Rig For Test Well Delayed at Brownood Expected Here Soon

Owing to some cause not yet ascertained, the oil rig for the Abernathy test well, which was shipped from Santa Anna last Saturday, was held up at Brownwood, and did not reach here at the time expected.

A. S. Mims of Fort Worth was here Tuesday, and on learning of the non-arrival of the rig, left at once for Brownwood to find the cause of the delay.

A telegram from him Wednesday night stated that he had the matter straightened out, and that the shipment was on the way by through freight.

New equipment in the way of cables has been ordered out of Panhandle, and it is expected that the material will be assembled here at an early date.

Everything possible is being done to expedite the starting of the test, and assurance is had that it will be only a very short time until actual work is begun.

ENTERTAINS JUNIOR SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dolph Adkisson entertained the Junior Sunday School class of the Methodist Church at their home last Friday night.

The little tots had a glorious time playing various games, and enjoying the delightful refreshments which were served.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Clay of Pagosa Springs, Colorado, left Wednesday for their home, after a visit here with Rev. M. M. Young and family.

Rea Milling Co. Building Addition to Mill Install Feed Grinder

Quite extensive improvements and additions are being made at the plant of the Rea Milling Company on the east side of town.

A new storeroom is being built along the entire east side of the present building, together with a loading platform. The new addition will be 12 feet by 36 feet, and will make available much needed room in the mill house.

Awaiting installation by the Milling company is a new Hammer Mill feed grinder, which they are adding to their equipment. This mill will enable the grinding of heads, bundles, ear corn and hay, and will prove of great value to the farmers of this section who are desirous of having their feed stuff ground.

With the addition of this feed grinder, the Rea Milling Company can boast of a complete and up-to-date plant, and one which is a distinct asset to Abernathy.

The products of the mill are in demand all over this section, and have an enviable reputation for uniform quality and excellence. Several large stores in this section are handling the Abernathy Milling Company products exclusively, and report their patrons as being delighted with them.

In addition to their famous Texas Beauty Flour, the Rea Milling Co. also puts out the Texas Beauty meal and a pancake flour, both of which products are rated highly.

Just recently, the Milling Co. have inaugurated an exchange plan of wheat for flour, and this plan is meeting with the favor of a large number of farmers of this section.

FLAG DAY

June 14th

JUNE 14, 1927, IS THE 150th ANNIVERSARY OF THE ADOPTION OF THE AMERICAN FLAG

Though many and bright are the stars that appear
In that flag, by our country unfurled—
And the stripes that are swelling in majesty there
Like a rainbow adorning the world—
Their light is unsullied as those in the sky,
By a deed that our fathers have done;
And they're leagued in as true and as holy a tie
In their motto of "Many in One."

From the hour when those patriots fearlessly flung
That banner of star-light abroad,
Ever true to themselves to that banner they clung,
As they clung to the promise of God,
By the bayonet traced at the midnight of war,
On the fields where our glory was won—
Oh! perish the heart or the hand that would mar
Our motto of "Many in One."

Then up with the flag! Let it stream in the air
Though our fathers are cold in their graves;
They had hands that could strike, they had souls that could dare
To do and to die. Where it waves,
The emblem of justice and freedom for all,
Our millions shall rally around;
And a nation of freemen that moment shall fall
When its stars shall be trailed on the ground.

—George Washington Cutter.

Hale County Fair Exhibits Are Now Being Arranged

Already material for the Hale County exhibits at the various fairs this fall in Texas is being assembled with the opening of the wheat harvest. Frank Brown, assistant secretary, has been in the field for several days securing samples of bundle wheat, oats, barley, rye and speltz for use in the various exhibits. Since the combine harvester has taken the day the gathering of these bundles is a hard matter, for they must be cut by hand, and competition has become so keen at the State Fair of Texas that in many cases it is necessary to select each straw separately.

Some excellent exhibits are being found, and Hale county will make another strong bid for honors this year. Because of conditions over the State it is thought that we have a good chance to win high honors again. The number of exhibits from over the State will possibly be cut down somewhat on account of the unfavorable weather conditions in other parts of Texas. It is a good year for West Texas to go to the fairs strong and show that droughts do not prevent the making of crops in this section.—Plainview C. of C. Magazine.

Farm Loan Association Increases Capital Stock Elect Two Directors

At a recent meeting of the directors of the Abernathy National Farm Loan Association, the capital stock of the association was increased from $30,000 to $40,000, permitting them to loan up to $720,000.

Since the Federal Land Bank reduced its rate of interest August 1, 1926 to 5 per cent, our local association has had a wonderful increase in business. And why shouldn't it? as it is the only lending agency that lends money at 5 per cent and gives the borrowers 36 years in which to pay it back on the amortization plan, paying 1 per cent of the principal each year.

At this meeting, two new directors, O. C. Curry and W. A. McKenzie, were elected as directors, and W. A. McKenzie was appointed to the Loan committee.

L. A. Herral is president of the Abernathy Association, J. P. Settle is vice-president, H. E. Richter, secretary, and the directorate, in addition to the newly-elected members, is composed of B. D. Hughes, A. O. Vaughn and W. J. Daniel.

Friena Bank Robbed of $4,000 Saturday Robbers Not Caught

Amarillo, Texas, June 4th.—The Friena State Bank at Friena, about sixty miles southwest of here, was robbed of about $4,000 at 1:00 o'clock Friday by two bandits, one masked and one unmasked, a long-distance call from G. B. Anderson, cashier of the bank, said.

Three persons, F. M. Osborne, assistant cashier, Floyd Schlenker and a farmer whose name was not known, were in the bank when the bandits entered. They were locked in the vault and released about ten minutes after the robbers had left the city, headed north.

The bandits are reported to have been in a large coupe. Banks in Amarillo have been heavily guarded all day in anticipation of a robbery here. It is believed by members of the sheriff's department that the robbers decided to take their chance on making a good haul in a small town. Advances had been received from El Paso indicating that one of the Amarillo banks was to be robbed Friday.

The two men, said to be average-appearing persons, robbed the bank quickly and quietly, going about getting the money in a manner which characterized them as professionals.

A complete check on the loss had not been made, but Mr. Anderson declared he was sure it would be between $3,000 and $4,000.

The Friena bank was robbed last September, less than $100 being taken at that time. The bank is the fourth to be robbed in the Panhandle in the last few weeks. The Pampa bank was robbed a short time ago of $25,000.

New Arrivals

Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Brown are the proud parents of a little daughter, who was born on May 27th. Virginia Louise is the name of the little Miss.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Rutledge of the Eagle Springs community are rejoicing over the arrival of fine daughter, Anne Laverne, who arrived May 28th.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gilliland are the proud parents of a fine baby boy, who arrived on May 31st.

Several improvements are being made at the Emmett Williams home in Abernathy. The improvements include the repapering of the house, and a general fixing up, and the erection of a new garage.

Good Rains All Around Light Rain Falls Here Monday; Quarter Inch

The long-hoped for rain appeared to have materialized Monday night when about 1:30 the rain began to fall quite heavily.

The shower, for such it proved to be, was of short duration, and only about a quarter of an inch fall was had.

Whilst not to any extent relieving the situation in regards to the planting of cotton, the rain was of some slight benefit, laying the dust for a day or two, and cooling the atmosphere appreciably.

Rain has been reported over several sections of the Panhandle the past few days, varying from heavy rains to light showers and hail storms. Following are reports from nearby points:

Heavy Downpour South of Lubbock
While Lubbock received a mere sprinkle from the heavy clouds of Sunday afternoon, Posey, Acuff, Slaton and a few scattered sections of Lubbock county are smiling over a coverage of rain which justifies the planting of cotton. Some portions of the county are materially aided, reports D. F. Eaton, county agent.

Bus drivers returning from Sweetwater report soggy roads almost throughout the entire route. The entire rain was accompanied by heavy winds in some places. At O'Donnell where there was no rain a miniature cyclone was reported to have done much damage to barns and out-houses, although no one was injured.

Sections west of Lubbock remained dry. Spur is enthusiastic over a heavy coverage of rain which adds gusto to farmers in a wide territory surrounding that town.—Lubbock Avalanche.

Rain at Slaton

Slaton, June 6th.—Rain gauges showed the precipitation here Sunday afternoon to have reached fully one inch, the first rain of consequence this section has had within four months. The Slaton territory was drenched to the east and southeast, while the rain extended only about six miles west. There is now plenty of moisture for planting cotton and other crops. Farmers and business men are jubilant.

Light Rains in Hale County

A light rainfall Monday night was general over this section of the country, according to the reports of the local branch of the U. S. Weather bureau, .23 of an inch being reported in Plainview.

Reports from nearby communities indicate that the rain was lighter north of Plainview and about the same consistency in other directions.

It is not thought that the rain was heavy enough in any part of the county to materially affect the wheat harvest except to prevent cutting for a short time.

MICHAEL'S SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS ENJOY REGULAR FIRST FRIDAY SOCIAL

Michael's Sunday School class of the Methodist church enjoyed their regular first Friday social on last Friday evening, driving out to the home of Flake Paschal.

A sumptuous feast was provided for the class, and they enjoyed the social hour which followed.

This class is making an enviable reputation for attendance on Sundays, on last Sunday there being 23 out of the 24 members present for the services.

Harvest In Full Swing Yield More Than Expected; Tests Good

The wheat harvest is now in full swing, as the almost constant stream of trucks laden with the golden grain on their way to the elevators will testify.

Save for a slight pause following the rain of Monday night, the harvest has been going full blast since last Thursday, when the first load of 1927 wheat was brought in.

Despite the lack of rain for the past six months, the yield this year is good, a conservative estimate placing the general average over this section at 16 bushels to the acre. The wheat is all making a good test, being of almost invariably excellent quality.

The market opened at $1.30 a bushel, and is quoted at $1.25 today.

Up to Wednesday of this week, 27 cars of wheat had been loaded out from the two Abernathy elevators, 15 from the Plains Grain Co., and 12 by the Farmers' Coal and Grain Co.

Both elevators are now running day and night, and even at that are having a hard time keeping up with the crop.

Several men have been added to the forces of the two elevators, and both are now fully prepared to handle the crop.

In addition to the facilities here, both of the elevators are running a receiving station at Alley Switch, each having scales and a loader at that place.

Several yields well above the average are reported, of which the following are a few:

P. H. Moore on the B. D. Hughes place cut wheat which ran 30 bushels to the acre.

W. R. Hall is making 23 3/4 bushels, which is testing 62 pounds.

Harp Brothers, 5 miles north of town, are making 27 bushels to the acre.

Wheat growers are requested to let The Review know about the yields they are making. Such information will be greatly appreciated.

Legion Post Head Expresses Thanks for Poppy Sale Success

The following letter was received by Geo. W. Ragland from the Commander of the American Legion Post at Lubbock, and which speaks very well for the generosity and patriotism of Abernathy citizens:

June 2, 1927.
Mr. G. W. Ragland,
Abernathy, Texas.
Dear Buddy:

In behalf of the local Post of the American Legion, I wish to thank you and the good people of Abernathy for the splendid service and wonderful donation you made to the American Legion Endowment fund for widows and orphans of Ex-Service men, at your Poppy sale last Saturday.

The amount of fifty-two dollars was an unusually large amount for a town the size of yours, and it shows that you good folks have not forgotten the boys who went across the water to fight for liberty and democracy that we might have peace, happiness and prosperity.

If there is anything, at any time, that our Post can do to assist you good people, please do not hesitate to call on us, for we are at your service.

Fraternally yours,
F. D. RUPE, Post Commander,
Allen Brothers Post, American Legion, Lubbock, Texas.

CONTENTED ISOLATION

The average Louisiana farmer gets up early, at the alarm of a Connecticut clock; buttons his Chicago suspenders to Detroit overalls; puts on a pair of cowhide shoes made in Ohio; washes in a Pittsburgh tin basin, using Cincinnati soap, and dries on a cotton towel made in New Hampshire; sits down to a Grand Rapids table; eats hot biscuits made with Minneapolis flour, Kansas City bacon and Indiana grits fried in Omaha lard on a St. Louis stove. Buys Irish potatoes raised in Michigan, and canned fruit put up in California, seasoned with Rhode Island spices. Claps on his old wool work hat made in Philadelphia, puts New York Harness on a Missouri mule, fed on Iowa corn, and plows his farm covered by a Massachusetts mortgage with an India plow.

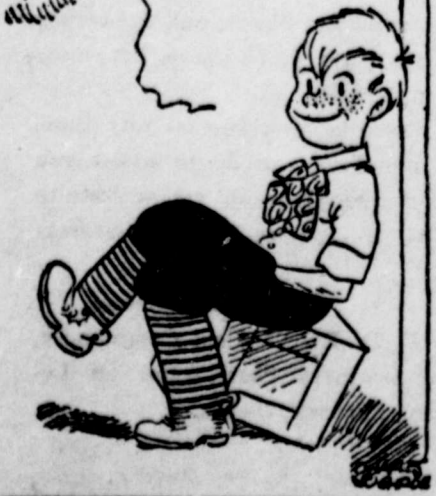

At night he crawls under a New Jersey blanket, and is kept awake by a Louisiana dog, the only home product on the place.—Farm Market sayings.

The following is a correct sentence. Punctuate and capitalize it, according to your version and send the answer in. We cannot give a prize for a proper solution, but will make "honorable mention" in The Review and that alone should be an incentive for any one to buck up and give it a trial. This is open for school children or anyone else five to ninety-six years of age. Here goes: that that is is that is not is not.

Bull Circle Plan of Plains Gaining Much Attention Over State

In a recent issue of the Progressive Farmer is an article showing the work that has been done in Hale and adjoining counties in dairy development. Hale county is shown to head the list in the importation of purebred Jersey bulls. Because of the wide interest which the dairy industry is attracting in this section, we reproduce the article herewith:

Bull Circles Make Dairying Profitable

Texas is beginning to relieve herself of the embarrassment that has come to her because she is one of the most backward states of the Union in average production of her dairy cows. The statement that there is profit to be derived from dairy cows is entirely too general, because we know that there are thousands of unprofitable cows in Texas today. The more rapidly these cows are weeded out or bred to high quality bulls, the faster and more substantial will be the growth of the industry.

West Texas conducted one of the most notable breeding demonstrations in the livestock industry of America by improving her inferior range cattle through the use of purebred whiteface bulls. This section has again resorted to the same plan in improving the productivity of her dairy cattle. The bull circle plan, which was originated and made successful in Swisher county through the energy of County Agent P. C. Bennett, assisted by the Department of Dairy Husbandry of A. & M. College and D. T. Simmons, secretary of the Texas Jersey cattle club, has been adopted by a number of other counties, and at the present time more than 200 bulls of very high producing quality have been placed in that section of the state under this plan. Chief among the counties to adopt the bull circle plan and the number of bulls placed in each county are as follows:

Swisher	24
Hale	32
Dickens	22
Deaf Smith	18
Jones	15

These bulls will increase the production of the offspring of the dairy cows of that section to a point that will assure substantial dairy profits. Other sections should follow this example. The plan is suited to the average farmer who milks only a few cows to supplement his income. Texas is unquestionably going to dairy cattle but the cows of the nondescript kind that are too often found on the farms do not offer a solution to our financial problems. They must be bred for high production and fed in such a manner that they will be able to exercise this inherited ability.

Livestock improvement is a slow process, but it is man's task to improve his herds. The natural tendency with both plants and animal is toward low production, and it is only through the influence of one or more high producing ancestors that an offspring is made more productive than its dam. We must therefore look to better bulls for the improvement of our dairy herds.

PRIZES OFFERED FOR BEST VOICES

National Radio Audition Open to Young Singers in This Country.

America's future generation of vocal stars will be disclosed to the world this Fall as another of the wonders due to radio. Every young man or woman with the gift of song, whether from country, town or city, will have an equal chance.

A nation-wide quest for the best young singers and the opening of the door of opportunity to them has been undertaken by the Atwater Kent Foundation, an institution established for scientific and educational purposes by A. Atwater Kent, the Philadelphia radio manufacturer and sponsor of the Sunday night grand opera hour, broadcast over a network of nineteen stations.

The Foundation has announced plans for a "National Radio Audition," to find by competition the best undiscovered voices in the United States. Prizes aggregating $17,500, with tuition for a musical education in certain cases, are offered as follows:

The two winners of first place in the National Audition—a man and a woman—will each receive a gold decoration, $5,000 in cash and two years' tuition in a leading conservatory.

A. Atwater Kent, President of Atwater Kent Foundation, which opens door of opportunity to undiscovered vocalists.

Winners of second prizes will each receive $2,000 in cash and one year's tuition.

Winners of third prizes will each receive $1,000 and one year's tuition. Winners of fourth prizes will each receive $500.

Winners of fifth prizes will each receive $250.

Musical, civic and women's clubs in each community in each state will be invited to hold local contests to select the best young man and best young woman singers of their towns. These winners will then be certified to a state audition, which will be broadcast by a radio station in each state. A state winner of each sex will be chosen and will receive a silver medal.

The next step is a district audition. The young men and women who have won state honors will be taken to a central broadcasting station in one of five districts, where an audition will be broadcast to select the two winners—a young man and a young woman—from that district.

The two winners in each district will receive gold medals and the ten finalists thus selected will be taken to New York for the final National Audition, to be broadcast over a national network of stations. All expenses of contestants in the district and final auditions, including railroad fare, hotel bills, entertainment, etc., will be paid by the Atwater Kent Foundation.

The spirit and purpose of the National Audition are indicated in a statement by A. Atwater Kent, president of the Foundation, who said:

"The discovery of one of those rare voices, of which each generation produces a very few, seems to me an event of profound national importance. Even when such a voice could give pleasure to only a few thousand people in a year it was a national treasure. Now that millions may enjoy it on the same evening through the medium of radio, such a voice has become priceless.

"The National Radio Audition, supported by the Atwater Kent Foundation, is an undertaking to search the entire country for beautiful voices and to offer these singers an opportunity for full development, recognition and reward."

The principal qualifications for contestants are as follows:

Must not be over 25 years old; must never have been associated with a professional theatrical or operatic company; must never have been a paid principal in any concert held outside their own states; must declare an intention to follow a musical career and must be free from theatrical or musical contracts.

This limitation permits choir singers to enter the auditions, even though they may have received financial compensation for singing in churches. Other groups from which entries are anticipated are students in musical schools and locally prominent singers in high schools and colleges. Musical organizations in each state are also afforded an opportunity to participate.

Raymond Donnell of Abernathy is convalescing nicely in the Lubbock Sanitarium, following an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. W. J. Hamilton and little two-year old daughter, Lois, of Texline, are visiting Dr. and Mrs. Prestridge. They arrived last Friday.

Edwin Settle has returned from McMurray College, Abilene, for the holidays. He will carry the mail on Route 1 while his father is on his vacation.

The wheat is not turning out near as well as it was first expected. Of course it is awful hard to do a year's work and not be able to get a decent shirt out of it—but that is just part of the game. Some have been so discouraged that they have given up everything and left the country. But there is no use to run. We can't do a thing but just sit still and endure it the best we can until next spring and try it again. There is no such thing as a farmer going broke. He can't break. He may bust, but he won't break.

I am not going to run, so when they get ready for me to see how long my neck will stretch, I will be right here. Many a poor old hayseed is plodding around with a heavy heart wondering if the next moment will be the next.

SUMMER RULES FOR BABY

FOOD—More important than all else is not to overfeed, especially during hot spells.

If the bowels become loose, all food should be stopped at once and medical advice sought. A diarrhea should never be allowed to run on for days because it is thought the baby is teething.

CLOTHING—The chief thing is to keep the baby cool and comfortable. In the middle of the day only the lightest clothing should be worn, often only a napkin is necessary.

SKIN—Baby's skin is very sensitive and sunburn is quickly produced unless special care is taken to protect the body and the head from the sun's rays.

Prickly heat, one of the most annoying things of summer, may usually be prevented by having only linen or cotton next to the skin, frequent bathing, and the free use of powder.

BATHING—Not only should the baby have his morning tub, but usually one at night also. On very hot days a third one at noon before the mid-day nap adds much to his comfort.

NAPKINS—Soiled napkins are a source of danger. They should be placed at once in water and washed as soon as possible.

Nothing is more important in keeping a baby well than to have him under the supervision of a doctor. He should be seen at least twice a month during the first half year and after that once a month until he is two years old. This should be the rule even if he seems to be perfectly well. The object is to keep him well.—Drs. Hot and Shaw in "Your Baby."

Furnace Ore Ranch, which is in Death Valley, Calif., is the hottest inhabited spot in the world. Thermometers there have been known to register 134 degrees in the shade. The coldest place recorded is in northern Siberia, where the temperature gets as low as 90 degrees below zero.

Light is the fastest thing in the universe. Electricity itself is very fast, and may travel many thousand miles in a second, but it never reaches the speed of light, which is 186,000 miles a second.

The telegraph lines of the Philippines are operated as part of the postal service.
