Season's Heralding Christmas Parade Viewed By Big Crowd

The weather was "nippy" but the sun was shining brightly as thousands of persons lined the streets and sidewalks in Haskell last Saturday to see Santa and the world's largest sleigh, and to view the gala Christmas parade.

Parade chairman, C. O. Holt and Otis Elmore, got the parade rolling promptly at 3:00 p. m. Santa Claus and Miss Merry Christmas perched in the pony-powered sleigh, seemed to be the biggest attraction, especially for the wide-eyed children.

Association officers are: O. G. Lewis, president of Rule; J. E. Nix, vice-president of Anson; Weldon Walker of Stamford; E. H. Burnett, of Haskell; Ralph Howe of Seymour and J. P. Jones of Munday.

Final Contract Is Signed For The Comprehensive Planning Survey

The Grant Agreement for Rural Area Official Comprehensive Water or Sewer Planning, was culminated, by signing of the agreement, last Thursday morning when L. B. Patterson of Munday, and James R. Nichols, of the firm of Freese, Nichols & Endress, Consulting Engineers of Fort Worth, met with Joe Boone, local representative of the F.H.A. in Knox City.

This Comprehensive Planning Survey began with a "Set-Up" meeting of area representatives, each from their respective towns, which was held at the Shamrock Cafe in Munday, on March 21, 1966. Officials elected at this meeting, to form an Executive Committee, consisted of L. B. Patterson, chairman; Joe Averitt, of Knox City, vice-chairman; and Abe Turner, Jr. of Haskell, as secretary.

At the above mentioned meeting, Ralph Dent of the F.H.A., informed the group that after July, 1968, no public works would be considered for assistance by the Federal Government without the survey and area planning. He said, "The Federal Government would have to know the needs of the area and what they were doing or proposed to do."

The Survey, or plan, is to be completed not later than nine months from the date of execution of the agreement. It is designed for the guidance of the future development of water and sewer systems in Haskell and Knox Counties. The plan will contain information necessary to avoid overlapping, duplication, undersign, or over-design of water or sewer facilities which may be constructed in the area; reduce, eliminate, or avoid pollution and hazards of health and safety and will embrace all matters required by the agreement for comprehensive area-wide water and sewer planning.

Subjects which will be stressed include communications, combat tactics, equipment maintenance and weapons firing. At the end of the month-long period, the men will be tested on all phases of their training.

Magazine Club Members Hear Facts About The Cowboy's Christmas Ball

The Cowboy Christmas Ball of Anson was the theme of the Magazine Club program December 1, 3:30 p. m., at the club house. Mrs. C. O. Holt served as director for the program.

The history of Anson Jones and his monument was reviewed by Mrs. Lynn Pace Jr. Her revelation of the greatness of this man made each club member more aware of the richness of Texas' heritage.

Anson Jones was the last president of Texas. There is hardly a way to measure the good this man brought to Texas. He was not a politician when he came to Texas from New Orleans. He was financially in strained circumstances and he was making a desperate effort to find a suitable place to pursue his medical profession. He was a methodical and reasonable man; eventually he became a seasoned and important man of public affairs. He served Texas long and eloquently. Texas as government still feels the impact of some of the factors this great man stood for.

The Cowboy Christmas Ball was discussed by Mrs. Bill Richey. She gave the origin of this annual affair, which means much to the citizens of Anson. It is one of the gala events of the early days. One which the cowboys and their ladies looked forward to and made many plans prior to the event. The participants came from many miles around to enjoy the festive occasion.

Mrs. Richey described the dress of the ladies for the ball and customs that have become a tradition.

Karen Pippin read Larry Chittenden's poem, "The Cowboy Christmas Ball."

Mrs. L. B. Burkett and Mrs. E. M. Frierson were hostess for the afternoon.

The Spirit Of Christmas Theme Of B&PW Meeting

An all Christmas theme in decorations, food and program, was carried out at the meeting of the B&PW Club Tuesday evening, December 5, at 7:30 at Folker's Restaurant.

Opal Adkins presided over the meeting and presented Nettie McCollum, who was chairman of the program committee. She first introduced Mrs. Milam Dings, speech instructor in Haskell High, who in turn introduced two of her students, Pam Reeves and Linda Riley.

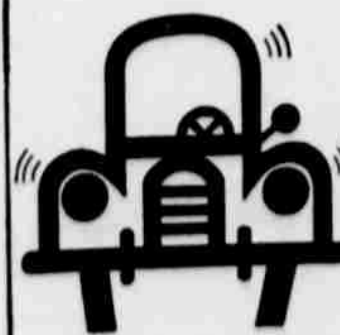

Pam told a story of a youth at near Christmastime, finding an instructor to help with home work. But, oddly ended-up with some firm discipline from his mother, all because of drinking a little too much wine poured from a long spout bottle.

Linda told the story of the "Littlest Stork," the stork family, ancestors, and their purpose and mission. "The Littlest Stork" had many calamities and troubles learning to fly and perform his duties at Christmastime, delivering babies to families. He finally performed perfectly, flying from Paradise to the earth.

All of this in imaginary speech was delivered with extraordinary expression and fantasy. The young ladies are to be commended for their fine work and Mrs. Dings is certainly the one to receive glory and praise for her efforts and fine instruction. Members and guest enjoyed the dinner and program, all in a Christmas spirit.

Keep Hazards At A Minimum; As Fires Never Take A Holiday

Assistant State Fire Marshal, Charles Meadows issued a reminder that "Fire Never Takes a Holiday," and the N.F.P.A. offers these suggestions for keeping home fire hazards at a minimum this Christmas:

1. When selecting your Christmas tree, choose a fresh one. Saw it off at a sharp angle at least an inch above the original cut. Stand the tree in water from the time you buy it until you dispose of it. Don't rely on do-it-yourself "flameproofing" treatments—none are reliably effective. Place the tree well away from radiators and fireplaces, and out of the escape path in case of fire.

2. If you choose an artificial tree be sure it is made of slow-burning materials and carries a tag indicating it is "flameproof." Metal trees will conduct electricity, so use only indirect lighting on them; strings of lights on a metal tree can create a dangerous shock hazard. If your tree has a built-in lighting system, it should carry the Underwriters' Laboratories (UL) label.

3. Decorative lighting requires the utmost care. Before using, check strings of lights for frayed wires, loose connections and broken sockets. Never use wax candles on or near the tree, or with polystyrene foam candle holders or decorations. Turn off all tree and other holiday lighting before leaving the house or retiring. For outdoor lighting, use only sets listed for outdoor use by the Underwriters' Laboratories.

4. Use noncombustible decorating materials—metal, glass, asbestos, etc.—as far as possible. If materials which burn easily—such as cotton batting, flock and paper—cannot be avoided, be sure they are marked "flameproof," which indicates they have been treated to make them flame resistant.

5. Dispose of gift wrappings promptly and safely. Never burn them in an indoor fireplace.

6. Be extra careful about smoking near the tree and other decorations.

Merchants are also urged to take special precaution against fire during the Christmas season.

Students Are Urged To Enter The Soil Conservation Essay Contest

"Conservation: Key To Texas Prosperity" is the theme of the 23rd annual "Save The Soil and Save Texas" conservation awards program this year. The program consists of an essay contest which is being sponsored locally by the California Creek Soil & Water Conservation District," according to Birger Haterius, board chairman.

A first prize of $200.00 will go to the state winner. In addition, 50 trophies and medals will be presented to other state winners by the Fort Worth Press, sponsor of the state-wide awards program.

Local district winners will receive the following prizes: First, $25.00, second $20.00, third $15.00, fourth $10.00, and fifth $5.00.

Haterius reminded that essays should be sent to the California Creek S&WCD, Box 509, Stamford, Texas, by January 5, 1968. Any boy or girl 19 years old or younger may enter. It is an open contest and does not affect Intercollegiate League eligibility.

"I would recommend that students use their initiative and imagination in telling how conservation is the key to Texas prosperity," Haterius stated. Last year's district winner was Dwight Overton, High School. His him a medal on the

ROCHESTER MAN DISTRICT CONSERVATION WINNER

If a rancher in the Rochester area isn't satisfied with his present grazing, he might do well to follow "the Russell Plan."

Drawn up with the help of the Soil Conservation Service in Knox County, the plan is the brainchild of Paul Russell. It has won him the district's title of Outstanding Conservation Farmer for 1967, according to Jack Idol, chairman of the Wichita-Brazos Soil and Water Conservation District board of supervisors.

Russell, who operates a 1,361-acre livestock farm five miles west of Rochester, has proven that the plan works and he does not hesitate to recommend a conservation program to his neighbors and friends. At present he is even in the process of heading a drive to raise funds for a grass drill to use in the area.

Russell's long range conservation plan on his farm is nearing the completion stages. The plan was started in December, 1961, with technical help and cost sharing from the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Soil Conservation Service in cooperation with the Wichita Brazos Soil and Water Conservation District.

The eight-year contract under the Great Plains Program is a complete soil, water and plant conservation plan, according to Arche Lieb, work unit conservationist with the SCS at Knox City. It is designed to improve livestock feed supplies as well as reduce soil erosion.

"The conservation plan provides for the use of soil protecting, moisture conserving practices to be applied within the eight-year period," Lieb said.

This includes conservation management such as proper use of rangeland and pastureland, along with residue management on cropland. Based on a survey of the farm's soil resources, the plan called for the conversion of 875-acres of lower grade cropland to permanent grass pastureland and revegetation on 75 acres of rangeland. About two miles of new fence have been constructed to protect grass plantings during establishment.

This year, Russell has established 160-acres of Coastal Bermuda grass pasture, making a total of 740 acres of irrigated Coastal Bermuda. An additional 130 acres of dryland acreage will be planted in Blackwell Switchgrass.

Blackwell Switchgrass was used in range reseeding on a 75-acre pasture and the results were so good, Russell decided to use the grass for his pasture plantings.

"We have tried several methods of seedbed preparation," Russell said, "but have had the best results with a clean, well-prepared seedbed. Weed competition must be controlled. We have sprayed our seedings with 2-4-D sometimes two and three times.

"As soon as competition is properly controlled," he continued, "the proper amount of fertilizer should be applied."

Russell said the work begun on the farm is "the best thing that ever happened to it."

"It takes time and money and technical know-how," he said, "plus determination and patience," he pointed out, adding that management and follow-up work will be the key to success or failure of his soil and water conservation plan.

HOSPITALS AND YOU

For the first seven months of 1967, hospital costs throughout the nation have increased 14.3 per cent over the same period of 1966.

What are hospitals going to do about it, the public wants to know. What are the reasons, and how and when will it level off?

Alfred Turnbow, administrator of Haskell County Hospital, explains that hospitals do not apologize for rapidly increasing costs. "Many factors pushing costs up the scale are external ones—something hospitals have no control over." He cited wage increases, expensive equipment, and special care areas, such as intensive care units and coronary care units, as costly factors.

"Hospitals cannot control the cost of a said piece of equipment, but they can refuse to buy the many costly items available. That one costly machine, however—a respirator, for instance, which takes over breathing functions for an infant fighting to expand his lungs—may save a life.

Could you, if you were me, say "no?" Today the nation's hospitals are caught up in an explosion of technical knowledge. Medical science has already increased the average life span 20 years. Ten years ago an x-ray department in a hospital could be fully equipped at a cost of $10,000. Today, the cost is from $50,000 to $80,000.

"Equipment in a hospital never wears out, it only becomes obsolete," said the Administrator.

Physicians and hospital officials have discovered patients benefit greatly when all critically ill patients can be confined in one area, designated as an intensive care unit, rather than distributed throughout the hospital in private rooms, often far from the central nursing station. Another new concept in care for heart patients is a coronary care unit. Studies show a 30 per cent lower fatality rate is the result of treatment in such a unit. Equipment and special care units are expensive items, "but your health is the most precious asset you have," emphasizes the hospital administrator. "Would you trade it for a dollar, or even many dollars?"

Haskell County History

30 YEARS AGO
(December 10, 1937)

A new norther, close on the heels of yesterday's seasonal low temperatures in Haskell, swept from the north Wednesday night and dropped the thermometer to 18 degrees.

Mrs. J. R. Cooper, Mrs. A. C. Pierson and Juanita Dunlap were in Abilene Saturday afternoon.

Change in ownership of the Arthur Edwards Barber Shop to become effective Monday, December 20, was announced this week. The business has been purchased by Roy and Floyd Cook, local barbers, who will operate the business in the future. Mr. Edwards stated that he would retain office space in the barber shop building, where he will continue his occupation of jeweler and watchmaker and the practice of magnetic healing. Messrs. Cook announced that several changes would be made in the arrangement of fixtures in the shop, with possible shop additions.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Duncan spent Sunday in Stamford where they visited relatives.

T. J. Arbuckle visited his mother in Fort Worth Saturday. Cotton ginnings in Haskell County totaled 41,644 bales prior to December 1, as compared with 19,287 bales for the 1966 crop, more than twice the amount this year from the same corresponding period.

Proof of the utmost in honesty was evidenced here Wednesday when J. R. Johnson, high school youth, found a $10.00 bill on the streets and brought it to the Free Press where the owner could claim it. The bill was claimed later at the office by Nat Foster, farmer, and J. R. will have money for an added Christmas gift as a reward for his honesty—a $1.00 and a sense of good worthiness of his own conduct.

Returning last Saturday from Gillespie county, a party composed of C. O. Scott, R. B. Guess, Rev. R. Whitley and Sam A. Roberts brought back a nine-point buck killed by Sam Roberts during their stay of several days.

W. E. Taylor and son and Floyd Rogers of this city made a trip to Paint Creek where they reported catching five possums and getting into the city just as the norther came up. Mr. Taylor said the bottoms were full of hunters that night.

A. J. Jussett of Howard and H. M. Rike of Haskell shipped two ears of fat calves to the Ft. Worth Market Tuesday of this week and instead of going in the train with their cattle they drove through to Fort Worth in an auto.

B. M. Whitaker and son John left Tuesday morning for Maderia Springs in the Davis Mountains where they will spend several days with friends on the Kingston Ranch and join in a deer hunt in the mountains. From there they will go to Van Horn where they will join another party in a several days' hunt. Mr. Whitaker will combine business with pleasure, as he will work the towns enroute soliciting memberships in the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

In the last meeting of the local Odd Fellows Lodge, officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: Dennis Ratliff, Noble Grand; Vaughn Bailey, Vice Grand; Jack Sills, secretary; H. R. Jones, treasurer; J. H. Lawson, C. W. Me-

Kelvin and L. D. Ratliff, trustees of the building fund. V. A. Brown was elected delegate to the Grand Lodge and J. H. Lawson, alternate.

Felix Frierson and son, Ervin, Tom Holland, Webb Stark, Tom Clark and Mr. Hall of the Cotton Exchange constituted a party of possum hunters who left early Tuesday night for Paint Creek.

John and Rod Clifton and O. B. Ratliff, three Haskell boys, while looking through the old rock quarry on Paint Creek last Sunday, where the stone for the Haskell County Courthouse was taken out, got into a den of rattlesnakes and they succeeded in killing 10 large ones and could hear others singing among the rocks.

J. B. Pounds called in the other day and collected the premiums awarded him at the Haskell Fair on his exhibit of watermelons. Mr. Pounds is one of the most successful melon growers in the country, for which reason he is sometimes referred to as "Watermelon Pounds." The largest melon in his display at the fair weighed 72 pounds. But watermelons are not his only strong point. His cribs and sheds are generally found well-stocked with corn, maize and forage and his cotton crops are not behind the other fellows.

Messrs. Guest & Abbott, who were putting in a lumber yard near the old courthouse building, have purchased the stock and yards of the Citizen's Lumber Company, located North of the Wright Hotel and will hereafter carry on their business at that place.

Mr. C. J. Miller is just back again from Smith county with a lot of pure, home made ribbon cane molasses for sale. Mr. Miller tells us he is back again in Haskell to stay this time.

Married on Tuesday, 3rd inst., at the residence of the bride's parents in the east part of town, Mr. Ernest Brewer and Miss Effie May Waggoner with Rev. Meadors officiating. Mr. T. C. Cahill of the Haskell Real Estate Company says the land business is looking up again and the indications are that the panic is a thing of the past.

Messrs. Clarence Knight and Stanley Switzer, who were for some time on the Herald force at this place, have gone to Hawley to establish a newspaper.

A portion of the south side school building is completed and the departments of the public school which have been conducted in the old courthouse will be moved to the new building day. Mr. Lewis Fields is his brother in New Mexico. Mr. and Mrs. Gustafson of the east side were city trading Monday.

Miles Bulldogs Overpower Paint Creek Pirates For Regional Honors

The previously undefeated

Paint Creek Pirates, champions of District 4-B six-man football, were victims of an upset Friday night here, as the Miles Bulldogs romped to a 64-26 victory. The win gave the Bulldogs the regional title and left their season record at 10 wins and two losses, while the Pirates finished the season with a record of 11 and 1. A large crowd was on hand for the contest, which took place on Indian Field.

Paint Creek hit paydirt early in the first quarter on a screen pass from Steve Livengood to Jim Ballard which covered 41 yards. Livengood's attempt at the two-point extra point kick was no good, and the Pirates held a slim 6-0 lead.

With 4:38 left in the same period, it was the Pirates on the move again, as a pass from Ricky Perry to Dudley Coakrell was good for 22 yards and Paint Creek's second touchdown. Livengood's kick again failed.

Following a 52-yard touchdown run by Walter Holik of Miles, Ballard raced 36 yards on a fake reverse for his second TD of the night, and Livengood passed to him for the point-after. At the end of the first quarter, the Pirates held a 19-6 lead.

The second stanza was an entirely different story. Paint Creek, unable to muster effective drives on offense, were smothered by 22 Miles points. Bulldog Wayne Klattenhoff scored from five yards out; he repeated four minutes later on a 28-yard scoring scamper; a 6-yard TD pass from Ronnie Hohensoe to Stacy Mohler ended the quarter, but during it Klattenhoff had added 4 points on extra-point kicks. And the Miles Bulldogs possessed a 28-19 half-time lead.

In the third period came another scoring barrage by the Bulldogs. With 7:30 remaining, Holik passed to Clifford Fritze on a 7-yard touchdown play; Klattenhoff's point-after kick was good, Holik carried on a 33-yard run for Miles' next six points, and the PAT failed. The Bulldogs' final tally of the quarter came on a 44-yard pass play. Hohensoe to Mohler, and Klattenhoff split the uprisings for two more.

Then the Pirates came roaring back, with :29 left in the period, as Coakrell picked off a Miles pass, and ran it back the full distance of 74 yards into the end zone. The Pirates faked the extra-point kick and a pass from Perry found Livengood in the right spot for another Pirate point.

Miles final two touchdowns came in the fourth period; the first on a 59-yard run by Holik, and two-point conversion by Klattenhoff; the second on a 47-yard TD run by Fritze. The remaining 6:15 was scoreless, and the Miles Bulldogs returned home with the Regional trophy.

MRS. DELBERT LEFEVRE

The cotton harvest is gradually starting in our community; but with showers the first part of the week and some last week, it is very slow. The Sagerton Gin had ginned 620 bales as of Monday. The maize harvest is nearly complete, but there is still some left in the fields.

Pat Sellers came home last weekend after staying in Houston with his wife, Margie, at M. D. Anderson Hospital there. Margie is hoping to come home too sometime this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Ross and Yvonne spent Thanksgiving in Dublin with Barney's mother, Mrs. M. D. Ross, and other relatives. Mrs. Harvie Jordan visited with her mother in a Rest Home in Lubbock last weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Lois Young enjoyed last weekend hunting deer near Doss.

Mr. and Mrs. August Angerman spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Angerman in Austin. Other guests there were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rosenhauer and Mr. and Mrs. John Angerman and family of Waco.

Mrs. Emil Kainer and Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Ender had Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Broadshaw and family in Stamford.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Spiegelhauer of Lueders and Mrs. Hilda Koch visited with Mr. and Mrs. August Angerman Sun-
