Stitching And Stewing

Bad bleaching causes white garments and linens to develop worn spots quickly.

Textile Analysis Laboratories report that bleach misuse is one of the most frequent causes of damage to clothing they find.

All bottles of bleach warn against pouring it directly into the washer. Liquid chlorine bleach must be diluted, according to directions, before adding to the wash water. Even diluted bleach should not be poured directly into clothing in the machine.

Washers often have a bleach dispenser which adds bleach at the right time and in the right way. Always check the directions on the label for the amount to use. Never use more than is recommended.

Undiluted bleach or too much bleach weakens cotton linen or rayon fibers. The weakened fibers may break into holes during the agitation in the washer or may split apart easily during wear or use.

Chlorine bleach should not be used on silk, spandex, wool or fabrics that contain the smallest percentage of these fibers. Check the label or hang tag for cautions about bleaching.

Certain synthetic fibers and some fabric finishes turn yellow with bleach from either liquid or dry chlorine bleach. The label or hang tag will say "do not use chlorine bleach."

A special warning: never use chlorine bleach with acid-containing materials such as vinegar or toilet bowl cleaner. Fumes from this misuse of bleach are toxic and could be hazardous if inhaled.

Mrs. Mammie Lee Hooker of Fort Worth submitted this recipe:

Blue Ribbon Cooking

Do you know your onions? Then you know that the many varieties of onions grown commercially fall into three general classes.

Globe onions are the most common group, and are considered primarily cooking onions. There are many varieties, mostly with yellow skins, but also some white and red-skinned types.

Globe onions are predominately round to oval and have rather pungent flavor. They are available in quantity during the late summer, fall and winter. Most fall in the medium-size range, but in some cases the smaller onions are packed and sold separately.

Granex-Grano onions are available during the spring and summer, coming from the warmer growing areas. Most are yellow skinned, but a few are white. The shape tends to be less round and less symmetrical than the globes, ranging from somewhat flattened to top shaped. Rather mild in flavor, they are considered ideal for slicing and eating raw—and good for cooking. Size ranges from medium to large.

Spanish onions resemble the globe onions in shape, but they are generally much larger. Most varieties are yellow, but you'll find a few white-skinned Spanish. They are mild in flavor, often called "sweet Spanish," and are ideal for slices or for salads.

Spanish type onions are generally available in moderate supply during fall and winter.

Major onion growing areas are Texas, Colorado, California, New York, Michigan, Oregon and Idaho.

Haskell Booster Club Ready For Another Win

With the largest group of the season on hand, the Haskell Booster Club met at 8:00 p. m. Monday. After a short business session, the coaches took charge of the program.

Coach James Mickler reported the 8th grade team lost their final game to Olney, but the 7th grade team was victorious. Giving the scouting report on the Eastland-Clyde game, Mickler reminded the boosters of the impressive record which Eastland has—458 points scored to only 58 by their opponents. He informed the group that Eastland has a number of sophomores on their starting team including their left-handed quarterback. Expressing the desire for the Haskell Indians to be Number One, Mickler reminded that at present there are 32 AA teams left, next week 16, then 8, 4, 2 and 1—the goal of the Indians.

Coach Ivy expressed his appreciation to the followers of the "B" team, which had an undefeated season with a 9-0 record. This team made up of 18 boys, completed their season Thursday night with a 36-0 win over Olney.

Coach Pringle told of the great defensive team effort in the Haskell-Hamlin game, when the Pipers were held to only 95 yards rushing. Haskell's record to date is 2973 yards rushing, 1118 yards passing, with a total of 383 points scored thus far.

Before showing the Haskell-Hamlin film, Coach Everett expressed his appreciation to Charles Thornhill for making the movies each week, and to Jerry Sorrells, Frank Jenkins, Dale Lawrence, David Conner and Jerry Weatherly for their officiating throughout the season.

The foremost thought in the minds of the followers of the Indians, the Eastland-Haskell game was discussed. Since Eastland won the toss, they will be the home team, which means Haskell fans will occupy the East stand at Breckenridge, 7:30 o'clock Friday night.

As in the past, Coach Everett expressed gratitude for the attitude, spirit and unit playing of the boys. He also stated the hope that each boy has received some spiritual training as well as athletic development.

Paula Mayfield, head cheerleader, asked for volunteers from the mothers of the players to participate in the pep rally Friday. The senior mothers, headed by Joy Chapman, are to secure the help needed and hope to have something of interest for the student body and fans.

The announcement was made that the pep squad will again decorate cars of those going to the game, for a fee of 50c. If you would like to have your car decorated, bring it to the school parking lot, or northwest corner of the square, from 3:30-4:30 Friday afternoon.

Coach Mullins was again the recipient of the door prize, an insulated blanket from Fouts Dry Goods.

The club expresses thanks to all the merchants who have contributed the nice door prizes.

Lockett Lashes Rochester, 14-6

A bad snap to Lockett's punter turned into a needed break for the Panthers last Friday night and Lockett went on to a 14-6 victory over Rochester in District 3-B play.

The score was locked 6-6 late in the final period and Lockett's punter Ronnie Holland was back to punt on fourth and five. The snap was bad and Holland saw he couldn't get the kick off. He swept end for the first down.

A 30 yard botch by Junior Smith set up the touchdown a play later by John Reese who carried it from the 15. Smith also added the insurance points after on a run.

Lockett took the lead in the opening period as Smith capped a drive with a three yard plunge. Rochester came back before halftime with Roger Webb breaking for 74 yards and the tying score.

Valley View Dumps Rule

Valley View's Warriors toppled Rule 120 in a district 3-B game last Friday night.

Warrior scores came in the first period when Rodney Hodgkins ran 20 yards for a TD and in the third quarter when Bobby Morgan plunged over from the one-yard line.

Paint Creek Tops O'Brien

The Paint Creek Pirates held off a late surge by the O'Brien Bulldogs for a 38-37 victory at Paint Creek last Thursday night.

James Washington had scored his fourth TD of the night to pull the Bulldogs to within a point with five minutes left. However, the running try for the point and a tie failed.

Mike Brazell led the winners with three touchdowns. Joe Galindo, Ricky Green and Ronnie Hargis each had one while Danny Weaver and Alex McClennan added extra points.

For the losers, Steve Figueroa scored twice and Joe Flores added a PAT.

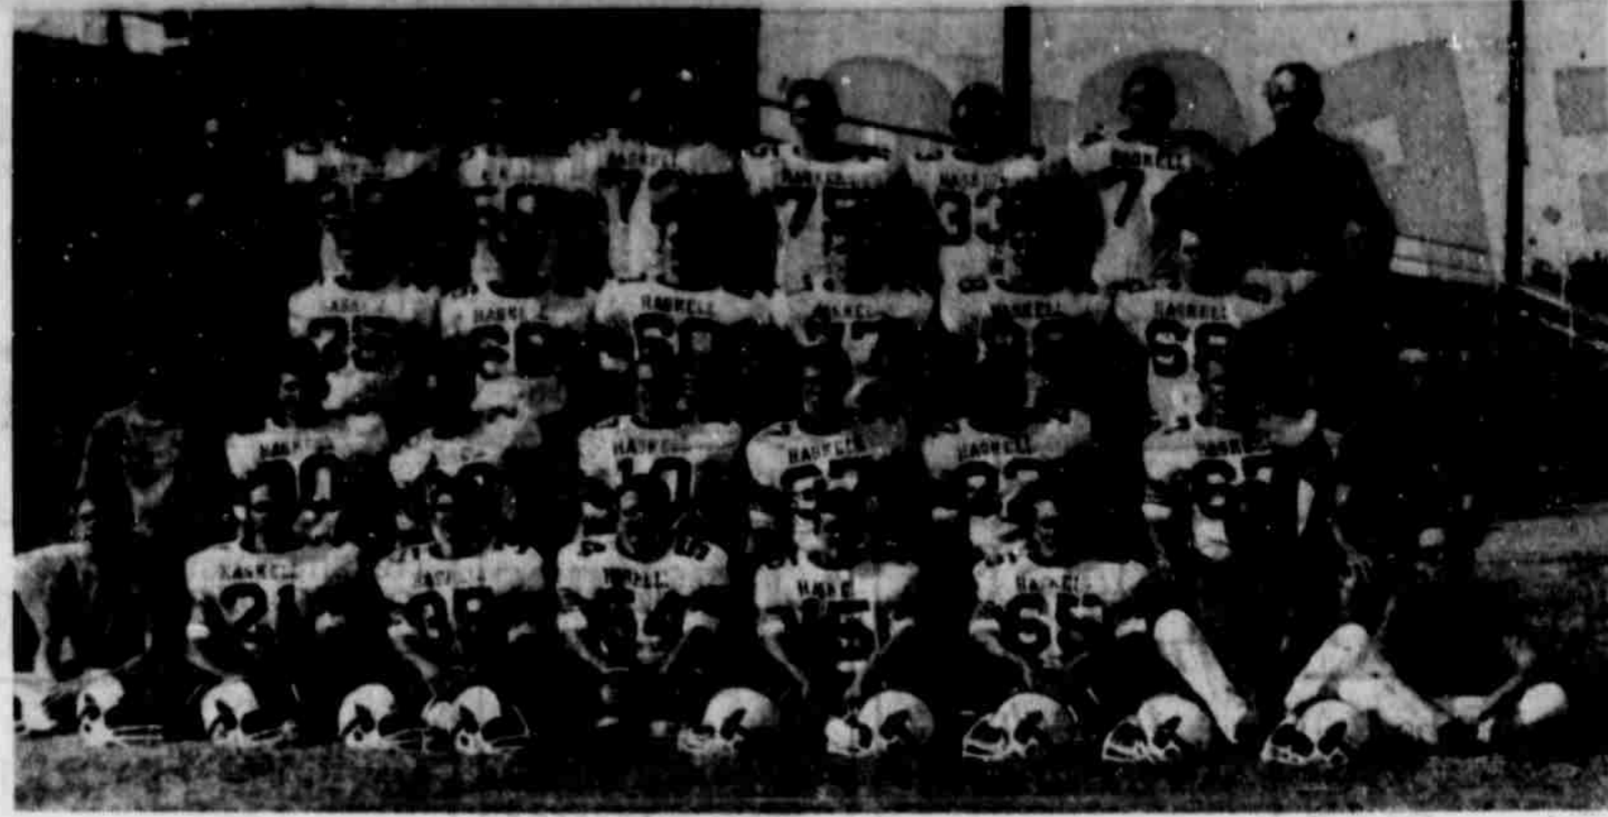

Former O'Brien Girl's Rites Held Wednesday

Services were held at 2:00 p. m. Wednesday from the Rochester Church of Christ for Kathy Irene Carlisle, 17, of Lubbock, former O'Brien resident, who died Monday in a Houston hospital.

Lucian Farrah, minister, officiated. Burial was in the Rochester cemetery under direction of Smith Funeral Home.

Miss Carlisle was born Nov. 21, 1951, in Littlefield, Texas. She moved to Lubbock from O'Brien with her family in 1964. She was a senior at Lubbock Coronado High School and was a member of the Church of Christ.

Survivors include her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irbey Carlisle of Lubbock; a brother, Joe Dean of Fort Arthur, Texas; two sisters, Linda of the home and Andrea of Norton AFB, Calif.; paternal grandmother, Mrs. H. E. Owens of Hereford, Texas; and maternal grandmother, Mrs. Tommie Duncan of Anson, Texas.

"Operation Everybody" Voter Quota For Haskell County Set At 3,440

The "Operation: Everybody!" voter quota for Haskell County has been set by the Texas Democratic Party at 3,440, according to County Chairman, Clay Smith.

"That figure represents 65 per cent of our estimated voting population," Smith said. "The state goal is to have 4,250,000 Texans registered between now and the end of the registration period on January 31."

"Operation: Everybody!" is a project of the State Democratic Executive Committee. The special drive is headed by Mrs. James A. McMullen, III of Ft. Worth with Mrs. Carol Vance of Houston as vice-chairman.

"Voter registration is free, but everyone must register in order to vote in the 1970 elections," Smith said. Application forms are at the County Tax Assessor's office in the courthouse.

"Our county will be competing with other counties of similar size for statewide recognition in doing a good job," Smith said.

Gold, Silver and bronze plaques will be awarded to the counties which exceed their quotas by the highest margins.

All counties which meet their quotas will receive special certificates of merit.

There are 42 counties in Group Seven which includes Haskell County.

Texas Safety Association Warns That The Fire Season Is Nearing

"Handy Andy smelled a leak, with his match he took a peak. The leak he did find; it flat blew his mind; now no more leaks will he seek!"

Not exactly the finest example of poetry, but a good example of what can happen when the inexperienced meets up with a gas leak at the beginning of the heating season.

The Texas Safety Association today issued a warning to all homeowners to be especially cautious as the temperatures drop and indoor heating becomes necessary. The Texas Department of Health reported 462 deaths during 1968 caused by various types of fires and explosions. Without careful attention to fire safety rules, that number could increase this year, the TSA reminds.

Faulty gas connections can claim lives. Besides the danger of combustion from escaping gas, improper adjustment of any fuel burning stove or heater can lead to the build-up of deadly carbon monoxide.

The state-wide safety organization emphasized that 80 per cent of all fire deaths were caused not by burns, but by smoke inhalation and deadly fumes. Carbon monoxide, the odorless, tasteless and colorless gas caused by incomplete burning of materials containing carbon, kills around 1,000 persons in the nation each year.

Sensible observance of a few simple rules could prevent many deaths and injuries caused by improper heating.

* Make sure gas furnaces and space heaters are properly vented and periodically maintained. Accumulation of dust and lint during the summer months may clog burners, especially in ovens, causing carbon monoxide build-up.

* Make sure vents have not become blocked during disuse.

* Always sleep with the bedroom window open at least a crack to circulate fresh air.

* Make sure furnaces, heaters and stoves, as well as flues and vents, are located well away from combustibles such as curtains, towel racks or bedding.

The most frequent victims of clothing fires are children—

VIETNAM VIEW

(As reported by Marine Corps Combat Correspondents)

By Cpl. Gene Smith

DA NANG, Vietnam—In two separate incidents Leathernecks of "D" Co., 1st Bn., 1st Marine Regt., recently accounted for six Viet Cong soldiers killed and two captured in action eight miles southeast of here.

Capt. Earl M. Collins, 25, of Clovis, N. M., commanding officer of "D" Co., explained the situation. "We were acting as a blocking force for a unit of the Army of the Republic of Vietnam (ARVN) while they swept toward our position. When they made contact, we were alerted to the possibility that the enemy might try to escape through our lines. As soon as they appeared on top of a small sand dune we opened up on them with everything we had," continued Collins. "This seemed to completely confuse them and they started running around in circles."

The battle was over almost as quickly as it had begun, and a search of the area revealed five VC soldiers killed. Shortly afterward, while the company was sweeping an area only 300 yards from the previous battle site, the Marines were confronted by three more VC soldiers in a bunker complex.

"We surrounded the bunker and called for them to surrender," explained Collins. After two brief battles, one VC was killed and the other two captured. In addition, an AK-47 assault rifle, several Chinese communist grenades and other enemy equipment was uncovered by the Marines.

different from children all over the world. They want to know what is expected of them—how far they can go.

"As soon as they are shown the limits they are satisfied. They will occasionally re-test these limits to see if they are real, but they will be satisfied if they are shown consistent restraint."

"The most insecure and unhappy young people are those who do not have the benefit of restraint."

"We believe that treating children as children gives them an identity. They do not always like their identity, but at least they have one.

"The most pathetic situations develop among children who have been given little or no restraint, but a lot of 'rights' they are not prepared to accept. Consequently they feel compelled to superimpose one on themselves, invariably by adopting bizarre modes of dress and behavior."

"The courts, and many school officials, have fallen into the trap of trying to be all things to all people. In their preoccupation with protesting individual rights they have lost sight of the common good."

"Our school rules are all formulated for the sole purpose of maintaining a good learning atmosphere for the benefit of the students, so they can do what they presumably want to do... get an education."

"If this sometimes means a bridging the 'rights' of a few, we are prepared to do it."

Private note to President Nixon: "Why don't you call Counselor Gramling to Washington and put him to work in your Office of Education?"

NUMBER FORTY-SEVEN

We Must Keep Fighting For Worthy Cause," Says Sp5 Robert McMillin

Sp5 Robert Brian McMillin, 35th Cpt. Avn. Co., Vietnam, Sp5 McMillin is a member of the American Legion and Judge and Dennis P. Ratliff, all of whom are in Abilene. His home is in Abilene and he is a native of Haskell.

McMillin would like to express my appreciation to the demonstrators and protesters who are not true and loyal Americans. Everyone in America wants this war to end. We want peace, including President Nixon, the man we chose to stand in the way of peace, are the Communists, the ones who stand in the way of peace. When peace is won, we cannot be bought with money. The valiant Americans who have all died in this war believed in their mission. If waving flags and shouting slogans is not given and comfort to the end of the war, I would like to know why Hanoi came out with its ultimatum on 14 Oct., 1969, and said that it was a great honor to them to have the dissenters speaking against America's leaders. These protesters and demonstrators overlook the fact that the United States, Hanoi, which has made its concession to this date to negotiate peace, and that Hanoi has yielded not a single point toward peace. Meanwhile, the war keeps grinding on with the North Vietnamese as the aggressors.

"We, as Americans, fighting a war in this war-torn country, are ready to come home, but we know that we must keep fighting for a worthy cause. This worthy cause is the battle against Communism. Young men, coming from all walks of life, never really know what war is like. Like new born babes, they learn many different tasks, and progress forward into manhood. They learn to cope with many hardships and soon become true soldiers. A soldier is never a boy or kid; he is always a man, whether he is seventeen years old or thirty years old. Some times, he has to sacrifice his life for fellow soldiers in combat. The risks and daily sacrifices are a minor price to pay, to guarantee our way of life for a free country, like America.

"The days and nights are lonely, and we pray that by the stand we take, mankind will be able to live in a free world. The South Vietnamese troops have the volition to help themselves, and are doing a pre-eminent job of taking over many of the jobs which Americans have been doing over the years. They want to be free and want peace, as we do at home."

"Things have become fairly quiet since Ho Chi Minh died, and the war appears to be taking a turn for the best. I am honored to be a part of the United States Army in a country where peace is wanted and needed, and all Americans fighting over here, need the help of all Americans at home."

Seminar On Alcohol, Drugs Well Attended

The community-wide seminar on alcoholism and drug addiction, held here last Saturday night and Sunday afternoon at the First Baptist Church, under the sponsorship of the Ministerial Alliance and members of the AA, was well received and very educational.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Lamb of Muleshoe spoke Saturday night and Mrs. Jackie Jakulwicz, of Abilene, was the speaker for the Sunday afternoon session.

The educational and outstanding speeches provided help in understanding the highly complicated problem involving alcohol and drugs.

Burglars Hit Three Business Houses Here

Three Haskell businesses were hit by burglars last week, Sheriff Garth Garrett reported.

The Wheeler Service Station and the Tortilla Factory were broken into sometime prior to midnight, Sunday, November 9, and an undetermined amount of cash was taken.

Highlander's Drive-In was hit Monday, November 11th, but evidently the burglars were scared off, as nothing was missing. Entry was made through a window.

Entry was made at the Wheeler Station via the front door, and the Tortilla Factory was entered through a side door.

Garrett and deputies and City Chief of Police, Tom Paul Barnett investigated the break-ins.

ATTEND CONVENTION

Postmaster Davis Says Send Gift Parcels And Christmas Cards Early

"Don't take a chance on disappointing someone you love, send your gift parcels and cards early enough to insure their delivery before Christmas, not after," Postmaster Tommy Davis advised.

"On the day after Christmas a post office building can be the most depressing place in the world," Davis added, "if it still contains a mountain of messages of love and cheer that didn't make it because they were mailed too late."

Such disappointments can be avoided if Christmas mailers will observe the following mailing schedule:

Gift parcels going to distant states should be mailed by December 1. Parcels going to local and nearby areas should be mailed not later than December 13.

The name and address of both the sender and addressee should be enclosed in each gift parcel to permit identity in case of damage or loss of the outside address label. The outside label should be placed only on one side of each parcel.

Greeting cards going to distant states should be mailed not later than December 10. Cards going to local and nearby areas should be in the mail by December 15.

Postmaster Davis also emphasized the importance of using ZIP Codes and adding a return address to all Christmas mail. It only takes a couple of extra seconds, but pays big dividends.

ZIP Codes enable postal employees to sort and handle the mail faster. A return address insures that mail that can't be delivered because of an illegible or incomplete mailing address will be returned to the sender.

"A return address might not seem very important," Postmaster Davis noted, "but last year over 32 billion pieces of mail went to postal dead letter branches because the mailing address couldn't be read and there was no return on the envelope. If you estimate the worth of each of these pieces at twenty-five cents, including postage, postal customers lost over $7.5 million last year to dead letter offices. And none of this would have happened if the envelopes had contained a return address."

THANKSGIVING... THEN AND NOW

Thanksgiving Day is almost here again. General observance will take place on November 27. As we sit down to our turkey, hen or goose on this day of thanks, we should pause for a moment to visualize the first Thanksgiving of that small band of Pilgrims huddled in the forest of a bleak American wilderness on the threshold of winter.

Upon second thought, the Pilgrims did indeed have much for which to be thankful. As we sit down to our Thanksgiving repast, we should not only give thanks, we should ask ourselves if we are worthy of the heritage that began with the Pilgrims.

Local Farm Bureau Represented At State Convention In San Antonio

Haskell County Farm Bureau sent 8 voting delegates to the 36th annual convention of the Texas Farm Bureau on November 16-19 in San Antonio, according to John Paul Perrin, of Haskell, president of the local county organization.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. John Paul Perrin, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Phemister, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Scott, and Mr. and Mrs. Delma Williams.

Voting delegate strength at the state annual meeting is based on number of members enrolled. The Haskell County Farm Bureau ended its 1969 fiscal year with 903 member families on the rolls.

More than 800 voting delegates from 203 organized county Farm Bureaus were in San Antonio to adopt policies for the state Farm Bureau for 1970.

They also approved recommendations on national issues to be forwarded to the annual meeting of the American Farm Bureau Federation which is slated for Washington, D. C., in December.

Featured speakers at the TFB annual meeting included: State

Rep. Gus Mutscher, Brenham, Speaker, Texas House of Representatives; Rep. W. S. "Bill" Healy, Paducah, Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee; and Sidney Dean, Victoria, president of the Texas Farm Bureau.

Young peoples activities at the convention included queen contest, talent find, and discussion meet.

The much-touted Indians, contenders for district honours in the eastern half of this section, met inglorious defeat at Stamford, Monday, when the Stamford Bulldogs literally "snowed 'em under" to the tune of 21-0. The Indians were the favorites to win by disinterested observers, but somehow, somehow, they didn't. Seemingly the Bulldogs just had the better team.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Thomas have returned from an extended tour of the Plains country.

Our old friend, Captain R. H. Hunter of Carney, was a visitor to this city a few days ago. Capt. Hunter was among the first pioneer families to make a success of farming in Haskell county.

H. M. Rike attended the big fair at San Antonio this week. Come unto me all ye who have money and are heavy laden therewith and I will give ye Kaffir corn in exchange therefor at a fair price if taken from the shock next week.

In the city election last Friday, T. B. Russell was elected alderman, J. W. French, Marshall, and W. W. Murphy City Tax Assessor and Collector. Messrs. A. C. Sherick and J. J. Stein have returned from a prospecting trip out west.

Hon. Bruce W. Bryant, Mrs. R. E. Sherrill, W. H. Murchison and Steve Neathery attended the meeting of the Commercial Clubs at Stamford, Tuesday.

Local Educator Visits U. S. Air Force Academy

H. T. Wilkinson, superintendent of the Haskell Independent School District, was a recent visitor at Air Force Academy, Colorado, as part of the 1969-70 Academy Educator Orientation Program.

Each year this Program brings select secondary school educators from throughout the United States to the Academy for orientation briefings and tours. Mr. Wilkinson attended briefings on the Academy's mission, admissions procedures and requirements, counseling services available to cadets, academic program and military training. Also leadership and fitness through program direction was explained, including physical education concepts, intramural and intercollegiate activities.

A tour of the Academy's 18,000 acre campus located at the foot of the Rocky Mountains included such outstanding features as the Cadet academic complex, the modern classroom facilities, the Library, athletic field house, Visitors Center and Museum, and the famous Cadet Chapel.

Purpose of the Orientation Program is to provide academicians with the necessary background knowledge in order to council prospective cadet candidates as to the Air Force Academy's mission and its academic, military airmanship and athletic programs. These Academy programs are designed to train young men for leadership as officers in the United States Air Force.

Municipal Sales Tax: Questions & Answers

- Q Why should the local businessman favor the city sales tax? A. Poor city services mean poor business, while well-financed and efficient municipal services attract new people to live and trade in the city. More people mean more business and a more active economy. Q. Will a local sales tax hurt business? A. No. The experience of cities in other states has proved that a sales tax will not hurt the retail sales business in a community. Rather, a clean, attractive, and well-run city attracts people, makes it grow, and makes business better. Q. Why should a resident property owner favor this kind of tax? A. Proper police and fire protection will protect the property owner's investment in his home, and high-quality streets, parks and other municipal facilities provide a suitable environment in which to live. The money to support these services must be derived from some source, which has, to this time, been primarily property taxes. Q. Why should a city dweller who rents his residence favor the local sales tax? A. For one matter, the person who rents enjoys the same services available to the property owner. For another, if it is necessary for the city to raise property taxes, the increased cost of this tax will be passed along in the form of higher rent charges. Q. Is the local sales tax regressive—that is, will it cause a particular hardship for lower-income families? A. A sales tax has more elements of equity than any other type of tax, and this is particularly true in Texas, since so many essential items are exempt from the sales tax. Q. To whom will the local merchant report and pay the local sales tax? A. Reports and remittances will be made to the State Comptroller in Austin. Q. How is the Comptroller reimbursed for expenses incurred by his office in collecting the local sales tax? A. The Comptroller is permitted by law to retain 2% of the total in local sales taxes collected. Q. Who will enforce the municipal sales tax? A. The State Comptroller is authorized by law to administer and enforce the local sales tax. Q. What are the State Comptroller's specifications in respect to the city map requirements to be filed with the local sales tax election canvassing papers and other documents? A. The Comptroller's office has advised the TML General Council that no specific requirements regarding maps have yet been devised. It is, however, understood that the map to be filed is neither to be exceptionally large nor small, and that it clearly indicate all streets and the corporate boundaries of the city. The Comptroller will use these maps to determine whether merchants in certain "fringe" areas are located within or without the corporate limits of cities levying a local sales tax.

ROCHESTER NEWS

EDWIN ROBERSON

Panthers Humble Steers
The Rochester Steers and the Lockett Panthers staged a nip and tuck battle in Lockett Friday night as the Panthers slipped past the Steers by a score of 14-6.

On Lockett's first possession, they took the ball deep into Steer territory. Here Lockett's John Reece, who gained 192 yards rushing, faked a field goal attempt and sped around left end into the end zone. The try for the extra point was not good.

After fine defensive performances from both teams throughout the second quarter, the Steer's Roger Webb made a spectacular 74-yard touchdown run shortly before the half climaxed an 87-yard drive in 4 plays. The try for the PAT kick failed and the teams took a 6-6 deadlock game to the dressing room.

The Steers came back to start a brand new ball game, but eventually, they were to be scratched by the Panther's sharp claws.

The Steer offensive attack sputtered in the second half. They penetrated the Lockett 30 yard line many times, but on two of the occasions field goal attempts failed. The Steers also suffered a lost fumble and a pass interception to halt their scoring drives.

But the Steer defense didn't give up and contained the Panther's awesome ground attack many times.

The Panthers gained momentum on the pass interception. John Reece made a fine run, and a 15 yard penalty pushed the Panthers deep in Steer territory. Then the familiar name of John Reece, all-state candidate, again converted a 15 yard run into a touchdown. Junior Smith carried over for the extra 2 points to boost the final 14-6 margin. Lockett threatened again but the Steer defense made a firm stand on the 7 yard line as time ran out.

The loss left Rochester and Lockett in a tie for second place in District 3-B, both with 3-1 records. Throckmorton is in the lead with a 4-0 record.

Even though Throckmorton is leading in top action undefeated, the Steers and Panthers are still in the race. Throckmorton must travel to Rochester Friday night to clash in a game that will decide the championship. If Rochester is victorious, and if Lockett gets past the rampaging Valley View Warriors, the championship would be in a three-way tie, causing a coin toss for the playoff spot. So tomorrow night's game in Fields Stadium should be another thriller. Throckmorton is 7-2 for the year, and Rochester is 6-3.

In either district action, Rule (0-4) and Newcastle (0-4) meet in Rule to decide the cellar dweller, and Lockett (3-1) and Valley View (2-2) clash.

Entire Squad Chosen

After viewing the film of the Rochester-Rule football clash, the Booster club voted to name the entire Steer football team as "Steers of the Week." The selection is usually for the "Steer of the Week," an individual who gave as near 100 per cent of his ability in playing. But no one individual could be singled out as the most outstanding, because it took every member for the 14-0 victory.

"Junior Miss Veteran"

Monday night before a large audience in the Rochester School Auditorium, Miss Kay Silba was named the 1969 "Junior Miss Veteran." Kay is the 12 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Silba of Rochester. She is a seventh grader in Rochester Junior High, a twirler for the Pep Squad, plays flute in the Steer Band, and her hobbies are twirling and music. She was among 26 contestants entered in the contest.

First runner-up was Belinda Wolsch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Wolsch, and second runner-up was Pam Adkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn Adkins.

Miss Martha Nell Chambers, 1968 "Miss Veteran", crowned Kay. Mrs. Coleman Wright was Mistress of Ceremonies. Mrs. R. A. Shaver, Jr., provided the music for the contestants on the piano. Miss Judy Gray of Weinert provided the entertainment while the judges were in consultation. Judges were from Stamford and Anson.

The next day, November 11th, veterans and other citizens of Rochester turned out in large numbers to honor our veterans on the special day.

Veterans Day was recognized throughout the country as a special day, but the citizens of Rochester Community made the day more special, more realistic by praising our veterans.

Around 600 local citizens, as well as visitors from other parts of the area, thronged to Rochester to hail our veterans. The celebration began with a ceremony at the American Legion Hall. County Judge B. O. Roberson welcomed the large crowd and introduced the speaker.

Lois Ann Huntsman began the ceremony by singing the National Anthem. Then Katherine Byrd, minister at the Four Square Church in Weinert, led in prayer. Bob Easterling led in the "Pledge of Allegiance". Lucian Farrar, local Church of Christ minister, gave the Memorial speech in honor of all the veterans who fought and died for us in previous battles in war.

The main speaker for the ceremony was Dr. Harry Saries of Haskell. He is the minister of the Presbyterian Church in Haskell.

Taps were played by Kay Davidson and Patti Acree after a gun-salute by some of the Legionnaires.

During the noon hour over 500 people were served bar-becue with all the trimmings. The Ladies' Auxiliary as well as other citizens brought assorted food dishes to top the meal.

Then the crowds lined the streets of Rochester to view the gala parade led by the local law enforcement officer, and the Haskell Sheriff's Posse. Among parade participants were the Steer Band, other school organizations, local clubs, churches, businesses and other citizens of the Rochester Community.

After Parade

After the parade many returned to the Legion Hall for musical entertainment provided by some local bands.

This year's gala affair marked the third year for the large celebration. It was a great scene to see a small community as Rochester turn out in such numbers to honor our veterans, and show patriotism to a great nation as ours.

Band Contest

Wednesday, November 12, Region II South Zone of the University Interscholastic League held their Marching Band Contest in Abilene at Fair Park Stadium. Hundreds of students from many area towns entered

Melissa Everitt Victim of Wreck In South America

The body of eleven-year-old Melissa Everitt, who was killed in an accident in Venezuela, South America, was returned to Brownfield for funeral services and burial was October 27th.

Melissa was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Everitt and granddaughter of Mrs. W. P. Everitt of Tolar and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lucas of Brownfield.

The accident occurred as one of Melissa's friends was celebrating her birthday. Her father was taking 16 members of the sixth grade class for a picnic on the river. The pick-up he was driving was climbing a hill when two moving Vans traveling from opposite directions went out of control. One trailer jack-knifed, hitting the pick-up and overturning it. Most of the children were pinned under the vehicle. Six were killed, and ten others critically injured. Three of the injured later died.

The children attended an all-American school. Friends chartered a plane and the bodies of the victims and their families and friends were flown to New Orleans, at which place a plane from the company Everitt works for was standing by to take the body of Melissa to Brownfield. Services were held in First Baptist Church with Rev. Alfred Duetsch, former pastor of Anaco, Venezuela, and A. J. Franks of Brownfield, officiating.

In addition to her parents and grandparents, Melissa is survived by a brother, Mark. Everitt was a former resident of Haskell County.

MESQUITE TREES ROB FIELDS CROPS OF WATER AND FOOD

When a thief is seen robbing the home or place of business, a friend or even a stranger, hastens to report the incident to get the robber. Yet, each day during the growing season, thousands of acres of mesquite trees rob productive grass and field crop plants of water and plant food, stated Ernest L. Cowger, Soil Conservationist, of the Soil Conservation Service assisting the Soil Conservation District.

It takes twelve times as much water to produce one pound of mesquite leaves as that of valuable grass plants. The trees not only steal from pasture grasses but also sip the bordering cropland fields at a cost of about twelve acres per mile. Every place mesquite trees infest the land, farmers, ranchers and even the businessman of the area pay the bills, Cowger stated.

During the winter and spring months, especially grassland having a poor grass cover should have the brush roofplowed or tree-dozed and the land seeded to productive grasses. During early 1969 mesquite and other brush was dozed from 357 acres of land and Sideoats and Green Sprangletop grasses were seeded in the disturbed soil on the Davis ranch in south Haskell County, three miles northeast of Stamford.

Other farmers and ranchers that have done mechanical brush control and ranging in cooperation with Great Plains Conservation team, during 1969, include Middlebrook, 9 miles north of Stamford, and L. F. H. on his ranch 10 miles south of Haskell.

Now is the time to contact plans for brush control range seeding. Contact your local Soil Conservation Technician or representative of the Agricultural Stabilization Conservation Service for aid and assistance.
