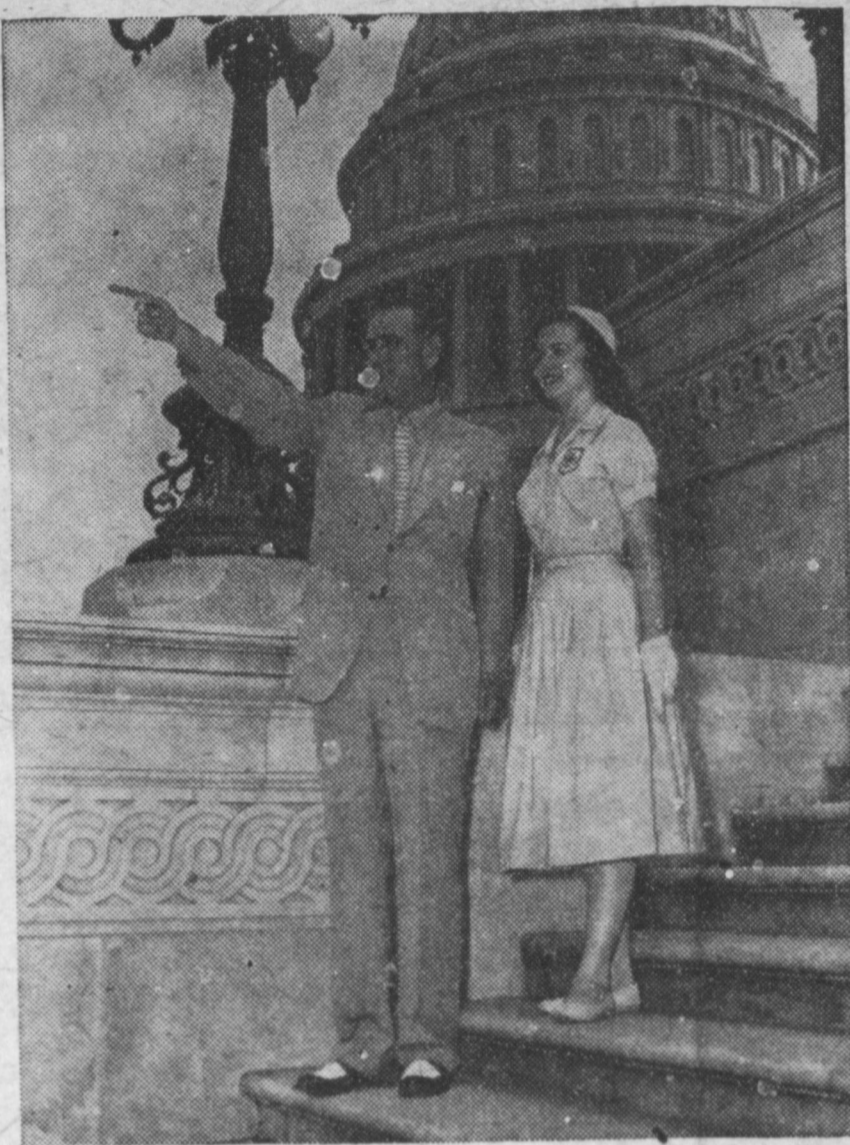

There is remarkably little difference in the overall catch for the first six months of 1957 and that for a similar period a year ago, but there is about 4.4 million more pounds produced from Texas waters this year than last. Figures given show 1957 first, 1956 second, and are as follows:

Florida (West Coast) 13,663,000; 15,018,000; Alabama, 716,000; 149,000; Mississippi, 2,182,000; 1,710,000; Louisiana, 6,528,000; 9,751,000; Texas, 11,821,000; 7,447,000; total, 34,910,000; 34,075,000 pounds.

APPEASEMENT

Dan Connolly and Paul Kunka caught five school tuna from their outboard skiff off Chatham, but had to feed two of them to a belligerent shark. After the shark made three passes trying to bite the propeller they tossed him a 50-lb. tuna. The shark tore it to bits and came back. The second tuna satisfied him. — Frank Woolner, Worcester (Mass.) Gazette.

Many People Contribute Time, Money, Effort to Make The Rockport Scouting Work, Helped by the United Fund

Rockport has over a hundred boys enrolled in its Cub Pack, Boy Scout Troop, and Explorer Post, largely because of the unpaid but devoted efforts of a number of unselfish citizens in the community, who have given unstintingly of their time and funds to make the program available to the boys of Aransas County.

Of course, the fact that there are a hundred boys enrolled does not necessarily mean that there

Jackson Family Wrecked While On Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Jackson and family, while en route to Mrs. Jackson's old home, Millersburg, Pennsylvania, last Sunday, suffered a bad car accident between Covington and Bogalusa, La.

While crossing a bridge, the Jacksons were hit head on, by a driver that had pulled out from behind an oncoming car, and demolished their car.

Jim Jackson, who was driving, Nan, and Nan's cousin, from Millersburg, Miss Suzanne Gilbert, who had been visiting here, were all hospitalized. Jim, who had one broken rib and various cuts on his face, was taken to the Community Medical Center, in Bogalusa. Miss Gilbert and Nan were taken to St. Tammany's Parish Hospital in Covington, La.

Upon examination it was found that Nan had a broken ankle and broken nose, and that Miss Gilbert had a knee injury.

Mrs. Jackson, Molly, and the two boys, who were riding in the back seat of the Jackson station wagon, were uninjured, and stayed in Bogalusa until Norvell Jackson, who left here Monday morning, arrived.

At that time the two girls were moved to Bogalusa Hospital. The Jacksons were taking Miss Gilbert home, and had intended to stay for the Millersburg Sesquicentennial.

At last reports everyone was doing as well as could be expected.

Football Practice Starts Next Mon.

Football practice for the Aransas County Pirates will begin at Pirate Field at 6:00 a. m., Monday, August 26, according to Head Coach Melvin Borchert, who asks all interested candidates to report the day before, at 3 o'clock, to the field house where plans for the coming season will be outlined.

There will be two practices a day for the first week, Borchert said. The morning session will be from 6 to 8 a. m., and the afternoon from 5 to 7 in the evening, with skull practice starting at 4 p. m. and lasting for an hour before the evening practice.

Twelve lettermen are expected to return for the first practice. These include center Jerry Iles; guards Bobby Close, Mickey Castlerline, and Curtis Johnson; tackles Jim Weatherly, Clyde Townsend, and Victor Torres; and Mike Townsend; quarter backs Danny Adams, Robert Shivers; and half-backs John Cabaniss and Eugene Satsky.

Forty minutes of practice will involve individual group work, and sixty minutes of each session to practice as a team. Pat Smith will coach the guards in the group sessions; Borchert will handle the tackles; Billy Bates will be in charge of the ends; and assistant head coach Dave Segler will put the backs through their paces.

Scrimmages are planned with neighboring schools for August 31 and September 2nd, and there will be more night practices, Coach Borchert said.

The schedule for this year is as follows: September 6, Sinton, here; September 13, Aransas Pass, here; September 20, West Oso, there; September 27, open; October 4, Mathis, here; October 11, Woodshoro, there; October 18, Flour luff, here; October 25, Orange Grove, here; November 1, Tuloso-Midway, there; November 8, Ingleside, here; November 15, Bishop, there.

Coach Borchert hazarded no guess as to the sort of team he would have, but expects about fifty boys to report, a number of which have recently moved to the county.

Dr. Tom Dyal, of Bay City, will occupy the pulpit at the First Presbyterian Church on Sunday, in the absence of the Rev. Arnett Ward, who will be at the Synod's Senior High Conference at the Ranch.

DRIVERS' LICENSE EXAMINATIONS POSTPONED

There will be no drivers' license examinations held this week, according to Mrs. Jordan Weber, of the Aransas County Sheriff's office.

this is a sort of preview of the national races that will be held the following weekend at Great Bend, Kansas, and there'll be some top eliminators at Rockport. This is about the last chance their owners will have to try them out in competition before they go to Kansas on Labor Day, so I expect some very fast times," Atkinson said.

"Fellows have called me from Dallas, and there will be big contingents from San Antonio and Houston, a lot from the Valley, some from Laredo and Victoria, and, of course, we're going to have 75 or 80 from Corpus Christi and maybe more."

One of the fastest cars in the Corpus Christi area is the Shiftless Madam, owned and driven by Jimmy Hutton, of Alice. The Madam's transmission and motor started out on an Oldsmobile, but somewhere along the line they got tangled up with a hot rod and had won over seventy races before Jimmy took them and started building his present bomb, which took him about six or eight months to complete.

With her he has won a string of trophies in the A open gas class, and at Edinburg was top eliminator over nitro-powered cars.

The Madam is a speedy lady, with a top time of 121.85, although on the Fourth of July she won at Rockport with 116.88 in her class, and was eliminated by Gene Brown's Cadillac-powered sling-shot dragster which turned up 137.40 miles an hour to do it.

Another Cad-powered job that will be there is the '31 model A roadster driven by Melvin Bevil and built by Ken Atkinson, who drove it to a new record over the Bonneville Salt Flats in the national races there last year. The Class D roadster, which made the two-day run at an average of 153.910, has been burning up the tracks ever since, and also holds records at Salt Lake City San Antonio, Laredo, Edinburg, Houston, New Braunfels and Rockport.

Built as a tow car to handle Bevil's roadster, Atkinson's own '52 customized Ford is no slouch itself when it comes to getting on down the track, for under that sleek hood hides a supercharged, '57 Cadillac mill that can really wind up.

All these, and top cars from the rest of Texas will be at Rockport on August 25, along with an expected six or seven thousand people.

Entries continue to pour in according to Atkinson, who says that the Association is also considering enlarging the affair by introduction of Midget cars as an added attraction.

The time trials will start at 7 a. m., Atkinson said, and eliminations will start at 1 p. m.

There will be about 75 cars from Corpus Christi, and the Poor Boys Club and the Alamo Timing Association are bringing 30 or 40 from San Antonio. The Greater Houston Timing Association has promised a number of its best cars and drivers, and so has Dallas. Other clubs from South Texas include the Laredo Road Runners, with 8 or 10 cars; the Rio Grande Valley Timing Association, with between twenty and thirty; the Robstown Rebels, with eight or ten; a number from Victoria, and eight or ten from Austin.

There will be six stock car classes, Atkinson said. Other classes will include stock cars with big racing motors, of which there will be four; six classes for motorcycles; and three classes of altered coupes and sedans.

"We also intend to run all of the fuel classes," he said, along with these classes of street roadsters, three classes of modified roadsters, three classes of g-s roadsters, and the regular dragsters. There will also be three classes of sports cars, and a four cylinder class.

Atkinson says that every precaution will be taken to operate the meet safely.

BANK MOVING IN ON SITE OF ROCKPORT "BOOM" HOTEL

The following story by Mrs. S. F. Jackson appeared in the Corpus Christi Caller:

The foundation is being laid for the new First National Bank building on the site of the old Aransas Hotel, one of the most colorful resort hotels on the coast during the big "boom" period.

The 100-room, four-story hotel covered a block of ground and was the largest frame building in the South in the 1890's. A large light shone from the cupola but it caused confusion for ships at sea so its use was discontinued.

A flag pole on top of the cupola made the structure visible for a great distance. According to an old story, a man named Hamilton won a $25 bet for planting his hat on top of the pole.

After a short time, the name of the hotel was changed to Del Mar.

Col. John H. Traylor, former resident of Dallas, built the structure when he was president of the Aransas Land Company, a million dollar corporation composed of Dallas citizens, which bought up all available property and auctioned off lots.

Wide verandas encircled the first and second floors. Orchestras played in the large parlors each night as the guests played cards or talked, or in the dining room for dancing. Every Saturday night was "Big Dance Night" and one summer an all-girl orchestra from Waco furnished the music.

Gov. Hogg once vacationed there, and, as was the custom, the town people joined the crowd. Mrs. R. H. Wood, member of a prominent ranch family led the grand march with Gov. Hogg and the closing march was led by A. L. Bruhl and Miss Hattie Fulton, who later became Mrs. Bruhl.

The dining room could accommodate 100 couples for dancing and was the highlight of the social life of the hotel with Robert H. Traylor, son of the owner, Albert Oertling and Bruhl listed among the Beau Brummels of the day.

A yacht, owned by Traylor, was at the disposal of the guests, while surreys and hacks from Thompson's Livery Stables were available for trips over the peninsula. Bailey's Pavilion, over the bay and near the hotel, furnished bathing facilities for the guests and theatricals put on by traveling troupes. The pavilion was equipped with a stage and all the properties.

Orchestras played twice daily in the dining room where the cuisine was above reproach and turtle steaks were on the bill of fare every day. The hotel's own bakery was located on the ground floor and choice cakes and tasty pastries tempted the appetites of the most fastidious boarders. Practically all the furniture in the buildings, including bureaus and wardrobes in the bedrooms, were made by the convicts at the Huntsville Prison.

Of interest to guests and townspeople alike, was the exhibit of stuffed birds which Professor Atwater maintained in his suite and later gave to the Zoo at Brackenridge Park at San Antonio.

Milton Everett of San Antonio was General Passenger Agent for the SA&AP Railroad and E. H. Norvell of Rockport, Immigration Agent. Through their efforts, excursion trains were run to Rockport every weekend during the summer season from various points in Texas with a low rate. A round trip to San Antonio was $2.50 a person.

The Del Mar Hotel was in its heyday but could not accommodate the crowds. Neither could the other hotels, the Bayview Inn and the Morris Hotel. Norvell, would canvass the residential district of the town and speak for every available spare room, hall and latticed porch (no screen porches in those days) to accommodate the overflow, generally at 50 cents a bed.

Commercial boats took those who cared for sailing out on the bay for a nominal sum while surreys and hacks lined up in front of the hotels to show the windswept live oaks to the city excursionists.

The structure burned March 2, 1919, six months before the September hurricane struck the Texas coast in this area.

It had been condemned for some time and remarks often heard were if the building located in the very center of the business district, was destroyed by fire, the prevailing wind would determine which end of the town would go with it.

There was no wind stirring when it happened at 2 a. m. and no other buildings were sacrificed, although plate glass windows in nearby business houses were cracked and paint blistered.

SOUTHWEST CONFERENCE FOOTBALL COVERAGE PLANNED BY HUMBLE

Humble Oil and Refining Company today announced the most comprehensive radio and television coverage of southwestern football in the 24 seasons since it first began to sponsor radio broadcasts of Southwest Conference games in 1934.

Included in the comprehensive football coverage this year will be regional telecasts of three Southwest Conference games over a network of 24 TV stations and radio broadcasts of 71 games. More than 120 radio stations will be used to bring the game broadcasts to all parts of Texas.

Radio broadcasts will be brought to Texas homes from such places as Berkeley, California; Atlanta, Georgia; Columbus, Ohio; and Memphis, Tennessee. It is estimated that radio and TV crews will travel more than 150,000 miles during the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Freeman and children of Denver, Colo. left Thursday after spending 2½ months vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Morgan and son left last Wednesday for Hixson, Tenn. where they will visit his parents for a week.

Mrs. A. A. Prda and son of Jourdanton and Mrs. Hilda Wagner of Pleasanton spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Junior H. Wagner.

Culley Roberts was admitted to Baptist Memorial Hospital in Houston for observation. Mrs. R. A. Roberts left Monday to be with her son.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brassell and sons of Beebe, Texas, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Slim Haynes.

TEXAS IN REVIEW

"Weekend Warriors," — Marine reservists who fly each month to keep their fighting trim, will be an interesting feature of "Texas in Review" next week. The Humble Company's television program will show the Marine flyers at Dallas on their regular training flight.

The work of medical assistants in Texas' hospitals will also be seen. These lab technicians are a vital part of any hospital's function but little is known of the work they do. "Texas in Review" goes to Houston's Medical Center for this story.

In preparation for the coming football season, the radio announcers who each year bring Southwest Conference games to millions in Texas meet to review rules changes and new procedures. Viewers will see the study and work these men must do to give fans clear and accurate descriptions of football action.

Continuing coverage of Texas' state parks, "Texas in Review" will visit Inks Lake and Longhorn Cavern State Park.

"Tuesday (Aug. 27) "Texas in Review" can be seen over KRIS-TV, Corpus Christi, 7:00 p. m.

Jimmie Garrett and Victor Torres have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ramon Torres in Key West, Florida for the past ten days and started home Wednesday morning.

Charlyne and Carolyn Taylor twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Taylor are visiting this week with Mr. and Mrs. Willie A. Haug and family.

Is your living room as beautiful, as useful, in the evening as it is all day long? Is light available at every chair, for every member of the family? If not, ask us how Light for Living in every room of your home will help you to STEPHEN F. AUSTIN STATE PARK has many reminders of the "Father of Texas," including this pictured replica of his home at San Felipe. The original was on the bank of Bollinger's Creek, which flows through the park. To reach the park turn off U. S. Highway 90 three miles east of Sealy and take a paved spur road which crosses the Katy railroad tracks.—Photo courtesy Texas Highway Department.

Park of the Week
Stephen F. Austin
State Park

Stephen F. Austin State Park at San Felipe occupies 664 acres the site selected for the great colonization project that ended in the creation of the Republic of Texas.

The land to be settled had been picked between the Colorado and the Brazos rivers by Moses Austin. Upon the death in Missouri of Moses Austin, his son, Stephen Fuller Austin, took up the project and carried it through with such success that he is called "Father of Texas".

The park has three distinct parts. One area is on the waterfront of San Felipe, headquarters of the colony. There is a larger picnic and recreation section in a beautiful grove on the bed of the Brazos River toward Sealy. Between them is a smaller historic area. In this middle area is Sculptor John Angelo's bronze monument of Stephen F. Austin and a replica of the log cabin in which Austin lived. The hand-dug well that supplied San Felipe with drinking water is also here, a memorial financed by school children of the County and a marker were John Bricker was killed by a cannon ball in the skirmish at San Felipe between an advanced party of Mexicans and Sam Houston's little army.

In the river bed off the small park in what was once known as Comercio Plaza of San Felipe lies the frame of a ferry boat that was in operation until a few years ago. It is a reminder of the days when San Felipe was a port for the Yellowstone, the Live-lype, the Cayuga and the San Felipe, vessels that plied the Brazos River.

Many things of interest are to be seen at San Felipe. There is the old frame church in the upper story of which the meetings of the Masonic Lodge of the colony were held. City officials still meet in the old town hall. A marker shows the site of Convention Hall where the colonists gathered for consultations in 1832, 1833 and 1835 and made decisions that shaped the way for the later Declaration of Independence.

Just two miles off the busy traffic of U. S. Highway 90, San Felipe's quietude contrasts with the bustling life of modern Texas. Annually on November 3, the birthday of Stephen F. Austin, there is an observance of "Father of Texas Day".

A nine hole golf course, available to park visitors on payment of greens fees, is operated by a local golf association. The detour to San Felipe from U. S. Highway 90 is marked a short distance East of Sealy.

Janice Garrett has been visiting for the past week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Arrington in Bay Town.

Shrimp Treated With Preservative Must Be Plainly Marked

James Barr, secretary of the Shrimp Association of the Americas, said today that all producers contemplating the use of sodium bisulphite dip for shrimp as a deterrent for black spot and the landing of such shrimp in Texas, or packing shrimp for sale either in intra-state or interstate commerce must meet a number of state and Federal regulations.

Producers selling such shrimp must identify it. In the case of packaged frozen shrimp, the label must carry a notice that sodium bisulphite has been used. Boxed, fresh shrimp must have the tag affixed to the box, and in the case of bulk fresh shrimp sales, the accompanying invoice, way bill or sales slip must carry a notation advising the purchaser of such fact.

Sodium bisulphite is a recently-developed, preventative for the unsightly black spots with which shrimp are sometimes affected, and aids the shrimpers in landing a more sightly and wholesome product.

NUMBER TWO ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 4, 1957.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 3 proposing an amendment to Article III, Section 51a of the Constitution of Texas, so as to increase the limit on the maximum monthly payment to needy aged persons from state funds and on the total yearly expenditure out of state funds for assistance to needy aged, needy blind, and needy children; and allocating and appropriating additional sums, supplementing current legislative appropriations, for payment of assistance grants.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 51a of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended to read as follows:

"Section 51a. The Legislature shall have the power, by General Laws, to provide, subject to limitations and restrictions herein contained, and such other limitations, restrictions and regulations as may be provided by the Legislature, to make available to needy aged persons, needy blind, and needy children, who are over the age of sixty-five (65) years; provided that no such assistance shall be paid to any inmate of any state-supported institution, while such inmate, or to any person who shall not have actually resided in Texas for at least five (5) years during the nine (9) years immediately preceding the application for such assistance and continuously for one (1) year immediately preceding such application; provided that the maximum payment per month from state funds shall not be more than Twenty-five Dollars ($25) per person; and provided further that no payment in excess of Twenty-one Dollars ($21) shall be paid out of state funds to an individual until and unless such additional amount is matched by the Federal Government."

"(1) Needy aged persons who are actual bona fide citizens of Texas and who are over the age of sixty-five (65) years; provided that no such assistance shall be paid to any inmate of any state-supported institution, while such inmate, or to any person who shall not have actually resided in Texas for at least five (5) years during the nine (9) years immediately preceding the application for such assistance and continuously for one (1) year immediately preceding such application; provided that the maximum payment per month from state funds shall not be more than Twenty-five Dollars ($25) per person; and provided further that no payment in excess of Twenty-one Dollars ($21) shall be paid out of state funds to an individual until and unless such additional amount is matched by the Federal Government."

"(2) Needy blind persons who are actual bona fide citizens of Texas and who are over the age of twenty-one (21) years; provided that no such assistance shall be paid to any inmate of any state-supported institution, while such inmate, or to any person who shall not have actually resided in Texas for at least five (5) years during the nine (9) years immediately preceding the application for such assistance and continuously for one (1) year immediately preceding such application."

"(3) Needy children who are actual bona fide citizens of Texas and are under the age of sixteen (16) years; provided that no such assistance shall be paid on account of any child over one (1) year old who has not continuously resided in Texas for one (1) year immediately preceding the application for such assistance, or on account of any child under the age of one (1) year whose mother has not continuously resided in Texas for one (1) year immediately preceding such application."

"The Legislature shall have the authority to accept from the Federal Government of the United States such financial aid for the assistance of the needy aged, needy blind, and needy children as such Government may offer not inconsistent with restrictions herein set forth; provided however, that the amount of such assistance out of state funds to each person assisted shall never exceed the amount so expended out of federal funds; and provided further, that the total amount of money to be expended out of state funds for such assistance to the needy aged, needy blind, and needy children shall never exceed the sum of Forty-seven Million Dollars ($47,000,000) per year.

"The Legislature shall enact appropriate laws to make lists of the recipients of aid hereunder available for inspection."

"Supplementing legislative appropriations for assistance payments authorized by this section, the following sums are allocated out of the Omnibus Tax Clearance Fund and are appropriated to the State Department of Public Welfare for the period beginning December 1, 1957 and ending August 31, 1959: Four Million, Nine Hundred Thousand Dollars ($4,900,000) for Old Age Assistance, One Hundred, Seventy-Five Thousand Dollars ($175,000) for Aid to the Blind, and Five Hundred, Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($525,000) for Aid to Dependent Children. Such allocations and appropriations shall be made available on the basis of equal monthly installments and other wise shall be subject to the provisions of currently existing laws making allocations and appropriations for these purposes."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors of Texas at an election to be held throughout the State of Texas on the 4th day of November, 1957, at which election there shall be printed on such ballot the following clauses:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment increasing the limit on the maximum monthly payment to needy aged persons from state funds from Twenty Dollars ($20) per month to Twenty-five Dollars ($25) per month; and provided that no payment in excess of Twenty-one Dollars ($21) shall be paid out of state funds to an individual until and unless such additional amount is matched by the Federal Government."

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment increasing the limit on the maximum monthly payment to needy aged persons from state funds from Twenty Dollars ($20) per month to Twenty-five Dollars ($25) per month; and provided that no payment in excess of Twenty-one Dollars ($21) per month and on the total yearly expenditure out of state funds for assistance to needy aged, needy blind, and needy children from Forty-two Million Dollars ($42,000,000) per year to Forty-seven Million Dollars ($47,000,000) per year; and allocating and appropriating additional sums, supplementing current legislative appropriations, for payment of assistance grants."

NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 5, 1957.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 31 proposing an amendment to Article XVI of the Constitution of Texas, relating to establishment of a retirement, disability and death compensation fund for officers and employees of the State.

Section 1. That Subsection (a) of Section 62, Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to read hereafter as follows:

"Section 62. (a) The Legislature shall have the authority to levy taxes to provide a State Retirement, Disability and Death Compensation Fund for the officers and employees of the State, and may make such reasonable inclusions, exclusions, or classifications of officers and employees of this State as it deems advisable. The Legislature may also include officers and employees of judicial districts of this State who are or have been compensated in whole or in part directly or indirectly by the State, and may make such other reasonable inclusions, exclusions, or classifications of officers and employees of judicial districts of this State as it deems advisable. Persons participating in a retirement system created pursuant to Section 1-a of Article V of this Constitution shall not be eligible to participate in the Fund authorized in this Subsection; and persons participating in a retirement system created pursuant to Section 48-a of Article III of this Constitution shall not be eligible to participate in the Fund authorized in this Subsection except as permitted by Section 63 of Article XVI of this Constitution. Provided, however, any officer or employee of a county as provided for in Article XVI, Section 62, Subsection (b) of this Constitution, shall not be eligible to participate in the Fund authorized in this Subsection, except as otherwise provided herein. The amount contributed by the State to such Fund shall equal the amount paid for the same purpose from the income of each such person, and shall not exceed at any time five per centum (5%) of the compensation paid to each such person by the State."

"All funds provided from the compensation of such person or by the State of Texas for such Retirement, Disability and Death Compensation Fund, as are received by the Treasury of the State of Texas, shall be invested in bonds of the United States, or in bonds issued by any agency of the United States Government, the payment of the principal of and interest on which is guaranteed by the United States; or in such other securities as are now or hereafter may be permitted by law as investments for the Permanent University Fund or for the Permanent School Fund of this State, under the same limitations and restrictions imposed by the Constitution for investment of those funds and subject to such regulations as the Legislature may provide. However, a sufficient amount of said Fund shall be kept on hand to meet the immediate payment of the amount likely to become due each year out of said Fund, such amount of funds to be kept on hand to be determined by the agency which may be provided by law to administer said Fund."

"Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this Amendment, such legislation shall not be invalid by reason of its anticipatory character."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at a special election to be held throughout the State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1957, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment amending Subsection (a) of Section 62, Article XVI of the State Constitution, relating to establishment of a retirement, disability and death compensation fund for officers and employees of the State."

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment amending Subsection (a) of Section 62, Article XVI of the State Constitution, relating to establishment of a retirement, disability and death compensation fund for officers and employees of the State."

Section 3. The Governor of the State of Texas is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said special election and this Amendment shall be published and the election held as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

Bishop To Bless Fleet At Aransas Pass, Father G. J. O'Doherty Will Assist

The traditional Blessing of the Fleet — highlight of the annual Labor Day Shrimp-O-Reg at Aransas Pass — will take place this year on September 1, when the Reverend Adolph Marx, auxiliary bishop of Corpus Christi, will call down God's blessing on vessels of the shrimp fleet and their crews of hardy fishermen and, after the ceremonies are over, there will be a church carnival and shrimp boil, part of the fiesta which starts on the night of Friday, August 30, with the crowning of King Shrimp-O-Reg.

The clergy who will take part in the solemn and colorful ceremony will be stationed on Marion Duzich's boat, "The American Lady", which will be decorated for the occasion by the Sisters of Mary of Aransas Pass, led by Sister Renata. On the vessel's prow will be a figure of Christ as He appeared when He walked on the waters. Amidships there will be a statue of Mary, the Mother of Christ, and patroness of St. Mary's Star of the Sea in Aransas Pass. From her hands streamers will flow to all parts of the boat to donate the graces and blessings she can receive from God for the shrimpers and their boats.

At her masthead she will bear two flags, the Stars and Stripes symbol of America, and the Papal Flag, symbol of spiritual authority of the Pope, while a rosary will circle the entire boat. A cross at the bow, and five symbols of the mysteries will complete her adornment.

From the American Lady a general blessing will be given all boats of the fleet.

"Graciously listen to our prayers, O Lord", the good bishop will say, "and with Your Holy hand bless these boats and all who ride in them, as you blessed Noah's Ark in its course during the Deluge. Stretch forth to them, O Lord, Your right hand, as You reached out to Peter when he walked upon the sea. Send Your holy angel from Heaven to guard these boats and ever keep them safe from every peril, together with all on board. And when threatened dangers have been removed, comfort Your servants with a calm voyage and the desired harbor. And having successfully transacted their business, recall them again when the time comes to the happiness of country and home."

Then the American Lady will go by all boats anchored in the harbor, ablaze with streamers and flags, and carrying the owners and their crews and families, and bless each one individually.

These will then slip anchor and join the procession around the harbor and past the judge's stand. Prizes will be given for the best decorated boat, donated by merchants of the town, and then, as part of the day's festivities after the blessing, shrimpers will, following an immemorial custom, give rides to all and sundry who want to go.

Besides the free boat rides, there will be a bazaar and festival on the shores of Conn Brown Harbor, with entertainment, hot dogs, boiled shrimp, in half-pound lots for four bits, and games.

Visiting clergy who will assist in blessing the fleet will consist of Reverend John A. Halley, of Our Lady of Refuge at Refugio as deacon; Reverend Patrick J. Doherty, subdean, from Our Lady, Star of the Sea, Aransas Pass; Reverend Gregory A. Beensch of the same church, master of ceremonies; announcer and commen-

WATERFRONT—

One of the most unusual circumstances to come to our attention in many years was the capture, over the weekend, by Larry Hans, of Alice, of a four pound ling off Hunt's Pier.

That ling was lost and didn't know it.

There are as many names for this fish as there are localities where it is caught. Perhaps the most interesting is the one used around South Africa, where it is called "the prodigal son." Around Chesapeake Bay they are called black bonitos, although they are not bonitos. Other names are sergeant fish (because of the black stripe down its side), crab eater (because of its food habits), ling, lemonfish, cabio, cobia, and coal-fish.

Ling are world wide in their distribution, and have been reported from the waters of Japan, the East and West Indies, Pondicherry, Malabar, Mollucca, Australia, South Africa, Brazil, and the Bermudas. In American waters they are common from Chesapeake Bay to the Mexican border, occurring also in the Caribbean and around Jamaica.

Their average weight in this state runs from 25 to 35 pounds; the record, from Virginia, weighed 102 pounds; and others, unattested, from Chesapeake Bay, weighed from 113 to 130 pounds.

Usually rather solitary in their habits, ling appear to be more plentiful along the Gulf coast than anywhere else in America. Charter boats in Mississippi and Alabama make a specialty of fishing for them, and they are reported at times, in that area, to travel in schools of from 25 to 40 fish. Off the fishing ports of Texas they are also plentiful, 40 having been brought in during one day at Galveston, while at other times great numbers of young have been caught in the Bolivar slips at that place.

To the casual glance, these youngsters, vividly striped in black and white, closely resemble remoras. Ranging from an inch or two in length to 12 or fifteen inches, they are quite common in bays and harbors, particularly during May, June, and July, but as they grow larger they disappear, presumably migrating to the open sea, and a four-pounder like the one Hans caught is an exceptional find.

While small they are always found beneath a ship, in the shadow of a boat, or underneath boards or other debris, moving as the object moves, and rather easily caught in a dip net.

This curious habit of associat-

H. C. Floyd has applied to the U. S. Engineers for permission to construct an extension to an existing wharf. The length of the extension would be 60 feet and extend from the southwest end of a 12 by 60-foot T-head which is at the bayward end of a 4 by 400-foot wharf. The deck elevation of 4 feet above mean low tide, and the 12-foot width of the proposed structure would be the same as the existing T-head.

ing with animate and inanimate objects floating in the sea is well known amongst fishermen. The adults are found around buoys, under floatsam, around whale sharks, other large fish such as mantas, and sea turtles, to name only a few of the things with which they have been observed. When shark fishing a few years ago, with a huge trotline, there was nearly always a ling or two present when running the hooks, and so curious were they about the boat and commotion that it was comparatively easy to harpoon them as they nosed around.

Ling are also frequently caught or harpooned from shrimp boats, which they apparently follow to pick up scrap fish and shrimp thrown overboard while culling the catch.

Their food consists of crabs, shrimp, and squids, squilla or sea lice, and other invertebrates; small sharks, catfish, eels, Spanish mackerel, and trout, croakers, groupers, flounders and other fish, all of which have been found in their stomachs. In short, while they seem to prefer crabs and shrimp, they will eat almost anything they can swallow.

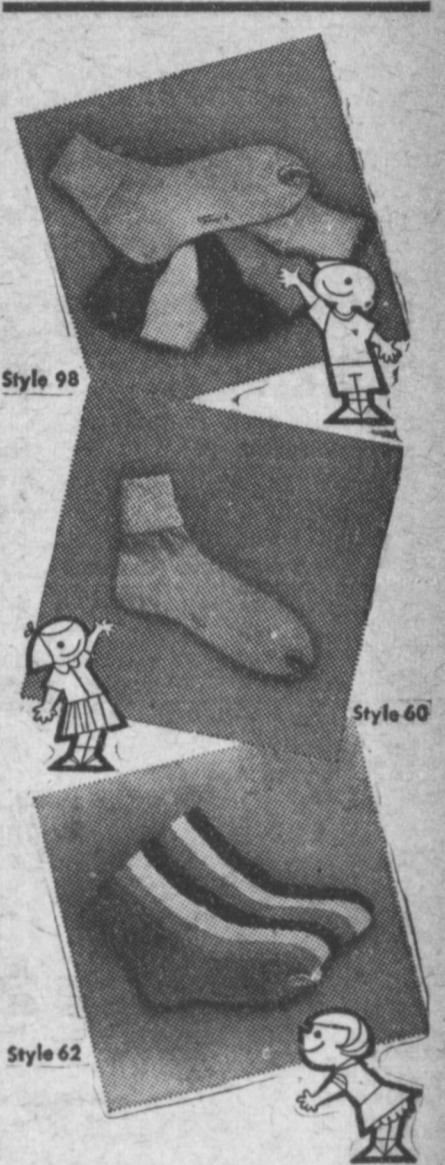

Ling can be caught either bait-casting, still fishing or trolling. The best baits for still fishing are live shrimp, squid, catfish, or small crabs. Look for them around floating objects, and as they are not scary, put the bait where they can see it, letting it drift. For this a bull shrimp is fine. Frequently they will swim up and nose the bait, without biting. When this happens, reel in a little, then strip line, letting the bait sink. The ling, deciding that it is injured, will strike. Many are caught on feathered jigs, plugs and spoons, either trolling or casting.

The Church of Christ What It Teaches

In this column last week, we endeavored to point out the teaching of the Church of Christ on the subject of What is Authority in all matters religious, which is the Bible, the inspired word of God, and not the creeds written by men. Well, most everyone will say that they agree with us on that. Now that's fine. We are glad that you do. Now, be it remembered that the Church of Christ teaches nothing that cannot be found in the Bible. What the Bible teaches, is what we preach. If you think we fail to do this, we invite you to show us wherein we err from the truth. Going a little further, we teach that Jesus built His church, for He said, "And I say also unto thee, Thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." (Mat. 16:18). Thus we can all see that Jesus promised to build his church. We believe, and so teach. Do you? Moreover, He purchased the church with his own blood; for we read, in Acts 20:28. "Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost has made you overseer, to feed the church of God, which He purchased with His own blood." Now this must be the Lord's church, if he built it, and if He purchased it with His blood: if not, why not? So we read again in Acts 2:47, "And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved." Finally, we read, in Rom. 16:16, "The churches of Christ salute you." We invite you to read more in this column next week about the church of Christ.

State Health Department Warns Against Pollution Of Shrimp Unloading

The Food and Drug Division of the Texas State Department of Health has recently called the attention of the Shrimp Association of the Americas and the Texas Shrimper's Association to a practice of some shrimp producers that must be corrected, according to Jim Barr, secretary of the SAOTA.

In some instances, says the department of Health, boats unloading shrimp have been pumping water from harbors or channels to soften the ice on the shrimp in the hold, before unloading operations start. This practice, the state officials say, will not be tolerated, and punitive action will be taken against anyone using such water for this purpose.

Dockside water is consistently found to have a heavy bacterial population, besides being loaded with oil and filthy with refuse of all kinds, the department says, and this must not be used to unload shrimp in this manner.

FLAMING YOUTH

A New Hampshire mallard duck which hatched a dozen wood-duck eggs placed under her by a conservation officer must figure there's no gratitude in the younger generation. Almost immediately after hatching, the baby woodies took off for the nearest waterer half a mile away, completely ignoring their bewildered foster parent. — Perc Angwin, Brattleboro (Vt.) Reformer.

On December 27, 1776, George Washington was made dictator of the United States — the only one we have ever had.

SCOUTING

and from camp and other activities.

It is the Junior Youth Council which looks after the needs of the Cubs, aiding them in their various projects with the necessary funds which they have no other way of acquiring.

Parents, of course, pay for uniforms and personal equipment.

Both Youth Councils are underwritten by the United Fund as is the local donation to the National Boy Scout Council.

Some of the activities that come through cooperation with other parts of the council are training schools, taught in general by other unpaid and dedicated workers from the various communities, and overseen by a paid Scout executive. These take place two or three times a year and are for den mothers, committeemen for all units and the unit leaders.

All unit leaders here have participated in such a course during the last year, giving of their own time, money, effort and gasoline to learn the things that will make them better able to cope with the scouts and cubs, and to make the program for the youngsters more interesting.

The Rockport units have participated in other council activities. For instance, a naval cruise is offered each year by NAS. In this the boys are the guests of the Navy for two or three days, sleeping in Navy barracks, and eating Navy food, along with the Navy personnel of the base. The boys are charged a small sum by the Navy for food, nothing for their lodging, and they get to see the world's greatest naval flying school in action. A council official acts as liaison officer, making the necessary arrangements, but the care and feeding of the boys is entirely a Navy affair.

A few of the boys from here have camped out in the Wilderness Camp at Leakey, taking their own bedding and provisions, and living in the wild under supervision of scout officials, and this is an opportunity that they relish, even more than Camp Karakawa, where a number of Rockport boys go each summer to take advantage of the facilities maintained by the council, and for which they charge a small fee for two weeks board and lodging.

Explorer bivouacs, district and council camporees, cub events and so on are largely individual matters, with council officials providing the place and occasionally other accommodations where they may be held, but the burden of which again falls on the boys and their local leaders.

One local Explorer, Robert Arley Shivers, participated in the great Valley Forge Jamboree this year, his expenses paid by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, who sponsor the local explorer post.

Cub Pack 49, the local pack, has the distinction of being the largest in the council. It is sponsored by the local Rotary Club, with Fred Bracht as institutional representative with Philip Baldwin and Ernest Russell as cubmaster and assistant cubmaster. The cubs have rather an active program, but most of it falls on the shoulders of those devoted women, the den mothers, and on the cubmaster and his assistant. There it is, week after week, to meet with the boys and to help them in their program.

Troop 49 is sponsored by the First Presbyterian Church of Rockport, and varies from a very few boys active in summer to an average of ten or fifteen in winter, with occasional spurts to higher levels.

Robert Little is scoutmaster, and James Hayden and Charles Smith are his assistants.

The VFW sponsors the Explorer post, and J. J. McCabe is Institutional representative, while Bill Gray is Explorer Advisor. Assistant advisors are Richard Happner, A. L. Holland, and Port Baughman.

Others in the community who are active in the scouting program are Jimmy Reid Simmons, A. C. Shivers, Floyd Smith, N. F. Jackson, Jim Jackson, L. W. Tuer, W. A. Ormand, and C. L. Taylor.

Pack 49 has 12 active den mothers: Mrs. Eva Sanders, Mrs. Sophie Lassiter, Mrs. W. C. Cutcher, Mrs. Cornelia Ormand, Mrs. Elene Wendell, Mrs. Georgia Davenport, Mrs. Grady West, Mrs. Homer Elliott, Mrs. Neva Jackson, Mrs. Eloise Russell, Mrs. Herbert Mills and Mrs. Shelley Roaten.

Without the time, sacrifice and care of these people, there would be no scouting program in Rockport.

And this doesn't give any credit to those devoted mothers and fathers who, often doubling up, help carry the girl scout organization on to success, and which have been responsible for the Little House, Camp Copano, the Whooping Crane Council and all the other nice things that have happened to little girls in this area.

Maybe some neighborhood chairman or other girl scout official can spare time to tell us about them.

Both boys and girls, however, are helped by the United Fund.

Full program planning and distribution of program literature will be the feature of the monthly Scouters Night meeting on Thursday, August 22nd, at the Sinton High School. All adult scout leaders are urged to attend the meeting. Cub leaders including Dan Mothers and Pack Committeemen will meet under the leadership of Ken Edwards of Sinton and Art Nelson of Refugio. Scoutmasters, assistant scoutmasters and troop committeemen will meet with Joe Benson of Sinton and W. J. Mott of Aransas Pass for their program planning meeting. Leaders of Explorer Posts will be led by Gil Wofford and Oney Chafin of Sinton in their discussion of Explorer fall activities. An explanation of the fall round-up program for the fall will be given by members of the commissioner staff under the direction of E. Chas. Lewis, of Sinton, District Commissioner.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Grenzback of Houston are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Faucett.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Speer of Chattanooga, Tenn., visited Mrs. Mamie Hooper, Mrs. Carolyn and Carolyn Ada Hooper. Mrs. Mary Louise Speer is the daughter of Mrs. Fanny Hooper Rowe.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Faber and their daughter, Lenore recently returned from a three weeks trip to Idaho and the northwestern United States.

Mrs. Don Shelby, has been released from Aransas Hospital after a major operation performed a week ago. She will be able to receive visitors when she arrives home.

In a 20-mile race, a man would win over a horse because of his endurance.
