The three-member committee serves in an advisory capacity to the County Supervisor and makes determinations as to eligibility for loan advances for the Agency. They are also frequently called upon by the County Supervisor to render assistance in the servicing of loans and the development of other community services.

The Farmers Home Administration does not compete with private lenders in the field of agricultural credit; however, they supplement such sources of credit and make loans on a long-range basis for the development of farms and ranches as well as improvement of community facilities, and provide housing for the rural residents.

One of the most important programs is the family-type loan to young farmers in ever-increasing numbers throughout the State. Recent authorizations have been given by the Agency by Congress to make loans for recreation facilities for rural residents as well as financing multiple housing for senior citizens and labor housing associations.

Another of the more extensive loan programs included that of making loans for small towns and communities for the establishment or improvement of water and waste disposal systems.

Highway Crashes Soar; Rules for Safe Driving Recommended

Greater on interstate highways last year than on any other type of road.

These rules for safe freeway driving are recommended by the Association:

1. Use the accelerating lane to gain speed before pulling on to the main road. A slow-moving vehicle can be very dangerous.
2. Make sure that the way is clear before you pull on to the super highway. Don't force an oncoming driver to swerve into another lane of traffic.
3. Change lanes cautiously and always signal lane changes.
4. Don't weave in and out of traffic. Stay in your lane. Little if any time can be gained by this dangerous maneuver.
5. If you become confused on a super highway, pull over to the shoulder, after signaling and making sure that it is safe for you to do so.
6. Avoid sudden stops.
7. Cross winds can be dangerous for persons driving at high speeds. Watch out for them.
8. As temperatures climb, slow down as heat is hard on tires and engines.
9. Super highway driving can be monotonous. Don't let yourself become drowsy or inattentive.

Both conditions can be fatal. Stop every once in awhile. Walk around and relax.

10. Be sure that your vehicle is in safe operating condition before driving at super highway speeds, as high speeds can magnify the danger of any emergency.

"The property damage loss from high-speed accidents is often very great," Mr. Perry said. "Many of the vehicles involved in super highway crashes are totally destroyed. Injuries can also be quite severe and with today's steadily increasing hospital and medical costs, the economic loss from super highway accidents is often staggering."

"Super highways are designed to move large numbers of vehicles at relatively fast speeds and they can do just this if all drivers pay attention to their driving and make certain that their ears are in good operating condition," Mr. Perry concluded.

Growing Child Wants To Help

A growing child wants to help himself and clothes are a good learning device for this, says Barbara M. Elliott, County Home Demonstration Agent.

A garment which a child can put on and take off with little or no help from an adult is important to the child as well as his mother. Learning how to dress himself makes the child more independent and self confident... and saves mother's time.

The age at which a youngster can manage his clothing depends on the individual child, his training, and the construction of the clothes. Choosing clothes with self-help features will help a child help himself. Look for certain easy-dress features in children's clothing.

Front openings are much easier for a child to handle than back or side openings. Roomy neck openings or elastic bands that slip over the head are more manageable for the child.

Large buttons or fasteners are more convenient for the youngster than small ones: eyes and hooks are much more difficult.

One-piece garments are handier for the little ones than two-piece clothing.

Elastic inserts at the waistline rather than back sashes of hard-to-fasten belts are easier for a child; belts and sashes can also be attached to the garment to prevent loss.

If the back of the garment is easily distinguished from the front, it will save a lot of frustration and confusion for the child.

The wise homemaker will purchase children's clothing that both saves her time and fulfills her youngster's need for independence.

Members Can Not Serve On Draft Boards More Than 25 Year Period

Ninety-six out of the current 674 state draft board members will not be eligible to serve after the end of the year, Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, said here Friday.

This has been brought about because of a new amendment to the Military Selective Service Act of 1967 which forbids members serving more than 25 years, or after they have reached age 75.

Eighty-two members of the state's 155 boards, the oldest of whom is 86, are affected by the age limit, and 14 have served more than a quarter century, making a total of 96.

The amendment provides that full implementation of this section of the law must be made by January 1, 1968, so the state Selective Service director is currently advising the members touched by the amendment that the law requires their resignation only for this reason.

"It breaks my heart to write this letter," Colonel Schwartz is advising each of the 96 members, "as I know of your value to our country and the Selective Service System, and I hope we will be in your prayers."

Board members affected are at Lufkin, Muleshoe, Temple, San Antonio, Alpine, Childress, Van Horn, Dallas, El Paso, Stephenville.

Also, La Grange, Galveston, Fredericksburg, Pampa, Seguin, Houston, Lockhart, Hillsboro, Greenville, Canton, Gainesville, Laredo, Cuero.

Also, Port Arthur, Cleburne, Terrell, Paris, Liberty, Lubbock, Waco, Bay City, Cameron, Corsicana, Pecos, Sinton, Tyler, Fort Worth.

Also, Mt. Pleasant, San Angelo, Austin, Victoria and Wichita Falls.

Local board members are appointed by the President upon recommendation of the Governor.

The Governor delegates to state Selective Service headquarters authority to secure for these positions, "without regard to race, creed or color, citizens of integrity and patriotism."

Individuals selected must be at least 30 years old, but not more than 60. They must not be members of the armed forces, either active, reserve or retired.

Under the new amendment, women may serve on draft boards.

The other increase will range from 1 cent to 9 cents, representing longer-range adjustments.

Out-of-Staters Are Flocking To Texas

Out-of-state visitors are coming to Texas this year in record-breaking numbers, according to figures released by the Texas Highway Department. To better serve the anticipated rush of summer visitors the Department's seven Tourist Bureaus have extended their hours of operation to 12 hours daily, 7 a. m. to 7 p. m. The Bureaus are located on primary highway entrances to the State, and are open seven days a week.

Last year, three-quarters of a million tourists visited the Bureaus. Despite the 1966 record year when the tourist industry in Texas topped the billion dollar mark for the first time, tourism officials are pointing for an even greater year.

The expected increase is forecast by an 8 per cent rise in the total services provided by the Tourist Bureaus during the first four months of 1967 compared to the similar 1966 period.

The Bureaus extend the first taste of Texas hospitality to many visitors and a warm welcome to all. They are staffed by uniformed, trained travel counselors who are credited with extending the stay of many motorists and upping the tourism receipts. They provide route assistance and charting, and are experts on state attractions, history and local events.

Also showing a marked increase are the services provided by the Highway Department's main office in Austin. These tourist aids include distribution of the Official Highway Map, in-state routing information, colorful Texas information brochures and specific replies to requested information.

Social Security's disability trust fund gained $300 million between March '66 and March '67, reaching $1,807,000,000.

Your Aging House

with Doc Garvey

A fellow up the road a piece, name of "Slim" Smithfield, has more trouble getting himself heard than a zither player in a brass band.

Slim is all the time hollering tying up the one bathroom in the house for hours on end, but no one seems to pay him much mind.

"The bathroom door is closed more often than the gate to Fort Knox," Slim frets, "on account of somebody's always washing out things, doing their hair, or 'putting on their face.'"

Things got so bad, Slim reports, that he considered installing in his home a device that would issue numbered tickets like those used by some bakery shops to keep customers in an orderly line.

Of course, Slim's morale didn't exactly soar when a neighbor, whose daughter had just married, remarked, "I lost my girl, but I gained a bathroom."

But I saw Slim just the other day and he was as full of smiles as an insurance salesman. Seems like he hired Charlie Briggs, the remodeling contractor, to install a bathroom in the little-used sewing room off the master bedroom.

"Now me and the missus will have our own bathroom and the girls will have theirs," Slim gloated. The room that was just wasted space now boasts a built-in vanity, a new-fangled stall shower and a medicine chest big enough for all the patent medicines Slim has collected over the years.

Chances are that if Slim does take up the zither, the first piece he'll learn to play will be, "Home Sweet Home."

(Issued monthly as a public service by NERSICA, The National Remodelers' Association)

Retirements claims awarded by Social Security in March 1967 averaged $88.97 per month.

PAINT CREEK ... COMMUNITY NEWS

Mrs. Gene Overton
Some Paint Creek farmers planted cotton as late as last Saturday, July 8th. I guess they had the nerve because the rains early in the week brought up some more of the cotton already planted. Some cotton came up over the weekend that was planted almost two weeks ago. This farming never ceases to surprise me. Each year is different, since the moisture and bugs and weather are different every year. One year early cotton will be the better; next year the cotton planted late will be better. Some years the insects hit the crops in July, or even August. Sometimes there are bugs as early as May and June. No tried and true rules ever fit because the weather and insects keep changing the rules.

I really think that farmers right in here had better not count on too much crop this year. The little cotton looks so tiny, and dry and hot and thin and Mr. and Mrs. Durward Livingston and family.

John Hayden of Roby visited Mr. and Mrs. Pat Morrison on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Middlebrook and Phyllis and Phil Coleman returned from a two-week vacation to Illinois Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Allen Isbell and Danny visited Mr. and Mrs. Partin and son, George, who live near Tuscola Sunday afternoon. George was injured in a car wreck and is much more helpless than Danny. He is attending Hardin-Simmons in a wheelchair, but his mother and he are commuting from home. The Isbells wanted Danny to talk with him and learn how he manages his work. Mrs. Isbell said George was helpless. He can't walk with a walker, or type or do any of the things that Danny is able to do for himself. George is a half-brother to Jimmy Partin of Abilene, and his father was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rule for two years, some years ago.

Marine Sgt. Trennis Turner has been here on a two-week leave following completion of a course in the Indonesian language at the language school at Camp Pendleton, Calif. He has been all over Asia during his Marine service and had a year's tour of duty in Viet Nam. He returns to Camp Pendleton on Wednesday and will return to Viet Nam next month for a second tour of duty.
Mr. and Mrs. Sam Chaffin of Midland are on vacation and are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fischer. Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Fischer entertained for the Chaffins with a barbecue and guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bob McGarvey and daughter, Sharrri, of Abilene, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Peiser of Mattson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mueller and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Fischer and family of Haskell, Mr. and Mrs. Derrell Richards of Avoca, and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Overton and Wallar.

Leonard Howard, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Howard, celebrated his 4th birthday at the City Park in Stamford Wednesday afternoon, June 28.
Refreshments of birthday cupcakes, punch and homemade ice cream were served. Favors were balloons and bottles of bubbles. Present were Donald and Debra Ender, Debbie and Sandra Doty, Laura Denson, Sonda and Greg Rhodes, Steven Schmidt, Ronda and Randy Fitch, Hollis and Gail Howard and the honoree, Leonard, Mrs. J. W. Howard and Leonard's grandmother, Mrs. Wayne Carlton, were also there.

Janice Hardaway of Hamlin is pianist for the Youth Revival at the Paint Creek Methodist Church this week and is spending the week with Janice and Jeannine Isbell. Gary Cauble is directing the music for the revival and he is staying in the Ray Perry home.

Hollis, Gail Ann and Leonard Howard spent the weekend of the 4th with their maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Carlton of Stamford. They saw the rodeo parade.

Evelyn Pustejovsky's wedding had to be postponed from 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon to 8 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Sunday morning. There was a Federal inspection at Fort Knox and Stewart was delayed and missed his plane by two minutes. He caught a train to where he could catch a plane and arrived at 12:00 Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. Pustejovsky had the wedding supper all ready so they went ahead with it and the dance.

At 8 o'clock Sunday morning, the wedding was combined with the regular Mass and was a beautiful ceremony. The Priest at the Stamford Catholic Church is an Irishman with a thick Irish brogue. I told him the ceremony was beautiful, and he said, "I would have been better had she had her own day, but 'tis done."

Evelyn has been working in Mesquite. The young couple will be stationed at Knox for awhile and then assigned to either Camp Meade in Maryland, or at Camp Hood in Texas. Stewart is in maintenance. He is a mechanic.

Social Security Decisions May Be Carried To Courts

(Ed. Note: This is the 4th of a series of six articles, telling of the safeguards against wrong decisions in the social security program, prepared for the Haskell Free Press by R. R. Tuley, Jr., Social Security district manager.)

The first three of these articles covered reconsideration, hearings and review by the Appeals Council. This week, a further course open to the denied claimant is discussed.

If he has secured only unfavorable decisions in those three steps, the claimant may then file suit against the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare in a United States District Court. Such action must be begun within 60 days of the date of the denial letter from the Appeals Council.

The Federal District Judge does not call witnesses or hear testimony in the manner of "trials," but closely reviews the entire file in line with other district court, appeals court, or Supreme Court rulings, and decides whether or not there is substantial evidence to support the adverse decision of the Secretary. If so, the judge affirms the denial; if not, he may feel that still further evidence and testimony is needed and remand the case to the Secretary for that purpose. If the latter, then he later studies the new evidence and possible revised decision of the Secretary before entering his own judgment in the matter.

If the District Judge's decision is still unfavorable to the claimant, the normal appeals processes leading to the U. S. Supreme Court are open to the claimant. In next week's story in this series are some statistics about how many of the initial denials get approval somewhere along the way.

BE A BACON SAVER

As one reads the newspapers from all over the country, it is increasingly clear that people are becoming more tax conscious. Taxes are variously estimated as taking from one quarter to one third of the average family income. More people are wondering how much of the rest of the world we can continue to supply with money and products while at the same time we are fighting a war and setting up a welfare state at home. It is becoming clear to more people that when we demand gifts, grants and aid from federal and state governments we must pay the bill out of our pockets via taxation.

There is one way to save our bacon ... curb our own demands and vote "no" on means and measures that require the spending of tax funds beyond government's normal increase in tax revenue that accompanies the growth of the country. Only in emergencies involving national security should major exceptions be made. In the long run, government is no different than a family. It will wind up bankrupt if its members follow a spendthrift course. The country needs more officials who will stress this fact.

60 YEARS AGO
(July 13, 1907)

Mr. W. B. Anthony, who has been for several years in the State Land Office at Austin, and who served this county for six years as its sheriff and tax collector, has been visiting in Haskell for several days. In a conversation with the Free Press Editor the talk drifted to the past and the development of the county during the last 20 years. Mr. Anthony recalled having located a ranch north-west of Haskell in 1884. He said there was no road west of Haskell then, and when he went to haul lumber out for some improvements on the ranch he simply took a straight course across the prairie until he came to the sandhills, some 13 miles out, where he struck an old "bone road," which took him through a rough section of the country. He said the tracks made by him across the prairie, the ground being wet, were followed by others and afterwards became known as the F2 (ranch) road. The bone road was made by parties hauling bones to Albany, to which place the Texas Central Railroad was built in the '70s, where they sold them at $20 per ton.

Mr. D. M. Winn and family, Misses Christine Smoots, Dolly Wheeler, Ruby Fitzgerald and Messrs. Guy Reavis, Frank Robertson, Louis Fields, Geo. Manning, Walter Hicks and Roy Shock went Saturday on a fishing expedition to Paint Creek prepared to camp for two or three days. But on Monday evening part of their teams strayed from camp and they were delayed until Wednesday, arriving home late that evening. They report, however, that they had a fine time generally and caught all the fish they could eat.

Postmaster Jno. B. Baker returned Tuesday from a business trip to Fort Worth.

Messrs. B. C. Dyess and Terry Davis and Misses Annie Lida Hughes, Alice Poole and Mable Wyman were delegates from the Haskell B.Y.P.U. to the B.Y.P.U. Assembly at Stamford.

OUTDOORS --IN-- TEXAS

By Vern Sanford

There is a food problem for wildlife just as there is for humans.

Perhaps the most serious right now is providing food for deer. Their population is increasing.

Despite very liberal laws, hunters haven't been able to do much about reducing the herd.

Large areas of Texas which normally support both livestock and wildlife have had but little rain. Drouth has affected them. In agricultural areas, there has been heavy spring depredation and it is likely to get worse as the hot, dry weather continues. This fall it may be serious.

Texas Parks & Wildlife Department now is looking for some practical plan that can be used to increase or supplement deer food supplies.

Dan Lay, one of the top biologists operating in East Texas, has been on the search for such a plan for several years. Deer population has increased materially in the piney woods country, but at the same time, considerable land has been utilized for other purposes. For instance, two major lakes already there and another one under construction have wiped out something like a quarter of a million acres of deer range.

Right now Lay is experimenting with yupon, dwarf lilac and Japanese honeysuckle. In the last four years he has researched more than 20 species of browse plants. He has found that a yupon orchard, properly managed, will yield a ton of excellent browse per acre. Production of Japanese honeysuckle can exceed that figure.

Yupon is an evergreen of the holly family. It is a branched shrub, with whitecluster blossoms that produce small berries ... also good as bird food. Its growth, however, is slow.

Japanese honeysuckle has a vigorous, twining, woody vine, spreading 20 feet or more, with long-petal flowers. Deer are particularly fond of this plant as a food.

Both plants are fine for East Texas, where there is abundant rainfall. But in the Edwards Plateau and the Trans-Pecos areas, deer browse is another problem. Fortunately, many of the landowners ... particularly those who lease shooting privileges, are willing to feed their deer as they do livestock. Some even go so far as to plant winter oats and turnip patches.

Since more and more landowners are recognizing that wildlife can be a crop, they are taking steps to insure that wildlife gets enough food.

Quite a bit of experimental work already has been done on the Kerr management areas, northwest of Kerrville. Here, there are pens with high fences, where deer, cattle and goats share a common area.

From those experiments, information is passed on to landowners who can use similar practices and propagation of necessary foods.

Thus, while we do have more wildlife, preserving it is getting to be more complicated, like everything else. This means landowners must get a fee for hunting privileges. Otherwise they can hardly afford to feed and care for the wildlife as it should be.

Wildlife comeback has been startling in some areas.

For instance, wild turkey are said to be practically taking over southern Coleman County. A dozen years ago it was impossible to find a turkey in the area. Some were transplanted there. They have good timber for nesting along the Colorado River bank and in other smaller stream beds. And there is room for them to range with a lot of native food.

Other food testing experiments also are being carried out in other ecological areas of the state. Clubs and landowners can cooperate with the game department in this planning.

No doubt about it—increasing wildlife population can mean a money crop to farmers and ranchers.
