City Council maintains tax rate

Ruben Cantu-Rodriguez

WINTERS, Texas.- After a series of budget cuts involving all departments of the city operation, the Winters City Council agreed last week to maintain the tax rate of .688669 per 100 dollars, despite the adjusted tax base loss of over 5 million dollars.

The special meeting was held on Thursday, August 12, at the city council chambers, in order to adopt a tax calendar for the new fiscal year, evaluate and approve the new tax rate. Cuts of about $70,600 were approved.

The city council started with the budget evaluation, a severance package for one of the Police Department officers that had prior approval. The Police Department has a plan to redistribute workloads in order to allow for more cost-effectiveness.

The amount destined for extra hours at the Police Department was reduced from $16,000 to $10,000, which represents an extra 25 percent savings including the benefits. The Police Department will have no more bonus, and the Fire Marshal duties will be taken by Paula Geyer, a Police Department officer, once she completes the training course required by the state.

Animal control services will be greatly reduced, working emergency cases and euthanizing animals as needed.

Officials evaluated options for the health insurance of the city employees, no action was taken on the subject, but hope is that bids received will allow for a reduction of cost. Budget cuts for the 2010-2011 year also include a vehicle for the city manager. This vehicle was assigned to former manager Aref Hassan but it is not expected to be a part of the future benefit package.

The expense reduction includes payments for uniforms and computer services. These amounts were reduced approximately $15,000. Other budget reductions include the Street Department, the Water Department and Cleaning Services offered by the City of Winters. At this special meeting city representatives also agreed to revise an ordinance related to the city manager residence requirement, which states that the person hired should have lived within the Winters city limits for at least 30 days prior to his hiring.

FOR THIRD YEAR in a row the Winters ISD scored a perfect rating in the FIRST system.

WISD streaks perfect in the FIRST rating

WINTERS, Texas.- For third year in a row, the Winters Independent School District received a perfect score in the Financial Integrity Rating System of Texas.

The accountability rating was Superior Achievement, with a perfect score of 80. Winters became the only independent school district regionally to get this achievement for three years in a row. The rating, made public by the Texas Education Agency last week, includes indicators such as the total fund balance, general fund, capital appreciation bonds and percentage in the change in students for the last five years.

The accountability rating considers the 2008-2009 district status financial detail, and includes not only financial information but also academic performance and accountability ratings given by the TEA. David Hutton, Superintendent at the Winters ISD, recognized the labor of all the administrative staff to achieve this rating.

"We have a wonderful staff that has allowed us to achieve this recognition for three years in a row, I have to acknowledge the work of Glenda McKneely, our District's Business Manager, who has kept all the records and made this possible," said Hutton.

Winters achieved the top of five accountability ratings in a scale that starts with Superior Achievement.

The purpose of the FIRST rating system is to ensure that school districts will be held accountable for the quality of their financial management practices and achieve improved performance.

WINTERS, Texas.- Despite the intense heat, The Winters Blizzards managed to control the field, in their first scrimmage of the 2010 season against Roby.

The junior varsity opened the program with one score per team on the field.

The varsity Blizzards tied with Roby 0-0 but their game showed promise with several successful plays executed on the field. Blizzards quarterback Riley Ripley made a good showing with some nice passes, even though he had two interceptions. The defensive tightened and blocked every attempt of the opposing team as they struggled to make it across the goal line. The rival team had several turnovers including two interceptions and the same number of fumbles. Winters will have their second test of the pre-season this Thursday, when they pay a visit to the Eagles nest, at Junction, for the second scrimmage of the 2010 season.

WINTERS, Texas.- In the middle of troubled economic times with many businesses experiencing a downturn it seems some volunteers with good hearts have come to continue the remodeling project for the First Assembly of God.

The local church has ongoing construction of their facilities. It is the hope of the members that this "facelift" to their facilities will allow them to share their ministry with more people.

In March a group of volunteers started to rebuild the parsonage, an old abandoned house. These volunteers lived in RV's while they worked on the remodeling project. "A new group will be coming to Winters in October," said Gary Gunsolus, South Central Regional Missionary Coordinator for the Assemblies of God US Mission America Placement Service.

Police report

BY NATHAN T. JOHNSON
WINTERS POLICE CHIEF

FORCE REDUCTION WILL IMPACT ANIMAL CONTROL

As you may know, the City of Winters lost an estimated $5.5 million dollars in taxable value this past year. Those changes in our local economy have forced the City Council to make difficult decisions regarding the budget for the city, including the Police Department. In response to the realities of a deteriorating economy, the council is taking important steps to realign the budget with projected tax income.

Some cities, such as Marfa and Eden, have reduced or eliminated their local Police Departments in response to the economic situation. Due to these factors, our agency will be streamlining our work force and the services provided to the community. Effective immediately, WPD no longer has a full-time animal control officer. For the remainder of this month (August 2010) Billy Hollis (805) will be taking minor calls for animal control and taking care of the shelter on a part-time basis. On-duty police officers will respond to animal complaint calls that fall into one of the following categories:

1. An immediate danger to persons or property.
2. A definable and immediate disturbance of the peace
3. A disruption of government services (School District, fire or EMS unit response, etc...)
4. A disruption of a house of worship (church services etc...)
5. A disruption in a funeral service or burial service
6. An animal believed to be rabid or an immediate health and safety issue
7. An animal who has been injured and there is a need for it to be immediately euthanized

The Police Department will no longer be routinely placing and maintaining traps around the city to capture feral or wild animals. The department will no longer provide a patrol specifically for loose animals within the city limits. Citizens who have a need for a trap may obtain one from a local source such as Milton's Hardware or other area retailers. Should an elderly citizen be unable to procure and deploy such a device, I will make a decision on a case-by-case basis regarding the deployment of city owned traps, or the maintenance of a privately owned trap. Officers may be dispatched to euthanize an animal (including animals trapped in civilian owned traps) if the civilian does not have another functional means of humanely euthanizing the animal. In most cases, the citizen will still be responsible for the disposal of the carcass.

Citizens who need to dispose of dead animals may do so by contacting Jack Davis Sr. at 754-4646 to drop off at the designated animal dumpster located at the city Convenience Center.

Because we must still address the issue of rabies within our city, on-duty police officers will assist citizens within the city limits where stray, feral, or wild animal have been spotted who are believed to be injured or have a communicable disease (such as rabies).

Should anyone wish to volunteer to assist with the animal control issues and the animal shelter, I would be grateful for the help.

Chatting with Paw Paw

By John DeMoss Jr.

Dad and his siblings were raised out in the country, in northern Archer County. My mom would tell us stories of Pop and his brothers having to get up long before daylight in order to milk the cows and bring in the eggs. All before they could go to school. My mother would laugh as she told of how she would get tired of waiting for John to come get her on Saturday nights. John, my dad, would still be on the tractor at 9:00 P.M.

Among the four DeMoss children was my late uncle Billy, the youngest. Billy died back in December of 1996. He left three children and a wife. Billy's oldest was his son Brad, the fourth of the eight DeMoss grandchildren.

At one time Billy owned a one-horned white female Bramer (Brahma) that was meaner than a junk yard dog. And when she had a calf, Snowball got meaner. One afternoon my cousin Dave found out how bad Snowball was. Behind my grandparents' house was a gate that separated two pastures. My grandfather (PawPaw) told Dave to go shut the gate. So, Dave went through the backyard and down to the aluminum gate. He did not see Snowball, but she saw him! As Dave reached the gate, so did Snowball. For 5-10 minutes that demon-possessed Bramer chased Dave from one side of the gate to the other! One morning, my dad took us boys down to the barn to do something. Dad, Dave, Brad and I went into the corral, but my brother stayed on the other side of the fence. As we walked through the corral, we looked up and there was Snowball! With a calf! That crazy cow charged us. Dave climbed up on a gate with Brad on his shoulders. I was so afraid that I froze in place. My dad jumped out in front of Snowball as she charged me. Distracted, she stopped suddenly. Flying dirt clods hit me.

When those clods hit me, I woke up, turned, and dove through a small hole that was in the fence near where my brother was standing. I was safe thanks to the quick thinking of my dad. Dave could not get down from the gate because he still had Brad on his shoulders. What a gloriously funny, scary situation.

When Israel was under attack, her leaders were told that their God would fight for them. Many times, God stood up to defend Israel. My dad showed me, by his action as a father, that God would fight for us. I wish my dad and I had been saved at the time. Today, some 50+ years later, I can look back and see how my God stood up to fight for me, through my dad.

'Fish-Camp' time at A&M

Winters Enterprise
Staff Report

COLLEGE STATION, Texas.- It is a tribute uniquely Texas A&M - in fact, outside the university community, most people don't even know what it is - and those who receive it are almost always surprised and deeply honored. The honor: being selected as a Fish Camp namesake.

Fish Camp is a series of four-day orientation sessions for incoming freshmen, called "Fish" at Texas A&M. The camp is set in the piney woods of East Texas. During their time there, the new students learn about Aggie traditions and the university's core values: integrity, excellence, leadership, loyalty, respect and selfless service. They will also learn about campus organizations.

One reason being chosen as a namesake is such an honor is that it is not something a professor or staff member can decide. Rather, it is an honor bestowed by the students themselves.

The first Fish Camp for the Class of 2014 began on August 3, and the last camp will conclude August 24.

Josh Abbott is coming to Abilene

Winters Enterprise Staff Report

WINTERS, Texas.- Texas Country Sensation Josh Abbott Band is coming thru Abilene on Saturday, September 18 to play the Western Heritage Fair.

The band's sophomore album She's Like Texas soared to the number three spot the iTunes Country Music Albums Chart trailing only Country Music superstars Lady Antebellum and Taylor Swift. JAB's fastest rising single to date, "She's Like Texas" landed at No. 1 on the Texas Music Chart and the Texas Regional Radio Report. The song was a lead off to their recent Top 10 smash "All Of A Sudden." JAB's current single, "Road Trippin," is burning up radio now and will be supported by a one-of-a-kind partnership and sweepstakes with Boone's Farm Wine and CMT (Country Music Television).

Abilene.

In the blink of an eye, Josh Abbott Band has gone from an unknown artist to one of the fastest rising young stars in Texas country. She's Like Texas is an emotional album that sets up the do-it-yourself Josh Abbott Band as the next authentic breakout hailing from the state of Texas. Playing over 250 shows each year, JAB has been performing to packed houses all across Texas and Oklahoma including Texas hot spots such as Wild West in Lubbock, Cowboys in San Antonio and Billy Bob's in Fort Worth. The passion and high-energy characteristic of Josh Abbott Band's performances come through both on stage and in the studio. It's no wonder why the Josh Abbott Band has quickly become a Texas institution—and why its talents can't be confined for long to the Lone Star State.

The Josh Abbott Band, continues to garner success with their current single, "Road Trippin" which sits at number 25 on the Texas Music Chart. The debut single and title track off the album, "She's Like Texas," hit the coveted number one spot on both the Texas Music Chart and Texas Regional Radio Report.

increase in this economy is way beyond ridiculous. Out in the Real World, people are dealing with a lot worse than you are. We do every day. Other towns, cities, counties have cut back. (Dallas is not only having to cut back on salaries and hours, they are having to turn off the street lights, and Dallas is much wealthier per capita than Winters.) It's time for Runnels County to "get real". No salary increases. NO TAX INCREASES.

At the School Board meeting on Monday, August 9, we were told that the participation in Varsity sports is down because the parents cannot afford the extra expense to have the students involved. Besides, some of the kids are having to work if they can possible find employment to help support the families. While the City and County can't fix this, they can at least try to keep it from getting worse by adopting a budget to decrease taxes. To all the citizens who are feeling the pinch already and trying to get by on less, when our tax bills are going up, please take an active part in letting our elected officials know how you feel. If the only people they hear from are asking for higher taxes, they won't know there is anyone opposed to raising taxes. Let your voices be heard. To all taxing entities, I have a small inkling of how difficult your task is, and I don't in any way envy your position. Many of the people in this group are not compensated for the time and energy spent on decisions that impact all our lives. We truly thank you for all you do. I urge you to think about the plight of the tax payers, and please come up with budgets that reflect reduced individual tax bills over last year. I don't mean a reduced tax rate while property values have gone up, I mean reduced tax bills.

With the utmost respect,

No tax raises and no salary increases

Public employees of Winters and Runnels County, there is a concept that you are obviously not familiar with. It's called "cutting back", "living within your means". We all know all about it. All over the country, people have been doing it for a few years now. It means getting by with less to make your money go farther. You are the lucky few in this county who are still employed. Lots of people would love to have your job and your income. But you keep wanting more from tax payers who just don't have it. There is a saying, "you can't get blood from a turnip". Whether you deserve it is not the point, so I won't address that here. The people who have lost their incomes and had their incomes reduced did not deserve to have that happen to them either. I know you are dedicated and do the best you can. That is not the issue either. The people who pay your salaries can not afford to pay you more. We're all having to tighten our belts literally and figuratively. That's another concept you need to understand. It means essentially the same thing as cutting back. Our taxes have gone up, as well as our insurance (home, health care, liability, car, etc), groceries, fuels (gasoline, butane, diesel) medical costs, utilities. Our incomes have gone down. Many people have lost their incomes but not their tax bills. We have no extras. We are all barely getting by on less. Instead of raises for County and City employees, I propose the following: Cut business hours. I have learned that it's practically pointless to conduct business with anyone at City Hall or the County on Friday. Someone is off on a "vacation day" and of the people left in the office, most are too busy planning their weekend on taxpayer time. Maybe one employee will be working, but that one employee is so stressed, you feel guilty for bothering them. So the business hours should be changed. Let the employees have their three-day weekend, and keep the offices open later (until 6 or 7pm) one or two nights during the week. Stagger the hours so no one has to work extra hours to accomplish this. In fact in an office staffed by more than one employee, the hours can be staggered and shortened. This will cut down some of the waste the tax payers are paying for. The salaries should not be increased to make up for the income lost by this cut in hours. Salaries should be reduced to reflect the cut in hours. Most janitor positions can be eliminated, and the people in the offices can clean up after themselves. We are at the point that employees may have to foot the entire bill for their health insurance, dental and optical. If things are going to be worse next year, and this is another reality we have to face, we should be planning to eliminate a lot of City and County vehicles, and use personal vehicles, especially for higher-paid employees and officials. Even construction equipment and law enforcement vehicles may be hard to afford. Elected County officials knew the salary they would receive before they ran for office. If you were not happy with that, you should not have campaigned for the position. It's not that you don't deserve it, we can't afford to pay you more. Expecting a pay

Fishing report

BY DAVE CAUDLE

The fishing at Ivie and surrounding lakes continues to be a hit and miss quest. It seems that early in the morning the top water action is most reliable, but as the sun comes up the fish tend to go into the shade like most of us should. Some of the good crappie fishermen (those who can fish the heavy brush) are taking fair numbers. These fish can be found along either river channel in trees at least 20 feet deep. The bait of choice is a weed guarded jig of white or bright colors.

Blue catfish are also being hooked on jug lines normally baited with fresh cut carp and fished in water about 25 feet deep. White bass continue to surface and run baitfish along weedlines in the main lake. When a school surfaces throw anything into the feeding frenzy and it will get hit. Then return the spoon or slab to the bottom to hopefully intersect a moving school and then we get several on the line at one time.

A couple of weeks ago I suggested a lighted message board be placed in the rear window of your car to transfer your thoughts and ideas to drivers sharing the same road. I thought it would be nice to make someone's day with a nice comment or maybe in some cases tell them what you think about their driving habits. I mentioned pulling over on the shoulder so someone could pass when it could be safely done. This spurred a written comment from a lady who shall remain unnamed. She wrote in her first sentence that she enjoyed most of my columns, most of the time. After doing this for about 15 years and penning well over 700 columns I got ready for a lengthy comment. Then I realized she had written only one page so I figured my thrashing would be short lived.

I always welcome comments on my unpaid efforts and most are complementary or somewhat positive. This lady continued that the part about pulling over on the shoulder to allow someone to pass had cost her a couple of windshields when rocks were thrown by those driving on the shoulder. Rocks and other debris do tend to end up on the shoulder and the risk of getting a nail, running over a large piece of truck tire or some other something is more likely on the shoulder. I do agree with this nice lady that pulling over has its risks and I also do not like for someone who is trying to be nice and considerate to ride the shoulder. I do not like the squeeze play that occurs when three vehicles are using the roadway designed for two.

Most of us are not in a hurry and tend to drive the speed limit or very close. When pulling my boat which is a lot of the time I run about 10 under speed and do not pull over as the boat tires are much more likely to throw a rock. But then here comes a truck or some driver who cannot wait for a clear passing lane and begins to polish my prop apparently thinking that if they get close enough they will scare me into pulling over on the shoulder. A lot of the times when this driver gets by we both end up at the red light at the same time and I wonder if following to close and being a driving bully really saved any time.

Maybe the Highway Patrol should pull some boats and give these in such a hurry as to endanger all of us what they really need by violating the law. After all there are those of us who would like our windshields, arms and legs to be intact when we get to where we are going. So slow down, be patient and don't take risks to save a few minutes and above all, hang up the phone.

See you on the lake.

TAHC promotes anthrax prevention

Winters Enterprise
Staff Report

AUSTIN.- Late summertime in certain parts of Texas means livestock producers should be on the lookout for the resurfacing of anthrax in their animals. Among the anthrax cases confirmed this summer are one bovine in Crockett County, one whitetail deer in Kinney County and one whitetail deer in Uvalde County. Anthrax which is caused by bacillus anthracis is a naturally occurring disease with worldwide distribution, including Texas.

"Anthrax cases are not unusual; especially at this time of year," Dr. Dee Ellis, Texas Animal Health Commission (TAHC) Executive Director and State Veterinarian, said.

Anthrax can occur anywhere, but in Texas, cases most often are confined to a triangular area bounded by the towns of Uvalde, Ozona and Eagle Pass. If an animal dies from the disease and isn't properly disposed of by burning, the bacteria can spill out into the soil and remain dormant for long periods of time.

For more information regarding anthrax, visit <http://www.tahc.state.tx.us> or call 1-800-550-8242.

MEMORIAL GOLF TOURNAMENT

Keeping memories alive

Ruben Cantu-Rodriguez
Winters Enterprise

WINTERS, Texas.-The annual Memorial Golf Tournament was held at the Winters Country Club last Saturday. It was a day to enjoy the game while remembering those who had gone on from this life.

This tournament, an annual event, was played as a scramble. The three participating teams hit the tees shortly after 1 p.m., once the places and starting holes were drawn.

No wind and clouds in sight, and a blazing sun sending the mercury to the top of the scale did not deter the players on the green. The team placing first in the tournament included Jan Sims, Mary Ellen Moore, Sherry Gilmore, Jim Ventress, and Anthony Ochoa.

The members honored by the game were John McAdoo, Herman Baker, Gil Gilmore, Bill Hall and Bob Shields. These men shared love for the game and a commitment to the club, donating their time and efforts to the club facilities in an effort to better the country club for members in years to come.

JIM VENTRESS, member of the winning team, tees off to start the Memorial Tournament.

Bigger, Better, Stronger!

We told you it was coming, and it's happening right now.

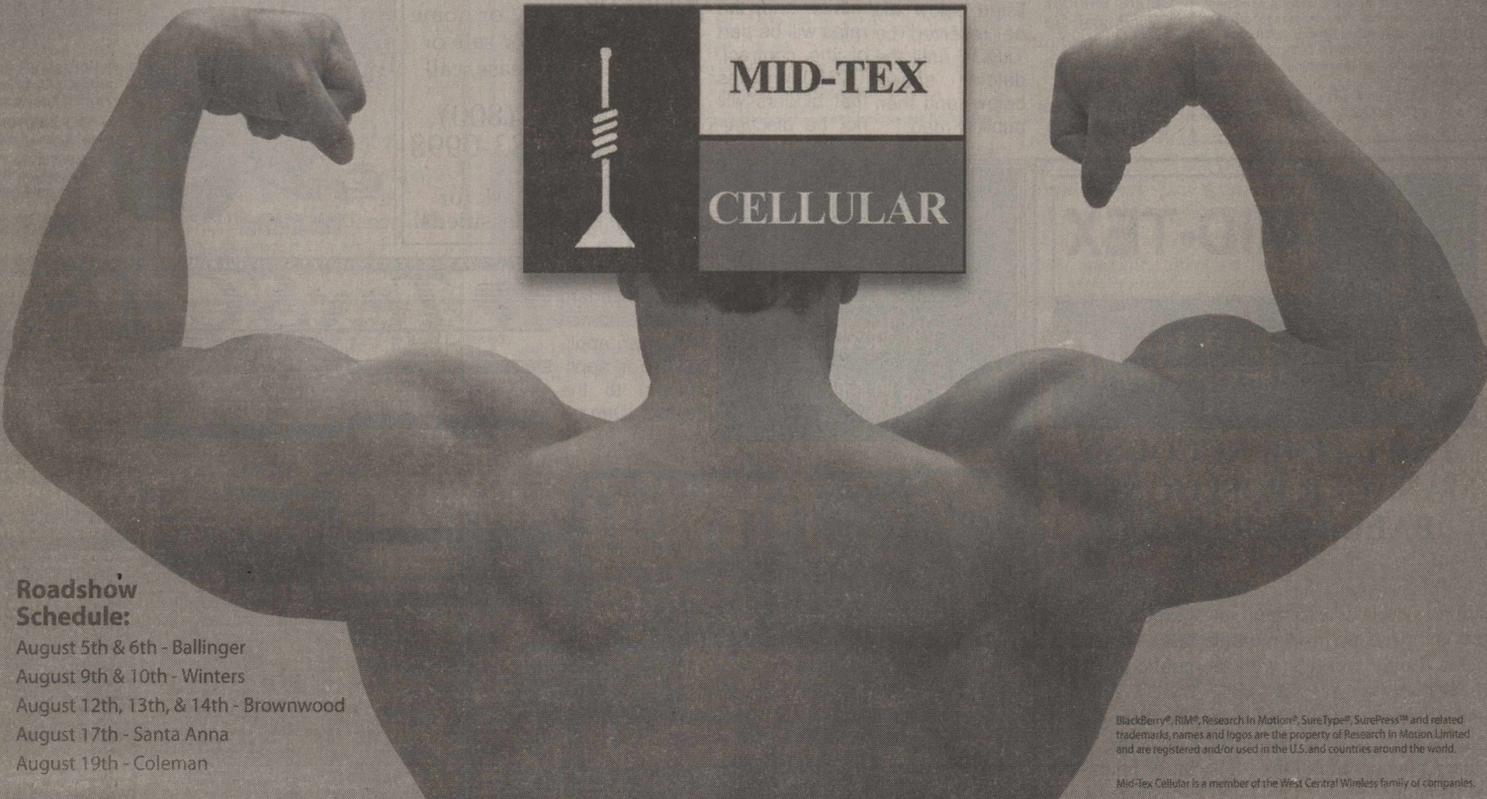

How much bigger, better, and stronger are we? Well, our home coverage area is now over 30,000 square miles, and our signal strength really has some muscle behind it. That means better in-building coverage, fewer dropped calls, improved picture mail, faster data connections, and better reception.

And, what better way to flex the muscle of our new stronger network than with a BlackBerry® smartphone from Mid-Tex Cellular. With unbelievable features and really cool apps, a BlackBerry® smartphone is the best way to connect with the important people in your life, and it's a great way to have fun, too.

You can take and send pictures, keep up with your favorite team, play games, purchase tickets, bid online, watch videos, and a whole lot more.

This August, we'll be on the road updating our current customer's phones with new SIM cards, so they can take advantage of our latest technology.
