Beware Last Day Dirty Political Scandal Sheets !!

Should any such things as so called scandal sheets appear in this county the last days before the day of the election we advise our readers to ignore them. These last minute things some times appear and they are unworthy of the consideration of anyone. Things of importance come out weeks before election day. Filth is usually spread at the last minute but the ones that spread it, are as a rule, ridding themselves of a grudge, or just doing the dirty work for someone else, for small financial remuneration. Ignore such trash.

NEW WAGE SCALE FOR WPA WORKERS

Abilene, July 22. — With adjustments brought about by the close of the fiscal year ending June 30 completed, Works Progress Administration projects in District No. 13 are operating under slightly altered regulations for the new year. The change has been accomplished without complete shut-down of projects, and with comparatively small loss of time.

Under the new wage scale, which was originated in the State Works Progress office, San Antonio, and based on prevailing wage rates in the various communities, workers will work fewer hours but will receive the same monthly wage as formerly paid them. The state has been divided into 24 groups as to wage scale, with the wage ranging from 20 cents to 35 cents per hour for unskilled labor, with skilled labor carrying a rate of 65 cents to one dollar per hour, and intermediate labor class from 35 cents to 55 cents per hour.

District No. 13, which comprises 12 counties, with Abilene as headquarters, fall in groups 11 and 24 with a range of from 22 1-2 cents to 80 cents per hour for unskilled labor. In Taylor County, 30 cents per hour will be paid for unskilled labor, with a maximum of 80 hours per month. Forty-five cents will be paid for intermediate, with the same maximum of hour prevailing. Skilled labor will be paid 75 cents per hour, with a maximum of 64 hours per month. Professional and technical workers will receive 75 cents per hour, with a maximum of 41 hours. These rates will apply also to Eastland, Stephens, and Nolan Counties. The following rates will prevail in Callahan, Coke, Jones, Kent, Fisher, Scurry, Mitchell and Shackelford Counties: unskilled labor, 22 1-2 cents per hour, with a maximum of 94 hours; intermediate, 35 cents per hour, with a maximum of 94 hours; skilled labor, 65 cents per hour, with a maximum of 60 hours; professional and technical workers, 65 cents, with a maximum of 65 hours.

Reduced hours of the new schedule will result in the consolidation of many projects in order to properly man remaining ones. In most instances, it is planned to work two shifts in order to carry work and supervision uniformly.

It is planned to carry on prevailing projects insofar as possible, as a majority of these are road and paving projects formulated in units, which will eventually lead to completed road and street paving systems in the various towns and communities. It is not anticipated that a general call will be made for new projects except in localities where the unemployed in demands or completing projects as labor available.

A recent check of unemployed in District No. 13 a total of 6,629 registrants. District No. 13 is now operating under an assigned quota of 3,800 workers as set by the Works Progress Administration on May 30. In some instances, other districts have had severe reductions in quota since that date; no reduction has been ordered for District No. 13, however.

With prospects for a bumper crop, a hefty seasonal decline in workers is anticipated, which may cause shut-downs as cotton picking nears.

Under a recent ruling, relief owned and operated trucks will receive as much per hour for truck and driver as is paid non-relief trucks and drivers.

The Louis-Schmeling Fight pictures will be shown at the Palace Theatre Saturday night. We bet it won't last over 12 rounds.

ALLRED LIKELY TO WIN IN FIRST PRIMARY, IS REPORT AUSTIN HEARS

Austin, July 18 — This sensitive political atmosphere in the State capital is becoming charged with a feeling that Jimmy Allred has a good chance to win in the first primary.

Political acries entirely outside the Allred camp have "picked up" radiations of a first primary victory and the campaign leaders are driving hard for that objective as the last week starts.

The argument is this: Allred is a sure shot for re-election. So why not get it over in July and thus release thousands of persons and many thousands of dollars for the Centennial observances in Dallas, Fort Worth, and elsewhere. That argument seems to hold water. In a trip over a good big stretch of South and Central Texas you find a few persons who concede of Allred's opponents a fighting chance to be nominated.

The two questions flung at you are whether Allred will be nominated in the first primary, and, if he is not, which man will he have to take the trouble of beating in the runoff. Reports from North and West Texas are the same and Allred is expected to run stronger in those sections than in South and Central Texas.

Guesses on a race for governor are about as good as guessing on a horse race and the touts are even less dependable. But it is being noised about here in Austin that Roy Sanderford is the man to watch most this time. The personable young senator from old Farmer Jim's home town of Temple has, undoubtedly, gained unexpected last-minute strength.

As to Fischer, opinion here still tends to put him in the second place, but with the reservation that he has been slipping in the last week or 10 days.

However, all speculation about who will be the second man in the first primary was disposed of with a snort by former Attorney General W. A. Keeling when he introduced Allred here Thursday night. "What does it matter who's the second man when there isn't going to be a second primary," the sturdy old Democratic warhorse challenged — and the crowd roared approval.

Allred himself isn't saying. That is not exactly. He is wearing a confident smile, hitting hard, making four to six speeches daily, doing a superhuman amount of campaigning and not talking much about the outcome.

He hasn't a doubt in the world that he will be renominated. He is already making extensive plans for work to be done in his second term. He hopes that he can be freed of the man-killing business of a second primary, of course. But he has not quite predicted that.

He is fighting principally to put his official record before the voters, in contrast with claims made by his opponents.

Against what he calls the "magic money" promises, he recalls and re-indorses the tax program on which he was elected, and which received the indorsement of the state Democratic convention at Galveston.

He points to the fact that the ad valorem tax has been lowered, lifting a heavy burden from the backs of the farmers and home owners; that the estimated state deficit has been cut in spite of such great appropriations

MORE TO GET OLD AGE PENSIONS

Austin, July 21 — Mail will be heavier at the Texas old-age pension office August 1 than it was the first of July, when the initial batch of 40,089 pension checks went out.

There will be between 60,000 and 65,000 checks in the mail August 1.

Ever since the first payments were made additional names have been put on the roll, and July checks mailed. The list now is about 60,000 and by the end of the month, when the second mailing of monthly checks will be made, is expected to reach 65,000.

The old-age assistance commission is working through the mountain of application papers, and out of something like 20,000 applications, is adding to the roll of pensioners whose applications qualify them for assistance.

But those who had not been reviewed and passed finally on July 1, and those who still later will be added to the list will not lose by the delay as the law provides that all applications signed before July 1 and approved would call for payments beginning then, and others, from the time they are signed by the applicant.

NEW TRACTOR AND GRADER

Commissioners' Precinct No. 1 now has a new tractor and grader. It was delivered in Jayton, Monday of this week and did its first work on the streets of Jayton, Monday afternoon while being tuned up. It has been needed badly in this precinct and will prove to be money well spent. We will be able to build some roads and maintain the ones we already have.

The candidates are making their last rounds this week. Win or lose most of them will welcome Saturday.

Mrs. A. M. Morgan and Miss Agathe Lee Brady of Brady, Texas visited her sister Mrs. Joe Earnest last week.

tions as $3,000,000 for the Centennial and a $2,000,000 per year hike in rural school aid.

In a withering citation of official records, he shows the absurdity of promises being made to the old folks. He recalls that Messrs. Hunter, Fischer, Sanderford and Brooks were in some political cyclone cellar when he was facing head winds in a campaign to get the old age pension amendment passed.

PARTS OF TERRITORY GET GOOD RAIN

Tuesday night parts of this territory received good rains ranging from 1-2 to one and one half inches, but the immediate vicinity of Jayton just received a light shower on the river to the south and east seems to have been favored parts of the territory. Mr. S. L. Rackley who was in town early Wednesday morning tells us he had one of the best rains of the year and that it extended this way to the Bill Harrison tank. W. T. Cathey over from Clairmont reported a good rain. South east of Jayton parties tell us good rains fell. There was quite a drop in the temperature which was appreciated by all as the hot sunshine was wilting the raker cotton and feed considerably in the afternoons.

PALACE THEATRE IMPROVED

Mr. Earl Draper and assistants have been very busy cleaning, repainting and remodeling the inside of the Palace Theatre building this week. It is being improved in many ways and since the cooling system has been installed it has become one of the most pleasant places we know of for resting, keeping cool and enjoying high class entertainment.

Mr. Draper is to be congratulated and is deserving in every way the local support of the theatre going public. He will have a wonderful show for the folks this week end. See his advertisement in the Chronicle, on the back page.

Mrs. Joe Earnest has the pleasure of having her mother Mrs. Redell from Denton visiting her.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Lee and children have returned from Mason where they attended the Cunningham reunion.

Dwight Worthen of Oklahoma, is here this week visiting his Uncle Mr. John Overton and wife.

Tom Jones was able to come down to his drug store for a few moments Tuesday morning.

Johnnie Faye Rose of Lubbock, Texas is here visiting Mary Lou Matthews.

L. H. Mason and Odell Mason are taking in the Centennial this week.

Mrs. Vandiver and family went to Texaco New Mexico Saturday to visit W. T. North and family.

THRILLS AT THE LAST FRONTIER

Fort Worth, July 22. — Texas and the Southwest as it was 100 years ago is pictured in a highly exciting spectacle known as "The Last Frontier," at the Fort Worth Frontier Centennial that opened last Saturday. This western saga set to music expresses the heritage of Texas and the Southwest. It is not a rodeo, not a pageant but a uproaring dramatization that every Westerner will love as a part of the background which he lives, it is also a show that thrills the Easterner.

This cowboy about whom much of the show revolves, was given an unexpected opportunity to demonstrate his resourcefulness at the opening performance when Sundown, one of the horses in the broncho-busting episode, bucked himself and Chuck Williams into the pool at the foot of the waterfall. The crowd got back in its seats only after the rider crawled out of the pool and the cowboys in the arena roped the horse, dragged him from the water and helped him to his feet. Neither was hurt.

The show is notable for its sequence of western pictures alone, for the train of prairie schooners that comes winding down out of the mountains, for the breath-taking lightning on the longhorn herd as it disappears up the trail.

The sonorous voice of Capt. Irving O'Hay gives the background!

"Many, many moons ago, the smile of the Great Spirit beamed up on the land of that red man. Great herds of shaggy buffalo thundered westward..."

And as the spectacle unfolds, the audience experiences the beauty of its water fall, of the lithe young square dancers forming a wagon wheel and a star, of the indescribably appealing music that Producer Billy Rose and his staff have added to the songs of the West.

It experiences the thrills of an Indian attack on the wagon trail, of one of the schooners leaving the arena in flames.

There never was another show like it. It brought its spectators to the edge of their seats time and again. And with the finale, it brought them to their feet to blend their voices with the stirring music of "The Eyes of Texas."

Nannie Beth Rice is home from school at Kingsville.

Miss La Vesta Lee of Aspermont is visiting Mrs. Oscar Hargus this week.

Misses Dorothy and Maxine Harrison of Post are visiting their brother, Earl Harrison this week.

Jack and June Alfreds show was here the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Lee are driving a new Ford car purchased from Black Motor Company.

W. F. Gilbert passed through Jayton enroute to Abilene, Wednesday this week.

Misses Sylvia and Roxie Lewis are visiting in Jayton this week.

A local woman has been doing a lot bragging about her husband's ability as a cook. According to her claims he never burns the toast. The men folks claim though, that although he has driven a car for years he can't start one without grinding the gears. This charge, however, may be born of jealousy.

There was an honest man in the office yesterday. He is a member of the local school board and frankly admitted he couldn't tell a thing about whether a young lady applicant for the school he was elected to serve would make the kind of a leader the district deserved. "It's a guess with me every time," he said.

Most folks who get pensions are certain they should get more.

The drought up North is the worst ever recorded in history.

WILD AND HILARIOUS BALL GAME TUESDAY AFTERNOON

Bryant-Link Soft ball team came down from Spur, Tuesday afternoon and engaged the Jayton team in a wild and woolley game featured by much whooping and running and errors and seven home runs at one time at bat by Richard Jay of Jayton, two of which he run out and five of which the umpire classed as fouls. This was followed the next time up by Richard with another that ended the game in favor of Jayton. Richard took special delight in bombarding near by church property knocking out two window lights and quite a few shingles off the tin roof. It was a good game from the point of the spectators who got their moneys worth and had some left.

Charles Robinson, Johnnie Lewis, Tom Fowler, and George Stevens chalked up a home run each in the game.

ATLANTA PLANS GAY FESTIVAL

Atlanta, Texas, July 23 — Atlanta in the heart of one of Texas' richest oil and fruit producing areas, will be host to thousands of visitors the latter part of this month when the Tri-State Watermelon Festival and Oil exposition is opened on July 28.

Recognition of Atlanta as an important agricultural center of East Texas and as the center of extensive oil development has become so pronounced that wide spread interest has been shown in the festival, definitely planned as a Centennial celebration.

A historical pageant will be the feature of the celebration which will be extended over three days.

ALPINE TO PRESENT EXHIBIT

Alpine, Texas, July 23 — This city, one of Texas' most popular tourist resorts, will present its Centennial observance in the form of a continuous exhibition of natural mineral resources, relics, antiques, and handwork from July 30 through August 30. The exhibits will be arranged in show windows of Alpine's downtown stores.

Alpine is located in the Davis mountains at an altitude of approximately 5,000 feet.

PARKER COUNTY PLANS SHOW

Weatherford, July 23 — For two days, July 30 and 31, Weatherford, in the center of a rich truck farming area, will present its Parker County Fruit and Melon show as a part of the state-wide Centennial year observance. Extensive exhibits of native fruits and melons will be on display.

Parker county, located in the north central part of the state, was named for the pioneer family of Cynthia Ann and Quannah Parker.

It is now peach canning time in Jayton. Peaches by the truck load are coming in most every day and find a ready sale among the housewives of our town.

We are happy to see our good friend Walter Buckales able to come to town in the late afternoons. He tells us he is feeling better every day in every way and expects to have regained his good health by the time cool weather arrives.

Several cases of mumps are reported in Jayton. Its mighty hot weather to have to stay in bed and nurse a case of mumps. We are glad we had them when we were kids and in the spring time.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Johnston, Mrs. Dean, Jimmie Johnston, Jr. and Garland Hunnicutt are vacationing at Corpus Christi.

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Kenady and Mr. and Mrs. Thos. P. Johnston have returned from the outains of New Mexico.

The Dickens Soft Ball team won a 8-5 decision over the Jayton team in Jayton, Sunday afternoon, in a hotly contested game. The Temperature only registering 120 on the ball grounds.

Ice Skating in Texas in June

BELIEVE IT OR NOT—but there's ice skating in Texas this summer; and here's the proof of it. It's on the ice floor of the Black Forest, many-featured Midway attraction of the $25,000,000 Texas Centennial Exposition which opened in Dallas June 6.

REALITY VS. PROMISES

It's never a good idea to trade a reality for a promise, for promises like pie crust is easily broken, and hard to carry out especially when one has to contend with the Texas State Legislature.

The Old Age Pension as we now have it is a certainty. It we should swap Governors on the promises some of the candidates are making, where, oh where would we be? The Governor does not make or change the laws as made by the legislature. Governor Allred in two special sessions of the legislature requested, yes we can safely say, demanded that the legislature pass a tax measure to amply supply the needed money to pay these pensions, and both times the legislature failed to do not only the Governors bidding but also failed to carry out the mandate of the people. Don't fall out with the Governor. Re-elect him as he deserves to be re-elected and the legislators can not continue to refuse to carry out the expressed will of the citizens of Texas and remain in Texas. In fact 54 of the members of the last legislature have lost their nerve and are not offering for reelection. They saw the handwriting on the wall and have taken out. Folks stay with Allred as he has been staying with you and have no fears of the out come.

"Within the last few weeks tons of scandalous, libelous and vindictive literature have been placed on the front porches and in the mail boxes of the citizens of this state. Politicians who have felt the sting of defeat and the lash of reprobation are feverishly scouring the state in a campaign of personal abuse directed at Governor Allred."

So far as we know Governor Allred has not yet referred to a single one of his opponents by name. His attitude toward the "issues" they have raised is one of a good natured tolerance and raillery. In a word, he keeps his feet on the ground and his hands out of the mudholes.

John Jones and Family have returned from their summer vacation spent in Mississippi with Mrs. Jones' parents. Enroute home they took in the Centennial at Dallas. They tell us they had a wonderful vacation and found crops good in Mississippi except in the southern part which has suffered severely from the hot dry weather that has hit the Coast country this year. The Texas crop no where is better than in this section, and in many places is far below the average.

This part of Texas was hit with the hottest weather the first of this week it has experienced in years. Sunday and Monday the heat was terrific. Cotton stood the heat well, while early feed suffered some. Monday night we should have said Tuesday morning we were blessed with a cooling breeze, but Tuesday afternoon it was again plenty hot.

Saturday is election day. Let every one vote and vote according to their best judgment. Remember the best and most deserving man for the job should be your first consideration. You are voting for the good of Texas and Kent county, and not for the particular good of any certain candidate. Please use your head before using your pencil.

What Ho 118th District Let The Truth Be Told!

I have been over the six counties, and have found there is not much respect for the office of Legislator.

They say what is the use - - all they go for is the $10 a day, and other things to be had on the side. Whose fault, dear voters? Yours, of course. The man shaking the most hands gets your vote.

Mr. Merrit has had the office four times, but can not point to anything of importance he accomplished.

Mr. Westfall, Well, I will leave it to you to find out. I could not.

Mr. Harris? Be it remembered you sent one young man from Scurry County. He drew his pay, rarely answered the roll call, and never returned to the District.

Dickens later offered a young man and he came near being elected. Experience in life and accomplishments in the Legislature should merit your consideration:

I helped to save the oil rights to the schools of Texas.

I was first to propose the Parole Law.

I helped to pass the law opening West Texas to settlement, and many other important measures.

The crowning ambition of my life is to help pass an old age assistance law that will not be a burden on any thing or anybody, a law after two years trial will work so satisfactorily that no one will want to discard it; one that will be a consolation to the needy aged, as time marches on.

Respectfully,
W. A. CRADDOCK,

Classes Fort Worth With Gayest of World Capitals

Because of the Fort Worth tradition . . . or at least largely so . . . Billy Rose is director of what is acknowledged to be the largest enterprise devoted exclusively to entertainment in the world, the Fort Worth Frontier. Only three other towns in America could have secured his services, New Orleans, San Francisco and Chicago.

The Fort Worth enterprise did not spring full grown from the Rosean cerebellum. He has cudgelled the idea for several years, even before his "Jumbo" was produced. Back further still in pre-Billy Rose Music Hall days he schemed. An amusement enterprise of huge proportions . . . the largest in the world to be truthful . . . in which several great attractions might be seen at moderate admission fees . . . such was the Rose vision.

When Fort Worth wanted to celebrate 100 years of history . . . leaving the historical part to other communities . . . by a "wild and Whoo-pee" party Rose, as the foremost of living American showmen, was offered the job. He accepted with alacrity. It wasn't entirely that the financial deal was to his liking, either. It was that Fort Worth was and is Fort Worth. "There are certain cities in the United States noted for their liberality while others have equal repute for piety. In the latter class are such chaste communities as Los Angeles, Boston, Cincinnati and Dallas, Fort Worth, Reno, Chicago, New Orleans, Butte and San Francisco come in the other category. Mrs. M. Lain of Holdenville, Oklahoma and Mrs. Miller and son of Lockney, Texas were guests of their brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Huls, the first of this week.

Mrs. Glen Huls and party returned last Friday from taking in the Centennial celebration at Dallas, Tex.

Mr. W. J. Lane tells us that he and wife are by themselves now for the first time since they were married. Their children are all away on their vacation and their bearded also. He says it is quite lonesome.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lyles left early Sunday morning for Los Vegas, N.

Their many Jayton friends will miss them greatly but all wish for them happiness and much prosperity where ever they go to locate.

Several of the farmers who were in the rain era Tuesday night suffered bad losses from the hail which accompanied the rain.

French Robinson and Ben Charlie Chapman, candidates for district attorney were in Jayton, Wednesday afternoon, while Vernon D. Adcock was over in their part of the district.

Nettie Beth Hagins spent Sunday here with her parents.
