VIETNAM VIEW

By Cpl. Dick Frankovich
DA NANG, Vietnam—Marine defenders of Cam Le bridge do more than protect this vital southern link to the city of Da Nang. For over a year, a group of young Leathernecks have been promoting education and international understanding at another "strategic bridgehead"—the classrooms of Hoa Vang High School.

"We have to act out the language so they can remember the vocabulary," says Lance Cpl. Wilbur Rylander, 3814 Mariner St., Houston, Texas.

Our biggest job is understanding the students," added Lance Cpl. Chuck Guempe, Muncie, Ind.

Pfc. Timothy Hamilton, 2306 Parklawn Rd., St. Louis, Minn., completes the trio teaching team from 2nd Platoon, "D" Company, 1st Military Police Battalion. Going to school is a part-time activity for the Marines; but unit commanders try to make sure one of the three men is available during a class day.

The ability of the infantry Marines to function easily in a foreign educational environment was somewhat astounding at first to Vietnamese observers and school officials.

According to Vietnamese school officials, the three Leathernecks provide the students with a language supplement. The Marine English period encompasses diction and pronunciation.

The enthusiasm in the class is proof that the children appreciate the Marines' help. All three Marines agree that the children openly welcomed them from the beginning.

And the experience has been a help to the Marines. "My morale and understanding of the people has increased greatly since I started teaching," says Hamilton.

Rylander claims the classes have given him a lift. "I look forward to each class," admits the burly Marine. "I'm the Guempe, who left college to enlist in the Marine Corps, would like a career in social work and attributes his ambition to his teaching experience.

There is new understanding in the rooms of Hoa Vang High School.

By Sgt. R. R. Keene
PHU BAI, Vietnam—The shortest and most concise orientation lecture on record occurred at Marine Aircraft Group 36 recently.

The officer making the lecture will forever remain unknown and unsung, but surely will get his niche in local history. He opened his lecture saying, "I realize you Marines are new in country and our job is to prepare you for what will be happening during your tour in Vietnam."

By Sgt. Doug Pennington
DA NANG, Vietnam—Three North Vietnamese soldiers picked the wrong time to leave their tunnel for some fresh air.

They emerged from their underground hiding place, blinked and discovered themselves practically face to face with a squad of U. S. Marines.

"We had set up an 'L' shaped night defensive position," explained Sgt. Robert L. Byers, 21, Ragland, Ala. "We were watching for the enemy across an open area about a hundred yards away. All of a sudden, three of them popped up right in front of us no more than a few yards away and started throwing grenades!"

In the darkness, the squad had unknowingly taken up a position on top of one of many enemy tunnel complexes that honeycombed the area. Two hours later, three enemy soldiers decided to come up for fresh air.

It was their last mistake.

VA Questions And Answers

EDITOR'S NOTE: Veterans and their families are asking thousands of questions concerning the benefits their Government provides for them through the Veterans Administration. Below are some representative queries. Additional information may be obtained at any VA office.

Q—I understand that a law was recently passed which increases the amount of a direct loan which the Veterans Administration can make to a veteran. If so, what is the new amount?

A—Under a law signed by President Nixon on June 6, 1969, the VA may now make direct loans up to a maximum of $21,000. The old limit was $17,500.

Q—My father is permanently and totally disabled due to a service-connected disability incurred in World War II. I am 13 years old and married. Am I eligible for educational assistance from the Veterans Administration?

A—Yes. Marriage does not affect your eligibility for VA educational assistance if you are otherwise entitled under the War Orphans and Widows Educational Assistance Law.

Q—I have a 10 per cent service-connected disability incurred in 1963. I am receiving $18 a month. Why don't I receive $23?

A—Your disability was incurred during a peacetime period, so you are paid the authorized peacetime rate, which is 80 per cent (to the nearest dollar) of the wartime rate. The period from Feb. 1, 1955, through Aug. 4, 1964, is considered peacetime. The Viet-Nam era, from Aug. 5, 1964, to some future date, is considered wartime.

Q—My husband, a World War II veteran, died in 1958. We did not have any children. My application for a widow's pension was denied at that time because I had been married to my husband for only three years.

A—In itself, your disability would not be a consideration. However, a law passed in 1967 liberalized the five-year marriage requirement in effect at the time of your husband's death. Now a widow needs to have been married to the veteran at least one year before his death to meet this pension eligibility requirement.

For information and assistance in reapplying for a pension, contact your nearest VA regional office.

Q—I will be released from service this month. How soon must I begin training under the G.I. Bill?

A—Veterans released from active duty after June 1, 1966, have eight years from the date of release from active duty in which to complete their G.I. Bill education and training. There is no deadline for starting training, nor are there any restrictions against interruptions.

Water Rights Claims Deadline Is September 1

The Texas Water Rights Commission announced recently that final notice of the recording deadline under the Water Rights Adjudication Act of 1967 has been given. Everyone who is using water from a public stream who does not claim under a certified filing or a permit from the State must record his claim by Sept. 1, 1969. Users of water for domestic and livestock watering purposes are exempt from this requirement.

Failure to timely record the claim will "extinguish and bar" the claim of water right according to Section 4 of the Adjudication Act. All affected water users who have not already filed their claim are urged by the Commission to do so as soon as possible.

Valid claims will be recognized to the extent of maximum use of water without waste during any year between 1963 and 1967. Where the user was in the process of constructing a system or had facilities to use a larger amount of water on the effective date of the Act than he had actually used, use from 1968 to 1970 may be recognized.

Further information and forms for recording claims under the Water Rights Adjudication Act may be obtained from the Texas Water Rights Commission, P. O. Box 12396, Capital Station, Austin, Texas 78711.

WOULD YOU TRADE YOUR HEALTH FOR A Pipe Full Of Gyp?

According to the Texas Water Development Board, all underground water systems are totally dependent on rainfall. With the increase in population and increase in consumption of water, a city dependent on this underground source, could be a city in distress within a few years.

With this increased use, the water table drops and the solids increase. In our water it is the Nitrate Salt that is of major concern. The allowable limit is 45 parts per million in approved water. Our present supply has 160 parts per million. What harm can too many Nitrates do? Dr. Robert Dreisbach of the Sanford University School of Medicine writes, they could cause periodic headaches, dizziness and nausea. The main cause for concern is that it cannot be used for infant feedings, as it could cause blue babies. In fact, two blue babies have been born in Haskell. Distilled water at a cost of 40c per gallon to the lucky parents is prescribed for all infants born in Haskell.

In Ballinger, Texas, within the last few months many cattle have died. The Texas Department of Health declared that death was caused from NITRATE POISONING. Nitrates have steadily increased in the water there. It is steadily increasing in the water here. What can we do about this?

With the State and Federal Aid available, Haskell, along with three neighboring cities, can take a step together August 14th to eliminate any water problems for many years to come, if not forever.

CAN YOU REALLY PUT A PRICE ON GOOD WATER AND GOOD HEALTH? . . . VOTE FOR GOOD WATER AUG. 14 OR VOTE ABSENTEE NOW!

WASHINGTON "As it looks from here" OMAR BURSELSON Congressman 17th District

WASHINGTON, D. C.—At the risk of sounding like a broken record, it is time to refer again to our situation in Vietnam. As has been mentioned a number of times in this space, the argument as to whether we should or should not be in Southeast Asia at all can go on and on. As a matter of fact, it has and does.

The fact also remains that we are there. The question all along, and continues to be, is how to get out with honor and how we keep all the sacrifices made from going down the drain.

Negotiations to end the Vietnam conflict have taken on troubling aspects, if it was ever anything else. Among our people the debate goes on as to the number of troops to be withdrawn. At the same time, there is not the slightest response from the communist government of North Vietnam.

During President Nixon's visit to Southeast Asia, vague references were made to "optional measures" which might be found necessary if agreement is not reached at the Paris Conference. It is anyone's interpretation as to what this means. There is a hope it means that the hands of the military commanders of our forces in Vietnam will be untied to use the forces at their command to bring the enemy to terms.

Apprehension has never worked. It has always resulted in bigger wars. It is easy to say, "Let's use the money for domestic purposes," and it would be a great thing if we could.

History proves otherwise. Indifference as to what was happening in Asia in 1939 made possible the attack on Pearl Harbor. Virtually the same thing happened in 1916 when President Wilson won re-election on the slogan "He kept us out of war."

But the British and the United States tried again to appease Hitler by the well-known representation of Neville Chamberlain.

While thousands of American boys are being killed and wounded, the enemy in Vietnam continues to thwart all peace efforts. Their talks appear to be meaningless and without purpose.

Because of the communists' ambition to wield power everywhere in Asia is apparently motivated by the same ruthlessness of purpose as the recent increase of Soviet armies in communist bloc countries in Eastern Europe and the emerging threats to the independence of West Germany, make these questions highly pertinent.

One does not have to be militaristic or a so-called "hawk" but only a realist to view the present situation with the deepest concern.

The United States has the air power to impress Hanoi with the necessity of seriously seeking terms for peace. Such action would inform the World that America has not made the sacrifices in vain but intends to get this business over with and get out.

Since we are there, and everyone must ardently wish we were not, it seems our choices are narrow. In fact it appears there are only two. We either continue to bog down and lose American lives or we do what we are there to do. The latter, simply put, is to say to the aggressor that if he pulls his troops back in his own country, the conflict will be over. Otherwise, the "optional measures" mentioned by the President on his visit to Southeast Asia means the use of our air-power to the extent necessary to stop the enemy's aggressive capability.

COVER CROP PROTECTS SOIL FROM WIND, WATER EROSION

A COOPERATOR with the California Creek Soil and Water Conservation District strip-planted wheat in cotton which provides a good cover crop. In addition the wheat may be harvested for grain or if needed, used for grazing.

"The extreme hot and dry weather has limited vegetative cover and plant residue for both clean cultivated cropland and native grass on rangeland," stated Ernest L. Cowger, Soil Conservationist, with the Soil Conservation Service at Haskell. This makes it more important for farmers and ranchers to plant all available land to crops of small grain, winter peas or a combination of these crops for winter cover and green manure to be returned to the soil. The best time for planting is September or October for best growth and cover.

"Fields on which small grain and maize have been harvested and where row crops were strip-

MICRO-MESSAGES FOR THE MOON from 74 heads of state plus four U.S. documents are contained on this 1 1/2 inch diameter silicon wafer in a Time Capsule left on the moon by the Apollo 11 astronauts.

The messages were reduced to 1/200th of their original size by a new information technology process developed by the Sprague Electric Company Semiconductor Division, Worcester, Mass.

By etching the micro-messages in an ultra-thin, 4-millionths of an inch, quartz (silicon dioxide) coating on the silicon wafer, a record able to withstand the extreme conditions of space will remain permanently on the moon to signify the historic event.

The Sprague process allows the pin-head sized messages to withstand temperatures over 1800°F indefinitely, something far beyond the abilities of microfilm and other previous micro-reproduction techniques.

Mrs. McKelvin stipulated that she would not be a candidate for any public office in Haskell County in election to be held in 1970. Motion to appoint Mrs. McKelvin by Thomas, seconded by Bledsoe. LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

"Thought I would drop you a line to let you know how much we enjoyed having your Junior ball team in Colorado City to represent your town.

"I would like to say they were the best sports, on and off the field. I have seen in a group of boys. They should be commended by the people of your town. Your coaches and manager were very good leaders of these boys. They were real gentlemen, each day they were here for the tournament.

"Also the people backing the boys for the games were very orderly, and were gold stars for sportsmanship.

"I will repeat and say that it was a pleasure to have such a fine group of people from Haskell. Just thought I would let you know we enjoyed having them in Colorado City.

"It has been a pleasure for me to write this letter, hoping you will let your people know how their young boys represented their community. They were gentlemen all the way."

John E. Stansel, vice-president, Colorado City Jr. Teenage League (tournament announcer).

SORRY MR. BENAVIDES!

In last week's issue of the Free Press in the article headed "Participate in Pre-College Conference" it stated that "Miss Robelin Benavides" of Haskell, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Domingo Benavides. It should have read Robelin Benavides is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Domingo Benavides, of Haskell.

The article was printed, as it was released from North Texas State University, Denton, and was not a mistake of this newspaper, but the Free Press is happy to make the correction.

WE DID IT BEFORE!

When residents of the cities of Haskell, Goree, Munday and Knox City, marched to the polls in large numbers on Thursday, May 29th, they overwhelmingly endorsed the Water Contract and Bond Issue.

We did it before and we can do it again! Some Haskellites have remarked to the Free Press Editor they are becoming disgusted continually voting on the Miller Creek Project. It is no fault of our City Council, nor the North Central Texas Municipal Water Authority, that we must vote again. Due to litigation attacking the validity of the May 29th election, inasmuch as voting was limited to property owners at that time, the City Council and Water Authority felt that a new election was the safest and simplest of the alternatives.

We can't give up now! Be sure to go to the polls Thursday, August 14th, and vote FOR the issuance of bonds and vote FOR the Water Contract Proposition.

If you are interested in the growth and development of Haskell you MUST go to the polls on August 14th, and vote FOR the Water Contract and Bond Issue.

Why Should I Vote On Miller Creek?

Here Are Some Facts Each Voter Should Ponder:

You are being promised that your taxes on bonds will be 25c per $100.00 valuation and that taxes will cease after two years. This is simply not so. You can plan on paying ad valorem taxes for the full forty years, and remember, there is no limit to the tax rate.

If you will remember, ten years ago you were assured by the proponents that taxes would be so low you would hardly notice them. When you got your tax notices they were 85c per $100.00 and your valuation was inflated twice the amount you expected. That was when the voters screamed help and elected, by an overwhelming majority, a city council with the avowed purpose of getting us out of the district.

You are now promised Miller Creek water for 36c per thousand gallons at city limits. This is also not true. They decide how much money they need and inflate the amount of water usage to show that 36c will pay it. In other words you will have to buy twice and more the amount of water you can use to make it look like 36c. Haskell used (city records) 126 million gallons in 1968 which was over 1/2 the district total.

The Greenbelt and White River projects were promised a low cost before bonds were voted. Today they are paying over twice the amount they were promised.

Miller Creek is not a last resort.

There are two other ways to go, better and more (much more) economical than Miller Creek—First, tie onto Lake Stamford. The bonds have already been voted and are waiting to be used. Stamford would have sold us water before if a group had not called on them to tell them to keep out of Haskell politics. Now they will not discuss a contract unless and until Haskell is completely out of NCTMWA. Secondly, put in an Ionics filter plant and use our present supply. This will produce State Approved water at a cost guaranteed not to exceed 27c per thousand gallons.

Your City Council is aware of these routes but probably due to prior commitments have decided to force this Miller Creek deal regardless of costs.

You are being told how awful our water is but they refer only to our worst well and omit the reports on our better wells. You can bet that if our water was anywhere nearly as bad as the proponents picture it the State Health Department would forbid the use of it. They get samples on regular schedules.

We are told that we must have Miller Creek Lake before we can progress. Now just who slowed progress by blocking a new bank for Haskell. Also Abilene Savings & Loan wanted to open a branch office here and was blocked by the same crowd.

The City Council in 1966 awarded a contract for a large water main and a large storage tank on North Avenue M. This would have credited our fire rate and given residents in Northwest Haskell plenty of pressure. The council which took over in April, 1966, saw fit to pay the contractor and engineer to cancel the contract. WHY?

In September, 1968 Rule and Haskell both defeated the water contract election. Rule was dropped from the District but Haskell was not. WHY?

TO SUM UP THE SITUATION:

After the voters got their tax renditions ten years ago they wanted out and formed a "Council for Economy in Government" to attain that end. Now some seem to have forgotten that the deal now offered is the same deal as offered ten years ago. The only difference is that they now have you thinking we will have a crop of blue babies. It is a fact that nitrate is not the cause of blue babies. Check your encyclopedia if your doctor will not tell you.

The voters who do not own property will be allowed to vote, thanks to our Federal Court suit. However, you must remember that you never "get something for nothing." You will be paying indirect taxes on everything you buy, including the higher price on water.

If you feel that you are about to have a blue baby or that you want Miller Creek regardless of the consequences or that a lake will make Haskell boom instead of bust—vote for it.

We assure you that if Miller Creek loses this election and you wish to file a suit we will not stoop to harrassment, threats or intimidation in order to get your names off the suit.

If you want Miller Creek—Vote FOR.

If you do not want Miller Creek—Vote AGAINST.
