Total renewal for the Assembly of God

Ruben Cantu
Winters Enterprise

WINTERS, Texas.- What once looked like a torn down shack is becoming one of the coziest houses in the neighborhood. It could not have been done without the numerous volunteers from the surrounding area pitching in to help. But what good does a remodeling do without the people inside? John DeMoss Jr., the new Assembly of God pastor is coming to Winters for the renewal to be total.

Volunteers from San Angelo have been working in the house located on 304 East Wood Street. The house has new walls, windows, closets, bathrooms and flooring. RV Volunteers, an organization working throughout the United States began the remodeling process and finished their part a couple of weeks ago.

The house is now ready for the new pastor and his family to move in and become a part of the Winters community. The plan is for the new pastor to move to Winters from Archer City in June.

The pastor came to preach at the Assembly of God in the Fall of 2009, and felt that Winters was the place where he was needed. "I knew it was where God wanted us to be even though my wife was a little hesitant because our son was stationed at Sheppard AFB, but after we found out that he was being stationed at Dyess AFB she too realized Winters was where we needed to be."

The couple has been traveling to Winters every weekend, driving two and a half hours from Archer City to work with the faithful congregation.

"Right now we are a small church of about seven people, just three couples and one gentleman from Colorado City, my wife, my daughter and me. We make 10 altogether," said DeMoss. The Assembly of God in Winters was once a church of almost 200 people.

Get the church together again and become part of this "resurrection" are the main goals for the new pastor.

"I have high hopes for what we can do. I firmly believe in the word of God, and when people place their faith in God, He takes good care of them."

DeMoss pictures church as a refuge, where people can get help with their problems in the physical, emotional, financial and spiritual pain.

"I see a challenge with a lot of potential, we have already seen people with a purpose bringing others to worship, and the spirit of God touching hearts of people," he concludes.

Crews wreck leaves one wounded

Ruben Cantu
Winters Enterprise

WINTERS, Texas.- One woman was injured and two trucks wrecked on a collision on FM 382 and State Highway 153, about 12 miles east from Winters last Thursday.

The wreck also caused undisclosed loss in welding equipment and damages to traffic signals on the crossroad. The tools were hauled in a utility trailer by one of the vehicles.

According to witnesses, Mrs. Tamako Sprankles, 81, from Novice, was driving a red Ford Ranger, north on FM 382 and when she got to the crossroad did not respect the stop sign.

William Croft, from Brownwood, was driving a King Ranch Ford pick-up and headed west, after coming back from Coleman. He was hauling what he described as a three-month old welding machine and tools in the utility trailer.

The Ford Ranger hit the King Ranch on the passenger side, near the door and also on the trailer leaving a trail of hand and power tools, gas hoses and even one oxygen tank and another one containing acetylene.

The wreck caused both of the vehicles to go out of the road and tore down a pole with traffic signals.

North Runnels Hospital ambulance arrived to the scene and transported Mrs. Sprankles to Winters to be treated of what appeared to be non life-threatening minor injuries.

William Croft and a second female passenger on the King Ranch did not require medical attention.

Trooper Bryan Gehegan was investigating the wreck.

The Ford Ranger driven by Tamako Sprankles registered major damages.

None of the passengers of the King Ranch were injured after the wreck.

The welding equipment ended on the ground, along with one oxy-acetylene tank set.

Police officer's memorial flag

POLICE OFFICER'S PRAYER

When I start my tour of duty God wherever crime may be, as I walk the darkened streets alone, let me be close to thee.

Please give me understanding with both the young and old. Let me listen with attention until their story is told.

Let me never make a judgment In a rash or callous way, but let me hold my patience, let each man have his say.

Lord, if some dark and dreary night, I must give up my life. Lord, with your understanding love, protect my children and wife.

--- Author Unknown

Chief Nathan Johnson

Although the incidents are low, the possibility exists each day for officers to be injured or slain in the line of duty. Much like a military veteran, a law enforcement officer is someone who, at one point in his or her life, writes a blank check made - Payable to "THE CITIZENS OF THE LOCAL COMMUNITY" - for an amount of "UP TO AND INCLUDING MY LIFE."

The 77th Texas State Legislature (House Bill 815) provided for the presentation of a State of Texas flag and certificate of gratitude to the next of kin of a Texas Peace Officer who dies while serving in the line of duty.

The Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education (TCLEOSE) oversees the program. TCLEOSE attempts to fly the flags over the State Capital building before they are presented to family members.

TCLEOSE validates the service records of the deceased officer and determines if the officer served honorably (nothing in the deceased's prior service would discredit the law enforcement profession).

TCLEOSE contacts the Governor's Office and requests a letter and certificate for the officer, then arranges for delivery of the flag, certificate, and letters.

A non-profit organization called the Texas Peace Officer's Flag Fund has been organized to assist in providing flags to TCLEOSE and helping to pay for costs associated with the recognition process. This is a worthy organization and all donations are tax deductible. They can be contacted at www.texas-peaceofficerflagfund.org

We continue to ask for the prayer and support of the community as we do our best to keep you safe and maintain the peace in Winters.

Semper Fi,
Nathan T. Johnson
Chief of Police

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

The citizens of Winters who attended the City Council meeting of March 29 have expressed outrage at the way the City Manager behaved toward Ms. Karen Allison during her presentation to the City Council. His behavior was unprofessional, rude, and certainly did not make Winters look good. It is ashamed to live in a town where we tolerate that kind of behavior repeatedly from our City Manager. Throughout her presentation, in spite of his rudeness, Ms. Allison remained courteous and professional.

Because I was so embarrassed for Winters, I contacted Ms. Allison the next day and apologized. She told me that she had never been treated so rudely. Words cannot express how disgusted I am of our City Council and Mayor for allowing our City Manager to act up in this manner without taking action. This is one more example of his attitude toward women.

I am not the only one who feels that it's bad enough that he treats the citizens of Winters with contempt, but for him to treat people who are trying to help the people and the City of Winters this way is just more of the reasons the City Council should reevaluate and reprimand.

If the City Council members care anything about the welfare of our town and the people in it, you will demand that Aref Hassan resign immediately. This issue should be included in the agenda for the City Council meeting of April 26.

By John DeMoss Jr.
My dearest dad would have been 80 yrs old on April 3rd if he had made it. Unfortunately Pop died three weeks after I turned 50. Pop was raised on a farm just south in Archer City. He told my brother and me many stories about his up bringing there. His two grandchildren would sit spell bound around their "Poppa" listening to his stories. His mother Maw-Maw told us the story of how pop and his older brother and sister came home from picture show one . His brother looked up at the stars and explained, "I see the big dipper". Pops sister explained I see the little dipper but my dad not to be out done exclaimed "I see the water bucket. Our heavenly father has put great wonders in the sky for our enjoyment. He told Abraham at one time, that if you can count the number of stars that, that would be the number of descendants (abraham and Sarah didnt even have a son yet.) The love, promise, and compassion of our god is so far beyond our own compare hersion. Yet, he said that he would be right there beside us and never leave us nor forsake us.

IGA teams up with ISD

Buying groceries in Winters can benefit students in Winters.

Lawrence Brothers IGA at 900 N Main St., in Winters, reminds teachers, parents and local residents that purchases at a local IGA can actually pay for things like laminators, keyboards and playground equipment.

When you make a purchase at IGA, simply drop the receipt in the box provided.

At the end of the year, the receipts will be totaled and go toward the purchase of wonderful items for your elementary students.

Winters ISD sixth graders recently re-decorated the receipt-box, so look for the box and drop your receipts in there to help WISD reach out their goal.

Winters offers free meals

Fishin' with Dave

Fishing Report
Dave Caudle

The fishing at Ivie for the most sought after black bass continues to be outstanding. Ivie has far surpassed any other lake in the state in production of the sharelunker 13 pound plus bass. Even though the weather seems to be putting the spawning run on hold large numbers of 10 pound plus bass are being netted during tournaments. This past week in the Bass Busters tourney at least six fish over 10 pounds were brought to the scales even though the weather conditions were far from ideal.

I have talked with a few of the catfish guys and they report that shallow water trot lining is taking fair numbers of channel cats in the 3 to 5 pound range. On a trip last week Aubrey Conner of Conner Ranch Supply on US 87 south in San Angelo hauled a 12 pound yellow cat to the boat while fishing a plastic worm for black bass. He even caught a 2 pound plus white bass on a plastic worm both of which he said he had never done before during a lifetime of fishing. It just goes to show you that keep the bait in the water and sooner or later something, possibly strange, will happen.

Crappie fishing in the Concho above the Concho River bridge continues to be good depending upon the weather and white bass fishing on the flats with spoons and spinners is very good during the early morning. It seems that when the sun gets up a little they move off the flats and return the following day. This time of year fishing the flats in 10 feet of water will produce some good eating fish and just maybe a huge bass in the mix.

I have also heard that the Concho River is on a rise and some good fishing can be had from the bank at the dam just north of Paint Rock. All of this water will put Ivie on the rise and hopefully some more rain will fill the lake. I hear all the time from fishermen who complain about the lake going down and the shoreline in not pretty and lush. I always tell them that they should have been down her in 1985 when there was no lake and anything bigger than a bathtub is better than what we used to have. Besides the biologist boys tell me that a lake that goes up and down will renew the waters with nutrients and make the fishing better. The fish production at Ivie would certainly tend to indicate that the fish guys are right.

In just the past few years we have seen many changes in the area with one of the most evident being the rapid increase in the number of feral hogs roaming the countryside. My fishing buddy Clifford Long who has a family ranch just north of Del Rio has such a population that sheep and goat production is no longer possible due to the hogs getting the newborns as soon as they hit the ground. There has even been indications that they also target calves like a pack of hungry coyotes.

Clifford recently attended a meeting hosted by the state and federal guys on this problem. The solution is apparently the reduction of hog habitat by brush clearing and not providing the cover that these mainly nocturnal animals desire. While this seems like a good idea, just how much brush needs to be cleared. The hogs will just continue to move as fences and road kills apparently have no effect. I suppose we could just clear all the brush and move them to New Mexico or better yet California. I am sure the tree huggers would think the baby hogs are cute and pass some protection laws. But we should expect the price of watermelons to rise and cantaloupes would be like caviar.

I know that we will hear more about this problem and maybe some one will come up with a lure to catch them on a rod and reel. Kind of like catching a shark with hooves.

See you on the lake.

PUBLIC NOTICE

On March 15, 2010, Atmos Energy Corporation, Mid-Tex Division ("Atmos Energy" or "the Company"), filed a Rate Review Mechanism ("RRM") filing to increase its gas rates and implement a new schedule of rates and riders. This filing is applicable to all customers within all incorporated cities served by the Mid-Tex Division, with the exception of the City of Dallas. The proposed effective date of the requested rate changes is August 1, 2010. If approved, the proposed changes will affect approximately 1,190,843 residential, 97,756 commercial, and 735 industrial and transportation customers.

If approved, the proposed rates will increase the Company's annual revenues for the affected incorporated areas of its Mid-Tex Division by $56,826,830, or 6.04% percent, including gas costs, or 14.82% percent, excluding gas cost. The proposed change in rates constitutes a "major change" as that term is defined by Section 104.101 of the Texas Utilities Code.

Based on the proposed rate design, the typical monthly bill for each customer class within the affected incorporated areas of the Mid-Tex Division will increase by the amount and percentage shown in the table below:

Customer Class	Current Bill	Proposed Bill	Difference	Percentage Increase with Gas Cost	Percentage Increase without Gas Cost
Residential	$56.25*	$60.00*	$3.75	6.67%	16.95%
Commercial	$213.36*	$221.48*	$8.12	3.81%	17.58%
Industrial	$2164.76*	$2277.05*	$112.29	5.19%	20.90%
Transportation	$635.97	$748.27	$112.30	17.66%	20.90%

Note: Bill impact ranges are subject to varying tax rates among the cities.
* Includes Rider GCR Part A cost of $4.6303 per Mcf.
**The calculation of bill impacts assumes monthly consumption of 6 Mcf for residential, 30 Mcf for commercial and 300 MMBtu for industrial and transportation customers.

In addition to the rate revisions in Rate Schedules R, C, I, and T, the other proposed tariff change is an update to the factors included in Rider WNA.

Persons with specific questions or desiring additional information about this filing may contact Atmos Energy Corporation at 1-888-286-6700. Complete copies of the filed Rate Review Mechanism, including all proposed rates and schedule changes, are available for inspection at Atmos Energy's offices located at 5420 LBJ Freeway, Suite 1600, Dallas, Texas 75240 or on our Web site at www.atmosenergy.com/mtx-rrm. In addition, customers can contact their respective municipality for additional information regarding this rate request.

Este es un aviso a los clientes de Mid-Tex Division de Atmos Energy Corporation (la Compañía) que la Compañía está solicitando un cambio en las tarifas del gas. Este cambio afecta a todos los clientes en las áreas incorporadas y servidas por Mid-Tex Division excepto la Ciudad de Dallas. Si usted tiene preguntas con respecto a este aumento, por favor llame a Atmos Energy Corporation al 1-888-286-6700.

SWCDS to elect board member

Winters Enterprise
Staff Report

TEMPLE, Texas.- Soil and water conservation districts in State District Two will elect a member to the Texas State Soil and Water Conservation Board (TSSWCB) on Tuesday, May 4. The election will be held at 6 p.m. in the Saint Ambrose Parish Hall in Wall, TX.

State District Two consists of 51 counties within which there are 43 soil and water conservation districts in the Hill Country and Big Bend-Trans Pecos region of Texas.

The current TSSWCB member for State District Two is Marty H. Graham of Rock Springs, TX. Graham, who has been a member of the TSSWCB since May, 2008, is a rancher in Edwards County.

"Since its beginning, the TSSWCB has been governed by five board members. Each respective board member is elected in a convention type election by delegates from soil and water conservation district directors within the state district that the member resides.

However, with the enactment of S.B. 1828 by the 78th Legislature, two Governor appointees also serve on the TSSWCB to create a seven-member board," said Rex Isom, TSSWCB Executive Director.

"Elections occur annually to comply with the soil conservation laws of Texas. The elections are held in state district conventions and TSSWCB members serve two-year staggered terms. Since this is an even numbered year, TSSWCB member elections are being held in State Districts Two and Four," added Isom.

Elected State Board members must be 18 years of age or older, hold title to farmland or ranchland, and be actively engaged in farming or ranching. The Governor appointees must be actively engaged in the business of farming, animal husbandry, or other business related to agriculture and wholly or partly owns or leases land used in connection with that business. They, however, may not be a member of the board of directors of a conservation district.

The TSSWCB is responsible for numerous natural resource conservation efforts, the most prominent of which is serving as the lead state agency for the prevention, management, and abatement of nonpoint source pollution resulting from agricultural and forestry-related activities in Texas.

"In short, the services and programs provided by the TSSWCB target rural Texas farmers and ranchers through soil and water conservation districts, but the results of these services benefit all Texans. For example, soil and water conservation districts provide technical assistance in cooperation with the USDA's Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) to assist agricultural producers implement voluntary conservation plans that best address the capabilities of the land they operate," said Isom.

"In addition to on site soil and water conservation benefits to a farmer or rancher, the public enjoys residual benefits which include wildlife enhancement as well as the prevention of sediment, pesticides, nutrients, bacteria and other contaminants from impairing Texas waters," added Isom.

The TSSWCB, which was organized in May 1939, has its state headquarters in Temple, Texas. Within the state there are 216 soil and water conservation districts.
