Methodist Revival To Open Here Sunday

JACK ALLISON GRAY, JR.

A revival meeting is planned for Jayton at the First United Methodist church, to begin Aug. 3rd and continue through the 9th.

Services will be daily at 7:00 a.m. and 8:30 p.m. Visiting evangelist is Jack A. Gray, Jr. of Dallas.

Jack Allison Gray, Jr. was born in McLean in the panhandle of Texas 39 years ago, on April 13, 1931. He began school in Dumas, moving to Denton at the age of 10. He completed grade school and high school in Denton and graduated from North Texas State University in 1951 with a B. S. in Education, majoring in Psychology, Speech and Sociology. He attended Perkins School of Theology of S. M. U., receiving a Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1954, and followed this by special study at the same school in 1961.

His first pastoral assignment was the Era-Spring Creek Churches near Gaines ville. From there he went to the First Methodist Church of Grand Amairie as Associate Pastor from 1951-52; to the DeSoto Methodist Church from 1952-55, and then to Lubbock, as Minister to Youth of the First Methodist Church in Lubbock from 1955-57. It was here that 519 youth of Jr. High, Sr. High and college began calling him "Brother Jack." In 1957-60 he served the Church Farmersville, followed by the Trinity Methodist Church in Denison from 1960-63. Following his pastoral appointment at Cockrell Hill United Methodist Church, Dallas, from 1963-68, he was elected and appointed by Bishop W. Pope as a Conference Evangelist of the North Texas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church.

He likes to play golf, is a private pilot, has coached and officiated at football, is a 32nd Degree Mason, an Eagle Scout and a Wood Badge Scout master of four Scout Special Classes In compliance with a recent state ruling, Pike Nichols and Ruth Spradling of the Kent County Nursing Home and Louise Atkins and Joyce Reynolds of Spur are attending classes two nights eachweek, at Howard County Jr. College, Big Springs, each week. This is a course required for Nursing Home personnel and will continue for six months.

Thanks To All Who Helped

We would like to take this opportunity to say Thank You to everyone who helped to make our Little League All-Star Tournament such a success. A very special thanks to those good-natured men who had the job of calling the games, both behind the plate and the bases. To the Lions who helped with the opening ceremonies and did such a great job of helping in the concession stand. We would never have made it without such good help. Also thanks to everyone who donated things for the concession stand and to the best group of parents in the state. Also a huge sized thanks goes to County Judge and the Commissioners who have made it possible for us to have such a beautiful park and playing field. One more thanks to the people who attended the games from here and from other towns. It is so nice to live in a county where we have such nice people. All these things have made it a wonderful close to a very busy Little League

Girard Pioneer Still Working At Age 94

M. A. Darden, 94, is shown here, as the camera caught him one day last week, hoeing weeds out of his field near his home in Girard.

A pioneer resident of Girard, he moved there before the turn of the century. He and Mrs. Darden had been married 69 years at her death recently. Among other things, he saw the railroad come and go. At one time it filled an important place in the lives of the people of Girard. Helaments the fact the train no longer is around to carry the mail. "Now, if you want to mail a letter to Spur, 15 miles away, it must go to Abilene, Lubbock, and back to Spur." he said. "And they call that progress."

There are two things that are important in his life, the church and the community. In this picture, he is shown just across the highway from the Girard First Baptist Church where he is a devoted member of long standing.

Without too much provocation, he will take pen in hand, and tell the people how they should be more devoted to the Church.

Also, he is a close student' of politics, of the loyal, moderate Democratic brand. And, here too, he is plain spoken, not only on a state and national level, but locally. People far and near have read his name many times in the Letter to the Editor columns of the most of Texas' leading daily papers.

USDA Gives Delay Order On Wheat Referendum

Secretary of Agriculture, Clifford M. Hardin, has announced postponement of the national wheat referendum previously scheduled for July 27-31, according to W. E. Walker, Chairman of the (State, County) Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committee. The action was authorized by Congress.

The postponement permits the USDA to delay holding the referendum not later than October 15, 1970, or 30 days after Congress adjourns, whichever date is earlier.

Accordingly, the U. S. Department of Agriculture's ASCS, which administers the wheat, feed grain, and you can iron, measure, and cut reasonably well, you'll have shades fit to be hung in a few hours' time.

In selecting a fabric to iron onto the adhesive shade cloth, ose a firmly woven cotton for best results. Pick one that matches or contrasts with walls, repeats a chair or couch cover, or supplies a major color point in tone and tex-

To determine yardage needed. add six inches to the height of the window opening and one inch to the width of the shade.

Before beginning the laminating process, install mounting brackets at window. Cut roller to size and cap it, then insert into brackets to be sure it fits properly. Set roller aside for later use when trimming shade to exact width.

For a clean-lined look, make 'reverse roll" shades-with the roller side facing towards the window. Here's how.

(1.) Square off one end of fabric so the edge is straight and even. Press with a dry iron to remove any wrin-kles or creases, and mark fabric center top and bottom with tailor's chalk. Set aside. Cut adhesive shade cloth 18" longer than your window height and wider than the finished shade. From this cut piece, cut ing shade to roller:

for use as a pressing cloth. Measure down 2" from top of adhesive shade cloth and draw line across the entire width. (3.) Place squared edge of fabric on this marked line, aligning center marks at top roller attachments and set aside.

(2.) Now place shade cloth adhesive-side up on a large flat surface like a floor or table.

and bottom and securing cor ners. Set iron at temperature suited to your fabric, and press fabric onto shade cloth—working from center to edges with, a slow, even pressure. Use liner paper as a pressing cloth and check frequently to be sure you're not ironing any wrin-kles into the fabric. (If wrinkles do appear, pull the fabric loose re-iron.) Allow shade to cool to room temperature for a secure bond.

(4.) To trim shade to proper width, center your pre-cut roller at top of shade. Mark a line on the fabric one-fourth of an inch from the inside of each end of metal caps on the roller. (Measurements must be accurate if shade is to roll properly.) Use a yardstick to draw vertical lines down each side of the shade, outlining the width. Be sure vertical lines are the same distance apart at top, center, and bottom of shade. Use sharp seissors to cut along these lines for the finished shade edges.

(5.) For the slat pocket, fold a 1½" strip at bottom of shade over to the back. Now lightly press the 2" strip of shade cloth you cut off earlier (adhesive side down) to the foldedback strip. (One inch will extend beyond each side edge and a small margin above hem edge flush to inside fold of hem and press firmly along upper edge of slat. Allow to cool and then trim.

(6.) Before attaching shade to roller, place 8" strip of shade cloth adhesive-side down on the exposed 2" strip left at top shade-with lower edge of shade cloth strip meeting top edge of fabric. Press together, holding upper edge of shade cloth strip away from work surface. Allow to cool and trim.

Remeasure top edge of shade cloth to be sure it is straight and parallel with upper edge of fabric.

(7.) Place upper edge of shade cloth strip along blue line on roller and press just enough to anchor this edge to roller. Wind shade over roller surface, constantly pressing to obtain a complete bond. Continue to roll and press until you reach the end of the ad-hesive. Now your shade is completed and ready to have

Matters of Opinion

"This suit," the friendly salesman told Fred, "will wear like

About a year later, Fred brought the suit back and asked for a refund. He complained that the fabric was beginning to show signs of deterioration. When the store turned him down, he went to court to demand damages for breach of contract.

"Their salesman promised me that the suit would wear like iron," he said. "That was a false statement."

Nevertheless, the court rejected Fred's claim. The court said the salesman's statement was merely an expression of opinion, not a binding commitment.

As a general rule, the law permits a seller of merchandise to do a good deal of boasting in matters of opinion. The reason. in the words of Judge Learned

"There are some kinds of talk which no sensible man takes seriously.

But the law is stricter when it comes to matters of fact. Take this situation:

A home owner, selling his house assured the buyer that it was "in perfect condition." But at the first rain, the buyer found out that the house was honeycombed with leaks. He also found out that the problem had existed for years, defying costly efforts to clear it up.

Here, a court upheld the buyer's claim for damages. The court said the seller's statement that the house was "in perfect condition" had been a deliberate misstatement of fact.

Attend The Church of Your Choice

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the great-est factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democ-Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his ohildren's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The hub of a railroad—the classification yard you, without training or experience, take charge here? Could you sort and "spot" thousands of cars, have them ready at the right time on the right track to go out with

But every day your mind performs an operation even more complex. You sort and classify your thoughts and impulses. You decide what is right and wrong. You determine which actions are urgent, and which can be deferred. You resolve that some goals are important, and others are secondary. And every decision affects your life, and the lives of others!

Preparing men and women—and boys and girls—to make the right decisions is one of the great functions of the Church. There are sound Christian standards by which life's choices should be sorted. There is confidence and strength for those who seek, learn and practice the true Way of Life.
