Drill site is two miles northeast of the Gulf Oil Corporation No. 1 Swenson Land and Cattle Company, Gibson County wildcat drilled to 1,104 feet, which tested 150 barrels of oil and 150 barrels of water daily from 7,327 to 7,334 feet. It finally was abandoned.

Ohio holds lease on the northeast and southwest quarters of section 39; northeast quarter of section 24; northeast quarter of section 33; north half of section 40; all in block 2, H and GN survey; all of section 9; southwest quarter and south half of southeast quarter of section 10, and all of section 4, block B.

The Texas Company and Cities Service Oil Company hold leases on acreage near the new wildcat.

Weekly Cotton Market Review

Trading picked up last week in Oklahoma and Texas spot cotton markets, reports the Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Farmers increased their offerings slightly as some equities in government loan cotton moved slowly around $7 per bale. However, the general run of qualities went mostly at $3 to $4 per bale.

Reported sales at Dallas, Houston and Galveston ran nearly as high as the previous week at 50,522 bales. Total sales at the country's ten spot markets jumped to 147,900 bales over 112,400 bales the week before and only 75,800 bales for the corresponding week last year.

Although domestic demand was still very slow, export inquiry continued good. Most of the business was with France, Germany, Korea and Japan.

The basis continued firm in all southwest markets last week. Quotations reached their high point at mid-week and closed Friday around $1.00 to $1.25 higher than the previous Friday. Last year at this time, cotton was about 50 cents to $1.50 per bale higher than it is now.

Farmers report that planting of cotton is well under way in the Rio Grande Valley and around Corpus Christi where the land is dry enough to work.

Baylor University Receives Grant

Scientists at Baylor University College of Medicine in Houston, Texas, will undertake studies planned to evaluate the role of flies and other extra-human sources in the natural history of poliomyelitis. Joint announcement was made today by Basil O'Connor, President of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, and by Dr. Walter H. Moursund, Dean of Baylor University College of Medicine, of an $18,255 March of Dimes Grant to Baylor University College of Medicine.

Dr. Russell J. Blattner, Professor Pediatrics at Baylor College of Medicine, will supervise a team of investigators including Dr. Florence Dr. Fred M. Taylor and Schrum.

Some of these studies is an effort to determine if possible "hidden" sources of the virus of poliomyelitis in nature. Dr. Blattner pointed out that during epidemics the virus is widespread in the human population, and that many healthy carriers as well as clinical cases infected with the virus, are capable of spreading the disease to susceptible individuals.

Flies have been found infected in nature and capable of carrying the virus for relatively short periods of time. However, Dr. Blattner emphasized that there is still the unexplained mystery as how the virus survives from one epidemic season to the next. Science must answer the question whether there are uninfected or "hidden reservoirs" in which retain the virus of poliomyelitis during non-epidemic periods.

Mr. and Mrs. Alf Parks had business in Rotan last Monday.

"and!!"

Delegations of farmers, ranchers, county officials, dairymen, school officials, rural letter carriers and business men are expected to converge on Austin, Monday, March 7th, to attend a public hearing before the House Revenue and Taxation Committee on Representative C. S. McLellan's bill No. 59.

This bill proposes an occupation tax on the production of natural gas for the purpose of building a system of local county rural roads of a type not now included in the State Farm-to-Market road program.

"The future of the small town business man is as vitally affected by this measure as that of the farmers themselves," according to Jim Cantrell, Princeton banker and president of the Texas Rural Roads Association, sponsors of a plan calling for a 10-year program to build 10,000 miles of rural farm roads each year, to be paid for, in part, by using a portion of the tax proceeds from natural gas.

"Our natural resources are a capital asset and it is only prudent that the State adopt a policy of placing some of this tax yield into permanent improvements which will remain long after the natural resources that have meant so much to us, no longer remain to be taxed. It is highly important that every citizen in Texas interested in rural roads attend this meeting," Mr. Cantrell said.

Judge Peek told us Monday that he would appreciate it if any persons in the county are interested in attending this meeting would contact him.

I was a young editor of a weekly paper in a small town. Being a stranger, I wanted to become acquainted and of course make as many friends as possible. Most of the people showed a friendly spirit but there was one fellow who seemed to be a natural grouch and he was downright rude.

Finally, I got tired of it and one day while a bunch of us were waiting in the postoffice for the mail to be put up, I asked each man his opinion on a subject—that is, each man but the kill joy. He said, "You didn't ask me for my opinion." I snapped, "No, because no body gives a darn what it is!"

His face lightened in a broad grin; he stuck out his hand and said, "Shake! I didn't think you had it in you."

And he became one of my best friends.

Howard Peak in his book, "A Ranger of Commerce," (Naylor Co., San Antonio) said a traveling man told this story:

"I was stopping at a boarding house and, in the evening, while out on the stoop smoking, I heard a little boy in adjoining room crying, to the accompaniment of a decending slipper. I eased to the open window and, looking into the room, saw the mother with a small boy across her lap, administering a pretty warm chastisement. Nearby was a baby in the throes of laughter. I heard the boy cry out:

"What are you whippin' me for, mother? I aint done nothin'." The mother answered, "I know it, sonny, but the baby has got to be amused."

A while back, your columnist interviewed an old-timer and then I was talking to a mutual friend and remarked, "He is 79 years old and his mind is as clear as mine." My friend said, "Yes—at least that clear."

Mark Twain declared, when in doubt, tell the truth as it will confuse your enemies and amaze your friends.

And Mark also once remarked, "Few of us can stand prosperity. Another man's, I mean."

Housing Conference To Be Held In Midland

Midland, March 2. — Plans for a much discussed economy house-Midland to encourage production of Midland to encourage production of lower-priced housing for rent or sale were discussed today at the Chamber of Commerce by Delbert Downing, Manager and K. C. Smith, Assistant Director and J. A. Roby, Jr., of the Federal Housing Administration.

The industry meeting, which is scheduled for March 17, 1949 at 7:30 P. M., will have the fullest possible direct participation of representatives of all segments of the home construction industry. In addition, the discussions will include the various types of financing available to builders and purchasers of the lower-cost housing.

The Midland meeting, which is a part of a broad national program will be held at Midland High School Auditorium. The District Director of the Federal Housing Administration and members of his staff will attend, as well as officials of the Veterans Administration and other directly interested in the Economy Housing Program. Discussing the program, Mr. Smith said:

"I can do no better than emphasize what Raymond M. Foley, Housing and Home Finance Administrator, and Franklin D. Richards, FHA Commissioner, have pointedly said many times. This is that the construction of safe, livable homes at prices reasonably related to the incomes and financial resources of the vast majority of the people is a national necessity."

The program is to be presented in forum form. Speakers will make short statements concerning specific fields and the speakers will form a panel to which questions may be directed.

The meeting will be of special interest to contractors, material suppliers, loan agencies and architects. Attendance is expected from a 15 county area beginning at Sweetwater on the east and westward through Ward County.

GALVESTON, Feb. 28.—Some of the dimes Texans contributed to the March of Dimes have come home to work in the medical research fight against polio.

Basil O'Connor, National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis President, and University of Texas President T. S. Painted, have announced jointly a $2,650 March of Dimes grant to aid scientists at the University of Texas Medical Branch here, continue research on how polio virus enters the body through the alimentary tract.

The investigation on polio virus infection was initiated in 1947 to determine through what sections of food passages polio virus gains access to the nerve cells in the brain and spinal cord, and to find out where the virus multiplies in the food passages.

WITH THE CHURCHES

First Baptist Church GIRARD, TEXAS

We had a good attendance at all the Sunday services, with the same number at B. T. U., as was at Sunday School. We also had a good collection.

The Church and Pastor were very surprised, when one man, not a member of the Church, bought and paid for a full set of bathroom fixtures for our Parsonage. We are very thankful for friends who help us in the cause we are working for: the spread of Christianity at home and abroad.

Our brotherhood meeting Friday night was fine. The pastor of the First Baptist Church of Spur was our main speaker. There were other talks by visitors and local men. There were nineteen men present. A barbecue dinner with all the trimmings was served. We are still waiting for all men in reach of Girard to be with us in these meetings, which are held on Friday nights following the third Sunday in each month.

Christianity is being weighed in the balance and the powers of the Communists are trying to put an end to all religions that claim the Christ as the Son of God, and are trusting him for life and salvation. Therefore, it brings us to our knees (if it should do so) that we might be able to stand when we are tried and tempted. It is high time that we as a Christian Nation stand firm for Christ and the right. To do so takes prayer and plenty of it, with humble hearts, then God will hear and take care of his own.

If you have not been going to Church, try doing so next Lord's Day, and see the difference it will make in your way of thinking.

You will all be welcome to come to the Girard Baptist Church.

First Baptist Church

Someone must have done some visitation last week for we had 3 for Sunday School and others who came for the worship hour. The Lord was surely with us in our services. Bro. Beatty brought a wonderful message from God's word.

The time for our revival meeting is almost here. Are we ready? Have we visited the lost and invited them to attend? If we haven't let's take these few days that remain and visit everyone we possibly can. It is our duty as Christians to bring the lost in. The visiting evangelist can not bring a revival with him. We have to ask God's help and then do what we can. Make plans now to attend every service, starting next Sunday morn-

Principal southwest farm products enjoyed another week of strong markets, the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration reports.

Corn showed a net advance of around 9 to 10 cents a bushel for the week, and wheat 5½ cents. Sorghums gained 3 cents a hundred pounds. No. 1 wheat closed Monday at $2.43½ to $2.48½ in bulk carlots at Texas common points. No. 2 white corn sold from $1.74 to $1.78½, and yellow corn $1.61 to $1.62. No. 2 yellow milo brought $2.70 to $2.75 per hundred.

Rice found slow demand at about unchanged prices. Most feedstuffs sold lower for the week, but wheat millfeeds strengthened. Hay moved at unchanged to $1 higher prices. Shelled peanuts eased slightly. Wool trade remained very quiet.

Cattle sold generally around $1 higher for the week at Texas markets, and some classes gained at Oklahoma City and Denver. However, cows brought lower prices at Oklahoma City. Medium and good grades turned at $16.50 to $17.50 at Oklahoma City and Denver. San Antonio moved common to low medium cows at $16 to $17.50, while Houston cleared canners and cutters at $13.50 to $17.50. Beef cows ranged from $16.50 to $18 at Fort Worth, and canners and cutters $12 to $16.50.

Hog prices advanced 50 cents to mostly $1 during the week, although some changed little at San Antonio. Top butchers cashed at $20.75 at San Antonio, Monday, $21 at Fort Worth, $21.50 at Oklahoma City, and $21.75 at Denver. Most sows cleared at $16 to $17.50 at San Antonio and Oklahoma City.

Various southwest markets took sheep and lambs unchanged to $1 or more higher for the week. Oklahoma City quoted top lambs Monday at $24, and Denver around $25-75. Fort Worth sold good and choice shorn lambs, at $22 to $23.50, and club lambs at $25. Goats lost $1 or so at San Antonio, and kids 50 cents to $1.

Harvest of citrus fruits about reached an early end in the Lower Rio Grande Valley as a result of the January freeze. Good cabbage became rather scarce, and prices rose rapidly during the week. Most weekend loadings sold around $1.50 per 50 pound sack, and straight cars of best quality brought $1.65 to $1.75. Carrots weakened to sell around $2.50 per Los Angeles crate of 6 dozen bunches. Louisiana sweet potatoes held steady, but Colorado potatoes and onions saw dull trade.

Warmer weather brought increased egg production and slightly lower prices last week. Current receipts brought 38 to 39 cents a dozen at Fort Worth, 39 to 40 at Dallas, 37½ to 39 at Denver, and 42 to 43 at New Orleans. Poultry held about steady. Fryers sold from 28 to 30 cents a pound in North Texas.

Cotton lost $1 to $1.50 a bale for the week. Spot middling 15-16 inch closed Monday at 32.35 cents a lb. at Dallas and Houston, and 32.50 at Little Rock.

"In Memory Of Uncle Joe Jenkins"

Written by a niece, Mrs. Lloyd Rudder

When some one you loved
Has gone on beyond,
And your grief is so hard to bear,
Try to think of your loved one,
Who is resting up there,
Forever in Jesus' care.

His friends were many,
His faults were few,
For his wife and children,
Anything he'd do.

His love for them,
Words can't express,
So think of him now,
He is at rest.

His kind face we'll miss each day,
As we travel, along life's way.
But when the trumpet, it does blow,
His dear face, we will behold,
Death is a debt we all must pay,
Some are young, some old and gray.

When Jesus calls,
Each one will go,
Like sheep, that are led into the fold,
If he were here, I'm sure he'd say,
Don't grieve for me, I'm just away,
Peacefully sleeping 'till judgment

day.
Don't grieve for me, I'm just away."

Navy Terminology Amuses Air Force

Navy Squadrons VR-6 and VR-8 joined the Berlin Airlift last November and were kidded considerably for their nautical terminology by their Air Force colleagues. The Air Force soon learned that the deck is the Navy term for the runway, that port is left and starboard right, that and R5D is a C-54, that an airplane is what they call a ship, and that a head is a latrine.

Lt. Ormond C. Fowler, U. S. N., learned that the Air Force does not consider "wheels" to be an automobile. He taxied into his hard-stand or parking ramp, at Rhein-main one morning after a flight to Berlin, called the tower, and requested that a "set of wheels" be sent out to the plane. The tower "rogered." When Fowler cut the engines of his RD-5 he saw, not the crew pickup he had expected, but a set of nose and main gear wheels for the RD-5. "Wheels" to the Air Force are wheels!

Health Department To Conduct Schools

Austin, Texas. — In a vigorous campaign to elevate the State health level by preventing the spread of communicable diseases which might be transmitted by foods, the State Department of Health is conducting training schools for food handlers in all sections of Texas, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

The training schools consist of elementary courses in bacteriology, communicable diseases, medical zoology, foods, disinfection, sterilization, personal hygiene, and sanitation.

Since the program was instituted about 8 years ago, more than 400 schools have been conducted, with a total of over 25,000 food handlers receiving their certificates of completion in the courses.

Arrangements for such a food school can be made through any county health unit, by requesting the service from the Division of Health Education, State Department of Health, Austin, Texas.

Dearborn LIFT TYPE

Field Cultivator really gets down and digs

Spring-actuated shanks permit points to ride over stones or roots and reset themselves automatically. Variety of points available.

Use it shallow for eradicating weeds or mulching . . . or set it full 9 inches deep and really churn the soil. It leaves land in shape to hold moisture and resist wind erosion.

The Dearborn Field Cultivator can be attached to a Ford Tractor in one minute. Hydraulic Touch Control means easy lifting for turns and transport. See it! And remember us for genuine parts and expert service.
