Jaycee Shopping Tour A Success

15 Haskell Jaycees and their wives gave 31 underprivileged children $5 each and took them shopping Friday night. Each year the Chamber of Commerce pays the Jaycees $150.00 to help put up Christmas decorations. This money is given to the children to help with Christmas shopping.

The Jaycees took two children each to any store the children chose and helped them make selections for parents, brothers and sisters. The Jaycees enjoy the event as much or more than the children.

Garden Club Names Winners

The Haskell Garden Club has announced the winners in the Christmas Home Lighting Contest. Approximately 32 entrants were judged Friday, Dec. 17, by Mrs. Mary Wallace Bosse, Mrs. Pat Pruitt and Mrs. Eva Stanford, all of Stamford.

Mrs. M. E. Overton served as chairman of the project with Mrs. T. B. Roberson and Mrs. Norman Bevel assisting her.

Division winners were as follows: Overall: Charles McCauley, first; F. A. Karr, second; Abe Turner, third.

Windows: Vance Aheldt, first; C. A. Turnbow, second; and E. L. Hilliard, third.

Door: Mrs. E. M. Frierson, first; Jimmy Owens, second; and N. L. Bevel, third.

They will be gone five days on the tour.

The Lions Club urges everyone who has not done so to make his contribution to the Fund so that children who might not even have a Christmas will be joyous this Saturday.

CONSERVATION VIEW POINTS

J. C. YEARY, JR.
District Conservationist

At this time of year our thoughts normally turn to the birth of Our Lord. This Lord, Jesus Christ, whose birthday we are celebrating, is known to many as the Lord of Earth, to many others He is the Lord of Life, and to all He is the Christ in Christmas.

God's Word says, "The Earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof." Let us be thankful this Christmas season for health, happiness, the joy of having loved ones at home, and for this 1971 joyous Yuletide season.

May each of you who are reading these words realize that all we have and all we hope to have is due to the bountiful blessings of Our Lord. Let us so realize then, and share our blessings with others.

Cotton Country:

(Cont. from Page 1, Sec. 1) A tie to friends and customers for their loyalty and support through the years. In doing this, they help us to publish our most beautiful edition of the year.

We ask you to take more than the usual amount of your time this week to enjoy the simple and meaningful messages of our merchants, then enjoy even more the Letters to Santa.

Our most unusual one, as in the past, is a letter written in braille from Master Bobby Druessedow Jr. In print, of course, you readers can't know that, but each letter is printed above the braille character, so that we may reprint it.

Notice, too, that he asks for a BB gun. I think Old Santa might pay special attention to this one, don't you?

I write this column on Saturday, Dec. 18, that ends my last week as interim editor, knowing full well that when Don takes over the reins here as editor Monday, Dec. 20, he will no longer allow me to indulge myself—and bore my readers with a column about him.

We sincerely hope, that after a proper amount of training and—Yes—mistakes, you can be proud of him, as your editor in this, YOUR family newspaper!

And, for the first time, we can truly say, "From the three of us, the Comedy family wishes to each of you a very Merry Christmas and the happiest of New Years!"

Haskell County History

60 YEARS AGO
(Dec. 16, 1911)

Women's Missionary Society cleared $40 in their dinner last week and we thank each one who so generously responded with donations.

Haskell is proud of her churches and schools. Not a town of this size in the state has better churches and schools. These two elements of higher civilization are the best assets in a community. Without them there would be few who would like to live in any community. What could be expected if we were wholly divested of the good influences of the church and school.

The new year will soon be here. Be sure to make resolutions for the new year that you can and mean to keep. No use to make them unless you mean to keep them.

It rained some Monday and rained hard all night Monday night and kept at it Tuesday. If the people will push the plow and harrow they can keep this moisture in the ground for next year's crop.

The fine rains that have fallen within the past few days practically assures this county a bottom season for next year's crop. Watch West Texas blossoms like a rose.

Mr. Paul Zahn, whose farm is ten miles north of town, was in a few days ago and in the course of a conversation with him we learned that he has several hives of bees, from three of which he recently took 252 pounds of honey, leaving in the hives plenty for the bees to live on until next season.

The Magazine Club met Saturday with Mrs. Rike as leader. Eleven members answered roll call on current events.

C. F. Lewellen left with his family for Temple this week, which place will be their future home.

40 YEARS AGO
(Dec. 24, 1931)

There will be a Christmas tree at the Baptist Church tonight for the benefit of the needy children of the city. In addition to the candy and fruit that will be distributed, a program will be rendered.

Members of the beginners department of the First Methodist Church are asked to all be present next Sunday morning. "Old Santa" will be there—a little late, but on account of bad weather he was unable to be there last Sunday.

There were 34,454 bales of cotton, counting round as half bales, ginned in Haskell county from the crop of 1931 prior to Dec. 1, 1931, as compared with 25,991 bales ginned to Dec. 1, 1930.

Miss Clara Cliff who is teaching school in Dallas is here to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Cliff.

The Center Point H. D. Club met with Mrs. Verlie Morgan Thursday of last week in an all day quilting and had a bountiful dinner.

Members of the Golf Widows Club were entertained last

Sr. Citizens

The Senior Citizens fellowship of Haskell met on Jan. 12, 1932, at a covered dish dinner meeting held at the home of Mrs. B. C. Hester.

Officers were: William D. Hester, president; Mrs. A. B. Hester, secretary; Mrs. B. C. Hester, treasurer.

Final Meeting Held For FHA In '71

Haskell High Future Homemakers met Monday, Dec. 13, in the Homemaking Cottage with president Betty Steele presiding. She and Pam Klose reported on their project of painting all the trash cans in the city in the school colors of black and gold, and said all but two cans had been painted, and the group still had to paint the 17's on all of them.

Magazine Club Enjoys Traditional Holiday Party, Elects 1972 Officers

Friday, Dec. 17, the Magazine Club had their special Christmas entertainment. Preceding the program Miss Nettie McCollum presided over the business session. She read the Christmas greeting from Mrs. A. J. Smith Jr. Mesquite District president. During the business the club voted on the Nominating Committee for the next year. The following were elected: Mrs. L. R. Burkett, Mrs. Gaines Post, Mrs. R. C. Couch Sr. The president appointed two members to the committee: Mrs. Wallace Cox, Sr. and Mrs. John Rike.

ed this thought, "sometimes there is no material gift to buy for someone, but what about some token of love; love itself and friendship, understanding, consideration, a helping hand, a smile and a prayer? These things can not be bought and they are the very thing people need. Christmas is not in the stores but in the hearts of people."

As director Mrs. Cox presented Miss Karen Pippin, who gave a number of Christmas songs. Some light in fancy and others of a spiritual theme. Miss Ellen Walling was accompanist for her. Karen concluded with Christmas carols and asked the club members to join her.

Mrs. John Rike closed the program with the beautiful prayer of St. Francis of Assisi, who expressed the truth of faith. The beautifully decorated refreshment table was literally loaded with goodies. Each member had brought her special recipe of cookies, cake, candy, pudding, nut breads, stuffed dates and cheese snacks. The hostesses, Mrs. L. R. Burkett, Mrs. Arlos Weaver and Mrs. R. L. Lemmon had decorated the table and the club room. They served hot coffee, too, a must to accompany such a feast. No doubt about it—club women are good cooks.

Party Held For Employees

The yearly Christmas party for all employees of Leisure Lodge was held Saturday night, Dec. 18, at the Nursing Home. Exchange of gifts, games, singing and refreshments were enjoyed by: Mr. and Mrs. De-waine Davis and Valarie and Jonathan, Mr. and Mrs. Kathy Horan, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stover, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Holiday Festivities Celebrates Yuletide

The Rainbow Sewing Club held their Christmas party in the home of Mrs. John Larned. Program was opened by singing Christmas carols, with Mrs. Faye Thompson at the piano. The Manger scene was portrayed by Ann Taylor as Mary; Mrs. Livengood, Joseph; the wise men, Flossie Rogers, Maggie Larned and Stella Josselet. The background reading, the second chapter of Luke, was done by Edna Fouts.

Former Haskellite Honored At Snyder

Darlene Abbott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Abbott, recently was chosen for the regional band for Class AAA schools and was selected to go to the area try-outs which will be held in Lubbock in January. Darlene plays the baritone saxophone. She is drum majorette of the black-and-gold Snyder band. She was also one of the students picked to play an instrument in the musical production entitled "Music Man."

Mrs. Wallace Cox, director for the afternoon, gave an inspiring talk on "What Christmas is all About." She said there is no doubt that it's the Christmas Season. Celebrating is in the air all around us. We can hear Christmas in the beat of Rudolph the Red-nosed Reindeer, in the Hallelujah chorus of Handel's Messiah. We see Christmas in the cookies spiced with orange rind and we can smell it in the tantalizing fragrance of pine and all the goodies simmering on the stove. Mrs. Cox asked the question, "What is Christmas Really?" We know it is a joyful time for children, for older people it is a time for memories of things past and imagining things to come. It is a time for gratitude, love and faith. The Christmas spirit gives strength to all, the annual rebirth brightens our appreciation of things we hold dear and inspires us anew to hold fast to one way of life and our trust in God.

Lubbock Rites Unite Powell, Owens

Vows were read Sunday afternoon, December 19, in the First United Methodist Church, Lubbock, Texas, uniting Anita Faye Powell and Robert Willis Owens. Dr. Paul M. Bumpers, pastor of the First United Methodist Church, Lubbock, performed the double ring ceremony before an altar flanked with poinsettias and Christmas greenery.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. M. Bass Powell of Lubbock, formerly of Haskell. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Owens of Dallas. Mr. Powell gave his daughter in marriage.

She wore a floor-length gown of bridal satin overlaid with re-embroidered lace. The diamond white gown features an empire waist, full sleeves of lace, with wide cuffs and a high collar edged in scalloped lace. The dress dips into a chapel length train.

Her fingertip length veil of re-embroidered lace fell from a cluster of matching lace flowers outlined with seed pearls. It was bordered with scalloped lace, creating a mantilla effect. The bride carried a cascade of white roses and orchids.

Mr. Larry Pittman of Kress, Texas, performed the solo: "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring." Organist was Mrs. Kenneth Lane of Haskell. Maid of honor was Miss Linda Powell, sister of the bride. The bridesmaids were Miss Betty Powell, sister of the bride, and Miss Jamie Griffith of Lubbock. The flower girl was Miss Linda Hancock, of Clinton, Oklahoma; she is the bride's cousin.

The bridal attendants wore identical floor-length gowns of emerald green crepe. The gowns were designed with fitted empire bodices and long full sleeves. A green sequined band formed the collar and outlined the high waist and neckline. The attendants wore flowered headpieces and carried a circlet featuring a large poinsettia.

Thomas Owens of Dallas served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Gary Anderson of Dallas and Rob Horton of Abilene. James Powell, brother of the bride, was candlelighter, and ushers were Ben Brower, Rich Lambert, and Ed Owens, all of Dallas.

The bride is a December graduate of Texas Tech University, where she is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma social sorority, the University Center Leadership Board, and Phi Upsilon Omicron honorary. She graduated from Haskell High School in 1968.

OLD-TIME GREETINGS

The wonderful old traditions call for people to gather together, to meet with their near and dear. As you and yours celebrate Christmas, we wish for you the true delights of the season.

To you at Christmastime,
and for the coming year —

May the road rise up to meet you.
May the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face,
the rains fall soft upon your fields,
and until we meet again
may God hold you in the palm of His hand.

Indians Play At K-City

Haskell High School eagers were in Knox City last weekend to compete in the Knox City tournament. Both the girls and boys first place trophies stayed in Knox City. Haskell did win three places on the all-tournament team. They were Jackie Young, Paula Middleton, and Mary Elliot. The boys lost their first game to O'Brien by the narrow margin of one point, 60-59. Frank Jircik paced the Indians with 22 points followed by Joe Kretschmer with 11. Jim Bob Mickler had 7 and Odell Riley 6.

The Indians then fell to Quannah in their second game by a score of 62-47. Jackie Young led in the Indian attempt with 17. Joe D. Mickler and Kretschmer both had 6 points. Jircik finished with 7.

The Maidens met O'Brien in their first contest and won 47-22. Mary Elliot and Terry Walton both had 14. Glenda Chapman had 9 and Pam Colbert had 6.

The girls then met Hamlin and defeated them 45-35. Walton led the Maidens with 20, followed by Elliot with 13 and Chapman, who had 9.

Special Aid For Vietnam Vets

The Veterans Administration plans special help for Vietnam veterans who draw unemployment compensation 13 weeks or longer.

Jack Coker, Director of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Waco, said that a plan worked out with the Department of Labor provides that state employment security agencies give VA names, addresses, telephone, social security and service serial numbers of the unemployed veterans.

Coker explained that VA, through its 72 Veterans Assistance Centers and other facilities, then makes several contacts with the veteran to interest him in going to school or taking on-the-job training (OJT) under the GI Bill.

The agency has been promoting education and OJT for some time as one means of reducing unemployment among Vietnam veterans. However, Coker pointed out, this latest plan enables VA to more effectively identify veterans, especially the disadvantaged, who are in need of jobs.

Although finding jobs is not a primary responsibility of VA, the agency helps in any way it can, and is a leader in hiring veterans under the Veterans Readjustment Appointment Authority. VA has hired 5,000 veterans since 1968.

Other job-assisting activities are carried out through the agency's "Outreach Program," with job marts, job banks, job counseling, job interview classes and cooperation with the President's National Committee on Jobs for Veterans.

Call IRS For Technical Help

(Dallas, Texas) — Technical assistance on the President's economic stabilization program is as near as your telephone, according to Ellis Campbell, Jr., IRS District Director for North Texas.

If you have called and were delayed or couldn't get through, it was because of the great number of telephone inquiries being received daily at IRS offices throughout North Texas.

Mr. Campbell explained that since taking over responsibility for the field operations of the President's economic stabilization program, the IRS has been answering hundreds of calls daily. Mr. Campbell said that economic stabilization personnel are available to answer your questions on the current controls from 8:00 a. m. to 4:30 p. m., Monday through Friday.

In addition to giving advice on the economic controls, the IRS is also processing requests for exemption and exception from the stabilization guidelines.

An exemption is a general waiver of the controls for certain classes of property, services or economic transactions. An exception is a waiver, in a particular case, of the application of the requirements of any regulations under the Economic Stabilization Act of 1970. The Director stated that: "If a citizen feels that the economic controls should not apply to him because they would cause a severe hardship or gross inequity, he should apply for an exception. This can be done by submitting a written request to the Director of Internal Revenue for the Dallas District. Mail the request to 1100 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas 75202."

The request must state the reason an exception is being applied for. It should contain sufficient information to establish that the current application of economic control to your case would result in a serious hardship or gross inequity.

Mr. Campbell stated that the citizen must also establish to the satisfaction of the Commission or Board that the request for exception is not part of a plan to avoid the purposes of the Economic Stabilization Act of 1970, as amended during the past and present period of economic control.

After being checked by the District IRS office, your request will be forwarded to the appropriate economic stabilization office in Washington.

A THOUGHT FOR CHRISTMAS

come to another time, another on, a time when man comes a bit nearer being what God intended him to be. Nearly two thousand years ago a Child was born in a pure village near Jerusalem. Little known about Him as He grew to manhood. At the age of thirty He became a Preacher. His was a new concept of religion. He preached love. He died for love and He died for love of mankind. And so as we celebrate Christmas, whatever our faith, whatever we believe, we must know He is our greatest hope in a much-troubled world. We better believe it!

RULE ROUNDUP

Mrs. Oleta Cornelius, Reporter — Phone 2406

FIRE DESTROYS HOME
The farm home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. (Cooter) Boles, 10 miles northwest of Rule, was destroyed by fire last Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 15, around 4:30 p. m. No one was injured in the blaze, but all of the family's household furnishings — clothes, furniture, food, and their '69 Ford car and '63 Dodge pickup were destroyed by the fire, of undetermined origin. Mrs. Boles was Christmas shopping and Mr. Boles was working away from the house. The fire was spotted by plane and the pilot landed near the residence of C. T. Pierce and the fire alarm was turned in to Rule and Aspermont. Both fire trucks answered the call but the house was totally destroyed. The house was owned by Roy Butler of Bonarton and Mr. and Mrs. Boles and family had lived there about 18 years. A drive is underway to assist the Boles. Persons wishing to contribute cash or goods may leave them in Old Glory with Lisbon Letz, postmaster; at George Rhoades Grocery Store or at Jimmy Johnson's Service Station.

In Rule, contributions may be left with Sonny Pittecock, and in Aspermont, with any member of the fire department. Also, the minister of Sweet Home Baptist Church in Rule, Jack Key of Abilene will accept donations.

Living in the home with Mr. and Mrs. Boles at the present time are two of their children, Ricky and Cynthia, an Old Glory senior. The Boles have three other children: Mrs. Sam (Mary Lynn) Houston of Abilene, Donald of Arlington and Francell of Lubbock. They are presently staying with the C. T. Pierce family of Old Glory.

WCS LUNCHEON
The WCS of the First United Methodist Church of Rule met in the home of Mrs. Rex Murray for their annual Christmas Luncheon, Tuesday, Dec. 14, at 10:30 a. m. Meeting in Mrs. Murray's home at this time is a tradition that originated with her mother, the late Mrs. G. E. (Honey) Davis, and has continued for 28 years.

Mrs. Olin Macon presented the program, opening with the singing of Silent Night, followed with the scripture from Luke 2:8-20. Away In A Manger was sung next and the story. How the Shepherds Felt, was read by Mrs. Macon. Mrs. O. G. Lewis led in prayer. Christmas Carols were sung by the group and Mrs. Macon closed the program with prayer. The group was then asked to tell of their plans for the holidays and about Christmases past and special remembrances of certain Christmases.

Gifts for the State Hospital at Vernon were brought by the members.

Following a salad luncheon, gifts were exchanged from under the Christmas tree and Mrs. J. N. Cornelius, WCS president, was presented a gift.

In special recognition, Mrs. Herbert Rinn and Mrs. Tom Kutch awarded Special memberships. This is a plan of the WCS for developing interest in and giving to missions, honoring one who is deemed worthy of recognition for their service to the society. A certificate and small gold pin is awarded the individual and $25 is sent to missions in their honor. This is the first time two pins have been awarded at the same time. Sixteen attended.

It belonged to Mrs. Cole's Sunday School teacher and was given to her after she had died. It is over 30 years old. Another antique was the hand made crocheted ecru tablecloth, made by the late Mrs. D. W. Cole. It covered the serving table over red felt, with a low Christmas centerpiece.

The group told of their plans for the holidays and enjoyed singing Christmas songs and carols. Fourteen members attended.

SAGERTON NEWS

MRS. DELBERT LEFEVRE

The L.O.C. Home Demonstration Club members entertained their families and guests and two new club members Monday, Dec. 13, at the Sagerton Community Center with a big turkey dinner and all the trimmings. Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Elliott of Haskell, and the two new members are Mrs. Clancey Lehmann and Mrs. Herbert Lammert. Mr. and Mrs. Lammert were not able to attend.

Secret pals were revealed and new ones drawn for next year, and games were played by all.

Several members also attended the H. D. Council Christmas luncheon and party at Haskell on December 15.

In the absence of their pastor, Bro. Walker, the Sagerton Methodist Church had Bro. Aubrey Headstream of Haskell as their speaker last Sunday morning.

The home of Mrs. Ewell Kittley was the scene of the annual Christmas Party of the Stitch and Chatter Club ladies Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 15. All the members except one, Mrs. J. W. Threet, were present. She was with her husband who is ill in a Houston hospital. Special guests were Mrs. J. C. Davis Sr. and Mrs. Wheeler of Rule.

Mrs. Jack Kittley read the Christmas scripture and Mrs. Faye Gibson led in a prayer. Secret pals were revealed by the gifts from the tree, and refreshments were served to:

Mrs. John Clark, Mrs. R. N. Shid, Mrs. Cliff LeFevre, Mrs. Will Stegemoeller, Mrs. G. A. Leah, Mrs. M. Y. Benton, Mrs. Harvie Jordan, Mrs. Faye Gibson, Mrs. Pete Kitley, Mrs. Jack Kitley, the guests and the hostess.

Jay and Susan Swofford, children of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Swofford, are in bed with the mumps. Luckily they both took them at the same time, so maybe they will both be able to enjoy Christmas.

College students are coming in for the holidays even before the local schools are out. Some of them are: Clayton Stegemoeller from Texas Tech, Kent LeFevre from McMurry, Roy Nierdieck from Texas Tech, and Peggy Clark from Concordia at Austin. Rebecca Letz, who attends Nursing School at Hendricks Memorial Hospital in Abilene, was also home for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Clark have moved into their new red brick home in Sagerton (when we get the new street markers up that are being planned, I will be able to tell you what street it is on). We hope they do not find it too hard to get accustomed to the city life.

Kenneth Nienast, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Nienast, is home after completing his basic with the National Guard.

Special Christmas worship services at Faith Lutheran Church are: Wednesday 22nd, 7:30 p. m., Christmas program by the Sunday School. Friday, 24th, 8 p. m., Christmas Eve Candlelight Service. Saturday, 25th, 10:30 a. m., Christmas Day Service with Holy Communion. Sunday, 26th, 10:30 regular service. You will be welcome at any of these services.

The Sunday morning service next Sunday, Dec. 26, at the Sagerton United Methodist Church has been cancelled due to the illness of Pastor Walker. He is still very ill with a bad throat.

With the sunshine now as of Monday, the farmers are making preparations to get in the fields as soon as they are dry enough. However, the Sagerton Gin has been going just about every day with cotton coming in from the West. As of Monday, 187 bales had been ginned.

Mrs. Lois Young got a fine 9-point buck last weekend down near Junction. It was her second this season. Her husband has yet to get one.
