Briscoe Carries Haskell County

Haskell County voters strongly endorsed Uvalde rancher Dolph Briscoe for Governor of Texas Saturday in the Democratic Primary runoff election, with a total of 1,518 votes cast for him. Frances "Sissie" Far-entholt polled only 432 county votes.

Ralph Yarborough, too, was soundly defeated here, with Barefoot Sanders gaining 1,114 votes to Yarborough's 828 total, in the U. S. Senator race.

Houston newspaperman Bill Hobby won his race against Wayne Connally for the Lieutenant Governor spot by totaling 1,147 against Connally.

Robert S. Calvert totaled 1,107 votes in his race for Comptroller of Public Accounts, against James Wilson with 816 votes.

A total of 1,950 votes were cast in Haskell County, of the potential 4,633 registered voters.

96 Attend GS Day Camp

Camp Nature Haven, the Girl Scout Day Camp held May 30th through June 2 on the Maurice Gannaway farm two miles northwest of town, ended Friday night as a huge success. Girl Scouts and their leaders had a happy, enjoyable time and learned a lot of new things, plus expecting a few mosquito bites, but thanks to the City of Haskell spraying crews, this was not the case.

78 girls attended the Day Camp, with 20 staff members and leaders, to total a near 100 mark of 98 in the tiny 'city under the trees', Haskell, Hawley and Stamford were represented.

They enjoyed the perfect camping weather all weekend, and learned many skills with emphasis on the seven basic skills of camping. Some of the basics included knot tying, lashing, outdoor cooking, use of the pocket knife, use of the patrol system, crafts and many others. Juniors and Cadettes did some badge work. The Cadettes provided a lollipop tree each day, teaching 'trail signs'. Each day, too, the lollipops were eaten by the unit following the signs and finding the tree.

The week of camping utilized the out-of-door setting to provide a sense of accomplishment by developing curiosity, creativity and skills in a climate of relaxation and fun. And ... the girls had that!

The four girl leaders, including Karen Pippin, Beth Lowrey, Pam Klose and Nancy Rose, led the camp in a special 30-minute sing-song each day as a special addition to the camp routine.

Camp Nurse Mrs. Hoie Harrell, performed in an outstanding way all week in the treatment of first aid (luckily, no major treatments were needed). Her daily demonstrations on 'first aid in the woods' and 'first aid while camping' were a real asset for the girls.

Thursday night provided a weiner roast and special ceremony to demonstrate the proper disposal of an old, wornout flag of our country. This very impressive ceremony included a detail of six girls—one from

JOHNSON PHARMACY has completely remodeled their store, and pictured is one view of the beautiful changes they made. Wide, spacious aisles and convenient departmentalizing have added to the customers enjoyment of shopping at Johnson's. Everyone is cordially invited to stop in and see the "new look."

Grand Opening Set At Johnson Pharmacy Here

The chaos was short-lived at Johnson Pharmacy during their recent remodeling, and well worth the inconvenience, according to Elbert and Franciene Johnson.

Now that they have on their 'new face', they invite all their friends and customers in this wide shopping area to attend the grand opening sale, slated June 8, 9 and 10. Free coffee will be served all day each day, and there'll be free balloons for the kids. The beautiful carpet, the soft, mellow wood paneling; and the wider areas for self-service shopping all were well planned for their customers. The store has been completely departmentalized, to make it easy to shop when you're in a hurry, or comfortable to browse and see the new merchandise.

Departments include the Cosmetic Bar, the Men's Shop, the gift department, card department, the Health Center, a photo center, the prescription department, and the coffee bar. It's all designed to serve you, their customer, better and more conveniently. HHS Band Students Win State Honors

Several thousand Texas High School students converged on the University of Texas campus in Austin on Saturday, June 3 and Monday, June 5. The occasion for this convergence was the 1972 State University Interscholastic League (UIL) Band Solo and Ensemble Meet. Twelve Haskell High School Band members participated in the state meet.

In order to qualify each year, instrumentalists must play a Class I piece (most difficult) and receive a rating of 1 for their performance at the Region UIL Meet. Twirlers must receive a rating of 1 on the Region level.

The trek to the capitol city of Austin was made on Sunday, June 4, by the 12 contending students, an assemblage of six parent sponsors, a sister and brother, and the Haskell High Band Director, Mr. Wendell Gideon. This is the first group to go from Haskell to Austin in almost a decade.

Instrumentalists participating were Susan Gilleland, saxophone soloist; Helen Mary Cadenhead, flute soloist; Shirley Abbott, Diane Tidwell, Susie McAdoo, and Helen Mary Cadenhead, flute quartet. Able accompanist for the soloists was Ellen Walling. Judges remarked on Ellen's "good piano support." Each of the instrumentalists received a Class III rating.

The six Haskell students who demonstrated their twirling skill on the south terrace of the famed Texas University Tower Complex were judged by Mr. Avila of the Texas valley, a professional dancer, Susie McAdoo, Linda Hartsfield, and Bonnie Adkins received a Class II rating and Silver Medals. An ensemble composed of Susie, Linda, Bonnie, Lugene Lane and Connie Turnbow, also received a Class II rating. Connie, Lugene and Clint Melton received Class III ratings for their solo twirling.

Karen Felker, now of Greenville, Texas, who qualified for the state meet while here; but, because of UIL rules, was unable to compete for Gainesville. Her school in Gainesville did let her accompany the band group to the state activities, however.

Those who accompanied the band students and Mr. Gideon were Renee Abbott, Steven Turnbow, Bob Turnbow, Jean Turnbow, H. O. Abbott, Sue Abbott, Jane McAdoo and Billie Cadenhead.

Denise Roberson, in the summer session at West Texas State in Canyon, was eligible for oboe solo and twirling, but was unable to attend.

The $800 scholarships are awarded to a high school student who will study journalism at a West Texas college or university, and who indicates a desire to enter the field of newspaper journalism after graduation. The scholarship is paid in installments of $200 per school year for a period of four years.

Miss Fox is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Harvey Fox of Crane and is the youngest of seven children. A May graduate of Crane High School, she ranks fifth in her class and (Continued on Page 2, Sec. 1)

Insecticide For The Boll Weevil?

Childress (Special)—Whether or not to use insecticide on the boll weevil in July racks the nerves annually of the Rolling Plains cotton grower.

Because using insecticide on the weevil at such a time, says Emory P. Boring III, is almost certain to bring on a costly fight with another mean cotton pest, the bollworm.

Boring is entomologist at Vernon for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service of Texas A&M University. He was a speaker here, at Stamford and at Sweetwater, sites of recent production conferences sponsored by the Rolling Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., and the Rolling Plains Economic Program (R-PEP).

"And with the 1/2 to 3/4 bale of cotton per acre from our dryland production," says he, "a fight with the bollworm eats deeply into our profit because such a fight, lasting much of the growing season as it usually does, may require from 10 to 14 applications of insecticide."

Boring says the bollworm would not be the dreaded pest that it is if insecticide did not have to be used first to control the weevil, because the same insecticide kills the beneficial insects preying on the eggs and the larvae of the bollworm.

"If the need to control the weevil can somehow be postponed until mid-August or even later," he says, "the beneficial insects could then help prevent outbreaks of the bollworm."

There is a method, proved by demonstration, that helps postpone the control of the weevil until mid-August or even later: Diapause Boll Weevil Control, or DBWC.

And Boring says DBWC, if carried out in the fall of the year, helps prevent damaging infestations of weevils until late in the growing season of the next year's cotton crop.

DBWC has worked in the St. Lawrence area of Glasscock County to the extent that growers, to their delight, did not have to use any insecticide, early or late, in their 1971 cotton, because the weevils were not there in damaging numbers. The St. Lawrence weevils had been reduced below damaging numbers because the growers had:

1. Organized themselves for 100 percent participation beginning in 1968 in a DBWC program proposed by Extension Entomologist Charles W. Neeb and County Agricultural Agent Oliver F. Werst.

2. Planted on or near as possible to the same date in 1968, 1969 and 1970.

3. Used insecticide three times in Septembers to kill as many weevils as possible.

4. Mixed the insecticides Guthion or methyl parathion (to kill yet more weevils) with their harvest-aid chemicals in the three years, and harvested as early as possible to destroy the food supply of weevils yet remaining and trying to get fat for the winter.

5. Shredded the stalks and plowed them under to prevent regrowth of the cotton and to eliminate the weevil's food source.

On the weevil in '72, Boring suggests that the R-PEP grower should use insecticide only when he finds, by careful inspection, damaging infestations in his field. Where insecticidal control is begun, the field should be inspected every three to four days to determine the need for further control of either the weevil or the bollworm.

EDWARD E. THOMAS

Conservationist Named For Texas

Youth, dedication, experience, professionalism—these are some of the traits of Edward E. Thomas, newly appointed state conservationist for the U. S. Soil Conservation Service in Texas.

Thomas returns to his native state from Nashville, Tennessee where he was deputy state conservationist for SCS. He succeeded Clyde W. Graham who has been named director of the South regional technical service center in Fort Worth.

A career conservationist since 1954, Thomas was an assistant to Graham at the Temple state office until he went to Nashville in January 1971.

"Having the chance to return to Texas as state conservationist exceeds my fondest dreams," Thomas admits matter-of-factly. "My family and I learned to love Tennessee, but it was always second to Texas."

After starting his conservation career at Lubbock in 1954, Thomas worked at Wellington, Wheeler, Jayton and Morton. Then he became area conservationist at Pecos in 1963. After holding a similar position at Harlingen, he moved to Temple as assistant state conservationist in 1968.

Thomas is a 1954 graduate of Texas A&M University where he was a member of the track team. He is also a graduate of Vernon High School and served as an Army officer in Korea from 1954 to 1956. He is a member of the T Association of Texas A&M, the Soil Conservation Society of America, and the American Society of Range Management.

He and his wife, Mary, have three children: Eddie, 15; Bill, 13; and Susan, 11.

Screwworm Cases Set New Record

MISSION—A record-breaking 1,563 screwworm cases were confirmed in Texas for the week ending Saturday (May 27). This compares to 780 cases the previous week and 600 two weeks earlier.

According to officials of the Mission Screwworm Eradication Program, the outbreak spread to 16 new counties during the past week, upping the infestation area to 109 Texas counties. Newest counties hit by the flesh-eating livestock pest include Concho, Lampasas, Nolan, Howard, Stonewall, Jack, Knox, Comanche, Runtels, Brown, Coke, Grimes, San Saba, Wilbarger, Young and Reeves.

Dr. M. E. (Cotton) Meadows, Jr., eradication program director, said Arizona also recorded nine new cases, pushing the tally for the week to 1,574 cases in the United States. Large numbers of new cases also were reported in many portions of Mexico near the U. S. border.

Total case count for the year thus far is 4,447, compared to 444 for all of last year. Texas thus far had recorded 4,382 cases; Arizona, 57; New Mexico, 5; California, 2; and Oklahoma, 1.

"All areas where cases are confirmed are being treated with sterile flies," points out Meadows. This involves "hot-spotting" or dropping about 100,000 sterile flies at each location. In addition, 1,000 flies are dropped per square mile each week in the southern part of the state that has heavy infestations. Certain other areas receive sterile fly drops at the rate of 500 to 800 per square mile each week. When cases are confirmed in scattered western and northern counties, routine fly drops are made along rivers and streams in addition to the "hot-spotting".

Meadows urges all producers to check their animals frequently, collect any worm samples from wounds and treat the wounds with a recommended product. Worm samples should be sent to the Screwworm Laboratory, Box 696, Mission, Texas for identification.

The program director also cautioned producers to delay such operations as docking, dehorning, branding and castrating. "These operations leave a wound and that's an open invitation for the screwworm fly to lay her eggs. Almost 90 percent of all confirmed screwworm cases come from man-made wounds and from the navels of young calves," he added.

Paint Creek Community News

Most of the wheat crop will be cut by the end of this week, breaking wheat stubble. The weather has been wonderful for all farm work, and we haven't had any bad spring storms. I guess the weather is trying to make up for how badly it treated us last summer. The wheat was surprisingly good, and several farmers already have a good stand of cotton. The weeds are flourishing nicely, too, though, and last summer's big rains caused us to have some weeds we haven't seen in several years. Have you noticed the thistle weeds floating in the air? And if you have been walking in the pasture you can see they have planted themselves all over the place.

Johnson grass and careless weeds have our summer's work cut out for us, but the weed I get the maddest at it this tall stateley one that doesn't branch out much. It has a stem that bends your hoe, and I think its roots go to Australia. I want to ask my men folks its name when they get in from the field, so I can hate it better.

Donald Livengood took the G.E.D. tests at Rule recently and passed them. He will enter the Western Texas College this fall.

The senior class came home from their trip last Saturday afternoon. They were gone eight days, from May 27th to June 3rd. They went to Colorado Springs and Denver, and they went to the Cinarama, the dog races, drove to the top of Pike's Peak in the little bus, saw the Cave of the Winds, Seven Falls, the Royal Gorge, rode horseback through the Garden of the Gods, visited the Air Force Academy and had a wonderful time. Seniors making the trip were Ricky Brazell, Glen Caselberry, Jim Strickland, Caroline Silva and Melanie Trautvetter. Their sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Pritchard.

Shelia Adress of Haskell is spending several days with Quala Buerger.

Durward Mickler of Snyder, son of Mrs. Bill Mickler and brother of Mrs. Allen Isbell is a patient in Hendrick Hospital in Abilene. He underwent surgery last Thursday and is quite seriously ill.

Mrs. Howard Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Montgomery, and Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Smith were in Odessa Thursday evening for the high school graduation. John Paul Montgomery was an honor graduate in a class of 700. He plans to attend Texas University next year as a pre-med student.

Vic Kuenstler of Abilene, brother of John and Louie Kuenstler and Mrs. Roy Overton, underwent surgery on his eyes last Tuesday for the removal of cataracts. He is recuperating nicely.

Several Paint Creek college students will attend summer school this first semester. Rick Perry and Mike Overton will attend Texas A&M, Danny Isbell will attend Hardin-Simmons University, Terry Walton will attend Texas Tech, David Mimms (Paint Creek High Coach), will work on his Masters at Tarleton State.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Williams and children from Lubbock visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Mickler and attended exercises at Haskell High where her nephew Jim Bob Mickler graduated.

Mrs. Ralph Weaver returned home from Hendrick Memorial Hospital last Saturday.

NANCY LYNN KIRKPATRICK

The wedding is set for July 1 at 8 p. m. in Westbury Methodist Church in Houston with Dr. Compton Riley reading the vows.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Westbury High School and a graduate of Texas Tech University where she was a member of Alpha Chi Omega and past president of Texas Tech Panhellenic.

The prospective bridegroom is a graduate of Haskell High School and attended Texas Tech University. He is now employed by an insurance firm in Lubbock.

Miss Janet Page of Mesquite became the bride of Jackson Williams May 21 in the First Presbyterian Church of Mesquite. Wedding vows were read by the Rev. Tom Wilbanks before an altar banked with baskets of spring flowers.

The bride chose a bluish-pink gown of soft eyelet embroidery fashioned with full ruffles around a scoop neckline, short sleeves, and a high waistline. The floor-length skirt fell in soft folds from the waistline, and she carried a mixed bouquet.

Her maid of honor was Holly Christmas of Dallas, and the bride's sister, Mrs. Judy Pardun of Mesquite, was matron of honor.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Delma Williams of Haskell, chose Elmer Ratliff of Dallas as his best man. Jim Moore of Irving served as groomsmen.

Music presented before the ceremony was Hendels Water Music, and the couple left the church to The 1812 Overture.

Reception was held on the church lawn, in the form of a picnic.

After a wedding trip to New York, the couple will make their home in Huntsville, Ala.

The groom is the former entertainment director at the Barn Dinner Theatre where he was the musical director for the recent play, "Man of La Mancha", presented at the Theatre. The bride played the part of Antonia. She was also a member of the singing group, Monday

She stressed the importance of daily meditation and the importance of finding God's way in our lives.

The group then enjoyed a fellowship hour. Mrs. Claudia Mae Bland's group was hostess and served homemade ice cream and cake to the following: Ella Moeller, Jewel Seets, Alene Wheatley, Sadie Payne, Betty Jo Clanton, Emma Bland, Betty Harris, Clariss Jones, Claudia Mae Bland, Mattie Felker, Stella Trice, Ethel Lou Shelton, Nettie McCollum, and two visitors, Mrs. N. The Empire waistline was defined with pink velvet ribbon and they had short lantern sleeves. They carried nosegays of daisies in spring colors of pink, white, yellow and orchid.

Haskell Crude Oil Production Hits 74 Million
Dallas—Texas crude oil production in 1971 topped 1 billion barrels for the seventh consecutive year as reserves fell toward the 13 billion barrel mark, according to a study by the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Assn.
Texas oil wells produced 1,210,818,658 barrels last year, bring the state's 82-year production total to 35.3 billion barrels. Reserves dropped 172,000. "With producers unable to increase drilling activities, additional oil supplies in Texas hinge on recovering more oil from existing fields," Robert A. Buschman, Association president, commented. Secondary recovery units in Scurry County contributed a major portion of the county's 5.5 million barrel increase in 1971, which jumped the county to No. 1 in Texas.
Haskell County oil wells have produced 74,100,270 barrels since recorded production began in 1929. The county in 1971 produced 7,802 barrels a day for a total of 2,847,798 barrels.
Fourteen Texas counties produced more than 25 million barrels last year. The top three were Scurry, 73 million barrels; Ector, 69 million barrels; and Andrews, 67 million barrels.
The top three counties in cumulative production are Gregg, 2.2 billion barrels; Ector, 1.7 billion barrels; and Andrews, 1.5 billion barrels.

Progress Report On Paint Creek Water Supply
The Steering Committee for the Paint Creek Water Supply Corporation reports that the proposed water system is still progressing toward reality, and is awaiting review of a requested grant from the Farmer's Home Administration.
At this time the system extends from Stamford to Haskell, and includes the Plainview Community, Stamford Lake area and most of the Paint Creek Community. Those tentative customers who have received their cancelled checks are included in the system. This money has been placed in a savings program in the Haskell National Bank.
The Steering Committee has contract agreements with Yeatts and Decker Engineers of Abilene, and with Andrews and Andrews of Stamford as legal advisors.
In a preliminary report from Yeatts and Decker, the estimated total cost of the system will be $340,000 with $140,000 requested in grant money, and $200,000 to be paid by the system. There are presently 157 tentative customers on 75 miles of pipeline. Minimum rates have not been established yet, but the engineers forecast a rate of between $8 or $9 per month.
Much work has already been done by the committee, and while awaiting grant approval, more groundwork will be completed so that the system will be a reality at the earliest possible date.

VETERAN DRIVER ADOPTS "DRIVE FRIENDLY"
United States Auto Club driver Johnny Rutherford affixes a "Drive Friendly" sticker to the Offenhauser powered Formula 1 car he will drive in this year's Memorial Day Indy 500. The Fort Worth resident says he is displaying the theme of the Texas Governor's Committee on Traffic Safety because "just hearing 'drive friendly' automatically makes people watch their driving habits".

Crop Acre Survey in Mail
... Cattle Sales Decline ... Poultry Reports Issued ... State Grain Sorghum Acreages Given ... Annual Report Ready ... Rural Development Plans.

About 22,000 Texas farmers are to receive crop acre survey questionnaires from the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. If you are one of those, please fill out the form as accurately as possible and return it as soon as possible.

Such questionnaires form the basis of statistical reports on agriculture for the state of Texas. The report will be only as accurate as are the replies, and it will be only as conclusive as the number of replies. Accurate information is needed since many of the federal government farm programs are based on these reports.

Texas also provides county-by-county statistics on agricultural production. You can receive a copy for your county or for the entire state by writing to the Texas Dept. of Agriculture, Box 12847, Austin, Texas 78711.

Rural development on a state level is rapidly gaining momentum. State committees on rural development are formed and will begin work relating to actual rural development programs. In the national Congress, a conference committee is still working on federal rural development. Conferences have made substantial progress, but final action won't be taken until after the upcoming congressional recess. A final conference report is expected soon after Congress reconvenes for final approval for the House and Senate and then to the President for his signature.

Increases in broiler chicks turkey poult hatched in Texas are reported. Broiler placements were 13% above the corresponding week last year but 1% below the previous week.
An increase of 12% in heavy turkey breed poult hatched was reported compared to the same week of 1971 but 12% under the previous week. Hatchings are for week ending May 13.

Three crop reporting districts of Texas planted more than 1,000,000 acres of grain sorghum each last year. District 1-N (the Panhandle area) led the state in acreage with 1,964,000 acres; district 1-S (the High Plains area) was second with 1,330,000 acres. The Blacklands of the state were third with 1,065,000 acres planted. Lowest acreage in the state was district 6 (far west Texas) with 29,000 acres.

The total acres planted to grain sorghum in Texas in 1971 was 7,641,000. Of this amount, 5,827,000 was actually harvested with an average yield of 52 bushels per acre. That comes out to a whopping 303,004,000 bushels for all of the state.

Cattle and calves marketed in Texas during April numbered 511,000 head, which is 19% below a year ago but 13% above a month ago.

Sheep sales at livestock auctions were 14% below a year ago, but 87% above a month ago. Total was 127,000 head. Goats sold at 40,000 head were 17% below a year ago but 43% above last month.

Hogs sold at 50,000 were 6% below a year ago and 15% above a month ago.

The 1971-72 report of the Texas Dept. of Agriculture is now available. You can receive a copy by writing to the Department. Included are summaries of activities of TDA in areas of environmental quality, marketing, rural development and consumer protection.

CONSERVATION POINTS
RYAN, JR.
Conservationist

The system requires careful planning. For more information, contact your Soil Conservation Service office at 102 N. Ave. E. Haskell, which gives technical assistance to your local California Creek and Wichita-Brazos Soil and Water Conservation Districts. Farm chemical, fertilizer or equipment dealers can also be of help.

SCS has a 20-page booklet entitled, "Minimum Tillage in Texas" for free distribution that you can secure at our office.

Here are some of the advantages of minimum tillage:

- (1). Saves time and reduces production costs by eliminating 3 to 10 tractor trips per crop.
- (2). Conserves moisture.
- (3). Cuts wind and water erosion. This reduces air and water pollution and has other related environmental benefits.
- (4). Increases food and cover for wildlife. Stalks, leaves and seed left on the soil surface benefit pheasant, dove, turkey, quail and other wildlife.
- (5). Other economic and environmental benefits are derived.

Some farmers buy equipment especially designed for minimum tillage. Others adapt equipment on hand by mounting flex planters, coulters and packer wheels on double or triple tool bar arrangements. Grain drills also are used to plant row or drilled crops in residues.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

As close friends of Mrs. Robert Fitzgerald (ma Dell) whom we well know is too modest to ever admit any achievement, we feel that this has been such an unusual year that her old friends should know about her rewards.

We noticed a Haskell Free Press in her home, thus your address.

Mrs. Fitzgerald taught in the Haskell County and the Haskell city schools for many years before coming to Arlington where she will complete her 16th year in June as a first grade teacher in Thornton Elementary School.

In the early fall, Mrs. Fitzgerald was selected as Arlington's Teacher of the Year nominee for the State Teachers' Contest. She was selected from a faculty of 1,500 teachers.

Next, she was invited to membership in Creative and Successful Personalities, International Personal Research, of which her biography has appeared in the first issue.

Then, this spring, she was chosen Church Woman of the Year from her church with a membership of 1100.

We would be so happy if you would print an article including the above facts.

Thank you,
 Friends of Mrs. Fitzgerald

Enclosed please find my check for one year's subscription to the Free Press. We enjoy reading the paper, so keep it coming.

"Money In Vegetables" Conference Set In Munday Auditorium June 22

Munday, Tex. (Special)—Because vegetables could be a $10 million opportunity in the Rolling Plains, theme of a June conference here is "money in vegetables."

And the June 22 program at 1 p. m. in the high school auditorium will be as fruitful for the home gardener as for the commercial producer.

After looking at vegetables from nearly all angles of production and marketing, the guests will tour the Texas A&M University Vegetable Research Station here, where scientists are working to help growers exploit the $10 million opportunity.

As to vegetable production, specialists will discuss the first steps, the local and state and national situation, the profitable varieties here, the cost and the returns, the financing from here

OSCAR BURLISON
Congressman
17th District
Washington, D. C.—At the end of last week's comments, a distinction was drawn between public and private wrongs as a matter of responsibility between the courts and the legislative branch of the Federal Government.
The Conservative view is that public wrongs do not lend themselves to judicial solutions. Rather it is a matter of legislative initiative to determine questions of public policy and spending priorities. Only a broadly based representative body can bring the judgment to bear on these factors in order to place them in perspective.

More fundamental decisions involving public policy matters should be made by a democratically selected and a political body directly answerable to the people.
Properly, the courts have played a role in limiting excesses in the exercise of legislative and executive power. But, they have done so within the context of private litigation and have carefully avoided challenging governmental policy as distinguished from constitutional power to act.
In more recent years this traditional role of the courts has changed. More and more the judges have entertained jurisdiction and ruled on matters aimed at asserted public wrongs. If the Legislative Branch of Government should frustrate the desires of a group of people by rejecting their claims, the courts are asked to furnish relief. This judicial activism is not consistent with the original role of the courts were fashioned for and represents a dangerous shift of power from the people, acting through their elected representatives, to judges who are answerable only to themselves. It is a trend bad for the courts and worse for the Country.

It would be well for crusading judges to ponder this statement by Justice Felix Frankfurter: "The Court's authority—possessed of neither the purse nor the sword—ultimately rests on sustained public confidence in its moral sanctity. Such feeling must be nourished by the Court's complete detachment—in fact, and in appearance—from political entanglement and by abstention from injecting itself into the clash of political forces in political settlements."

All too frequently, decisions are rendered on the basis that judges disagree with the Congress on matters of policy. Oftentimes opinions may be couched in language challenging the constitutionality of a law but heavily influenced by their belief that congressional enactment is simply unwise.
The late Justice Stone, who served for 16 years with distinction on the U. S. Supreme Court, expressed this view: "The power of the courts to declare a statute unconstitutional is subject to two guiding principles which ought never to be absent from judicial consciousness. One is that the courts are concerned only with the power to enact statutes, not with their wisdom. The other is that, while unconstitutional exercise of power by the Executive and Legislative branches of Government is subject to judicial restraint, the only check upon our own exercise of power is our own sense of self-restraint. For the removal of unwise laws from the statute books, appeal lies not to the courts but to the ballot box and to the processes of democratic government."
Next week's article will give specific examples of more recent actions of the Federal Courts in issuing what is known in legal circles as "affirmative orders."

Mr. Justice Frankfurter was one of the most consistent advocates of judicial restraint. It has been the failure of Federal courts at all levels to heed his advice, that constitutes the core of some of the problems we have in this Country today.

4-H Recipes

Patti Self of Rule had the second place recipe in the Senior Meat Division at the County 4-H Food show. Patti's adult leader was Mrs. Wallace Allison.

Enchiladas
Heat in sauce pan over low gas flame (200-225 degrees)—2 c. chili; dip in hot chili, 12 soft tortillas; place in center of each tortilla, 2 tsp. grated American cheese, 2 tsp. chopped onion.
Roll each tortilla and place, seam side down in shallow baking dish. Cover with remaining chili. Top with grated cheese. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) for 15 minutes or until cheese melts. Serves 4.

Melissa Nierdieck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Nierdieck of Sagerton, made many hungry appetites with her recipe for Meat Balls and Rice.

1 lb. ground beef
1/2 cup chopped onion
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 cup diagonally sliced celery
1 tsp. shortening
1 can 10 1/2 oz. mushroom gravy
1/2 cup drained pineapple tidbits
1 tsp. pineapple juice
Cooked rice
Combine beef, onion and salt; shape into meat balls. In skillet, brown meat balls, and cook celery in shortening until tender; pour off fat. Add gravy, pineapple and juice. Cover; cook over low heat 10 minutes. Stir now and then, uncover; cook five more minutes. Serve over rice. Makes 4 servings.

Linda Wells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wells of the Paint Creek Community, won third place in the Junior Fruits and Vegetables Division. This is a good recipe for the hot summer months.

Stuffed Pear Salad
1-3 oz. pkg. cream cheese, softened
1 tsp. lemon juice
1 tsp. honey or sugar
2 tsp. chopped nuts
6 canned pear halves
Whole pecan halves
Combine cheese, lemon juice, honey and chopped nuts and mix well. Spoon into center of pear halves and garnish with pecan halves. Serve on salad lettuce. Serves six.

Tamara Sorrells also has a recipe that is perfect for summer. Tamara is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Sorrells of Haskell and she won a blue ribbon at the food show with the following recipe:

Lemon Ice Box Pie
1-6 oz. frozen can lemonade (pink)
1-14 oz. can sweetened condensed milk
1-4 1/2 oz. carton cool whip
1-9 in. pie crust
Combine condensed milk and lemonade. Beat at high speed until thick. Fold in cool whip. Pour into prepared 9 inch pie crust. Let set in refrigerator at least one hour before serving.
Graham Cracker Crust
1 1/2 c. graham cracker crumbs
1/4 c. melted butter or margarine
Mix well. Press firmly in buttered 9 inch pie pan. Chill until set about 45 minutes.
