The Shreveport Ad Club of Shreveport, La., recently held in that city a celebration known as "Made-in-Shreveport Week." This celebration is said to have accomplished more than all else in the city's history toward arousing the citizens to the importance of patronizing home industry.

While very few of the small towns in the Southwest have manufacturing, they all have retail stores which, if properly patronized, constitute a powerful force in the growth and development of their communities.

If a few of the more progressive citizens in and around our smaller cities and towns would start a movement in favor of "home trading," much good would be accomplished, as it is a proven fact that the general prosperity of a community is dependent upon the prosperity of local mercantile establishments.

The community in which you live cannot possibly be any better than your stores and you cannot hope to have good stores unless you and your neighbors patronize them.

Civic pride is a most valuable asset, and, while all of us are desirous that our respective localities possess those things that make it a pleasant as well as a profitable place in which to live, but few of us realize that the securing and maintenance of these advantages depend upon local commercial activities.

Retail stores are the backbone of the town and community and should be supported at all times—prices and quality being equal.

A FORMER HASKELL

Citizen Dies at His Home in Marlin. Prominent Business Man.

Deeply sincere feelings of regrets were felt by Marlin people in all walks of life today when it became known that S. H. Johnson had passed from this earthly sphere.

He had been in poor health for more than a year, and recently his condition became such as made his recovery uncertain. The end came peacefully at the family home on Gift street at 11:30 today. His immediate family, wife and daughter, and other relatives were present at the bedside.

Deceased had resided in Marlin for about 17 years. After coming to Marlin he at once became identified with the commercial and civic life of the city. He organized the Marlin National Bank and became its cashier, which position he held until his failing health made it necessary for him to resign. He was the official head of the Marlin Wholesale Grocery Company, and interested in other enterprises.

He was active in church affairs. He was a member of the board of stewards of the Methodist church of Marlin, secretary of the body, and also of the district stewards and treasurer of the Texas Conference.

He was a native of Texas, 57 years of age, born in Crockett, which continued to be his home until he went to Austin. He lived a number of years in Haskell, coming to Marlin in the latter 90's.—Marlin Democrat.

Mr. Johnson was a pioneer merchant and banker of this city. He and his brother, W. E. Johnson, organized the Haskell National Bank of this city, into which they merged their private bank. They also had a general merchandise business, which was taken over when the F. A. Alexander Mercantile Company was organized.

The deceased had many friends here among the old settlers.

Facts and Figures on Young People's Earning Ability

$50 pays for an unlimited life scholarship in Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Telegraphy or Business Administration and Finance in our school. $50 will pay for the board and lodging of the average student while completing one of these courses. When two of these courses are taken at the same time a discount of $5.00 is made. The average time for completing two courses is five months, therefore board and lodging would amount to about $62.50. When one or more of these courses is finished, we will place the graduate in a position where his first two or three months' salary will reimburse him for all necessary tuition and board paid for the course. The graduate seeing that he can earn $3.00 where he could earn but $1.00 will soon admit that if he had had to borrow every cent of the money to pay board and tuition, that it was the best investment he ever made.

With the famous Byrne Simplified Shorthand and practical Bookkeeping, and our practical way of teaching Telegraph and Railway Station Work, we give the student a more thorough training, in half the time and at half the usual cost of a course in other schools teaching other systems. This is conclusively proven by the indorsement in our catalogue from those who have attended other schools and studied other systems. We conclusively prove every statement we make, and that is why we have the largest business training school in America. Our catalogue is free for the asking, and it will give any parent or young person just the information they desire helping them to make up their mind as to the school to patronize, the course to take, the cost, and the increased earning capacity.

Died.

Mr. Paul Zahn, has received the sad news of the death of his mother, Mrs. Emma Eoscheltz, who died last month at her home in Germany, at the age of 66 years. She visited her son here six years ago. Mr. Zahn came near visiting the old home last May, and if he had gone, and made the trip on the schedule time of twenty one days, he would have arrived on the day she died.

Socialist Encampment.

The Free Press is requested by Joe. F. Hudspeth, Co. Sec. to announce, that there will be a socialist picnic at O'Brien on July 17 and 18. The speakers will be, A. E. Blackwell and G. G. Hamilton, both of Oklahoma.

Everybody is invited to come; we assure you a good time. Bring your folks and camp with us. Free wood and water, will be provided. Messrs Ball and Ferguson or their representatives, or any other candidate, that wishes to attend, is invited to attend.

A JOINT DISCUSSION

Dr. Sandefer of Abilene and W. H. Murchison of Haskell Speak at Court House

Haskell had her share of political discussion Monday. There was a large crowd of farmers in town, and the people are taking more interest in the governors race. In the afternoon, Mrs. Mertz, a socialist addressed a large audience in the court house, giving away to a joint discussion, between Dr. Sandefer of Abilene, representing Ball and Judge W. H. Murchison of this city representing Jim Ferguson. The large audience took a deep interest in the discussion, which was highly entertaining, and conducted on a high plane. There was a large attendance of ladies, mostly wives of the farmers. Mrs. Mertz stayed until she had to go to fill an appointment to speak in the country.

We mention various speakers, because it shows that like the churches, the people of different parties are becoming more and more tolerant. There were democrats in the socialist audience and a large number of socialists in the democratic audience. There is no other country on earth, where people of different political faiths, could have assembled together as the people did here last Monday, and had the discussion and criticism that was had, with as little friction. Such a proceeding in any European country would have been under the guard of policemen, but on the tolerant soil of Angle-Saxon America, the people and speakers were in the best of humor, and not one unpleasant incident occurred, notwithstanding the speakers spoke in plain terms with the "bark off"

Died.

After a long illness, Mr. R. S. Decker died at his home in this city, at 1:15 p. m., the sixth instant. His remains were taken to Bartlett for interment. The deceased left his wife, several sons and daughters surviving. Mrs. J. A. McKee accompanied the family to Bartlett. The sons of the deceased, W. R. and W. G. Decker, arrived from Bartlett a day or two before the end came. Mr. Decker was 65 years old.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

Master John Pace Entertains His Little Friends Royally

On Tuesday afternoon, July 7, 1914 Charley Pace spent the most important day of his young life for he had reached the great age of five years. To celebrate this very auspicious occasion his mother gave him a party that afternoon from four to six o'clock inviting many of his little friends to be present. As the guests arrived Master Charlie was the recipient of many gifts which greatly increased the pleasures of the day.

A number of games were played on the lawn of which one a search for animal cakes concealed in the grass, was especially enjoyed. After consuming all the cakes the little guests were invited to the dining room which was lovely in its red, white and blue decorations Charley's birthday being so near National holiday. The table was the center of attraction; on it was placed the birthday cake, ornamented with white icing, flags and five beautiful red, white and blue candles, numbering the years that had passed. Ice cream and cake was served. In cutting the birthday cake Master Teddy Bowman found the button and Master John Pace the dime. Just before the guests departed a Jack Horner Pie was placed on a table in the center of the room from which each child drew a drum filled with candy, tied with red, white and blue ribbons as souvenirs of the occasion.

Charley was assisted in entertaining his little guests by his aunt, Miss Estelle McIver of Cameron, Texas, and her grandmother, Mrs. M. E. McIver.

Card of Thanks.

We desire through the columns of the Free Press, to convey our sincere thanks to our kind neighbors and friends, who so kindly assisted us during the trying hours of sickness and death of our beloved husband and father, to those dear and faithful friends, we will forever be obligated, and trust that you all will find just such neighbors in the hour of trouble.

(Mrs.) R. S. Decker and Children.

She—"And did you see papa?"
He—"Yes, and hear him."
She—"And what did he say?"
He—"I can't tell you; I swore off using that kind of language the first of the year."

TOM BALL IS COMING

Will Speak at the Court House Morning of July 16th

Thos. H. Ball will speak to the voters of Haskell county, at the court house in Haskell, on the morning of July 16th, at 11 o'clock. Everybody is urged to come and hear one of the big men of Texas; a man who is capable of filling the highest office within the gift of the people.

Ladies cordially invited.
Committee.

To the Republican Voters of Haskell County:

We understand, from what we can hear, that there are a few men in the county, who have always voted the Republican ticket, are contemplating going in the Democratic primary in July. It is even talked that some of our postmasters and other government officials, who got their office through a Republican president are going to vote the Democratic ticket this year. Don't be discouraged, but stay with the party that stayed with you. So let's keep our hands clean and in 1916 we will once more carry the G. O. P. flag to victory, and then we will place the American Nation once more in the front rank as one of the greatest Nations the sun ever shone on.

R. H. Penick,
Burl Cox,
J. E. Lindsey,
County Committee.

Hon. R. B. Humphreys has withdrawn from the race for congressman at large. In the congressional elections, we will all have the right to vote for two congressman at large, as well as for district congressman. Judge Smith and Judge Blanton, are running for the office of district congressman. The others are running for congressman at large with two places to fill. So each voter will vote for two congressman at large and either for Judge Smith or Judge Blanton.

When you vote for congressman you will have the right to vote for two congressman at large and one for our district. The state is cut into 16 districts, but since the last census Texas is entitled to 18 congressman. During the Colquit administration, the legislature failing to agree on a redistricting bill, but provided for two congressmen at large to fill the additional places. So don't get mixed up on this.

Airdome Saturday Night

MARIO Special two part feature. This is a lovey picture of a tragic love story set in Italy, and an offering that will surely be liked. Human sympathy and a wakeful sense of the realities of life are very apparent. A very desirable offering.

WHEN FATE FROWNED A tragic story of untamed passion. Miriam Cooper and R. M. Welch play the leading roles in an entirely capable manner. Ten cents to all.

JNO. W. PACE & CO.

THE MILLION DOLLAR MYSTERY is a serial story in 46 reels. Runs for 23 weeks at the airdome. Two reels on the same night each week. Read the story in the Star-Telegram.

Judge W. R. Smith addressed a large audience at the court house, Thursday of last week, in the interest of his candidacy for reelection to congress from this district. He made a good impression on the people and made a most dignified defense against the campaign stories that had been circulated on him. His exposures of some of these stories convulsed the crowd with laughter.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Cobb and daughter Miss Meck, came in from their ranch the first of the week and spent a few days in the city. They returned Tuesday to the ranch. Miss Edith Wingo went with Miss Meck for a few days outing on the ranch. Miss Meck rode horseback and fished a great deal during the summer. Mr. Cobb took out a machine to cut his sorghum. He said it was heading out and was seven feet high.

In conversation with Dick Nolen this week he told us that in the near future he would show the first installment of the "MILLION DOLLAR MYSTERY" a serial story which will run for 23 weeks, there being in all 46 reels of which two will be shown on a certain night of each week at the Airdome. This is the serial story that begun in the Star-Telegram last week and will appear in it for 23 weeks, and is from the pen of that greatest of all modern fiction writers, Harold McGrath. Such notables as James Cruze, Marguerite Snow, Florence LaBadie, and other make this production one the best. A $10,000 cash prize is offered to the individual who gives the best 100 word solution of the mystery. The exhibition date will appear in the columns next week.

WHY WEAK LUNGS?

The toll of tuberculosis is claiming more than 350 victims every day in the United States, yet few realize their grave condition until the critical period arrives. Overwork, worry, weakness after sickness, catarrh, bronchitis, tender throats—all exert the weakening influence that invites consumption.

To guard against consumption, thousands of people take Scott's Emulsion after meals because its rich medicinal nourishment strengthens the lungs, puts vigor in the blood, and rebuilds strength to resist tuberculosis. Scott's Emulsion is nature's strength-builder. Refuse substitutes.

HASKELL, TEXAS, July 11, 1914.

Mr. Roosevelt had one of his toes taken off by a fish while bathing in the river. No doubt he is going to lose his reputation as a progressive if he does not quit finding fault with every policy of President Wilson, and will find himself a political cripple for life as well as a physical cripple.

Notice the big advertisements of the merchants in this issue of the Free Press. It looks to us like the Haskell business men are feeling good over the crops, and they are going to push sales. We are glad to usher in the optimistic era. We too believe with the enterprising merchants of the city that good times are here, and the optimist is the fellow who is going to reap the benefit. The croaker may croak, yet the "world do move." The croaker comes and goes to other climes seeking easier opportunity, and seeking to avoid competition with live competitors, but the hustler prospers all the same anywhere.

Elmer B. Woodward, late of Corpus Christi, is helping the Leader now. He is the linotype. Elmer happened to a bad accident about six months ago. He was out in the chicken yard and let his six-shooter fall. The gun did the usual thing—went off. Then the bullet did the usual thing—hit Elmer. The ball struck him in the calf of the leg and ranged upward, tearing the bone to splinters as it went. At first it was thought amputation would be necessary, but he seems in a fair way now to recover the full use of the limb. We knew Elmer from childhood. He is the second son of J. C. Woodward, who runs the Petty Enterprise. There are no better country newspaper men over the country than this same John Woodward, either. If we knew and better ones, we would not say."—Stamford Leader.

Missionary Notes

Mrs. Montgomery was entirely at home to the happy crowd of Missionary ladies that met with her last Monday. It was the close of the tithing contest, and a nice little sum was given with which to pay off the note now due on the parsonage. Our delegates to the Plainview Conference gave their report, and I'm sure all felt a bit of enthusiasm when we heard the immense work our missionary ladies are doing. A solo was rendered by Mrs. Elmer Woodward, and a reading by Mrs. Graham. A delicious ice course was served, after which we said good bye, to meet with Mrs. F. G. Alexander on the third Monday at 4:30 o'clock.

A Good Investment

W. D. Magli, a well known merchant of Whittemound, Wis., bought a stock of Chamberlain's medicine so as to be able to supply them to his customers. After receiving them he was himself taken sick and says that one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was worth more to him than the cost of his entire stock of these medicines. A Correction.

Taking advantage of the fact that I had no rejoinder in our recent debate, Dr. Sandefer stated or quoted in his closing argument that the Court of Civil Appeals in the case of Ins. Co. Vs. Beaumont Land & Building Co. 146 S. W. R. page 335, had judiciously held that Jas. E. Ferguson had sworn falsely in the trial of said case.

This statement or insinuation is wholly incorrect. The case referred to was tried before Judge John D. Robinson by a jury of twelve Bell County citizens. This jury believed the testimony of Ferguson and he recovered judgement. The Ins. Co., party not believed by the jury, thereupon appealed the case, and the Court of Civil Appeals in the opinion states in substance it is APPELLANT'S CONTENTION was that Ferguson's testimony was untrue. With this contention the Court of Civil Appeals not only failed to agree but expressly stated to do so would be improper. The case was reversed for a new trial "on account of errors in the Court's charge."

Twelve citizens of Bell County believed Ferguson, the higher court did not disagree with them and the Judge before whom Ferguson testified is now on the stump in his behalf. Is the Ball cause so weak that one of your "strongest" men must wait until there is no opportunity for correction and then make a statement either from hearsay or otherwise that is a slander? Charity leads me to add that he was doubtless misled by the Home and State report, but his evident carelessness in taking for granted the truth of the slander without investigating the original report itself is inexcusable.

You are again challenged to find in Ferguson's life a dishonorable or immoral act. We interpose no plea of limitation. You may make your investigation three, five or ten mile wide; State or Nation wide, Statutory or Constitutional.

W. H. Murchison.

Has Your Child Worms?

Most children do. A Coated, Furred Tongue; Strong Breath; Pains; Circles under Eyes. Pale, Sallow Complexion; Nervous, Fretful; Grinding of teeth; Tossing in Sleep; Peculiar Dreams—any one of these indicate Child has Worms. Get a box of Kickapoo Worm Killer at once. It kills the Worms—the cause of your child's condition, is Laxative and aids Nature to expel the Worms. Supplied in candy form. Easy for children to take. 25c, at your Druggist.

If What They Say Is So, Why Don't They Support Him?

They charge that Thomas H. Ball is a drinking man, a poker player—that he is interested in the sale of liquor. Ferguson describes him as a "high-toned saloon keeper."

Then Oscar B. Colquitt, Jake Wolters and every saloon and brewery in Texas should be solidly for Tom Ball.

And they would be if they believed their own statements about him.—From the Dallas Dispatch (Advertisement.)

Best Diarrhoea Remedy.

If you have ever used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy you know that it is a success. Sam F. Guin, Whately, Ala., writes, "I had measles and got caught out in the rain, and it settled in my stomach and bowels. I had an awful time, and had it not been for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I could not possibly have lived but a few hours longer, but I am now well and strong." D. 1914, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court No. 1898, wherein Jefferson Johnson, Executor under the last will and testament of N. S. Walton, deceased, is plaintiff and Mrs. M. M. McDaniel, G. R. Couch, S. A. McDaniel, John McDaniel, Bettie Clack and husband R. F. Clack, Liddie Hendrix and husband S. W. Hendrix, Maggie Weaver and husband C. P. Weaver, Rosie Rose and husband Oscar Rose, Effie Rose and husband Allen Rose, Eddie Flowers and husband K. J. Flowers, Willie Webb and husband George L. Webb and Charlie McDaniel are defendants.

The nature of the plaintiff's demand being as follows to-wit:

Suit for title to and possession of and damages, in the form of trespass to try title as well as for damages, to Lot No. 6 in Block No. 28 in the town of Haskell, in Haskell County, Texas, plaintiff alleging the claim of plaintiff and derendants as follows:

Plaintiff claims title to said property by reason of the following facts: (a) The Estate of N. S. Walton, deceased, is the common source of title between plaintiff and defendants, and plaintiff holds the same by reason of his appointment and qualification as executor under the last will and testament of N. S. Walton, deceased, acting under the orders of the County Court of Travis County, Texas. (b) On the 27th day of December, 1906, the plaintiff as such executor conveyed said property by his deed in writing, bearing that date, to W. T. McDaniel, in which deed the superior title to said land was reserved in plaintiff to secure payment of a certain note for $50.00, executed by W. T. McDaniel payable to plaintiff, bearing even date with said deed and in said deed the Vendor's Lien was also retained to secure payment of said note, same bearing interest at eight per cent per annum from date, payable annually, and providing for ten per cent additional as attorneys fees. (c) That neither the principal nor the interest of said note nor any part thereof has ever been paid, though long since past due. (d) That said note has been placed in the hands of H. G. McConnell, an attorney at law, with instructions from this plaintiff to institute this suit, plaintiff having agreed to pay said attorney ten per cent of the principal and interest of said note as his fee for his services in the premises, which is a reasonable and proper fee to be paid.

The defendants claim title to said property by reason of the following facts: (a) The said W. T. McDaniel, who is the vendee in the above mentioned deed, and maker of the above mentioned note, died on or about the 2nd day of January 1911, in Haskell County, Texas, inestate, and left surviving him the defendants in this case as his sole and only heirs at law, save and except G. R. Couch, whose claim of title is unknown to plaintiff, but believed to be by reason of the fact that he once served as administrator of

COULD SCARCELY WALK ABOUT

And For Three Summers Mrs. Vincent Was Unable to Attend to Any of Her Housework.

Pleasant Hill, N. C.—"I suffered for three summers," writes Mrs. Walter Vincent, of this town, "and the third and last time, was my worst.

I had dreadful nervous headaches and prostration, and was scarcely able to walk about. Could not do any of my housework.

I also had dreadful pains in my back and sides and when one of those weak, sinking spells would come on me, I would have to give up and lie down, until it wore off.

I was certainly in a dreadful state of health, when I finally decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I firmly believe I would have died if I hadn't taken it.

After I began taking Cardui, I was greatly helped, and all three bottles relieved me entirely.

I fattened up, and grew so much stronger in three months, I felt like another person altogether."

Cardui is purely vegetable and gentle-acting. Its ingredients have a mild, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardui makes for increased strength, improves the appetite, tones up the nervous system, and helps to make pale, sallow cheeks, fresh and rosy.

Cardui has helped more than a million weak women, during the past 50 years. It will surely do for you, what it has done for them. Try Cardui today.

There is a Heap of Solace in being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation

For months Haskell readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the work they have done in this locality. What other remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit? Mrs. I. Kerr, Seymour, Texas, says: "I had pain and lameness in my back, accompanied by headaches. Through the use of Doan's Kidney Pills, I was rid of the trouble. I know of no other remedy so effective for removing dull, constant headaches, and toning up the kidneys."

NO TROUBLE SINCE. On January 4, 1912, Mrs. Kerr said: "I have had no occasion to use Doan's Kidney Pills since they cured me some time ago. You are at liberty to use my statement as heretofore."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Kerr had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., N. Y.

A doctor who who knew the story about his celebrated colleague, who charged ten dollars for the first visit and five dollars for the second visit, really had one of those smart aleck patients, whom he had never laid eyes on before to visit him.

As he entered the consulting room this unknown patient said: "Well, doctor, here we are again."

"Yes, yes," said the doctor "go right on with the treatment I gave you last time."

After taking the Draughon Training, Miss Anna Bynum, daughter of Judge Bynum, Greensboro, N. Political Preachers

Led by a political preacher, who seems to be on the job, the state convention of the Progressive party of Iowa, have declared for prohibition. If the preachers are not driven back to the pulpit, they are going to ruin the great whiskey traffic of this country, and choke every old jug sucker loose from his jug, even if they do not succeed in bringing a union of all the churches with the state. If the bartenders do not keep up the union of the liquor traffic and state politics, the preachers will down them yet.

Credits his cure from Malaria to Grigsby's Liv-ver-Lax, the modern, nonmetallic Liver Medicine.

Mr. F. E. Gilmore of 209 Slaughter Bldg., Dallas, Texas, says unqualifiedly that he was cured, of biliousness, Stomach and Liver trouble and Constipation by LIV-VER-LAX.

He had been a sufferer for years from the above complaints which were a sure indication of malarial condition so prevalent in this climate and his cure is but one of hundreds that are occurring daily. LIV-VER-LAX is really a wonderful remedy and preventive for malaria and all the obnoxious conditions that arise from the 'dread disease.

Every one should protect themselves against the malarial germ before it takes hold and develops into serious stages.

Keep a bottle of LIV-VER-LAX in the house and take a dose regularly once a week. Thus you will insure to yourself a clear eye, ambition, hope and every mental condition that makes life worth while.

There's No Sense in Taking Calomel.

Dodson's Liver Tone will fix up your liver safely and won't "knock you out" a day. A man feels very little like working and a child don't want to go to school when bilious or constipated. If you try calomel to cure you, the chances are that you will be so weakened by it after-effects that you will be laid up for two or three days more. So we say "Don't take Calomel!" You can get a perfect remedy to take the place of Calomel at The Corner Drug Store that is guaranteed to relieve constipation and liven up the liver just as quickly as calomel, but without any of the bad after-effects of calomel. The name of this medicine is Dodson's Liver Tone. It is a pleasant tasting vegetable tonic that mildly stimulates the liver and causes it to work just right without any danger of salivation. If it doesn't satisfy you, you may have your money back from the store where you bought Dodson's.

Cap Was Delighted

The Captain of a steamboat on the Rock River in Illinois has a rule permitting children under ten years of age to ride free on his daily excursion trips up the river. One afternoon a lady made a careful inquiry as to the charge for children and a short time later returned with an infant brigade of thirty.

"These are the children I asked you about," she said sweetly, "they're all under ten years of age. My daughter is giving a party. I don't believe I'll go along; they're so noisy, but you'll look out for them of course?"

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

THIS IS MY FACE

Little Mary sat on the stairs crying and sniffing because her mother had refused to permit her to go in the motor to make some calls. When the mother came down she paused and looked at her little daughter's tear-stained face, then she said banteringly:—"Why, Mary, Mary, such a face—such a d-r-e-a-d-f-u-l face. Run look in the glass and see yourself!" The child glanced up and replied saucily:—"This is m-y face, ain't it? This is m-y face!"

A Possible Explanation

I "can't understand," said the librarian, "why it is that so few women come here. We have a beautiful and comfortable reading room, and I should think the ladies would like to come in not only to read, but to rest."

"Yes," replied the trustee, "but I notice that you have at the entrance a big placard, which says, 'No Talking.'"

Chigger Bites

To get rid of Chigger bites put a little Hunt's Lightning Oil on, and the itching stops instantly. Good for all kinds of insect bites and stings. Fine for headaches and neuralgia, as well as rheumatism. All druggists.

"NERVOUS JELLY"

Five year old Susie having tea with her aunt was passed some currant jelly which stood upright and quivering in its dish just as it came from the fancy tumbler in which it was moulded. For a moment she looked at it steadily, the spoon poised in her chubby fingers, then she said:—"Aunt Lucy, this is a awful nervous jelly, ain't it?"

Surprising Cure of Stomach Trouble.

When you have trouble with your stomach or chronic constipation, don't imagine that your case is beyond help just because your doctor fails to give you relief. Mrs. G. Stengle, Plainfield, N. J., writes, "For over a month past I have been troubled with my stomach. Everything I ate upset it terribly. One of Chamberlain's advertising booklets came to me. After reading a few of the letters from people who had been cured by Chamberlain's Tablets, I decided to try them. I have taken nearly three-fourths of a package of them and can now eat almost eat everything that I want." For sale by All Dealers.

"You used to want to smother me with kisses," she complained. "I know it," he replied. "But I'm too generous to say it." "To say what?" "That I'm sorry I didn't give way to my inclinations. I don't believe in giving pain by telling the truth when harmless evasion will keep another's feelings from being hurt."

A FUTURE FINANCIER

Grandma spoke very sweetly across the dinner table to her small grandson. "I made my will this morning, dearie, and I left you something."

"Y' d-i-d?" said Bobbie, with a mouth full of pie. "W-what?" "A thousand dollars, son," father answered proudly. By the time you are a man it will start you in business."

A few days later, Bobbie approached his grandmother confidently; "grandma," he said. "It'll be an awful long time before I'm a man won't it?" "Yes dear, it will, his grandmother replied kissing him. Bobbie was thoughtful a moment, then he said; "Grandma, suppose you give me a dime on what you left me in your will."

The Paper in the Case

Country editors are to be well seasoned to disappointments; but on previous experience could have fortified the editor of the following experience:

The Bugle is a small, five column, four page paper, but large enough and to spare for all the village news. One morning a woman entered the office with a silver dollar in her hand.

"I want to pay our subscription," she announced.

The editor most gladly receipted for the dollar and thanked her. "Yes," she said, "we thought we would take your paper another year. We can't get along without it."

"Thank you," responded the editor glowingly.

"It just fits the bird cage," she remarked as she turned to the door.

It Was Mary's Own Idea

"Did you mail my letter, Mary?" asked her mistress, "It was an important one, you know."

"Yis, mum, indeed I did."

"But why have you brought back the two cents I gave you for the stamp?"

"Sure, I didn't have to use it, mum," replied Mary. "I slipped th' letter into th' box whin nobody was lukin."—Ladies Home Journal.

Business Was Bad

The man in the barber chair, because of his general appearance, and his manners, was known among the villagers as the "Hog."

"Business is 'bout like your razor; aint it, Joe?" asked the man in the chair.

"How's that?" questioned the barber.

"Dull," chuckled the other.

"Yes, now that you mentioned it business does remind me of my razor. It's on the hog," replied the barber as he scraped away.
