Haskell Country Being Advertised

The attention of this writer was a few days since directed to a large circular gotten out by a realty firm of Central Texas, advertising Haskell and elaborating upon the county's great crop prospects and possibilities. The firm in question has a list of Haskell County lands for sale, and the advertising that will result from their sending out of this circular will do much good for this section. In the circular appear several clippings from the Free Press, among which was an article by Judge P. D. Sanders.

The outlook here at this time is very encouraging, and doubtless Haskell and Haskell County generally, will be in better condition this fall, after all crops are in, than was ever before known. The grain crop has been a wonder, and really tested out much heavier than was anticipated. Last year's grain attained a splendid growth as to height, but the grain was much lighter than has been the case this season.

It is our prediction that there is going to be much activity in the sale of farm lands here in the next few months, and we believe that the population of the town and county will be largely augmented.

DEATH AND FUNERAL OF THE FREE PRESS EDITOR

Oscar Martin, aged 55 years, died last Friday afternoon, the end coming very suddenly. Mr. Martin had been having attacks of heart trouble for some time, but no one realized that his condition was so serious, and he had been active, up and about, until within just a short time of his death. He had an attack of illness just before daylight Friday morning, but got up during the morning feeling better, and at noon he was up, eating his dinner with the family, and seemingly in the best of spirits. It was his desire to go up town shortly after the dinner hour Friday, but was prevailed upon by his wife to remain at home, at least till later in the afternoon, as it was so intensely warm on that day. He remained at home during the afternoon, and had been sleeping. There was no one in the room with him at the time he got up and fell dead, but it is thought that he had gotten up and started for a drink of water.

Oscar Martin was born September 14, 1860, in Monroe County, Georgia, moving to Texas Jan. 1, 1876. He first settled in Ellis County, moving to Haskell in the fall of 1884. Mr. Martin was one of the organizers of Haskell County and was first county attorney after the organization of the county. He continued in his profession, that of law practice, for a few years, and in 1886 established the Haskell Free Press. On November 5, 1891, Mr. Martin was married to Miss Anna Cather then of Brenham. To this union there were born four children, Jessie, Freddie, Willie Bee, and Velma Martin, Jessie (now Mrs. Elmer B. Woodward) and Velma Martin being the only surviving children. In addition to the widow and two children and one grand-son, Elmer B. Woodward, Jr., Mr. Martin is survived by his father, A. C. Martin, of Atlanta, Ga., and the following brothers and sisters: H. B. Martin, of Amarillo; R. E. Martin, of Fort Worth; Mrs. J. L. Jones, of Rule, and Mrs. J. F. Lockney of Dunken, New Mexico.

During the period that the Haskell Free Press has been in existence there has appeared write-ups in the paper first of the marriage of Mr. Martin, then the births of his children, and the death of two children; then the marriage of his daughter, Jessie nearly three years ago. Just two or three weeks ago there appeared the announcement in the Free Press of the birth of his first and only grandchild, and now it becomes our duty to announce the death of Editor Martin through his own paper.

Mr. Martin had lived in Haskell County continuously since 1884, and probably was known to every man, woman and child that has lived here for any length of time. He was a man that always had a kind and philosophical word for everyone, and was especially fond of talking to and encouraging young men and boys in the right way of living. That he was instrumental in causing many youths to turn from wayward ways to the path of uprightness and manliness has been numerous stated to this writer. In our opinion Mr. Martin had not an enemy anywhere that he was known. He was universally liked and loved by all who knew him.

The funeral service occurred Sunday afternoon at the Methodist Church, the service being conducted by Rev. Ed R. Wallace, who paid a very touching tribute to the departed one, and said many words of comfort to the grief-stricken family and relatives. Rev. J. D. White in a very touching manner sang "Asleep in Jesus." From the church the procession formed, and the remains were escorted to the last resting place by the Masonic Lodge, of which he had long been a member. The procession was perhaps one of the longest ever seen in Haskell, and bore testimony of the esteem in which Mr. Martin was held in the community he had so long called home. At the graveside the Masons had charge of the services, and the remains were interred with Masonic honors. It was a very impressive and touching funeral.

Oscar Martin has departed this life, but his deeds and memory will live as long as Haskell County exists. He will be missed, but never forgotten. We believe that Haskell and Haskell County is better from having known and lived with this good man.

Another Pioneer Departs This Life

Another Haskell County pioneer has gone to the country beyond, from which no traveler returneth. On Monday, July 12, Judge J. W. Evans, aged 81 years, passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. F. Miller, at Waxahachie. The funeral occurred here on Wednesday morning, immediately following the arrival of the 9 o'clock train. Haskell Masonic lodge had charge of the services and met the train in a body, conducting the remains to Willow Cemetery where interment was made with all the Masonic honors customary at such times.

The following relatives accompanied the remains here: Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Miller, of Waxahachie; Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Jackson, of Stamford, and Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Jackson and children of Stamford. S. A. Sauts, of Stamford, an old friend of the family, also accompanied the relatives. Mrs. Miller and Mrs. M. P. Jackson were daughters, while H. F. Jackson was a grandson of the deceased.

We understand that Judge Evans had made the request years ago that wherever he be that in case of his death F. G. Alexander of this city be notified and that his remains be sent to Haskell for burial. His wish in this matter was carried out. The death of Judge Evans following so close upon that of Editor Martin is regarded as somewhat of a coincidence, in that they were both pioneers here, coming here about the same time, both from Ellis County, and both were Masons for many years.

Coming to Haskell county in 1885, Judge Evans was well known

Orphan Boy Now Has Good Home

That Albert Morris, the orphaned boy who has been cared for by City Marshal Alex Edwards since his arrival in this city some time since, is now located in a good home will be pleasing to many who have seen the little fellow, and is especially gratifying to Mr. Edwards, who has taken a deep interest in his welfare. Mr. T. H. Hancock was the gentleman who took the boy, and that he will be well cared for goes without the saying.

The Haskell

Summer Normal

A representative of the Free Press on Wednesday morning called on Prof. H. H. Guice, Conductor of the Haskell Normal School, the sessions of which are being held in the building of the North Haskell School, or High School rather. We found many busy students at work, being engaged at this time in the final examinations for the first term. There was a general air of activity and energy apparent. The institution this year, under the able guidance of H. H. Guice, has been a success, and much good has been accomplished for the students present.

In the work of conducting the normal this session Mr. Guice has been very ably assisted by a corps of efficient teachers and educators. We doubt if there has been a more successful normal held in the State this season than was the Haskell institution, at least, insofar as efficient and consistent work upon the part of the faculty and students was concerned.

R. C. Couch, cashier of the Haskell National Bank, was a business visitor to Munday Wednesday.

OSCAR MARTIN

The hand that has for so many years guided the pen for the copy that has filled the editorial columns of the Free Press has been stilled in death. No more will the readers of the Free Press be able to turn to the editorial column and there find the philosophical sayings of this true philosopher, a man who, perhaps enjoyed life and the things it brought to him, more than most any man we ever knew. Oscar Martin will be missed; his place will never be filled by anyone upon this earth. Perhaps one of the most fitting tributes to his memory would be to repeat the saying last Saturday of a man who had known Mr. Martin for many years, which was, that the impet of his masterful brain had been everlastingly stamped upon Haskell County.

Starting the Free Press on January 1st, 1886, Oscar Martin had been through many squalls upon the sea of newspaperdom, but he ever arose to the occasion, and surmounted the obstacles often arising that would have baffled and confounded one less weak than he. He was always strong and cheerful, ever seeing the bright side of life, a man who literally worshipped his family and loved his friends and neighbors in a sincere manner. Another tribute to his memory that spoke more than any words could do, was that long procession which on Sunday followed his remains to the last resting place, and the throngs that filled the church for the last sad rites over all that remained mortal of Oscar Martin. There were many dimmed eyes as the throngs of friends, loved ones and neighbors paused before the casket for one last sad look into the face of this Haskell County Pioneer and Philosopher.

Oscar Martin has departed; no more will we have the benefit of his ever right and good counsel. But his deeds will live forever, and the impression he has left upon the Free Press will ever be an inspiration to exert the utmost effort upon his successors in the editorial work.

Statement Regarding Future of the Free Press

I take this method of announcing to the friends and patrons of the Free Press that the paper will be continued, with Mrs. Oscar Martin as publisher. At the request of Mrs. Martin and the brothers and other relatives of the deceased editor, I have taken charge of the paper as editor and manager. Allow me to here say that it will be the earnest effort and intention of both Mrs. Martin and myself to continue the paper along lines as those of Mr. Martin; the policies of the paper will remain as near to those of Mr. Martin as will be possible for us to maintain, and we will, to the best of our ability, maintain the paper up to the high standard and ideals of the departed editor.

In taking over the Free Press management I do so almost with awe, fully realizing the great responsibility which I have undertaken, and I earnestly call upon the people of the community to co-operate with me in continuing the Free Press as a successful paper, one that the deceased editor would be proud of were he here to voice his sentiments. I take charge with the full and earnest intention of bending my every effort toward the goal of success for the Haskell Free Press, perhaps one of the oldest newspapers in Western Texas, and believe that the good people of the entire community will bear with me in what at first will doubtless appear to those used to reading after the versatile pen of Mr. Oscar Martin, weak efforts in comparison. However, I have had a great deal of newspaper experience and hope to meet the requirements of this town and county in the newspaper field.

Now, in closing this, allow me to express my hearty appreciation to all those friends and patrons of the Free Press who have so loyally come forward and expressed their intention of co-operating with Mrs. Martin and myself in the future conduct of the paper; also, to personally express my sincere and heartfelt thanks to all who were so kind and sympathetic to the family in the hour of our great loss and bereavement.

Sincerely,
Elmer B. Woodward.

To My Friends and the Friends and Patrons of the Free Press:

I wish to bespeak for Mr. Woodward a bright future in the new duties he has assumed, as manager and editor of the Free Press. I have heard so many expressions of commendation and faith in his ability and fitness for conducting the same, that I am constrained to write this article without his knowledge or consent, and assure him of my faith and the faith of my patrons, as well as that of the entire community, in his fitness for assuming the responsibilities of editing and managing the Free Press, which I believe will be conducted under the same policies and high moral standard that has characterized the Free Press for its almost thirty years of useful and checkered existence. It has always stood for the highest tone of morals in the community, and I feel confident it will continue to do so under Mr. Woodward's management. To my certain knowledge it's integrity has never been assailed, nor has it's usefulness in the community ever waned, and I unhesitatingly bespeak for it the same high moral and useful existence in the future that it has had in the past.

And now, on behalf of my brothers, myself, sisters and other relatives I wish to thank the entire community for the many kindnesses shown our dear, deceased brother, and ask that the same kindnesses and moral and financial support be extended to Mrs. Oscar Martin and Mr. Elmer B. Woodward in the future conduct of the paper.

Yours truly,
Herbert Bee Martin.

We Are Grateful to H. B. Martin

H. B. Martin of Amarillo, was here to attend the funeral of his deceased brother, Mr. Oscar Martin, and he very generously and kindly remained over a few days this week, assisting the management every way possible. Mr. Martin conducts a printing business at Amarillo, and his remaining over was a great help to the force in the office. In staying here for the length of time he did, Mr. Martin did so at a sacrifice, as he was needed at home to look after his own business affairs. He has shown a splendid spirit of loyalty and co-operation to the Free Press management, and we are indeed grateful to him. Mr. Martin was for a long time a resident of this city, and during his stay here many of his old friends and acquaintances met and talked with him.

Card of Thanks

Permit us through these columns, in our feeble way, to express our heartfelt thanks to everyone who has been so good and kind to us in our great hour of trial, in the loss of husband and father. Everyone in Haskell and surrounding country has been so dear and kind that our hearts are filled to overflowing with gratitude to all. We desire to especially thank all who sent the many beautiful flowers, the Masonic Fraternity, the physicians who so loyally responded and did all in their power for our loved one; to Rev. Wallace for the tribute he paid during the last sad rites; to Rev. White for responding and so beautifully singing that lovely hymn, Asleep in Jesus. In fact, we wish to express our thanks to all who came to us in this great trial and rendered us every assistance and consolation, and when we say all, that includes everyone in Haskell, for it seemed that everyone in town, as well as a great many from the surrounding country came to us and offered kind words and assistance, all of which made the terrible grief easier to bear. That God's richest blessings may rest upon you, one and all, is our sincere prayer.

Mrs. Oscar Martin and Family.

Revival Meeting is Progressing Nicely

The Co-operative revival meeting at the Methodist Church began on time last Sunday, and steady progress is being made. In this meeting Rev. Wallace is doing the preaching, while Rev. White has in charge the singing services.

There has been much interest displayed in the services throughout the week, with a gradual increase in attendance at each service. The meeting will probably run for two weeks from the time of beginning, and we predict a successful revival. Services are being held twice daily, 10 a. m. and in the evening.

Notes of the Meeting

That is a splendid spirit of co-operation that exists between those two splendid men—Revs. Wallace and White.

Brother Wallace is doing some fine preaching, taking the place of an evangelist in these services.

The song services under the able leadership of Rev. White is one of the enjoyable features of the revival.

If you are not attending the meeting, you are missing great things, and we would suggest that you resolve right now to attend.

Where could a more splendid combination for a revival meeting be found than Jno. D. White and Ed. R. Wallace?

NOT ENOUGH CHILDREN

ever receive the prop. balance of food to sufficiently nourish both body and brain during the growing period when nature's demands are greater than in mature life. This is shown in so many pale faces, lean bodies, frequent colds, and lack of ambition. For all such children we say with unmistakable earnestness: They need Scott's Emulsion, and need it now. It possesses in concentrated form the very food elements to enrich their blood. It changes weakness to strength; it makes them sturdy and strong. No alcohol.

Looks Like Thaw Will Now be Free

New York, July 14—Twelve jurors this afternoon stated their belief that Harry K. Thaw, slayer of Stanford White, is now sane.

This was their "advice" to Justice Hendrick.

The court is expected to approve this finding.

Such a decision, however, will not operate at once to free Thaw. The state announced prior to submission of the case to the jury that if a decision favorable to Thaw was returned, an immediate appeal would be taken. He may be released, however, on bail.

Justice Hendrick probably will announce his decision in the case tomorrow.

As soon as the verdict was announced, Thaw arose from his seat and walked over to the jury box. He shook each juror by both hands and spoke to them individually, expressing his thanks. He was rather excited, but showed no signs of hysteria. He smiled and his whole demeanor was one of great joy.

Mad at Paint

25c a gallon for paint is about $2.50 on the average job, and lots of men waited last year for that but they didn't reckon; they got mad; wouldn't pay it.

There are times to get mad and refuse to pay; but when one's property needs protecting is no time to get mad and not paint.

Besides, it costs more to get mad and wait than to paint.

Getting mad doesn't do any good to your property; paint does it good by keeping out water; no water no rot; no paint, some water and rot; and a little rot is more than enough to make a man liberal towards his painter and paint.

Paint costs not a cent. All the paint in the world, so long as it keeps out water, costs not a cent, DEVCO

"In the summer of 1888 I had a very severe attack of cholera morbus. Two physicians worked over me from four a. m. to 6 p. m. without giving me any relief and then told me they did not expect me to live; that I had best telegraph for my family. Instead of doing so, I gave the hotel porter fifty cents and told him to buy me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoe Remedy, and take no substitute. I a double dose according to directions, and went to sleep after the second dose. At five o'clock the next morning I was called by my order and took a train for my next stopping point, a well man but feeling rather shaky from the severity of the attack," writes H. W. Ireland, Louisville, Ky. Obtainable everywhere.

Says Co-operation Farmers' Need

Hot Springs, Va., July 14—Discussing "the need of rural credits" before the National Fertilizer Association convention here to-day, Myron T. Herrick, former ambassador to France, urged as a remedy for whatever trouble exists in rural communities, the establishment of co-operative organization of farmers.

He asserted that no existing system owed its existence to the intervention of the government and that agricultural progress was not keeping pace with the expansion of industry and population. A co-operative system to be successful, according to Herrick, must be built up by the farmers themselves without outside assistance of any sort.

Mrs. Maynie Ray Howard and mother, Mrs. Bettie Ray, of Stamford, were here Sunday to attend the funeral of Mr. Martin.

Haskell People Come Out as Frankly Here as Elsewhere

Haskell people publicly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. This paper is publishing Haskell cases from week to week. It is the same everywhere. Home testimony in home papers. Doan's are praised in thirty thousand signed statements, published in 3000 communities. Haskell people are no exception. Here's a Haskell statement.

E. L. Frierson, telephone lineman, Haskell, says: "My kidneys were badly disordered and I had heard so much about Doan's Kidney Pills that I got a box from Jno. W. Pace & Co's Drug Store. The worst symptom of the trouble was pain in my back and my kidneys didn't act as they should. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me before I had used them long and I intend to continue taking them with increasing benefit.

Notice of Sheriff's

(Real Estate)
By virtue of an Order of Sale issued out of the Honorable District Court of Haskell County, on the 22nd day of June A. D. 1915, in the case of J. L. Holman, plaintiff, vs. E. D. Gardner, A. G. Fry, J. M. Thomas and C. H. Miller, defendants, No. 2299, and to me, as Sheriff, directed and delivered, I have levied upon this 23rd day of June, A. D. 1915, and will, between the hours of 10 o'clock a. m. and 4 o'clock p. m., on the first Tuesday in August, A. D. 1915, being the 3rd day of said month, at the court house door of said Haskell County, in the town of Haskell, proceed to sell at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash in hand, all the right, title and interest which E. D. Gardner, A. G. Fry, J. M. Thomas and C. H. Miller, had on the 23rd day of September A. D. 1907, or at any time thereafter, of, in and to the following described property, to-wit: All that certain lot or parcel of land situated in Haskell County, being 320 acres, the East one half of section 101, H. & T. C. R. R. Co., survey, in said Haskell County, Texas, and that said lien was created in favor of J. L. Holman, plaintiff herein, on the 23rd day of September 1907. Said land is situated about 12 miles northwest of the town of Haskell and is generally known as the E. D. Gardner farm. Said property being levied on as the property of E. D. Gardner, A. G. Fry, J. M. Thomas and C. H. Miller to satisfy a judgment amounting to $2913, in favor of J. L. Holman, plaintiff herein, and costs of suit.
Given under my hand this 7th day of July, A. D. 1915.
W. C. Allen,
Sheriff Haskell County, Texas.
By M. S. Edwards, Deputy.

Cloves Are Dried Buds

The buds of an East Indian tree are picked, dried and then graded according to the percentage of oil they contain—this oil is the source of the clove flavor.

But unless care is taken in grinding, even oily cloves lose much of their flavor. After grinding the cloves must be protected from evaporation by most careful packing.

You see then that it is not only pure cloves you must insist on, but selected cloves which have been handled through the best way to keep them full of the oil which flavors.

That's why we suggest that you insist on White Swan Cloves. Selected from the best grade, ground by our "cool" process to retain flavor and strength and packed in air-tight tins. Your grocer sells White Swan Cloves—the cost is a little more, but the economy is greater because a tin lasts longer.

The Three Blind Men and the Elephant

They were taken to "see" the elephant. The first one touched the trunk and said that the elephant was like a snake. The second one grasped a leg and said, "How like a tree!" The third passed his hand along the side of the huge beast and said, "Just like a wall." As is frequently the case, they didn't combine their knowledge.

Take three engineers and their lubricating problems. One has achieved perfect valve lubrication. Another has reduced wear and trouble on his guides. The third knows how to make gears last longer.

The combined knowledge of the three would increase the value of each one to himself, and to his employer. How can they exchange experiences?

By getting in touch with an organization which has worked out thousands of these lubricating problems. Such an organization is back of Texaco Lubricants. Unlimited experience in all parts of the country, plus the means for giving you the benefit of that experience, enables us to solve your particular lubricating problems.

On this basis we have built up an extensive, growing business in all classes of lubricants. The engineers who have benefited by our service cover the country, and embrace every industry—yours included.

Bills at Airdome Have Been Good

Patrons of the Photoplay Airdome have been treated to some excellent productions this week. Those who saw the five-part Mutual Masterpicture, "The Cup of Life," Tuesday night pronounced it one of the most interesting and compelling dramas ever witnessed. The story dealt with two sisters, poor and obscure, one of whom married an honest working man and raised a family to be proud of; who kept her self-respect and was happy in the love of her children and husband. The other sister had the same chance, but through circumstances arising met a number of wealthy clubmen, one of whom became interested in her and made her his mistress. She followed the "primrose path"—sweet while it lasts, but what a bitter ending.

"Who Pays?" came Wednesday night, being the eighth of this wonderful series and entitled, "Today and Tomorrow." A story dealing with the terrible evil of Procrastination. Do It Today; for although days pass, "Tomorrow" never comes. This episode did not fail to come up to the high standard that others have proven to be.

Pictures of this class cannot help but exert a tremendous influence for good over any community if followed closely and thought about.

The Management announces some splendid features for the near future. Among them being, "The Life of Billie Sunday," "President Wilson Reviewing the U. S. Navy" and "Ghosts," the picturized drama of Henrik Ibsen's famous novel.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy

This is a remedy that every family should be provided with and especially during the summer months. Think of the pain and suffering that must be endured when medicine must be sent for or before relief can be obtained. This remedy is thoroughly reliable. Ask anyone who has used it. Obtainable everywhere.

Delightful Swimming Party

On Wednesday evening there was a highly delightful swimming party given by Mrs. J. E. Bernard and Miss Very Neathery. The jolly participants of this of this affair motored out to the lake, where an evening of real pleasure was enjoyed, the amusements consisting of swimming, singing and eating. It was in the wee sma' hours that the large company of guests started for town and home, each expressing genuine pleasure at having been one of the participants in this splendid affair.

Socialist Encampment at Weinert

T. W. Fullbright called in at the Free Press office Wednesday afternoon and announced that the Socialist encampment will be held at Weinert July 29, 30 and 31st. At this encampment will appear Mrs. Kate Richards O'Hare, in the role of lecturer. She enjoys a wide reputation as a lecturer, and is now editor of the National Rip-saw. In addition to Mrs. O'Hare announcement is made that other popular speakers will address the people assembled daily. There will be many entertainment features, such as ferris wheels, merry-go-rounds, a brass band, several shows and many other attractions.

Restored to Good Health

"I was sick for four years with stomach trouble," writes Mrs. Otto Gans, Zanesville, Ohio. "I lost weight and felt so weak that I almost gave up hope of being cured. A friend told me about Chamberlain's Tablets, and since using two bottles of them I have been a well woman." Obtainable everywhere.

LIV-VER-LAX

All the Effectiveness, Not the Effect, of Calomel.

LIV-VER-LAX is one of the most important medical discoveries of recent years. For a long time medical experts, realizing the harmful effects of calomel, have been striving to find a liver cleanser that would be just as effective as calomel, and yet be absolutely harmless in its action. Recently this remedy was actually put forth by L. K. Grigsby, in his LIV-VER-LAX.

LIV-VER-LAX is a harmless vegetable compound, desinged solely for the treatment of liver complaints. The immediate favor it has met with in thousands of homes is proof positive of its real value.

If you feel worn out, tongue coated and skin sallow, don't delay until it becomes dangers, nip the trouble in the bud with LIV-VER-LAX. Insist on the genuine, bearing the signature and likewise of L. K. Grigsby, which is guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded. For sale by Corne Drug Store.

Two Busy Afternoons In the Mayor's Court

Tuesday afternoon, and again Wednesday afternoon, there was evidence of much bustle and activity in the vicinity of the mayor's office. And, there was sufficient cause therefor.

It seems that a night or two earlier, City Marshall Alex Edwards deducted the facts that a certain house in the city occupied by colored denizens, was being used for gaming purposes, and accordingly repaired to the house in question, taking a stand on the outside wherefrom he had a good view of the proceedings on the interior. Sure enough there was a full fledged card game in progress and the money was plainly visible. After enjoying watching the game for some time, the marshal caved in a door and flushed that game. There was a mad scramble for points of vantage upon the part of the gamblers—attempts made to hide under beds, behind trunks and chairs—all to no avail. The chief rounded up his quarry, four large, healthy looking colored "boys"—and started him a procession toward way, and soon had the quartet surely and securely tucked away in the city bastille.

Tuesday the gamblers when brought forth for trial, called for a trial by jury, which was granted, and in the absence of Mayor Cahill, "Judge" N. McNeill, who is the mayor pro tem., officiated as trial judge. Bruce W. Bryant was counsel for the defendants, and Judge Jas. P. Kinnard assisted City Attorney F. L. Daugherty in the prosecution. The trial in the first case resulted in an acquittal Tuesday, and the other three cases were continued until Wednesday afternoon. The first case for Wednesday resulted in a conviction of defendant, and a fine of $10.00 and costs was assessed. In the third case to be called the defendant entered a plea of guilty, and the fourth case was dismissed by agreement.

These cases created considerable interest and were warmly contested by both sides. There were many spectators present for the proceedings.

"The Iron with the Cool Top"

WE have just received a new shipment of these famous irons and invite your inspection of the same

Make Your Ironing Day one of Comfort Rather than Drudgery

Handy

Always ready for instant use; can be used wherever there is a light socket of proper voltage.

Time Saving

Iron always hot and ready; no waiting. Ironing finished a couple of hours earlier.

Cool

Allows you to iron on the porch, or in any comfortable place away from the heat of the stove.

Clean

Iron always clean from soot or smut; leaves clothes immaculately white.

Hottest at Tip

Most efficient for ironing plaits, folds and in and around the corners.

Economical

Uses current only while ironing, and then not all the time.

There are Many Other Good Points we might mention for the "Royal Rochester" but we prefer that you come in and allow us to demonstrate it's good points to you.

You Need a Tonic

There are times in every woman's life when she needs a tonic to help her over the hard places. When that time comes to you, you know what tonic to take—Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is composed of purely vegetable ingredients, which act gently, yet surely, on the weakened womanly organs, and helps build them back to strength and health. It has benefited thousands and thousands of weak, ailing women in its past half century of wonderful success, and it will do the same for you.

GARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Miss Amelia Wilson, R. F. D. No. 4, Alma, Ark., says: "I think Cardui is the greatest medicine on earth, for women. Before I began to take Cardui, I was so weak and nervous, and had such awful dizzy spells and a poor appetite. Now I feel as well and as strong as I ever did, and can eat most anything." Begin taking Cardui today. Sold by all dealers.

Has Helped Thousands.

News Notes From Rule.

(From the Review)

Miss Lula Mae Ramey of Haskell, was the charming guest of Miss Grace Moser this week.

Mrs. W. L. Scott and children returned Saturday from a five weeks visit to relatives at Howe, Sherman and Deason.

Tom Tarbet and family left Saturday for a visit to his brother Grover, at Weston in Collin county.

District Clerk, E. W. Loe, was in the city for a howdy visit with his many Rule friends on last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wall spent from Saturday till Monday evening visiting relatives in Haskell.

Our ever obliging county Clerk, R. R. English was over from Haskell on Thursday of last week to witness the ball game between Rule and Seymour.

Rev. Hinds and family of Post City, are here visiting the former's sister, Mrs. J. O. Haymes. Bro. Hinds is assisting in the meeting at the Methodist Church.

Author Baily and family, who moved to Waco about two years ago, moved back to Rule and the mollient breeze country this week. We extend to them a hearty return welcome.

The meeting at the Methodist Church began on last Friday night, and is progressing nicely. Rev. Hinds of Post City is assisting Bro. Haymes. It is hoped that great good will result from this meeting.

Col. Wm. A. Ernest, the able manager of the Rule Cotton Oil Co. is having the office at the mill enlarged, to give them more room in which to handle their fast increasing clerical work. This new addition is being constructed of plank.

Mayor Mason went over to Haskell Wednesday, he said, to see that Rube Brewer helped to build the Haskell ball team a high board fence so they could practice up a few days and maybe Rule would allow her knee breeches bunch to play them.

Rochester News Notes

Rural School Visitor to Speak Here Monday

The following letter from the State Department of Education at Austin, Texas, has been received by County Supt., T. C. Williams:

Dear Sir: I am sending Mr. L. L. Cunningham, Rural School Visitor from this Department, under the million dollar rural school aid law, to visit Haskell County Summer Normal Monday morning, July 19.

I will thank you to arrange a suitable and convenient time for him to address your teachers and other interested persons on this and other recent school legislation.

He will reach your city Monday morning, the 19th inst., and will be at your service while there.

Wishing you a successful normal, and with kindest regards, I am,

Sincerely,
W. F. Doughty
State Supt.

Arrangements have been made for Mr. Cunningham to make his address at the Court house at 2:20 p. m. Monday, July 19. The object and purpose of the Department in sending Mr. Cunningham is to explain the million dollar rural school aid law. Every school in the county should have a representative. Trustees are earnestly requested to attend the meeting. If you desire to know the details of the law and the possibilities of getting aid for your school, come out and get a full explanation of the law.

Neuralgia Pains Stopped

You don't need to suffer those agonizing nerve pains in the face, head, arm, shoulders, chest and back. Just apply a few drops of soothing Sloan's Liniment; lie quietly a few minutes. You will get such relief and comfort! Life and the world will look brighter. Get a bottle today. 3 ounces for 25c., at all druggists. Penetrates without rubbing.

Your Plowing Last Winter

These hot days are showing as surely as the sun shines how deep you plowed last winter and spring. The corn may look all right and grow nicely enough in the early spring and as long as the rains continue in abundance, but just as surely as hot days come in July the corn and kafir will show what sort of preparation of seed bed was made last fall and winter. Summer growing crops must have plenty of moisture. If it does not come from above it must come from below unless it has been stored in a well pulverized soil that will absorb it and hold it against the days of summer.

A look at your corn fields now and a knowledge of the sort of plowing was done, if indeed you did anything more than burst out the middles and use a disc harrow will convince you pretty quickly of one fact; and that is that at least 90 per cent of your fields must be plowed as deep as you can put the plow, and done, too, in time to catch the winter and spring rains and store it up for the day when it is needed.

Geo. P. Clayton, representing the Plainview Nursery Company, has been here for several days past. He stated to a Free Press representative that he had placed orders here for several hundred fruit and shade trees, plants, etc.

Vegetable Matter

It is highly desirable that there be enough organic matter in the soil to make it retain moisture, permit air to enter and accelerate cultivation. For this reason, corn land should have a growth of some kind if possible, so when the land is turned in the fall vegetable matter will be incorporated and humus provided.

Peas, as a rule, make the best companion crop, as they are more valuable as a summer cover crop than the non-legumes. Nevertheless, there are conditions under which peas do not thrive. Root-rot is detrimental to the growth of peas or soy beans and where land is very badly infested with this disease it might be best to plan some other crop for a summer cover.

In some localities rye is planted in the corn. The rye may be grazed if desired, but its best use is to provide vegetable matter. Rye is not very well suited to the hot days of summer, so if it is planted at all it should be planted late. But as rye grows best in the fall the land is seldom turned after it is planted in the corn till spring.

The difficulty of plowing a crop for vegetable matter in the soil is more easily solved when the corn is cut and put into the silo.

To Drive Out Malaria

And Build Up The System Take The Old Standard GROVE'S TASTELESS chill TONIC. You know what you are taking, as the formula is printed on every label, showing it is Quinine and Iron in a tasteless form. The Quinine drives out malaria, the Iron builds up the system. 50 cents

Ever Salivated by Calomel? Horrible!

Calomel is quicksilver and acts like dynamite on your liver

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into sour bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into the system.

When you feel bilious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel just remember that your druggist sells for 50c a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up and can not salivate.

Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tone straightens you right up and you feel great. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe.
